The Holy Bible

Urim Thummim Version

Defintive Edition

Translation by Dallas James

The Holy Bible

Urim Thummim Version

DEFINITIVE EDITION

52 Books · 32,455 Verses · Dominion Order

Translated from the Masoretic Text

Translation by

Dallas James

Hearts2Fathers Publishing

Royal Levitical Priesthood Ministry

2026

Copyright

© 2026 Dallas James

Hearts2Fathers Publishing

Royal Levitical Priesthood Ministry

All rights reserved.

The Dominion Order — This Bible is arranged in seven divisions: The Law · Prophets · The Writings · Pentateuch · General · Paul · Revelation. The Enochic witness (Enoch, 1 Enoch, Jubilees) is restored immediately after Genesis, following Dr. Ernest L. Martin's manuscript research. 52 books · 32,455 verses · Translated from the Masoretic Text.

THE LAW

Genesis

Chapter 1

In a beginning Elohim created the visible universe and the earth. And the earth became formless, and waste; and darkness was upon the surface of the sea. And the Spirit of Elohim hovered upon the surface of the waters. And Elohim spoke, saying, Let light exist: and there was light. And Elohim looked at the light and saw that it was good; and Elohim separated the light from the darkness. Elohim proclaimed the light Day, and the darkness Night. And the nightfall and the daybreak were the first day. Elohim spoke, saying, Let there be a solid surface among the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters. And Elohim fashioned the atmosphere, and separated the waters beneath from the waters above; and it was so. Elohim called the atmosphere Sky. And the nightfall and daybreak were the second day. Elohim spoke, saying, Let the waters under the atmosphere be collected together towards each locality, and let the dry land become visible; and it was so. And Elohim proclaimed the dry land Earth, and the collecting together of the waters he called Seas; and Elohim inspected and it was valuable in estimation.

Elohim spoke, saying, Let the earth grow green grass, the green plant producing seed, and the fruit tree producing fruit after its species, according to its kind; and it was firmly done. The earth grew green grass, and green plant producing seed after its species, and the tree producing fruit, after its seed-kind; and Elohim inspected and it was valuable in estimation. And the nightfall and the daybreak were the third day. Elohim spoke, saying, Let there be lights in the expanse of the cosmos to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs, sacred seasons, days, and years. And let them be for lights in the cosmos of the sky to shine light upon the earth; and it was firmly done. And Elohim made two intense lights: the larger sunlight to rule the day, and the lesser moonlight to rule the night; the stars He made too. Then Elohim employed them in the cosmos of heaven to shine light upon the earth, and to have dominion over the day and night, to separate the light from the darkness; and Elohim saw that it was excellent. And the sunset and the sunrise were the fourth day. Elohim spoke, saying, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the swarming things that have life, and flying creatures, that fly above the surface under the canopy [of water] in the skies. Elohim created great serpents, and every living creature that creeps and moves, which the waters teemed forth abundantly, after their species, and every winged flying creature after its species; and Elohim inspected and it was valuable in estimation. And Elohim blessed them, saying, Branch off, multiply, and fill the waters of the seas, and let flying creatures increase on earth. And the sunset and the sunrise were the fifth day. Elohim spoke, saying, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after their species, animals, and creeping things, and beasts of the earth after their species; and it was firmly done. And Elohim made the creatures of the earth after their species, and beasts after their species, and every thing that creeps upon the earth after their species; and Elohim inspected and it was valuable in estimation. Elohim spoke, saying, Let Us fashion man in Our image, and after Our likeness.

Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the flying creatures of the sky, and over the beasts, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth. So Elohim created man in His own image, in the image of Elohim was mankind created; male and female fashioned He them. And Elohim blessed them, and Elohim spoke to them, saying, Be fruitful and become many, and fill the earth and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the flying creatures of the sky, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.

Then Elohim spoke, saying, See, I have given you every green plant bearing seed, which is upon the surface of all the earth, and every tree, containing the produce of the tree bearing seed, to you it shall be for food.

Chapter 2

And to every beast of the earth, and to every flying creature of the sky, and to every thing that creeps upon the earth, where there is life, I have given every green plant for food; and thus it was done. Elohim inspected everything that He had accomplished, and behold, it was valuable in estimation. And the sunset and the sunrise were the sixth day. Thus the cosmos and the earth were completed, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day Elohim completed His work which He had fashioned, and He ceased working on the seventh day from all which He had done. And Elohim blessed the seventh day, and made it sacred, because on that day He had rested from all the work that He had fashioned. This is the birth of the cosmos and the earth when they were accomplished, in the day when YHWH Elohim fashioned the earth and cosmos, and every organism of the field before it existed in the soil, and every green plant of the field before it sprouted: for YHWH Elohim had not sent rain upon the earth, and there was no man to work the soil. Then there ascended a cloudiness from the earth, and watered the whole surface of the land.

YHWH Elohim fashioned man of the particles of the ground, and blew through his nostrils the breath (Neshama) of life; and man became a living creature. And YHWH Elohim planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He placed the man whom He had fashioned. And out of the ground made YHWH Elohim to sprout every tree that is desirable to the sight, and pleasant for food; the Tree of Life also in the middle of the garden, and the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and divided, and became four chief tributaries. The name of the first is Pison: which encircles the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. The gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the gemstone. The name of the second river is Gihon: which encircles the whole land of Ethiopia. The name of the third river is Hiddekel: which flows towards the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates. Then YHWH Elohim took away the man, and placed him in the Garden of Eden to work and guard the estate. And YHWH Elohim commanded the man, saying, every tree in the garden is consumable for food, except the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil.

You are commanded not to consume it, for in the time you consume of it, you will experience the death penalty. YHWH Elohim spoke, saying, It is not good that the man should exist alone so I will fashion him one who helps. And from the earth YHWH Elohim fashioned every living creature of the field, and every flying creature of the sky; and brought them to Adam to consider the names to give them, and however Adam named each living creature, so were they named. And Adam gave names to all animal life, and to the flying creatures of the sky, and to every living creature of the field; but for Adam there was not found one who helps. So YHWH Elohim caused a deep sleep to descend on Adam, and he slept:

Chapter 3

and He removed one of his ribs, and then closed up his flesh. The rib that YHWH Elohim had removed from man, from it He made a woman, and brought her to the man. And Adam said, This one is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: this one shall be named Woman, because she was taken out of Man. Then shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall join to the woman and they will become one flesh.

And both of them were naked, the man and woman, but felt no shame. Moreover the serpent was craftier than any of the living creatures of the land that YHWH Elohim had fashioned. And he spoke to the woman, saying, indeed has Elohim commanded, you shall not eat of every tree of the garden? The woman answered the serpent, We can eat the fruit of the trees in the garden, but the fruit of the tree that is in the center of the garden, Elohim has said, You shall not eat of it, nor shall you touch it, or beware that you will die. And the serpent replied to the woman, you shall not be put to death as the penalty. Because Elohim knows that in the day you eat of it, then your eyes will be opened, and you shall be as Elohim, knowing good and bad. And when the woman inspected the tree that it had good food, and was tantalizing to the eyes, a tree inclined to make one understand wisdom, she grabbed and ate the fruit, giving also to her husband; and he ate too. And both their eyes were opened, and they perceived their nakedness, and sewed fig leafage together, and made loin-coverings. Then they heard the sound of YHWH Elohim walking in the garden at the time of the winds of the day: and Adam and his woman hid themselves from the face of YHWH Elohim among the central trees of the garden. Then YHWH Elohim called to Adam saying, Where are you? And he answered, I heard Your voice in the garden and I was fearful, because of my nakedness, and I hid myself. And He replied, who revealed to you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree I commanded you not to feed from? And the man replied, the woman You bestowed to me, she gave me of the tree, and I did feed. Then YHWH Elohim spoke to the woman, saying, What have you done? And the woman answered, The serpent deceived me, and I did feed. YHWH Elohim spoke to the serpent, saying, Because you have done this, you are cursed of all the animals, and from all living things of the field; on your belly you shall move, and dry earth you shall feed on all the days of your life. And I will put hatred between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring, crushed shall be your head and crushed shall be his heel. Then to the woman He spoke, saying, I will greatly increase the pain of your pregnancy; in pain you shall engender children; and your needs will come from your husband, and he shall have dominion over you. Then to Adam He spoke, saying, Because you have listened to the voice of the woman, and have consumed of the tree which I commanded you saying, You shall not feed from it, cursed is the land, in hardship you shall feed from it all the days of your life. Thorns and thistles will it sprout forth to you; and you will eat the green plants from the field. In the sweat of your face shall you eat food, until you return to the ground; for out of it were you taken, for dry earth is your composition, and unto it you will return.

Chapter 4

Then Adam proclaimed his woman to be renamed Eve, because she was the mother of all living. For Adam and his woman renamed Eve, YHWH Elohim made garments of linen and animal hides, and dressed them. YHWH Elohim spoke, saying, Behold, the man is numbered as one of Us, to know good and bad. Now, fearing that he would stretch out his hand, to seize the Tree of Life to feed from it (and live for ages of time) , YHWH Elohim then sent him away from the Garden of Eden, to labor on the land from where he had been taken. So He expelled the man; and He settled him down east of the Garden of Eden and stationed Cherubim, and a flaming sword which transformed, guarding the road to the Tree of Life. And Adam sexually possessed the woman Eve; and she became pregnant, and gave birth to Cain, and said, I have obtained a male from YHWH. And she gave birth again to Abel his brother. Abel was a shepherd of flocks, but Cain was a farmer of the soil. And at the end of the season, Cain brought the produce of the soil as an offering to

YHWH. And Abel brought the firstborn of his flock, the valued and prized choice. YHWH had respect for Abel and his offering;

but to Cain and his offering He had no regard. Then Cain was very angry, and his face became cast down. And YHWH speaking to Cain said, Why are you angry? And why is your face cast down? If you do what is pleasing, will you not have your dignity? And if you do not do good, sin prostrates itself under your doorway. Sin craves to possess you, but you must master it. Cain spoke with much anger against his brother Abel in the field; Cain then rose against his brother Abel and killed him. Then YHWH spoke to Cain, saying, where is Abel your brother? And he replied, I do not know, Am I my brother's keeper? And He spoke, saying, What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries out to Me from the ground. And now are you cursed from the earth, which has opened her mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. When you work the ground, it shall not increase and produce to you her wealth. A fugitive and a wanderer shall you be on the earth. Cain replied to YHWH, My punishment is greater than I can bear. You have cast me out this day from Your presence on the earth, and from Your face shall I be hidden, and I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth; so then it will be that anyone who finds me will then kill me.

YHWH answered him, anyone killing Cain will have vengeance taken on him seven times. Then YHWH placed a distinguishing sign on Cain, unless anyone finding him should kill him. Then Cain departed from the presence of YHWH, and resided in the land of Nod, east of Eden. And Cain sexually possessed his woman, and she became pregnant, and gave birth to Enoch and he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son, Enoch. Then to Enoch was born Irad: and Irad engendered Mehujael and, Mehujael engendered Methusael and, Methusael engendered Lamech. Then Lamech acquired two women one was named Adah, and the other Zillah. Then Adah engendered Jabal, he was the father of those that abide in nomadic tents, and have livestock.

Chapter 5

His brother's name was Jubal, he was the father of all that skillfully handle the lyre and other musical instruments. Then Zillah engendered Tubal-cain: a teacher of all metal crafting in copper, bronze and iron. The sister of Tubal-cain was named Naamah. Lamech said to his women, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice, women of Lamech, listen to my speech, for I have killed a man to my wounding and a young man to my injury. If Cain shall be avenged seven times, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

Then Adam sexually possessed his woman again; and she engendered a son, and called his name Seth for she said, Elohim has appointed me another offspring instead of Abel, whom Cain had killed. And to Seth was born a son, and he called his name Enos. Then was a desecration made when they invoked the Name of YHWH. This is the book of the genealogy of Adam. In the day that Elohim created man, in the likeness of Elohim fashioned He him, male and female created He them, and blessed them, and proclaimed their name Adam, in the day of their creation. Adam lived 130 years, and engendered a son after his own likeness and image, calling his name Seth. The years of Adam after Seth was born were 800 years, and he engendered sons and daughters. And all the years that Adam lived were 930, and he died. Seth lived 105 years, and engendered Enos.

And Seth lived after he engendered Enos 807 years, and engendered more sons and daughters: All the years of Seth were 912, and he died. And Enos lived 90 years, and engendered Cainan. Enos lived after he engendered Cainan 815 years, and produced more sons and daughters. All the years of Enos were 905, and he died. Cainan lived 70 years, and engendered Mahalaleel. And Cainan lived after he engendered Mahalaleel 840 years, giving birth to more sons and daughters: All the years of Cainan were 910, and he died. Mahalaleel lived 65 years, and engendered Jared. And Mahalaleel lived after he gave birth to Jared 830 years, and engendered more sons and daughters:

All the years of Mahalaleel were 895: and he died. Jared lived 162 years, and he engendered Enoch. And Jared lived after he engendered Enoch 800 years, and produced more sons and daughters. All the years of Jared were 962: and he died. Enoch lived 65 years, and engendered Methuselah. And Enoch walked with Elohim, after he gave birth to Methuselah, 300 years, and engendered sons and daughters. All the years of Enoch were 365. And Enoch walked with Elohim: and disappeared, seeing how Elohim took him away. Methuselah lived 187 years, and engendered Lamech. And Methuselah lived after he gave birth to Lamech 782 years, and engendered more sons and daughters. All the years of Methuselah were 969, and he died.

Chapter 6

Lamech lived 182 years, and gave birth to a son. And he called his name Noah, saying, This same shall comfort us in the work and toil of our hands, because of the land YHWH has cursed.

Lamech lived after he gave birth to Noah 595 years, and engendered numerous sons and daughters. All the years of Lamech were 777 and he died. After Noah was 500 years old then Noah gave birth to Shem, Ham, and Japheth. When mankind increased and desecrated the surface of the land, and had daughters engendered, then the sons of the angels looked upon the daughters of mankind as being voluptuous; and acquired women of all they chose. YHWH spoke, saying, My Breath will not always plead with mankind, for he is flesh yet his lifetime will be 120 years. There were Nephilim in the land in those days; after the sons of the angels fell upon the daughters of mankind, and they engendered powerful ones, Age-Lasting mortal persons of great fame. The inspection of Elohim found the wickedness of man abounding in the land, and that every purpose of the devices in his inner being were persistently malignant. So it sorrowed YHWH that He had fashioned mankind on the land, and it grieved Him to His heart. Then YHWH spoke, saying, I will wipe out man whom I have fashioned from the face of the land, both man, animal, creeping organisms, and the flying creatures of the sky, for it sorrows Me that I have made them. But Noah found favor in the eyes of YHWH. This is the genealogy of Noah. Noah was a lawful man and wholesome in his generations, and Noah walked with Elohim. And Noah engendered three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. The land surface was in ruins before Elohim, and the whole earth was full of violence.

And Elohim inspected the land, and it was in ruins, for all human beings had ruined His course of life on earth. And Elohim spoke to Noah, saying, Doomsday for all human beings will come to pass before My presence; for the land is full of violence because of them. I shall destroy them and the land. Construct yourself an ark (vessel) of gopher wood, making rooms in the ark, using a pitch to seal it inside and out. You are to fashion this ark to be 450 feet long, 75 feet wide and 45 feet high. A porthole for light you shall make for the ark, and to 18 inches shall you finish it above; and for the opening of the ark on the side you shall put the lower, second, and third stories making it this way. Take note, I will fetch waters to flood the earth, and to destroy all human beings who have life-breath, in their residence under the skies. And as a result, everything in the land shall die. But with you I will establish My covenant, and you shall come into the ark; you, with your sons, and your woman, and your sons' women with you. And every living thing of all the animals, two of every kind you shall bring into the ark, to sustain alive both male and female with you. Of flying creatures after their species, and of animals after their species, of every creeping thing on the land after its species, two of every kind shall come to you, for sustaining them alive.

Chapter 7

Take for yourselves all food to be eaten, and you shall collect foodstuffs, and it will be food for yourselves, and those animals also. Noah did as Elohim commanded him, accomplishing his tasks. YHWH spoke to Noah, saying, you and all your house are to come into the ark, for you I have considered righteous before Me in this generation. Of all the clean animals you shall take seven pairs, male and female; and of animals that are not clean take two pairs, male and female. Regarding flying creatures of the sky take seven pairs, male and female, to keep offspring alive for the surface of all the land. Moreover in seven days I will cause it to rain on the land 40 days and 40 nights; and every living substance that I have fashioned will be exterminated from off the surface of the land. Noah did according to all that YHWH commanded him. And Noah was 600 years old when the floodwaters came upon the land. Then Noah entered the ark with his sons, and his woman, and his sons' women with him because of the floodwaters. Of clean and unclean animals, and of flying creatures, and of all things that move lightly on the land, pairs of them entered the ark with Noah, male and female, as Elohim had commanded Noah. And after seven days, floodwaters were upon the land.

In the 600th year, second month, on the 17th day of the month in Noah's life, this very day were all the springs of the great depths split open, and the windows of the sky canopy were let loose. And the rain flooded the land 40 days and 40 nights. On the same day entered Noah into the ark, with Shem, Ham, and Japheth, his sons, and Noah's woman with the three women of his sons also. They, and every living thing after their species, and all the animals after their species, and every creeping thing that moves upon the land after their species, and every flying creature after its species, all birds of every sort. They entered with Noah into the ark, two and two of all living things, that have the breath of living. And they went in, both male and female of all living things as Elohim had commanded, and YHWH shut up the ark. The flood was 40 days upon the land, and the waters increased, and lifted up the ark, and it rose above the land. And the waters prevailed, and multiplied exceedingly on the land, and the ark moved upon the surface of the violent waters. So the waters strengthened exceedingly on the land, and all the high mountains under the whole sky were covered.

Upwards of 20 feet did the waters overcome the mountains, and they were covered. All living things then died that moved on the earth: flying creatures, animals, and also the living vegetation, as well as every creeping thing that moves on the land, including all human beings. The totality of the living in whose nostrils flowed the breath of life, total genocide for those living on the dry land. And every living substance was exterminated from the surface of the land, both man, and animal, and the creeping things, and the flying creatures of the sky, and were destroyed from the land; and only Noah was left alive and those with him in the ark. Now the waters prevailed on the earth 150 days.

Chapter 8

Then Elohim remembered Noah, and the living things, and all the animals with him in the ark; and Elohim overflowed a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters abated. The springs of the deep places, and the windows of the sky were shut up. The rain was then restrained from falling from the skies. Then the waters turned back from off the earth, and departed after the end of 150 days, and were made lower. The ark settled itself down in the seventh month, 17th day, upon the mountains of Ararat.

The waters lowered continually until the 10th month. Then in the 10th month, 1st day, the tops of the mountains appeared. And it came to pass at the end of 40 days, that Noah opened the window of the ark he had made: Sending out a raven, which went about encircling, until the waters were dried up from off the land. Also he sent out a pigeon, to see if the waters were moved lower from off the surface of the land. But the pigeon found no resting place for the sole of its foot, and returned to him into the ark, because the waters still resided on the surface of all the land. He then reached out his hand and took the pigeon, and pulled it into the ark. Then he anxiously awaited another seven days, and again he sent out the pigeon from the ark. The pigeon came back to him in the evening, and lo, in its mouth an olive leaf freshly picked! So Noah knew that the waters had lowered from off the land. He waited another seven days, and sent out the pigeon again and it did not return to him. And it came to pass in year 601, the 1st month and 1st day, the waters dried up from off the earth; and Noah removed the covering from the ark, and looking saw that the surface of the land was dry. The land had dried up in the second month on the 27th day. And Elohim spoke to Noah saying, Leave the ark, you, and your woman, and your sons, and your sons' women with you. Bring out with you every living thing, the animals, the flying creatures, and the livestock, and all the creeping things that move upon the land; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, increasing and multiplying on the land. And Noah went out with his sons, and his woman, and his sons' women with him. Every living thing, every creeping thing, and every flying creature, and anything that moves on the land, after their species, went out from the ark. And Noah built an altar to YHWH, and took of every clean animal, and of every clean flying creature, and offered Burnt-Offerings on the altar. YHWH smelled a sweet aroma, and YHWH uttered from His heart, I will never again make despicable the land again on man's account for the devices of man's heart are bad from his childhood, neither will I repeat killing everything living as I have done. While the earth has days, sowing and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night shall not fail. Elohim blessed Noah and his sons, and spoke to them, saying, Branch off and become numerous, and fill up the land.

Chapter 9

And the fear and terror of you shall be on every living thing of the land, and on every flying creature of the sky, on all that move upon the land, and on all the fish of the sea; into your hand are they bestowed. Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you, even as the green plants have I given you all things. But flesh with life in it, being the blood of it, you will not eat.

And indeed the blood of your life will I seek; at the side of every living thing will I seek it, and at the side of man; at the side of every man's brother will I seek the life of man. Anyone who spills the blood of man, by man will his blood be spilled: for in the image of Elohim man was fashioned. Now you, branch off, and become numerous by breeding on the land, and become great in it. Elohim spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, I establish My covenant with you, and your offspring after you; and with all living creatures with you, of the flying creatures, animals, living things of the land, to include everything going out from the ark, and every living thing of the land. And I will establish My covenant with you, never, shall all living things be destroyed by floodwaters, never will another flood, destroy the land. Then Elohim spoke, saying, This is the sign of the covenant that I make between Me and you, and all living creatures with you, for periods Age-Lasting. I do bestow My rainbow in the clouds, and it will be for a covenant sign between Me and the land. And it will happen that when I bring clouds over the land, that a rainbow shall be seen in the clouds: Then I will recall My covenant between Me and you, including all living creatures of flesh; floodwaters will no more destroy all the living things.

And the rainbow shall be in the clouds; and when I look at it, I will recall the Age-Lasting Covenant between Elohim and every living creature of all flesh residing on the land. Elohim spoke to Noah, saying, This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the land. Then the sons of Noah that went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of Canaan. These are the three sons of Noah: and from these, they scattered themselves over the whole land. And Noah, the man, first gathered grapes, and planted a vineyard: And he drank the wine, and became drunk; and he exposed his nakedness inside his tent. And Ham, the father of Canaan, looked at the nudity of his father, and told his two brothers outside. Shem and Japheth then took a garment and, laying it on each of their shoulders together, walked backwards, to cover the nudity of their father; and their faces were faced backwards and they did not see their father's nudity. After Noah awoke from his wine, he knew that his younger son had castrated him.

And he said, Cursed is Canaan; a slave of servants shall he be to his brothers. And he said, Blessed is YHWH Elohim of Shem; and Canaan shall be his slave. Elohim shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall reside in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his slave. And Noah lived after the flood 350 years. The sum of years for Noah's life were 950, and he died. Now these are the genealogies of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and to them were engendered sons after the flood. The sons of Japheth; Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, Tiras. The sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, Riphath, Togarmah. The sons of Javan; Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, Dodanim. By these were the regions of the Gentiles separated in their lands, according to their dialect, and their families within their respective nations.

Chapter 10

The sons of Ham; Cush, Mizraim, Phut, Canaan. The sons of Cush; Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, Sabtecha: and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, Dedan. And Cush engendered Nimrod: a mighty one who desecrated the land. He was a mighty hunter before YHWH, and it was said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before YHWH. The debut of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. From that land embarked Asshur who built Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah. And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city. Then Mizraim engendered Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, and Pathrusim, Casluhim, (out of whom came Philistine) and Caphtorim. Then Canaan engendered Sidon his firstborn, and Heth; and the Jebusite, Amorite, Girgasite;

and the Hivite, Arkite, Sinite; and the Arvadite, Zemarite, Hamathite: and afterward were the clans of the Canaanites spread abroad. The territory of Canaan reached from Sidon towards Gerar, as far as Gaza; and then towards Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha. These are the sons of Ham, according to their clans, and dialects, in the lands of their nations. Unto Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born. The children of Shem; Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, Aram. The children of Aram; Uz, Hul, Gether, Mash. Then Arphaxad engendered Salah; and Salah engendered Eber. Then to Eber were engendered two sons: the name of the firstborn was Peleg, (in his time the land was divided) ; and his brother's name was Joktan.

Then Joktan engendered Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, Obal, Abimael, Sheba, Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan. Their region was from Mesha, reaching to Sephar the hill country of the east. These are the sons of Shem, according to their clans, and dialects in the lands of their nations. These are the tribes of the sons of Noah, after their genealogies, according to their nationalities: and by these tribes the nations separated in the land after the flood. Now the whole land was of one language, and of one speech.

Chapter 11

In their journeys from the east, they found a level valley in the land of Shinar; and made a settlement there. Then they said to each other, Permit us to make white brick, and fire them thoroughly. They also had brick for stone, and putty for cement. Then they said, Come, let us establish a city and a tower, whose top may connect with the sky; and let us acquire a glory, unless we are dispersed again on the surface of the land. Then YHWH came down to see the city and the tower that the children of men constructed. And YHWH spoke, saying, Observe, this people are one, and they all share one language; and this desecration they commence, and now nothing will fence them in from what they have planned to do. Dispatch now, march down, and mix their language that they may not understand each other's speech. So YHWH dispersed them thither on the surface of the land, and they ceased the work of establishing the city. The name of it is called Babylon, because YHWH dispatched to mix the language of the land; and from then on YHWH dispersed them around the land's surface. This is the genealogy of Shem: Shem was 100 years old, and engendered Arphaxad two years after the flood: Shem lived, after he engendered Arphaxad, 500 years, and engendered sons and daughters. Arphaxad lived 35 years, and engendered Salah: and Arphaxad lived, after he engendered Salah, 403 years, and engendered sons and daughters. Salah lived to 30, and engendered Eber: and Salah lived, after he engendered Eber, 403 years, and engendered sons and daughters.

Eber lived 34 years, and engendered Peleg: and Eber lived, after he engendered Peleg, 430 years, and engendered sons and daughters. Peleg lived to 30, and engendered Reu: and Peleg lived, after he engendered Reu, 209 years, and engendered sons and daughters. Reu lived to 32, and engendered Serug: and Reu lived, after he engendered Serug, 207 years, and engendered sons and daughters. Serug lived to 30, and engendered Nahor: and Serug lived, after he engendered Nahor, 200 years, and engendered sons and daughters. Nahor lived 29 years, and engendered Terah: and Nahor lived, after he engendered Terah, 119 years, and engendered sons and daughters.

Terah lived 70 years, and engendered Abram, Nahor, and Haran. This is the genealogy of Terah: Terah engendered Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran engendered Lot. Haran died in the presence of his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldees. Then Abram and Nahor acquired themselves women, the name of Abram's woman was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's woman, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah. But Sarai, being sterile, had no children. Then Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's woman; and they departed with them from Ur of the Chaldeans, going into the land of Canaan; and came to Haran, and remained there. The years of Terah's life span were 205: and Terah died in Haran. Now YHWH had spoken to Abram, saying, Get yourself out of your land, and from your relatives, and from your father's house, to a land that I will show you. And I will produce of you a great nation; and I will bless you, and make your name magnified, and you shall be a blessing. I will bless them that bless you, and curse him who curses you:

Chapter 12

and in you shall all families of the entire inhabited earth be blessed. So Abram departed, as YHWH had spoken to him, and Lot went with him: and Abram was 75 years old when he departed out of Haran. Abram took Sarai his woman, and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions they had gathered with the people they had acquired in Haran; and they departed for the land of Canaan, and to the land of Canaan they arrived. Then Abram traversed the land to the region of Sichem, to the plain of Moreh. The Canaanite then occupied the land. YHWH appeared to Abram, and spoke, saying, To your offspring will I give this land: and there he built an altar to YHWH, who appeared to him. Then he proceeded on towards a mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he built another altar to YHWH, and called upon the Name of YHWH. After that Abram set out, and continued on towards the south. And there was a famine in the land; so Abram went down to Egypt to live there, because the famine was very oppressive in the land. Then it came about that when he was close to entering Egypt, that he said to Sarai his woman, Look here, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look at. And when the Egyptians shall see you, then they will say, This is his woman: and they will kill me, but they will save you alive. Speak, I urge you to be my sister, for the purpose that it may go well with me and you; for my life shall remain alive because of you.

When Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians saw the woman that she was very beautiful. The princes of Pharaoh saw her, praising her before Pharaoh: and she was taken to Pharaoh's house. And he treated Abram well because of her; and he had sheep, oxen, male and female donkeys, male and female slaves, and camels. But YHWH attacked Pharaoh and his house with intense disease (biological warfare) because of Sarai, Abram's woman. So Pharaoh summoned Abram, and asked, What have you done to me, and why did you not tell me she was your woman? Why did you say, She is my sister? I might have taken her to be my woman. Here then is your woman, take her and depart. Then Pharaoh gave orders to his men, saying, Send him and the woman away, with all that is his. So Abram left Egypt, he and his woman with all that he had, and Lot was with him, going to the region of southern Judah. Abram was very rich in cattle, silver, and gold; and he continued his journeys from the south, to Bethel, to the place where his tent had originally been, between Bethel and Hai.

Chapter 13

Traveling to the place of the altar, where he first made it: and there Abram called on the Name of YHWH. Lot, who also went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. The land was not able to sustain them, so they could stay together; for their possessions were exceeding, they simply could not live in the same place. Then there was a dispute between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. The Canaanite and the Perizzite also lived in the land. And Abram said to

Lot, Let there be no provocation between us, and between my herdsmen and yours, for we are brothers. The whole land is before you, right? I say let's part company; you, if you will take the left-handed way, then I will take the right-handed way, or if you turn to the right hand then I will turn left. Lot then raising his eyes, saw all the plain of the Jordan being irrigated everywhere, similar to the garden of YHWH, like the land of Egypt towards Zoar. This was before YHWH destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. Then Lot decided on all the plain of Jordan, and Lot departed eastward: and they separated themselves from one another. Abram remained in the land of Canaan; and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent as far as Sodom. The men of Sodom however were bad and sinful before YHWH exceedingly. Then YHWH said to Abram, after Lot was separated from him, Lift up your eyes now, and look from the place where you are northward, southward, eastward, and westward:

For all the land you are seeing will I give to you, and to your offspring for the ages. And I will make your offspring as the earth-dust, so that if a man can number the earth-dust, then shall your offspring also be numbered. Stand up and walk through the land from the length to the breadth of it, for I will give it to you. Then Abram unpitched his tent, and came to live in the plain of Mamre, being in Hebron, and built there an altar to YHWH. And it came abo ut that in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Gentiles, that these kings made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar. All these united together in the valley of the Siddim, which is the Dead Sea. They served Chedorlaomer twelve years, and in the 13th year they revolted.

Chapter 14

And in the 14th year came Chedorlaomer, with the kings that were with him, and struck the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaveh Kiriathaim, and the Horites in the hill country of Seir, to El-Paran, that is by the wilderness. Then they turned back, and came to En-Mishpat, which is Kadesh, and struck all the country of the Amalekites, and the Amorites, that dwelled in Hazezon-Tamar. Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is Zoar) came and joined battle with those in the valley of the Siddim; with Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings against five. But the valley of the Siddim was full of marshes; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah drove hastily and fell into them, and they that survived escaped to the mountains. Then they seized all the possessions of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their foodstuffs, and carried it away. And they captured Lot, Abram's brother's son, who lived in Sodom along with his possessions, and departed. A fugitive then came reporting these things to Abram the Hebrew. Now Abram was living near the great trees of Mamre the Amorite, a brother of Eshcol and Aner, all of whom were allied with Abram. When Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed 318 of his trained house-slaves, from his own home, and pursued them to Dan. He divided his forces against them at night, himself and his house-slaves killing them, and pursuing them to Hobah, located on the left side of Damascus. He returned all the possessions, and brought back his brother Lot, and his goods, with the women, and kinsmen. After Abram returned from slaughtering Chedorlaomer and the kings allied with him, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley). Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine:

and he was the priest of the Highest Elohim. And he blessed him, and spoke, saying, Blessed be Abram of the Highest Elohim, Creator of the cosmos and earth. And blessed be the Highest Elohim, Who has delivered your enemies into your hand. And he gave him tithes [a 10th] of all. The king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the people and take the possessions for yourself. But Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have raised up my hand to YHWH, the Highest Elohim, Creator of heaven and earth, that I will not take even a thread of a sandal, and will not take anything that is yours, so that you cannot declare, I made Abram to become wealthy. I will accept nothing but what my men have eaten, and the portion that belongs to the men who went with me to Aner, Eshcol and Mamre. Let them have their portion. Later the Word of YHWH came to Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not Abram, I am your shield and your exceedingly great reward. Then Abram replied, Adonai YHWH, what will You give me, seeing I have no children, and the one adopted servant of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?

And Abram said, To me You have given no offspring so the slave born in my house will be my heir.

Chapter 15

Then the Word of YHWH came to him, speaking, This one will not be your heir, but one shall come from your own inward parts [genetics or DNA] to be your heir. And He brought him outside, and declared, Now look towards the cosmos, and count the stars, if you are able to number them: and He said to him, So shall your offspring be. And he believed in YHWH, and that was reckoned to his account for righteousness. Then He spoke to him again, saying, I am YHWH that brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to entrust to you this land for your inheritance. And he replied, Adonai YHWH, how can I know that I will inherit this? And He spoke to him, saying, Take a three year old heifer, and a goat and a ram, all of the same age, along with a dove and a young pigeon. So he took to himself all of these, and cut them in two, laying each half opposite each other, but the birds were not cut in two. And when the vultures descended on the carcasses, Abram drove them away. When sunset came, a deep sleep fell upon Abram and then a dreadfully great darkness fell on him. And He spoke to Abram saying, Knowing, know that your offspring is a foreigner in a land not theirs, and they have served them, and they have afflicted them 400 years. And the nation [Egypt], whom they shall serve, I will judge and later they will come out [the Exodus] with great possessions.

And you shall go to your fathers in peace, you will be buried at a good old age. But in the fourth generation they will return again, for the depravity of the Amorites has not yet reached its completion. Then it came to pass at sunset, when it became dark, that a smoking fire-pot, and a burning torch passed between those pieces. In that same day YHWH made a covenant with Abram, saying, To your offspring have I given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates: The Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites, Hittites, Perizzites, Rephaims, Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites, and the Jebusites. Now Abram's woman Sarai engendered him no children, and she had an Egyptian handmaid whose name was Hagar. And Sarai said to Abram, Look now, YHWH has withheld me from giving birth. Go now to my slave girl that you may obtain children by her. Then Abram listened to the declaration of Sarai. And Sarai (Abram's woman) had acquired Hagar, her Egyptian slave girl, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to Abram (her man) to be his woman.

Chapter 16

And he came upon Hagar and she became pregnant; and when she saw her own pregnancy, she dishonored her mistress in her own eyes [view]. Then Sarai said to Abram, Let my injustice be on your shoulders, I have permitted my maid into your intimacy; and when she saw that she had become pregnant, she despised me in her eyes. YHWH judge between you and me. But Abram said to Sarai, Look, your slave girl is in your power to do what makes you happy. So when Sarai mishandled her, she ran away from her occupation. Then the Angel of YHWH found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur. And he said to Hagar, Sarai's slave girl, Where have you come from and where are you going? And she replied, I am running away from the presence of my mistress Sarai. Then the Angel of YHWH said to her, Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her authority. The Angel of YHWH also said to her, I will multiply your offspring exceedingly, that it cannot be numbered for its profusion.

The Angel of YHWH said to her, Look, you are with child and will engender a son, and shall call his name Ishmael because YHWH has heard your miseries. He will be an untamed donkey of a man; his power will oppose every man, and every man's hand will oppose him; and he will settle in the presence of all his relatives. And she called the name of YHWH who spoke to her, The Elohim of Vision: for she thought, I have openly seen Him who has revealed to me. As a result the spring was named Beer-lahai-roi; it lies between Kadesh and Bered. Then Hagar engendered Abram a son; and Abram called his son's name, which Hagar delivered, Ishmael. Abram was 86 years old when Hagar engendered Ishmael to Abram. And when Abram was 99 years old, YHWH appeared to Abram and spoke to him, saying, I am the Shaddai Elohim; walk before Me, and find yourself complete. And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will greatly multiply your numbers.

Chapter 17

Then Abram fell on his face, and Elohim talked with him saying,

Concerning My part, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. No longer will you be named Abram, but your new name will be Abraham, for a father of many nations have I ascribed you to be.

I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings shall go out from you. I will establish My covenant between Us, and your offspring after you in their generations for an Age-Lasting Covenant, being your Elohim and with your offspring that follow. I will give to you, and to your offspring after you, this land where you are now a foreigner, all the land of Canaan, for an Age-Lasting possession, and will be their Elohim. Elohim spoke to Abraham, saying, You will observe My covenant, both you, and your offspring after you in their generations. This is My covenant that you shall observe between Us and your offspring after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised. You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and it will be a sign of the covenant between Us. And the infant that is eight days old will be circumcised among you; every male in your generations, he that is born in your house, or purchased with money from any foreigner, who is not your offspring. He that is born in your house, and he that is purchased with your money, needs to be circumcised; and My covenant shall be in your flesh for an Age-Lasting Covenant. And the uncircumcised male whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that person shall be cut off from his people; for he has broken My covenant.

Elohim said to Abraham, As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah will now be her name. I will bless her, and give you a son from her; yes, I will bless and she shall be a mother of nations;

kings of nations will flow from her. Then Abraham fell on his face and laughing, said in his heart, shall a child be born to him that is 100 years old? And shall Sarah, who is 90 years old, engender children? Then Abraham said to Elohim, O that Ishmael might live and prosper before You! Elohim spoke, saying, Sarah your wife shall engender you a son for sure, and you will call his name Isaac; and I will establish My covenant with him for an Age-Lasting Covenant, and with his offspring too. As for Ishmael, I have listened to you: Look, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes will he engender, and I will make of him a great nation. But My covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall engender to you at this appointed time next year. So he finished talking with him, and Elohim withdrew from Abraham. And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were purchased with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in that same day, as Elohim had commanded him. Abraham was 99 years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

And Ishmael his son was 13 years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. On the exact same day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son. And all the men of his house, born in his house, and those purchased from foreigners with his money, were circumcised with him. YHWH appeared to him in the plains of Mamre, and he sat in the opening of the tent during the heat of the day. When he raised his eyes and looked, three men stood a short distance from him; and when he saw them he ran out to meet them from his tent's opening, and bowed himself towards the ground, And said, Adonai [Master], if I now have found acceptance in your sight, please do not alienate yourself from your slave:

Chapter 18

Draw a little water to be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under this tree. I will get a piece of bread to sustain your hearts; and afterwards you shall leave, but now you have traveled to your slave. And they replied, Do as you have spoken. So Abraham hurried into his tent to Sarah, saying, quickly make three quarts of fine flour, blend it and make pancakes. Then Abraham ran to the cattle and got a young animal, tender and good, and gave it to a young man and he hurried to prepare it.

He took butter and milk with the calf that he had prepared, and presented it to them; and he stood next to them under the tree and they ate. Then they said to him, Where is Sarah your wife? And he replied, See there, in the tent. Then He said, I will certainly return to you around this time next year and Sarah your woman will have a son. But Sarah was listening from inside the tent. Abraham and Sarah were old and well advanced in age and Sarah had gone through menopause. Sarah then laughed inside herself, saying, after I have gone through menopause, shall I have the delight of having children with my old husband? YHWH said to Abraham, How come Sarah laughed, saying, Shall I indeed engender a child being old? Is anything too hard for YHWH? At the set time I will return to you next year and Sarah will have a son. Sarah then denied it, claiming, I did not laugh, for she was afraid. But He replied, No, but you did laugh. Then the men got up and looked towards Sodom, and Abraham walked with them to send them on their way. And YHWH spoke, saying, Shall I conceal from Abraham what I am about to do, seeing that Abraham will certainly become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed through him? Because I know that he will command his children, and his descendants after him; and they will observe the way of YHWH, to do justice and judgment, that YHWH may bestow on Abraham the things He has spoken. Then YHWH said, Because the outcry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very burdensome, I will go down and inspect firsthand if they have done as their outcries have sounded, which has come to my knowledge. The men then turned away, and traveled towards Sodom; but Abraham still remained in the presence of YHWH. And Abraham approached close, and asked, Will you also destroy the righteous with the wicked? If there are 50 righteous within the city, will you destroy those 50 righteous that live there too? Far be it from you to do such a thing, to kill the righteous with the wicked so that the righteous suffer as the wicked. Will not the Judge of all the earth do right? Then YHWH answered, if I find within Sodom 50 righteous, then everyone will be spared for their sake. Abraham said, Look now, I have taken upon me to speak to Adonai; I, who am composed of nothing but dust and ashes. What if the number is five less than 50, will you destroy the whole city for the lack of five? And He replied, If I find there 45, I will not destroy it.

Then he spoke to Him again saying, what if there are 40? And He answered, I will not do it for those 40 people. And he said to Him, Please let not Adonai be angry and I will speak, what if there are 30 people. And He answered, I will not do it if I find 30 there. Then he said, See now, I have presumed to speak again to Adonai: what if 20 are found there? And He replied, I will not destroy it for those 20 people. Again he said, please be not angry Adonai, and I will speak only once more: what if only ten are found there? And He answered, I will not destroy it for those ten people. Then YHWH departed as soon as He had finished talking with Abraham; and Abraham returned home. Then two angels came to Sodom at sunset, and Lot was sitting in the public marketplace of the city; and when Lot saw them he stood up to meet them, bowing his face towards the ground. And he said, look now my masters, please turn to your slave's house, and lodge the night, wash your feet; and you can get up early and continue your journey. And they replied, No thanks, but we will lodge in the open plaza for the night. But he urged them exceedingly; and they gave in to his wishes, entering his home.

Chapter 19

And he made a banquet for them and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. But before they turned in for the night, the men of Sodom surrounded the house, both older men and young, all the people from every quarter. Then they called to Lot and said to him, where are the men that came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so we can have sex with them. But Lot went outside, closing the door behind him, and said, Please brothers, do not do such bad things.

Look here, I have two daughters who are virgins; let me bring them out to you instead, and you can have them as pleases your lustful sight; only do nothing to these men for they pass under the protection of my roof. But they replied, stand aside, repeating, this guy came here to live and he tries to dictate to us now? We will do worse to you, and with them. And they forcefully pushed Lot, and almost broke the door. But the men stretched out their hands, and brought Lot into the house with them, closing the door. Then they blighted the men at the door of the house with sudden blindness, both young and old, so that they tired themselves of trying to find the door. Then the men said to Lot, Is anyone else here besides yourself, such as son-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone belonging to you in this city? Bring them out of this place. For we will destroy this place; because the outcry of them has grown great before the presence of YHWH, and YHWH has sent us to destroy it. And Lot went out, speaking to his sons-in-law, who married his daughters, and said, get up and out of this place, because YHWH will destroy this city. But he seemed to them as one that jested to his in-laws. And when sunrise came the angels urged Lot, saying, Get up and take your woman and your two daughters who are here, lest you are consumed in the depravity of this city.

Then while he hesitated, the men grabbed his hand, and the hand of his woman, and two daughters; YHWH being merciful to him, and they brought them out and placed them outside the city. And after they had brought them outside the city he spoke, saying, Escape for your lives; do not look behind you, nor stay here in the plain; escape to the mountains, lest you are destroyed. But Lot said to them, no, please my masters; look here, your servant has found favor in your eyes, and you have magnified your kindness, which you have showed to me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountains lest some other distress overtakes me and I die. See here that city which is closer to flee to, it is a smaller one; oh, let me escape there and I will survive. Then he replied to him, Okay, I support you in this matter also; I will not overthrow this city, which you have spoken about. Hurry, and escape to that place, for I cannot do anything until you have arrived there. The name of that city was called Zoar. It was sunrise in the land when Lot arrived at Zoar. Then YHWH rained upon Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire. From out of the skies it came from YHWH, and he overthrew those cities and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of those cities, and everything that grew upon the land. But his woman looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. Abraham got up early at sunrise to the spot where he stood in the presence of YHWH; and he looked towards Sodom and Gomorrah, and towards all the land of the plain viewing it, and the smoke of the land ascended up as the smoke of a kiln.

So when Elohim destroyed the cities of the plain, then Elohim remembered Abraham, and sent Lot from the central vicinity of the overthrow, when he overturned those cities where Lot had lived. Then Lot left Zoar, living in the mountains with his two daughters because he was terrified to reside in Zoar; so he lived in a cave with his two daughters. Then the firstborn said to the younger, Our dad is old, and there are no men in the land to possess us for offspring in the whole earth. Come, let us make our dad drunk with wine, and we will have sex with him, so that we may sustain the offspring of our dad. And they made their dad drunk with wine that night, and the firstborn entered in and had sex with her dad; and he knew not when she laid down with him nor when she got up. Then the next day the firstborn said to the younger, See, I had sex last night with my dad; let us make him drunk again tonight too, and you go in and have sex with him, so that we may sustain the offspring of our dad. And they made their dad drunk with wine that night too; and the younger entered in, and had sex with him, and he knew not when she laid down with him nor when she got up. After this, both the daughters of Lot were pregnant by their dad.

The firstborn engendered a son and called his name Moab; the same is the father of the Moabites to this day. Then the younger also engendered a son, and called his name Benammi; the same is the father of the children of Ammon to this day. Abraham journeyed from there to the region of southern Judah, and lived between Kadesh and Shur, and lodged for a while in Gerar. And Abraham was saying about Sarah his woman, She is my sister; and Abimelech king of Gerar sent for Sarah, and took her. Then Elohim came to Abimelech in a night dream and said to him, You are a dead man, because the woman you have taken is another man's woman. But Abimelech had not approached her, and he replied, Adonai, will You kill also a lawful people? Did not he say to me, she is my sister?

Chapter 20

And she also said, he is my brother, so that in the integrity of my heart and purity of my hands I took this action. And Elohim replied to him in a dream, Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart, for I also restrained you from sinning against Me. For this reason, I prevented you from touching her. Restore now to the man his woman, because he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. And if you do not restore her, know that you will certainly die, you, and all that are yours.

Abimelech then rose early in the morning, and called all his slaves, and told all these things in their hearing: and the people were exceedingly fearful. Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, what have you done to us? For you to have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done things to me that should not be done. Then Abimelech said to Abraham, whatever was your reason for doing this? And Abraham replied, because I was thinking the fear of Elohim is not in this region, and they will kill me on account of my woman. But truly she is my sister. She is the daughter of my dad, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my woman. Then when Elohim made me wander from my dad's house, I said to her, this is a favor you can show to me; in all the regions we will enter, tell them, he is my brother. Then Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and also male and female slaves, and gave them to Abraham; and returned to him Sarah his woman. And Abimelech said, my land is before you, so live wherever it pleases you. Then to Sarah he said, I have given your brother 1000 pieces of silver to make amends to all those with you. So the right thing has been completely done. So Abraham prayed to Elohim; and Elohim healed Abimelech, and his woman, and his female slaves; and they engendered children. For YHWH had made barren all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's woman. Then YHWH attended to Sarah as he had spoken, and YHWH produced for Sarah as he had promised. For Sarah became pregnant and engendered Abraham a son in his old age, at the appointed time that Elohim had declared.

Abraham named his firstborn son Isaac, who Sarah had engendered. Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as Elohim had commanded him to do. Abraham was 100 years old when his son Isaac was born to him. And Sarah said, Elohim has made me a laughing stock, so when all hear of this they will jest with me. And she said, who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would be nursing children, for I have engendered him a son in his old age.

Chapter 21

The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a large banquet the very day that Isaac was weaned. Then Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, that she had engendered to Abraham, mocking. She then said to Abraham, drive out this female slave and her son: because the son of this female slave will not be heir with Isaac, my son. And her words were very disheartening in Abraham's eyes concerning his son. But Elohim said to Abraham, Let it not be disheartening in your eyes because of the boy, and because of your female slave.

In all that Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice, for in Isaac will your offspring be named. And also for the son of the female slave I will make a nation, because he is your offspring too. So Abraham got up early at sunrise, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it to

Hagar, putting it on her shoulder with the boy, and sent her away; and she departed and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba. And the water was consumed in the bottle, and she tossed the boy under one of the bushes. Then she walked on and sat down a little way off, about a bowshot, and said, let me not see the death of the boy. And she sat a distance away, and raised her voice and was weeping bitterly. But Elohim heard the cry of the boy, and the Angel of Elohim called to Hagar out of the skies, and spoke to her, saying, Hagar, do not be afraid, because Elohim has heard the crying of the boy where he is. Stand up, pick up the boy and hold him in your hand; for I will establish of him a great nation. Then Elohim opened her eyes, and she saw a spring of water; and she went and filled the water bottle, and gave the boy to drink. And Elohim was with the boy; and he grew and lived in the wilderness, and became an archer. He lived in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother obtained for him a woman from the land of Egypt. In that time Abimelech and Phichol, the chief captain of his host, spoke to Abraham saying, Elohim is with you in all that you do.

Pledge now to me here by Elohim that you will not play tricks with me, or with my son, nor with my son's son; but according to the kindness that I have done for you, likewise do for me and those living in the lands where you have traveled. And Abraham replied, I will pledge. Then Abraham rebuked Abimelech, because of a spring of water that Abimelech's slaves had violently stolen. But Abimelech replied, I do not know who has done this, because you have not told me, and I have heard nothing about it except now. Then Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and both of them carved out a treaty. Abraham set seven ewe lambs out from the flock by themselves. And Abimelech said to Abraham, these seven ewe lambs which you have set out separately, what is the meaning of this? And he replied, for these seven ewe lambs that you will take of my hand, will be a witness to me that I have dug this well. Then he called that place Beersheba, because there they pledged together and made a treaty at Beersheba. Then Abimelech got up, along with Phichol, the chief captain of his army, and they returned to the land of the Philistines. And Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and called on the Name of YHWH, the Age-Lasting Elohim.

And Abraham lived in the Philistines' land many days. Then after these things Elohim tested Abraham, and called to him, saying, Abraham: and he replied, Here I am. And He spoke, saying, Now take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and depart for the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a Burnt-Offering on one of the mountains which I will show you. So Abraham got up at sunrise and saddled his donkey, and took two young men with him, along with Isaac his son; he split the wood for the Burnt-Offering, and went to the place that Elohim had spoken of. Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the location in the distance. Then Abraham said to his slaves, Stay here with the donkey, and the boy and I will go over there to worship, and then will return to you. Abraham took the wood for the Burnt-Offering, and laid it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, with a knife, and they went out together. Then Isaac spoke to Abraham his dad, saying, my father! And he replied, here I am, my son. And he asked, how come the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a Burnt-Offering? And Abraham replied, my son, Elohim will Himself provide a lamb for a Burnt-Offering; so they continued on together. And they came to the place that Elohim had shown him; and Abraham built an altar, laying the wood in order; then bound Isaac his son and placed him on the altar topped with wood. Then Abraham stretched out his hand, taking the knife, to slaughter his son. But the Angel of YHWH called to him from the skies, and said, Abraham, Abraham! And he replied, Here I am. And He commanded, Lay not your hand on the boy, do nothing to him for now I know that you fear Elohim, seeing you have not spared your son, your only son, from Me. Then Abraham raised up his eyes and looked, and behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a Burnt-Offering in place of his son. And Abraham called the name of that place, YHWH-Sees; as it is told about to this day, in the mountain YHWH will be seen. Then the Angel of YHWH called to Abraham out of the skies a second time, and said, By Myself have I adjured, declares YHWH, for because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son; that in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your offspring as the stars of the cosmos, and as the sand on the seashore. And your offspring will possess the gate of their enemies. In your offspring will all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice. So Abraham returned to his slaves, and they got up and departed together to Beersheba; and Abraham resided at Beersheba.

Chapter 22

Later it was told to Abraham, that Milcah has also engendered children to your brother Nahor; Huz his firstborn, Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, and Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, Bethuel. Then Bethuel engendered Rebekah: these eight Milcah engendered to Nahor, Abraham's brother. And his concubine, named Reumah, also had sons Tebah, Gaham, Thahash, and Maachah. Sarah was 127 years old: which was her life span, and Sarah died in Kirjath-Arba, that is Hebron, in the land of Canaan; and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, shedding tears for her. Then Abraham stood up from before his dead woman, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying, I am a temporary resident and foreigner with you, grant me some property for a grave plot with you so that I may bury my dead from my sight. Then the children of Heth answered Abraham, and said to him, hear us, my master: you are a divine prince among us. Bury your dead in the best of our grave plots.

None of us will prevent you from burying your dead in the grave plot of your choice. Then Abraham stood up, bowing himself to the people of the land, who were the sons of Heth (Hittites)

Chapter 23

. And he talked with them, saying, if it is favorable to let me bury my dead from my sight, please intercede for me to Ephron the son of Zohar, that he may sell to me the cave of Machpelah, located at the end of his field, for as much money as it is worth. He can sell it to me for the property of a grave plot among you. And Ephron lived among the children of Heth: and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth, who had come to the city gate, saying, no, my master, listen to me: I give you this field with the cave that is there; I bestow it to you in the presence of the sons of my people, so go and bury your dead. Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land, and he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the local residents, saying, but if you will give it to me, hear this. I will give you money for the field, so please take it and I will bury my dead there. Then Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, my master, listen to me, the land is worth 400 shekels of silver so what is that between you and me? Go now and bury your dead. Then Abraham summoned Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver that he had declared in the hearing of the sons of Heth, 400 shekels of silver, which was the current monetary rate.

So the field of Ephron that was in Machpelah, which was near Mamre, the field including the cave, plus all the trees that were in the field bordering it, were legally deeded. This was deeded to Abraham as his property, in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that entered the city gate. Abraham then buried Sarah his wife in the cave at the field of Machpelah, before Mamre, the same is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. So the field and cave located there were legally established for Abraham as a graveyard by the sons of Heth. Now Abraham was old and well advanced in age, and YHWH had blessed Abraham in all things. Then Abraham said to his eldest slave in his household, the one that ruled over all that he had, put your hand under my thigh. I will make you pledge by YHWH, the Elohim of the cosmos, and Elohim of the land, that you shall not take a woman for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I reside. But you will go to my land, seeking my offspring, and acquire a woman for my son Isaac. Then the slave said to him, what if the woman is not willing to follow me to this land? Shall I then have to take your son back to the land you came from?

And Abraham replied to him, be careful you do not bring my son back to that land. YHWH Elohim of the cosmos, who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my offspring, spoke to me and pledged to me, saying, to your offspring I will give this land.

Chapter 24

He will send His angel before you, and you will acquire a woman for my son from there. But if the woman will not give consent to follow you, then you will be free from this oath; only do not take my son back there. Then the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and pledged to him concerning the matter. And the slave took ten of his master's camels and departed, for all the good gifts of his master were in his hand, and he got up and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor. Then he made his camels to kneel down outside the city by a spring of water at sunset, the time when women go out to draw water. And he prayed, O YHWH Elohim of my master Abraham, I pray to You, send me the encounter I shall meet this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. I stand here by the spring of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water. Let the young woman to whom I will say, let down your pitcher that I may drink; and she replies, drink, and I will give your camels drink too: let her be the one You have appointed for your servant Isaac. Then I will know that you have shown virtue to my master. Then before he had finished praying, Rebekah came out, who was engendered by Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, she came with her water jar on her shoulder.

And the young woman was very beautiful to gaze at, a virgin that no man had had sex with. So down she stepped to the spring, filling her water jar; but as she came up, the servant ran to meet her, saying, let me drink a little water from your pitcher. And she replied, drink my master: and she hurried and let down her water jar with her hands, and gave him a drink. Then when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, I will draw water for your camels too, until they finish drinking. So she hurried and emptied her water jar into the watering trough, and ran to the spring a second time, to draw water for all his camels. And the man observing her was silent, considering whether YHWH had made his journey prosperous or not. Once the camels had finished drinking, then the man took out a golden earring of half a shekel weight, and two hand bracelets of ten shekels weight of gold, and he asked, whose daughter are you? Tell me if there is room in your dad's house for us to lodge tonight? And she replied to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she engendered to Nahor. She also said to him, we have both straw and feed in abundance, and room for lodging. Then the man bowed down his head and worshiped YHWH. And he said, blessed be YHWH Elohim of my master Abraham, who has not neglected His kindness and faithfulness.

Yet as for myself, YHWH led me to the house of my master's relatives. Then the young woman ran and reported to her mother's house these words. Rebekah had a brother named Laban, and he ran out to the man at the spring. When he saw the earring and bracelets on his sister's hands, and when he heard the words that the man had spoken to his sister, then he went to the man who was standing with the camels at the spring. And he said, come in, you who are blessed of YHWH; why stand outside, since I have prepared the house and a stall for the camels. So the man came to the house, and he untied his camels giving them straw and feed, plus water for washing his feet, and for the men with him too. Then there was set food before him to eat, but he said, I will not eat until I have spoken my business. So he replied, go ahead and speak. And he answered, I am Abraham's slave. YHWH has blessed my master greatly, and he has become powerful; and has been given flocks, herds, silver, gold, male and female slaves, camels, and donkeys. And Sarah, my master's woman, engendered a son to my master in her old age, and to him has his estate been assigned.

And my master made me pledge, saying, you shall not take a woman to my son from the daughters of the Canaanites in whose lands I reside; but you shall go to my father's house, and to my own clan, and acquire a woman for my son. Then I said to my master, what if the woman will not follow me? And he replied to me, YHWH, in whose presence I walk, will send His angel with you and prosper your way; and you will acquire a woman for my son from my clan, and of my father's descendants. Then you will be free from this oath of mine, when you come to my clan; and if they do not give you a woman, you will be freed from the pledge. Then I came today to this spring, and prayed, YHWH Elohim of my master Abraham, if now You will prosper the way which I go, I now stand by this spring of water; and [may] it come to pass that when the virgin comes here to draw water, I will say to her, let down your pitcher that I may drink. And she replies, drink yourself and I will give your camels drink too. Let this same woman be the one who YHWH has appointed for my master's son. And before I had finished praying this in my mind, Rebekah came forward with her water jar on her shoulder; and she went down to the spring and drew water, and I said to her, Let me drink, please.

And she hurried, and let down her water jar from her shoulder and said, drink, and I will give your camels drink too; so I drank and she watered the camels too. Then I asked her saying, whose daughter are you? She then replied, the daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah engendered to him; and I put the earring on her face and the bracelets on her hands. Then I bowed down my head and worshiped YHWH, and blessed YHWH Elohim of my master Abraham, that had led me in the divinely instructed journey to acquire my master's brother's daughter for his son. So now if you will deal kindly and faithfully with my master, inform me one way or the other that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left. Then Laban and Bethuel answered, and said, these words come from YHWH, so we cannot speak to you this way or that. Rebekah is in your presence, so take her and go; and let her be your master's son's woman, as YHWH has spoken. When Abraham's slave heard their words, he worshiped YHWH, bowing himself to the ground. Then the slave brought out objects of silver, gold, and garments, giving them to Rebekah. He gave to her brother and to her mother costly presents also. Then they did eat and drink, he and the men with him and lodged the night; and they got up at sunrise and he said, now send me away to my master. But her brother and her mother replied, let the young woman stay with us at least ten days and then she can go. But he replied to them, do not delay me, seeing YHWH has prospered my way; send me away now that I may go to my master. Then they replied, we will call the young woman and ask her to speak.

So they called Rebekah, and asked her, will you go with this man? And she replied, I will go. So they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, with Abraham's slave and his men. And they blessed Rebekah, saying to her, you are our sister, so become the mother of thousands of ten thousands, and let your offspring dispossess the gate of the hating enemy. Then Rebekah got up with her female slave, and they rode by camel and followed the man; and the slave took Rebekah and departed on his way. Meanwhile Isaac had come from Lahai-roi, for he lived in southern Judah. Then Isaac came out to ponder things in the field at sunset, and he looked up and saw the camels were coming. And Rebekah with longing desire looked, and when she saw Isaac, she got off the camel. For she had said to the slave, who is that man walking in the field to meet us? And the slave replied it was the master. Then she took a veil, and concealed herself. Then the slave recounted to Isaac all the business that he had done. And Isaac brought her to his mother Sarah's tent, and he acquired Rebekah, and she became his woman; and he loved her, and Isaac was comforted following the death of his mother.

Then Abraham took another woman, and her name was Keturah. And she engendered him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, Shuah. And Jokshan engendered Sheba, and Dedan. The sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim. The sons of Midian: Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah. Then Abraham assigned all of his property to Isaac. But to the sons of the concubines which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son while he still lived, to the land of the East. The life span of Abraham that he lived was 175 years. Then Abraham expired and died in good old age, very satisfied; and was brought to his kinsmen for burial. And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the Hittite, the son of Zohar, which lies east of Mamre. The field that Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth, there Abraham was buried, and Sarah his woman. Then after the death of Abraham, Elohim blessed his son Isaac, and Isaac resided by the spring Lahai-roi. Now this is the genealogy of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's female slave engendered to Abraham.

Chapter 25

And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their genealogies:

the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadar, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their encampments: twelve princes according to their tribes. The lifetime of Ishmael was 137 years; he expired and died, and was brought to his kinsmen for burial. And they lived from Havilah to Shur, near Egypt, as you go towards Assyria, and he died in the presence of all his relatives. And this is the genealogy of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham engendered Isaac. And Isaac was 40 years old when he acquired Rebekah to be his woman, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the Syrian. And Isaac prayed to YHWH for his woman, because she was sterile; and YHWH heard his prayers, and Rebekah his woman became pregnant. And the children struggled inside her womb, and she said, why do these conditions prevail? And she went to consult YHWH.

Then YHWH spoke, saying, Two nations are in your womb, and two people will be separated from your womb; one people over the other will be stronger, and the strongest one will serve the younger. Then the time of birth came, and there were twins in her womb. And the first came out red looking, and his body looked like a hairy garment; so they called his name Esau. Then the brother came out, and his hand grabbed onto Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob (the heel holder), and Isaac was 60 years old when she engendered them. Then the boys grew: and Esau became an experienced hunter, a man of the field; while Jacob developed as a homely man, living in tents. Isaac was fond of Esau, because he ate his hunted game, but Rebekah was fond of Jacob. One day Jacob was boiling food when Esau came in from the field, and he was exhausted: So Esau said to Jacob, Let me devour some of those red lentils, for I am now exhausted. That is why he is also called Edom. But Jacob replied, sell me this day your birthright. And Esau replied, I could almost die, so what profit will this birthright do for me? Jacob then answered, pledge it to me this day; and he pledged to him: and he sold his birthright to Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread with the boiled lentils that he ate; and then got up after drinking and left. Esau had scorned his birthright as a result of this.

And there was a second famine in the land, after the first famine in the days of Abraham. Then Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines in Gerar. YHWH appeared to him speaking, Do not go down to Egypt but reside rather in the land that I shall tell you of. Remain for a time in this land and I will be with you, blessing you, because for you and your offspring, I will bestow all these lands and I will perform the oath that I adjured to Abraham your dad. I will mak e your offspring numerous as the stars of the cosmos, and will give to your of fspring all these lands, and in your offspring will all the nations of the whole earth be blessed, because Abraham had obeyed my Voice and observed my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws. Now Isaac resided in Gerar and the men of the region asked him about his woman and he replied, she is my sister. He was afraid to say, she is my woman, because the men of the region might kill him because Rebekah was so beautiful to behold. So after a long time had passed Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out a window and saw Isaac frolicking with Rebekah his woman.

Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, it is a fact that she is your woman so how come you said, she is my sister? And Isaac replied to him, because I thought I would be killed because of her. Abimelech then answered, what have you done to us?

Chapter 26

One of the people might have had sexual relations with your woman, and you would have brought offenses on us. Then Abimelech commanded all his people proclaiming that anyone who touches this man or his woman will certainly be put to death. Later Isaac planted seed in the land, and reaped that same year a hundredfold because YHWH blessed him. And the man grew powerful and his power increased until he became very wealthy. Because he had flocks, herds and many slaves, so that the Philistines became jealous of him. For all the springs that his dad's slaves had excavated in the days of Abraham, his dad, the Philistines had blocked up and filled with dirt. Then Abimelech said to Isaac, leave us, for you are much more numerous than ourselves. So Isaac then left and encamped in the valley of Gerar, and resided there.

And Isaac excavated again the springs of water that were dug in the days of Abraham his dad, because the Philistines had blocked them up after the death of Abraham, and he named them after the names his dad had called them. Then Isaac's slaves excavated in the valley and found there a spring of fresh flowing water. But the shepherds of Gerar feuded with Isaac's shepherds saying, this water is ours and he called the name of the spring Esek, because they feuded with him. And they excavated another spring and feuded for that also, and he called the name of it Sitnah. So he advanced on from there and excavated another spring, and they did not feud with him so he called the name of it Rehoboth and said, for now YHWH has made room for us and we shall branch off in this land. Then he went up to Beersheba, and YHWH appeared to him that same night and spoke, I am the Elohim of Abraham your dad. Do not be afraid for I am with you and will bless you, and multiply your offspring for my slave Abraham's sake. He then built an altar and called on the Name of YHWH, and pitched his tent there, and his slaves excavated a spring there too. Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his confidential friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army. And Isaac said to them, why have you come to me seeing you hate me, and have sent me away?

And they replied, we see and consider how YHWH spoke with you and we thought, there should be an oath between us, among us and you, so may we now make a treaty with you? So that you will not harm us, as we have not struck you, and as we did nothing but good, and have sent you away in safety. Now you are the blessed of YHWH. Then he made them a banquet and they did eat and drink. And they got up at sunrise and made the oath among themselves and Isaac sent them away, and they left him in peace. Then it came to pass that Isaac's slaves came and told him concerning the spring that they had excavated, and said to him, we have found water! And he called it Shebah, so the name of the city is Beersheba to this day. Esau was 40 years old when he acquired two women, Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite. This became a grieving of mind to both Isaac and Rebekah. Then when Isaac was old and his eyesight had faded so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son and said to him, my son, and he replied to him, here I am. Then he said, look now, I am old and I have no idea when my day of death will come. Go get your hunting gear, your bow and arrows, and go out to the field and hunt me some game. Prepare for me your tasty food such as I love and bring it to me so that I may eat, that my life may give you a blessing before I die.

Now Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son, and Esau went out into the field to hunt for game and to bring it home. Then Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son saying, I heard your dad speak to Esau your brother saying, bring me game and make me your tasty food so that I may eat, and bless you in the presence of YHWH before my death. My son, obey my voice according to what I command you. Go now to the flock and get me two good young male goats from among the female goats, and I will prepare the tasty food for your dad such as he enjoys. Then you will bring it to your dad so he may eat, and that he may bless you before his death. But Jacob replied to Rebekah his mother, look, Esau my brother is a hairy skinned man and I am a smooth skinned man. My dad will feel my skin and I will be a deceiver to him, and I will bring a curse upon myself rather than a blessing. But his mother replied to him, let the curse be on me my son, only obey my voice and go get me the two goats.

Chapter 27

So he went and got the two goats, bringing them to his mother and his mother made the tasty food that his dad enjoyed. Then Rebekah took quality clothing from her eldest son Esau, which she found in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son.

And she put the skins of young goats upon his hands and over the smooth skin of his neck. She then gave the tasty food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hands of Jacob her son. Then he came to his dad and said, dad, and he replied, here I am so which one of my sons are you? Jacob answered his dad, I am Esau your firstborn, and I have done according as you have commanded me. Get up, sit and eat of my game so that your life does bless me. But Isaac said to his son, how come you have found it so fast my son? And he replied, because YHWH Elohim brought it to me. Then Isaac said to Jacob, come near so that I may feel you my son, whether you are my son Esau or not. And Jacob went near to Isaac his dad and he felt him, and said, the voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. He did not recognize him because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands were, so he blessed him. Then he said, are you my son Esau?

And he replied, I am. And he said, bring that food here and I will eat of my son's game that by my life your blessing will come. So he brought it close to him and he ate, and he brought him wine and he drank. Then his dad Isaac said to him, come close now and hug me my son. So he came close, and hugged him, and he smelled the smell of his clothing and blessed him, and said, see, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field that YHWH has blessed. Let Elohim give you of the dew of the skies and the fertile places of the land, and an abundance of wheat, cereal, grain, corn and wine. Let nations serve you and people bow down to you, be ruler over your brother and let your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be every one that curses you and blessed be those that bless you. When Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, he had just left the presence of Isaac his dad, when Esau his brother came in from hunting. And he also had made tasty food and brought it to his dad, and said to his dad, let my dad get up and eat of his son's game, so that your life does bless me. But Isaac his dad replied to him, who are you? And he replied, I am your son, your firstborn Esau. Then Isaac shook very greatly, and said, who?

Where is he that has taken the game and brought it to me and I have eaten of all this before you came, and have blessed him? Yes indeed, he is the one that will be blessed. When Esau heard the words of his dad he cried with a great and mighty cry of bitterness, and said to his dad, bless me, even me also, O my dad. And he replied, your brother came with deceit and has taken away your blessing. Then he answered, is not he rightly named Jacob? Because he has circumvented me these two times, he took away my birthright and now he has taken away my blessing. And he said, have not you reserved a blessing for me too? Isaac answered and said to Esau, I have made him your ruler and all his brothers have I given to him for slaves, and with corn and wine have I refreshed him, and what will I do now for you my son? And Esau replied to his dad, have you but one blessing my father? Bless me, even me too, my father. And Esau lifted up his voice and wept. Then Isaac his dad answered, your seat will be before richly prepared food from the land and from the skies above. By your sword will you live and will serve your brother, but when you become restless you will throw his slavery from off your neck. Then Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing that his dad blessed him with, and Esau said in his heart, the days of mourning for my dad are close approaching and then I will slay my brother Jacob. But the words of Esau her elder son were made known to Rebekah, and she sent and called Jacob her younger son and said to him, your brother Esau, as touching you comforts himself in the thought of killing you.

Now my son, obey my voice and get up and run away to Laban my brother in Haran, and stay with him a number of days until your brother's rage goes away. Until the time your brother's anger passes from you and he forgets what was done to him, then I will send for you from there. Why should I be made childless of the both of you in one day? Rebekah then said to Isaac, I am grieved of living because of the daughters of Heth and if Jacob takes a woman from the daughters of Heth, like the daughters in this land, what good shall my life be to me? Isaac called Jacob, blessing him and charged him with the command, you will not take a woman from the daughters of Canaan. Get up and go to Padanaram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's dad and acquire yourself a woman from that region, from the daughters of Laban your mother's brother. And El Shaddai bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, that you may be a company of nations, passing the blessings of Abraham to you and your offspring. Then you may dispossess the land where you are a wayfarer that Elohim gave to Abraham. Then Isaac sent away Jacob and he went to Padanaram to Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother. When Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padanaram, to acquire himself a woman from that region and that he blessed him giving him a command saying, you will not take a woman from the daughters of Canaan. And that Jacob obeyed his dad and his mother, and departed to Padanaram.

Then Esau considered how the daughters of Canaan displeased Isaac his dad. Esau then went to Ishmael, and acquired (in addition to the women he had) Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his woman. Meanwhile Jacob proceeded from Beersheba, traveling towards Haran and he reached a particular region and stayed there all night because it was sunset and he took the stones of that region and laid one as a headrest, then lodged there to sleep. And he dreamed that a ladder stood upright on the land, and the top of it reached to the cosmos, and the angels of Elohim went up and came down on it.

Chapter 28

YHWH stood above it and spoke, I am YHWH Elohim of Abraham your father, and the Elohim of Isaac, the land where you are lodging will be given to you and to your offspring. And your offspring will be as the dust of the land, and you will spread abroad to the West, East, North, and to the South, and in you and in your offspring will all the families of the earth be blessed. I will guard you in all places where you go, and will return you to this land, for I will not leave you until I have done for you what I have spoken. Jacob then woke up from sleeping and said, truly YHWH was standing here and I did not know it. Then he was afraid and said, how honored is this Standing Place! This is none other but the House of Elohim, and this is the star gate of the cosmos.

Jacob got up at sunrise and took the stone that he had put for his headrest, and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. And he called the name of that Standing Place Bethel, but the name of that city was first called Luz. And Jacob affirmed a pledge saying, if Elohim will be with me and will guard me in this journey that I go, and will grant me bread to eat and clothing to wear, so that I return to my dad's house in peace, then will YHWH be my Elohim. And this stone pillar that I have set for a pillar will be Elohim's house, and of all that you will bestow to me I will take a tenth part for an offering as a tithe to you. Then Jacob continued on his journey, and came to the land of the people of the East. And he looked, and saw a spring in the field and there were three flocks of sheep lying by it, for out of that spring they watered the flocks and a great stone was upon the well's opening. And when all the flocks gathered they would roll away the stone from the well's opening and water the sheep, and put the stone back on the well's opening where it fitted. Then Jacob asked them, my kinsmen, where are you from? And they replied that they were from Haran. And he asked them, do you know Laban the son of Nahor? And they answered, we know him. Then he asked, is he well? And they replied, he is well, and look, here comes Rachel his daughter with the sheep. And he said, the sun is high in the sky and it is not time to round up the cattle, so water your sheep, and take them back out to pasture.

But they replied, we cannot until all the flocks are rounded up together, and until they roll the stone from the well's opening, then we can water the sheep. Now while he still spoke with them, Rachel came with her dad's sheep, because she tended them. When Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, then Jacob went over there and rolled the stone from the well's opening, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother. And Jacob kissed Rachel, and raised his voice and shed tears. Then Jacob made known to Rachel he was her dad's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son, and she ran away and told her dad. When Laban heard the news about Jacob his sister's son, he ran out to meet him, embracing and hugging him and brought him to his house.

Chapter 29

And he told Laban all these things. Then Laban said to him, certainly you are my flesh and bone kinsman. And he stayed with him for the period of a month. Then Laban said to Jacob, because you are my brother you should not work for me for nothing? Tell me, what will your wages be?

And Laban had two daughters, the name of the elder was Leah and the name of the younger was Rachel. Leah had anemic looking eyes, but Rachel was the most beautiful with a well figured appearance. And Jacob loved Rachel and answered, I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter. Then Laban replied, it is better that I give her to you than I should give her to another man so remain here with me. Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had to her. And Jacob said to Laban, give me my woman for my days are accomplished that I may sexually possess her. Then Laban gathered together all the men of the region and made a banquet. Then at sunset, he took Leah his daughter and brought her to him, and he possessed her sexually. And Laban gave to his daughter Leah, Zilpah his slave girl, for a female slave. Then at sunrise he looked, and it was Leah and he said to Laban, what is this you have done to me? Did I not work with you for Rachel? How come you deceived me? But Laban replied to him, it is not the custom in our region to give the younger before the firstborn. Finish Leah's bridal week and we will give you Rachel too, for an additional seven years of your labor. Jacob did so and finished her bridal week, and he gave him Rachel his daughter to marry also. Then Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, Bilhah his slave girl, to be her female slave.

And he sexually possessed Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah and worked with him for another seven years. And when YHWH saw that Leah was hated he opened her womb, but Rachel remained sterile. And Leah became pregnant and gendered a son and she called his name Reuben, for she said, certainly YHWH has looked on my misery so now will my husband show me love. Then she became pregnant again and gendered a son and said, because YHWH has heard that I was hated he has therefore given me this son also, and she called his name Simeon. And she became pregnant again and gendered a son and said, now this time will my husband make love with me, because I have gendered him three sons, therefore was his name called Levi. And she became pregnant again and gendered a son and she said, now will I praise YHWH, so she called his name Judah, and ceased bearing children. When Rachel saw that she gendered Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister and said to Jacob, I cannot live unless I have children. Then Jacob's nostril's flared and he became furious against Rachel, and he said, am I in the place of Elohim who has denied from you the offspring of the womb? And she replied, take my maid Bilhah, make love to her and she will gender offspring so that I may also have children through her. Then she gave Bilhah her female slave to him for his woman and Jacob slept with her.

And Bilhah became pregnant and gendered Jacob a son. Then Rachel said, Elohim has vindicated me and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son, therefore she called his name Dan. And Bilhah Rachel's female slave became pregnant again, and gendered Jacob a second son. Then Rachel said, with great contentions have I grappled with my sister, and I have prevailed, and she called his name Naphtali. When Leah saw that she had stopped giving birth, she took Zilpah her female slave and gave her to Jacob for his woman. And Zilpah Leah's female slave gendered Jacob a son. Then Leah said, a good fortune comes and she called his name Gad. And Zilpah Leah's maid gendered Jacob a second son. And Leah said, I am happy for the daughters will call me blessed, and she called his name Asher. Then Reuben during the wheat harvest had found in the field mandrakes that excites sexual desire, and brought them to his mother Leah.

Then Rachel asked Leah, give me of your son's mandrakes. But she said to her, is not taking my husband enough for you? And would you take away my son's mandrakes too? And Rachel replied, OK, he will sleep with you tonight for your son's mandrakes.

Chapter 30

And Jacob came from the field at sunset, and Leah went out to meet him and said, you must come in to me because I have hired you with my son's mandrakes. So he made love with her that night. And Elohim listened to Leah, and she became pregnant, and gendered Jacob a fifth son. Then Leah said, Elohim has given me my hire because I have given my slave girl to my husband, and she called his name Issachar. And Leah became pregnant again, and gendered Jacob a sixth son. And Leah said, Elohim has bestowed on me a good gift, now will my husband live with me because I have brought forth to him six sons, and she called his name Zebulun. Later she gendered a daughter, and called her name Dinah. Then Elohim remembered Rachel, and Elohim listened to her and opened her womb. And she became pregnant, and gendered a son and said, Elohim has taken away my taunting.

She called his name Joseph, and said, YHWH will add to me another son. After Rachel had gendered Joseph, then Jacob said to Laban, send me away, so that I may go to my own region and to my own land. Give me my women and my children for whom I have worked for you to acquire, and let me go, because you have witnessed my labors that I have accomplished. Then Laban replied to him, if I have found acceptance in your eyes I have divined that YHWH has blessed me because of you. So he said, specify to me your wages and I will give it to you. And he replied to him, you know how I have labored for you and how your livestock was in my care. You had little before I came, and it has now increased greatly plus YHWH has blessed you since my coming. But now, when will I be tending to my own house? And he answered, what will I give you? And Jacob replied, do not give me anything except do this one thing for me, I will return to feed and guard your flocks.

Then let me pass through all your flocks today, removing from all of them the speckled and spotted flocks, and all the brown sheep among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled from among the goats, and this will comprise my wages. So will my righteousness testify for me in the future, whenever you personally verify my wages: everyone then that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, or brown among the sheep, you will count those stolen by me. Then Laban answered, let it be as you have said. So he removed that day the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, also everyone that had some white on it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them to the hand of his sons. Then he set three days' worth of travel between himself and Jacob, and Jacob pastured the rest of Laban's flocks. And Jacob took branches from fresh white poplar trees, and also the almond and plane-tree, and peeled the bark back to expose the peeled white, and made the white exposed on the branches. Then he put the branches that he had peeled before the flocks in their watering trough when the flocks came for water. That made them come into heat when they came to drink. And the flocks came into heat before the branches and gendered streaked, speckled, and spotted flocks.

So Jacob divided the lambs, and placed the faces of the flock towards the streaked, also all the brown of Laban's flock and he placed his own herds by themselves, but did not put them near Laban's flock. Then whenever the stronger flocks came into heat, then Jacob laid the branches near the sight of the herds near their trough, which caused them to come into heat next to these branches. But he did not do this with the weaker flocks so that the weaker were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's. And the womb burst open exceedingly for the man, and he had many flocks, and male and female slaves, camels, and donkeys. He also heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob has taken away all that was our dad's, and he has produced all these riches from what belonged to our dad. Then Jacob saw the looks of Laban that they were not the same as in the past. And YHWH said to Jacob, return to the land of your forefathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you. So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah from the field where his flocks were, And said to them, I see your dad's looks that they are different now from what they were in the past, but Elohim of my father has been with me. And you know that with all my human strength I have labored for your dad. And your dad has deceived me and changed my wages ten times, but Elohim has not permitted him to hurt me.

If he said, the speckled will be your wages then all the flocks gendered speckled, and if he said, the streaked will be your wages then all the flocks were gendered streaked. Thus Elohim has taken away the flocks of your dad, and has given them to me. Then the flocks again conceived and I raised my eyes, and saw in a dream that the male goats that leaped on the goats were streaked, speckled, and spotted. Then the Angel of Elohim spoke to me in a dream saying, Jacob, and I replied, here I am. And he said, Lift up now your eyes, and look at all the male-goats that leap upon the goats that are streaked, speckled, and spotted, because I have seen all that Laban does to you.

Chapter 31

I am the Elohim of Bethel, where you anointed the pillar and where you pledged the votive-offering to me, now get up and leave this land, and return to the land of your relatives. Then Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, is there any share or inheritance left for us in our dad's house? Are we regarded by him as foreigners? For he has sold us and then gone on to devour our silver. For all the riches that Elohim has taken from our dad, belongs to us and our children so whatever Elohim has said to you, do. Then Jacob got up, and lifted up his sons and his women putting them on camels.

And he drove on all his livestock, and taking all his possessions that he had amassed, his acquired cattle (which he had collected in Padanaram) , and departed for Isaac his dad in the land of Canaan. And Laban went to shear his sheep, but Rachel had stolen the teraphim that belonged to her dad. And Jacob secretly left Laban the Syrian, not telling him of his escape. So he ran away with all that he had, getting up and crossing over the river, then set his sights towards Mount Gilead. Now Laban was told on the third day that Jacob had run away. And he took his relatives with him, and pursued after him traveling seven days, and they overtook him at Mount Gilead. But Elohim came to Laban the Syrian in a night dream and said to him, guard yourself that you speak to Jacob nothing either good or bad. Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country and Laban with his relatives pitched in the mount of Gilead. Laban said to Jacob, what have you done sneaking away secretly from me, and carrying my daughters away like captives taken with the sword? Why did you run away secretly and steal away from me, not telling me so that I might have sent you away with gladness and singing, with tambourine, and with lyre?

I did not even have a chance to kiss my grandsons and daughters? You have acted foolishly in doing this. I have the power in my hand to injure you, but the Elohim of your father spoke to me last night commanding, guard yourself that you speak to Jacob nothing either good or bad. And now, you have certainly left because you have been longing for the home of your dad, but why have you stolen my elohim? Then Jacob answered and said to Laban, because I was afraid when I thought perhaps you would take your daughters from me by force. But regarding your elohim, if anyone of us has them let him be put to death, make a search here in our presence now for what is yours, and take it. Because Jacob had no knowledge that Rachel had taken them. Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, then into the two female slaves' tents, but found nothing. Then he left Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. Now Rachel had taken the teraphim and put them with the camel's furniture and sat on them. But Laban searched the whole tent, but found nothing. And she said to her dad, please do not get mad my master that I cannot get up before you, for I am having my period.

So he searched, but did not find the teraphim. Then Jacob was angry and quarreled with Laban, and Jacob shouted to Laban saying, where is my offense and what is my sin for you to have pursued after me in this blaze? Now that you have searched all my stuff, what have you found of all your household objects? Place it here before my relatives and your relatives so that they may judge between the both of us. For 20 years now I have been with you, your sheep and she goats have not miscarried, neither the rams of your flock did I consume. The dashed I have not brought to you, I suffered the loss, from my hand you required it whether stolen by day or stolen by night. In my situation I was consumed by heat and cold, and was sleepless. For 20 years in your house I served you, 14 years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks, and you have changed my wages ten times. Unless the Elohim of my father, the Elohim of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac had been with me, you would have sent me away destitute, but my affliction and labor of my hands Elohim did see and he rebuked you last night. Then Laban replied and said to Jacob, these daughters are my daughters and these children are my children, and these flocks are my flocks and all that you see is mine. So what can I do today for my daughters, or to their children that they have gendered? Let us now carve out for ourselves a pledge, you and me and let it be for a witness between us. So Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

Then Jacob said to his relatives, gather stones and they took stones, and made a mound and they ate a meal there on the mound. And Laban named it Jegarsahadutha (witness mound in Chaldea): but Jacob named it Galeed (witness mound in Hebrew). Then Laban said, this mound is a witness between us this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed. And Mizpah (watchtower); for he said, YHWH watch between us when we are absent from one another. If you shall mishandle my daughters, or if you will take other women beside my daughters, when no one is present then Elohim is witness between us. And Laban said to Jacob, take note of this mound and mark this pillar that I have laid between us. Let this mound be witness, and this pillar be witness that I will not cross over this mound to you, and that you will not cross over this mound and pillar to me, for harm. Let the Elohim of Abraham and Nahor, the Elohim of their father judge between us. Then Jacob pledged by the fear of his father Isaac. Then Jacob offered sacrifice on the mount and called his relatives to eat bread, and they ate bread and stayed all night in the mount. Then at sunrise Laban got up, and kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them, and Laban departed and returned to his region. Jacob continued on his way, and the Angel of Elohim encountered him. And when Jacob saw them, he said, this is an encampment of Divine Ones (Elohim) , and he called the name of that place Mahanaim. Then Jacob sent representatives in advance of himself to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

And he commanded them saying, you will speak this to my master Esau, your servant Jacob declares, I have lived with Laban and have stayed there until now: I have oxen, donkeys, and flocks, in addition to male and female slaves and I have sent an announcement to my master hoping to secure favor in your eyes. But the representatives returned to Jacob saying, we came to your brother Esau, and he now comes to meet you with 400 men. Then Jacob was greatly terrified and distressed, and he divided the people with him and the flocks, herds, and camels into two encampments. And said, if Esau invades one camp, and attacks it then the other camp which is left shall escape. Then Jacob cried, O Elohim of my father Abraham, and Elohim of my father Isaac, YHWH who spoke to me, return to your land and your kinsmen and I will deal good with you. I am too insignificant for all your goodness and Truth that you have showed to your slave, for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two camps. Rescue me from the hand of my brother, from Esau's hands, for I am fearful of him that he will come and kill me, and the mother with sons.

Chapter 32

And you spoke, I will thoroughly do you good and make your offspring as the sand of the sea that cannot be counted for multitude.

Then he lodged there that night and from his own things selected a gift for his brother Esau; 200 female goats, 20 males goats, 200 sheep, 20 rams, 30 nursing camels with their young, 40 heifers, 10 steers, 20 female donkeys, and 10 male donkeys. And he entrusted them to the hands of his slaves, every herd by itself and commanded his slaves, cross over before me and put a distance between the two herds. Then he commanded the chief slave saying, when Esau my brother meets you asking, who are you and where are you going, and what are these things that are in front of you? Then answer him, these are your servant Jacob's, this is a gift sent to my master Esau: and he is behind us. He also commanded the second, and third along with all that followed the herds saying, speak in this way to Esau when you find him. And tell him also that your servant Jacob is behind us. Because he thought, I will appease him with these gifts that go before me, and after this I will see his face. Then afterwards perhaps he will accept me. So the gifts went ahead of him and he lodged that night in the camp. And he got up in the night, and took his two women and his two female slaves and his 11 sons, and crossed over at the crossing point at Jabbok's stream. And he took them and sent them over the stream, sending his possessions over too. Then Jacob was left alone and there wrestled a male until sunrise. And when he saw that he could not overpower him, he struck the outside of his thigh, and the inside of Jacob's thigh was out of joint as he wrestled with him. And he said, let me go for its sunrise. And he replied, I will not let you go except you bless me. Then he said to him, what is your name? And he replied, Jacob. And he answered, your name will no more be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have contended with Elohim and with men and have overcome. Then Jacob asked him saying, tell me your name. And he replied, why do you ask my name? Then he blessed him there. And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, because I have seen Elohim face to face, and my life has been saved. Then as he passed beyond Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he limped on his thigh. Therefore the children of Israel are not eating the muscle near of the thigh to this day, because he struck the inside of Jacob's thigh near the muscle of the hip. And Jacob raised his eyes and looking, saw Esau coming, and with him 400 men. So he separated the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two women slaves. Then he put the women slaves and their children first, and Leah and her children second, and Rachel and Joseph last.

And he passed through them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, and drew near to his brother. Then Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and dropped his arms around his neck, embracing him and they shed tears. And he raised his eyes and saw the women and the children and said, who are these with you? And he replied, the children that Elohim has graciously given your servant. Then the women slaves came near with their children, and they bowed down. And Leah also with her children came near bowing down, and after that came Joseph with Rachel close by, and they bowed themselves down too. And he said, what is the meaning of all these herds that I encountered? And he replied, these are to find favor in the eyes of my master. But Esau said, I have plenty my brother so keep what you have for yourself. But Jacob answered, now providing that I have found favor in your eyes please receive these gifts from my hands since I have seen your face, as if I had seen the face of Elohim, and you were pleased with me. Take my blessing that has come to you since Elohim has dealt favorably with me, and because I have everything.

So he urged him

Chapter 33

and he received it. Then he said, let us pull up our caravans, and depart now and move on. And he replied to him, my master recognizes that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with the nursing are with me, so if our men should drive them too hard then all these herds would die. Let my master now travel on before his servant and I will lead on at a slower pace as the legs of our business dictate. Then we and the children will walk by foot until we come to my master in Seir. Then Esau replied, let me leave some people for an escort. But Jacob replied, what need for doing that? Just let me find favor in the eyes of my master. So Esau turned back that day on his return to Seir. And Jacob departed for Succoth and established his house and made shelters for his cattle. That is why the name of the place is called Succoth (that is, “Shelters”). Then Jacob came to Salem, a city of Shechem, in the land of Canaan, after he came from Padanaram, and encamped near the city. And he purchased a portion of a field where he had pitched his tent, from the hands of the children of Hamor (Shechem’s father) , for 100 monetary units. And he established an altar and commissioned it Elelohe-Israel (that is Elohim the Elohim of Israel)

. Then Dinah the daughter of Leah, that she gendered to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the land saw her, he seized her, raping and humiliating her. And this person clung to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and spoke passionately to her. Then Shechem spoke to his dad Hamor saying, get me this girl to have as my woman. Now Jacob heard that he had raped Dinah his daughter, now his sons were with his livestock in the field, and Jacob was speechless until they came back. And Hamor the father of Shechem went to Jacob to speak with him. Then the sons of Jacob came back from the field when they heard about it and the men were extremely hurt, and they were very angry, because that man had performed profane actions towards Israel in having sexual relations with Jacob's daughter, a thing that was forbidden. Then Hamor spoke with them saying, the passions of my son Shechem has set his love for your daughter so please grant permission for him to be his woman. And you will have marriages with us, and give your daughters to us and take our daughters for yourself. Then you will dwell with us and the land will be here to live in, and to do trade with us, and for acquiring possessions. And Shechem said to her dad and to her brothers, let me secure your acceptance of this proposal in your eyes, and whatever you will say to me I will pay wages for her.

Set the cost for the bride to its highest purchase price, and I will pay you whatever you decide, but let me acquire the girl to be his woman.

Chapter 34

But the sons of Jacob gave a false reply to Shechem, and Hamor his dad because of the raping of Dinah their sister. And they replied, we cannot agree to these terms to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised, because that would be shameful according to our culture. We will however agree to your proposal providing that you circumcise all of your males as is our custom. Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for ourselves and we will live with you, and will become one nation. But if you will not agree to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and will be gone. And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son. Then the young man (the most honored of his dad's house) did not hesitate, but immediately circumcised himself because he desired Jacob's daughter. And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the public meeting place of their city, and spoke with the men of their city saying, these men are peaceable with us, so let them live in the land and trade with us.

The land is large enough for them to occupy so let us exchange our daughters with them and them with us in marriage. But these people will only agree to become one with us if we agree to their custom of being circumcised exactly as they are. Will not their cattle, their possessions, and all their livestock become ours by inheritance? Only consent to this one thing and they will live with us. And to Hamor and Shechem his son agreed all that went out to the public meeting place of the city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out to the public meeting place of the city. And on the third day when they were in pain from the circumcision, then two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword, and entered the city breaching its security, and slaughtered all the males. And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the blade of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and departed. The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because they had raped their sister. They seized their sheep, oxen, donkeys, and what was in the city as well as what was in the field, And all their wealth, children, and their women took they captive, and plundered all their dwellings. But Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, you have brought trouble on me that causes me to stink of wickedness among the inhabitants of the land.

The Canaanites and Perizzites will now unite against me, and I being few in number, will be slain and destroyed including all my house. And they answered, as a prostitute does he make our sister? Then Elohim spoke to Jacob, get up, depart for Bethel, making it your residence. Make an altar there to Elohim who appeared to you when you ran away from the presence of Esau your brother. Then Jacob said to his household, put away the foreign elohim that are in your midst and be clean, and change your clothing. And let us get up, and depart for Bethel and I will make an altar there to Elohim, who answered me in the day of my distress, and traveled with me wherever I went. Then they gave over to Jacob all the foreign elohim that were in their hand, and earrings worn on their ears, and Jacob buried them under the oak (terebinth tree) that was at Shechem. And they journeyed and the terror of Elohim spread upon all the surrounding cities, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob. So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, Luz is the earlier name given for Bethel, he and all the people that were with him. He then established an altar there, and called the place Elbethel, because Elohim appeared to him after he had run away from the presence of his brother.

But Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried near Bethel under an oak, and the name of it was called Allonbachuth (oak of weeping). Elohim appeared to Jacob again, when he came out of Padanaram, and blessed him. Then Elohim spoke to him, Your name is Jacob, but your name will not be called Jacob again, but Israel will be your name, and he proclaimed his name Israel.

Chapter 35

And Elohim spoke to him, I am El Shaddai, branch off and become numerous, a nation and a company of nations will you become, and kings will come out of your loins. And the land that I gave Abraham and Isaac will be given to you, and to your offspring after you. That land will be bestowed to your descendants. Then Elohim ascended up from him in the Standing Place where he talked with him. Then Jacob set up a pillar at the spot where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone, and then poured a Drink-Offering on it, as well as pouring oil over it. And Jacob called the name of the Standing Place where Elohim spoke with him, Bethel. And they traveled from Bethel, but they were still some distance from Ephrath when Rachel went into labor, and she had a hard childbirth. Then during her hard labor the midwife said to her, do not fear for you will have this son also. But as she was dying (her death was near), she called his name Benoni, but his dad called him Benjamin.

And Rachel died and was buried while on their journey to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem. Jacob set a pillar on her grave, that is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day. And Israel departed and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar. Then after Israel had lived in that land, Reuben went and had sexual relations with Bilhah his dad's concubine, and Israel heard of it. Now there were twelve sons of Jacob: The sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun: The sons of Rachel; Joseph and Benjamin: And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan and Naphtali: And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad and Asher: these are the sons of Jacob, which were gendered to him in Padanaram. And Jacob came to Isaac his dad in Mamre, to the city of Arbah, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac lived. The days of Isaac were 180 years. And Isaac expired and died, and was removed from his people, being old and satisfied with days, and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him. Now these are the genealogies of Esau, who is Edom. Esau acquired his women from the daughters of Canaan;

Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite; And Bashemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth. And Adah gendered to Esau Eliphaz; and Bashemath gendered Reuel; And Aholibamah gendered Jeush, Jaalam, Korah: these are the sons of Esau, which were gendered to him in the land of Canaan. And Esau took his women, his sons and his daughters, and all the people of his house, and his cattle, his livestock and all his possessions that he acquired in the land of Canaan, and went to a land away from his brother Jacob. Because their possessions were too large for them to occupy the same area together, and the land where they were foreigners could not support them because of their livestock. So Esau lived in Mount Seir: Esau is Edom. And these are the genealogies of Esau the father of the Edomites in Mount Seir: These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the woman of Esau, Reuel the son of Bashemath the woman of Esau.

And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, Kenaz. And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son; and she gendered to Eliphaz Amalek: these were the sons of Adah Esau's woman. These are the sons of Reuel; Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Bashemath, Esau's woman. And these were the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's woman: and she gendered to Esau Jeush, Jaalam, Korah. These are the chiefs of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn son of Esau; chief Teman, chief Omar, chief Zepho, chief Kenaz, chief Korah, chief Gatam, and chief Amalek: these are the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these were the sons of Adah. And these are the sons of Reuel Esau's son; chief Nahath, chief Zerah, chief Shammah, chief Mizzah: these are the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Bashemath Esau's woman. And these are the sons of Aholibamah Esau's woman; chief Jeush, chief Jaalam, chief Korah: these were the chiefs of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's woman. These are the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these are their chiefs.

Chapter 36

These are the sons of Seir the Horite, who lived in the land; Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan: these are the chiefs of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom. And the children of Lotan were Hori, Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna. And the children of Shobal were these; Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, Onam. And these are the children of Zibeon; both Ajah, and Anah: this was the same Anah that found the "hot springs" in the wilderness, as he grazed the donkeys of Zibeon his father. And the children of Anah were these; Dishon, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah. And these are the children of Dishon; Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, Cheran. The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan, Zaavan, Akan. The children of Dishan are these; Uz, and Aran. These are the chiefs that came of the Horites; chief Lotan, chief Shobal, chief Zibeon, chief Anah, chief Dishon, chief Ezer, chief Dishan: these are the chiefs of Hori, among their chiefs in the land of Seir. And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there were any kings reigning over the children of Israel. And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhabah. Then Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place.

Then Jobab died, and Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his place. Then Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place: and the name of his city was Avith. Then Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. Then Samlah died, and Saul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his place. Then Saul died, and Baalhanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place. Then Baalhanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his place: and the name of his city was Pau; and his woman's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab. These are the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their clans, and by their regions, chief Timnah, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth, chief Aholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon, chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar, chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom, according to their property rights, denoted by their districts. This is Esau, the father of the Edomites.

And Jacob lived in the land where his father was a foreigner, in the land of Canaan. These are the genealogies of Jacob. Joseph, a 17 year old, was feeding the flock with his brothers and the boy was with the sons of Bilhah, and the sons of Zilpah, his dad's women and Joseph brought a report of something bad about them to his father. Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son born to him in his old age and he made him a long coat. When his brothers saw that their dad loved him more than all of them, they hated him, and would not speak with him on good terms. Then Joseph had a dream and he told the vision to his brothers, and they hated him even more. And he said to them, listen to this vision that I have dreamed. We were knotting sheaves in the field when my sheaf was raised, and became established and your sheaves encircled and bowed down to my sheaf. His brothers answered him, will you become a king to rule or will you have power over us? And their hatred for him increased because of the dreams and for what he was speaking.

Then he dreamed another vision and told it to his brothers saying I have dreamed another vision, and the sun, moon and the eleven stars bowed down to me. And when he told his dad and brothers, his dad reprimanded him, then asked him, what is this dream that you have dreamed? Will I with your mother and brothers, be brought to bow ourselves down to you in the land? His brothers remained jealous of him; but his dad remembered the words. Now his brothers left to pasture their dad's flock in Shechem. After this Israel said to Joseph, are not your brothers pasturing the flock in Shechem? Get going now for I send you to them and he replied, I'm ready. Then he said, go ahead and find out whether your brothers are doing well, and the status of the flocks and bring me back a statement. So he left the valley of Hebron and came to Shechem. A person later found him wandering in the field and asked him, who are you searching for? And he replied, I'm searching for my brothers, can you tell me where they are pasturing their flocks? The man replied, they are gone from here now but I heard them say, let's go to Dothan. So Joseph then left and continued after his brothers and found them in Dothan. And when they saw him in the distance they crafted a plan against him to have him killed. They were also talking with each other saying, here comes the king of dreams! Let's go kill him and throw him into some well, then we can say some mutilating beast has devoured him, and we can then see what will become of his dreams. But Reuben heard the plot and he rescued him from their hands and commanded, we must not kill him. And Reuben said to them, spill no blood but throw him into this

Chapter 37

pasture's well, but do not lay a hand on him. This was proposed in order to deliver him out of their hand and to bring him back to his dad. So it happened that when Joseph came to his brothers that they pulled off the coat of Joseph, the long coat that he wore. And they seized him, and threw him into a well, but the well was empty with no water in it. Then they sat down to eat some food, but when they looked up a caravan of Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels carrying spices, balm, and myrrh, bearing their loads on their journey down to Egypt. And Judah said to his brothers, what profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Come, let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, but refrain our hands from killing him, because he is our brother and of our flesh. So his brothers listened and gave their consent. Midianites merchantmen passed by, raising and lifting Joseph out of the well, and they then sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for 20 pieces of silver.

So Joseph was brought into Egypt. Later Reuben returned to the well but Joseph was not there, and Reuben ripped his clothes. And he returned to his brothers, saying, the boy is gone so now how can I go home. And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid from the female goats and dipped the coat in its blood; And they took the coat, bringing it to their dad and said, we have found this but do not know whether it is your son's coat or not? And he recognized it and said, it is my son's coat, a mutilating beast has devoured him. Joseph is without doubt ripped to pieces! And Jacob ripped his clothes, and put sackcloth on his hips, and mourned for his son a great many days. And all his sons and daughters assembled and came to comfort him, but he would not be comforted saying, I will go to my son mourning, to the mansion of the dead. This was happening while the Midianites sold Joseph, while in Egypt, to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's and captain of the guard. Then Judah left his brothers, and went to an Adullamite man named Hirah. And Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite man named Shuah, and he acquired her and had sexual relations with her. She then became pregnant, and gendered a son and he called his name Er. And she became pregnant again, and gendered another son and she called his name Onan. Another pregnancy occurred, and she gendered a son, and called his name Shelah, and he was at Chezib when her baby was born. Later Judah acquired a woman for Er his firstborn named Tamar. And Er, Judah's firstborn, was a bad man in YHWH's eyes and YHWH killed him. Judah said to Onan, go to your brother's woman and marry her to raise up offspring for your brother. But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his so when he had sexual relations with his brother's woman, he ejaculated his semen on the ground, corrupting it, so his brother would not be given offspring. And this was a bad act in the eyes of YHWH so He killed him too. Judah then said to Tamar, his daughter in law, live as a widow in your father's house until Shelah my son is grown, for he thought he might die too as his brothers did. So Tamar went and lived in her father's house. And many days passed, and the daughter of Shuah, Judah's wife, died; and Judah mourned, and went up to his sheep-shearers, he and Hirah his friend the Adullamite, to Timnath. They also informed Tamar that her father in law had gone up to Timnath to shear his sheep.

Chapter 38

She then took off her clothing of widowhood, and covered herself with a veil, and wrapped herself up to sit in the opening of Enayim (the Two Fountains) that is on the road to Timnath. She had also seen that Shelah had grown up, but she had not been given to him for a woman as promised. When Judah looked at her he thought she was a prostitute because she had covered her face. And he bent down to her and asked, can I have sex with you? (Because he did not know that she was his daughter in law). And she replied, what will you pay me for giving you sex? He answered, I will send you a female goat from the flock. And she replied, what can you give me now as a deposit for this transaction? And he said, what can I give you for a deposit? She then replied, your seal, cord, and the staff that is in your hand. So he gave it to her, they had sex and she became pregnant by him. Then she got up and left, took off her veil, and dressed again in the clothing of widowhood. Later Judah sent the female goat by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, and to claim back his deposit from the woman's hand, but he could not find her.

Then he asked the men of the area, Where is the prostitute at the opening of Enayim (the Two Fountains) that is on the road to Timnath? And they replied, there is no prostitute in that area. He returned to Judah and said, I cannot find her and also the men of the area say that there is no prostitute at that place. Judah replied, let her keep what she has to prevent us from being disgraced, I did send this female goat and you have not found her. Then three months later it was told Judah that Tamar your daughter in law has played the whore, and that she is also with child by prostitution. And Judah commanded, bring her out and let her be burnt up. But when she was brought out she sent a message to her father in law declaring, I am with child by the man who owns these things, and she asked, can you recognize who owns the seal, cord, and staff? And Judah acknowledged them and answered, she has been more righteous than me because I did not give her to Shelah my son. And she revealed herself to no more men. When the time arrived for her to give birth she had twins in her womb. Then during her labor one put out his hand, and the midwife grabbed his hand and tied it with a scarlet thread, saying, this one came out first. But he drew his hand back in, and his brother came out instead and she said, what, you have broken forth - on you [is] the breach; and he was named Pharez. And afterward his brother came out, that had the scarlet thread on his hand and his name was called Zarah.

Joseph was taken down to Egypt and Potiphar an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard (who was an Egyptian) purchased him from the hands of the Ishmeelites, who had brought him there. YHWH was with Joseph, and he was a successful man in the house of his master the Egyptian. And his master saw that YHWH was with him, and that YHWH made all that he did to prosper in his hand. Then Joseph gained favor in his eyes, and he served him and was made Executive Housekeeper, and all that he had was entrusted into his hands. And from the time that he had made him Executive Housekeeper over all that he had, YHWH had blessed the Egyptian's house because of Joseph. The blessing of YHWH was on all he had, both in the house and in the field. And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand, and did not keep track of what he had, except for the bread that he ate. And Joseph was a handsome man and well favored. Sometime later, after all these things took place, his master's woman looked at Joseph with lustful eyes and she whispered, sleep with me and make love to me. But he refused and said to his master's woman, my master has no idea what has been put under my care in the house, and he has entrusted all that he has into my hands. No one has more authority in this house than I, neither has he withheld anything from me except you, because you are his woman. How could I do this great wickedness, and sin against Elohim?

Chapter 39

And as time passed she continued to speak with Joseph every day, but he would not yield to her wishes to have sex with her or to even spend time with her. And one day it happened that Joseph came into the house to do his business, and he was all alone by himself in the house. Then she grabbed him by his clothes begging, sleep with me, but he shook her loose, and some clothing was left in her hand as he fled, and ran outside! After this she saw that he had left some of his attire in her hand, and had run out. Then she called to the men of her house and spoke to them declaring, see, he has brought in to us a Hebrew man to play with us, then he approached me to have sex with me, but I screamed with a loud voice. Immediately after he heard that I raised my voice and screamed, he left his clothing with me, and he ran outside. Then she kept his clothing in her possession until his master came home. Then she spoke repeating these same words declaring, the Hebrew slave that you have brought to us approached me, to play and make love with me. But when I raised my voice and screamed, he ran outside but left his clothing with me. So when his master heard the words of his woman that she spoke to him, telling him what the slave did to her, then his nostrils flared and he became furious. And Joseph's master seized him, and had him put into prison, a jail where the king's prisoners were shackled. This was the jail he was put into.

But YHWH was with Joseph and showed him kindness and gave him favor in the sight of the Chief Warden of the prison. And the Chief Warden of the prison appointed Joseph for handling all the prisoners in the prison, and he was the responsible one for everything that took place there. The Chief Warden of the prison paid no attention to the affairs under Joseph's control because YHWH was with him, and whatever he did YHWH made it succeed. And it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their master the king of Egypt. Pharaoh was angry against two of his officers, the chief butler and the chief baker. And he confined them to prison in the house of the captain of the guard, into the same jail where Joseph was imprisoned. Then the captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph and he took care of them, and they spent time in jail. And they both had a dream one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were confined in the prison. Then Joseph came to them in the morning, and looking at them saw they were perplexed. He then spoke to Pharaoh's officers who were with him in the jail of his master's house, asking them, why do you look so distressed today? And they said to him, we have both had dreams but no one can interpret them. And Joseph answered them, do not interpretations originate from Elohim?

Tell me now what your dreams were. So the chief butler told his dream to Joseph and said to him, in my dream a vine tree was in front of me. And in the vine tree were three branches, and they appeared as if to put out buds and flowers, and from them came grapes ready for picking. And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand and I picked the grapes, and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I put the cup into Pharaoh's hand. Then Joseph said to him, this is the interpretation of it:

Chapter 40

the three branches equal three days: Now within three days shall Pharaoh lift up your head, and restore you to your office: and you will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand, like you used to do when you were his butler. But remember me when it will go well with you, and show me kindness by mentioning me to Pharaoh and get me released from this house. For indeed I was abducted and carried away from the land of the Hebrews and here in Egypt I have done nothing nor should they have put me into that well. After the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, I also had a dream and there were three white baskets on my head, and in the top basket are of all kinds of Pharaoh's food, the work of a baker and the birds were eating them out of the basket, from off my head.

Then Joseph answered him, and responded with this interpretation of the dream. The three baskets equal three days: Now within three days will Pharaoh take your head off, and will hang you on a tree, and the birds will feed off of your flesh. Then when the third day came, being Pharaoh's birthday, he made a banquet for all his slaves and he brought attention to the positions of the chief butler and the chief baker among his slaves. And he restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and he put the cup into Pharaoh's hand. But he hanged the chief baker exactly as Joseph had interpreted to them. The chief butler however did not remember Joseph but forgot about him. At the end of two full years, when they had passed, Pharaoh dreamed: and he stood by the Nile river. Then there came up out of the river seven beautifully appearing fattened cows, and they fed among the reeds. And after this came up seven other lean cows, of distressed appearance that stood by the other cows on the bank of the river. The lean and distressed cows ate up the seven fat cows of good appearance and then Pharaoh awoke. So he slept again dreaming a second time, and seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, fat and good. And then seven small and scorched ears with the East wind sprouted up after them. Then the seven small ears swallowed up the seven fat and full ears. And then Pharaoh awoke from the dream. And it came about that at sunrise his disposition was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men, and Pharaoh told them his dream, but none could interpret them for Pharaoh. Then spoke the chief butler to Pharaoh saying, I do remember my errors this day. Pharaoh was angry with his slaves, and sent me to prison in the captain of the guard's house, both the chief baker and myself. And we had a dream one night, the two of us, and the dreams had a special interpretation. And there was with us a young man, a Hebrew slave of the captain of the guard, and we told him and he interpreted to us our dreams as each of us had dreamed. Then later everything came to pass as he had interpreted. My office was restored and the other one was hanged. Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him very quickly out of the "well" (his jail): and he shaved himself, and changed his clothing and came in to Pharaoh. Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have had a dream, and there is none that can interpret it, and I have heard it said that you can understand a dream and its interpretation. Joseph answered Pharaoh saying, It is not in my power, but Elohim will give Pharaoh a complete answer. Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, in my dream, I stood on the bank of the river. And there came up out of the river seven fattened cows of good appearance, and they grazed among the reeds. Then seven other lean cows came up after them, poor and of an extremely distressed appearance, such as I have never seen in all the land of Egypt in such bad quality. And the lean and distressed appearing cows ate up the first seven fat cows. After they had eaten them up, no one could discern that they had eaten them because they were still of a distressed appearance, like they had been at first. I then awoke from the dream. And I saw in my dream, and, seven ears came up on one stalk, full and good. Also seven withered ears sprung up after them, small, and scorched with an East wind. The small ears swallowed up the seven good ears, and I told this to the magicians, but no one could make known its meaning to me. Joseph answered Pharaoh that this dream of Pharaoh came from Elohim to show Pharaoh what He is about to do. The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years so this dream is one and the same. And the seven small and distressed appearing cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven worthless ears scorched by the East wind will be seven years of famine.

These words that I have declared to Pharaoh is what Elohim is about to do. He has now revealed this to Pharaoh. There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. And then after this the seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt and the famine will exhaust the land. And the plenty will not be remembered in the land because of the famine to follow, for it will be very oppressive. And because of the repeating of the dream to Pharaoh twice, certainly this thing is established by Elohim, and Elohim is hurrying to do it. Let Pharaoh now search for a man of understanding who is wise, and set him over the land of Egypt. Pharaoh should do this, and also should appoint commissioners over the land, to take up the fifth of the harvest of Egypt during the seven years of plenty. And they gather all the food of these good years that are coming, and store up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep the food in the cities. This food will be for storage in the land against the seven years of famine that will come to the land of Egypt, so the land does not perish through this famine. And the speech was pleasing in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his slaves.

Pharaoh said to his slaves, can we find anyone like this man in whom the Spirit of Elohim resides? Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, since Elohim has shown you all this there is none so understanding and wise as you are. You will be over my house, and according to your words and speech will all my people be equipped. Only in the throne will I be greater than you. Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have appointed you over all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand, and dressed him in clothing of fine linen, and put a gold necklace around his neck. He also had him to ride in his second chariot and they proclaimed before him, "bow down", because he was made a ruler over all the land of Egypt. Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, I am Pharaoh, but without you a man does not lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt. Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnathpaaneah, and he gave him Asenath for his woman, the daughter of Potipherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

And Joseph was 30 years old when he stood before Pharaoh King of Egypt. And Joseph left from the presence of Pharaoh and went throughout all the land of Egypt. And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth abundantly by the handfuls. And he gathered up all the food during the seven years, that was in the land of Egypt, and delivered up the food to the cities: the food of the field, which surrounded every city, he gathered to its center and Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, so much so, that he stopped counting, for it could not be counted. And to Joseph were gendered two sons before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On gendered to him. Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: For Elohim has made me forget all my trouble, and all my father's house. The name of the second he called Ephraim. For Elohim has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction. So the seven years of abundance, that was in the land of Egypt came to an end. Then the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said and the famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was food. And when all the land of Egypt was hungry, the people cried to Pharaoh for food and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, go to Joseph;

what he says to you, do. And the famine covered all the surface of the land: And Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold to the Egyptians; but the famine grew worse in the land of Egypt. Then all the inhabitants of the land came into Egypt to Joseph, for buying corn, because the famine was so severe in all lands. Now when Jacob learned that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, so why are you looking at each other? And he said, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt so go down there and purchase for us so that we may survive and not die. And Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy corn in Egypt. But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob did not send with his brothers because he thought, oh that some harm might befall him. So the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came, because the famine was in the land of Canaan also. And Joseph was the governor over the land and he sold to all the people of the land, and Joseph's brothers came and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the ground. Then Joseph saw his brothers and he recognized them but spoke as if it were to strangers, somewhat harshly and asking them, where do you come from? And they replied, from the land of Canaan to buy food. And Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.

But Joseph remembered the dreams that he dreamed about them and declared to them, you are spies come to observe a defenseless land, and this is why you have come. But they replied to him, no! My master, your servants have come to buy food only. All of us are servants of one man and we are honest men, your servants are no spies. And he answered them, no! But to observe this defenseless land is your purpose for coming.

Chapter 42

And they replied, your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan, and the youngest is today with our father but one is not living. Joseph replied to them, it is as I have stated to you declaring that you are spies. But your story can be verified providing your youngest brother comes here. However, as certain as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave here unless he comes. Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother. But the rest of you will be imprisoned until your words can be proved whether you are truthful, or else you are spies I say, as certainly as Pharaoh lives. Then he confined them all together in the prison for three days. Joseph said to them on the third day, do this and live;

for it is Elohim I fear! If you are truthful men then let one of your brothers be imprisoned in the house of your confinement, but the rest of you go and carry corn to the famine of your houses. But bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words can be verified, and you will not die. And they did so. And they said to each other, we are very guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the pain and suffering of his life when he implored our favor, but we would not hear him. That is why this trouble has come our way. And Reuben answered them saying, did not I speak to you saying, do not sin against the boy (but you would not hear) , so now his blood is on our heads. But they did not perceive that Joseph understood them because he spoke to them through an interpreter. And he turned himself away from them and wept, but then returned to them again and talked with them, then took from them Simeon, and shackled him before their eyes. Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to put back every man's money into his sack, and to give them food for the journey, and so this was done for them. They loaded up their donkeys with the corn, and made their departure from there. And as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey feed, at the place of their lodging, he found his money hidden in his sack's opening. And he said to his brothers, my money is returned and it is in my sack, and they were depressed, as well as afraid saying one to another, what is this that Elohim has done to us? Then they came to Jacob their dad in the land of Canaan, and told him all that happened to them saying, the man who is master of the land spoke harshly to us and considered us spies of the land. And we replied to him, we are honest men and are not spies. We are twelve brothers, sons of our father, one is not living and the youngest is today with our dad in the land of Canaan. Then the man, the master of the land said to us, there is one way to know if you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers here with me, and take food (because of the famine) to your households and be gone. Then bring your youngest brother back to me, then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. Then I will release your brother, and you will do your trading in the land. And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that every man's bundle of money was in his sack and when all of them (their father included)

saw the bundles of money, they were afraid. Then Jacob their dad

said to them, you have made me barren of my children! Joseph is not alive, and Simeon is captured, and you want to take Benjamin away! Why have all these things happened against me? Reuben spoke to his dad saying, kill my two sons, if I do not bring him to you, put him into my hands, and I will bring him to you again. But he said, My son shall not go down with you. For his brother is dead and he alone is left. If any mischief should happen to him in the way you are going, you will bring down my old age with sorrow to the mansion of the dead. Now the famine was very oppressive in the land. Then after they had eaten up the corn that they had brought out of Egypt, their dad said to them, go again and purchase us a little food. But Judah spoke to him saying, the man did bear witness repeatedly saying, you will not see my face unless your brother is with you. So if you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. But if you will not send him, we will not go down because the man told us, you will not see my face except your brother is with you. Then Israel replied, how come you acted so improperly with me as to tell the man that you had another brother? And they answered, the man asked us point blankly concerning ourselves and our families saying, is your dad still alive and if we had another brother? We answered him exactly according to these words. We certainly had no idea he would say, bring your brother down?

And Judah said to Israel his dad, send the lad with me and we will get up and go so we may remain alive and not perish, both you and us plus our little ones.

Chapter 43

I will pledge by my hand his safety, you can require it from me if I do not bring him to you, and set him before you - then I will have sinned against you all my days; If we had not lingered here, surely by now we could have returned back home a second time. Okay then said their father Israel, if it is to be then do this, take of the best choice products of the land in your vessels, and carry them as a present to the man, a little balm and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds. And take double money in your hand plus the money that was brought back again in the opening of your sacks, carry it back again in your hand, perhaps it was an oversight: Take also your brother, get up now and return to the man. May El Shaddai bestow on you His compassion before the man, that he may dismiss your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be miscarried of my children, I am barren. And the men took the presents, and they took double money in their hands, along with Benjamin and got up, and went down to Egypt, and stood in the presence of Joseph. And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the head slave of his house, bring these men home and butcher some food and prepare the table, for these men will dine with me at noon.

And the man did as Joseph commanded and the man brought the men into Joseph's house. Then the men were afraid when brought into the house of Joseph and said, it must be the money that we found in the opening of our bags, that we have brought back to you from the land of Canaan. This came about that he may turn upon us with force, fall upon us and take us for slaves, and our donkeys too. And they came near to the servant of Joseph's house, and they talked with him at the door of the house, and said, O master, we really came down in the beginning to buy food. And it came to pass, when we came to the lodge that we opened our sacks and every man's money was in the opening of his sack, our money in full weight. Look, it is in our hands here, and we have brought it back. And additional money we have brought down in our hands to buy food. We do not know who put our money back in our sacks. And he replied, peace, have no fear, your Elohim and the Elohim of your father has given you treasure in your sacks, I had your money. And he brought Simeon out to them. The man then brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water and they washed their feet, and he gave their donkeys feed. And they prepared the gifts for Joseph's reception at noon, for they heard that they should eat food there. Then when Joseph came home, they brought him the gifts that were in their hands into the house and bowed themselves to him to the ground.

He asked them how they were doing and also asked, is your dad well, the old man that you spoke about? Is he still alive? And they answered, your servant our father is in good health, he is still alive. And they bowed down their heads and prostrated themselves. He then raised up his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son and said, is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me? And he said, Elohim show favor to you my son. And Joseph quickly hurried out; for his bowels did turn with emotion for his brother, and he sought a private place to cry so he entered into his bedroom, and shed many tears there. Then he washed his face and went out, and restrained himself and said, go ahead and serve the food. And they set a place for him alone, and places for them by themselves, and also for the Egyptians, who ate with him too: because the Egyptians do not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is a repulsive thing for the Egyptians. And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, and the men were amazed with this among themselves. And he took and sent portions of food and drink to them from his table, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. And they drank, and got drunk with him.

And he commanded the servant of his house saying, fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth. And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his grain money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken. Then at sunrise the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. And when they had gone out of the city, and were not very far off, Joseph said to his steward, get up, follow after the men and when you have overtaken them, say to them, why have you rewarded bad for good? Is not this the cup that my master drinks from, and practices divination with? It was bad for you to have done this.

Chapter 44

And he overtook them and he spoke to them these same words. Then they replied to him, how can you say such things my master? Elohim forbid that your servants should act according to these words. Look, the money that we found in our sacks' opening, we returned to you from the land of Canaan. How then would we steal out of your master's house silver or gold? With whoever of your servants it is found, let him be executed and we will also be your master's slaves. And he answered, let it now be as the words you have spoken, with whoever it is found he will be my slave, but you will be innocent. Then they quickly took their sacks to the ground, unpacking them and every man opened his sack. And he searched, beginning with the eldest and finishing with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

Then they ripped their clothes and loaded every man his donkey, and returned to the city. And Joseph was still in the house when Judah and his brothers arrived, and cast themselves down on the ground before him. And Joseph said to them, what deed is this that you have done? Did not you know that such a man as I can certainly divine? And Judah replied, what shall we say to my master and what can we speak? How could we clear ourselves? Elohim has found out the sin of your servants so we are now all my master's slaves, including him with whom the cup was found. And he replied, Elohim forbid that I should do all that but the man in whose hand the cup was found, he will be my slave and as for the rest of you, get up and go in peace to your dad. Then Judah came near to him and said, oh my master, let your servant speak a word in my master's ear and do not let your anger burn against your servant, for you are the same as Pharaoh. My master asked his servants, asking, have you a father or a brother? And we said to my master, we have a dad, an old man and a boy of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his dad loves him very much. And you said to your servants, bring him down to me that I may set my eyes on him.

But we said to my master, the boy cannot leave his dad: because if he should leave his father, his dad could die prematurely. And you said to your servants, Except your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again. And when we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my master. Then our dad said, return and buy us a little food. And we replied, we are not able to go down, only if our young brother is with us, then we can go down, for we are not able to see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us. And your servant my father said to us, you know that my woman gendered me two sons. One went out from me, and I said, no doubt he is torn to pieces and I have not seen him since. So if you take this one also from me and harm comes to him you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave (Sheol) . When I n ow come to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us seeing that his life is knitted so tightly up in the boy's life, it will come to pass when he sees that the boy is not with us, that he will prematurely die.

And your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave (Sheol) . For your servant became a pledge for the boy to my dad saying, if I bring him not to you, then I will bear the sin to my father for the ages of time. Please take me now as your slave, instead of the boy as a slave to my master and let the boy go back with his brothers. For how can I go back to my dad if the boy is not with me? I could not bear to see the calamity that would befall my dad. Then Joseph could not hold back his passions before all of them that stood by him, and he cried out with a loud voice. He then told everyone to leave his presence and no one was with him, while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. And his voice cried loudly in weeping, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard of it. And Joseph said to his brothers, I am Joseph, does my dad still live? And his brothers were speechless to him, for they were in great fear at his presence. Then Joseph said to his brothers, come close to me and they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother who you sold into Egypt. Do not feel grieved, or angry with yourselves that you sold me here for Elohim did send me before you to sustain your life.

Chapter 45

For these two years has the famine been in the land, and there are still five years to go, in which there will not be plowing or harvesting.

And Elohim sent me before you to sustain a remnant in the land, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. So then it was not you that sent me here, but Elohim, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh and master of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. Hurry up now, and go to my dad and tell him, your son Joseph says, Elohim has made me master of all Egypt, come down to me and do not linger. And you will live in the land of Goshen, and you will be close to me, you and your children, and your children's children, and your flocks, and your herds and all that you have. And there I will support you, for there are still five years of famine left, otherwise you and your household with all that you have, will become impoverished. Now your own eyes see and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my own mouth that speaks to you. And you will tell my dad of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen, and you will hurry now and bring my dad down here. And he hugged and grabbed his brother Benjamin around the neck, and shed many tears and Benjamin cried on his neck too.

Moreover he hugged all his brothers, and shed more tears with them: and after that his brothers communed with him. When the news of this reached Pharaoh's house, reporting, Joseph's brothers have come: then it pleased Pharaoh and his slaves very much. So Pharaoh said to Joseph, say to your brothers, I want you to do this thing, load up your beasts and take yourselves back to the land of Canaan. And get your father and your households, and come to me and I will give you the good things of the land of Egypt, and you will eat from the choicest parts of the land. Now you are commanded, do this; take these [covered] wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your women, and bring your father and come. Also, do not worry about your vessels and implements; for the goods of all the land of Egypt are yours. And the children of Israel prepared to go: and Joseph gave them [covered] wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey. To all of them he gave each man changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave 300 pieces of silver, and five changes of clothing. And to his dad he sent after these things; ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with corn and bread and meat for his dad's journey. So he sent his brothers away, and they departed: and he said to them, see that you do not fall out into the ditch on your journey. So they went up out of Egypt and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father. And told him saying, Joseph is still alive! And he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob was dumbfounded, and could not believe it. And they told him all the words of Joseph that he had said to them, and when he saw the [covered] wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the vigor of Jacob their dad was quickened. And Israel replied that this is so great! Joseph my son is still alive, and I will go to see him before I die. And Israel set out on his journey with all that he had and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the Elohim of his father Isaac. And Elohim spoke to Israel in the nighttime vision and spoke, “Jacob, Jacob”. And he replied, here I am. And He spoke, I am Elohim, the Elohim of your father. Do not be afraid to go down into Egypt, for from you I will establish a great nation there.

Chapter 46

I will go down with you into Egypt and I will cause your retreat, and Joseph will put his hand upon your eyes when you die. And Jacob set out from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried away Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their women in the [covered] wagons that Pharaoh had sent to carry him in. And they took their cattle and their possessions that they had collected in the land of Canaan and came to Egypt, Jacob, and all his offspring with him.

His sons, and his grandsons with him, his daughters, and his granddaughters, and all his offspring he brought with him into Egypt. And these are the names of the children of Israel that came to Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn. The sons of Reuben; Hanoch, Phallu, Hezron, Carmi. The sons of Simeon; Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman. The sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, Merari. The sons of Judah; Er, Onan, Shelah, Pharez, Zerah: but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul. The sons of Issachar; Tola, Phuvah, Job, Shimron. The sons of Zebulun; Sered, Elon, Jahleel. These are the sons of Leah, which she gendered to Jacob in Padanaram, with his daughter Dinah. These sons and daughters totaled 33 in all. The sons of Gad; Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, Areli. The sons of Asher; Jimnah, Ishuah, Isui, Beriah, and Serah their sister: and the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel. These are the sons of Zilpah, who Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these she gendered to Jacob, even 16 people. The sons of Rachel Jacob's woman were Joseph, and Benjamin. And to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On gendered to him. The sons of Benjamin were Belah, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, Ard. These are the sons of Rachel that were born to Jacob, all these people numbered 14. The sons of Dan; Hushim. The sons of Naphtali; Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, Shillem. These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she gendered these to Jacob, all these people numbered seven. All the people that came with Jacob to Egypt, that came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' women, all these people numbered 66. And the sons of Joseph that were born to him in Egypt, were two people: all the people of the House of Jacob, that came to Egypt, were 75. And he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to get directions to Goshen, and then they entered the land of Goshen. Then Joseph harnessed his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father in Goshen and presented himself to him, and cast himself upon his neck, and shed many tears on his neck for quite a while. Then Israel said to Joseph, I am ready to die at last since I have now seen your face because you are still alive. And Joseph said to his brothers and to his dad's house, I will go up and show Pharaoh and say to him; my brothers and my dad's house, that were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. And the men are shepherds, for their trade has been in livestock and they have brought their flocks, and their herds and all that they have. Then when Pharaoh will call you and shall ask you, what is your occupation? You will say, your servants' trade has been in livestock since our youth until now, both ourselves as well as our ancestors too. Then you will be permitted to live in the land of Goshen, because every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians. Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh and said, my father and my brothers, and their flocks, and their herds and all that they have, have come out of the land of Canaan, and now they are in the land of Goshen. And he took some of his brothers, five men of them, and presented them to Pharaoh. Then Pharaoh asked his brothers, what is your occupation?

And they replied to Pharaoh, your servants are shepherds, both we, and also our ancestors as well.

Chapter 47

They also said to Pharaoh, we have come to live in the land, for there is no pasture for the flock that your servants have, for oppressive is the famine in the land of Canaan; so now, let your servants live in the land of Goshen. And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph saying, your father and your brothers come to you. The land of Egypt is before you so in the choicest parts of the land settle your father and brothers, to live in the land of Goshen. Let them remain there and if you know any men of ability among them, then make them rulers over my livestock. And then Joseph brought in Jacob his dad and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. And Pharaoh said to Jacob, how old are you? Then Jacob answered Pharaoh, the years of my lifetime are 130 years: few and difficult (have the days and years of my life been), but have not been as long as the days of my forefathers, in the span of their lifetimes. Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from before him. Then Joseph settled his dad and brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the choicest parts of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. And Joseph supported his dad and brothers, and his dad's household, with food, according to the number of their children. And there was no food in all the land, for the famine was very oppressive, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan languished because of the famine. And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the corn that they bought, and Joseph brought the money to Pharaoh's house.

And when the money was depleted in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, give us food: for why should we die before you because we have no money? Then Joseph said, pledge me your livestock and I will pay you wages for your flocks, if your money is gone. Their livestock was then entered as a pledge to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for horses, flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the donkeys: and he refreshed them with food for all their cattle for that year. When that year was ended, they came to him the second year and said to him, we will not hide it from my master, how that our money and the herds of cattle for my master are come to an end. There is nothing left in the sight of my master now, but our bodies, and our lands. How can we die before your very eyes, we and the ground together? Please purchase us as slaves along with our real estate in exchange for food, so that our real estate and ourselves will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed, so that we may live, and not die prematurely and that the soil is not ruined. Then Joseph purchased all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, and everyone in Egypt sold their fields, because the famine became much worse for them, so the land was deeded to Pharaoh. And as for the people, from one boundary of Egypt to the other they were reduced to slavery. Only the land of the priests did he not purchase, for the priests had a share assigned to them from Pharaoh and did eat their allotment that Pharaoh consecrated to them. So their lands were not sold.

Then Joseph said to the people, I have purchased you this day and your land for Pharaoh. Here is seed for you, and you can now sow the soil. And when the harvest comes you will give the fifth part to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own, for seed of the field and for your food, and for those of your households and for food for your children. And they answered, you have saved our lives, let us find favor in the sight of my master and we will be Pharaoh's slaves. Then Joseph established a law over the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part, excluding the land of the priests that were not retained by Pharaoh. And Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they had possessions there, and grew and multiplied exceedingly. And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt 17 years: so the whole life span of Jacob was 147 years. And the time drew near that Israel must die, and he called his son Joseph, and said to him, if I have now found favor in your eyes put your hand under my thigh, and deal with me in loving-kindness and faithfulness. Bury me not in Egypt. But I will lie down with my forefathers, and you will carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burial site. And he answered, I will do as you have said. And he commanded, take an oath to me. And he pledged to him. And Israel bowed himself down upon the bed's head post. After some time had passed it was reported to Joseph, your dad is sick:

and he then brought with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. Then Jacob was told, your son Joseph comes to you so Israel then revived his strength, and sat up on his bed. And Jacob said to Joseph, El Shaddai appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me.

Chapter 48

He spoke to me saying, I will make you branch off and become many and I will make of you a company of people, and will give this land to your offspring after you for an Age-Lasting possession. And now your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born to you in the land of Egypt before I traveled into Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. Now your other offspring, which you gender after them, will be yours, but will be assigned the name of their brothers in their inheritance. And when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan during the journey, when we were still a distance from Ephrath: and I buried her near the roadway to Ephrath; the same is Bethlehem. And Israel observed Joseph's sons and said, who are these? Then Joseph said to his dad, these are my sons who Elohim has given me in this land. And he replied, bring them to me and I will bless them. The eyes of Israel were dulled by age so that he could not see. And he brought them near to him and he kissed them and embraced them. And Israel said to Joseph, I had not thought to see your face again and Elohim has showed me also your offspring. So Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the ground.

And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand towards Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand towards Israel's right hand, and brought them near to him. Then Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it on Ephraim's head, which was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, prudently crossing his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn. And he blessed Joseph saying, Elohim, before whom my father's Abraham and Isaac walked, the Elohim who shepherded me all my lifetime to this day, the Angel that redeemed me from all bad things, bless the boys; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my father's Abraham and Isaac. Let them grow into a multitude in the Middle East of the earth. Then when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it shook him up: and he grabbed his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. And Joseph said to his father, this is wrong my father, because this is the firstborn, put your right hand on his head. But his father refused and replied, I know, my son, I know: he too will become a people, and he too will be great: but truly his younger brother will be greater than him, and his descendants will become a multitude of nations. He blessed them that day saying, in you shall Israel bless, saying, Elohim establish you as Ephraim and as Manasseh, and he set Ephraim before Manasseh. And Israel said to Joseph, I am dying, but Elohim will be with you, and will return you again to the land of your forefathers.

Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brothers that I seized from the hand of the Amorite by my sword and bow. Then Jacob called to his sons and said, gather yourselves together so I can tell you what will happen to you in the Last Days. Gather yourselves together, and give ear you sons of Jacob, listen to Israel your father. Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of nobility and the nobility of power.

Chapter 49

Unstable as water, you will not have the nobility because you went into your father's bed, then profaned yourself sexually, when he went into my bed. Simeon and Levi are brothers: their swords are an arsenal of violence. By my life do not enter into their circles, let my honor not be united with their assembly, for in their anger they killed men, and in pleasure they hamstrung the ox. Cursed be their anger for it was fierce, and their rage, for it was fierce: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel. Judah, you are he who your brothers will praise, your hand will be on the neck of your enemies, your father's children will bow down before you. Judah is a lion's cub: from the prey, my son, have you come up: he has stooped and couched as a lion, or as a lioness, who will rouse him up?

The Scepter will not be abolished from Judah, nor a governor of Elohim, until Shiloh come; and to him shall the cleansing of the people be. He will harness his donkey to a vine tree, his female donkey's colt to the choicest branch, he will wash as a fuller his clothing in wine, his vestment in the blood of grapes. Red are the eyes with wine, and white are the teeth with milk! Zebulun will settle on the seacoasts, and he will harbor ships with his utmost border as far as Zidon. Issachar is a strong donkey couching down between the saddlebags. And he saw the resting place was good and the land being pleasant. So he bowed his shoulder to bear, and was a tributary slave. Dan will judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel. Dan will be a serpent by the way, a horned snake in the road that bites the heels of the horse, so that his rider shall fall backwards. I have eagerly waited for your salvation, O YHWH. Gad, a troop will invade him, but he shall invade at the rear.

Out of Asher his food will be rich, and he bestows foods to kings Naphtali is a deer sent away, he gives elegant words. Joseph is a fruitful son, even a fruitful son by a spring whose daughters run over the wall. The archers have bitterly grieved him and shot at him, and opposed him. But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the Mighty Elohim of Jacob; (from there comes the Shepherd with the Urim-Thummim stone of Israel!) Even by the Elohim of your father who shall help you, and by the Shaddai, who shall bless you with blessings of the cosmos above, blessings from the deep places where buried stones are mined, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb. The blessings of your father have eclipsed the blessings of my ancestors. Up to the utmost bound of the Age-Lasting hills. May they be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of (the consecrated) one among his brothers. Benjamin will tear in pieces as a wolf: at sunrise he will devour the booty, and at night he will divide the plunder. All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father had spoken to them, and he blessed them; each according to the blessing he had bestowed on them. And he commanded them and said to them, I am to be taken to my people so bury me with my forefathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, the cave in the field at Machpelah east of Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham purchased with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a graveyard property. There they buried Abraham and Sarah his woman, there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his woman and there I buried Leah. The purchase of the field and of the cave that is there came from the children of Heth. And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he withdrew his feet into bed and died, perishing from his people. Then Joseph fell on his father's face, and shed tears over him and hugged him. Joseph commanded his slaves the physicians to embalm his dad, and the physicians embalmed Israel. Now 40 days were completed for him, these are the days of those to be embalmed and the Egyptians mourned for him 70 days.

Chapter 50

And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh saying, if I have now found favor in your eyes talk directly to Pharaoh saying, my dad made me pledge saying, let me die in my grave that I have excavated for myself in the land of Canaan, you will bury me there. Now therefore let me depart and bury my dad, and I will then return. And Pharaoh replied, depart and bury your father according to what he made you pledge.

So Joseph departed to bury his dad, and with him went all the slaves of Pharaoh, the elders of his house and all the elders of the land of Egypt. And all the House of Joseph, and his brothers, and his father's house left: only their children, and their flocks, and their herds, remained in the land of Goshen. And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen, and it was a very numerous body of people. Then they came to the threshing-floor of Atad that is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very grievous wailing, and he made a seven day period of mourning for his dad. And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they exclaimed, this is a grievous mourning for the Egyptians. Therefore it was named Abelmizraim, which is beyond the Jordan. And his sons did for him exactly as he had commanded them. For his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him at the cave in the field of Machpelah, (former property of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre) that Abraham had purchased with the field for a graveyard. Then Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all that left with him to bury his dad, after he had buried him. And when Joseph's brothers saw that their dad was dead, they thought, Joseph will maybe hate us, and will certainly return to us all the bad things that we did to him. And they sent a messenger to Joseph saying, your dad did command before he died saying, so will you say to Joseph, forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, for they did you wrong.

So now please forgive the transgression of the slaves of the Elohim of your dad. And Joseph wept when they spoke to him those things. Then his brothers also went and fell down before his face, and they replied, we are your slaves. And Joseph answered them, fear not: for I am Elohim's outpost. As for you, you devised against me the bad - Elohim however devised it for good (in order to do), as has happened this day, to keep alive a numerous people. Now therefore do not fear for I will support you, and your children. Then he comforted them and spoke kindly to them. Joseph lived in Egypt, he and his father's house: and Joseph lived 110 years. And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation: the children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were brought up upon Joseph's knees. Then Joseph said to his brothers, I am dying, and Elohim will surely visit you and bring you out of this land to the land that he pledged to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. Then Joseph made the sons of Israel pledge saying that Elohim will certainly concern himself for you, and you will carry my bones from here also. After this Joseph died, being 110 years old, and they embalmed him and he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Enoch

Chapter 1

The words of the blessing of Enoch, wherewith he blessed the elect and righteous, who will be living in the day of tribulation, when all the wicked and godless are to be removed. And he took up his parable and said - Enoch a righteous man, whose eyes were opened by Elohim, saw the vision of the Holy One in the heavens, which the angels showed me, and from them I heard everything, and from them I understood as I saw, but not for this generation, but for a remote one which is for to come. Concerning the elect I said, and took up my parable concerning them: The Holy Great One will come forth from His dwelling, And the aionian Elohim will tread upon the earth, (even) on Mount Sinai, [And appear from His camp] And appear in the strength of His might from the heaven of heavens. And all shall be smitten with fear And the Watchers shall quake, And great fear and trembling shall seize them unto the ends of the earth. And the high mountains shall be shaken, And the high hills shall be made low, And shall melt like wax before the flame And the earth shall be wholly rent in sunder, And all that is upon the earth shall perish, And there shall be a judgment upon all (men). But with the righteous He will make peace. And will protect the elect, And mercy shall be upon them. And they shall all belong to Elohim, And they shall be prospered, And they shall all be blessed. And He will help them all, And light shall appear unto them, And He will make peace with them'. And behold!

Chapter 2

He cometh with ten thousands of His holy ones To execute judgment upon all, And to destroy all the ungodly: And to convict all flesh Of all the works of their ungodliness which they have ungodly committed, And of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him. Observe ye everything that takes place in the heaven, how they do not change their orbits, and the luminaries which are in the heaven, how they all rise and set in order each in its season, and transgress not against their appointed order. Behold you the earth, and give heed to the things which take place upon it from first to last, how steadfast they are, how none of the things upon earth change, but all the works of Elohim appear to you. Behold the summer and the winter, how the whole earth is filled with water, and clouds and dew and rain lie upon it. Observe and see how (in the winter) all the trees seem as though they had withered and shed all their leaves, except fourteen trees, which do not lose their foliage but retain the old foliage from two to three years till the new comes. And again, observe ye the days of summer how the sun is above the earth over against it. And you seek shade and shelter by reason of the heat of the sun, and the earth also burns with growing heat, and so you cannot tread on the earth, or on a rock by reason of its heat. Observe ye how the trees cover themselves with green leaves and bear fruit: wherefore give ye heed and know with regard to all His works, and recognize how He that lives for the ages has made them so. And all His works go on thus from year to year for the ages, and all the tasks which they accomplish for Him, and their tasks change not, but according as Elohim has ordained so is it done. And behold how the sea and the rivers in like manner accomplish and change not their tasks from His commandments'.

Chapter 3

But you - you have not been steadfast, nor done the commandments of the Lord, But ye have turned away and spoken proud and hard words With your impure mouths against His greatness. Oh, ye hard-hearted, ye shall find no peace. Therefore shall ye execrate your days, And the years of your life shall perish, And the years of your destruction shall be multiplied in aionian execration, And ye shall find no mercy. In those days ye shall make your names an aionian execration unto all the righteous, And by you shall all who curse, curse, And all the sinners and godless shall imprecate by you, And for you the godless there shall be a curse. And all the . . . shall rejoice, And there shall be forgiveness of sins, And every mercy and peace and forbearance: There shall be salvation unto them, a goodly light. And for all of you sinners there shall be no salvation, But on you all shall abide a curse. But for the elect there shall be light and joy and peace, And they shall inherit the earth. And then there shall be bestowed upon the elect wisdom, And they shall all live and never again sin, Either through ungodliness or through pride: But they who are wise shall be humble. And they shall not again transgress, Nor shall they sin all the days of their life, Nor shall they die of (the divine) anger or wrath, But they shall complete the number of the days of their life. And their lives shall be increased in peace, And the years of their joy shall be multiplied, In aionian gladness and peace, All the days of their life And it came to pass when the children of men had multiplied that in those days were born unto them beautiful and comely daughters.

Chapter 4

And the angels, the children of the heaven, saw and lusted after them, and said to one another: 'Come, let us choose us wives from among the children of men and beget us children.' And Semjaza, who was their leader, said unto them: 'I fear ye will not indeed agree to do this deed, and I alone shall have to pay the penalty of a great sin.' And they all answered him and said: 'Let us all swear an oath, and all bind ourselves by mutual imprecations not to abandon this plan but to do this thing.' Then swore them all together and bound themselves by mutual imprecations upon it. And they were in all two hundred; who descended in the days of Jared on the summit of Mount Hermon, and they called it Mount Hermon, because they had sworn and bound themselves by mutual imprecations upon it. And these are the names of their leaders: Samlazaz, their leader, Araklba, Rameel, Kokablel, Tamlel, Ramlel, Danel, Ezeqeel, Baraqijal, Asael, Armaros, Batarel, Ananel, Zaqiel, Samsapeel, Satarel, Turel, Jomjael, Sariel. These are their chiefs of tens. And all the others together with them took unto themselves wives, and each chose for himself one, and they began to go in unto them and to defile themselves with them, and they taught them charms and enchantments, and the cutting of roots, and made them acquainted with plants. And they became pregnant, and they bare great giants, whose height was three thousand ells: Who consumed all the acquisitions of men. And when men could no longer sustain them, the giants turned against them and devoured mankind. And they began to sin against birds, and beasts, and reptiles, and fish, and to devour one another's flesh, and drink the blood. Then the earth laid accusation against the lawless ones. And Azazel taught men to make swords, and knives, and shields, and breastplates, and made known to them the metals of the earth and the art of working them, and bracelets, and ornaments, and the use of antimony, and the beautifying of the eyelids, and all kinds of costly stones, and all coloring tinctures.

Chapter 5

And there arose much godlessness, and they committed fornication, and they were led astray, and became corrupt in all their ways. Semjaza taught enchantments, and root-cuttings, 'Armaros the resolving of enchantments, Baraqijal (taught) astrology, Kokabel the constellations, Ezeqeel the knowledge of the clouds, Araqiel the signs of the earth, Shamsiel the signs of the sun, and Sariel the course of the moon. And as men perished, they cried, and their cry went up to heaven . . . And then Michael, Uriel, Raphael, and Gabriel looked down from heaven and saw much blood being shed upon the earth, and all lawlessness being wrought upon the earth. And they said one to another: 'The earth made without inhabitant cries the voice of their crying up to the gates of heaven. And now to you, the holy ones of heaven, the souls of men make their suit, saying, "Bring our cause before the Most High.'' And they said to the Lord of the ages: 'Lord of lords, the Elohim of elohim, King of kings, and Elohim of the ages, the throne of Your glory (stands) unto all the generations of the ages, and Your name holy and glorious and blessed unto all the ages! You have made all things, and power over all things have You: and all things are naked and open in Your sight, and You see all things, and nothing can hide itself from You. You see what Azazel has done, who has taught all unrighteousness on earth and revealed the aionian secrets which were (preserved) in heaven, which men were striving to learn: And Semjaza, to whom You have given authority to bear rule over his associates. And they have gone to the daughters of men upon the earth, and have slept with the women, and have defiled themselves, and revealed to them all kinds of sins. And the women have borne giants, and the whole earth has thereby been filled with blood and unrighteousness.

Chapter 6

And now, behold, the souls of those who have died are crying and making their suit to the gates of heaven, and their lamentations have ascended: and cannot cease because of the lawless deeds which are wrought on the earth. And You know all things before they come to pass, and You see these things and You do suffer them, and You do not say to us what we are to do to them in regard to these.' Then said the Most High, the Holy and Great One spoke, and sent Uriel to the son of Lamech, and said to him: 'Go to Noah and tell him in my name "Hide yourself!" And reveal to him the end that is approaching: that the whole earth will be destroyed, and a deluge is about to come upon the whole earth, and will destroy all that is on it. And now instruct him that he may escape and his seed may be preserved for all the generations of the world.' And again the Lord said to Raphael: 'Bind Azazel hand and foot, and cast him into the darkness: and make an opening in the desert, which is in Dudael, and cast him therein. And place upon him rough and jagged rocks, and cover him with darkness, and let him abide there for the ages, and cover his face that he may not see light. And on the day of the great judgment he shall be cast into the fire. And heal the earth which the angels have corrupted, and proclaim the healing of the earth, that they may heal the plague, and that all the children of men may not perish through all the secret things that the Watchers have disclosed and have taught their sons. And the whole earth has been corrupted through the works that were taught by Azazel: to him ascribe all sin.' And to Gabriel said the Lord: 'Proceed against the bastards and the reprobates, and against the children of fornication: and destroy [the children of fornication and] the children of the Watchers from amongst men [and cause them to go forth]: send them one against the other that they may destroy each other in battle: for length of days shall they not have. And no request that they (i.e. their fathers) make of you shall be granted unto their fathers on their behalf; for they hope to live an aionian life, and that each one of them will live five hundred years.' And the Lord said unto Michael: 'Go, bind Semjaza and his associates who have united themselves with women so as to have defiled themselves with them in all their uncleanness. And when their sons have slain one another, and they have seen the destruction of their beloved ones, bind them fast for seventy generations in the valleys of the earth, till the day of their judgment and of their consummation, till the judgment that is for the ages is consummated. In those days they shall be led off to the abyss of fire: and to the torment and the prison in which they shall be confined for the ages.

Chapter 7

And whosoever shall be condemned and destroyed will from thenceforth be bound together with them to the end of all generations. And destroy all the spirits of the reprobate and the children of the Watchers, because they have wronged mankind. Destroy all wrong from the face of the earth and let every evil work come to an end: and let the plant of righteousness and truth appear: and it shall prove a blessing; the works of righteousness and truth' shall be planted in truth and joy for the ages of the ages. And then shall all the righteous escape, And shall live till they beget thousands of children And all the days of their youth and their old age Shall they complete in peace. And then shall the whole earth be tilled in righteousness, and shall all be planted with trees and be full of blessing. And all desirable trees shall be planted on it, and they shall plant vines on it: and the vine which they plant thereon shall yield wine in abundance, and as for all the seed which is sown thereon each measure (of it) shall bear a thousand, and each measure of olives shall yield ten presses of oil. And cleanse you the earth from all oppression, and from all unrighteousness, and from all sin, and from all godlessness: and all the uncleanness that is wrought upon the earth destroy from off the earth. And all the children of men shall become righteous, and all nations shall offer adoration and shall praise Me, and all shall worship Me. And the earth shall be cleansed from all defilement, and from all sin, and from all punishment, and from all torment, and I will never again send (them) upon it from generation to generation and for the ages. And in those days I opened the store chambers of blessing which are in the heaven, so as to send them down upon the earth over the work and labor of the children of men.

Chapter 8

And truth and peace will be associated together into all the days of the ages and throughout all the generations of men.' Before these things Enoch was hidden, and no one of the children of men knew where he was hidden, and where he abode, and what had become of him. And his activities had to do with the Watchers, and his days were with the holy ones. And I Enoch was blessing the Lord of majesty and the King of the ages, and lo! the Watchers called me (Enoch the scribe) and said to me: 'Enoch, you scribe of righteousness, go, declare to the Watchers of the heaven who have left the high heaven, the holy aionian place, and have defiled themselves with women, and have done as the children of earth do, and have taken unto themselves wives: "You have wrought great destruction on the earth: And you shall have no peace nor forgiveness of sin: and inasmuch as they delight themselves in their children, The murder of their beloved ones shall they see, and over the destruction of their children shall they lament, and shall make supplication unto the ages, but mercy and peace shall you not attain." And Enoch went and said: 'Azazel, you should have no peace: a severe sentence has gone forth against you to put you in bonds: And you should not have toleration nor request granted to you, because of the unrighteousness which you have taught, and because of all the works of godlessness and unrighteousness and sin which you have shown to men.' Then I went and spoke to them all together, and they were all afraid, and fear and trembling seized them. And they besought me to draw up a petition for them that they might find forgiveness, and to read their petition in the presence of the Lord of heaven. For from thenceforward they could not speak (with Him) nor lift up their eyes to heaven for shame of their sins for which they had been condemned. Then I wrote out their petition, and the prayer in regard to their spirits and their deeds individually and in regard to their requests that they should have forgiveness and length. And I went off and sat down at the waters of Dan, in the land of Dan, to the south of the west of Hermon: I read their petition till I fell asleep. And behold a dream came to me, and visions fell down upon me, and I saw visions of chaveisement, and a voice came bidding (me) I to tell it to the sons of heaven, and reprimand them. And when I awoke, I came unto them, and they were all sitting gathered together, weeping in ‘Abelsjail, which is between Lebanon and Seneser, with their faces covered. And I recounted before them all the visions which I had seen in sleep, and I began to speak the words of righteousness, and to reprimand the heavenly Watchers.

Chapter 9

The book of the words of righteousness, and of the reprimand of the aionian Watchers in accordance with the command of the Holy Great One in that vision. I saw in my sleep what I will now say with a tongue of flesh and with the breath of my mouth: which the Great One has given to men to converse therewith and understand with the heart. As He has created and given to man the power of understanding the word of wisdom, so has He created me also and given me the power of reprimanding the Watchers, the children of heaven. I wrote out your petition, and in my vision it appeared thus, that your petition will not be granted unto you throughout all the days of the ages, and that judgment has been finally passed upon you: yes (your petition) will not be granted unto you. And from henceforth you shall not ascend into heaven unto all the ages, and in bonds of the earth the decree has gone forth to bind you for all the days of the world. And (that) previously you shall have seen the destruction of your beloved sons and you shall have no pleasure in them, but they shall fall before you by the sword. And your petition on their behalf shall not be granted, nor yet on your own: even though you weep and pray and speak all the words contained in the writing which I have written. And the vision was shown to me thus: Behold, in the vision clouds invited me and a mist summoned me, and the course of the stars and the lightning's sped and haveened me, and the winds in the vision caused me to fly and lifted me upward, and bore me into heaven. And I went in till I drew nigh to a wall which is built of crystals and surrounded by tongues of fire: and it began to affright me. And I went into the tongues of fire and drew nigh to a large house which was built of crystals: and the walls of the house were like a tessellated floor (made) of crystals, and its groundwork was of crystal.

Chapter 10

Its ceiling was like the path of the stars and the lightning's, and between them were fiery cherubim, and their heaven was (clear as) water. A flaming fire surrounded the walls, and its portals blazed with fire. And I entered into that house, and it was hot as fire and cold as ice: there were no delights of life therein: fear covered me, and trembling got hold upon me. And as I quaked and trembled, I fell upon my face. And I beheld a vision, And lo! There was a second house, greater than the former, and the entire portal stood open before me, and it was built of flames of fire. And in every respect it so excelled in splendor and magnificence and extent that I cannot describe to you its splendor and its extent. And its floor was of fire, and above it were lightning's and the path of the stars, and its ceiling also was flaming fire. And I looked and saw therein a lofty throne: its appearance was as crystal, and the wheels thereof as the shining sun, and there was the vision of cherubim. And from underneath the throne came streams of flaming fire so that I could not look thereon.

Chapter 11

And the Great Glory sat thereon, and His raiment shone more brightly than the sun and was whiter than any snow. None of the angels could enter and could behold His face by reason of the magnificence and glory and no flesh could behold Him. The flaming fire was round about Him, and a great fire stood before Him, and none around could draw nigh Him: ten thousand times ten thousand (stood) before Him, yet He needed no counselor. And the most holy ones who were nigh to Him did not leave by night nor depart from Him. And until then I had been prostrate on my face, trembling: and the Lord called me with His own mouth, and said to me: ' Come hither, Enoch, and hear my word.' And one of the holy ones came to me and waked me, and He made me rise up and approach the door: and I bowed my face downwards. And He answered and said to me, and I heard His voice: ‘Fear not, Enoch, you righteous man and scribe of righteousness: approach hither and hear my voice. And go, say to the Watchers of heaven, who have sent you to intercede for them: “You should intercede” for men, and not men for you: Wherefore have you left the high, holy, and aionian heaven, and lain with women, and defiled yourselves with the daughters of men and taken to yourselves wives, and done like the children of earth, and begotten giants (as your) sons? And though you were holy, spiritual, living the aionian life, you have defiled yourselves with the blood of women, and have begotten (children) with the blood of flesh, and, as the children of men, have lusted after flesh and blood as those also do who die and perish. Therefore have I given them wives also that they might impregnate them, and beget children by them, that thus nothing might be wanting to them on earth. But you were formerly spiritual, living the aionian life, and immortal for all generations of the world.

Chapter 12

And therefore I have not appointed wives for you; for as for the spiritual ones of the heaven, in heaven is their dwelling. And now, the giants, who are produced from the spirits and flesh, shall be called evil spirits upon the earth, and on the earth shall be their dwelling. Evil spirits have proceeded from their bodies; because they are born from men and from the holy Watchers is their beginning and primal origin; they shall be evil spirits on earth, and evil spirits shall they be called. [As for the spirits of heaven, in heaven shall be their dwelling, but as for the spirits of the earth which were born upon the earth, on the earth shall be their dwelling.] And the spirits of the giants afflict, oppress, destroy, attack, do battle, and work destruction on the earth, and cause trouble: they take no food, but nevertheless hunger and thirst, and cause offenses. And these spirits shall rise up against the children of men and against the women, because they have proceeded from them. From the days of the slaughter and destruction and death of the giants, from the souls of whose flesh the spirits, having gone forth, shall destroy though incurring judgment - thus shall they destroy until the day of the consummation, the great judgment in which the age shall be consummated, over the Watchers and the godless, yes, shall be wholly consummated." And now as to the watchers who have sent you to intercede for them, who had been aforetime in heaven, (say to them): "You have been in heaven, but all the mysteries had not yet been revealed to you, and you knew worthless ones, and these in the hardness of your hearts you have made known to the women, and through these mysteries women and men work much evil on earth." Say to them therefore: "You have no peace."' And they took and brought me to a place in which those who were there were like flaming fire, and, when they wished, they appeared as men. And they brought me to the place of darkness, and to a mountain the point of whose summit reached to heaven. And I saw the places of the luminaries and the treasuries of the stars and of the thunder and in the uttermost depths, where were a fiery bow and arrows and their quiver, and a fiery sword and all the lightnings. And they took me to the living waters, and to the fire of the west, which receives every setting of the sun. And I came to a river of fire in which the fire flows like water and discharges itself into the Great Sea towards the west. I saw the great rivers and came to the great river and to the great darkness, and went to the place where no flesh walks.

Chapter 13

I saw the mountains of the darkness of winter and the place whence all the waters of the deep flow. I saw the mouths of all the rivers of the earth and the mouth of the deep. I saw the treasuries of all the winds: I saw how He had furnished with them the whole creation and the firm foundations of the earth. And I saw the corner-stone of the earth: I saw the four winds which bear [the earth and] the firmament of the heaven. And I saw how the winds stretch out the vaults of heaven, and have their station between heaven and earth: these are the pillars of the heaven. I saw the winds of heaven which turn and bring the circumference of the sun and all the stars to their setting. I saw the winds on the earth carrying the clouds: I saw the paths of the angels. I saw at the end of the earth the firmament of the heaven above. And I proceeded and saw a place which burns day and night, where there are seven mountains of magnificent stones, three towards the east, and three towards the south. And as for those towards the east, was of colored stone, and one of pearl, and one of jacinth, and those towards the south of red stone.

Chapter 14

But the middle one reached to heaven like the throne of Elohim, of alabaster, and the summit of the throne was of sapphire. And I saw a flaming fire. And beyond these mountains is a region the end of the great earth: there the heavens were completed. And I saw a deep abyss, with columns of heavenly fire, and among them I saw columns of fire fall, which were beyond measure alike towards the height and towards the depth. And beyond that abyss I saw a place which had no firmament of the heaven above, and no firmly founded earth beneath it: there was no water upon it, and no birds, but it was a waste and horrible place. I saw there seven stars like great burning mountains, and to me, when I inquired regarding them, The angel said: 'This place is the end of heaven and earth: this has become a prison for the stars and the host of heaven. And the stars which roll over the fire are they which have transgressed the commandment of the Lord in the beginning of their rising, because they did not come forth at their appointed times. And He was wroth with them, and bound them till the time when their guilt should be consummated (even) for ten thousand years.' And Uriel said to me: 'Here shall stand the angels who have connected themselves with women, and their spirits assuming many different forms are defiling mankind and shall lead them astray into sacrificing to demons as Elohim, (here shall they stand,) till the day of the great judgment in which they shall be judged till they are made an end of. And the women also of the angels who went astray shall become sirens.' And I, Enoch, alone saw the vision, the ends of all things: and no man shall see as I have seen. And these are the names of the holy angels who watch.

Chapter 15

Uriel, one of the holy angels, who is over the world and over Tartarus. Raphael, one of the holy angels, who is over the spirits of men.

Raguel, one of the holy angels who takes vengeance on the world of the luminaries. Michael, one of the holy angels, to wit, he that is set over the best part of mankind and over chaos. Saraqael, one of the holy angels, who is set over the spirits, who sin in the spirit. Gabriel, one of the holy angels, who is over Paradise and the serpents and the Cherubim. Remiel, one of the holy angels, whom Elohim set over those who rise. And I proceeded to where things were chaotic. And I saw there something horrible: I saw neither a heaven above nor a firmly founded earth, but a place chaotic and horrible. And there I saw seven stars of the heaven bound together in it, like great mountains and burning with fire.

Chapter 16

Then I said: 'For what sin are they bound, and on what account have they been cast in hither? ' Then said Uriel, one of the holy angels, who was with me, and was chief over them, and said: 'Enoch, why do you ask, and why are you eager for the truth? These are of the number of the stars of heaven, which have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and are bound here till ten thousand years, the time entailed by their sins, are consummated.' And from thence I went to another place, which was still more horrible than the former, and I saw a horrible thing: a great fire there which burnt and blazed, and the place was cleft as far as the abyss, being full of great descending columns of fire: neither its extent or magnitude could I see, nor could I conjecture. Then I said: 'How fearful is the place and how terrible to look upon!' Then Uriel answered me, one of the holy angels who was with me, and said unto me: 'Enoch, why have you such fear and affright? ' And I answered: 'Because of this fearful place, and because of the spectacle of the pain.' And he said unto me: 'This place is the prison of the angels, and here they will be imprisoned for the ages of the ages.' And thence I went to another place, and he showed me in the west another great and high mountain [and] of hard rock. And there was in it four hollow places, deep and wide and very smooth. How smooth are the hollow places and deep and dark to look at. Then Raphael answered, one of the holy angels who was with me, and said unto me: 'These hollow places have been created for this very purpose, that the spirits of the souls of the dead should assemble therein, yes that all the souls of the children of men should assemble here. And these places have been made to receive them till the day of their judgment and till their appointed period [till the period appointed], till the great judgment (comes) upon them.' I saw (the spirit of) a dead man making suit, and his voice went forth to heaven and made suit. And I asked Raphael the angel who was with me, and I said unto him: 'This spirit which makes suit, whose is it, whose voice goes forth and makes suit to heaven? ' And he answered me saying: 'This is the spirit which went forth from Abel, whom his brother Cain slew, and he makes his suit against him till his seed is destroyed from the face of the earth, and his seed is annihilated from amongst the seed of men.' Then I asked regarding it, and regarding all the hollow places: 'Why is one separated from the other? ' And he answered me and said unto me: 'These three have been made that the spirits of the dead might be separated. And such a division has been made (for) the spirits of the righteous, in which there is the bright spring of water. And such has been made for sinners when they die and are buried in the earth and judgment has not been executed on them in their lifetime.

Chapter 17

Here their spirits shall be set apart in this great pain till the great Day of Judgment and punishment and torment of those who curse for the ages and retribution for their spirits. There He shall bind them for the ages. And such a division has been made for the spirits of those who make their suit, who make disclosures concerning their destruction, when they were slain in the days of the sinners. Such has been made for the spirits of men who were not righteous but sinners, who were complete in transgression, and of the transgressors they shall be companions: but their spirits shall not be slain in the Day of Judgment nor shall they be raised from thence.' Then I blessed the Lord of Glory and said: 'Blessed be my Lord, the Lord of righteousness, who rules for the ages of the ages.' From thence I went to another place to the west of the ends of the earth. And I saw a burning fire which ran though resting, and paused not from its course day or night but (ran) regularly. And I asked saying: 'What is this which rests not? ' Then Raguel, one of the holy angels who was with me, answered me and said unto me: 'This course of fire which you have seen is the fire in the west which persecutes all the luminaries of heaven.' And from thence I went to another place of the earth, and he showed me a mountain range of fire which burnt day and night. And I went beyond it and saw seven magnificent mountains all differing each from the other, and the stones (thereof) were magnificent and beautiful, magnificent as a whole, of glorious appearance and fair exterior: three towards the east, one founded on the other, and three towards the south, one upon the other, and deep rough ravines, no one of which joined with any other. And the seventh mountain was in the midst of these, and it excelled them in height, resembling the seat of a throne: and fragrant trees encircled the throne. And amongst them was a tree such as I had never yet smelt, neither was any amongst them nor were others like it: it had a fragrance beyond all fragrance, and its leaves and blooms and wood wither not for the ages: and its fruit is beautiful, and its fruit resembles the dates of a palm. Then I said: 'How beautiful is this tree, and fragrant, and its leaves are fair, and its blooms very delightful in appearance.' Then answered Michael, one of the holy and honored angels who was with me, and was their leader.

Chapter 18

And he said unto me: 'Enoch, why do you ask me regarding the fragrance of the tree, and why do you wish to learn the truth? ' Then I answered him saying: 'I wish to know about everything, but especially about this tree.' And he answered saying: 'This high mountain which you have seen, whose summit is like the throne of Elohim, is His throne, where the Holy Great One, the Lord of Glory, the Aionian King, will sit, when He shall come down to visit the earth with goodness. And as for this fragrant tree no mortal is permitted to touch it till the great judgment, when He shall take vengeance on all and bring (everything) to its consummation for the ages. It shall then be given to the righteous and holy. Its fruit shall be for food to the elect: it shall be transplanted to the holy place, to the temple of the Lord, the Aionian King. Then shall they rejoice with joy and be glad, And into the holy place shall they enter;

And its fragrance shall be in their bones, And they shall live a long life on earth, Such as your fathers lived: And in their days shall no sorrow or plague Or torment or calamity touch them.' Then blessed I the Elohim of Glory, the Aionian King, who has prepared such things for the righteous, and has created them and promised to give to them. And I went from thence to the middle of the earth, and I saw a blessed place in which there were trees with branches abiding and blooming [of a dismembered tree]. And there I saw a holy mountain, and underneath the mountain to the east there was a stream and it flowed towards the south. And I saw towards the east another mountain higher than this, and between them a deep and narrow ravine: in it also ran a stream underneath the mountain. And to the west thereof there was another mountain, lower than the former and of small elevation, and a ravine deep and dry between them: and another deep and dry ravine was at the extremities of the three mountains. And all the ravines were deep and narrow, (being formed) of hard rock, and trees were not planted upon them.

Chapter 19

And I marveled at the rocks, and I marveled at the ravine, yes, I marveled very much. Then said I: 'For what object is this blessed land, which is entirely filled with trees, and this accursed valley between? ' Then Uriel, one of the holy angels who was with me, answered and said: 'This accursed valley is for those who are accursed for the ages: Here shall all the accursed be gathered together who utter with their lips against the Lord unseemly words and of His glory speak hard things. Here shall they be gathered together, and here shall be their place of judgment. In the last days there shall be upon them the spectacle of righteous judgment in the presence of the righteous for the ages: here shall the merciful bless the Lord of Glory, the Aionian King. In the days of judgment over the former, they shall bless Him for the mercy in accordance with which He has assigned them (their lot).' Then I blessed the Lord of Glory and set forth His glory and lauded Him gloriously. And thence I went towards the east, into the midst of the mountain range of the desert, and I saw a wilderness and it was solitary, full of trees and plants. And water gushed forth from above. Rushing like a copious watercourse [which flowed] towards the north-west it caused clouds and dew to ascend on every side. And thence I went to another place in the desert, and approached to the east of this mountain range. And there I saw aromatic trees exhaling the fragrance of frankincense and myrrh, and the trees also were similar to the almond tree.

Chapter 20

And beyond these, I went afar to the east, and I saw another place, a valley (full) of water. And therein there was a tree, the color (?) Of fragrant trees such as the mastic. And on the sides of those valleys I saw fragrant cinnamon. And beyond these I proceeded to the east. And I saw other mountains, and amongst them were groves of trees, and there flowed forth from them nectar, which is named sarara and galbanum. And beyond these mountains I saw another mountain to the east of the ends of the earth, whereon aloe-trees, and all the trees were full of stacte, being like almond-trees. And when one burnt it, it smelt sweeter than any fragrant odor. And after these fragrant odors, as I looked towards the north over the mountains I saw seven mountains full of choice nard and fragrant trees and cinnamon and pepper. And thence I went over the summits of all these mountains, far towards the east of the earth, and passed above the Erythraean Sea and went far from it, and passed over the angel Zotiel. And I came to the Garden of Righteousness, I and from afar off trees more numerous than I these trees and great - two trees there, very great, beautiful, and glorious, and magnificent, and the tree of knowledge, whose holy fruit they eat and know great wisdom.

Chapter 21

That tree is in height like the fir, and its leaves are like (those of) the Carob tree: and its fruit is like the clusters of the vine, very beautiful: and the fragrance of the tree penetrates afar. Then I said: 'How beautiful is the tree, and how attractive is its look!' Then Raphael the holy angel, who was with me, answered me and said: 'This is the tree of wisdom, of which your father old (in years) and your aged mother, who were before you, have eaten, and they learnt wisdom and their eyes were opened, and they knew that they were naked and they were driven out of the garden.' And from thence I went to the ends of the earth and saw there great beasts, and each differed from the other; and (I saw) birds also differing in appearance and beauty and voice, the one differing from the other. And to the east of those beasts I saw the ends of the earth whereon the heaven rests, and the portals of the heaven open. And I saw how the stars of heaven come forth, and I counted the portals out of which they proceed, and wrote down all their outlets, of each individual star by itself, according to their number and their names, their courses and their positions, and their times and their months, as Uriel the holy angel who was with me showed me. He showed all things to me and wrote them down for me: also their names he wrote for me, and their laws and their companies. And from thence I went towards the north to the ends of the earth, and there I saw a great and glorious device at the ends of the whole earth. And here I saw three portals of heaven open in the heaven: through each of them proceed north winds: when they blow there is cold, hail, frost, snow, dew, and rain. And out of one portal they blow for good: but when they blow through the other two portals, it is with violence and affliction on the earth, and they blow with violence. And from thence I went towards the west to the ends of the earth, and saw there three portals of the heaven open such as I had seen in the east, the same number of portals, and the same number of outlets. And from thence I went to the south to the ends of the earth, and saw there three open portals of the heaven: and thence there come dew, rain, and wind.

Chapter 22

And from thence I went to the east to the ends of the heaven, and saw here the three eastern portals of heaven open and small portals above them. Through each of these small portals pass the stars of heaven and run their course to the west on the path which is shown to them. And as often as I saw I blessed always the Lord of Glory, and I continued to bless the Lord of Glory who has wrought great and glorious wonders, to show the greatness of His work to the angels and to spirits and to men, that they might praise His work and all His creation: that they might see the work of His might and praise the great work of His hands and bless

Him for the ages. The Parables The second vision which he saw, the vision of wisdom - which Enoch the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Cainan, the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, saw. And this is the beginning of the words of wisdom which I lifted up my voice to speak and say to those which dwell on earth: Hear, you men of old time, and see, you that come after, the words of the Holy One which I will speak before the Lord of Spirits. It were better to declare (them only) to the men of old time, but even from those that come after we will not withhold the beginning of wisdom. Till the present day such wisdom has never been given by the Lord of Spirits as I have received according to my insight, according to the good pleasure of the Lord of Spirits by whom the lot of aionian life has been given to me. Now three Parables were imparted to me, and I lifted up my voice and recounted them to those that dwell on the earth. The first Parable. When the congregation of the righteous shall appear, And sinners shall be judged for their sins, And shall be driven from the face of the earth: And when the Righteous One shall appear before the eyes of the righteous, Whose elect works hang upon the Lord of Spirits, And light shall appear to the righteous and the elect who dwell on the earth, Where then will be the dwelling of the sinners, And where the resting-place of those who have denied the Lord of Spirits?

Chapter 23

It had been good for them if they had not been born. When the secrets of the righteous shall be revealed and the sinners judged, And the godless driven from the presence of the righteous and elect, From that time those that possess the earth shall no longer be powerful and exalted: And they shall not be able to behold the face of the holy, For the Lord of Spirits has caused His light to appear On the face of the holy, righteous, and elect. Then shall the kings and the mighty perish. And be given into the hands of the righteous and holy. And thenceforward none shall seek for themselves mercy from the Lord of Spirits For their life is at an end. [And it shall come to pass in those days that elect and holy children will descend from the high heaven, and their seed will become one with the children of men. And in those days Enoch received books of zeal and wrath, and books of disquiet and expulsion.] And mercy shall not be accorded to them, says the Lord of Spirits. And in those days a whirlwind carried me off from the earth, And set me down at the end of the heavens. And there I saw another vision, the dwelling-places of the holy, And the resting-places of the righteous. Here mine eyes saw their dwellings with His righteous angels, And their resting-places with the holy. And they petitioned and interceded and prayed for the children of men, And righteousness flowed before them as water, And mercy like dew upon the earth: Thus it is amongst them for the ages of ages.

Chapter 24

And in that place mine eyes saw the Elect One of righteousness and of faith, And I saw his dwelling-place under the wings of the Lord of Spirits. And righteousness shall prevail in his days, And the righteous and elect shall be without number before Him for the ages of ages. And all the righteous and elect before Him shall be strong as fiery lights, And their mouth shall be full of blessing, And their lips extol the name of the Lord of Spirits, And righteousness before Him shall never fail, [And uprightness shall never fail before Him.] There I wished to dwell, And my spirit longed for that dwelling-place: And there heretofore has been my portion, For so has it been established concerning me before the Lord of Spirits. In those days I praised and extolled the name of the Lord of Spirits with blessings and praises, because He has destined me for blessing and glory according to the good pleasure of the Lord of Spirits. For a long time my eyes regarded that place, and I blessed Him and praised Him, saying: 'Blessed is He, and may He be blessed from the beginning and for the ages. And before Him there is no ceasing. He knows before the world was created what is for the ages and what will be from generation unto generation. Those who sleep not bless You: they stand before Your glory and bless, praise, and extol, saying: "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of Spirits: He filled the earth with spirits."' And here my eyes saw all those who sleep not: they stand before Him and bless and say: 'Blessed be You, and blessed be the name of the Lord for the ages of the ages.' And my face was changed; for I could no longer behold. And after that I saw thousands of thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, I saw a multitude beyond number and reckoning, who stood before the Lord of Spirits. And on the four sides of the Lord of Spirits I saw four presences, different from those that sleep not, and I learnt their names: for the angel that went with me made known to me their names, and showed me all the hidden things [Urim-Thummim].

Chapter 25

And I heard the voices of those four presences as they uttered praises before the Lord of Glory. The first voice blesses the Lord of Spirits for the ages of the ages. And the second voice I heard blessing the Elect One and the elect ones who hang upon the Lord of Spirits. And the third voice I heard pray and intercede for those who dwell on the earth and supplicate in the name of the Lord of Spirits. And I heard the fourth voice fending off the Satans and forbidding them to come before the Lord of Spirits to accuse them who dwell on the earth. After that I asked the angel of peace who went with me, who showed me everything that is hidden [UT]: 'Who are these four presences which I have seen and whose words I have heard and written down? ' And he said to me: 'This first is Michael, the merciful and long-suffering: and the second, who is set over all the diseases and all the wounds of the children of men, is Raphael: and the third, who is set over all the powers, is Gabriel: and the fourth, who is set over the repentance unto hope of those who inherit aionian life, is named Phanuel.' And these are the four angels of the Lord of Spirits and the four voices I heard in those days. And after that I saw all the secrets [UT] of the heavens, and how the kingdom is divided, and how the actions of men are weighed in the balance. And there I saw the mansions of the elect and the mansions of the holy, and mine eyes saw there all the sinners being driven from thence which deny the name of the Lord of Spirits, and being dragged off: and they could not abide because of the punishment which proceeds from the Lord of Spirits. And there mine eyes saw the secrets of the lightning and of the thunder, and the secrets of the winds, how they are divided to blow over the earth, and the secrets of the clouds and dew, and there I saw from whence they proceed in that place and from whence they saturate the dusty earth. And there I saw closed chambers out of which the winds are divided, the chamber of the hail and winds, the chamber of the mist, and of the clouds, and the cloud thereof hovers over the earth from the beginning of the world.

Chapter 26

And I saw the chambers of the sun and moon, whence they proceed and whither they come again, and their glorious return, and how one is superior to the other, and their stately orbit, and how they do not leave their orbit, and they add nothing to their orbit and they take nothing from it, and they keep faith with each other, in accordance with the oath by which they are bound together. And first the sun goes forth and traverses his path according to the commandment of the Lord of Spirits, and mighty is His name for the ages of the ages. And after that I saw the hidden and the visible path of the moon, and she accomplishes the course of her path in that place by day and by night - the one holding a position opposite to the other before the Lord of Spirits. And they give thanks and praise and rest not; For unto them is their thanksgiving rest. For the sun changes oft for a blessing or a curse, And the course of the path of the moon is light to the righteous And darkness to the sinners in the name of the Lord, Who made a separation between the light and the darkness, And divided the spirits of men, And strengthened the spirits of the righteous, In the name of His righteousness. For no angel hinders and no power is able to hinder; for He appoints a judge for them all and He judges them all before Him. Wisdom found no place where she might dwell; Then a dwelling-place was assigned her in the heavens. Wisdom went forth to make her dwelling among the children of men, And found no dwelling-place: Wisdom returned to her place, And took her seat among the angels. And unrighteousness went forth from her chambers: Whom she sought not she found, And dwelt with them, As rain in a desert And dew on a thirsty land. And I saw other lightnings and the stars of heaven, and I saw how He called them all by their names and they hearkened unto Him.

Chapter 27

And I saw how they are weighed in a righteous balance according to their proportions of light: (I saw) the width of their spaces and the day of their appearing, and how their revolution produces lightning: and (I saw) their revolution according to the number of the angels, and (how) they keep faith with each other. And I asked the angel who went with me who showed me what was hidden: 'What are these?' And he said to me: 'The Lord of Spirits has showed you their parabolic meaning (lit. 'Their parable'): these are the names of the holy who dwell on the earth and believe in the name of the Lord of Spirits for the ages of the ages.' Also another phenomenon I saw in regard to the lightnings: how some of the stars arise and become lightning's and cannot part with their new form. And this is the second Parable concerning those who deny the name of the dwelling of the holy ones and the Lord of Spirits. And into the heaven they shall not ascend, And on the earth they shall not come: Such shall be the lot of the sinners Who have denied the name of the Lord of Spirits, Who are thus preserved for the day of suffering and tribulation. On that day Mine Elect One shall sit on the throne of glory And shall try their works, And their places of rest shall be innumerable. And their souls shall grow strong within them when they see Mine Elect Ones, And those who have called upon My glorious name: Then will I cause Mine Elect One to dwell among them. And I will transform the heaven and make it an aionian blessing and light And I will transform the earth and make it a blessing: And I will cause Mine elect ones to dwell upon it: But the sinners and evildoers shall not set foot thereon. For I have provided and satisfied with peace My righteous ones And have caused them to dwell before Me: But for the sinners there is judgment impending with Me, So that I shall destroy them from the face of the earth. And there I saw One who had a Head of Days, And His head was white like wool, And with Him was another being whose countenance had the appearance of a man, And his face was full of graciousness, like one of the holy angels. And I asked the angel who went with me and showed me all the hidden things [Urim-Thummim], concerning that Son of Man, who he was, and whence he was, (and) why he went with the Head of Days?

Chapter 28

And he answered and said unto me: This is the son of Man who has righteousness, With whom dwells righteousness, And who reveals all the treasures of that which is hidden [Urim-Thummim], Because the Lord of Spirits has chosen him, And whose lot has the pre-eminence before the Lord of Spirits in uprightness for the ages. And this Son of Man whom you have seen Shall raise up the kings and the mighty from their seats, [And the strong from their thrones] And shall loosen the reins of the strong, And break the teeth of the sinners. [And he shall put down the kings from their thrones and kingdoms] Because they do not extol and praise Him, Nor humbly acknowledge whence the kingdom was bestowed upon them. And he shall put down the countenance of the strong, And shall fill them with shame. And darkness shall be their dwelling, And worms shall be their bed, And they shall have no hope of rising from their beds, Because they do not extol the name of the Lord of Spirits. [And raise their hands against the Most High], And tread upon the earth and dwell upon it. And all their deeds manifest unrighteousness, And their power rests upon their riches, And their faith is in the elohim which they have made with their hands, And they deny the name of the Lord of Spirits, And they persecute the houses of His congregations, And the faithful who hang upon the name of the Lord of Spirits. And in those days shall have ascended the prayer of the righteous, And the blood of the righteous from the earth before the Lord of Spirits. In those days the holy ones who dwell above in the heavens Shall unite with one voice And supplicate and pray and praise, And give thanks and bless the name of the Lord of Spirits On behalf of the blood of the righteous which has been shed, And that the prayer of the righteous may not be in vain before the Lord of Spirits, That judgment may be done unto them, And that they may not have to suffer for the ages. In those days I saw the Head of Days when He seated himself upon the throne of His glory, And the books of the living were opened before Him: And all His host which is in heaven above and His counselors stood before Him, And the hearts of the holy were filled with joy; Because the number of the righteous had been offered, And the prayer of the righteous had been heard, And the blood of the righteous been required before the Lord of Spirits. And in that place I saw the fountain of righteousness Which was inexhaustible: And around it were many fountains of wisdom: And all the thirsty drank of them, And were filled with wisdom, And their dwellings were with the righteous and holy and elect. And at that hour that Son of Man was named In the presence of the Lord of Spirits, And his name before the Head of Days.

Chapter 29

Yes, before the sun and the signs were created, Before the stars of the heaven were made, His name was named before the Lord of Spirits. He shall be a staff to the righteous whereon to stay themselves and not fall, And he shall be the light of the Gentiles, And the hope of those who are troubled of heart. All who dwell on earth shall fall down and worship before him, And will praise and bless and celebrate with song the Lord of Spirits. And for this reason has he been chosen and hidden [UT] before Him, Before the creation of the world and for the ages. And the wisdom of the Lord of Spirits has revealed him to the holy and righteous; For he has preserved the lot of the righteous, Because they have hated and despised this world of unrighteousness, And have hated all its works and ways in the name of the Lord of Spirits: For in his name [Joshua Messiah] they are saved, And according to his good pleasure has it been in regard to their life. In these days downcast in countenance shall the kings of the earth have become, And the strong who possess the land because of the works of their hands, For on the day of their anguish and affliction they shall not (be able to) save themselves. And I will give them over into the hands of Mine elect: As straw in the fire so shall they burn before the face of the holy: As lead in the water shall they sink before the face of the righteous, And no trace of them shall any more be found. And on the day of their affliction there shall be rest on the earth, And before them they shall fall and not rise again: And there shall be no one to take them with his hands and raise them: For they have denied the Lord of Spirits and His Anointed. The name of the Lord of Spirits be blessed. For wisdom is poured out like water, And glory fails not before him for the ages.

Chapter 30

For he is mighty in all the secrets of righteousness, And unrighteousness shall disappear as a shadow, And have no continuance; Because the Elect One stands before the Lord of Spirits, And his glory is for the ages, And his might unto all generations. And in him dwells the spirit of wisdom, And the spirit which gives insight, And the spirit of understanding and of might, And the spirit of those who have fallen asleep in righteousness. And he shall judge the secret things, And none shall be able to utter a lying word before him; For he is the Elect One before the Lord of Spirits according to His good pleasure. And in those days a change shall take place for the holy and elect, And the light of days shall abide upon them, And glory and honor shall turn to the holy, On the day of affliction on which evil shall have been treasured up against the sinners. And the righteous shall be victorious in the name of the Lord of Spirits: And He will cause the others to witness (this) That they may repent And forgo the works of their hands. They shall have no honor through the name of the Lord of Spirits, Yet through His name shall they be saved, And the Lord of Spirits will have compassion on them, For His compassion is great. And He is righteous also in His judgment, And in the presence of His glory unrighteousness also shall not maintain itself: At His judgment the unrepentant shall perish before Him. And from henceforth I will have no mercy on them, says the Lord of Spirits. And in those days shall the earth also give back that which has been entrusted to it, And Sheol also shall give back that which it has received, And hell shall give back that which it owes. For in those days the Elect One shall arise, And he shall choose the righteous and holy from among them: For the day has drawn nigh that they should be saved.

Chapter 31

And the Elect One shall in those days sit on My throne, And his mouth shall pour forth all the secrets of wisdom and counsel: For the Lord of Spirits has given (them) to him and has glorified him. And in those days shall the mountains leap like rams, And the hills also shall skip like lambs satisfied with milk, And the faces of [all] the angels in heaven shall be lighted up with joy. And the earth shall rejoice, And the righteous shall dwell upon it, And the elect shall walk thereon. And after those days in that place where I had seen all the visions of that which is hidden [UT] - for I had been carried off in a whirlwind and they had borne me towards the west - There mine eyes saw all the secret things of heaven that shall be, a mountain of iron, and a mountain of copper, and a mountain of silver, and a mountain of gold, and a mountain of soft metal, and a mountain of lead. And I asked the angel who went with me, saying, ‘What things are these which I have seen in secret? ’ And he said unto me: ‘All these things which you have seen shall serve the dominion of His Anointed that he may be potent and mighty on the earth.’ And that angel of peace answered, saying unto me: ‘Wait a little, and there shall be revealed unto you all the secret things that surround the Lord of Spirits. And these mountains which your eyes have seen, The mountain of iron, and the mountain of copper, and the mountain of silver, And the mountain of gold, and the mountain of soft metal, and the mountain of lead, All these shall be in the presence of the Elect One As wax: before the fire, And like the water which streams down from above [upon those mountains], And they shall become powerless before his feet. And it shall come to pass in those days that none shall be saved, Either by gold or by silver, And none be able to escape. And there shall be no iron for war, Nor shall one clothe oneself with a breastplate. Bronze shall be of no service, And tin [shall be of no service and] shall not be esteemed, And lead shall not be desired. And all these things shall be [denied and] destroyed from the surface of the earth, When the Elect One shall appear before the face of the Lord of Spirits.’ There mine eyes saw a deep valley with open mouths, and all who dwell on the earth and sea and islands shall bring to him gifts and presents and tokens of homage, but that deep valley shall not become full.

Chapter 32

And their hands commit lawless deeds, And the sinners devour all whom they lawlessly oppress: Yet the sinners shall be destroyed before the face of the Lord of Spirits, And they shall be banished from off the face of His earth, And they shall perish for the ages. For I saw all the angels of punishment abiding (there) and preparing all the instruments of Satan. And I asked the angel of peace who went with me: ‘ For whom are they preparing these instruments? ’ And he said unto me: ‘ They prepare these for the kings and the mighty of this earth, that they may thereby be destroyed. And after this the Righteous and Elect One shall cause the house of his congregation to appear: henceforth they shall be no more hindered in the name of the Lord of Spirits. And these mountains shall not stand as the earth before his righteousness, But the hills shall be as a fountain of water, And the righteous shall have rest from the oppression of sinners.’ And I looked and turned to another part of the earth, and saw there a deep valley with burning fire. And they brought the kings and the mighty, and began to cast them into this deep valley. And there mine eyes saw how they made these their instruments, iron chains of immeasurable weight. And I asked the angel of peace who went with me, saying: ‘ For whom are these chains being prepared? ’And he said unto me: ‘ These are being prepared for the hosts of Azazel, so that they may take them and cast them into the abyss of complete condemnation, and they shall cover their jaws with rough stones as the Lord of Spirits commanded. And Michael, and Gabriel, and Raphael, and Phanuel shall take hold of them on that great day, and cast them on that day into the burning furnace, that the Lord of Spirits may take vengeance on them for their unrighteousness in becoming subject to Satan and leading astray those who dwell on the earth.’ And in those days shall punishment come from the Lord of Spirits, and he will open all the chambers of waters which are above the heavens, and of the fountains which are beneath the earth. And all the waters shall be joined with the waters: that which is above the heavens is the masculine, and the water which is beneath the earth is the feminine.

Chapter 33

And they shall destroy all who dwell on the earth and those who dwell under the ends of the heaven. And when they have recognized their unrighteousness which they have wrought on the earth, then by these shall they perish. And after that the Head of Days repented and said: ‘ In vain have I destroyed all who dwell on the earth.’ And He swore by His great name: ‘ Henceforth I will not do so to all who dwell on the earth, and I will set a sign in the heaven: and this shall be a pledge of good faith between Me and them for the ages, so long as heaven is above the earth. And this is in accordance with My command. When I have desired to take hold of them by the hand of the angels on the day of tribulation and pain because of this, I will cause My chastisement and My wrath to abide upon them, says Elohim, the Lord of Spirits. You mighty kings who dwell on the earth, you shall have to behold Mine Elect One, and how he sits on the throne of glory and judges Azazel, and all his associates, and all his hosts in the name of the Lord of Spirits.’ And I saw there the hosts of the angels of punishment going, and they held scourges and chains of iron and bronze. And I asked the angel of peace who went with me, saying: ‘ To whom are these who hold the scourges going? ’And he said unto me: ‘ To their elect and beloved ones, that they may be cast into the chasm of the abyss of the valley. And then that valley shall be filled with their elect and beloved, And the days of their lives shall be at an end, And the days of their leading astray shall not thenceforward be reckoned. And in those days the angels shall return And hurl themselves to the east upon the Parthians and Medes: They shall stir up the kings, so that a spirit of unrest shall come upon them, And they shall rouse them from their thrones, That they may break forth as lions from their lairs, And as hungry wolves among their flocks. And they shall go up and tread underfoot the land of His elect ones [And the land of His elect ones shall be before them a threshing-floor and a highway:] But the city of my righteous shall be a hindrance to their horses.

Chapter 34

And they shall begin to fight among themselves, And their right hand shall be strong against themselves, And a man shall not know his brother, Nor a son his father or his mother, Till there be no number of the corpses through their slaughter, And their punishment be not in vain. In those days Sheol shall open its jaws, And they shall be swallowed up therein And their destruction shall be at an end; Sheol shall devour the sinners in the presence of the elect.' And it came to pass after this that I saw another host of wagons, and men riding thereon, and coming on the winds from the east, and from the west to the south. And the noise of their wagons was heard, and when this turmoil took place the holy ones from heaven remarked it, and the pillars of the earth were moved from their place, and the sound thereof was heard from the one end of heaven to the other, in one day. And they shall all fall down and worship the Lord of Spirits. And this is the end of the second Parable. And I began to speak the third Parable concerning the righteous and elect. Blessed are you, you righteous and elect. For glorious shall be your lot. And the righteous shall be in the light of the sun. And the elect in the light of aionian life: The days of their life shall be unending, And the days of the holy without number.

Chapter 35

And they shall seek the light and find righteousness with the Lord of Spirits: There shall be peace to the righteous in the name of the Aionian Lord. And after this it shall be said to the holy in heaven That they should seek out the secrets of righteousness, the heritage of faith: For it has become bright as the sun upon earth, And the darkness is past. And there shall be a light that never ends, And to a limit (lit. ‘ number ’) of days they shall not come, For the darkness shall first have been destroyed, [And the light established before the Lord of Spirits] And the light of uprightness established for the ages before the Lord of Spirits. [In those days mine eyes saw the secrets of the lightning’s, and of the lights, and the judgments they execute (lit. ‘ their judgment ’): and they lighten for a blessing or a curse as the Lord of Spirits willeth. And there I saw the secrets of the thunder, and how when it resounds above in the heaven, the sound thereof is heard, and he caused me to see the judgments executed on the earth, whether they be for well-being and blessing, or for a curse according to the word of the Lord of Spirits. And after that all the secrets of the lights and lightning’s were shown to me, and they lighten for blessing and for satisfying.] A Fragment of the Book of Noah In the year 500, in the seventh month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the life of Enoch. In that Parable I saw how a mighty quaking made the heaven of heavens to quake, and the host of the Most High, and the angels, a thousand thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, were disquieted with a great disquiet. And the Head of Days sat on the throne of His glory, and the angels and the righteous stood around Him. And a great trembling seized me, And fear took hold of me, And my loins gave way, And dissolved were my reins, And I fell upon my face. And Michael sent another angel from among the holy ones and he raised me up, and when he had raised me up my spirit returned; for I had not been able to endure the look of this host, and the commotion and the quaking of the heaven. And Michael said unto me: 'Why are you disquieted with such a vision?

Chapter 36

Until this day lasted the day of His mercy; and He has been merciful and long-suffering towards those who dwell on the earth. And when the day, and the power, and the punishment, and the judgment come, which the Lord of Spirits has prepared for those who worship not the righteous law, and for those who deny the righteous judgment, and for those who take His name in vain, that day is prepared. For the elect, a covenant, but for sinners an inquisition. When the punishment of the Lord of Spirits shall rest upon them, it shall rest in order that the punishment of the Lord of Spirits may not come, in vain, and it shall slay the children with their mothers and the children with their fathers. Afterwards the judgment shall take place according to His mercy and His patience.' And on that day were two monsters parted, a female monster named Leviathan, to dwell in the abysses of the ocean over the fountains of the waters. But the male is named Behemoth, who occupied with his breast a waste wilderness named Duidain, on the east of the garden where the elect and righteous dwell, where my grandfather was taken up, the seventh from Adam, the first man whom the Lord of Spirits created. And I besought the other angel that he should show me the might of those monsters, how they were parted on one day and cast, the one into the abysses of the sea, and the other unto the dry land of the wilderness. And he said to me: 'You son of man, herein you do seek to know what is hidden.' And the other angel who went with me and showed me what was hidden told me what is first and last in the heaven in the height, and beneath the earth in the depth, and at the ends of the heaven, and on the foundation of the heaven. And the chambers of the winds, and how the winds are divided, and how they are weighed, and (how) the portals of the winds are reckoned, each according to the power of the wind, and the power of the lights of the moon, and according to the power that is fitting: and the divisions of the stars according to their names, and how all the divisions are divided. And the thunders according to the places where they fall, and all the divisions that are made among the lightning's that it may lighten, and their host that they may at once obey.

Chapter 37

For the thunder has places of rest (which) are assigned (to it) while it is waiting for its peal; and the thunder and lightning are inseparable, and although not one and undivided, they both go together through the spirit and separate not. For when the lightning lightens, the thunder utters its voice, and the spirit enforces a pause during the peal, and divides equally between them; for the treasury of their peals is like the sand, and each one of them as it peals is held in with a bridle, and turned back by the power of the spirit, and pushed forward according to the many quarters of the earth. And the spirit of the sea is masculine and strong, and according to the might of his strength he draws it back with a rein, and in like manner it is driven forward and disperses amid all the mountains of the earth. And the spirit of the hoarfrost is his own angel, and the spirit of the hail is a good angel. And the spirit of the snow has forsaken his chambers on account of his strength - There is a special spirit therein, and that which ascends from it is like smoke, and its name is frost. And the spirit of the mist is not united with them in their chambers, but it has a special chamber; for its course is glorious both in light and in darkness, and in winter and in summer, and in its chamber is an angel. And the spirit of the dew has its dwelling at the ends of the heaven, and is connected with the chambers of the rain, and its course is in winter and summer: and its clouds and the clouds of the mist are connected, and the one gives to the other. And when the spirit of the rain goes forth from its chamber, the angels come and open the chamber and lead it out, and when it is diffused over the whole earth it unites with the water on the earth. And it unites with the water on the earth . . . For the waters are for those who dwell on the earth; for they are nourishment for the earth from the Most High who is in heaven: therefore there is a measure for the rain, , and the angels take it in charge.

Chapter 38

And these things I saw towards the Garden of the Righteous. And the angel of peace who was with me said to me: ‘ These two monsters, prepared conformably to the greatness of Elohim, shall feed . . . And I saw in those days how long cords were given to those angels, and they took to themselves wings and flew, and they went towards the north. And I asked the angel, saying unto him: ‘ Why have those (angels) taken these cords and gone off? ’ And he said unto me: ‘ They have gone to measure.’ And the angel who went with me said unto me: ‘These shall bring the measures of the righteous, And the ropes of the righteous to the righteous, That they may stay themselves on the name of the Lord of Spirits for the ages of the ages. The elect shall begin to dwell with the elect, And those are the measures which shall be given to faith And which shall strengthen righteousness. And these measures shall reveal all the secrets of the depths of the earth, And those who have been destroyed by the desert, And those who have been devoured by the beasts, And those who have been devoured by the fish of the sea, That they may return and stay themselves On the day of the Elect One; For none shall be destroyed before the Lord of Spirits, And none can be destroyed. And all who dwell above in the heaven received a command and power and one voice and one light like unto fire. And that One (with) their first words they blessed. And extolled and lauded with wisdom, And they were wise in utterance and in the spirit of life. And the Lord of Spirits placed the Elect one on the throne of glory.

Chapter 39

And he shall judge all the works of the holy above in the heaven,

And in the balance shall their deeds be weighed And when he shall lift up his countenance To judge their secret ways according to the word of the name of the Lord of Spirits, And their path according to the way of the righteous judgment of the Lord of Spirits, Then shall they all with one voice speak and bless, And glorify and extol and sanctify the name of the Lord of Spirits. And He will summon all the host of the heavens, and all the holy ones above, and the host of Elohim, the Cherubic, Seraphin and Ophannin, and all the angels of power, and all the angels of principalities, and the Elect One, and the other powers on the earth (and) over the water. On that day shall raise one voice, and bless and glorify and exalt in the spirit of faith, and in the spirit of wisdom, and in the spirit of patience, and in the spirit of mercy, and in the spirit of judgment and of peace, and in the spirit of goodness, and shall all say with one voice: "Blessed is He, and may the name of the Lord of Spirits be blessed for the ages of the ages." All who sleep not above in heaven shall bless Him: All the holy ones who are in heaven shall bless Him, And all the elect who dwell in the garden of life: And every spirit of light who is able to bless, and glorify, and extol, and hallow your blessed Name, And all flesh shall beyond measure glorify and bless your Name for the ages of the ages. For great is the mercy of the Lord of Spirits, and He is long-suffering, And all His works and all that He has created He has revealed to the righteous and elect In the name of the Lord of Spirits. And thus the Lord commanded the kings and the mighty and the exalted, and those who dwell on the earth, and said: 'Open your eyes and lift up your horns if you are able to recognize the Elect One.' And the Lord of Spirits seated him on the throne of His glory, And the spirit of righteousness was poured out upon him, And the word of his mouth slays all the sinners, And all the unrighteous are destroyed from before his face. And there shall stand up in that day all the kings and the mighty, And the exalted and those who hold the earth, And they shall see and recognize how he sits on the throne of his glory, And righteousness is judged before him, And no lying word is spoken before him. Then shall pain come upon them as on a woman in travail, [And she has pain in bringing forth] When her child enters the mouth of the womb, And she has pain in bringing forth. And one portion of them shall look on the other, And they shall be terrified, And they shall be downcast of countenance, And pain shall seize them, When they see that Son of Man Sitting on the throne of his glory. And the kings and the mighty and all who possess the earth shall bless and glorify and extol him who rules over all, who was hidden [Urim-Thummim]. For from the beginning the Son of Man was hidden [Urim-Thummim], And the Most High preserved him in the presence of His might, And revealed him to the elect.

Chapter 40

And the congregation of the elect and holy shall be sown, And all the elect shall stand before him on that day. And all the kings and the mighty and the exalted and those who rule the earth Shall fall down before him on their faces, And worship and set their hope upon that Son of Man, And petition him and supplicate for mercy at his hands. Nevertheless that Lord of Spirits will so press them That they shall hastily go forth from His presence, And their faces shall be filled with shame, And the darkness grow deeper on their faces. And He will deliver them to the angels for punishment, To execute vengeance on them because they have oppressed His children and His elect And they shall be a spectacle for the righteous and for His elect: They shall rejoice over them, Because the wrath of the Lord of Spirits rested upon them, And His sword is drunk with their blood. And the righteous and elect shall be saved on that day, And they shall never thenceforward see the face of the sinners and unrighteous. And the Lord of Spirits will abide over them, And with that Son of Man shall they eat And lie down and rise up for the ages. And the righteous and elect shall have risen from the earth, And ceased to be of downcast countenance. And they shall have been clothed with garments of glory, And these shall be the garments of life from the Lord of Spirits: And your garments shall not grow old, Nor your glory pass away before the Lord of Spirits. In those days shall the mighty and the kings who possess the earth implore (Him) to grant them a little respite from His angels of punishment to whom they were delivered, that they might fall down and worship before the Lord of Spirits, and confess their sins before Him. And they shall bless and glorify the Lord of Spirits, and say: 'Blessed is the Lord of Spirits and the Lord of kings, And the Lord of the mighty and the Lord of the rich, And the Lord of Glory and the Lord of wisdom, And splendid in every secret thing is Your power from generation to generation, And your glory for the ages: Deep are all Your secrets and innumerable, And Your righteousness is beyond reckoning.

Chapter 41

We have now learnt that we should glorify And bless the Lord of kings and Him who is king over all kings.' And they shall say: 'Would that we had rest to glorify and give thanks And confess our faith before His glory! And now we long for a little rest but find it not: We follow hard upon and obtain (it) not: And light has vanished from before us, And darkness is our dwelling-place for the ages of the ages: For we have not believed before Him Nor glorified the name of the Lord of Spirits, [nor glorified our Lord] But our hope was in the scepter of our kingdom, And in our glory. And in the day of our suffering and tribulation He saves us not, And we find no respite for confession That our Lord is true in all His works, and in His judgments and His justice, And His judgments have no respect of persons. And we pass away from before His face on account of our works, And all our sins are reckoned up in righteousness.' Now they shall say unto themselves: ' Our souls are full of unrighteous gain, but it does not prevent us from descending from the midst thereof into the burden of Sheol.' And after that their faces shall be filled with darkness And shame before that Son of Man, And they shall be driven from his presence, And the sword shall abide before his face in their midst. Thus spoke the Lord of Spirits: ' This is the ordinance and judgment with respect to the mighty and the kings and the exalted and those who possess the earth before the Lord of Spirits.' And other forms I saw hidden in that place. I heard the voice of the angel saying: ' These are the angels who descended to the earth, and revealed what was hidden to the children of men and seduced the children of men into committing sin.' And in those days Noah saw the earth that it had sunk down and its destruction was nigh. And he arose from thence and went to the ends of the earth, and cried aloud to his grandfather Enoch: and Noah said three times with an embittered voice: Hear me, hear me, hear me.' And I said unto him: ‘ Tell me what it is that is falling out on the earth that the earth is in such evil plight and shaken, lest perchance I shall perish with it? ’And thereupon there was a great commotion, on the earth, and a voice was heard from heaven, and I fell on my face. And Enoch my grandfather came and stood by me, and said unto me: ‘Why have you cried unto me with a bitter cry and weeping And a command has gone forth from the presence of the Lord concerning those who dwell on the earth that their ruin is accomplished because they have learnt all the secrets of the angels, and all the violence of the Satan’s, and all their powers - the most secret ones - and all the power of those who practice sorcery, and the power of witchcraft, and the power of those who make molten images for the whole earth: And how silver is produced from the dust of the earth, and how soft metal originates in the earth. For lead and tin are not produced from the earth like the first: it is a fountain that produces them, and an angel stands therein, and that angel is pre-eminent.’ And after that my grandfather Enoch took hold of me by my hand and raised me up, and said unto me: ‘ Go, for I have asked the Lord of Spirits as touching this commotion on the earth. And He said unto me: “Because of their unrighteousness their judgment has been determined upon and shall not be withheld by Me for the ages.

Chapter 42

Because of the sorceries which they have searched out and learnt, the earth and those who dwell upon it shall be destroyed.” And these they have no place of repentance for the ages, because they have shown them what was hidden, and they are the damned: but as for you, my son, the Lord of Spirits knows that you art pure, and guiltless of this reproach concerning the secrets. And He has destined your name to be among the holy, And will preserve you amongst those who dwell on the earth, And has destined your righteous seed both for kingship and for great honors, And from your seed shall proceed a fountain of the righteous and holy without number for the ages. And after that he showed me the angels of punishment who are prepared to come and let loose all the powers of the waters which are beneath in the earth in order to bring judgment and destruction on all who [abide and] dwell on the earth. And the Lord of Spirits gave commandment to the angels who were going forth, that they should not cause the waters to rise but should hold them in check; for those angels were over the powers of the waters. And I went away from the presence of Enoch. And in those days the word of Elohim came unto me, and He said unto me: 'Noah, your lot has come Up before Me, a lot without blame, a lot of love and uprightness. And now the angels are making a wooden (building), and when they have completed that task I will place My hand upon it and preserve it, and there shall come forth from it the seed of life, and a change shall set in so that the earth will not remain without inhabitant. And I will make fast your seed before me for the ages, and I will spread abroad those who dwell with you: it shall not be unfruitful on the face of the earth, but it shall be blessed and multiply on the earth in the name of the Lord.' And He will imprison those angels, who have shown unrighteousness, in that burning valley which my grandfather Enoch had formerly shown to me in the west among the mountains of gold and silver and iron and soft metal and tin. And I saw that valley in which there was a great convulsion and a convulsion of the waters. And when all this took place, from that fiery molten metal and from the convulsion thereof in that place, there was produced a smell of sulfur, and it was connected with those waters, and that valley of the angels who had led astray (mankind) burned beneath that land.

Chapter 43

And through its valleys proceed streams of fire, where these angels are punished who had led astray those who dwell upon the earth. But those waters shall in those days serve for the kings and the mighty and the exalted, and those who dwell on the earth, for the healing of the body, but for the punishment of the spirit; now their spirit is full of lust, that they may be punished in their body, for they have denied the Lord of Spirits and see their punishment daily, and yet believe not in His name. And in proportion as the burning of their bodies becomes severe, a corresponding change shall take place in their spirit for the ages; for before the Lord of Spirits none shall utter an idle word. For the judgment shall come upon them, because they believe in the lust of their body and deny the Spirit of the Lord. And those same waters underwent a change in those days; for when those angels are punished in these waters, these water-springs shall change their temperature, and when the angels ascend, this water of the springs shall change and become cold. And I heard Michael answering and saying: 'This judgment wherewith the angels are judged is a testimony for the kings and the mighty who possess the earth.' Because these waters of judgment minister to the healing of the body of the kings and the lust of their body; therefore they will not see and will not believe that those waters will change and become a fire which burns for the ages. And after that my grandfather Enoch gave me the teaching of all the secrets in the book in the Parables which had been given to him, and he put them together for me in the words of the book of the Parables. And on that day Michael answered Raphael and said: 'The power of the spirit transports and makes me to tremble because of the severity of the judgment of the secrets, the judgment of the angels: who can endure the severe judgment which has been executed, and before which they melt away?' And Michael answered again, and said to Raphael: 'Who is he whose heart is not softened concerning it, and whose reins are not troubled by this word of judgment (that) has gone forth upon them because of those who have thus led them out?' And it came to pass when he stood before the Lord of Spirits, Michael said thus to Raphael: 'I will not take their part under the eye of the Lord; for the Lord of Spirits has been angry with them because they do as if they were the Lord. Therefore all that is hidden shall come upon them for the ages of ages; for neither angel nor man shall have his portion (in it), but alone they have received their judgment for the ages of ages. And after this judgment they shall terrify and make them to tremble because they have shown this to those who dwell on the earth.

Chapter 44

And behold the names of those angels [and these are their names: the 1st of them is Samjaza, the 2nd Artaqifa, and the 3rd Armen, the 4th Kokabel, the 5th Turael, the 6th Rumjal, the 7th Danjal, the 8th Neqael, the 9th Baraqel, the 10th Azazel, the 11th Armaros, the 12th Batarjal, the 13th Busasejal, the 14th Hananel, the 15th Turel, and the 16th Simapesiel, the 17th Jetrel, the 18th Tumael, the 19th Turel, the 20th Rumael, the 21st Azazel. And these are the chiefs of their angels and their names, and their chief ones over hundreds and over fifties and over tens]. The name of the 1st Jeqon: that is, the one who led astray [all] the sons of Elohim, and brought them down to the earth, and led them astray through the daughters of men. And the 2nd was named Asbeel: he imparted to the holy sons of Elohim evil counsel, and led them astray so that they defiled their bodies with the daughters of men. And the 3rd was named Gadreel: he it is who showed the children of men all the blows of death, and he led astray Eve, and showed [the weapons of death to the sons of men] the shield and the coat of mail, and the sword for battle, and all the weapons of death to the children of men. And from his hand they have proceeded against those who dwell on the earth from that day and for the ages. And the 4th was named Penemue: he taught the children of men the bitter and the sweet, and he taught them all the secrets of their wisdom. And he instructed mankind in writing with ink and paper, and thereby many sinned from ages to ages and until this day. For men were not created for such a purpose, to give confirmation to their good faith with pen and ink. For men were created exactly like the angels, to the intent that they should continue pure and righteous, and death, which destroys everything, could not have taken hold of them, but through this their knowledge they are perishing, and through this power it is consuming me.

Chapter 45

And the 5th was named Kasdeja: this is he who showed the children of men all the wicked smitings of spirits and demons, and the smitings of the embryo in the womb, that it may pass away, and [the smitings of the soul] the bites of the serpent, and the smitings which befall through the noontide heat, the son of the serpent named Taba'et. And this is the task of Kasbeel, the chief of the oath which he showed to the holy ones when he dwelt high above in glory, and its name is Biqa. This (angel) requested Michael to show him the hidden name that he might enunciate it in the oath, so that those might quake before that name and oath who revealed all that was in secret to the children of men. And this is the power of this oath, for it is powerful and strong, and he placed this oath Akae in the hand of Michael. And these are the secrets of this oath . . . And they are strong through his oath: And the heaven was suspended before the world was created, And for the ages And through it the earth was founded upon the water, And from the secret recesses of the mountains come beautiful waters, From the creation of the world and unto the ages. And through that oath the sea was created, And as its foundation He set for it the sand against the time of (its) anger, And it dare not pass beyond it from the creation of the world unto the ages. And through that oath are the depths made fast, And abide and stir not from their place from age to age. And through that oath the sun and moon complete their course, And deviate not from their ordinance from ages to ages. And through that oath the stars complete their course, And He calls them by their names, And they answer Him from age to age. [And in like manner the spirits of the water, and of the winds, and of all zephyrs, and (their) paths from all the quarters of the winds.

Chapter 46

And there are preserved the voices of the thunder and the light of the lightnings: and there are preserved the chambers of the hail and the chambers of the hoarfrost, and the chambers of the mist, and the chambers of the rain and the dew. And all these believe and give thanks before the Lord of Spirits, and glorify (Him) with all their power, and their food is in every act of thanksgiving: they thank and glorify and extol the name of the Lord of Spirits for the ages of the ages.] And this oath is mighty over them And through it [they are preserved and] their paths are preserved, And their course is not destroyed. And there was great joy amongst them, And they blessed and glorified and extolled Because the name of that Son of Man had been revealed unto them. And he sat on the throne of his glory, And the sum of judgment was given unto the Son of Man [Joshua Messiah], And he caused the sinners to pass away and be destroyed from off the face of the earth, And those who have led the world astray. With chains shall they be bound, And in their assemblage-place of destruction shall they be imprisoned, And all their works vanish from the face of the earth. And from henceforth there shall be nothing corruptible; For that Son of Man has appeared, And has seated himself on the throne of his glory, And all evil shall pass away before his face, And the word of that Son of Man shall go forth And be strong before the Lord of Spirits. And it came to pass after this that his name during his lifetime was raised aloft to that Son of Man and to the Lord of Spirits from amongst those who dwell on the earth. And he was raised aloft on the chariots of the spirit and his name vanished among them. And from that day I was no longer numbered amongst them: and he set me between the two winds, between the North and the West, where the angels took the cords to measure for me the place for the elect and righteous. And there I saw the first fathers and the righteous who from the beginning dwell in that place.

Chapter 47

And it came to pass after this that my spirit was translated And it ascended into the heavens: And I saw the holy sons of Elohim. They were stepping on flames of fire: Their garments were white [and their raiment], And their faces shone like snow. And I saw two streams of fire, And the light of that fire shone like hyacinth, And I fell on my face before the Lord of Spirits. And the angel Michael [one of the archangels] seized me by my right hand, And lifted me up and led me forth into all the secrets, And he showed me all the secrets of righteousness. And he showed me all the secrets of the ends of the heaven, And all the chambers of all the stars, and all the luminaries, Whence they proceed before the face of the holy ones. And he translated my spirit into the heaven of heavens, And I saw there as it were a structure built of crystals, And between those crystals tongues of living fire. And my spirit saw the girdle which girt that house of fire, And on its four sides were streams full of living fire, And they girt that house. And roundabout were Seraphin, Cherubic, and Ophannin: And these are they who sleep not And guard the throne of His glory. And I saw angels who could not be counted, A thousand thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand, Encircling that house. And Michael, and Raphael, and Gabriel, and Phanuel, And the holy angels who are above the heavens, Go in and out of that house.

Chapter 48

And they came forth from that house, And Michael and Gabriel, Raphael and Phanuel, And many holy angels without number. And with them the Head of Days, His head white and pure as wool, And His raiment indescribable. And I fell on my face, And my whole body became relaxed, And my spirit was transfigured; And I cried with a loud voice . . . With the spirit of power, And blessed and glorified and extolled. And these blessings which went forth out of my mouth were well pleasing before that Head of Days. And that Head of Days came with Michael and Gabriel, Raphael and Phanuel, thousands and ten thousands of angels without number. [Lost passage wherein the Son of Man was described as accompanying the Head of Days, and Enoch asked one of the angels (as in xlvi. 3) concerning the Son of Man as to who he was.] And he (i.e. The angel) came to me and greeted me with his voice, and said concerning This is the Son of Man who is born unto righteousness, And righteousness abides over him, And the righteousness of the Head of Days forsakes him not.' And he said unto me: 'He proclaims unto you peace in the name of the world to come; For from hence has proceeded peace since the creation of the world, And so shall it be unto you for the ages and for the ages of ages. And all shall walk in his ways since righteousness never forsakes him: With him will be their dwelling-places, and with him their heritage, And they shall not be separated from him for the ages and ages of ages. And so there shall be length of days with that Son of Man, And the righteous shall have peace and an upright way In the name of the Lord of Spirits for the ages of ages.' Luminaries The Book of the Heavenly Luminaries The book of the courses of the luminaries of the heaven, the relations of each, according to their classes, their dominion and their seasons, according to their names and places of origin, and according to their months, which Uriel, the holy angel, who was with me, who is their guide, showed me; and he showed me all their laws exactly as they are, and how it is with regard to all the years of the world and unto the ages, till the new creation is accomplished which endures unto the ages. And this is the first law of the luminaries: the luminary the Sun has its rising in the eastern portals of the heaven, and its setting in the western portals of the heaven.

Chapter 49

And I saw six portals in which the sun rises, and six portals in which the sun sets and the moon rises and sets in these portals, and the leaders of the stars and those whom they lead: six in the east and six in the west, and all following each other in accurately corresponding order: also many windows to the right and left of these portals. And first there goes forth the great luminary, named the Sun, and his circumference is like the circumference of the heaven, and he is quite filled with illuminating and heating fire. The chariot on which he ascends, the wind drives, and the sun goes down from the heaven and returns through the north in order to reach the east, and is so guided that he comes to the appropriate (lit. ' That ') portal and shines in the face of the heaven. In this way he rises in the first month in the great portal, which is the fourth [those six portals in the cast]. And in that fourth portal from which the sun rises in the first month are twelve window-openings, from which proceed a flame when they are opened in their season. When the sun rises in the heaven, he comes forth through that fourth portal thirty, mornings in succession, and sets accurately in the fourth portal in the west of the heaven. And during this period the day becomes daily longer and the night nightly shorter to the thirtieth morning. On that day the day is longer than the night by a ninth part, and the day amounts exactly to ten parts and the night to eight parts. And the sun rises from that fourth portal, and sets in the fourth and returns to the fifth portal of the east thirty mornings, and rises from it and sets in the fifth portal. And then the day becomes longer by two parts and amounts to eleven parts, and the night becomes shorter and amounts to seven parts.

Chapter 50

And it returns to the east and enters into the sixth portal, and rises and sets in the sixth portal thirty-one mornings on account of its sign. On that day the day becomes longer than the night, and the day becomes double the night, and the day becomes twelve parts, and the night is shortened and becomes six parts. And the sun mounts up to make the day shorter and the night longer, and the sun returns to the east and enters into the sixth portal, and rises from it and sets thirty mornings. And when thirty mornings are accomplished, the day decreases by exactly one part, and becomes eleven parts, and the night seven. And the sun goes forth from that sixth portal in the west, and goes to the east and rises in the fifth portal for thirty mornings, and sets in the west again in the fifth western portal. On that day the day decreases by two parts, and amounts to ten parts and the night to eight parts. And the sun goes forth from that fifth portal and sets in the fifth portal of the west, and rises in the fourth portal for one- and-thirty mornings on account of its sign, and sets in the west. On that day the day is equalized with the night, [and becomes of equal length], and the night amounts to nine parts and the day to nine parts. And the sun rises from that portal and sets in the west, and returns to the east and rises thirty mornings in the third portal and sets in the west in the third portal. And on that day the night becomes longer than the day, and night becomes longer than night, and day shorter than day till the thirtieth morning, and the night amounts exactly to ten parts and the day to eight parts.

Chapter 51

And the sun rises from that third portal and sets in the third portal in the west and returns to the east, and for thirty mornings' rises in the second portal in the east, and in like manner sets in the second portal in the west of the heaven. And on that day the night amounts to eleven parts and the day to seven parts. And the sun rises on that day from that second portal and sets in the west in the second portal, and returns to the east into the first portal for thirty-one mornings, and sets in the first portal in the west of the heaven. And on that day the night becomes longer and amounts to the double of the day: and the night amounts exactly to twelve parts and the day to six. And the sun has (therewith) traversed the divisions of his orbit and turns again on those divisions of his orbit, and enters that portal thirty mornings and sets also in the west opposite to it. And on that night has the night decreased in length by a ninth part, and the night has become eleven parts and the day seven parts. And the sun has returned and entered into the second portal in the east, and returns on those his divisions of his orbit for thirty mornings, rising and setting. And on that day the night decreases in length, and the night amounts to ten parts and the day to eight. And on that day the sun rises from that portal, and sets in the west, and returns to the east, and rises in the third portal for thirty-one mornings, and sets in the west of the heaven. On that day the night decreases and amounts to nine parts, and the day to nine parts, and the night is equal to the day and the year is exactly as to its days three hundred and sixty-four.

Chapter 52

And the length of the day and of the night, and the shortness of the day and of the night arise-through the course of the sun these distinctions are made (lit. 'They are separated'). So it comes that its course becomes daily longer, and its course nightly shorter. And this is the law and the course of the sun, and his return as often as he returns sixty times and rises, i.e. The great luminary which is named the sun, for the ages. And that which (thus) rises is the great luminary, and is so named according to its appearance, according as the Lord commanded. As he rises, so he sets and decreases not, and rests not, but runs day and night, and his light is sevenfold brighter than that of the moon; but as regards size they are both equal. And after this law I saw another law dealing with the smaller luminary, which is named the Moon. And her circumference is like the circumference of the heaven, and her chariot in which she rides is driven by the wind, and light is given to her in (definite) measure. And her rising and setting change every month: and her days are like the days of the sun, and when her light is uniform (i.e. Full) it amounts to the seventh part of the light of the sun.

Chapter 53

And thus she rises. And her first phase in the east comes forth on the thirtieth morning: and on that day she becomes visible, and constitutes for you the first phase of the moon on the thirtieth day together with the sun in the portal where the sun rises. And the one-half of her goes forth by a seventh part, and her whole circumference is empty, though light, with the exception of one-seventh part of it, (and) the fourteenth part of her light. And when she receives one-seventh part of the half of her light, her light amounts to one-seventh part and the half thereof. And she sets with the sun, and when the sun rises the moon rises with him and receives the half of one part of light, and in that night in the beginning of her morning [in the commencement of the lunar day] the moon sets with the sun, and is invisible that night with the fourteen parts and the half of one of them. And she rises on that day with exactly a seventh part, and comes forth and recedes from the rising of the sun, and in her remaining days she becomes bright in the (remaining) thirteen parts. And I saw another course, a law for her, (and) how according to that law she performs her monthly revolution. And all these Uriel, the holy angel who is the leader of them all, showed to me, and their positions, and I wrote down their positions as he showed them to me, and I wrote down their months as they were, and the appearance of their lights till fifteen days were accomplished. In single seventh parts she accomplishes all her light in the east, and in single seventh parts accomplishes all her darkness in the west. And in certain months she alters her settings, and in certain months she pursues her own peculiar course.

Chapter 54

In two months the moon sets with the sun: in those two middle portals the third and the fourth. She goes forth for seven days, and turns about and returns again through the portal where the sun rises, and accomplishes all her light: and she recedes from the sun, and in eight days enters the sixth portal from which the sun goes forth. And when the sun goes forth from the fourth portal she goes forth seven days, until she goes forth from the fifth and turns back again in seven days into the fourth portal and accomplishes all her light: and she recedes and enters into the first portal in eight days. And she returns again in seven days into the fourth portal from which the sun goes forth. Thus I saw their position -how the moons rose and the sun set in those days. And if five years are added together the sun has an over plus of thirty days, and all the days which accrue to it for one of those five years, when they are full, amount to 364 days. And the over plus of the sun and of the stars amounts to six days: in 5 years 6 days every year come to 30 days: and the moon falls behind the sun and stars to the number of 30 days. And the sun and the stars bring in all the years exactly, so that they do not advance or delay their position by a single day unto the ages; but complete the years with perfect justice in 364 days. In 3 years there are 1,092 days, and in 5 years 1,820 days, so that in 8 years there are 2,912 days. For the moon alone the days amount in 3 years to 1,062 days, and in 5 years she falls 50 days behind: [i.e.

Chapter 55

Of the sum (of 1,770) there is 5 to be added (1,000 and) 62 days.] And in 5 years there are 1,770 days, so that for the moon the days 6 in 8 years amount to 21,832 days. [For in 8 years she falls behind to the amount of 80 days], all the 17 days she falls behind in 8 years are 80. And the year is accurately completed in conformity with their world-stations and the stations of the sun, which rise from the portals through which it (the sun) rises and sets 30 days. And the leaders of the heads of the thousands, who are placed over the whole creation and over all the stars, have also to do with the four intercalary days, being inseparable from their office, according to the reckoning of the year, and these render service on the four days which are not reckoned in the reckoning of the year. And owing to them men go wrong therein, for those luminaries truly render service on the world-stations, one in the first portal, one in the third portal of the heaven, one in the fourth portal, and one in the sixth portal, and the exactness of the year is accomplished through its separate three hundred and sixty-four stations. For the signs and the times and the years and the days the angel Uriel showed to me, whom the Lord of Glory has set for the ages over all the luminaries of the heaven, in the heaven and in the world, that they should rule on the face of the heaven and be seen on the earth, and be leaders for the day and the night, i.e. The sun, moon, and stars, and all the ministering creatures which make their revolution in all the chariots of the heaven. In like manner twelve doors Uriel showed me, open in the circumference of the sun's chariot in the heaven, through which the rays of the sun break forth: and from them is warmth diffused over the earth, when they are opened at their appointed seasons. [And for the winds and the spirit of the dew when they are opened, standing open in the heavens at the ends.] As for the twelve portals in the heaven, at the ends of the earth, out of which go forth the sun, moon, and stars, and all the works of heaven in the east and in the west, There are many windows open to the left and right of them, and one window at its (appointed) season produces warmth, corresponding (as these do) to those doors from which the stars come forth according as He has commanded them, and wherein they set corresponding to their number. And I saw chariots in the heaven, running in the world, above those portals in which revolve the stars that never set. And one is larger than all the rest, and it is that that makes its course through the entire world. And at the ends of the earth I saw twelve portals open to all the quarters (of the heaven), from which the winds go forth and blow over the earth.

Chapter 56

Three of them are open on the face (i.e. The east) of the heavens, and three in the west, and three on the right (i.e. The south) of the heaven, and three on the left (i.e. The north). And the three first are those of the east, and three are of the north, and three [after those on the left] of the south, and three of the west. Through four of these come winds of blessing and prosperity, and from those eight come hurtful winds: when they are sent, they bring destruction on all the earth and on the water upon it, and on all who dwell thereon, and on everything which is in the water and on the land. And the first wind from those portals, called the east wind, comes forth through the first portal which is in the east, inclining towards the south: from it come forth desolation, drought, heat, and destruction. And through the second portal in the middle comes what is fitting, and from it there come rain and fruitfulness and prosperity and dew; and through the third portal which lies towards the north come cold and drought. And after these come forth the south winds through three portals: through the first portal of them inclining to the east comes forth a hot wind. And through the middle portal next to it there come forth fragrant smells, and dew and rain, and prosperity and health.

Chapter 57

And through the third portal lying to the west come forth dew and rain, locusts and desolation. And after these the north winds: from the seventh portal in the east come dew and rain, locusts and desolation. And from the middle portal come in a direct direction health and rain and dew and prosperity; and through the third portal in the west come cloud and hoar frost, and snow and rain, and dew and locusts. And after these [four] are the west winds: through the first portal adjoining the north come forth dew and hoar frost, and cold and snow and frost. And from the middle portal come forth dew and rain, and prosperity and blessing; and through the last portal which adjoins the south come forth drought and desolation, and burning and destruction. And the twelve portals of the four-quarters of the heaven are therewith completed, and all their laws and all their plagues and all their benefactions have I shown to you, my son Methuselah. And the first quarter is called the east, because it is the first: and the second, the south, because the Most High will descend there, yes, there in quite a special sense will He who is blessed for the ages descend. And the west quarter is named the diminished, because there all the luminaries of the heaven wane and go down. And the fourth quarter, named the north, is divided into three parts: the first of them is for the dwelling of men: and the second contains seas of water, and the abysses and forests and rivers, and darkness and clouds; and the third part contains the Garden of Righteousness. I saw seven high mountains, higher than all the mountains which are on the earth: and thence comes forth hoar frost, and days, seasons, and years pass away.

Chapter 58

I saw seven rivers on the earth larger than all the rivers: one of them coming from the west pours its waters into the Great Sea. And these two come from the north to the sea and pour their waters into the Erythraean Sea in the east. And the remaining, four come forth on the side of the north to their own sea, two of them to the Erythraean Sea, and two into the Great Sea and discharge themselves there [and some say: into the desert]. Seven great islands I saw in the sea and in the mainland: two on the mainland and five in the Great Sea. And the names of the sun are the following: the first Orjares, and the second Tomas. And the moon has four names: the first name is Asonja, the second Ebla, the third Benase, and the fourth Erae. These are the two great luminaries: their circumference is like the circumference of the heaven, and the size of the circumference of both is alike. In the circumference of the sun there are seven portions of light [Pleiades, rainbow] that are added to it more than to the moon, and in definite measures it is s transferred till the seventh portion of the sun is exhausted. And they set and enter the portals of the west, and make their revolution by the north, and come forth through the eastern portals on the face of the heaven. And when the moon rises one-fourteenth part appears in the heaven: [the light becomes full in her]: on the fourteenth day she accomplishes her light.

Chapter 59

And fifteen parts of light are transferred to her till the fifteenth day (when) her light is accomplished, according to the sign of the year, and she becomes fifteen parts, and the moon grows by (the addition of) fourteenth parts. And in her waning (the moon) decreases on the first day to fourteen parts of her light, on the second to thirteen parts of light, on the third to twelve, on the fourth to eleven, on the fifth to ten, on the sixth to nine, on the seventh to eight, on the eighth to seven, on the ninth to six, on the tenth to five, on the eleventh to four, on the twelfth to three, on the thirteenth to two, on the fourteenth to the half of a seventh, and all her remaining light disappears wholly on the fifteenth. And in certain months the month has twenty-nine days and once twenty-eight. And Uriel showed me another law: when light is transferred to the moon, and on which side it is transferred to her by the sun. During all the period during which the moon is growing in her light, she is transferring it to herself when opposite to the sun during fourteen days [her light is accomplished in the heaven, and when she is illumined throughout, her light is accomplished full in the heaven. And on the first day she is called the new moon, for on that day the light rises upon her. She becomes full moon exactly on the day when the sun sets in the west, and from the east she rises at night, and the moon shines the whole night through till the sun rises over against her and the moon is seen over against the sun. On the side whence the light of the moon comes forth, there again she wanes till all the light vanishes and all the days of the month are at an end, and her circumference is empty, void of five lights. And three months she makes of thirty days, and at her time she makes three months of twenty-nine days each, in which she accomplishes her waning in the first period of time, and in the first six portals for one hundred and seventy-seven days. And in the time of her going out she appears for three months (of) thirty days each, and for three months she appears (of) twenty-nine each.

Chapter 60

At night she appears like a man for twenty days each time, and by day she appears like the heaven, and there is nothing else in her save her light. And now, my son, I have shown you everything, and the law of all the stars of the heaven is completed. And he showed me all the laws of these for the every day, and for the every season of bearing rule, and for the every year, and for its going forth, and for the order prescribed to it every month and every week: And the waning of the moon which takes place in the sixth portal: for in this sixth portal her light is accomplished, and after that there is the beginning of the waning: (And the waning) which takes place in the first portal in its season, till one hundred and seventy-seven days are accomplished: reckoned according to weeks, twenty-five (weeks) and two days. She falls behind the sun and the order of the stars exactly five days in the course of one period, and when this place which you sees has been traversed. Such is the picture and sketch of every luminary which Uriel the archangel, who is their leader, showed unto me. And in those days the angel Uriel answered and said to me: ‘ Behold, I have shown you everything, Enoch, and I have revealed everything to you that you should see this sun and this moon, and the leaders of the stars of the heaven and all those who turn them, their tasks and times and departures. And in the days of the sinners the years shall be shortened, And their seed shall be tardy on their lands and fields, And all things on the earth shall alter, And shall not appear in their time: And the rain shall be kept back And the heaven shall withhold (it). And in those times the fruits of the earth shall be backward, And shall not grow in their time, And the fruits of the trees shall be withheld in their time. And the moon shall alter her order, And not appear at her time. [And in those days the sun shall be seen and he shall journey in the evening on the extremity of the great chariot in the west] And shall shine more brightly than accords with the order of light. And many chiefs of the stars shall transgress the order (prescribed).

Chapter 61

And these shall alter their orbits and tasks, And not appear at the seasons prescribed to them. And the whole order of the stars shall be concealed from the sinners, And the thoughts of those on the earth shall err concerning them, [And they shall be altered from all their ways], Yes, they shall err and take them to be Elohim. And evil shall be multiplied upon them, And punishment shall come upon them So as to destroy all.’

And he said unto me: ‘Observe, Enoch, these heavenly tablets, And read what is written thereon, And mark every individual fact.’ And I observed the heavenly tablets, and read everything which was written (thereon) and understood everything, and read the book of all the deeds of mankind, and of all the children of flesh that shall be upon the earth to the remotest generations. And forthwith I blessed the great Lord the King of glory for the ages, in that He has made all the works of the world, And I extolled the Lord because of His patience, And blessed Him because of the children of men. And after that I said: ‘Blessed is the man who dies in righteousness and goodness, Concerning whom there is no book of unrighteousness written, And against whom no day of judgment shall be found.’ And those seven holy ones (seven stars = the seven messengers, Pleiades) brought me and placed me on the earth before the door of my house, and said to me: ‘ Declare everything to your son Methuselah, and show to all your children that no flesh is righteous in the sight of the Lord, for He is their Creator. One year we will leave you with your son, till you give your (last) commands, that you may teach your children and record (it) for them, and testify to all your children; and in the second year they shall take you from their midst. Let your heart be strong, For the good shall announce righteousness to the good; The righteous with the righteous shall rejoice, And shall offer congratulation to one another. But the sinners shall die with the sinners, And the apostate go down with the apostate. And those who practice righteousness shall die on account of the deeds of men, And be taken away on account of the doings of the godless.’ And in those days they ceased to speak to me, and I came to my people, blessing the Lord of the world. And now, my son Methuselah, all these things I am recounting to you and writing down for you!

Chapter 62

And I have revealed to you everything, and given you books concerning all these: so preserve, my son Methuselah, the books from your father's hand, and (see) that you deliver them to the generations of the world. I have given Wisdom to you and to your children, [And your children that shall be to you], That they may give it to their children for generations, This wisdom (namely) that passes their thought. And those who understand it shall not sleep, But shall listen with the ear that they may learn this wisdom, And it shall please those that eat thereof better than good food. Blessed are all the righteous, blessed are all those who walk In the way of righteousness and sin not as the sinners, in the reckoning of all their days in which the sun traverses the heaven, entering into and departing from the portals for thirty days with the heads of thousands of the order of the stars, together with the four which are intercalated which divide the four portions of the year, which lead them and enter with them four days. Owing to them men shall be at fault and not reckon them in the whole reckoning of the year: yes, men shall be at fault, and not recognize them accurately. For they belong to the reckoning of the year and are truly recorded (thereon) for the ages, one in the first portal and one in the third, and one in the fourth and one in the sixth, and the year is completed in three hundred and sixty-four days. And the account thereof is accurate and the recorded reckoning thereof exact; for the luminaries, and months and festivals, and years and days, has Uriel shown and revealed to me, to whom the Lord of the whole creation of the world has subjected the host of heaven. And he has power over night and day in the heaven to cause the light to give light to men - sun, moon, and stars, and all the powers of the heaven which revolve in their circular chariots. And these are the orders of the stars, which set in their places, and in their seasons and festivals and months. And these are the names of those who lead them, who watch that they enter at their times, in their orders, in their seasons, in their months, in their periods of dominion, and in their positions.

Chapter 63

Their four leaders who divide the four parts of the year enter first; and after them the twelve leaders of the orders who divide the months; and for the three hundred and sixty (days) there are heads over thousands who divide the days; and for the four intercalary days there are the leaders which sunder the four parts of the year. And these heads over thousands are intercalated between leader and leader, each behind a station, but their leaders make the division. And these are the names of the leaders who divide the four parts of the year which are ordained: Milki'el, Hel'emmelek, and Mel'ejal, and Narel. And the names of those who lead them: Adnar'el, and Ijasusa'el, and 'Elome'el- these three follow the leaders of the orders, and there is one that follows the three leaders of the orders which follow those leaders of stations that divide the four parts of the year. In the beginning of the year Melkejal rises first and rules, who is named Tam'aini and sun, and all the days of his dominion while he bears rule are ninety-one days. And these are the signs of the days which are to be seen on earth in the days of his dominion: sweat, and heat, and calms; and all the trees bear fruit, and leaves are produced on all the trees, and the harvest of wheat, and the rose-flowers, and all the flowers which come forth in the field, but the trees of the winter season become withered. And these are the names of the leaders which are under them: Berka'el, Zelebs'el, and another who is added a head of a thousand, called Hilujaseph: and the days of the dominion of this (leader) are at an end. The next leader after him is Hel'emmelek, whom one names the shining sun, and all the days of his light are ninety-one days. And these are the signs of (his) days on the earth: glowing heat and dryness, and the trees ripen their fruits and produce all their fruits ripe and ready, and the sheep pair and become pregnant, and all the fruits of the earth are gathered in, and everything that is in the fields, and the winepress: these things take place in the days of his dominion. These are the names, and the orders, and the leaders of those heads of thousands: Gida'ljal, Ke'el, and He'el, and the name of the head of a thousand which is added to them, Asfa'el: and the days of his dominion are at an end.

Chapter 64

The Dream-Visions And now, my son Methuselah, I will show you all my visions which I have seen, recounting them before you. Two visions I saw before I took a wife, and the one was quite unlike the other: the first when I was learning to write: the second before I took your mother, (when) I saw a terrible three vision. And regarding them I prayed to the Lord. I had laid me down in the house of my grandfather

Mahalalel, (when) I saw in a vision how the heaven collapsed and was borne off and fell to the earth. And when it fell to the earth I saw how the earth was swallowed up in a great abyss, and mountains were suspended on mountains, and hills sank down on hills, and high trees were rent from their stems, and hurled down and sunk in the abyss. And thereupon a word fell into my mouth, and I lifted up (my voice) to cry aloud, and said: 'The earth is destroyed.' And my grandfather Mahalalel waked me as I lay near him, and said unto me: 'Why do you cry so, my son, and why do you make such lamentation?' And I recounted to him the whole vision which I had seen, and he said unto me: 'A terrible thing you have seen, my son, and of grave moment is your dream-vision as to the secrets of all the sin of the earth: it must sink into the abyss and be destroyed with a great destruction. And now, my son, arise and make petition to the Lord of Glory, since you are a believer, that a remnant may remain on the earth, and that He may not destroy the whole earth. My son, from heaven all this will come upon the earth, and upon the earth there will be great destruction. After that I arose and prayed and implored and besought, and wrote down my prayer for the generations of the world, and I will show everything to you, my son Methuselah. And when I had gone forth below and seen the heaven, and the sun rising in the east, and the moon setting in the west, and a few stars, and the whole earth, and everything as He had known it in the beginning, then I blessed the Lord of judgment and extolled Him because He had made the sun to go forth from the windows of the east, and he ascended and rose on the face of the heaven, and set out and kept traversing the path shown unto him.

Chapter 65

And I lifted up my hands in righteousness and blessed the Holy and Great One, and spoke with the breath of my mouth, and with the tongue of flesh, which Elohim has made for the children of the flesh of men, that they should speak therewith, and He gave them breath and a tongue and a mouth that they should speak therewith: Blessed be You, O Lord, King, Great and mighty in Your greatness, Lord of the whole creation of the heaven, King of kings and Elohim of the whole world. And your power and kingship and greatness abide for the ages of ages, And throughout all generations Your dominion; And all the heavens are Your throne for the ages, And the whole earth Your footstool for the ages of ages. For You have made and You rule all things, And nothing is too hard for You, Wisdom departs not from the place of Your throne, Nor turns away from Your presence. And You know and see and hearest everything, And there is nothing hidden from You [for You see everything] And now the angels of Your heavens are guilty of trespass, And upon the flesh of men abides Your wrath until the great Day of Judgment. And now, O Elohim and Lord and Great King, I implore and beseech You to fulfil my prayer, To leave me a posterity on earth, And not destroy all the flesh of man, And make the earth though inhabitant, So that there should be an aionian destruction. And now, my Lord, destroy from the earth the flesh which has aroused Your wrath, But the flesh of righteousness and uprightness establish as a plant of the aionian seed, And hide not Your face from the prayer of Your servant, O Lord.' And after this I saw another dream, and I will show the whole dream to you, my son. And Enoch lifted up (his voice) and spoke to his son Methuselah: ‘To you, my son, will I speak: hear my words; incline your ear to the dream-vision of your father. Before I took your mother Edna, I saw in a vision on my bed, and behold a bull came forth from the earth, and that bull was white; and after it came forth a heifer, and along with this (latter) came forth two bulls, one of them black and the other red. And that black bull gored the red one and pursued him over the earth, and thereupon I could no longer see that red bull. But that black bull grew and that heifer went with him, and I saw that many oxen proceeded from him which resembled and followed him.

Chapter 66

And that cow, that first one, went from the presence of that first bull in order to seek that red one, but found him not, and lamented with a great lamentation over him and sought him. And I looked till that first bull came to her and quieted her, and from that time onward she cried no more. And after that she bore another white bull, and after him she bore many bulls and black cows. And I saw in my sleep that white bull likewise grew and become a great white bull, and from Him proceeded many white bulls, and they resembled him. And they began to beget many white bulls, which resembled them, one following the other, (even) many. And again I saw with mine eyes as I slept, and I saw the heaven above, and behold a star fell from heaven, and it arose and fed and pastured amongst those oxen. And after that I saw the large and the black oxen, and behold they all changed their stalls and pastures and their cattle, and began to live with each other. And again I saw in the vision, and looked towards the heaven, and behold I saw many stars descend and cast themselves down from heaven to that first star, and they became bulls amongst those cattle and pastured with them [amongst them]. And I looked at them and saw, and behold they all let out their privy members, like horses, and began to cover the cows of the oxen, and they all became pregnant and bare elephants, camels, and asses. And all the oxen feared them and were affrighted at them, and began to bite with their teeth and to devour, and to gore with their horns.

Chapter 67

And they began, moreover, to devour those oxen; and behold all the children of the earth began to tremble and quake before them and to flee from them. And again I saw how they began to gore each other and to devour each other, and the earth began to cry aloud. And I raised mine eyes again to heaven, and I saw in the vision, and behold there came forth from heaven beings who were like white men: and four went forth from that place and three with them. And those three that had last come forth grasped me by my hand and took me up, away from the generations of the earth, and raised me up to a lofty place, and showed me a tower raised high above the earth, and all the hills were lower. And one said unto me: 'Remain here till you see everything that befalls those elephants, camels, and asses, and the stars and the oxen, and all of them.' And I saw one of those four who had come forth first, and he seized that first star which had fallen from the heaven, and bound it hand and foot and cast it into an abyss: now that abyss was narrow and deep, and horrible and dark. And one of them drew a sword, and gave it to those elephants and camels and asses: then they began to smite each other, and the whole earth quaked because of them. And as I was beholding in the vision, lo, one of those four who had come forth stoned (them) from heaven, and gathered and took all the great stars whose privy members were like those of horses, and bound them all hand and foot, and cast them into an abyss of the earth. And one of those four went to that white bull and instructed him in a secret, though his being terrified: he was born a bull and became a man, and built for himself a great vessel and dwelt thereon; and three bulls dwelt with him in that vessel and they were covered in. And again I raised mine eyes towards heaven and saw a lofty roof, with seven water torrents thereon, and those torrents flowed with much water into an enclosure. And I saw again, and behold fountains were opened on the surface of that great enclosure, and that water began to swell and rise upon the surface, and I saw that enclosure till all its surface was covered with water.

Chapter 68

And the water, the darkness, and mist increased upon it; and as I looked at the height of that water, that water had risen above the height of that enclosure, and was streaming over that enclosure, and it stood upon the earth. And all the cattle of that enclosure were gathered together until I saw how they sank and were swallowed up and perished in that water. But that vessel floated on the water, while all the oxen and elephants and camels and asses sank to the bottom with all the animals, so that I could no longer see them, and they were not able to escape, (but) perished and sank into the depths. And again I saw in the vision till those water torrents were removed from that high roof, and the chasms of the earth were leveled up and other abysses were opened. Then the water began to run down into these, till the earth became visible; but that vessel settled on the earth, and the darkness retired and light appeared. But that white bull which had become a man came out of that vessel, and the three bulls with him, and one of those three was white like that bull, and one of them was red as blood, and one black: and that white bull departed from them. And they began to bring forth beasts of the field and birds, so that there arose different genera: lions, tigers, wolves, dogs, hyenas, wild boars, foxes, squirrels, swine, falcons, vultures, kites, eagles, and ravens; and among them was born a white bull. And they began to bite one another; but that white bull which was born amongst them begat a wild ass and a white bull with it, and the wild asses multiplied. But that bull which was born from him begat a black wild boar and a white sheep; and the former begat many boars, but that sheep begat twelve sheep. And when those twelve sheep had grown, they gave up one of them to the asses, and those asses again gave up that sheep to the wolves, and that sheep grew up among the wolves.

Chapter 69

And the Lord brought the eleven sheep to live with it and to pasture with it among the wolves: and they multiplied and became many flocks of sheep. And the wolves began to fear them, and they oppressed them until they destroyed their little ones, and they cast their young into a river of much water: but those sheep began to cry aloud on account of their little ones, and to complain unto their Lord. And a sheep which had been saved from the wolves fled and escaped to the wild asses; and I saw the sheep how they lamented and cried, and besought their Lord with all their might, till that Lord of the sheep descended at the voice of the sheep from a lofty abode, and came to them and pastured them. And He called that sheep which had escaped the wolves, and spoke with it concerning the wolves that it should admonish them not to touch the sheep. And the sheep went to the wolves according to the word of the Lord, and another sheep met it and went with it, and the two went and entered together into the assembly of those wolves, and spoke with them and admonished them not to touch the sheep from henceforth. And thereupon I saw the wolves, and how they oppressed the sheep exceedingly with all their power; and the sheep cried aloud. And the Lord came to the sheep and they began to smite those wolves: and the wolves began to make lamentation; but the sheep became quiet and forthwith ceased to cry out. And I saw the sheep till they departed from amongst the wolves; but the eyes of the wolves were blinded, and those wolves departed in pursuit of the sheep with all their power. And the Lord of the sheep went with them, as their leader, and all His sheep followed Him: and his face was dazzling and glorious and terrible to behold. But the wolves began to pursue those sheep till they reached a sea of water.

Chapter 70

And that sea was divided, and the water stood on this side and on that before their face, and their Lord led them and placed Himself between them and the wolves. And as those wolves did not yet see the sheep, they proceeded into the midst of that sea, and the wolves followed the sheep, and [those wolves] ran after them into that sea. And when they saw the Lord of the sheep, they turned to flee before His face, but that sea gathered itself together, and became as it had been created, and the water swelled and rose till it covered those wolves. And I saw till all the wolves who pursued those sheep perished and were drowned. But the sheep escaped from that water and went forth into a wilderness, where there was no water and no grass; and they began to open their eyes and to see; and I saw the Lord of the sheep pasturing them and giving them water and grass, and that sheep going and leading them. And that sheep ascended to the summit of that lofty rock, and the Lord of the sheep sent it to them. And after that I saw the Lord of the sheep who stood before them, and His appearance was great and terrible and majestic, and all those sheep saw Him and were afraid before His face. And they all feared and trembled because of Him, and they cried to that sheep with them [which was amongst them]: 'We are not able to stand before our Lord or to behold Him.' And that sheep which led them again ascended to the summit of that rock, but the sheep began to be blinded and to wander from the way which he had showed them, but that sheep wot not thereof. And the Lord of the sheep was wrathful exceedingly against them, and that sheep discovered it, and went down from the summit of the rock, and came to the sheep, and found the greatest part of them blinded and fallen away. And when they saw it they feared and trembled at its presence, and desired to return to their folds.

Chapter 71

And that sheep took other sheep with it, and came to those sheep which had fallen away, and began to slay them; and the sheep feared its presence, and thus that sheep brought back those sheep that had fallen away, and they returned to their folds. And I saw in this vision till that sheep became a man and built a house for the Lord of the sheep, and placed all the sheep in that house. And I saw till this sheep which had met that sheep which led them fell asleep: and I saw till all the great sheep perished and little ones arose in their place, and they came to a pasture, and approached a stream of water. Then that sheep, their leader which had become a man, withdrew from them and fell asleep, and all the sheep sought it and cried over it with a great crying. And I saw till they left off crying for that sheep and crossed that stream of water, and there arose the two sheep as leaders in the place of those which had led them and fallen asleep (lit. 'Had fallen asleep and led them'). And I saw till the sheep came to a goodly place, and a pleasant and glorious land, and I saw till those sheep were satisfied; and that house stood amongst them in the pleasant land. And sometimes their eyes were opened, and sometimes blinded, till another sheep arose and led them and brought them all back, and their eyes were opened. And the dogs and the foxes and the wild boars began to devour those sheep till the Lord of the sheep raised up [another sheep] a ram from their midst, which led them. And that ram began to butt on either side those dogs, foxes, and wild boars till he had destroyed them all. And that sheep whose eyes were opened saw that ram, which was amongst the sheep, till it forsook its glory and began to butt those sheep, and trampled upon them, and behaved itself unseemly.

Chapter 72

And the Lord of the sheep sent the lamb to another lamb and raised it to being a ram and leader of the sheep instead of that ram which had forsaken its glory. And it went to it and spoke to it alone, and raised it to being a ram, and made it the prince and leader of the sheep; but during all these things those dogs oppressed the sheep. And the first ram pursued that second ram, and that second ram arose and fled before it; and I saw till those dogs pulled down the first ram. And that second ram arose and led the [little] sheep. And those sheep grew and multiplied; but all the dogs, and foxes, and wild boars feared and fled before it, and that ram butted and killed the wild beasts, and those wild beasts had no longer any power among the sheep and robbed them no more of ought. And that ram begat many sheep and fell asleep; and a little sheep became ram in its stead, and became prince and leader of those sheep. And that house became great and broad, and it was built for those sheep: (and) a tower lofty and great was built on the house for the Lord of the sheep, and that house was low, but the tower was elevated and lofty, and the Lord of the sheep stood on that tower and they offered a full table before Him. And again I saw those sheep that they again erred and went many ways, and forsook that their house, and the Lord of the sheep called some from amongst the sheep and sent them to the sheep, but the sheep began to slay them. And one of them was saved and was not slain, and it sped away and cried aloud over the sheep; and they sought to slay it, but the Lord of the sheep saved it from the sheep, and brought it up to me, and caused it to dwell there. And many other sheep He sent to those sheep to testify unto them and lament over them.

Chapter 73

And after that I saw that when they forsook the house of the Lord and His tower they fell away entirely, and their eyes were blinded; and I saw the Lord of the sheep how He wrought much slaughter amongst them in their herds until those sheep invited that slaughter and betrayed His place. And He gave them over into the hands of the lions and tigers, and wolves and hyenas, and into the hand of the foxes, and to all the wild beasts, and those wild beasts began to tear in pieces those sheep. And I saw that He forsook that their house and their tower and gave them all into the hand of the lions, to tear and devour them, into the hand of all the wild beasts. And I began to cry aloud with all my power, and to appeal to the Lord of the sheep, and to represent to Him in regard to the sheep that they were devoured by all the wild beasts. But He remained unmoved, though He saw it, and rejoiced that they were devoured and swallowed and robbed, and left them to be devoured in the hand of all the beasts. And He called seventy shepherds, and cast those sheep to them that they might pasture them, and He spoke to the shepherds and their companions: 'Let each individual of you pasture the sheep henceforward, and everything that I shall command you that do you. And I will deliver them over unto you duly numbered, and tell you which of them are to be destroyed and them destroy you.' And He gave over unto them those sheep. And He called another and spoke unto him: 'Observe and mark everything that the shepherds will do to those sheep; for they will destroy more of them than I have commanded them. And every excess and the destruction which will be wrought through the shepherds, record (namely) how many they destroy according to my command, and how many according to their own caprice: record against every individual shepherd all the destruction he effects. And read out before me by number how many they destroy, and how many they deliver over for destruction, that I may have this as a testimony against them, and know every deed of the shepherds, that I may comprehend and see what they do, whether or not they abide by my command which I have commanded them.

Chapter 74

But they shall not know it, and you should not declare it to them, nor admonish them, but only record against each individual all the destruction which the shepherds effect each in his time and lay it all before me.' And I saw till those shepherds pastured in their season, and they began to slay and to destroy more than they were bidden, and they delivered those sheep into the hand of the lions. And the lions and tigers eat and devoured the greater part of those sheep, and the wild boars eat along with them; and they burnt that tower and demolished that house. And I became exceedingly sorrowful over that tower because that house of the sheep was demolished, and afterwards I was unable to see if those sheep entered that house. And the shepherds and their associates delivered over those sheep to all the wild beasts, to devour them, and each one of them received in his time a definite number: it was written by the other in a book how many each one of them destroyed of them. And each one slew and destroyed many more than was prescribed; and I began to weep and lament on account of those sheep. And thus in the vision I saw that one who wrote, how he wrote down every one that was destroyed by those shepherds, day by day, and carried up and laid down and showed actually the whole book to the Lord of the sheep-(even) everything that they had done, and all that each one of them had made away with, and all that they had given over to destruction. And the book was read before the Lord of the sheep, and He took the book from his hand and read it and sealed it and laid it down. And forthwith I saw how the shepherds pastured for twelve hours, and behold three of those sheep turned back and came and entered and began to build up all that had fallen down of that house; but the wild boars tried to hinder them, but they were not able. And they began again to build as before, and they reared up that tower, and it was named the high tower; and they began again to place a table before the tower, but all the bread on it was polluted and not pure. And as touching all this the eyes of those sheep were blinded so that they saw not, and (the eyes of) their shepherds likewise; and they delivered them in large numbers to their shepherds for destruction, and they trampled the sheep with their feet and devoured them.

Chapter 75

And the Lord of the sheep remained unmoved till all the sheep were dispersed over the field and mingled with them (i.e. The beasts), and they (i.e. The shepherds) did not save them out of the hand of the beasts. And this one who wrote the book carried it up, and showed it and read it before the Lord of the sheep, and implored Him on their account, and besought Him on their account as he showed Him all the doings of the shepherds, and gave testimony before Him against all the shepherds.

And he took the actual book and laid it down beside Him and departed. And I saw till that in this manner thirty-five shepherds undertook the pasturing (of the sheep), and they severally completed their periods as did the first; and others received them into their hands, to pasture them for their period, each shepherd in his own period. And after that I saw in my vision all the birds of heaven coming, the eagles, the vultures, the kites, the ravens; but the eagles led all the birds; and they began to devour those sheep, and to pick out their eyes and to devour their flesh. And the sheep cried out because their flesh was being devoured by the birds, and as for me I looked and lamented in my sleep over that shepherd who pastured the sheep. And I saw until those sheep were devoured by the dogs and eagles and kites, and they left neither flesh nor skin nor sinew remaining on them till only their bones stood there: and their bones too fell to the earth and the sheep became few. And I saw until that twenty-three had undertaken the pasturing and completed in their several periods fifty-eight times.

Chapter 76

But behold lambs were borne by those white sheep, and they began to open their eyes and to see, and to cry to the sheep. Yes, they cried to them, but they did not hearken to what they said to them, but were exceedingly deaf, and their eyes were very exceedingly blinded. And I saw in the vision how the ravens flew upon those lambs and took one of those lambs, and dashed the sheep in pieces and devoured them. And I saw till horns grew upon those lambs, and the ravens cast down their horns; and I saw till there sprouted a great horn of one of those sheep, and their eyes were opened. And it looked at them [and their eyes opened], and it cried to the sheep, and the rams saw it and all ran to it. And notwithstanding all this those eagles and vultures and ravens and kites still kept tearing the sheep and swooping down upon them and devouring them: still the sheep remained silent, but the rams lamented and cried out. And those ravens fought and battled with it and sought to lay low its horn, but they had no power over it. All the eagles and vultures and ravens and kites were gathered together, and there came with them all the sheep of the field, yes, they all came together, and helped each other to break that horn of the ram. And I saw till a great sword was given to the sheep, and the sheep proceeded against all the beasts of the field to slay them, and all the beasts and the birds of the heaven fled before their face. And I saw that man, who wrote the book according to the command of the Lord, till he opened that book concerning the destruction which those twelve last shepherds had wrought, and showed that they had destroyed much more than their predecessors, before the Lord of the sheep.

Chapter 77

And I saw till the Lord of the sheep came unto them and took in His hand the staff of His wrath, and smote the earth, and the earth cleave asunder, and all the beasts and all the birds of the heaven fell from among those sheep, and were swallowed up in the earth and it covered them. And I saw till a throne was erected in the pleasant land, and the Lord of the sheep sat Himself thereon, and the other took the sealed books and opened those books before the Lord of the sheep. And the Lord called those men the seven first white ones, and commanded that they should bring before Him, beginning with the first star which led the way, all the stars whose privy members were like those of horses, and they brought them all before Him. And He said to that man who wrote before Him, being one of those seven white ones, and said unto him: 'Take those seventy shepherds to whom I delivered the sheep, and who taking them on their own authority slew more than I commanded them.' And behold they were all bound, I saw, and they all stood before Him. And the judgment was held first over the stars, and they were judged and found guilty, and went to the place of condemnation, and they were cast into an abyss, full of fire and flaming, and full of pillars of fire. And those seventy shepherds were judged and found guilty, and they were cast into that fiery abyss. And I saw at that time how a like abyss was opened in the midst of the earth, full of fire, and they brought those blinded sheep, and they were all judged and found guilty and cast into this fiery abyss, and they burned; now this abyss was to the right of that house. And I saw those sheep burning and their bones burning. And I stood up to see till they folded up that old house; and carried off all the pillars, and all the beams and ornaments of the house were at the same time folded up with it, and they carried it off and laid it in a place in the south of the land. And I saw till the Lord of the sheep brought a new house greater and loftier than that first, and set it up in the place of the first which had been folded up: all its pillars were new, and its ornaments were new and larger than those of the first, the old one which He had taken away, and all the sheep were within it.

Chapter 78

And I saw all the sheep which had been left, and all the beasts on the earth, and all the birds of the heaven, falling down and doing homage to those sheep and making petition to and obeying them in everything. And thereafter those three who were clothed in white and had seized me by my hand [who had taken me up before], and the hand of that ram also seizing hold of me, they took me up and set me down in the midst of those sheep before the judgment took place. And those sheep were all white, and their wool was abundant and clean. And all that had been destroyed and dispersed, and all the beasts of the field, and all the birds of the heaven, assembled in that house, and the Lord of the sheep rejoiced with great joy because they were all good and had returned to His house. And I saw till they laid down that sword, which had been given to the sheep, and they brought it back into the house, and it was sealed before the presence of the Lord, and all the sheep were invited into that house, but it held them not. And the eyes of them all were opened, and they saw the good, and there was not one among them that did not see. And I saw that that house was large and broad and very full. And I saw that a white bull was born, with large horns and all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the air feared him and made petition to him all the time. And I saw till all their generations were transformed, and they all became white bulls; and the first among them became a lamb, and that lamb became a great animal and had great black horns on its head; and the Lord of the sheep rejoiced over it and over all the oxen. And I slept in their midst: and I awoke and saw everything.

Chapter 79

This is the vision which I saw while I slept, and I awoke and blessed the Lord of righteousness and gave Him glory. Then I wept with a great weeping and my tears stayed not till I could no longer endure it: when I saw, they flowed on account of what I had seen; for the ages, things shall come and be fulfilled, and all the deeds of men in their order were shown to me. On that night I remembered the first dream, and because of it I wept and was troubled-because I had seen that vision. Exhortation A Book of Exhortation and Promised Blessing for the Righteous and of Malediction and Woe for the Sinners. The book written by Enoch-[Enoch indeed wrote this complete doctrine of wisdom, (which is) praised of all men and a judge of all the earth] for all my children who shall dwell on the earth. And for the future generations who shall observe uprightness and peace. Let not your spirit be troubled on account of the times; For the Holy and Great One has appointed days for all things. And the righteous one shall arise from sleep, [Shall arise] and walk in the paths of righteousness, And all his path and conversation shall be in aionian goodness and grace. He will be gracious to the righteous and give him aionian uprightness, And He will give him power so that he shall be (endowed) with goodness and righteousness. And he shall walk in aionian light.

Chapter 80

And sin shall perish in darkness for the ages, And shall no more be seen from that day for the ages. And now, my son Methuselah, call to me all your brothers And gather together to me all the sons of your mother; For the word calls me, And the spirit is poured out upon me, That I may show you everything That shall befall you for the ages.' And there upon Methuselah went and summoned to him all his brothers and assembled his relatives. And he spoke unto all the children of righteousness and said: 'Hear, you sons of Enoch, all the words of your father, And hearken a right to the voice of my mouth; For I exhort you and say unto you, beloved: Love uprightness and walk therein. And draw not nigh to uprightness with a double heart, And associate not with those of a double heart, But walk in righteousness, my sons. And it shall guide you on good paths, And righteousness shall be your companion. For I know that violence must increase on the earth, And a great chaveisement be executed on the earth, Yes, it shall be cut off from its roots, And its whole structure be destroyed. And unrighteousness shall again be consummated on the earth, And all the deeds of unrighteousness and of violence And transgression shall prevail in a twofold degree. And when sin and unrighteousness and blasphemy And violence in all kinds of deeds increases, And apostasy and transgression and uncleanness increase, A great chaveisement shall come from heaven upon all these, And the holy Lord will come forth with wrath and chaveisement To execute judgment on earth. In those days violence shall be cut off from its roots, And the roots of unrighteousness together with deceit, And they shall be destroyed from under heaven. And all the idols of the heathen shall be abandoned, And the temples burnt with fire, And they shall remove them from the whole earth, And they (i.e.

Chapter 81

The heathen) shall be cast into the judgment of fire, And shall perish in wrath and in grievous judgment for the ages. And the righteous shall arise from their sleep, And wisdom shall arise and be given unto them. [And after that the roots of unrighteousness shall be cut off, and the sinners shall be destroyed by the sword . . . Shall be cut off from the blasphemers in every place, and those who plan violence and those who commit blasphemy shall perish by the sword.] And now I tell you, my sons, and show you The paths of righteousness and the paths of violence. Yes, I will show them to you again That you may know what will come to pass. And now, hearken unto me, my sons, And walk in the paths of righteousness, And walk not in the paths of violence; For all who walk in the paths of unrighteousness shall perish for the ages.' And after that Enoch both gave and began to recount from the books. And Enoch said: 'Concerning the children of righteousness and concerning the elect of the world, And concerning the plant of uprightness, I will speak these things, Yes, I Enoch will declare (them) unto you, my sons: According to that which appeared to me in the heavenly vision, And which I have known through the word of the holy angels, And have learnt from the heavenly tablets.' And Enoch began to recount from the books and said: 'I was born the seventh in the first week, While judgment and righteousness still endured. And after me there shall arise in the second week great wickedness, And deceit shall have sprung up; And in it there shall be the first end. And in it a man shall be saved; And after it is ended unrighteousness shall grow up, And a law shall be made for the sinners. And after that in the third week at its close A man shall be elected as the plant of righteous judgment, And his posterity shall become the plant of righteousness for the ages. And after that in the fourth week, at its close, Visions of the holy and righteous shall be seen, And a law for all generations and an enclosure shall be made for them.

Chapter 82

And after that in the fifth week, at its close, The house of glory and dominion shall be built for the ages. And after that in the sixth week all who live in it shall be blinded, And the hearts of all of them shall godlessly forsake wisdom. And in it a man shall ascend; And at its close the house of dominion shall be burnt with fire, And the whole race of the chosen root shall be dispersed. And after that in the seventh week shall an apostate generation arise, And many shall be its deeds, And all its deeds shall be apostate. And at its close shall be elected The elect righteous of the aionian plant of righteousness, To receive sevenfold instruction concerning all His creation. [For who is there of all the children of men that is able to hear the voice of the Holy One though being troubled? And who can think His thoughts? And who is there that can behold all the works of heaven? And how should there be one who could behold the heaven, and who is there that could understand the things of heaven and see a soul or a spirit and could tell thereof, or ascend and see all their ends and think them or do like them ? And who is there of all men that could know what is the breadth and the length of the earth, and to whom has been shown the measure of all of them? Or is there anyone who could discern the length of the heaven and how great is its height, and upon what it is founded, and how great is the number of the stars, and where all the luminaries rest ?] And after that there shall be another, the eighth week, that of righteousness, And a sword shall be given to it that a righteous judgment may be executed on the oppressors, And sinners shall be delivered into the hands of the righteous.

Chapter 83

And at its close they shall acquire houses through their righteousness, And a house shall be built for the Great King in glory for the ages of ages, And all mankind shall look to the path of uprightness. And after that, in the ninth week, the righteous judgment shall be revealed to the whole world, And all the works of the godless shall vanish from all the earth, And the world shall be written down for destruction. And after this, in the tenth week in the seventh part, There shall be the great aionian judgment, In which He will execute vengeance amongst the angels. And the first heaven shall depart and pass away, And a new heaven shall appear, And all the powers of the heavens shall give sevenfold light. And after that there will be many weeks though number for the ages, And all shall be in goodness and righteousness, And sin shall no more be mentioned for the ages. And now I say unto you, my sons, love righteousness and walk therein; For the paths of righteousness are worthy of acceptation, But the paths of unrighteousness shall suddenly be destroyed and vanish. And to certain men of a generation shall the paths of violence and of death be revealed, And they shall hold themselves afar from them, And shall not follow them. And now I say unto you the righteous: Walk not in the paths of wickedness, nor in the paths of death, And draw not nigh to them, lest you be destroyed. But seek and choose for yourselves righteousness and an elect life, And walk in the paths of peace, And you shall live and prosper. And hold fast my words in the thoughts of your hearts, And suffer them not to be effaced from your hearts; For I know that sinners will tempt men to evilly-entreat wisdom, So that no place may be found for her, And no manner of temptation may minish.

Chapter 84

Woe to those who build unrighteousness and oppression And lay deceit as a foundation; For they shall be suddenly overthrown, And they shall have no peace. Woe to those who build their houses with sin; For from all their foundations shall they be overthrown, And by the sword shall they fall. [And those who acquire gold and silver in judgment suddenly shall perish.] Woe to you, you rich, for you have trusted in your riches, And from your riches shall you depart, Because you have not remembered the Most High in the days of your riches. You have committed blasphemy and unrighteousness, And have become ready for the day of slaughter, And the day of darkness and the day of the great judgment. Thus I speak and declare unto you: He who has created you will overthrow you, And for your fall there shall be no compassion, And your Creator will rejoice at your destruction. And your righteous ones in those days shall be A reproach to the sinners and the godless. Oh that mine eyes were [a cloud of] waters That I might weep over you, And pour down my tears as a cloud of waters: That so I might rest from my trouble of heart! who has permitted you to practice reproaches and wickedness? And so judgment shall overtake you, sinners. Fear not the sinners, you righteous; For again will the Lord deliver them into your hands, That you may execute judgment upon them according to your desires. Woe to you who fulminate anathemas which cannot be reversed: Healing shall therefore be far from you because of your sins. Woe to you who requite your neighbor with evil; For you shall be requited according to your works.

Chapter 85

Woe to you, lying witnesses, And to those who weigh out injustice, For suddenly shall you perish. Woe to you, sinners, for you persecute the righteous; For you shall be delivered up and persecuted because of injustice, And heavy shall its yoke be upon you. Be hopeful, you righteous; for suddenly shall the sinners perish before you, And you shall have lordship over them according to your desires. [And in the day of the tribulation of the sinners, Your children shall mount and rise as eagles, And higher than the vultures will be your nest, And you shall ascend and enter the crevices of the earth, And the clefts of the rock for the ages as coneys before the unrighteous, And the sirens shall sigh because of you and weep.] Wherefore fear not, you that have suffered; For healing shall be your portion, And a bright light shall enlighten you, And the voice of rest you shall hear from heaven. Woe unto you, you sinners, for your riches make you appear like the righteous, But your hearts convict you of being sinners, And this fact shall be a testimony against you for a memorial of (your) evil deeds. Woe to you who devour the finest of the wheat, And drink wine in large bowls, And tread underfoot the lowly with your might. Woe to you who drink water from every fountain, For suddenly shall you be consumed and wither away, Because you have forsaken the fountain of life. Woe to you who work unrighteousness And deceit and blasphemy: It shall be a memorial against you for evil. Woe to you, you mighty, Who with might oppress the righteous; For the day of your destruction is coming. In those days many and good days shall come to the righteous in the day of your judgment. Believe, you righteous, that the sinners will become a shame And perish in the day of unrighteousness.

Chapter 86

Be it known unto you (you sinners) that the Most High is mindful of your destruction, And the angels of heaven rejoice over your destruction. What will you do, you sinners, And whither will you flee on that Day of Judgment, When you hear the voice of the prayer of the righteous? Yes, you shall fare like unto them, Against whom this word shall be a testimony: "You have been companions of sinners." And in those days the prayer of the righteous shall reach unto the Lord, And for you the days of your judgment shall come. And all the words of your unrighteousness shall be read out before the Great Holy One, And your faces shall be covered with shame, And He will reject every work which is grounded on unrighteousness. Woe to you, you sinners, who live on the mid ocean and on the dry land, Whose remembrance is evil against you. Woe to you who acquire silver and gold in unrighteousness and say: "We have become rich with riches and have possessions; And have acquired everything we have desired. And now let us do what we purposed: For we have gathered silver, And many are the husbandmen in our houses." And our granaries are (brim) full as with water, Yes and like water your lies shall flow away; For your riches shall not abide But speedily ascend from you; For you have acquired it all in unrighteousness, And you shall be given over to a great curse. And now I swear unto you, to the wise and to the foolish, For you shall have manifold experiences on the earth. For your men shall put on more adornments than a woman, And colored garments more than a virgin: In royalty and in grandeur and in power, And in silver and in gold and in purple, And in splendor and in food they shall be poured out as water. Therefore they shall be wanting in doctrine and wisdom, And they shall perish thereby together with their possessions; And with all their glory and their splendor, And in shame and in slaughter and in great destitution, Their spirits shall be cast into the furnace of fire.

Chapter 87

I have sworn unto you, you sinners, as a mountain has not become a slave, And a hill does not become the handmaid of a woman, Even so sin has not been sent upon the earth, But man of himself has created it, And under a great curse shall they fall who commit it. And barrenness has not been given to the woman, But on account of the deeds of her own hands she dies though children. I have sworn unto you, you sinners, by the Holy Great One, That all your evil deeds are revealed in the heavens, And that none of your deeds of oppression are covered and hidden. And do not think in your spirit nor say in your heart that you do not know and that you do not see that every sin is every day recorded in heaven in the presence of the Most High. From henceforth you know that all your oppression wherewith you oppress is written down every day till the day of your judgment. Woe to you, you fools, for through your folly shall you perish: and you transgress against the wise, and so good hap shall not be your portion. And now, know you that you are prepared for the day of destruction: wherefore do not hope to live, you sinners, but you shall depart and die; for you know no ransom; for you are prepared for the day of the great judgment, for the day of tribulation and great shame for your spirits. Woe to you, you obstinate of heart, who work wickedness and eat blood: Whence have you good things to eat and to drink and to be filled? From all the good things which the Lord the Most High has placed in abundance on the earth; therefore you shall have no peace. Woe to you who love the deeds of unrighteousness: wherefore do you hope for good hap unto yourselves?

Chapter 88

Know that you shall be delivered into the hands of the righteous, and they shall cut off your necks and slay you, and have no mercy upon you. Woe to you who rejoice in the tribulation of the righteous; for no grave shall be dug for you. Woe to you who set at nought the words of the righteous; for you shall have no hope of life. Woe to you who write down lying and godless words; for they write down their lies that men may hear them and act godlessly towards (their) neighbor. Therefore they shall have no peace but die a sudden death. Woe to you who work godlessness, And glory in lying and extol them: You shall perish, and no happy life shall be yours. Woe to them who pervert the words of uprightness, And transgress the aionian law, And transform themselves into what they were not [into sinners]: They shall be trodden under foot upon the earth. In those days make ready, you righteous, to raise your prayers as a memorial, And place them as a testimony before the angels, That they may place the sin of the sinners for a memorial before the Most High. In those days the nations shall be stirred up, And the families of the nations shall arise on the day of destruction. And in those days the destitute shall go forth and carry off their children, And they shall abandon them, so that their children shall perish through them: Yes, they shall abandon their children (that are still) suckling's, and not return to them, And shall have no pity on their beloved ones.

Chapter 89

And again I swear to you, you sinners that sin is prepared for a day of unceasing bloodshed. And they who worship stones, and grave images of gold and silver and wood (and stone) and clay, and those who worship impure spirits and demons, and all kinds of idols not according to knowledge, shall get no manner of help from them. And they shall become godless by reason of the folly of their hearts, And their eyes shall be blinded through the fear of their hearts And through visions in their dreams. Through these they shall become godless and fearful; For they shall have wrought all their work in a lie, And shall have worshiped a stone: Therefore in an instant shall they perish. But in those days blessed are all they who accept the words of wisdom, and understand them, And observe the paths of the Most High, and walk in the path of His righteousness, And become not godless with the godless; For they shall be saved. Woe to you who spread evil to your neighbors; For you shall be slain in Sheol. Woe to you who make deceitful and false measures, And (to them) who cause bitterness on the earth; For they shall thereby be utterly consumed. Woe to you who build your houses through the grievous toil of others, And all their building materials are the bricks and stones of sin; I tell you you shall have no peace. Woe to them who reject the measure and aionian heritage of their fathers And whose souls follow after idols; For they shall have no rest. Woe to them who work unrighteousness and help oppression, And slay their neighbors until the day of the great judgment.

Chapter 90

For He shall cast down your glory, And bring affliction on your hearts, And shall arouse His fierce indignation And destroy you all with the sword; And all the holy and righteous shall remember your sins. And in those days in one place the fathers together with their sons shall be smitten And brothers one with another shall fall in death Till the streams flow with their blood. For a man shall not withhold his hand from slaying his sons and his sons' sons, And the sinner shall not withhold his hand from his honored brother: From dawn till sunset they shall slay one another. And the horse shall walk up to the breast in the blood of sinners, And the chariot shall be submerged to its height. In those days the angels shall descend into the secret places And gather together into one place all those who brought down sin And the Most High will arise on that Day of Judgment To execute great judgment amongst sinners. And over all the righteous and holy He will appoint guardians from amongst the holy angels To guard them as the apple of an eye, Until He makes an end of all wickedness and all sin, And though the righteous sleep a long sleep, they have nought to fear. And (then) the children of the earth shall see the wise in security, And shall understand all the words of this book, And recognize that their riches shall not be able to save them In the overthrow of their sins. Woe to you, Sinners, on the day of strong anguish, You who afflict the righteous and burn them with fire: You shall be requited according to your works. Woe to you, you obstinate of heart, Who watch in order to devise wickedness: Therefore shall fear come upon you And there shall be none to help you. Woe to you, you sinners, on account of the words of your mouth, and on account of the deeds of your hands which your godlessness has wrought, in blazing flames burning worse than fire shall you burn.

Chapter 91

And now, know you that from the angels He will inquire as to your deeds in heaven, from the sun and from the moon and from the stars in reference to your sins because upon the earth you execute judgment on the righteous. And He will summon to testify against you every cloud and mist and dew and rain; for they shall all be withheld because of you from descending upon you, and they shall be mindful of your sins. And now give presents to the rain that it be not withheld from descending upon you, nor yet the dew, when it has received gold and silver from you that it may descend. When the hoarfrost and snow with their chilliness, and all the snowstorms with all their plagues fall upon you, in those days you shall not be able to stand before them. Observe the heaven, you children of heaven, and every work of the Most High, and fear you Him and work no evil in His presence. If He closes the windows of heaven, and withholds the rain and the dew from descending on the earth on your account, what will you do then? And if He sends His anger upon you because of your deeds, you cannot petition Him; for you spoke proud and insolent words against His righteousness: therefore you shall have no peace. And see you not the sailors of the ships, how their ships are tossed to and fro by the waves, and are shaken by the winds, and are in sore trouble? And therefore do they fear because all their goodly possessions go upon the sea with them, and they have evil forebodings of heart that the sea will swallow them and they will perish therein. Are not the entire sea and all its waters, and all its movements, the work of the Most High, and has He not set limits to its doings, and confined it throughout by the sand?

Chapter 92

And at His reproof it is afraid and dries up, and all its fish die and all that is in it; But you sinners that are on the earth fear Him not. Has He not made the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein? Who has given understanding and wisdom to everything that moves on the earth and in the sea. Do not the sailors of the ships fear the sea? Yet sinners fear not the Most High. In those days when He has brought a grievous fire upon you, Whither will you flee, and where will you find deliverance? And when He launches forth His Word against you Will you not be affrighted and fear? And all the luminaries shall be affrighted with great fear, And all the earth shall be affrighted and tremble and be alarmed. And all the angels shall execute their commands And shall seek to hide themselves from the presence of the Great Glory, And the children of earth shall tremble and quake; And you sinners shall be cursed for the ages, And you shall have no peace. Fear you not, you souls of the righteous, And be hopeful you that have died in righteousness.

Chapter 93

And grieve not if your soul into Sheol has descended in grief, And that in your life your body fared not according to your goodness, But wait for the day of the judgment of sinners And for the day of cursing and chaveisement. And yet when you die the sinners speak over you: "As we die, so die the righteous, And what benefit do they reap for their deeds? Behold, even as we, so do they die in grief and darkness, And what have they more than we? From henceforth we are equal. And what will they receive and what will they see for the ages? Behold, they too have died, And henceforth for the ages shall they see no light." I tell you, you sinners, you are content to eat and drink, and rob and sin, and strip men naked, and acquire wealth and see good days. Have you seen the righteous how their end falls out, that no manner of violence is found in them till their death? "Nevertheless they perished and became as though they had not been, and their spirits descended into Sheol in tribulation." Now, therefore, I swear to you, the righteous, by the glory of the Great and Honored and Mighty One in dominion, and by His greatness I swear to you. I know a mystery And have read the heavenly tablets, And have seen the holy books, And have found written therein and inscribed regarding them: That all goodness and joy and glory are prepared for them, And written down for the spirits of those who have died in righteousness, And that manifold good shall be given to you in recompense for your labors, And that your lot is abundantly beyond the lot of the living. And the spirits of you who have died in righteousness shall live and rejoice, And their spirits shall not perish, nor their memorial from before the face of the Great One Unto all the generations of the world: wherefore no longer fear their contumely. Woe to you, you sinners, when you have died, If you die in the wealth of your sins, And those who are like you say regarding you: 'Blessed are the sinners: they have seen all their days.

Chapter 94

And how they have died in prosperity and in wealth, And have not seen tribulation or murder in their life; And they have died in honor, And judgment has not been executed on them during their life." Know you that their souls will be made to descend into Sheol And they shall be wretched in their great tribulation. And into darkness and chains and a burning flame where there is grievous judgment shall your spirits enter; And the great judgment shall be for all the generations of the world. Woe to you, for you shall have no peace. Say not in regard to the righteous and good who are in life: "In our troubled days we have toiled laboriously and experienced every trouble, And met with much evil and been consumed, And have become few and our spirit small. And we have been destroyed and have not found any to help us even with a word: We have been tortured [and destroyed], and not hoped to see life from day to day. We hoped to be the head and have become the tail: We have toiled laboriously and had no satisfaction in our toil; And we have become the food of the sinners and the unrighteous, And they have laid their yoke heavily upon us. They have had dominion over us that hated us and smote us; And to those that hated us we have bowed our necks But they pitied us not. We desired to get away from them that we might escape and be at rest, But found no place whereunto we should flee and be safe from them. And are complained to the rulers in our tribulation, And cried out against those who devoured us, But they did not attend to our cries And would not hearken to our voice. And they helped those who robbed us and devoured us and those who made us few; and they concealed their oppression, and they did not remove from us the yoke of those that devoured us and dispersed us and murdered us, and they concealed their murder, and remembered not that they had lifted up their hands against us.

Chapter 95

I swear unto you, that in heaven the angels remember you for good before the glory of the Great One: and your names are written before the glory of the Great One. Be hopeful; for aforetime you were put to shame through ill and affliction; but now you shall shine as the lights of heaven, you shall shine and you shall be seen, and the portals of heaven shall be opened to you. And in your cry, cry for judgment, and it shall appear to you; for all your tribulation shall be visited on the rulers, and on all who helped those who plundered you. Be hopeful, and cast not away your hopes for you shall have great joy as the angels of heaven. What shall you be obliged to do? You shall not have to hide on the day of the great judgment and you shall not be found as sinners, and the aionian judgment shall be far from you for all the generations of the world. And now fear not, you righteous, when you see the sinners growing strong and prospering in their ways: be not companions with them, but keep afar from their violence; for you shall become companions of the hosts of heaven. And, although you sinners say: "All our sins shall not be searched out and be written down," nevertheless they shall write down all your sins every day. And now I show unto you that light and darkness, day and night, see all your sins. Be not godless in your hearts, and lie not and alter not the words of uprightness, nor charge with lying the words of the Holy Great One, nor take account of your idols; for all your lying and all your godlessness issue not in righteousness but in great sin.

Chapter 96

And now I know this mystery, that sinners will alter and pervert the words of righteousness in many ways, and will speak wicked words, and lie, and practice great deceits, and write books concerning their words. But when they write down truthfully all my words in their languages, and do not change or minish ought from my words but write them all down truthfully, all that I first testified concerning them. Then, I know another mystery, that books will be given to the righteous and the wise to become a cause of joy and uprightness and much wisdom. And to them shall the books be given, and they shall believe in them and rejoice over them, and then shall all the righteous who have learnt therefrom all the paths of uprightness be recompensed.' In those days the Lord bade (them) to summon and testify to the children of earth concerning their wisdom: Show (it) unto them; for you are their guides, and a recompense over the whole earth. For I and My son will be united with them for the ages in the paths of uprightness in their lives; and you shall have peace: rejoice, you children of uprightness. Fragment of the Book of Noah And after some days my son Methuselah took a wife for his son Lamech, and she became pregnant by him and bore a son. And his body was white as snow and red as the blooming of a rose, and the hair of his head and his long locks were white as wool, and his eyes beautiful. And when he opened his eyes, he lighted up the whole house like the sun, and the whole house was very bright. And thereupon he arose in the hands of the midwife, opened his mouth, and conversed with the Lord of righteousness. And his father Lamech was afraid of him and fled, and came to his father Methuselah.

Chapter 97

And he said unto him: ‘ I have begotten a strange son, diverse from and unlike man, and resembling the sons of the Elohim of heaven; and his nature is different and he is not like us, and his eyes are as the rays of the sun, and his countenance is glorious. And it seems to me that he is not sprung from me but from the angels, and I fear that in his days a wonder may be wrought on the earth. And now, my father, I am here to petition you and implore you that you may go to Enoch, our father, and learn from him the truth, for his dwelling-place is amongst the angels.’ And when Methuselah heard the words of his son, he came to me to the ends of the earth; for he had heard that one was there, and he cried aloud, and I heard his voice and I came to him. And one said unto him: ‘

Behold, here am I, my son, wherefore have you come to me?' And he answered and said: 'Because of a great cause of anxiety have I come to you, and because of a disturbing vision have I approached. And now, my father, hear me: unto Lamech my son there has been born a son, the like of whom there is none, and his nature is not like man's nature, and the color of his body is whiter than snow and redder than the bloom of a rose, and the hair of his head is whiter than white wool, and his eyes are like the rays of the sun, and he opened his eyes and thereupon lighted up the whole house. And he arose in the hands of the midwife, and opened twelve his mouth and blessed the Lord of heaven. And his father Lamech became afraid and fled to me, and did not believe that he was sprung from him, but that he was in the likeness of the angels of heaven; and behold I have come to you that you may make known to me the truth.' And I, Enoch, answered and said unto him: 'The Lord will do a new thing on the earth, and this I have already seen in a vision, and make known to you that in the generation of my father Jared some of the angels of heaven transgressed the word of the Lord. And behold they commit sin and transgress the law, and have united themselves with women and commit sin with them, and have married some of them, and have begot children by them. And they shall produce on the earth giants not according to the spirit, but according to the flesh, and there shall be a great punishment on the earth, and the earth shall be cleansed from all impurity. Yes, there shall come a great destruction over the whole earth, and there shall be a deluge and a great destruction for one year.

Chapter 98

And this son who has been born unto you shall be left on the earth, and his three children shall be saved with him: when all mankind that are on the earth shall die [he and his sons shall be saved]. And now make known to your son Lamech that he who has been born is in truth his son, and call his name Noah; for he shall be left to you, and he and his sons shall be saved from the destruction, which shall come upon the earth on account of all the sin and all the unrighteousness, which shall be consummated on the earth in his days. And after that there shall be still more unrighteousness than that which was first consummated on the earth; for I know the mysteries of the holy ones; for He, the Lord, has shown me and informed me, and I have read (them) in the heavenly tablets. And I saw written on them that generation upon generation shall transgress, till a generation of righteousness arises, and transgression is destroyed and sin passes away from the earth, and all manner of good comes upon it. And now, my son, go and make known to your son Lamech that this son, which has been born, is in truth his son, and that (this) is no lie.' And when Methuselah had heard the words of his father Enoch; for he had shown to him everything in secret, he returned and showed (them) to him and called the name of that son Noah; for he will comfort the earth after all the destruction. Another book which Enoch wrote for his son Methuselah and for those who will come after him, and keep the law in the last days. You who have done good shall wait for those days till an end is made of those who work evil; and an end of the might of the transgressors. And wait you indeed till sin has passed away, for their names shall be blotted out of the book of life and out of the holy books, and their seed shall be destroyed for the ages, and their spirits shall be slain, and they shall cry and make lamentation in a place that is a chaotic wilderness, and in the fire shall they burn; for there is no earth there. And I saw there something like an invisible cloud; for by reason of its depth I could not look over, and I saw a flame of fire blazing brightly, and things like shining mountains circling and sweeping to and fro. And I asked one of the holy angels who was with me and said unto him: 'What is this shining thing?

Chapter 99

For it is not a heaven but only the flame of a blazing fire, and the voice of weeping and crying and lamentation and strong pain.' And he said unto me: 'This place which you see; here are cast the spirits of sinners and blasphemers, and of those who work wickedness, and of those who pervert everything that the Lord has spoken through the mouth of the prophets, (even) the things that shall be. For some of them are written and inscribed above in the heaven, in order that the angels may read them and know that which shall befall the sinners, and the spirits of the humble, and of those who have afflicted their bodies, and been recompensed by Elohim; and of those who have been put to shame by wicked men: Who love Elohim and loved neither gold nor silver nor any of the good things which are in the world, but gave over their bodies to torture. Who, since they came into being, longed not after earthly food, but regarded everything as a passing breath, and lived accordingly, and the Lord tried them much, and their spirits were found pure so that they should bless His name. And all the blessings destined for them I have recounted in the books. And he has assigned them their recompense, because they have been found to be such as loved heaven more than their life in the world, and though they were trodden under foot of wicked men, and experienced abuse and reviling from them and were put to shame, yet they blessed Me. And now I will summon the spirits of the good who belong to the generation of light, and I will transform those who were born in darkness, who in the flesh were not recompensed with such honor as their faithfulness deserved. And I will bring forth in shining light those who have loved My holy name, and I will seat each on the throne of his honor. And they shall be resplendent for times though number; for righteousness is the judgment of Elohim; for to the faithful He will give faithfulness in the habitation of upright paths. And they shall see those who were, born in darkness led into darkness, while the righteous shall be resplendent. And the sinners shall cry aloud and see them resplendent, and they indeed will go where days and seasons are prescribed for them.' [The End of Revelation & Enoch] [[The End]] Exodus

1 Enoch

Chapter 37

The second vision which he saw, the vision of wisdom - which Enoch the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Cainan, the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, saw. And this is the beginning of the words of wisdom which I lifted up my voice to speak and say to those which dwell on earth: Hear, ye men of old time, and see, ye that come after, the words of the Holy One which I will speak before the Lord of Spirits. It were better to declare them only to the men of old time, but even from those that come after we will not withhold the beginning of wisdom. Till the present day such wisdom has never been given by the Lord of Spirits as I have received according to my insight, according to the good pleasure of the Lord of Spirits by whom the lot of eternal life has been given to me. Now three Parables were imparted to me, and I lifted up my voice and recounted them to those that dwell on the earth. The first Parable. When the congregation of the righteous shall appear, and sinners shall be judged for their sins, and shall be driven from the face of the earth. And when the Righteous One shall appear before the eyes of the righteous, whose elect works hang upon the Lord of Spirits, and light shall appear to the righteous and the elect who dwell on the earth. Where then will be the dwelling of the sinners, and where the resting-place of those who have denied the Lord of Spirits? It had been good for them if they had not been born. When the secrets of the righteous shall be revealed and the sinners judged, and the godless driven from the presence of the righteous and elect. From that time those that possess the earth shall no longer be powerful and exalted: and they shall not be able to behold the face of the holy, for the Lord of Spirits has caused His light to appear on the face of the holy, righteous, and elect.

Chapter 38

Then shall the kings and the mighty perish and be given into the hands of the righteous and holy. And it shall come to pass in those days that elect and holy children will descend from the high heaven, and their seed will become one with the children of men. And in those days Enoch received books of zeal and wrath, and books of disquiet and expulsion. And mercy shall not be accorded to them, saith the Lord of Spirits. And in those days a whirlwind carried me off from the earth, and set me down at the end of the heavens. And there I saw another vision, the dwelling-places of the holy, and the resting-places of the righteous. Here mine eyes saw their dwellings with His righteous angels, and their resting-places with the holy. And they petitioned and interceded and prayed for the children of men. And righteousness flowed before them as water, and mercy like dew upon the earth: thus it is amongst them for ever and ever. And in that place mine eyes saw the Elect One of righteousness and of faith, and I saw his dwelling-place under the wings of the Lord of Spirits. And after that I saw thousands of thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, I saw a multitude beyond number and reckoning, who stood before the Lord of Spirits. And on the four sides of the Lord of Spirits I saw four presences, different from those that sleep not, and I learnt their names: for the angel that went with me made known to me their names.

Chapter 39

And I heard the voices of those four presences as they uttered praises before the Lord of glory. The first voice blesses the Lord of Spirits for ever and ever. And the second voice I heard blessing the Elect One and the elect ones who hang upon the Lord of Spirits. And the third voice I heard pray and intercede for those who dwell on the earth and supplicate in the name of the Lord of Spirits. And I heard the fourth voice fending off the Satans and forbidding them to come before the Lord of Spirits to accuse them who dwell on the earth. After that I asked the angel of peace who went with me, who showed me everything that is hidden: Who are these four presences which I have seen and whose words I have heard and written down? And he said to me: This first is Michael, the merciful and long-suffering: and the second, who is set over all the diseases and all the wounds of the children of men, is Raphael: and the third, who is set over all the powers, is Gabriel: and the fourth, who is set over the repentance unto hope of those who inherit eternal life, is named Phanuel. And these are the four angels of the Lord of Spirits and the four voices I heard in those days. And this is the Second Parable concerning those who deny the name of the dwelling of the holy ones and the Lord of Spirits. And into the heaven they shall not ascend, and on the earth they shall not come: such shall be the lot of the sinners who have denied the name of the Lord of Spirits, who are thus preserved for the day of suffering and tribulation.

Chapter 40

On that day Mine Elect One shall sit on the throne of glory and shall try their works, and their places of rest shall be innumerable. And their souls shall grow strong within them when they see Mine Elect Ones, and those who have called upon My glorious name. Then will I cause Mine Elect One to dwell among them. And I will transform the heaven and make it an eternal blessing and light. And I will transform the earth and make it a blessing: and I will cause Mine elect ones to dwell upon it: but the sinners and evil-doers shall not set foot thereon. And there I saw One who had a head of days, and His head was white like wool, and with Him was another being whose countenance had the appearance of a man, and his face was full of graciousness, like one of the holy angels. And I asked the angel who went with me and showed me all the hidden things, concerning that Son of Man, who he was, and whence he was, and why he went with the Head of Days. And he answered and said unto me: This is the Son of Man who hath righteousness, with whom dwelleth righteousness, and who revealeth all the treasures of that which is hidden. Because the Lord of Spirits hath chosen him, and whose lot hath the pre-eminence before the Lord of Spirits in uprightness for ever. And this Son of Man whom thou hast seen shall raise up the kings and the mighty from their seats, and the strong from their thrones, and shall loosen the reins of the strong, and break the teeth of the sinners. And he shall put down the kings from their thrones and kingdoms because they do not extol and praise Him, nor humbly acknowledge whence the kingdom was bestowed upon them.

Chapter 41

And he shall put down the countenance of the strong, and shall fill them with shame. And darkness shall be their dwelling, and worms shall be their bed, and they shall have no hope of rising from their beds, because they do not extol the name of the Lord of Spirits. And these are they who judge the stars of heaven, and raise their hands against the Most High, and tread upon the earth and dwell upon it. And in those days shall have ascended the prayer of the righteous, and the blood of the righteous from the earth before the Lord of Spirits. In those days the holy ones who dwell above in the heavens shall unite with one voice and supplicate and pray and praise, and give thanks and bless the name of the Lord of Spirits on behalf of the blood of the righteous which has been shed. And that their prayer may not be in vain before the Lord of Spirits, that judgement may be done unto them, and that they may not have to suffer for ever. In those days I saw the Head of Days when He seated himself upon the throne of His glory, and the books of the living were opened before Him: and all His host which is in heaven above and His counsellors stood before Him. And in that place I saw the fountain of righteousness which was inexhaustible: and around it were many fountains of wisdom: and all the thirsty drank of them, and were filled with wisdom, and their dwellings were with the righteous and holy and elect. And at that hour that Son of Man was named in the presence of the Lord of Spirits, and his name before the Head of Days. Yea, before the sun and the signs were created, before the stars of the heaven were made, His name was named before the Lord of Spirits. He shall be a staff to the righteous whereon to stay themselves and not fall, and he shall be the light of the Gentiles, and the hope of those who are troubled of heart.

Chapter 42

All who dwell on earth shall fall down and worship before him, and will praise and bless and celebrate with song the Lord of Spirits. And for this reason hath he been chosen and hidden before Him, before the creation of the world and for evermore. And the wisdom of the Lord of Spirits hath revealed him to the holy and righteous; for he hath preserved the lot of the righteous, because they have hated and despised this world of unrighteousness. And have hated all its works and ways in the name of the Lord of Spirits: for in his name they are saved, and according to his good pleasure hath it been in regard to their life. In these days downcast in countenance shall the kings of the earth have become, and the strong who possess the land because of the works of their hands. For on the day of their anguish and affliction they shall not be able to save themselves, and I will give them over into the hands of Mine elect. For wisdom is poured out like water, and glory faileth not before him for evermore. For he is mighty in all the secrets of righteousness, and unrighteousness shall disappear as a shadow, and have no continuance. Because the Elect One standeth before the Lord of Spirits, and his glory is for ever and ever, and his might unto all generations. And in him dwells the spirit of wisdom, and the spirit which gives insight, and the spirit of understanding and of might, and the spirit of those who have fallen asleep in righteousness.

Chapter 43

And in those days a change shall take place for the holy and elect, and the light of days shall abide upon them, and glory and honour shall turn to the holy. On the day of affliction on which evil shall have been treasured up against the sinners. And the righteous shall be victorious in the name of the Lord of Spirits. And He will cause the others to witness this that they may repent and forgo the works of their hands. They shall have no honour through the name of the Lord of Spirits, yet through His name shall they be saved, and the Lord of Spirits will have compassion on them, for His compassion is great. And He is righteous also in His judgement, and in the presence of His glory unrighteousness also shall not maintain itself: at His judgement the unrepentant shall perish before Him. And in those days shall the earth also give back that which has been entrusted to it, and Sheol also shall give back that which it has received, and hell shall give back that which it owes. For in those days the Elect One shall arise. And he shall choose the righteous and holy from among them: for the day has drawn nigh that they should be saved. And the Elect One shall in those days sit on My throne, and his mouth shall pour forth all the secrets of wisdom and counsel: for the Lord of Spirits hath given them to him and hath glorified him. And in those days shall the mountains leap like rams, and the hills also shall skip like lambs satisfied with milk, and the faces of all the angels in heaven shall be lighted up with joy.

Chapter 44

And in those days a whirlwind carried me off from the earth, and set me down at the end of the heavens. And there I saw another vision, the dwelling-places of the holy, and the resting-places of the righteous. Here mine eyes saw their dwellings with His righteous angels, and their resting-places with the holy. And I saw how they petitioned and interceded and prayed for the children of men, and righteousness flowed before them as water. And there I saw seven mountains of magnificent stones, three towards the east, and three towards the south. And as for those towards the east, one was of coloured stone, and one of pearl, and one of jacinth, and those towards the south of red stone. But the middle one reached to heaven like the throne of God, of alabaster, and the summit of the throne was of sapphire. And I saw a flaming fire in all the mountains. And in that place I saw the mountain of iron, and of copper, and of silver, and of gold, and of soft metal, and of lead. And I looked and turned to another part of the earth, and saw there a deep valley with burning fire.

Chapter 45

And they brought the kings and the mighty, and began to cast them into this deep valley. And there mine eyes saw how they made these their instruments, iron chains of immeasurable weight. And I asked the angel of peace who went with me, saying: For whom are these chains being prepared? And he said unto me: These are being prepared for the hosts of Azazel, so that they may take them and cast them into the abyss of complete condemnation. And they shall cover their jaws with rough stones as the Lord of Spirits commanded. And Michael, and Gabriel, and Raphael, and Phanuel shall take hold of them on that great day, and cast them on that day into the burning furnace, that the Lord of Spirits may take vengeance on them for their unrighteousness in becoming subject to Satan and leading astray those who dwell on the earth. And in those days shall punishment come from the Lord of Spirits, and he will open all the chambers of waters which are above the heavens, and of the fountains which are beneath the earth. And all the waters shall be joined with the waters: that which is above the heavens is the masculine, and the water which is beneath the earth is the feminine. And they shall destroy all who dwell on the earth and those who dwell under the ends of the heaven. And when they have recognized their unrighteousness which they have wrought on the earth, then by these shall they perish.

Chapter 46

And after that the Head of Days repented and said: In vain have I destroyed all who dwell on the earth. And He sware by His great name: Henceforth I will not do so to all who dwell on the earth, and I will set a sign in the heaven: and this shall be a pledge of good faith between Me and them for ever, so long as heaven is above the earth. And this is in accordance with My command. When I have desired to take hold of them by the hand of the angels on the day of tribulation and pain because of this, I will cause My chastisement and My wrath to abide upon them, saith God, the Lord of Spirits. Ye mighty kings who dwell on the earth, ye shall have to behold Mine Elect One, how he sits on the throne of glory and judges Azazel, and all his associates, and all his hosts in the name of the Lord of Spirits. And I saw there the hosts of the angels of punishment going, and they held scourges and chains of iron and bronze. And I asked the angel of peace who went with me, saying: To whom are these who hold the scourges going? And he said unto me: To their elect and beloved ones, that they may be cast into the chasm of the abyss of the valley. And then that valley shall be filled with their elect and beloved, and the days of their life shall be at an end, and the days of their leading astray shall not thenceforward be reckoned. And it came to pass after this that I saw another host of wagons, and men riding thereon, and coming on the winds from the east, and from the west to the south. And the noise of their wagons was heard, and when this turmoil took place the holy ones from heaven remarked it.

Chapter 47

And the pillars of the earth were moved from their place, and the sound thereof was heard from the one end of heaven to the other, in one day. And I began to speak the third Parable concerning the righteous and elect. Blessed are ye, ye righteous and elect, for glorious shall be your lot. And the righteous shall be in the light of the sun, and the elect in the light of eternal life: the days of their life shall be unending, and the days of the holy without number. And they shall seek the light and find righteousness with the Lord of Spirits: there shall be peace to the righteous in the name of the Eternal Lord. And after this it shall be said to the holy in heaven that they should seek out the secrets of righteousness, the heritage of faith: for it has become bright as the sun upon earth, and the darkness is past. And there shall be a light that never endeth, and to a limit of days they shall not come, for the darkness shall first have been destroyed, and the light established before the Lord of Spirits. In the year five hundred, in the seventh month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the life of Enoch. In that Parable I saw how a mighty quaking made the heaven of heavens to quake, and the host of the Most High, and the angels, a thousand thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, were disquieted with a great disquiet. And the Head of Days sat on the throne of His glory, and the angels and the righteous stood around Him. And a great trembling seized me, and fear took hold of me, and my loins gave way, and dissolved were my reins, and I fell upon my face.

Chapter 48

And Michael sent another angel from among the holy ones and he raised me up, and when he had raised me up my spirit returned; for I had not been able to endure the look of this host, and the commotion and the quaking of the heaven. And Michael said unto me: Why art thou disquieted with such a vision? Until this day lasted the day of His mercy; and He hath been merciful and long-suffering towards those who dwell on the earth. And I saw in those days how long cords were given to those angels, and they took to themselves wings and flew, and they went towards the north. And I asked the angel, saying: Why have those angels taken these cords and gone off? And he said unto me: They have gone to measure. And the angel who went with me said unto me: These shall bring the measures of the righteous, and the ropes of the righteous to the righteous, that they may stay themselves on the name of the Lord of Spirits for ever and ever. The elect shall begin to dwell with the elect, and those are the measures which shall be given to faith and which shall strengthen righteousness. And these measures shall reveal all the secrets of the depths of the earth, and those who have been destroyed by the desert, and those who have been devoured by the beasts, and those who have been devoured by the fish of the sea. That they may return and stay themselves on the day of the Elect One; for none shall be destroyed before the Lord of Spirits, and none can be destroyed. And all who dwell above in the heaven received a command and power and one voice and one light like unto fire. And that One with their first words they blessed, and extolled and lauded with wisdom, and they were wise in utterance and in the spirit of life.

Chapter 49

And the Lord of Spirits placed the Elect One on the throne of glory. And he shall judge all the works of the holy above in the heaven, and in the balance shall their deeds be weighed. And when he shall lift up his countenance to judge their secret ways according to the word of the name of the Lord of Spirits, and their path according to the way of the righteous judgement of the Lord of Spirits, then shall they all with one voice speak and bless, and glorify and extol and sanctify the name of the Lord of Spirits. And He will summon all the host of the heavens, and all the holy ones above, and the host of God, the Cherubic, Seraphin and Ophanin, and all the angels of power, and all the angels of principalities, and the Elect One, and the other powers on the earth and over the water. On that day shall raise one voice, and bless and glorify and exalt in the spirit of faith, and in the spirit of wisdom, and in the spirit of patience, and in the spirit of mercy, and in the spirit of judgement and of peace, and in the spirit of goodness, and shall all say with one voice: Blessed is He, and may the name of the Lord of Spirits be blessed for ever and ever. All who sleep not above in heaven shall bless Him: all the holy ones who are in heaven shall bless Him, and all the elect who dwell in the garden of life: and every spirit of light who is able to bless, and glorify, and extol, and hallow Thy blessed name, and all flesh shall beyond measure glorify and bless Thy name for ever and ever. And thus the Lord commanded the kings and the mighty and the exalted, and those who dwell on the earth, and said: Open your eyes and lift up your horns if ye are able to recognize the Elect One. And the Lord of Spirits seated him on the throne of His glory, and the spirit of righteousness was poured out upon him, and the word of his mouth slays all the sinners, and all the unrighteous are destroyed from before his face. And there shall stand up in that day all the kings and the mighty, and the exalted and those who hold the earth, and they shall see and recognize how he sits on the throne of his glory, and righteousness is judged before him, and no lying word is spoken before him. Then shall pain come upon them as on a woman in travail, and she has pain in bringing forth, when her child enters the mouth of the womb, and she has pain in bringing forth. And one portion of them shall look on the other, and they shall be terrified, and they shall be downcast of countenance, and pain shall seize them, when they see that Son of Man sitting on the throne of his glory.

Chapter 50

And the kings and the mighty and all who possess the earth shall bless and glorify and extol him who rules over all, who was hidden. For from the beginning the Son of Man was hidden, and the Most High preserved him in the presence of His might, and revealed him to the elect. And the congregation of the elect and holy shall be sown, and all the elect shall stand before him on that day. And all the kings and the mighty and the exalted and those who rule the earth shall fall down before him on their faces, and worship and set their hope upon that Son of Man, and petition him and supplicate for mercy at his hands. Nevertheless that Lord of Spirits will so press them that they shall hastily go forth from His presence, and their faces shall be filled with shame, and the darkness grow deeper on their faces. And He will deliver them to the angels for punishment, to execute vengeance on them because they have oppressed His children and His elect. And they shall be a spectacle for the righteous and for His elect: they shall rejoice over them, because the wrath of the Lord of Spirits resteth upon them, and His sword is drunk with their blood. And the righteous and elect shall be saved on that day, and they shall never thenceforward see the face of the sinners and unrighteous. And the Lord of Spirits will abide over them, and with that Son of Man shall they eat and lie down and rise up for ever and ever. And the righteous and elect shall have risen from the earth, and ceased to be of downcast countenance. And they shall have been clothed with garments of glory.

Chapter 51

And these shall be the garments of life from the Lord of Spirits: and your garments shall not grow old, nor your glory pass away before the Lord of Spirits. In those days shall the mighty and the kings who possess the earth implore Him to grant them a little respite from His angels of punishment to whom they were delivered, that they might fall down and worship before the Lord of Spirits, and confess their sins before Him. And they shall bless and glorify the Lord of Spirits, and say: Blessed is the Lord of Spirits and the Lord of kings, and the Lord of the mighty and the Lord of the rich, and the Lord of glory and the Lord of wisdom. And splendid in every secret thing is Thy power from generation to generation, and Thy glory for ever and ever: deep are all Thy secrets and innumerable, and Thy righteousness is beyond reckoning. We have now learnt that we should glorify and bless the Lord of kings and Him who is king over all kings. And they shall say: Would that we had rest to glorify and give thanks and confess our faith before His glory! And now we long for a little rest but find it not: we follow hard upon and obtain it not: and light has vanished from before us, and darkness is our dwelling-place for ever and ever. For we have not believed before Him nor glorified the name of the Lord of Spirits, nor glorified our Lord but our hope was in the sceptre of our kingdom, and in our glory. And in the day of our suffering and tribulation He saves us not, and we find no respite for confession that our Lord is true in all His works, and in His judgements and His justice, and His judgements have no respect of persons. And we pass away from before His face on account of our works, and all our sins are reckoned up in righteousness.

Chapter 52

Now they shall say unto themselves: Our souls are full of unrighteous gain, but it does not prevent us from descending from the midst thereof into the burden of Sheol. And after that their faces shall be filled with darkness and shame before that Son of Man, and they shall be driven from his presence, and the sword shall abide before his face in their midst. Thus spake the Lord of Spirits: This is the ordinance and judgement with respect to the mighty and the kings and the exalted and those who possess the earth before the Lord of Spirits. And there was great joy amongst them, and they blessed and glorified and extolled because the name of that Son of Man had been revealed unto them. And he sat on the throne of his glory, and the sum of judgement was given unto the Son of Man, and he caused the sinners to pass away and be destroyed from off the face of the earth. And those who have led the world astray, with chains shall they be bound, and in their assemblage-place of destruction shall they be imprisoned, and all their works vanish from the face of the earth. And from henceforth there shall be nothing corruptible; for that Son of Man has appeared, and has seated himself on the throne of his glory, and all evil shall pass away before his face, and the word of that Son of Man shall go forth and be strong before the Lord of Spirits. And it came to pass after this that his name during his lifetime was raised aloft to that Son of Man and to the Lord of Spirits from amongst those who dwell on the earth. And he was raised aloft on the chariots of the spirit and his name vanished among them. And from that day I was no longer numbered amongst them: and he set me between the two winds, between the North and the West, where the angels took the cords to measure for me the place for the elect and righteous.

Chapter 53

And there I saw the first fathers and the righteous who from the beginning dwell in that place. And it came to pass after this that my spirit was translated and it ascended into the heavens: and I saw the holy sons of God. They were stepping on flames of fire: their garments were white and their raiment, and their faces shone like snow. And I saw two streams of fire, and the light of that fire shone like hyacinth, and I fell on my face before the Lord of Spirits. And the angel Michael, one of the archangels, seized me by my right hand, and lifted me up and led me forth into all the secrets, and he showed me all the secrets of righteousness. And he showed me all the secrets of the ends of the heaven, and all the chambers of all the stars, and all the luminaries, whence they proceed before the face of the holy ones. And he translated my spirit into the heaven of heavens, and I saw there as it were a structure built of crystals, and between those crystals tongues of living fire. And my spirit saw the girdle which girt that house of fire, and on its four sides were streams full of living fire, and they girt that house. And round about were Seraphin, Cherubic, and Ophannin: and these are they who sleep not and guard the throne of His glory. And I saw angels who could not be counted, a thousand thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand, encircling that house. And Michael, and Raphael, and Gabriel, and Phanuel, and the holy angels who are above the heavens, go in and out of that house. And they came forth from that house, and Michael and Gabriel, Raphael and Phanuel, and many holy angels without number.

Chapter 54

And with them the Head of Days, His head white and pure as wool, and His raiment indescribable. And I fell on my face, and my whole body became relaxed, and my spirit was transfigured; and I cried with a loud voice, with the spirit of power, and blessed and glorified and extolled. And these blessings which went forth out of my mouth were well pleasing before that Head of Days. And that Head of Days came with Michael and Gabriel, Raphael and Phanuel, thousands and ten thousands of angels without number. And he came to me and greeted me with His voice, and said unto me: This is the Son of Man who is born unto righteousness, and righteousness abides over him, and the righteousness of the Head of Days forsakes him not. And he said unto me: He proclaims unto thee peace in the name of the world to come; for from hence has proceeded peace since the creation of the world, and so shall it be unto thee for ever and for ever and ever. And all shall walk in his ways since righteousness never forsaketh him: with him will be their dwelling-places, and with him their heritage, and they shall not be separated from him for ever and ever and ever. And so there shall be length of days with that Son of Man, and the righteous shall have peace and an upright way in the name of the Lord of Spirits for ever and ever.

Jubilees

Chapter 1

This is the history of the division of the days of the law and of the testimony, of the events of the years, of their year-weeks, of their Jubilees throughout all the years of the world. And the Lord said unto Moses: Come up to Me on the Mount, and I will give thee two tables of stone of the law and of the commandment. Which I have written that thou mayst teach them. For I know their rebellion and their stiff neck, before I bring them into the land of which I sware to their fathers, to Abraham and to Isaac and to Jacob. And they will forget all My law and all My commandments and all My judgements, and will go astray as to new moons, and sabbaths, and festivals, and jubilees, and ordinances. And after this they will turn to Me from amongst the Gentiles with all their heart and with all their soul and with all their strength. And I will gather them from amongst all the Gentiles, and they will seek Me, so that I shall be found of them, when they seek Me with all their heart and with all their soul. And I will disclose to them abounding peace with righteousness, and I will remove them the plant of uprightness, with all My heart and with all My soul. And I will circumcise the foreskin of their heart and the foreskin of the heart of their seed, and I will create in them a holy spirit, and I will cleanse them so that they shall not turn away from Me from that day unto eternity. And their souls will cleave to Me and to all My commandments, and they will fulfil My commandments, and I will be their Father and they shall be My children.

Chapter 2

And they all shall be called children of the living God, and every angel and every spirit shall know, yea, they shall know that these are My children, and that I am their Father in uprightness and righteousness, and that I love them. And do thou write down for thyself all these words which I declare unto thee on this mountain, the first and the last, which shall come to pass in all the divisions of the days in the law and in the testimony and in the weeks and the jubilees unto eternity. Until I descend and dwell with them throughout eternity. And He said to the angel of the presence: Write for Moses from the beginning of creation till My sanctuary has been built among them for all eternity. And the Lord will appear to the eyes of all, and all shall know that I am the God of Israel and the Father of all the children of Jacob, and King on Mount Zion for all eternity. And Zion and Jerusalem shall be holy. And the angel of the presence who went before the camp of Israel took the tables of the divisions of the years from the time of the creation of the law and of the testimony of the weeks of the jubilees, according to the individual years, according to all the number of the jubilees. And the angel of the presence spake to Moses according to the word of the Lord, saying: Write the complete history of the creation, how in six days the Lord God finished all His works and all that He created. And kept Sabbath on the seventh day and hallowed it for all ages, and appointed it as a sign for all His works. And He gave us a great sign, the Sabbath day, that we should work six days, but keep Sabbath on the seventh day from all work. And all the angels of the presence, and all the angels of sanctification, these two great classes He hath bidden us to keep the Sabbath with Him in heaven and on earth. And He said unto us: Behold, I will separate unto Myself a people from among all the peoples, and these shall keep the Sabbath day, and I will sanctify them unto Myself as My people.

Chapter 3

And will bless them; as I have sanctified the Sabbath day and do sanctify it unto Myself, even so will I bless them, and they shall be My people and I will be their God. And I have chosen the seed of Jacob from amongst all that I have seen, and have written him down as My first-born son, and have sanctified him unto Myself for ever and ever. And thus He created therein a sign in accordance with which they should keep Sabbath with us on the seventh day, to eat and to drink, and to bless Him who has created all things as He has blessed and sanctified unto Himself a peculiar people above all peoples. And he was the first among men that are born on earth who learnt writing and knowledge and wisdom and who wrote down the signs of heaven according to the order of their months in a book. That men might know the seasons of the years according to the order of their separate months. And he was the first to write a testimony, and he testified to the sons of men among the generations of the earth and recounted the weeks of the jubilees. And he was moreover with the angels of God these six jubilees of years, and they showed him everything which is on earth and in the heavens, the rule of the sun, and he wrote down everything. And he testified to the Watchers, who had sinned with the daughters of men; for these had begun to unite themselves, so as to be defiled, with the daughters of men, and Enoch testified against them all. And he was taken from amongst the children of men, and we conducted him into the Garden of Eden in majesty and honour, and behold there he writes down the condemnation and judgement of the world. And all the wickedness of the children of men. And on account of it God brought the waters of the flood upon all the land of Eden.

Chapter 4

For there he was set as a sign and that he should testify against all the children of men, that he should recount all the deeds of the generations until the day of condemnation. And he burnt the incense of the sanctuary, even sweet spices, acceptable before the Lord on the Mount. And on the new moon of the third month he went forth from the ark, and built an altar on that mountain. And he made atonement for the earth, and took a kid and made atonement by its blood for all the guilt of the earth; for everything that had been on it had been destroyed, save those that were in the ark with Noah. And he placed the fat thereof on the altar, and he took an ox, and a goat, and a sheep and kids, and salt, and a turtle-dove, and the young of a dove, and placed a burnt sacrifice on the altar. And poured thereon an offering mingled with oil, and sprinkled wine and strewed frankincense over everything, and caused a goodly savour to arise, acceptable before the Lord. And He gave to Noah and his sons a sign that there should not again be a flood on the earth. He set His bow in the cloud for a sign of the eternal covenant that there should not again be a flood on the earth to destroy it all the days of the earth. And for this reason it is ordained and written on the heavenly tablets, that they should celebrate the feast of weeks in this month once a year, to renew the covenant every year. For it is the feast of weeks and the feast of first fruits: this feast is twofold and of a double nature: according to what is written and engraved concerning it celebrate it.

Chapter 5

After these things, in the fourth year of this week, on the new moon of the third month, the word of the Lord came to Abram in a dream, saying: Fear not, Abram; I am thy defender, and thy reward will be exceeding great. And He brought him forth abroad, and said unto him: Look toward heaven and number the stars if thou art able to number them. And he looked toward heaven, and beheld the stars. And He said unto him: So shall thy seed be. And he believed in the Lord, and it was counted to him for righteousness. On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying: To thy seed will I give this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates. The Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, the Perizzites, and the Rephaim, the Phakorites, and the Hivites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites. And the day passed, and Abram offered the pieces, and the birds, and their fruit offerings, and their drink offerings, and the fire devoured them. And in the fifth year of the fourth week of this jubilee, in the third month, in the middle of the month, Abram celebrated the feast of the first-fruits of the wheat harvest. And He appeared to him, and said unto him: I am God Almighty; approve thyself before Me and be thou perfect. And I will make My covenant between Me and thee, and I will multiply thee exceedingly.

Chapter 6

And He said unto him: I am God Almighty; let thy name be Abraham; for the father of many nations have I made thee. And I will make thee very great, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come forth from thee. And I shall establish My covenant between Me and thee, and thy seed after thee, throughout their generations, for an eternal covenant, so that I may be a God unto thee and to thy seed after thee. And I shall give to thee and to thy seed after thee the land where thou hast been a sojourner, the land of Canaan, for an eternal possession, and I will be their God. This law is for all the generations for ever, and there is no circumcision of the days, and no omission of one day out of the eight days; for it is an eternal ordinance, ordained and written on the heavenly tablets. And every one that is born, the flesh of whose foreskin is not circumcised on the eighth day, belongs not to the children of the covenant which the Lord made with Abraham. And he blessed them that night. And he blessed Levi first, and Judah second, and blessed them. And the spirit of prophecy came down into his mouth, and he took Levi by his right hand and Judah by his left. And he turned to Levi first, and began to bless him first, and said unto him: May the God of all, the very Lord of all the ages, bless thee and thy children throughout all the ages. And may the Lord give to thee and to thy seed greatness and great glory, and cause thee and thy seed, from among all flesh, to approach Him to serve in His sanctuary as the angels of the presence and as the holy ones.

Chapter 7

Even as they shall be the seed of thy sons for glory and greatness and holiness, and may He make them great unto all the ages. And they shall be judges and princes, and chiefs of all the seed of the sons of Jacob; they shall speak the word of the Lord in righteousness, and they shall judge all His judgements in righteousness. And they shall declare My ways to Jacob and My paths to Israel. The blessing of the Lord shall be given in their mouths to bless all the seed of the beloved. Thy mother has called thy name Levi, and justly has she called thy name; thou shalt be joined to the Lord and be the companion of all the sons of Jacob; let His table be thine, and do thou and thy sons eat thereof. And may thy table be full unto all generations, and thy food fail not unto all the ages. And he abode that night at Bethel, and Levi dreamed that they had ordained and made him the priest of the Most High God, him and his sons for ever. And he awoke from his sleep and blessed the Lord. And Jacob rose early in the morning, on the fourteenth of this month, and he gave a tithe of all that came with him, both of men and cattle, both of gold and every vessel and garment, yea, he gave tithes of all. And in those days Rachel became pregnant with her son Benjamin. And Jacob counted his sons from him upwards and Levi fell to the portion of the Lord. And his father clothed him in the garments of the priesthood and filled his hands.

Chapter 8

And the Lord appeared to him by night and blessed him and said unto him: Thy name shall not be called Jacob, but Israel shall they name thy name. And He said unto him again: I am the Lord who created the heaven and the earth, and I will increase thee and multiply thee exceedingly, and kings shall come forth from thee, and they shall judge everywhere wherever the foot of the sons of men has trodden. And I will give to thy seed all the earth which is under heaven, and they shall judge all the nations according to their desires, and after that they shall get possession of the whole earth and inherit it for ever. And after this law I made known to thee the days of the Sabbaths in the desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai. And I told thee of the Sabbaths of the land on Mount Sinai, and I told thee of the jubilee years in the sabbaths of years: but the year thereof have I not told thee till ye enter the land which ye are to possess. And the children of Israel shall observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as an everlasting ordinance. For great is the honour which the Lord has given to Israel that they should eat and drink and be satisfied on this festival day. And rest thereon from all labour which belongeth to the labour of the children of men, save burning frankincense and bringing oblations and sacrifices before the Lord for days and for Sabbaths. This work alone shall be done on the Sabbath-days in the sanctuary of the Lord your God; that they may atone for Israel with sacrifice continually from day to day for a memorial well-pleasing before the Lord. And that He may receive them always from day to day according as thou hast been commanded.

Chapter 9

And every man who does any work thereon, or goes a journey, or tills his farm, whether in his house or any other place, and whoever lights a fire, or rides on any beast, or travels by ship on the sea. And whoever strikes or kills anything, or slaughters a beast or a bird, or whoever catches an animal or a bird or a fish, or whoever fasts or makes war on the Sabbaths.

Exodus

Chapter 1

These are the names of the sons of Israel who are coming into Egypt with Jacob, every man and his household have they come; Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, Benjamin, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher. And all the people that came out of the loins of Jacob were 70 people, for Joseph was in Egypt already. Then Joseph died and all his brothers, that whole generation. The children of Israel were also fruitful and increased abundantly and became numerous, and grew exceedingly strong and the land was filled with them. Then there was established a new king over Egypt that did not recognize Joseph. And he said to his people, understand this, the people of the children of Israel are more numerous and stronger than ourselves. Therefore let us act judiciously with them or they will become numerous, and if a conflict arises, they will join to our enemies and fight against us and will depart out of our land.

Then they set over them a slave czar to weaken them with compulsory service. And they built for Pharaoh the storage cities, Pithom and Raamses. But the more they weakened them, the more they became numerous and increased. Then they began to detest the children of Israel. And the Egyptians imposed on the children of Israel very harsh and severe labor. And they made their lives bitter with cruel slave labor, in cement and brick, and in all forced labor of the cultivated field, all their labor was forced on them with harshness. The king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives whose names were Shiphrah, and Puah. And he commanded them, when you assist as midwives to the Hebrew women and see them on the bearing-stools, if it be a son then you shall kill him, but if it is a daughter then she shall remain alive. But the midwives feared Elohim, and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but kept alive the baby boys. Then the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, why have you been doing your business and saving the boy babies alive? The midwives replied to Pharaoh, because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women, for they are very vigorous and deliver before the midwives get to them. Then Elohim was pleased with the midwives and the people became numerous and exceedingly stronger. And because the midwives feared Elohim many new homes were made.

Then Pharaoh gave orders to all his people commanding that every son born will be thrown into the Nile river, but every daughter will remain alive. Now a man from the House of Levi took for a woman, a daughter of Levi, and the woman became pregnant and gendered a son, but when she saw he was an excellent baby she hid him for three months.

Chapter 2

But when she could no longer hide him she made for him an ark (vessel) of papyrus and over coated it with tar and pitch, then put the baby in it and floated it among the water reeds by the Nile river's bank. Now his sister stood a distance off to see what would become of him.

And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe herself in the Nile river and her attendants walked along the Nile's bank, and when she saw the ark (vessel) among the water reeds she sent her female slave to get it. When she opened it she saw the baby and it was crying, but she had compassion on him and said, this is one of the Hebrews offspring. Then his sister spoke to Pharaoh's daughter, shall I go and call for you a nurse of the Hebrew women that she may nurse the baby for you? Pharaoh's daughter replied to her, "go", so the girl went and called the infant's mother.

Pharaoh's daughter said to her, take this baby away and nurse it for me and I will pay you wages. So the woman took the infant and nursed it. And the baby grew up, then she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son. Then she called his name Moses because she said, "for I drew him out of the water". Then it came about in those days after Moses had grown that he went out to his relatives and looked on their burdens and he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew relative of his. He then looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no one around, he killed the Egyptian and buried him in the sand. Later when he went out the second day he saw two men of the Hebrews fighting and he said to him that did the wrong, why did you hit your friend? And he replied, who made you a ruler and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed that Egyptian? Then Moses was afraid and thought, surely this thing has now become known. When Pharaoh heard about it he sought to have him executed but Moses fled from the presence of Pharaoh and lived in the land of Midian and he sat down by a well. Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters and they came and drew water and filled the troughs to water their dad's flock. Then some shepherds came and drove them away but Moses ran over and defended them, and watered their flock for them. When they came to Reuel their dad he asked, how come you are back so soon today?

And they replied, an Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock also. Then he replied to his daughters, where is he and why have you left this man? Go call him that he may eat some food with us. Later Moses accepted the invitation to live with the man, and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter. She gendered him a son and he called his name Gershom for he thought, I have been a foreigner in a foreign land. As time passed it came about that the king of Egypt died and the children of Israel groaned by reason of their bondage, and when they cried their crying came up to Elohim because of their hard captive labors. Elohim heard their groaning, and Elohim remembered His Covenant-Pledge with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Chapter 3

Then Elohim looked on the children of Israel and Elohim had recognition in store for them. Meanwhile Moses tended the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the desert and came to the Mountain of Elohim called Horeb. Then the Angel of YHWH appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the center of a bush, and he looked at the bush burning with fire but the bush was not burnt up.

Moses thought to himself, I will go over there and see this great sight, why this bush is not burnt up. When YHWH saw that he came over to observe then Elohim called to him out from the center of the bush and proclaimed, Moses! Moses! and he replied, I am here. He spoke, Do not come any closer now, take off the shoes from off your feet, for the Standing Place where you stand is sacred ground. He spoke, I am the Elohim of your dad, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob. And Moses concealed his face for he was terrified to look on Elohim. YHWH spoke, I have certainly seen the affliction of my people that are in Egypt, having heard their cries because of their oppressors, and I have known their sorrows. Now I am come down to rescue them out of the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good large country, to a land flowing with milk and honey. To the regions of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and the Jebusites. Now therefore listen, the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me and I have also seen the oppression that the Egyptians oppress them with. So go now for I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring forth My people, the children of Israel out of Egypt. Then Moses replied to Elohim, who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt? And He replied, Certainly I will be with you, and this will be a sign to you that I have sent you. When you have brought forth the people out of Egypt then you will serve Elohim (with Levitical service) at this mountain. Moses replied to Elohim, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, the Elohim of your forefathers has sent me to you, and when they ask me, what is your Name then what shall I answer them? Elohim replied to Moses, “I AM THAT WHICH I AM”; He also said, This will you say to the sons of Israel, “I AM has sent me to you”. Then Elohim also spoke to Moses, You will say this to the children of Israel, YHWH Elohim of your forefathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob has sent me to you. This is my Name for the ages, and this is my memorial to all generations. Go, and gather the Elders of Israel together and say to them, YHWH Elohim of your forefathers, the Elohim of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob appeared to me saying, I have certainly observed you and have seen what is done to you in Egypt. Now I have spoken, I will bring you up from the afflictions of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey. And they will obey your voice and you will come, along with the Elders of Israel to the king of Egypt, and you will say to him, YHWH Elohim of the Hebrews has met with us. Now let us go for three days’ journey into the wilderness so that we may sacrifice to YHWH our Elohim. I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless a mighty hand forces him. And I will stretch out My hand, and strike Egypt with all My supernatural powers that I will do among them, and after that he will let you go. And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians and it will come to pass that when you go, you will not leave empty handed but every woman will inquire of her neighbor, and of her that lives in her house, jewels of silver, gold, and clothing, and you will put them on your sons, and on your daughters and you will plunder the Egyptians.

Chapter 4

Then Moses answered and said, consider this, they will not believe me or listen to my voice for they no doubt will say, YHWH has not appeared to you.

YHWH replied to him, what is that in your hand? And he answered, a staff. Then He said, “Cast it on the ground”. So he cast it on the ground, and it became a snake and Moses backed away from it fast. YHWH spoke to Moses, Put out your hand and take it by the tail. And he put out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff again in his hand. This is so they may believe that YHWH Elohim of their forefathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob has appeared to you. YHWH also said to him, “Put now your hand into your bosom”. So he put his hand into his bosom and when he took it out his hand was leprous as snow. Then He said, put your hand into your bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again and brought it out of his bosom and it was restored again as his normal flesh. Now if they will not believe you or listen to the herald of the first sign, then they will believe the herald of the latter sign. However if they will not believe these two signs or listen to your voice, then you will take of the water of the Nile river, and pour it on the dry ground and the water that you take out of the river will become blood on the dry ground. Then Moses replied to YHWH, O my Adonai, I am not a good speaker, never have been or yet even now since you have spoken to me, but I am slow of speech and of a slow tongue.

YHWH replied to him, Who has made man’s mouth? Or who makes the dumb or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? Has not YHWH done this? Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth and will teach you what you will say. And he replied, O my Adonai please send another one to do this. Then the anger of YHWH burned against Moses and he replied, Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. Look here, he now comes to meet you and when he sees you his heart will rejoice. You will speak to him putting the words in his mouth, and I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and will teach you what you will do. He will be your spokesman to the people, and he will be your mouth and you shall be Elohim to him. Then you will take this staff in your hand to perform these signs. Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law and said to him, let me go and return to my relatives that are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive. So Jethro replied to Moses, go in peace. YHWH spoke to Moses in Midian, Go, return to Egypt for all the men are dead that sought your life. Then Moses took his woman and his sons, and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt, and Moses took the staff of Elohim in his hand. YHWH spoke to Moses, When you return to Egypt see that you do all these signs before Pharaoh that I have put in your hand, but I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.

And you will say to Pharaoh, thus says YHWH, Israel is My son, even My firstborn. And I say to you, Let My son go that he may serve Me and if you refuse to let him go I will kill your son, even your firstborn. Now it came to pass on the way, in the place of lodging, that YHWH encountered Moses' son, and was required to kill him. But Zipporah took a flint knife and cut off the foreskin of her son, and touched it to Moses' feet and said, surely a husband of blood [rites] are you to me! So He let him go, then she repeated, a husband of blood [rites] are you to me, with regards to the rites of circumcision. Then YHWH spoke to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went and met him at the mountain of Elohim and hugged him. Moses told Aaron all the Words of YHWH who had sent him, and all the supernatural signs that He had commanded him. Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the Elders of the children of Israel. And Aaron spoke all the words that YHWH had spoken to Moses and performed the supernatural signs in the sight of the people.

Chapter 5

Then the people believed and when they heard that YHWH had visited the children of Israel, and that He had observed their affliction, then they bowed their heads and prostrated. Then later Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, this is what YHWH Elohim of Israel commands, Let my people go that they may hold a festival to Me in the wilderness. But Pharaoh replied, who is YHWH that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I do not know YHWH neither will I let Israel go. And they answered, the Elohim of the Hebrews has met with us, so now let us take three days' journey into the desert and sacrifice to YHWH our Elohim lest He fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword. Then the king of Egypt answered them, why do you Moses and Aaron keep the people from their works? Go back yourselves now to your compulsory service. And Pharaoh said, look, the people of the land now are numerous and you make them rest from their burdens. Then Pharaoh commanded that day the slave drivers of the people and their officers saying, you will no longer give the people straw to make white brick as previously, let them go and gather straw for themselves. And require them to make the same formula of bricks as before, do not reduce their quota for they are slacking when they cry saying, let us go and sacrifice to our Elohim. Let their service be heavy on the men and let them work at it and not be dazzled by lying words.

So the slave drivers of the people went out with their officers and they spoke to the people saying, Pharaoh declares, I will not give you straw. Go you now and get your straw wherever you can find it, yet none of your work shall be curtailed. So the people were dispersed abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw. Then the slave drivers pressured them saying, finish your daily tasks on time, as when there was straw. And the officers of the children of Israel, that Pharaoh's slave drivers had set over them were beaten and demanded, why have you not completed your task in making brick both yesterday and today as previously? Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried to Pharaoh saying, why have you dealt with your slaves this way? There is no straw given to your slaves and they say to us, make brick and then your slaves are beaten, you do therefore wrong your people. But he replied, you are idle! you are idle! - that - is why you say, let us go and do sacrifice to YHWH. So now get to work because there will be no straw given to you, yet you will deliver the quota of bricks. After this the officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in great trouble after hearing, you are not to reduce the quantity of bricks required of you daily in your work.

And they found Moses and Aaron standing to meet them when they came out from Pharaoh. Then they said to them, YHWH look on you and judge because you have caused our scent to stink in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants to put a sword into their hand to kill us. Moses returned to YHWH and asked, Adonai, why have you so injured this people and why have you sent me?

Chapter 6

For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your Name he has done injury to this people and you have not rescued your people at all. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Now shall you see what I will do to Pharaoh for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land. And Elohim spoke to Moses saying, I am YHWH. I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob by the name of El Shaddai, but my Name YHWH was not revealed to them. And I have also established My Covenant-Pledge with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their lodging where they lived as foreigners. And I have also heard the groanings of the children of Israel whom the Egyptians kept in slavery and I have remembered my Covenant-Pledge. Therefore say to the children of Israel, I am YHWH and I will bring you out from under the compulsory service of the Egyptians, and I will rid you from their slavery and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great acts of judgment. I will take you to myself as My own people, and I will be to you Elohim, and you will know that I am YHWH your Elohim that brings you out from under the compulsory service of the Egyptians. I will bring you into the land of which I lifted up My hand to give it to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob, and will give it to you as an inheritance. Then Moses spoke these things to the children of Israel but they did not listen to Moses because of their mental anguish, and because of the cruel slavery. YHWH then spoke to Moses saying, Go in, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt that he let the children of Israel go out of his land. And Moses spoke before YHWH saying, the children of Israel have not listened to me, how then will Pharaoh hear, I also being of uncircumcised speech? Then YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them a command for the children of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt. These are the heads of their dads houses: The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel; Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi: these are the tribe of Reuben. The sons of Simeon; Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the tribe of Simeon. These are the names of the sons of Levi according to their genealogies; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari:

and the years of the life of Levi was 137 years. The sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimi, according to their clans. The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel: and the years of the life of Kohath were 133 years. The sons of Merari; Mahali and Mushi: these are the clans of Levi according to their genealogies. And Amram took him Jochebed his father's sister for a woman, and she gendered him Aaron and Moses, and the years of the life of Amram were a 137 years. The sons of Izhar; Korah, Nepheg, Zichri. The sons of Uzziel; Mishael, Elzaphan, Zithri. Then Aaron took him Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Naashon, for a woman, and she gendered him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. The sons of Korah; Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites. Then Eleazar Aaron's son took him one of the daughters of Putiel for a woman, and she gendered him Phinehas: these are the heads of the dads of the Levites according to their tribe. This is Aaron and Moses to whom YHWH said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their hosts. These are they that spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt, these are Moses and Aaron.

Now when YHWH spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, YHWH spoke to Moses saying, I am YHWH, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you. But Moses replied to YHWH, I am of uncircumcised speech so how will Pharaoh listen to me? YHWH spoke to Moses, See, I have made you Elohim to Pharaoh and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet.

Chapter 7

You will speak all that I command you and Aaron your brother will speak to Pharaoh that he send the children of Israel out of his land. And I will harden Pharaoh's heart and multiply My signs and My miracles in the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh will not listen that I may put My Hand on Egypt, and will bring out My hosts, My people, the sons of Israel, from the land of Egypt by great acts of judgment. And the Egyptians will know that I am YHWH, when I stretch forth My hand upon Egypt and bring out the children of Israel from among them. Then Moses did (and Aaron also) as YHWH commanded them. Moses was 80 years old and Aaron 83 years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Then YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron saying, When Pharaoh will say to you, perform a miracle then you will say to Aaron, Take your staff and cast it before Pharaoh and it will become a snake. Then Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and they did as YHWH had commanded, and Aaron cast down his staff before Pharaoh and before his slaves, and it became a snake. But Pharaoh also called for crafty men, and for sorcerers and the diviners of Egypt, they also with their flashings, did similar things. For they cast down every man his staff and they became snakes, but Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs. And He hardened Pharaoh's heart, so he did not listen to them as YHWH had spoken. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened and he refuses to let the people go. Now go to Pharaoh in the morning when he goes out to the water, and you will stand by the river's bank to meet him, and the staff that was turned to a snake will you bring in your hand. And you will say to him, YHWH Elohim of the Hebrews has sent me to you saying, Let My people go that they may serve Me in the wilderness and previously you would not listen. So YHWH now declares, In this you will know that I am YHWH for I will strike with the staff that is in my hand upon the waters of the river, and the waters shall be turned to blood.

And the fish that are in the river will die and the river will stink, and the Egyptians will weary to drink of the water from the river. YHWH spoke to Moses, Say to Aaron, take your staff and stretch out your hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, rivers, ponds, and upon all their pools of water that they may become blood. So there will be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone. Moses and Aaron did as YHWH commanded, and he lifted up the staff and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his slaves and all the waters that were in the river turned to blood. Then the fish that were in the river died and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water from the river, and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt. But the diviners of Egypt also did this with their secret arts and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he listen to them as YHWH had said. Pharaoh turned and went into his house and did not even take this to heart. Then all the Egyptians excavated around the river for water to drink, for they could not drink of the water from the river. And seven days passed after YHWH had struck the Nile river.

Chapter 8

Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Go to Pharaoh and say to him, This is what YHWH declares, Let My people go that they may serve Me. But if you refuse to let them go I will strike all your regions with frogs. Then the river will bring forth frogs abundantly, that will go up and come into your house, and into your bedroom and on your bed, and into the house of your slaves, and on your people and into your ovens, and into your bread bowls.

The frogs will come up both on you, and on your people and on all your slaves. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Say to Aaron, Stretch forth your hand with your staff over the streams, rivers, ponds, and cause frogs to rise up onto the land of Egypt. Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. But the diviners did so with their secret arts and also brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, make supplication to YHWH, that He may take away the frogs from me, and from my people, and I will let the people go that they may perform sacrifice to YHWH. Moses replied to Pharaoh, explain yourself to me, at what time shall I make supplication for you and for your slaves, and for your people to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, so that they may remain in the river only? And he answered, Tomorrow. Then he replied, let it be according to your word that you may know that there is none like YHWH our Elohim. The frogs will depart from you, and from your houses and from your slaves, and from your people, and they will remain in the river only. Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh and Moses cried to YHWH because of the frogs that He had brought against Pharaoh. Then YHWH did according to the word of Moses and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields. And they gathered them together into heaps and the land smelled very bad. But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief he hardened his heart and listened not to them as YHWH had said. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, say to Aaron, Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the land that it may become gnat-swarms throughout all the land of Egypt. And they did so, for Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth, and it became gnat-swarms in man, and in beast, all the dust of the land became gnat-swarms throughout all the land of Egypt. But when diviners attempted with their secret arts to bring forth gnat-swarms they could not. So there were gnat-swarms on man and beast. Then the diviners said to Pharaoh, this is the finger of Elohim, but Pharaoh's heart was hardened and he did not listen to them as YHWH had said would happen. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh when he comes out to the water and say to him, This is what YHWH declares, Let My people go that they may serve Me. Or if you will not let My people go then I will send swarms [of flies] on you and your slaves and on your people, and into your houses and the houses of the Egyptians will be full of swarms [of flies], and also the ground where they stand. But I will mark out in that day the land of Goshen where My people live, that no swarms [of flies] will be there. This is so you know that I am YHWH in this land. And I will put a division between My people and your people, tomorrow will this sign come about. And YHWH did so and there came a grievous swarm [of flies] into the house of Pharaoh and into his slave's houses, and into all the land of Egypt, the land was ruined by reason of the swarm [of flies]. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron and said, you go and sacrifice to your Elohim in the land. But Moses replied, it would not be proper to do so for we will sacrifice the abominations of the Egyptians to YHWH our Elohim, now if we kill those things that the Egyptians worship in their presence, they will stone us! But we must go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to YHWH our Elohim, as He has commanded us. Then Pharaoh replied, I will let you go that you may sacrifice to YHWH your Elohim in the wilderness, only you will not go very far away, make supplication for me now. And Moses replied, I go out from you and I will make supplication to YHWH that the swarms [of flies] may depart from Pharaoh, his slaves and from his people tomorrow. Only make sure Pharaoh does not deal falsely anymore in not letting the people go to sacrifice to YHWH. Then Moses went out from Pharaoh and made supplication to YHWH. And YHWH did according to the word of Moses and He removed the swarms [of flies] from Pharaoh, his slaves, and from his people, there remained not even one. But Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

Chapter 9

Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh and tell him, This is what YHWH Elohim of the Hebrews declares, Let My people go that they may serve Me. For if you refuse to let them go, and will continue to hold them, the hand of YHWH is on your livestock that is in the field, on the horses, donkeys, camels, oxen, and upon the sheep, there will be a very grievous plague of disease. But YHWH will make a division between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, and there will nothing die of all that belongs to the children of Israel. YHWH appointed a set time declaring, Tomorrow YHWH will perform this thing in the land. And YHWH took this action the following day and all the livestock of Egypt died, but of the livestock belonging to the children of Israel, not one perished. And Pharaoh sent, and found there was not one of the livestock of the Israelites dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened and he did not let the people go. Then YHWH spoke to Moses and to

Aaron, Take to yourselves handfuls of ashes from the kiln and let Moses sprinkle it towards the sky in the sight of Pharaoh. Then it will become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and will be an inflammation breaking forth with blisters upon man and upon beast throughout all the land of Egypt.

Then they took ashes from the kiln and stood before Pharaoh and Moses sprinkled it up towards the sky, and it became an inflammation breaking forth with blisters upon man and upon beast. But the diviners could not stand before Moses because of the inflammation, for the inflammation was on all the diviners, and on all the Egyptians as well. YHWH hardened the heart of Pharaoh and he would not listen to them as YHWH had spoken to Moses. YHWH spoke to Moses, Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh and say to him, This is what YHWH Elohim of the Hebrews declares, Let My people go that they may serve Me. For this time I am sending all my plagues onto you and on your slaves, and on your people, that you may know that there is none like Me in all the land. For now I will stretch out My hand that I may strike you and your people with pestilence; and you will be cut off from the land. But indeed for this I have caused you to stand, so as to show you my power, and for the sake of declaring my Name in all the land. Are you not still exalting yourself against My people so that you will not let them go? Mark tomorrow about this time, for I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail such as has never been in Egypt, even from the day of its being founded even until now. Dispatch instructions now and gather your livestock, and all that you have in the field, for upon every man and beast that will be found in the field that will not be brought home, this hail will fall on them and they will die. Then he that feared the Word of YHWH among the slaves of Pharaoh made his slaves and his livestock take refuge into the shelters.

But he that regarded not the Word of YHWH left his slaves and his livestock in the open field. YHWH spoke to Moses, Stretch out your hand towards the skies that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt upon man and beast, and upon every green plant of the field throughout the land of Egypt. Then Moses stretched out his staff towards the skies and YHWH sent thunder and hail, and ball lightening ran along the ground, and YHWH rained hail upon the land of Egypt. And there was hail and fire catching itself in the midst of the hail, very grievous, such as has never been in all the land of Egypt since it has become a nation. The hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt, all that was in the field of both man and beast, and the hail beat down every green plant of the field, and broke every tree in the open field. Only in the land of Goshen where the children of Israel lived, was there no hail. Then Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron and confessed to them, I have sinned this time, YHWH is righteous and I and my people are wicked. Make supplication to YHWH and it will be enough so there will not be any more thundering of Elohim with the hail, I must let you go and you will not be delayed again. Then Moses replied to him, As soon as I am gone out of the city I will raise my hands to YHWH and the thunder and hail shall stop, then you will know that the land belongs to YHWH. But as for you and your slaves I know that you will still not fear YHWH Elohim.

So the flax and the barley were destroyed, for the barley was budding and the flax had already bloomed. But the wheat and the spelt were not destroyed for they were late crops. Then Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and he raised up his hands to YHWH, and the thunders and hail stopped and the rain ceased pouring on the land. When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail and the thunders had stopped, he sinned still more by hardening his heart, both he and his slaves.

Chapter 10

Then the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he would not let the children of Israel go as YHWH had spoken by Moses. YHWH spoke to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his slaves that I might show my miraculous signs before him. And so that you may tell in the ears of your son, and of your grandchildren, what things I have severely dealt on Egypt and My miraculous signs that I have done among them so that you may know how that I am YHWH. Then Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh and said to him, This is what YHWH Elohim of the Hebrews declares, How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let My people go so that they may serve Me. Or if you refuse to let My people go then tomorrow I will bring the locusts swarms into your region. And they will cover the face of the land so that no one is able to see the land.

Then they will devour the remainder of what has escaped that was left for you from the hail, and will eat every tree that grows for you out of the field. They will also fill your houses and the houses of all your slaves, and the houses of all the Egyptians such as your dads, and your forefathers have never seen, from the day that they came to this land until now. And he turned himself away and went out from Pharaoh. After this Pharaoh's slaves said to him, how long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go so that they may serve YHWH their Elohim. Don't you know that Egypt is destroyed? Moses and Aaron were then brought again to Pharaoh and he said to them, Go, serve YHWH your Elohim, but who are they that will go? And Moses replied, we would go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds would we go, for we must hold a festival sacrifice to YHWH. Then he said to them, YHWH be with you if I will let you go with your little ones. Clearly you are inclined for the worst. This will not happen! Let the men go and serve YHWH for that is what you were seeking. And then they were cast out of Pharaoh's presence. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locust swarms that they may come up upon the land of Egypt and eat every green plant of the land, everything that the hail has left. Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and YHWH brought an East wind on the land all that day and into the night and when it was morning the East wind brought the locusts. Then the locust swarms went up over all the land of Egypt and rested in all the regions of Egypt in very numerous quantities. Before this there had never been such locust swarms as these, neither after this will it ever happen again. For they covered the face of the whole ground so that the land was darkened, and they ate every green plant of the land and all the fruit in the trees that the hail had left.

There remained no greenery in the trees, or in the herbage of the field, throughout all the land of Egypt. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in great haste and said, I have sinned against YHWH your Elohim and against you. Now take away my sin once again and make supplication to YHWH your Elohim that He may remove this deadly plague. He went out from Pharaoh and made supplication to YHWH. Then YHWH turned a forcefully strong west wind that took away the locusts and cast them into the Red Sea, there remained not one locust in all the regions of Egypt. But YHWH hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he would not let the children of Israel go. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Stretch out your hand towards the sky that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, the darkness that one gropes in. And Moses stretched out his hand towards the sky and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. They could not see one another, neither rose any from his place for three days, but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings. Pharaoh called to Moses and said, now you may go and serve YHWH, only your flocks and your herds will be left behind.

Let your little ones also go with you. But Moses replied, you must give us also sacrifices and Burnt-Offerings, that we may observe our festival to YHWH our Elohim. Our livestock will also go with us, there will not be one hoof left behind, for we must take these to serve YHWH our Elohim, and we do not know with what we must serve YHWH until we get there. But YHWH continued to hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

Chapter 11

Then Pharaoh said to him, get away from me, never see my face again, because in the day you see my face you will die. Moses responded, you have spoken well, I will see your face again no more. YHWH spoke to Moses, I will bring one last plague upon Pharaoh and on Egypt, and then afterwards he will let you go from here. When he will let you go he will certainly cast you out of here altogether. Now speak in the audience of the people and let them ask every man of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, jewels of silver and jewels of gold. And YHWH gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very distinguished in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's slaves and in the sight of the people. Then Moses said, this is what YHWH commands, About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt. And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the slave girl that is behind the hand mills, and all the firstborn of animals. And there will be a great outcry throughout all the land of Egypt, the like of which never happened before or will ever happen again.

But against none of the children of Israel will a dog move his tongue, against man or beast, that you may know how YHWH puts a distinction between the Egyptians and Israel. So will all these servants of yours come to me, bowing down before me saying, go now, you and all the people who follow you! After that I will go out. Then Moses, hot with anger left Pharaoh.

Chapter 12

YHWH spoke to Moses, Pharaoh will not listen to you so that My miraculous signs may intensify in the land of Egypt. Moses and Aaron did all these miracles before Pharaoh and YHWH hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land. YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt saying, this month will be to you the beginning of months, it will be the first month of the year for you. Speak to all the company of Israel saying, In the tenth day of this month every man is to take a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, one lamb for each household. And if the household is too small for the lamb, let them share one with his neighbor next to his house according to the number of people living there, you will figure the amount of lamb needed in accordance to what each individual consumes. Your lamb will be wholesome and without blemish, a male of the first year, you will take it out from the sheep or from the female goats.

And you will keep it until the 14th day of the same month, and the whole company of the people of Israel will slaughter it at sunset. Then they will take of its blood and put some of it on the sides and tops of the door-frames of their houses where they will eat it. And they will eat the meat that night, roasted in the fire with unleavened bread and with bitter herbs, they will consume it. Now do not eat it raw or boiled in water but roast it with fire, with its head and with legs, including the entrails of the animal. Do not leave any of it until sunrise, but what is left of it you will burn that up with fire. This is how you will eat it, with your hips belted up and your shoes on your feet and with your staff in your hand, you will have eaten it in haste, it is YHWH's SACRIFICE OF PASSOVER. For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night and will kill all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and animal and against all the Elohim of Egypt I will execute judgment for I am YHWH. The blood will be to you for a signal on the houses where you live and when I see the blood, I will pass over you and the fatal plague will not be on you to destroy you when I fatally attack the land of Egypt. And this day will be to you for a memorial and you will observe it as a festival sacrifice to YHWH throughout your generations. You will observe it for a festival as a statute for the ages.

Seven days will you eat unleavened bread, on the first day you will remove leaven out of your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person will be cut off from the body of Israel. And on the first day there will be a sacred assembly by summons, and on the seventh day there will be a sacred assembly by summons. No manner of work will be done those days except for eating food, that is all you can do. And you will observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day did I bring your hosts out of the land of Egypt. This is why you will observe this day in your generations by a statute for the ages of time. In the first month, on the 14th day of the month at sunset, you will eat unleavened bread until the 21st day of the month at sunset. For seven days no leaven will be found in your houses and whoever eats what is leavened, even that person will be cut off from the body of Israel, whether he is a foreigner or native Israelite in the land. You will eat nothing leavened, in all your dwellings you will eat unleavened bread. Then Moses called for all the Elders of Israel and commanded them, fetch out and seize yourself a lamb according to your families and kill THE PASSOVER. Take a binding of hyssop and dip it in the blood that is in the bowl and apply it to the top and two sides of the door-frame, with the blood that is from the bowl. Then none of you will go out the door of his house until sunrise. For YHWH will pass through to strike the Egyptians but when he sees the blood on the top and two sides of the door-frame YHWH will pass over that door, and will not permit the destroyer to come into your houses to kill you. Then you will observe this as a statute for yourself and your descendants for the ages of time. And it will come to pass when you are come to the land that YHWH will give you as he has promised that you will observe this service. Then when your children will ask you, what do you mean by this service? You will then tell them, it is the sacrifice of YHWH's PASSOVER, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when he struck the Egyptians and rescued our houses. At this the people bowed down and prostrated themselves. The children of Israel went away and did exactly as YHWH had commanded Moses and Aaron. Then at midnight YHWH killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive that were in the prisons, and all the firstborn of animals. Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his slaves as well as all the Egyptians, and there was a great cry in Egypt for there was not a house where there was not one dead. Then he called for Moses and Aaron by night and said, rise up and depart from among my people, both you and the children of Israel and go serve YHWH as you have commanded. Also take your flocks and your herds as you have said and be gone, blessing me too. Then the Egyptians were urgent on the people that they might send them out of the land in a hurry, for they thought, we shall all be dead! And the people took up the dough before it was fermented, their kneading bowls being bound up in their garments on their shoulder. Then the children of Israel did as Moses commanded, and they asked of the Egyptians jewels of silver, jewels of gold and clothing. YHWH gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians so that they asked of them. So they plundered the Egyptians. The children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about 600,000 on foot that were men, beside children. And a mixed multitude went up along with them with the flocks, herds, and very numerous livestock. They baked unleavened cakes from the dough that they brought out of Egypt, for it was not leavened because they were expelled out of Egypt, and they could not delay, neither had they prepared themselves any provisions. Now the time that the children of Israel lived in Egypt was 430 years. Then at the end of 430 years, even on that very same day the hosts of YHWH departed from the land of Egypt. It is a night to be much observed to YHWH for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of YHWH to be observed by all the children of Israel in their generations. YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron, This is the statute of THE PASSOVER and no foreigner will eat of it. But every man's slave that is bought for money, after you have circumcised him, then he can consume of it. A foreigner and a hired slave will not eat of it.

The Passover must be eaten inside one's house, do not take any of the meat outside the house and do not break any of the bones. All the company of Israel will observe it. And when a foreigner will travel with you and observe THE PASSOVER to YHWH, let all his males be circumcised and then let him come near and observe it. Then he will be the same as a native Israelite born in the land, for no uncircumcised person will eat of it. One law will be in effect for the native Israelite and to the foreigner that lives among you. All the children of Israel obeyed as YHWH commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

Chapter 13

Then YHWH brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their hosts. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Set apart (consecrate) for Me all the firstborn of the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of animal, for they are Mine. And Moses said to the people, Remember this day that you came out from Egypt, out of the house of slavery, for by strength of hand YHWH brought you out from this place, there will no leavened bread be eaten. You came out this day in the month Abib. And it wil l come about when YHWH will bring you to the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he affirmed to your forefathers to bestow on you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you will observe this service in this month. Seven days you will eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day it will be a festival to YHWH. Unleavened bread will be eaten seven days, and anything fermented is not to be seen with you, leaven will not be seen with you in all your regions. And you will tell your son in that day saying, this is done because of what YHWH did to me when I came out of Egypt. This will be for a sign to you upon your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, that YHWH's Law may be in your mouth for with a strong hand has YHWH brought you out of Egypt. You will therefore observe this statute seasonally from year to year. And after YHWH brings you into the land of the Canaanites as he affirmed to you and your forefathers and bestows it to you, then you will set apart to YHWH all the firstborn of the womb, and every firstborn that comes from your animals, the males will belong to YHWH. And every firstborn of a donkey you will ransom with a lamb and if you will not ransom it, then you will break its neck and all the firstborn of Adam among your children will you ransom. In future times when your son asks you saying, what is this? Then you will say to him, by strength of hand YHWH brought us out from Egypt from the house of slavery. And it came about when Pharaoh would hardly let us go that YHWH killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of animals.

That is why I sacrifice to YHWH all the firstborn of the womb that are males, but all the firstborn of My children I ransom. This will be for a sign upon your hand, and for bindings between your eyes, for by strength of hand YHWH brought us out of Egypt. Then when Pharaoh sent the people away, Elohim did not lead them by the route to the land of the Philistines even though that was shorter, for Elohim said, Unless the people regret leaving when they see war and then turn back towards Egypt. But Elohim led the people by the desert route of the Red Sea, and the children of Israel went up arrayed for battle out of the land of Egypt. Moses also took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the children of Israel pledge saying, Elohim will certainly visit you and you will carry up my bones out of this place with you. Then they took their journey from Succoth and encamped in Etham, by the edge of the desert. YHWH went before them by day in a Pillar of Cloud-mass to lead them on the journey, and by night in a Pillar of Supernatural Fire, to give them light to go by day and night. He did not take away the Pillar of Cloud-mass by day, nor the Pillar of Supernatural Fire by night from in front of the people.

Chapter 14

Then YHWH spoke to Moses declaring, tell the children of Israel to turn back and encamp near Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. They are to pitch their camps by the sea, directly opposite Baalzephon. For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel that they are distracted in the land and the desert has shut them in.

And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he will pursue after them and I will be honored upon Pharaoh and upon all his armies so that the Egyptians may know that I am YHWH. And the Israelites did so. Then it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled and the heart of Pharaoh and of his slaves was turned against the people for they thought, why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us? And he made ready his chariot and took his compatriots with him. He took 600 chosen chariots, and all the chariotry of Egypt, and officers over every one of them. Then YHWH hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt and he pursued after the children of Israel, but the children of Israel went out with exalted hands. Then the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen with his army and overtook them encamped by the sea, near Pihahiroth, and opposite Baalzephon. When Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel raised their eyes, and saw the Egyptians marching after them and they were extremely afraid and the children of Israel cried out to YHWH. Then they said to Moses, because there were no graves in Egypt is that why you have taken us away to die in this desert? What has been done to us by bringing us out of Egypt? Is not this the word that we told you in Egypt saying, let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in this desert.

Then Moses said to the people, do not fear, stand still and see the salvation of YHWH that He will show to you today, for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will not see them again for the ages of time. YHWH will make war for you and you will remain silent. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Why do you cry to me? command that the children of Israel continue the advance. Lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the Red Sea and divide it, so the children of Israel may go on dry land through the middle of the sea. Then I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians and they will follow them, and I will obtain for Myself honor from Pharaoh and his forces, from his chariots and his horsemen. Then the Egyptians will know that I am YHWH, when I have obtained myself honor from Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen. Then the Angel of Elohim that went in front of the camp of Israel removed and went to the rear of them, and the Pillar of Cloud-mass went from the front and positioned itself to the rear of them. And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel, and it was a cloud-mass of darkness to the Egyptians, but it gave light by night to the Israelites, so that the one camp did not approach the other all that night. Then Moses stretched out his hand over the Red Sea and YHWH caused the sea to be carried away by a strong East wind all that night, and made the seabed dry land, and the waters were divided. Then the children of Israel went into the middle of the seabed on the dry land, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left. But the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the middle of the seabed, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots and his horsemen.

Then in th e morning watch YHWH looked at the armed host of the Egyptians through the Pillar of Supernatural Fire and from the cloud-mass, and broke the armed host of the Egyptians by taking off their chariot wheels as they drove them with difficulty, so that the Egyptians exclaimed, let us escape from the presence of Israel (Elohim that prevails) for YHWH battles for them against the Egyptians. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Stretch out your hand over the Red Sea, that the waters may turn back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and upon their horsemen. So Moses stretched out his hand over the Red Sea and the sea turned back to its ever-flowing position at the coming of sunrise, and the Egyptians tried to escape the rushing waters but YHWH overthrew the Egyptians in the middle of the sea. And the waters turned back and spread over the chariots, and the horsemen and all the armed host of Pharaoh that came into the Red Sea after them, but there remained not so much as one of them . The children of Israel however had walked on dry land in the middle of the Red Sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. So YHWH saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the seashore.

Chapter 15

Israel saw the great power that YHWH accomplished over the Egyptians and the people feared YHWH, and believed YHWH and His servant Moses. Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song to YHWH, I will sing to YHWH, for He has triumphed gloriously, the horse and his rider has He dealt treacherously within the sea.

YHWH is my strength and song, and He is become my salvation, He is my Elohim and I will beautify him. The Elohim of my father, and I will exalt him. YHWH is a man of war, YHWH is his Name. Pharaoh's chariots and his armed host has He directed into the sea, his chosen officers also are drowned in the Red Sea. The deep sea has spread over them, they sank into the seabed's depth as a stone. Your right hand O YHWH, has become glorious in power, your right hand O YHWH, has shattered the enemy. And in the greatness of your majesty you have beaten down those that rose up against you, you send forth your burning anger that devoured them as chaff. And with the wind from your nostrils the waters were heaped up, the flow took an upright position as a heap piling up, and the sea bottom was frozen in the middle of the Red Sea. The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will plunder the spoil, I will glut myself on them, I will draw my sword, my hand will repossess them.

You did blow with your wind, the sea spread over them, they were submerged as lead in the great waters. Who is like you O YHWH, among the Elohim? Who is like you, majestic in sacredness, honored in praises, producing extraordinary acts of judgment? You stretch out your right hand, the land swallowed them. You in your mercy have led forth the people that you have ransomed, you have guided them in your strength to your sacred habitation. The people will hear, and be afraid, anguish will take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina [Palestine]. Then the chiefs of Edom will be disturbed, the mighty men of Moab, trembling will take hold of them, all the inhabitants of Canaan will dissolve away. Dread and terror will fall on them, by the greatness of your arm they will be as still as a stone till your people pass over O YHWH, till the people pass over, that you have acquired. You will bring them in and fasten them to the mountain of your inheritance, in the Established Place O YHWH that you have made for your dwelling, in the Sacred Place O Adonai, which your hands have established. YHWH will become King for the ages of ages. For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the Red Sea and YHWH returned the waters of the sea upon them, but the children of Israel went on dry land in the middle of the sea.

And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a tambourine in her hand and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dances. Then Miriam answered them, sing you to YHWH for He has triumphed gloriously, the horse and his rider has He mislead into the sea. So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea and they went out into the Desert of Shur, and they went three days in the desert and found no water. And when they came to Marah they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter, that is why the name of it was called Marah. Then the people murmured against Moses saying, what will we drink?

Chapter 16

And he cried to YHWH, and YHWH showed him a tree that when he had cast it into the waters, the waters became sweet and there he made for them a statute and a judgment, so there he tested them and declared, If you will diligently listen to the Voice of YHWH your Elohim and will do what is right in his sight, and will give ear to his commandments and observe all His statutes. Then I will put none of these diseases on you that I have brought upon the Egyptians, for I am YHWH that heals you. Then they came to Elim where there were twelve springs of water and 70 palm trees, and they encamped there by the water springs. And they continued their journey from Elim and all the company of the children of Israel came to the Desert of Sin, that is between Elim and Sinai, on the 15th day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt. Then the whole company of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron in the desert.

And the sons of Israel said to them, oh if we had died by the hand of YHWH in the land of Egypt, in our sitting by the pots of meat, in our eating bread to gorge ourselves. For you have brought us out to this desert to put all this assembly to death with hunger. YHWH spoke to Moses, I will rain bread from the skies for you and the people will go out and gather a portion for a day, that I may test them whether they will walk in my Law or not. Then on the sixth day they will prepare what they bring in and it will be twice as much as their usual daily gathering. Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, At sunset you will know that YHWH has brought you out from the land of Egypt. And at sunrise, then you will see the abundance of YHWH, for He hears your obstinacy against Him and who are we that you murmur against us? Then Moses said, this will be when YHWH will give you at sunset meat to eat, and at sunrise bread to the full, for YHWH hears your obstinacy that you murmur against him and who are we? Your obstinacy is not against us but against YHWH. And Moses spoke to Aaron, say to all the company of the Israelites, come near before YHWH for He has heard your obstinacy. Then it came about as Aaron spoke to the whole company of the Israelites, that they looked towards the desert and the abundance of YHWH appeared in the cloud. And YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, I have heard the murmuring of the children of Israel so now tell them at sunset you will eat meat and at sunrise you will be filled with bread, and you will know that I am YHWH your Elohim. And it came to pass that at sunset the quails came up and covered the camp, and at sunrise dew encircled the encampment. And when the dew that encircled had evaporated from the desert surface, then there was a small flake-like thing, fine as the morning frost on the ground. So when the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another, it is manna (the bread from the skies), for they had no idea what it was. And Moses said to them, this is the bread that YHWH has given you to eat. This is what YHWH has commanded, Gather of it as much as each man needs, an omer [2 quarts] for every man, according to the number of your people that are in your tents. Then the children of Israel did this and some gathered more while others gathered less. And they measured by the omer and he who had gathered much had nothing left over, and he who had gathered little had no shortage, each according to his eating they have gathered. Then Moses commanded, let no man keep any leftovers until the morning. Notwithstanding they did not listen to Moses but some of them kept it until the morning and it bred worms, smelling very bad, and Moses was angry with them. They gathered it every sunrise, every man according to his eating requirements, and when the sun became hot it melted. Then on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each man, and all the chiefs of the assembly came and told Moses. And he sai d to them, this is what YHWH has commanded, Tomorrow is the observance of the HOLY SABBATH to YHWH, bake what you will bake today and boil what you will boil, and what remains keep over for yourselves until sunrise. And they laid it up until sunrise as Moses commanded, and it did not stink, neither were there any worms in it.

Then Moses said, eat what remains today, for this day is a Sabbath to YHWH, today you will not find it in the field. Six days you will gather it but the seventh day is the Sabbath, on that day there will be nothing. After this there went out a few of the people on the seventh day to gather it but they found nothing. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, How long refuse you to observe My commandments and My Laws? Now keep in mind that YHWH has given you the Sabbath, that is why He gives you two days' worth of bread on the sixth day. Every man is to remain in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. So the people rested on the seventh day. The House of Israel called the name of it Manna, and it was like coriander seed, white, and the taste of it was like waffles made with honey. And Moses said, this is the thing that YHWH commands, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations that they may see the bread that I have fed you with in the desert, when I brought you out from the land of Egypt. Moses said to Aaron, take a pot, and put an omer full of manna in it, and lay it up before YHWH, to be kept for your generations.

As YHWH commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Sacred Writings to be kept.

Chapter 17

The children of Israel had eaten manna 40 years until they came to inhabited settlements of land, they consumed manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan. Now an omer is 1/10th part of an ephah. Then all the company of the sons of Israel traveled from the wilderness of Sin on their travels, by the command of YHWH and encamped in Rephidim and there was no water for the people to drink. Then the people quarreled with Moses and said, give us water so that we may drink. But Moses replied to them, why are you quarreling with me? Why do you test YHWH? And the people thirsted there for water and the people complained against Moses and said, why is it that you have brought us up out of Egypt to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst? Then Moses cried to YHWH, what shall I do for this people? They are almost ready to stone me. YHWH spoke to Moses, Go on ahead of the people and take with you some of the Elders of Israel and your staff that you used to strike the Nile river with, take that in your hand and go. I will stand before you by the rock in Horeb, and you will strike the rock, and there will come water out of it so that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the Elders of Israel.

He called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the quarreling of the children of Israel, and because they tested YHWH saying, is YHWH among us or not? Then Amalek came, and fought with Israel at Rephidim. Moses said to Joshua, select out from us men and go out and make war with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of Elohim in my hand. So Joshua did as Moses had said to him and fought with Amalek. And Moses, Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill, and when Moses held up his hand then Israel prevailed but when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. So Moses' hands were heavy and they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it, then Aaron and Hur supported up his hands, the one on the one side and the other on the other side. Now his hands were supported until sunset came. Joshua weakened Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Chapter 18

YHWH said to Moses, Write this for a memorial on a scroll and recite it in the hearing of Joshua, for I will exterminate the memory of Amalek from under the cosmos. Moses built an altar and called the name of it YHWH-Nissi (YHWH our Banner) and declared, Because a hand is on the throne of YHWH, war comes to Amalek from YHWH from generation to generation.

When Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law heard of all that Elohim had done for Moses and Israel His people, and that YHWH had brought Israel out of Egypt. Then Jethro (Moses' father in law) took Zipporah (Moses' woman) after she had been sent home, and her two sons, one was named Gershom for he said, I have been a foreigner in a foreign land. And the name of the other was Eliezer, for the Elohim of my dad said He was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh. Then Jethro, Moses' father in law came with his sons and his woman to Moses in the desert where he encamped at the Mount of Elohim. And he said to Moses, your father in law Jethro has come to you and brings your woman and her two sons with her. Moses went out to meet his father in law and bowed down, and hugged him and they asked each other how they have fared, and they came into the tent. And Moses told his father in law all that YHWH had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the hardship that had come on them by the way and how YHWH rescued them. Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness that YHWH had accomplished for Israel, whom He had rescued from the hands of the Egyptians. Then Jethro said, blessed is YHWH who has rescued you from the hands of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharaoh, who has rescued the people from under the hands of the Egyptians.

Now I know that YHWH is greater than all the elohim, for in this thing they have acted proudly but He is above them! Then Jethro (Moses' father in law) procured a Burnt-Offering and sacrifices for Elohim and Aaron came, and all the Elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father in law before Elohim. Then the next day when Moses sat to govern the people, the people stood by Moses from sunrise to sunset. When Moses' father in law saw all that he did for the people he asked, what is this thing that you do for the people? Why sit you yourself alone here and all the people stand by you from sunrise to sunset? And Moses replied to his father in law, because the people come to me to inquire of Elohim. When they have a matter they come to me and I judge between one and another, and I teach them to know the statutes of Elohim and his Laws. Then Moses' father in law said to him, the thing that you do is not good. You will certainly wear down, both you and this people that are with you, for this thing is too heavy of a burden for you. You are not able to perform this by yourself alone. Listen now to my voice, I will give you counsel and Elohim will be with you. You must be Elohim's representative for the people and bring their business to Him. And you will teach them statutes and Laws and will show them the way where they must walk, and the work that they must do. Furthermore you will provide out of all the people able men, such as fear Elohim, men of truth hating unjust gain, and place such people over them to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties and rulers of tens.

And let them govern the people in all seasons and it will be when every great matter comes up they will bring it to you, but every small matter they will judge, so it will be easier for yourself and they will bear the burden with you. If you will do this thing and Elohim commands you so, then you will be able to endure and all this people will also go to their places in peace. So Moses consented to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had proposed. Then Moses chose able men out of all Israel and made them chiefs over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties and rulers of tens.

Chapter 19

And they governed the people in all seasons but the difficult matters they brought to Moses, but every insignificant matter they judged themselves. Then Moses let his father in law depart, and he went back to his own land. In the third month when the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that very day they came to the Desert of Sinai. For they had left Rephidim and were come to the Desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the desert and there Israel camped in front of the mountain. Moses went up to Elohim and YHWH called to him out of the mountain saying, This is what you will say to the House of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel. You have seen what I did to the Egyptians and how I lifted you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself.

Now if you will obey my Voice indeed, and observe my Covenant, then you will be a valued possession to Me above all people, for all the earth is Mine. And you will be to me a Kingdom of Priests and a sacred nation. These are the Words that you will speak to the children of Israel. Moses came and called for the Elders of the people and set in front of them all the Words that YHWH commanded him. Then all the people answered together and said, all that YHWH has spoken we will do. So Moses returned the words of the people to YHWH. YHWH spoke to Moses, I come to you in a thick cloud-mass that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you for the ages. And Moses told the words of the people to YHWH. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes, and be ready by the third day, for on the third day YHWH will come down in the sight of all the people upon Mount Sinai. And you will set boundaries for the people on every side saying, Be careful for yourselves, that you do not go up into the mountain or touch the outskirts of it because whoever touches the mountain will certainly be put to death. Not even a hand will touch it, except he will certainly be stoned or shot whether it is animal or man, it will not live but when the trumpet sounds long then they may come up to the mountain. Then Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated the people and they washed their clothes.

He also said to the people, Be prepared for the third day and refrain from sexual relations with your women. Then at sunrise on the third day there were thunders and lightning, and a massive cloud-mass upon the mountain and the sound of the trumpet exceeding loud, so that all the people that were in the camp trembled. Moses brought out the people from the camp to meet with Elohim and they stood at the lower part of the mountain. Mount Sinai was wholly a smoke from the presence of YHWH who has come down on it in fire, and its smoke goes up as smoke of the furnace, and the whole mountain quaked exceedingly. And when the noise of the trumpet sounded long and became louder and louder, Moses spoke and Elohim answered him with a voice. Then YHWH came down upon Mount Sinai on the top of the mountain, and YHWH called Moses up to the top of the mountain and Moses went up.

YHWH spoke to Moses, Go down and warn the people unless they break through to YHWH to gaze and many of them perish. And let the priests also that come near to YHWH consecrate themselves, so that YHWH does not break out against them.

Chapter 20

Moses said to YHWH, The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for you charged us saying, Set boundaries around the mountain and consecrate it.

And YHWH said to him, Away, get you down and you will come up, you and Aaron with you, but let not the priests and the people break through to come up to YHWH, so that He does not break forth on them. So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them. Then Elohim spoke all these Words saying, I am YHWH your Elohim, that has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. [1] YOU WILL HAVE NO OTHER ELOHIM BEFORE ME. [2] YOU WILL NOT MAKE TO YOURSELVES ANY IDOL OR ANY IMAGE OF ANYTHING THAT IS IN COSMOS ABOVE, OR THAT IS IN THE LAND, OR THAT IS IN THE WATER. You will not bow down yourself to them nor serve them, for I (YHWH your Elohim) am a jealous Elohim, punishing the depravity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generation of those that hate Me. And showing goodness to thousands of them that love me, and observe my commandments. [3] YOU WILL NOT TAKE THE NAME OF YHWH YOUR ELOHIM IN VAIN; for YHWH will not hold him guiltless that takes his Name in vain.

[4] REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY AS CONSECRATED. Six days will you labor, and do all your work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of YHWH your Elohim, in it you will not do any work, you, your son, daughter, male and female slave, livestock, nor the foreigner that resides within your gates. For in six days YHWH made the visible universe and earth, the sea and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day, then YHWH blessed the Sabbath day, and consecrated it. [5] HONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER, THAT YOUR DAYS MAY BE LONG ON THE LAND THAT YHWH YOUR ELOHIM GIVES YOU. [6] YOU WILL NOT MURDER. [7] YOU WILL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY. [8] YOU WILL NOT STEAL. [9] YOU WILL NOT TESTIFY AS A FALSE WITNESS AGAINST ANOTHER PERSON. [10] YOU WILL NOT COVET another person's house, you will not covet another man's woman, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is another person's. All the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, and when the people saw and heard these things they were shaken and stood some distance away. And they said to Moses, speak you with us and we will hear, but do not let Elohim speak with us or we will die. Moses replied to the people, do not be terrified for Elohim has come to test you and to put his fear into your faces so that you do not sin. And the people were some distance away when Moses approached the dark cloud-mass where Elohim was. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, This is what you will say to the children of Israel, You have seen that I have talked with you from the sky.

Chapter 21

You will not make elohim of silver to be worshiped along with me, neither will you make to yourselves elohim of gold. An altar of earth you will fashion for me, and will sacrifice on it your Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings, your sheep and oxen in every place where I record my Name. I will come to you and I will bless you. And if you will make me an altar of stone, you will not build it of hewn stone, for if you lift up your tool on it you have defiled it. And do not approach my altar by steps so that your nakedness is exposed on it. Now these are the ordinances that you will establish for them. If you acquire a Hebrew slave, six years he will serve but in the seventh he will go out as a freeman for nothing. If he came in by himself he will go out by himself, if he was a husband then his woman will go out with him. If his master has given him a woman and she has gendered him sons or daughters, the woman and her children will be her master's and he will go out by himself. But if the slave will plainly say, I love my master, my woman and my children and I will not go out as a freeman. Then his master will bring him to the judges and he will also bring him to the door, or to the door post and his master will pierce his ear through with a boring instrument, and he will serve him for the ages. If a man sells his daughter to be a female slave she will not go out as the male slaves do. If she does not please her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then he will let her be ransomed, he has lost his right to sell her to foreigners because he has dealt deceitfully with her. And if he has betrothed her to his son, he must give her the rights of a daughter. If he acquires for himself another woman, her food, her clothing and her conjugal rights will not be diminished. But if he does not do these three things for her then she will go out free with no payment of money. He that strikes a man so that he dies will certainly be put to death.

However if he did not do it on purpose but Elohim allowed him to befall into his hand, then I will appoint you a place where he will flee. But if a man boils up in a rage to another person, to murder him by design, you will take him from my altar so that he may be executed. He that strikes his father or his mother will certainly be put to death. He that kidnaps a man and sells him or if he is found in his possession, he will certainly be put to death. And he that curses his father or his mother will certainly be put to death. And if men fight together and one strikes another with a stone or with his fist, and he does not die but is bedridden, if he gets up and walks around on his staff, then will he that struck him be exempt from punishment. He will only pay for the loss of his time and will see that he is completely healed. If a man strikes his slave or his female slave with a club, and he dies by his hand, he will certainly be punished. Notwithstanding, if the slave recovers in a day or two he will not be punished, for he is his property. If men fight and hurt a woman with child, so that her offspring miscarries, and if no harm follows, he will certainly be punished according as the woman's husband will impose on him, and he will pay according to what the assessment has been determined.

And if any harm follows, then you will deliver up life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, burning for burning, wound for wound, bruise for bruise. And if a man strikes the eye of his slave or the eye of his female slave, so that it is destroyed, he will let him go free because of his eye. And if he strikes out his male or female slave's tooth, he will let him go free because of the tooth. If an ox gore a man or a woman that they die, then the ox will certainly be stoned, and its flesh will not be eaten, but the owner of the ox will be exempt. But if the ox was addicted to goring with its horns in times past and the owner was notified but he has not kept it fenced in, and it has killed a man or a woman, the ox will be stoned and the owner also will be executed. If a ransom is required of him, then he will give for this ransom of his life whatever is demanded of him. Whether he has gored a son or daughter, it will be done to him according to this ordinance. If the ox will gore a male or female slave, he will give to their master 30 shekels of silver and the ox will be stoned. If a man will open a cistern, or if a man will dig a well and not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it, the owner of the cistern will pay any loss and give money to the owner of them and the dead animal will be his.

And when a man's ox strikes the ox of another person and it dies, then they will sell the living ox and split the money, and also the dead one will they divide.

Chapter 22

But if it has been known that the ox is used to goring in times past, and the owner has not kept him in, he will certainly pay ox for ox and the dead ox will be his own. If a man will steal an ox or a sheep, and slaughters it or sells it, he will restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. If a thief is found in the middle of a burglary and is beaten so that he dies, there will be no blood spilled in exchange for his. But if this occurs after sunrise to the thief there would be spilling of blood due for him. The thief will be required to make restitution or be sold for his theft. If the thief is caught red handed whether it is ox, donkey or sheep then he will restore double. If a man causes the depasturation of a field or vineyard, or has sent in his own livestock to strip the field of another, he will certainly make restitution from his own field according to the yield of it. But if the whole field is stripped then he will be required to make restitution from the choicest parts of his own field or vineyard. If fire breaks out and catches in thorn bushes so that the stacks of corn or the standing grain, or the entire field is put aflame, then he who started the fire will make restitution.

If a man will deliver to another person money or articles to safeguard, and it is stolen out of the man's house, if the thief is found let him pay double. But if the thief is not found then the master of the house will be brought to the judges, to investigate whether he has put his hand to another person's goods. For every matter of transgression, for ox, donkey, sheep, clothing, or for anything lost that is claimed to belong to another, each party must bring his case before Elohim. He who Elohim condemns will repay double to the other party. When a man gives to another pe rson a don key, ox, s heep, or a ny animal to safeguard and it has died, been injured, or taken captive, with none seeing, then will an oath of YHWH be taken between them both, that he has not put his hand to another person's property. The owner will accept this and no restitution will be made. But if it is stolen from him he will make restitution to the owner. If it is torn in pieces then let him bring in the remains as evidence and he will not be required to make restitution for what is torn. And if a man borrow something from another person and it is injured, or dies, if the owner is not around when it happens he will certainly make restitution. But if its owner is present with it he will not make restitution, if it is something hired then only the hire is due. If a man seduces a virgin that is not betrothed and has sexual relations with her, he will certainly pay the purchase price to acquire her as his woman. Now if her father utterly refuses to give her to him he will pay money according to the bride price of virgins. Those that practice witchcraft or sorcery will not be allowed to live. Anyone having sexual relations with an animal will certainly be put to death.

Whoever sacrifices to any other elohim than YHWH alone will be Devoted to Destruction. You will not treat violently the foreigner nor oppress him, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

Chapter 23

You will not afflict any widow or orphan child. If you afflict them in any way and they cry at all to me, I will certainly hear their cry; Then My nostrils will flare and I will kill you with the sword and your women will be widows, and your children will be fatherless. If you lend money to my poor people you should not behave as other creditors treat them, and you will not require interest from these loans. If you take another person's clothing in a pledge you will return it to him before sunset. For that is his only covering, the mantle for his skin so how will he sleep? So when he cries to Me I will hear because I am gracious. You will not curse Elohim nor curse the Leader of your people.

You will not delay the offerings of the first of your ripe fruit juices [that make vintage wine]. The firstborn of your sons you will give to me. Likewise will you do with your oxen and sheep, but for seven days it will be with its mother, and on the eighth day you will give it to me. You will be sacred men to me, neither will you eat any flesh that is torn of animals in the field, you will throw it to the dogs. You will not raise a false report, do not lay your hand with the wicked to be an erroneous witness. You will not follow a crowd to do bad, and you will not testify in a dispute so as to pervert the judgment of the masses, nor will you be partial to a poor man in his dispute. If you encounter your enemy's ox or his donkey wandering astray, you will certainly return it to him again. If you see the donkey of him that hates you crushed down under its load, do not just walk away, you will certainly provide assistance. You will not pervert the judgment of the poor in his dispute. Keep yourself cleared of false charges and do not execute the innocent and lawful, for I will not vindicate the criminal. And you will not accept bribes, because a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and distorts the words of the lawful. You will not oppress a foreigner because you know what its like to be one, seeing you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. For six years you will sow your land and will harvest its produce.

But in the seventh year you will let it rest and leave it alone so that the poor of your people may eat, and what remains the animals of the field will eat. The same thing will be done with your vineyard and oliveyard. Six days you will do your work, and on the seventh day you will rest, that your ox and donkey may rest, and the son of your female slave and foreigner may be refreshed too. And in all matters that I have commanded you, be circumspect, and make no mention of the name of other elohim, nor let it be heard out of your mouth. Three times a year you will hold a festival to me. You will observe the FESTIVAL OF UNLEAVENED BREAD. You will eat unleavened bread seven days as I commanded you, in the time appointed of the month Abib, for in that month you came out from Egypt and no one will observe this before Me vainly. And the FESTIVAL OF HARVEST, the first fruits of your labors that you have sown in the field, and the FESTIVAL OF INGATHERING at the end of the year, when you have gathered in your labors out of the field. Three times in the year all your males will appear before YHWH ELOHIM. You will not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread, neither will the fat of My sacrifice remain until the morning. The beginning of the first fruits of your ground you will bring into the House of YHWH ELOHIM.

You will not boil a young male goat in his mother's milk. I send an Angel before you to guard you along the way, and to bring you into the region that I have established for you. Give heed to him and listen to his voice, do not enrage him for he will not forgive your transgressions, for my Name is in him. But if you will listen and obey his voice and do all that he commands, then he will be an enemy to your enemies, and a vexer to those that cause you trouble. For my Angel will go before you and bring you in unto the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I will cut them off. You will not bow down to their elohim, nor serve them or do after their deeds, but you will utterly destroy them and break in pieces their pillars. You will serve YHWH your Elohim, and He will bless your food and water, and I will remove diseases from the inward parts of you. There is not a miscarrying and sterile one in your land, and the number of your days will be full. I will send My terror in front of you and will discomfort all the people you come in contact with, and I will make all your enemies bow their necks to you. I will send hornets in front of you that will drive out the Hivite, Canaanite and the Hittite from before you. I will not expel them from you in one year because the land would become desolate and the animals in the field would multiply against you.

Chapter 24

But little by little I will expel them from you until you have branched off and inherit the land. And I will set your borders from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the Euphrates river, for I will deliver up the inhabitants of the land into your hand and you will drive them out from your presence. You will make no alliances with them or with their elohim. They must not remain in your land or they will induce you to sin against me, for if you serve their elohim that will certainly ensnare you. Then He spoke to Moses, Come up to YHWH, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and 70 of the Elders of Israel and bow down from a distance. And Moses alone will draw near to YHWH but they will not draw near and the people will not ascend up with him either. Moses came and related to the people all the Words of YHWH and all the ordinances, and all the people answered with one voice and promised, all the Words that YHWH has declared to us we will do. Then Moses wrote all the Words of YHWH and got up early in the morning to build an altar below the mountain, and also twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel. And he sent young men from the children of Israel, and they caused to ascend up Burnt-Offerings, and slaughtered Peace-Offerings of oxen to YHWH. Then Moses took half of the blood, and put it in bowls and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. He also took the Scroll of the Covenant and recited it in the audience of the people and they promised, all that YHWH has declared we will do and be obedient. Then Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people declaring, The blood of the Covenant that YHWH has made with you concerning all these Words. After this Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and 70 of the Elders of Israel ascended up.

Chapter 25

Then they saw the Elohim of Israel, and under His feet was a pavement of sapphire, as transparent as the cosmos itself! And against the chiefs of the children of Israel He laid not his hand, they saw Elohim, and did eat and drink. YHWH spoke to Moses, Come up to me on this mountain and remain here, then I can give you tablets of stone and a Law and commandments that I have inscribed so that you may teach them.

Then Moses got up with his servant Joshua and Moses went up into the Mountain of Elohim. He said to the Elders, remain here for us until we return to you, Aaron and Hur are with you, so if any man has a case then take it to them. Then Moses ascended up into the mountain, and a cloud-mass concealed the mountain. The glory of YHWH settled down on Mount Sinai and the cloud-mass concealed it for six days and on the seventh day He called to Moses out of the middle of the cloud-mass.

And the appearance of the glory of YHWH were like devouring flames on the mountain's top, in the eyes of the children of Israel. Then Moses went into the middle of the cloud-mass and ascended into the mountain, and Moses was in the mountain 40 days and 40 nights. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel that they take for me a Heave-Offering, from every man whose heart impels him you will take my Heave-Offering. This is the offering that you will take from them; gold, silver, brass, and blue, purple, scarlet, and fine linen, and female goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, animal hides, and acacia wood. Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil and for spices of incense, onyx stones and stones to be set in the ephod, and in the breastplate. And let them fashion me a Sacred Tabernacle that I may reside among them. . According to all that I will show you, the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its vessels that you will fashion. They will make the Ark of the Covenant of acacia wood: 3 3/4 feet in length by 2 1/4 feet wide and 2 1/4 feet high.

You will overlay it with pure gold, inside and out will you overlay it, and will make on it a border of gold to encircle it. You will cast four rings of gold for it, and attach them to its four feet and two rings for the one side of it, and two rings for the other side. You will make bars of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. You will insert the bars through the rings by the sides of the Ark of the Covenant so that the Ark may be carried with them. The bars will stay in the rings of the Ark and they will not be taken from it. You will set into the Ark the Testimony that I will give you. You will make a Covering-Lid of pure gold; 3 3/4 feet in length by 2 1/4 feet wide. And you will make two cherubim of gold, of hammered work will you fashion them for the two ends of the Covering-Lid. Make one cherub on one end and the other cherub on the other end, these will become a part of the Covering-Lid with these cherubim at each end. The cherubim will stretch out their wings above, overshadowing the Covering-Lid with their wings and their faces will face each other, towards the Covering-Lid will the cherubim faces look.

You will set the Covering-Lid on top of the Ark of the Covenant, and in the Ark you will put the Testimony that I will give you. And I will meet with you there and will speak with you from off the Covering-Lid, among the cherubim that are on the Ark of the Testimony. From there my commands will come to the children of Israel. You will also make a table of acacia wood: three feet in length by 1 1/2 feet wide by 2 1/4 feet high. And you will overlay it with pure gold and make a border of gold around it. Make a border around it of three inches wide and a gold banding around the border. You will make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet of it. Alongside the border/banding will the rings be attached to hold the bar-poles used in carrying the table. You will fashion the bar-poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, so that the table may be carried with them. You will fashion the dishes, spoons, jars, and sacrificial bowls, then cast them all in pure gold. You will set bread on the table in my presence continually.

Make a lamp stand of pure gold, of hammered work it will be fashioned, its shaft, branches, cups, bulbs, and its flowers will be made of the same piece. And six branches will project out of the sides of it, three branches of the lamp stand from one side, and three branches from the other side. Three cups made like almonds, with a bulb and a flower in one branch, and three cups made like almonds in the other branch, with a bulb and a flower, so that six branches will come out of the lamp stand.

Chapter 26

And in the lamp stand will be four cups made like almonds with their bulbs and their flowers. There will be bulbs of one piece under the six branches that project from the lamp stand, a single bulb will be under each pair of branches. Their bulbs and their branches will be of the same, all of it will be one hammered work of pure gold. You will make the seven lamps, and one will light up its lamps and they will give light in the area in front of it. The snuffers and the fire-holder for it will be made of pure gold. All these vessels will be made with 75 pounds of pure gold. And observe with care that you fashion these according to their design patterns that were given to you in the mountain. You will make the Tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen, and blue, purple, and scarlet, you will fashion it with cherubim of embroidered work.

The length of one curtain will be 42 feet and its width six feet. And all the curtains will be the exact same size. Five curtains will be joined together, and the other five curtains joined together too. And you will make loops of blue on the edge of one curtain, at the end in the joining, and so you fashion in the edge of the outermost curtain, in the joining of the second. Fifty loops you will fashion in one curtain, and 50 loops you will fashion in the edge of the curtain which is in the second set, the loops being opposite one to another. You will make 50 hooks of gold, and couple the curtains together with the hooks and it will be one tabernacle. You will make curtains of female goats' skins with the hair left on for a covering on the tabernacle, 11 curtains will you fashion. The length of one curtain is 45 feet, its width six feet. and the 11 curtains will all be the same exact size. You will join five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and will double over the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle. And you will make 50 loops on the edge of one curtain, the outermost in the joining, and 50 loops on the edge of the curtain that is joining the second. You will make 50 hooks of brass and put the hooks into the loops, and join the tent together as one complete unit. And the excess overhanging that is left on the tent, the half curtain that is left over will hang over the rear of the tabernacle.

The tabernacle curtains will be 1 1/2 feet in excess length on both sides, and what remains of the covering will hang over the sides of the tabernacle. You will fashion a covering for the tent of red dyed rams' skins, and a covering on top of animal hides. You will make upright boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood. The length of the board will be 15 feet and its width 2 1/4 feet. Two tenons will be in one board for joining together, make these for all the boards of the tabernacle. So then you will make the boards for the tabernacle, 20 boards on the south side southward. You will make 40 sockets of silver under the 20 boards, two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. For the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there will be 20 boards. And their 40 sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. For the sides of the tabernacle westward you will make six boards. And two boards will you make for the corners of the tabernacle for their two sides. They will be joined together below, and they will be joined together on the top of it by one ring. Do the same for both of these as they are for the two corners. There will be eight boards with their sockets of silver, 16 sockets, two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board. You will make five bars of acacia wood for the boards on the one side of the tabernacle, And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the rear side of the tabernacle to the west. The middle bar in the center of the boards will go through from end to end. You will overlay the boards with gold and make their rings of gold as receptacles for the bars, and you will overlay the bars with gold. You will rear up the Tabernacle according to its blueprint that was shown you in the mountain. You will make a veil of blue, purple and scarlet. This will be finely twisted linen of skilled workmanship and it will be fashioned with cherubim. You will hang it on four pillars of acacia wood overlaid with gold (their hooks made of gold also) upon the four sockets of silver. And you will set up the veil on the hooks and will bring in (within the veiled area) the Ark of the Testimony, and the veil has made a separation for you between the Holy place and the Holy of Holies.

Chapter 27

You will set the Covering-Lid on the Ark of the Testimony in the Holy of Holies. You will set the table outside the veiled area, and the lamp stand opposite the table on the side of the tabernacle towards the south, and you will put the table on the north side. You will make a hanging for the door of the tent of blue, purple and scarlet, being made of finely twisted linen, the work of an embroiderer. You will make for the hanging five pillars of acacia wood and overlay them with gold (their hooks were made of gold also), and you will cast five sockets of brass for them. You will make an altar of acacia wood, 7 1/2 feet long and wide, the altar is square, and its height is 4 1/2 feet. You will make horns for it at its four corners, the horns all being identical and you will overlay it with brass. You will fashion its pans to receive ashes and make shovels, bowls, three- pronged forks, and fire holders, and all of these vessels will be overlaid with brass. You will make for it a grated network of brass and will fashion on the grated network four rings of brass at its four corners. And you will place it under the rim of the altar beneath, so the grated network reaches to the inside center of the altar. You will make bars for the altar, bar-poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with brass. And the bars will be put into the rings, and the bars will be on the two sides of the altar to carry it.

You will make the altar hollow with boards as it was shown to you in the mountain, so will you construct it that way. You will make the court of the tabernacle, for the south side southward there will be hangings for the court of finely twisted linen of 150 feet in length for one side. The 20 pillars and their 20 sockets will be made of brass, but the hooks of the pillars and their binders will be made of silver. And likewise for the north side there will be hangings for the court of finely twisted linen of 150 feet in length for one side, and its 20 pillars and 20 brass sockets, with the silver hooks and binders. For the width of the court on its westward side there will be curtains 75 feet long with ten pillars and ten sockets The width of the court on the eastern side east will be 75 feet. The curtains on one side of the gate will be 22 1/2 feet, with three pillars and three sockets. And the other side will be 22 1/2 feet, with three pillars and three sockets also. And for the gate of the court will be a screen covering of 30 feet, made of blue, purple, scarlet, and finely twisted linen, skillfully woven with mixed colored needlework. There will be four pillars and four sockets. All the pillars around the court will be filleted joints with silver, their hooks will be silver but their sockets will be brass.

The length of the court will be 150 feet by 75 feet wide and the finely twisted linen curtains will be 7 1/2 feet high, and their base sockets will be made of brass.

Chapter 28

All the vessels of the Tabernacle in all its service and all the tent pegs (besides all the tent pegs of the court) will be made of brass. And you will command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure beaten olive oil for the light, to cause the burning lamp to ascend up continually before the Tabernacle in its Appointed Place. And outside the veil, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons will keep the lamp burning from sunset to sunrise before YHWH. This is a statute for the ages of time throughout their generations on behalf of the children of Israel. Let Aaron your brother be brought to you and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel so that they may become my Priesthood, even Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. You will make Holy garments for Aaron your brother for glory and for beauty. You will speak to all that are skillfully inclined, whom I have filled with minds of skill, to fashion Aaron's garments for consecrating him to act as my Priest. These are the garments that they will make, a breastplate, ephod, robe, a woven worked tunic, a turban, and a girdle. They will fashion holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, so that they may act as priests for me in the priesthood.

They will take gold, blue, purple, scarlet and fine linen. They will fashion the ephod (waistcoat) of gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and finely twisted linen using highly esteemed labor. It will have the two shoulder pieces tied at its two edges so that it will be joined together. The girdle of the ephod that is on him, according to its work is made of the same materials of gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and twisted linen. You will acquire two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the children of Israel. By the order of their birth put six of their names on one stone and six names on the other. With the work of a stone engraver, like the carvings on a seal ring you will engrave these two stones with the names of the children of Israel. You will fashion them to be encircled in settings of gold. You will put the two stones on the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial to the children of Israel, and Aaron will bear their names before YHWH on his two shoulders for a memorial. You will make settings of gold, and two chains of pure gold will be attached to these settings, of interwoven foliage work will you fashion them. You will make the breastplate of judgment with highly esteemed labor, like the work of the ephod you will fashion it of gold, blue, purple, scarlet and of finely twisted linen. It is square, doubled, and nine inches in its length and width.

You will set in it settings of stones, making four rows of stones, the first row will be sardius, topaz, and a carbuncle, that is the first row. The second row will be emerald, sapphire, and a diamond. The third row will be ligure, agate, and an amethyst. The fourth row will be beryl, onyx, and a jasper, they will be embroidered in gold in their settings. . The stones are according to the twelve names of the sons of Israel, like the engravings on a seal ring, each by his name are they representing the twelve tribes. You will make on the breastplate chains at the ends of interwoven foliage work of pure gold. You will fashion on the breastplate two rings of gold, and will attach the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. You will put the two interwoven foliage chains of gold in the two rings that are on the ends of the breastplate. And the other two ends of the two interwoven foliage chains you will fasten to the two settings, and attach them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front. Then fashion two gold rings and attach them to the lower ends of the [doubled] pouch, at the edge of it on the inner side next to the ephod. And two other rings of gold you will make, and will put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, over against its front, over against its joining, above the girdle of the ephod.

They will bind the breastplate by the rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that is above the girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosened from the ephod. Then Aaron will bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment on his heart, when he goes into the Holy Place for a memorial before YHWH continually. You will put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim-Thummim, and it will be in [the doubled pouch of the breastplate near] Aaron's heart, when he goes in before YHWH, and Aaron will bear the judgment of the children of Israel on his heart before YHWH continually. You will make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue. There will be an opening in the top of it and there comprises a woven border (similar to a collar) around the opening, and this will prevent it from tearing. You will make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet material around its hem, with bells of gold in the middle around it too. A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, on the hem of the robe around it. This will be on Aaron for his service and the sound will be heard when he goes into the Holy Place before YHWH and when he comes out, to prevent his death. You will make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, like the engravings of a seal ring, HOLINESS TO YHWH. You will attach to it a blue lace so that it may be on the turban, in front of the turban you will position it.

It will be on the forehead of Aaron, and Aaron will bear the guilt of the sacred things that the children of Israel consecrate (all their sacred gifts), and on his forehead it remains continually, so there may be acceptance for them before YHWH. You will embroider the coat of fine linen and you will make the turban of fine linen, and you will fashion the girdle to be woven with mixed colors. For Aaron's sons you will make tunics and girdles with turbans, that will be fashioned for their glory and beauty. You have clothed Aaron your brother with them and his sons with him, and have anointed them, consecrated their hand, having separated them, and they will serve me in the priesthood.

Chapter 29

You will make them linen underwear to cover their fleshly nakedness, from the hips to the thigh it will measure. They will be on Aaron and on his sons when they come into the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place or when they come near to the Altar to serve in the Holy Place. This is so they do not carry in their depravity and die. Now this is a statute for the ages to him and his offspring after him. And this is what you will do to consecrate them for service to me when they act as priests. Take one young bull (a male of the herd) and two rams, perfect ones, unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil and unleavened wafers smeared with oil and made of wheat flour. You will put them into one basket and bring them near in the basket, with the young bull and the two rams. And you will bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and will wash them with water. You will take the garments and put on Aaron the coat, the robe of the ephod, the ephod and the breastplate, and bind him with the girdle of the ephod.

You will place the turban on his head, and set the holy diadem on the turban. Then you will take the anointing oil and pour it on his head, anointing him. You will bring his sons and put coats on them. You will bind them with girdles, Aaron and his sons and place the turbans on their heads, and the priesthood will be theirs for an age lasting statute, and you will consecrate Aaron and his sons. You will cause a young bull to be brought before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and Aaron and his sons will lay their hands on the head of the young bull. You will kill the young bull before YHWH by the door of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. You will take of the blood of the young bull and put it on the horns of the Altar with your finger, and all the remaining blood you will pour out at the foundation of the Altar. Take all the fat that covers the entrails, also the fatty appendage of the liver and the two kidneys with their fat, and burn them on the Altar. But the flesh and skin of the young bull, and its dung you will burn with fire outside the encampment, it is a Sin-Offering. You will also take one ram and Aaron and his sons will lay their hands on the head of the ram.

And you will slaughter the ram and you will take its blood, and sprinkle it on every side upon the Altar. You will cut the ram in pieces and wash its entrails and its legs, set them with the pieces and the head. You will sacrifice the whole ram on the Altar, it is a Burnt-Offering to YHWH, a satisfying aroma comes up from this Altar fire to YHWH. You will take the other ram and Aaron and his sons will lay their hands on the head of the ram. You will slaughter the ram and take its blood and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron and on the tip of the right ear of his sons and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot. Then sprinkle the blood on every side upon the Altar. You will take of the blood that is on the Altar and the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron, his garments, and on his sons and on his sons garments with him, and they and their garments will be consecrated. You will also take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covers the entrails, and the fatty appendage of the liver and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and the right shoulder, for it is a ram of installation. And one loaf of bread, one cake mixed with oil, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before YHWH. You will put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons and will wave them for a Wave-Offering in the presence of YHWH. You will receive them of their hands, and burn them on the Altar for a Burnt-Offering, for a satisfying aroma before YHWH. It is an offering made by Altar fire to YHWH.

You will take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a Wave-Offering before YHWH and it will be your portion. You will consecrate the breast of the Wave-Offering, and the shoulder of the Heave-Offering that is waved, and that is heaved (lifted) up, of the ram of the installation, even of what belongs to Aaron as well as what belongs to his sons. And this will belong for Aaron and his sons' by a statute (for the ages) from the children of Israel, for it is a Heave-Offering. It will remain a Heave-Offering from the children of Israel from the sacrifice of their Peace-Offerings and their Heave-Offerings to YHWH. The Holy garments of Aaron will belong to his sons' after him, to be consecrated and installed to office in them. And the son succeeding him as priest will put them on for seven days, when he comes into the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, to serve in the Holy Place. You will take the ram of the installation and boil its flesh in the Holy Place. And Aaron and his sons will eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. They will eat those things with which a Propitiatory-Covering was made at their installation and consecration. No one else is allowed to eat these things because they are Holy. And if any of the flesh of the installation or the bread remains until the morning, then you will burn the remainder with fire. It will not be eaten because it is Holy. So you will do for Aaron and his sons according to all these things that I have commanded you, you will consecrate them for seven days. You will offer a young bull every day for a Sin-Offering, for a Propitiatory-Covering, and you will purify from sin the Altar, when you have made a Propitiatory-Covering for it, and you will anoint it for consecration.

Seven days you will make a Propitiatory-Covering for the Altar and consecrate it, and it will be an Altar Most Holy, and whatever touches the Altar will also be Holy. Now this is what you will offer on the Altar, two one year old lambs every day continually. One lamb you will offer at sunrise and the other lamb you will offer at sunset. And with the one lamb two quarts of flour mingled with the one quart of pure pressed oil, and one quart of wine for a Drink-Offering. And the other lamb you will offer at sunset, and will do according to the Meat and Drink-Offerings for a satisfying aroma, an offering made by Altar fire to YHWH. This will be a continual Burnt-Offering throughout your generations at the door of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place before YHWH, where I will meet you to speak to you there. And I will meet with the children of Israel and the Tabernacle will be consecrated by my glory. I will consecrate the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and the Altar. I will consecrate also both Aaron and his sons to serve me in the priesthood. I will dwell among the children of Israel and will be their Elohim. And they will know that I am YHWH Elohim that brought them out of the land of Egypt, that I may live among them.

Chapter 30

I am YHWH their Elohim. You will make an Altar of acacia wood for smoking the incense on. It will be 1 1/2 feet square (length and width) by three feet high, and its horns will be one piece with it. You will overlay it with pure gold, its top and sides all around, as well as its horns, and you will fashion around it a border of gold. And two golden rings you will make for it under its border, by its two corners, upon the two walls you will fashion it, and they will be the holes the bar-poles will carry it by. You will make the bars of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. You will put it before the veil that is by the Ark of the Testimony, before the Covering-Lid that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you. Then Aaron will burn the spices of incense every sunrise when he dresses the lamps and he will burn incense of spices on it. And when Aaron ignites the lamps at sunrise he will burn incense on it, a continual incense before YHWH throughout your generations. You will bring up no foreign incense on it, a whole Burnt-Offering or Meat-Offering, and you will not pour a Drink-Offering on it. Aaron will smear a Propitiatory-Covering on its horns once a year, by the blood of the Sin-Offering of Propitiatory-Covering, once a year for your generations he will make a Propitiatory-Covering and it will be Most Holy to YHWH.

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, When you take a census of the children of Israel of their numbers then every man will pay a ransom for his life to YHWH, at the time of his numbering, so that there will be no plague among them when you take the census. This they will give everyone that passes over to them that have been numbered, half a shekel [about six grams] after the shekel of being set apart, (a shekel is 20 gerahs) this half shekel will be a Heave-Offering to YHWH. Everyone that passes among them that are numbered, from 20 years old and up, will give an offering to YHWH. The rich will not give more, and the poor will not give less than half a shekel when they give a Heave-Offering to YHWH, to make a Propitiatory-Covering for your lives. You will take the Propitiatory-Covering shekels from the children of Israel and will designate it for the service of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, that it may be a memorial to the children of Israel before YHWH to make a Propitiatory-Covering for your lives. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, You will also make a basin of brass and its pedestal also of brass, to wash off with, and you will put it between the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and the Altar and you will put water in it. For Aaron and his sons will wash their hands and their feet using this basin. When they go into the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place they will wash with water so they do not die, or when they come near to the Altar to serve, to burn as incense an Altar flame to YHWH.

So they will wash their hands and feet that they do not die and it will be a statute for the ages to them, even to him and to his offspring throughout their generations. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Take of the choicest spices, 500 shekels of liquid myrrh, 250 shekels of sweet cinnamon (being half as much) and also 250 shekels of sweet calamus (aromatic reed) . And 500 shekels of cassia, after the shekel of being set apart, and four quarts of olive oil. You will prepare it as a Holy Anointing Oil, a compound mixture, the work of a perfumer, it is a Holy Anointing Oil. You will anoint the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place with it, and the Ark of the Testimony. And the table and all its vessels, and the lamp stand and its vessels, and the Altar of Incense, and the Altar of whole Burnt-Offering with all its vessels, and the basin and its pedestal. You will consecrate them that they may be Most Holy, whatever touches them will be Holy. You will anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them, that they may become my priests in the priesthood.

You will speak to the children of Israel saying, This will be my Holy Anointing Oil throughout your generations. Upon man's flesh it will not be poured, neither will you make any other like it after its composition, it is Holy and will be for Holy use by you. Whoever compounds any like this, or whoever puts any of it upon a foreigner will be cut off from his people. YHWH spoke to Moses, Take spices, drops of stacte, onycha, and galbanum, these spices with pure frankincense, each will be in equal amounts. You will prepare it as an incense, a spice mixture after the art of the perfumer, blended together as pure and holy. You will pulverize some of it very fine and designate it for the Testimony, in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place where I will meet with you, it will be to you Most Holy. And as for the perfume that you will prepare, you will not prepare it for yourselves according to its composition. It will be to you Holy for YHWH, and whoever will prepare any like it, to smell its fragrance will be cut off from his people.

Chapter 31

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. I have filled him with the Spirit of Elohim in wisdom, understanding, knowledge, and in his occupation to design plans to fashion in gold, silver, and brass, and in cutting of stones to set them, and in carving of timber to fashion all the workmanship. And I myself have given to him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, and in the understanding of all that are skillfully inclined I have bestowed skill that they may fashion all that I have commanded you. The Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and the Ark of the Testimony, and the Covering-Lid that covers it, and all the articles of the Tabernacle, and the table and its articles, and the pure lamp stand with all its equipment, and the Altar of Incense, and the Altar of whole Burnt-Offering with all its equipment, and the basin and its pedestal. And the ga rments of braided work, and the Holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons for the priesthood, and the anointing oil and spiced incense for the Holy Place according to all that I have commanded you, they will accomplish. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak also to the children of Israel saying, Indeed my Sabbaths you will observe, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations that you may know that I am YHWH that consecrates you.

You will observe the Sabbath because it is Holy to you, everyone that profanes it will certainly be put to death, for whoever does any work on that day, that person will be cut off from among his people. Six days work may be done but on the seventh day is the Sabbath observance that is Holy to YHWH, whoever does any work on the Sabbath day will certainly be put to death. Therefore the children of Israel will observe the Sabbath, to institute the Sabbath throughout their generations, for an Age-Lasting Covenant. It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for the ages of time, for in six days YHWH made the cosmos and earth but on the seventh day He ceased and was refreshed. Then He entrusted to Moses, after He had finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, the two tablets of Testimony (stone tablets) engraved with the finger of Elohim.

Chapter 32

Now when the people saw that Moses delayed descending from the mountain, they assembled with Aaron and said to him, arise now and fashion for us elohim that will go before us. But as for Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him. Aaron replied to them, Snatch off the gold earrings that are on the ears of your women, sons, and daughters, then bring them to me. Then all the people snatched off the gold earrings that were in their ears and brought them to Aaron. And he received them from their hands and fashioned with an engraving tool an image cast in the form of a calf, and after he had made it they avowed, These be your elohim, O Israel that brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

When Aaron saw it he then built an altar before it and made a proclamation saying, tomorrow is a festival gathering to YHWH. They got up early the next day offering whole Burnt-Offerings and brought Peace-Offerings, and the people sat down to eat and drink then arose to play. YHWH spoke to Moses, Go, get yourself back down, for your people that you brought out of the land of Egypt have corrupted themselves. They have departed quickly from the way that I commanded them, and have made them an image cast in the form of a calf and have bowed down to it. They have sacrificed to it and avowed, these are your elohim, O Israel that have brought you up out of the land of Egypt. YHWH spoke to Moses, I have inspected these people and they are an obstinate people. Now leave me alone so my nostrils may become enflamed against them and I will destroy them, and then produce from you a great nation. But Moses begged YHWH Elohim saying, YHWH, why do your nostril's enflame against your people that you have brought out of the land of Egypt, with great power and a strong hand? Then the Egyptians will think and answer saying, For calamity did He bring them out, to kill them in the mountains and to consume them off the surface of the land? Turn back your enflamed nostrils, and be grieved over the calamity to your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants to whom you made an oath by your very person and declared to them, I will make numerous your offspring as the stars of the cosmos. And all the land that I have spoken about I will bestow to your offspring, and they will inherit it for the ages of time.

YHWH was then moved to pity from the calamity that He spoke of doing to His people. Then Moses turned and descended from the mountain, and the two tablets of the Testimony were in his hand. These tablets had been engraved on both sides, on both their sides were inscriptions. The tablets were the work of Elohim and the writing was the writing of Elohim, engraved on the tablets. And when Joshua heard the sounds of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, There is a sound of battle in the encampment. Then he replied, it is not the sound of them that shout for bravery, neither is it the sound of them that cry for being defeated, but is the sound of them bowing down that I hear. Then as he came closer to the encampment he saw the calf and the dancing, and Moses' nostrils became enflamed, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and they broke in pieces beneath the mountain. Then he seized the calf that they had made and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder and scattered it upon the water, and the children of Israel drank it. Moses said to Aaron, what have these people done to you that you have brought upon them a great sin? Aaron replied, let not the nostrils of my master enflame, you know the people that they are inclined to do bad. For they said to me, make us elohim that will go before us but as for Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him. And I said to them, whoever has any gold let them snatch it off.

So they gave it to me and I cast it into the fire, then out came this calf. Then Moses saw the people that they were unbridled, because Aaron had made it unbridled because of the contempt among those that withstood him. Then Moses stood in the gate of the encampment and declared, whoever is on the side of YHWH let him come to me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him. And he said to them, This is what YHWH Elohim of Israel commands, let a sword be strapped to each man's side and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the encampment, and kill every man his brother, friend and neighbor. Then the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses, and there were about 3000 men that were struck down with the sword. Then Moses said, You have been consecrated to YHWH this day, for you were against your own sons and brothers, and he has blessed you today. And the next day Moses told the people, you have sinned a great sin and now I will go up to YHWH, perhaps I can make a Propitiatory-Covering for your sin. Moses returned to YHWH and said, oh this people have sinned a great sin and have fashioned themselves elohim of gold. Yet now, if you will forgive them their sin, forgive, but if not then blot me out of your Book that you have written. YHWH answered to Moses, Whoever has sinned against Me, him will I blot out of my Book [of Life]. And now go

, lead this people to the place that I have spoken to you of, look here, my Angel will go before you but realize that when the time of my judging comes, then I will send punishment on them for their sins. Then YHWH struck the people because they prepared for the calf that Aaron fashioned. YHWH spoke to Moses, Depart and go up from here, you and the people that you have brought up out of the land of Egypt to the land that I adjured to Abraham, Isaac, and to Jacob saying, unto your offspring will I bestow it. And I will send an angel in front of you and I will drive out the Canaanite, Amorite, Hittite, Perizzite, Hivite, and the Jebusite. Unto a land flowing with milk and honey, for I will not go up in the middle of you because you are an obstinate people for fear I would destroy you on the journey. When the people heard these unpleasant words they mourned and none put their ornaments on themselves. For YHWH h ad said to Moses, Say to the children of Israel, you are an obstinate people, I will come up into the middle of you in an instant and destroy you, now put off your ornaments from yourselves that I may know what to do to you. And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb. Moses took the Tabernacle and pitched it outside the encampment, far off from the camp and called it the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And it came to pass that every one that sought YHWH went out to the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place that was outside the encampment. And when Moses went out to the Tabernacle then all the people rose up and each man stood at his tent door and watched Moses until he entered into the Tabernacle. Then as Moses entered into the Tabernacle the Pillar of Cloud-mass descended and stood at the entrance of the Tabernacle and YHWH talked with Moses.

Chapter 33

And all the people saw the Pillar of Cloud-mass stand at the Tabernacle entrance and all the people rose up and bowed down, every man at the entrance of his tent. YHWH spoke to Moses face to face as a man speaks to his friend. And he returned again to the encampment but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun (a young man) did not depart from within the Tabernacle. Moses said to YHWH, See here, you say to me to bring up this people and you have not let me know the one you will send with me. Yet you have said, I know you by name and you have secured favor in my eyes. Now therefore, if I have secured favor in your eyes cause me to know the journey, that I may acknowledge you and continue in your favor and consider that this nation is your people. And He answered, My presence will go with you and I will give you rest. And he replied to Him, if Your presence is not going then take us not up from this place. How will it be known then that I (and the nation) have found favor in your eyes unless you go with us? So will we be marked out from all other peoples that are on the surface of this earth. YHWH spoke to Moses, I will do this very thing that you have spoken because you have found favor in My sight, and I know you by name. And he replied, I pray to you, show me your glory.

YHWH answered, I will make all My goodness pass by you and I will proclaim in your hearing the Name of YHWH in your presence, and will show favor to whom I will show favor, and will show tender affection on whom I will show tender affection. He also said, You cannot see My face, for no man of earth can see Me and live. Then YHWH said, There is a standing place near Me and you can station yourself upon this rock.

Chapter 34

When My glory passes by then I will set you in a crevice of this rock and will screen you with My hand while I pass by. And I will take My hand away and you will see My back side, but My face shall not be seen. YHWH spoke to Moses, Cut out two tablets of stone similar to the first and I will write on these tablets the Words that were in the first tablets that you broke in pieces. Be ready in the morning and come up at sunrise to Mount Sinai and present yourself there to me at the top of the mountain. No other man will ascend up with you and let no man be seen throughout all the mountain, the flocks and herds will not be permitted to graze on the mountain either. Then he cut two tablets of stone similar to the first and Moses got up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai, as YHWH had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. YHWH descended in the cloud-mass and stood with him there, proclaiming the Name of YHWH.

YHWH passed by before him and proclaimed, YHWH, YHWH Elohim, compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in goodness and truth, Preserving goodness for thousands, taking away depravity, transgression and sin, and not entirely acquitting but charging the depravity of fathers on children and on the grandchildren, to the third and fourth generations. Then Moses hurried, and bowed his head down towards the land, and prostrated himself. And said, if now I have found grace in your sight O Adonai, let my Adonai go among us, although this is an obstinate people, and forgive our depravity and sinfulness and take us for your inheritance. And He answered, I will carve out a Covenant-Pledge before all your people and I will act with extraordinary actions, such as has not been done in all the land or in any nation. Then all people among those you find yourselves with will see the deeds of YHWH and it will be a fearful thing that I will do with you. Observe what I command you this day, I will expel from your presence the Amorite, Canaanite, Hittite, Perizzite, Hivite, and the Jebusite. Be careful not to carve an alliance with the inhabitants of the land where you go or they will become a snare among you. But you will break down their altars, break in pieces their images, and cut down their groves. For you will bow down to no other elohim, for YHWH, whose Name is Jealous, is a jealous Elohim. Be careful not to car ve an alliance out with the inhabitants of the land because when they commit prostitution with their elohim and sacrifice to their elohim, and then invite you over, then certainly you will eat of his sacrifices to dead things. And you take of their daughters for your sons and their daughters commit prostitution with their elohim that in turn causes your sons to commit fornication after their elohim. You will fashion and cast yourselves no metal elohim. The Feast of Unleavened Bread will you observe. Seven days you will eat unleavened bread as I commanded you at the Appointed Place in the month Abib, for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt. All the firstborn of the womb are Mine including every firstborn among your cattle, whether ox or sheep that is born a male. But the firstborn of a donkey you will ransom with a lamb, and if you ransom it not, then you will break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you will ransom. And none will appear in My presence empty. Six days you will work but on the seventh day you will rest, in plowing time and in harvest you will rest. You will observe the Feast of Weeks, of the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the year's end. Three times in the year will all your male children appear before YHWH Elohim, the Elohim of Israel. For I will dispossess the nations before you and widen your borders and no one will covet your land when you will go up to appear before YHWH Elohim three times in the year. You will not offer the blood of my sacrifice with yeast, and the sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover will not be left until sunrise. The best of the first fruits of your land you will bring to the House of YHWH Elohim. You will not boil a young male goat in his mother's milk. YHWH spoke to Moses, Write these Words because after the speaking of these Words I have carved a Covenant-Pledge with you and with Israel. Moses was there with YHWH 40 days and 40 nights and he did not eat bread or drink water. And YHWH engraved on the tablets the Words of the Covenant-Pledge, The Ten Commandments. Now when Moses descended from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of Testimony in Moses' hand, when he descended from the mountain Moses did not know that the skin of his face radiated light while he had talked with Him. And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, that the skin of his face radiated light, then they were afraid to come near to him. And Moses called to them and Aaron and all the chiefs of the assembly returned to him, and Moses talked with them. Then afterwards all the children of Israel came near, and he charged them with all that YHWH had spoken with him in Mount Sinai.

Chapter 35

And after Moses had finished speaking to them he took a veil and put it over his face.

But when Moses went in before YHWH to speak with him he took the veil off until he came out. And when he came out to speak to the children of Israel what he had been commanded then the children of Israel saw the face of Moses' skin radiating light and Moses put the veil back on his face again until he went in to speak with Him again. Moses gathered all the company of the children of Israel together and said to them, These are the Words that YHWH has commanded that you should act on them. Six days will work be done but on the seventh day there will be for you a Holy Day, a Sabbath of rest to YHWH, whoever does work on that day will be put to death. You will kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath day. Moses spok e to all the company of the children of Israel saying, this is the thing that YHWH commanded, Take from among yourselves a Heave-Offering for YHWH, everyone whose heart is willing let him bring it, the Heave-Offering of YHWH, gold, silver, brass, blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, and female goats' [hair]. And rams' skins dyed red, and animal hides, and acacia wood, and oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the spices of incense, and onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and for the breastplate. And all that have a skillful inclination among you will come and fashion all that YHWH has commanded. The Tabernacle, tent and its covering, hooks, boards, bars, pillars and its sockets, the Ark, and the bars with the Covering-Lid, and the curtained veil, the table and its bars with all its vessels, and the Presence Bread. The lamp stand also for the light, and its articles, and its lamps with the oil for the light. The Incense Altar and its bars with the anointing oil, and the spices of incense, and the covering for the entrance of the Tabernacle. The Altar of whole Burnt-Offering with its brass grating, its bars, and all its vessels, the basin and its pedestal. The curtains of the court, its pillars and their sockets, the curtain for the entrance of the court, the tent pegs of the Tabernacle, the pegs for the court and their cords. The garments of braided work for service in the Holy Place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to serve in the priesthood. Then all the company of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

And they came, everyone whose mind was stirred, and everyone whose inner disposition was made willing, and they brought YHWH's Heave-Offering for the work of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and for all its service and for the Holy garments. And they came, both men and women, as many as were willingly inclined and brought bracelets, earrings, rings, golden ornaments, all vessels of gold, even every man who waved a Wave-Offering of gold to YHWH. And every man who was found with blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' [hair], red skins of rams, and animal hides brought them willingly. Every one lifting up a Heave-Offering of silver and brass has brought in the Heave-Offering of YHWH, and everyone who has been found with acacia wood for any work of the service brought it in. Then all the women that were skillfully inclined spun yarns with their hands, and brought what they had spun, both of blue, purple, scarlet, and of fine linen. And all the women whose minds inclined them with skill spun goats' [hair]. The chiefs brought onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod, and for the breastplate, and spice, and oil for the light and for the anointing oil, and for the spices of incense. The children of Israel brought a Free-Will offering to YHWH, every man and woman whose minds made them willing to give of all types of workmanship that YHWH had commanded to be fashioned by the hand of Moses. Moses said to the ch ildren of Israel, see, YHWH has called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, and he has filled him with the Spirit of Elohim, in skill and understanding and in knowledge for all these facets of workmanship. To design artistic works, to work in gold, silver, brass, and in stone cutting, to set them, and in carving of wood for making any type of artistic workmanship. YHWH has given him a mind to teach, both he and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. Them has He filled with administrative skills of mind for accomplishing all facets of workmanship for the engraver, designers, and the embroiderers in blue, purple, scarlet, in fine linen and for the weavers, even of them that fashion any work and of those that are inventive.

Chapter 36

Then Bezaleel and Aholiab with every skillfully inclined man took action, those who YHWH bestowed skill and understanding on, to know how to fashion all facets of workmanship for the service of the Sacred Place, according to all that YHWH had commanded. Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab with every skillfully inclined man in whose mind YHWH had put skill, even every one whose inner man inspired him to come and to accomplish this work. They received from Moses all the Heave-Offerings that the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the Sacred Place, to accomplish everything with. And they brought Free-Will offerings to him every sunrise. Then all the skillful men who designed left their current jobs to do all the work at the Sacred Place. And they spoke to Moses saying, the people are bringing much more than needed for the service of the work that YHWH commanded us to accomplish.

Moses gave commandment and proclamation was made throughout the encampment saying, let not man or woman make any more material for the Heave-Offering of the Sacred Place, and the people were restrained from bringing more. For the assets they had were sufficient to accomplish the task and there was much left over. And every skillfully inclined man among them that produced the work of the Tabernacle fashioned ten curtains of finely twisted linen of blue, purple, and scarlet with the designs of cherubim worked into the weaving is how they fashioned them. The length of one curtain was 42 feet and its width six feet, the curtains were all the same size. And he joined the five curtains one to another and the other five curtains he joined together too. He made loops of blue along the outer border of one set of curtains and they did the same for the outer border of the other set of curtains. He made 50 loops for each curtain and they also made 50 loops for the end curtain of the second set, the loops being opposite to each other. He made 50 hooks of gold and joined the curtains to one another with these hooks, and so it became one Tabernacle. He made curtains of goats' [hair] for the tent over the Tabernacle, 11 curtains were fashioned.

The length of one curtain was 45 feet and its width six feet, the 11 curtains were the same size. He joined five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves. He made 50 loops on the outer border of the curtain, in the joining and 50 loops he made on the border of the curtain that is joining the second, and he made 50 hooks of brass to join the tent together so that it will be one. He made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of animal hides above that. He made upright frames for the Tabernacle out of acacia wood. The length of a board was 15 feet, and its width was 2 1/4 feet. One board had two tenons equally spaced from each other and so all the boards for the Tabernacle were made in this way. He made bo ards for the Tabernacle, 20 boards for the south side southward, and 40 sockets of silver he made under the 20 boards, two sockets under each board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. For the other side of the Tabernacle that is towards the north side he made 20 boards and their 40 sockets of silver, two sockets under each board and two sockets under another board. And for the sides of the Tabernacle westward he made six boards and two boards he made for the corners of the Tabernacle for its two sides. And they were joined together at the base and at the top to one ring, thereby forming the two corners. There were eight boards; and their sockets were 16 sockets of silver, under every board two sockets. He made bars of acacia wood, five for the boards on the one side of the Tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the other side of the Tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the Tabernacle for the sides westward. He made the middle bar to go through the middle of the boards from the one end to the other, and he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be receptacles for the bars and overlaid the bars with gold.

He made a veil of blue, purple and scarlet, and finely twisted linen with cherubim fashioned by their design work. He made four pillars of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold, their hooks were of gold and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

Chapter 37

He made a covering for the Tabernacle door of blue, purple, scarlet, and of finely twisted linen of skillful needlework, and the five pillars for it with their hooks, and he overlaid their capitals and their cross-rods with gold, but their five sockets were of bronze. Then Bezaleel fashioned the Ark of acacia wood, 3 3/4 feet in length by 2 1/4 feet wide and 2 1/4 feet high. He overlaid it with pure gold inside and out, and made a border molding of gold to go around it. He cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by its four corners, even two rings on one side of it, and two rings on the other side. He made bars of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold and he inserted the bar-poles into the rings by the sides of the Ark to carry the Ark. He fashioned the Covering-Lid of pure gold, 3 3/4 feet in length by 2 1/4 feet being the width of it.

He made two cherubim of gold, beaten out of one piece, for the two sides of the Covering-Lid, one cherub at the end on one side, and another cherub on the opposite end, out of the Covering-Lid material he fashioned the cherubim on its two sides. The cherubim spread out their wings above, and covering with their wings overshadowed the Covering-Lid, with their faces each facing one another. The faces of the cherubim were also looking downward towards the Covering-Lid. He made the table of acacia wood, three feet in length by 1 1/2 feet wide by 2 1/4 feet high. He overlaid it with pure gold and made a border molding of gold around it. Also he fashioned a three inch border around it and made a rim of gold for the border that encircled it. He cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that pertained to its four feet. Near to the border were the rings, the places for the bar-poles to carry the table. He made the bars of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold to carry the table. He fashioned the vessels that were on the table, its dishes, spoons, bowls, and its jars to pour out from, made of pure gold. He made the lamp stand of pure gold, of hammered work he fashioned the lamp stand, its shaft, branch, bowls, bulbs, and its flowers, were made of the same, and six branches going out from the sides of it, three branches of the lamp stand went out from one side, and three branches of the lamp from the other side.

Three bowl s made after the fashion of almonds for one branch, a bulb and a flower, and three bowls fashioned like almonds in another branch, a bulb and a flower, so for the six branches coming out of the lamp stand. And in the lamp stand were four bowls fashioned like almonds, its bulbs, and its flowers, and a bulb under two branches of the same, and a bulb under two branches of the same, and a bulb under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it. Their bulbs and their branches were made of the same material, all of it was one hammered work of pure gold. And he fashioned its seven lamps, snuffers, and its fire-holder of pure gold. From 75 pounds of pure gold made he it, including all its vessels. He made the incense altar of acacia wood, square, 1 1/2 feet being both its length and width, and three feet in height. The horns of it were also fashioned of the same piece. He overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, the sides of it all around including the horns of it, he also fashioned for it a border molding of gold to encircle it.

He made two rings of gold for it under its border moldings, near its two corners on each side of it, to be receptacles for the bar-poles to carry it.

Chapter 38

He made the bars of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. He produced the Holy Anointing Oil and the pure incense of spices, according to the work of the perfumer. He made the Altar of Burnt-Offering of acacia wood, square, 7 1/2 feet being both its length and width, and 4 1/2 feet in height. He fashioned the horns on its four corners, the horns of it were made of the same piece, and he overlaid it with bronze. He made all the vessels of the Altar, the pots, shovels, bowls, the three-pronged fork and the fire-holder, all its vessels he made of bronze. He made for the Altar a brass grating of network under the rim of the Altar beneath (placed in the inside center of the Altar) . He cast four rings for its four ends of the grate work of brass to be receptacles for the bar-poles. He made the bars of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze. He inserted the bar-poles into the rings on the sides of the Altar, to carry it about and he designed the Altar to be hollow with boards. He made the bowls of brass and its pedestal of brass according to the visions from the women serving that served near the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place.

He made the court, on the south side southward the curtains of the court made of finely twisted linen and measuring 150 feet in length. There were 20 pillars with their 20 brass sockets, the hooks of the pillars and their binders were of silver. At the north side 150 feet, their 20 pillars, and their 20 brass sockets, the hooks of the pillars and their binders of silver. The west side was 75 feet wide and had curtains, with their ten pillars, and their ten sockets, the hooks of the pillars and their binders of silver. And for the east side eastward 75 feet wide. The curtains for one side of the gate were 22 1/2 feet long with their three pillars and their three sockets. And for the other side of the court gate, on this side and that side were curtains of 22 1/2 feet long, with their three pillars and their three sockets. All the curtains enclosing the court were of finely twisted linen. The sockets for the pillars were of brass, the hooks of the pillars and their binders of silver, and the capitals were molded with silver and all the pillars of the court were molded with silver too. The curtain for the entrance of the court was embroidered of blue, purple, scarlet, and finely twisted linen and 30 feet in length, and its height was 7 1/2 feet corresponding to the curtains of the court.

Their four pillars, and four brass sockets, their hooks of silver and the capitals with their silver moldings, and all the pegs of the Tabernacle and of the court enclosing it were of bronze. This is the reckoning for the Tabernacle, even of the Tabernacle of Testimony as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest. And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, fashioned all that YHWH commanded Moses. And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, designer, and an embroiderer in blue, purple, scarlet and fine linen. All the gold that was acquired for the entire work of the Holy Place, including the gold of the offering, equaled 2,200 pounds according to the Sanctuary shekel. The silver from them that were numbered of the assembly was 7,545 pounds, according to the Sanctuary shekel. A bekah for every man, that is, half a shekel [about 1/5 ounce], after the Sanctuary shekel, for everyone numbered in the census from 20 years old and upward for the 603,550 men. And of the 7,500 pounds of silver used to cast the sockets for the Holy Place and for the curtain, 100 sockets from the 7.500 pounds of silver, 75 pounds for each socket. And of the 1,775 shekels [45 pounds], he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their capitals and molded them. And the bronze of the offering was 5,310 pounds, and 2,400 shekels and he fashioned with it the sockets of the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, the brass Altar and its grate work and all the vessels of the Altar.

And the sockets of the court enclosure, the sockets for the court entrance, all the pegs of the Tabernacle and all the pegs of the court enclosure. From the blue, purple, and scarlet, they fashioned clothes of braided work for the service in the Holy Place, and fashioned the Holy garments for Aaron as YHWH commanded Moses.

Chapter 39

He fashioned the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet of finely twisted linen. And they beat the gold into thin plates and cut it into threads to work it in the blue, purple and scarlet of the fine linen with artistic achievement. They fashioned shoulder pieces for it, to join it together by its two ends so it could be fastened. And the girdle of his ephod that is on it is of the same, according to its work, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet of finely twisted linen as YHWH has commanded

Moses. They jeweled onyx stones cased in settings of gold, engraved as seals are carved, with the names of the children of Israel. He set them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones of memorial for the children of Israel as YHWH commanded Moses. He fashioned the breastplate with artistic achievement like the work of the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet of finely twisted linen. It was square and they made the breastplate folded double [to form a pouch] at nine inches long by nine inches being folded to form the pouch.

They set in it four rows of stones, the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle, this was the first row. The second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. The third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst. The fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper, they were enclosed in settings of gold in their casings. The stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names like the engravings of a seal, everyone with its name, according to the twelve tribes. They fashioned on the breastplate chains at the ends of interwoven foliage work of pure gold. They made two gold settings and two gold rings, setting the two rings at the two ends of the breastplate. They set the two interwoven foliage chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. The two ends of the two interwoven foliage chains they fastened in the two settings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod in the front of it. They fashioned two rings of gold and set them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its border that is towards the ephod on its inward edge.

They made two rings of gold and set them on the two shoulders of the ephod below, opposite its front, opposite its joining, above the girdle of the ephod. They bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue that it might be above the girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be removed from the ephod as YHWH commanded Moses. He made the robe of the ephod all of blue woven work. And there was an opening in the middle of the robe, and there comprises a woven border (similar to a collar) around the opening, and this will prevent it from tearing. They fashioned on the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet of twisted threads. They fashioned bells of pure gold and set the bells between the pomegranates on the hem of the robe between the pomegranates. A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate encircling the hem of the robe to serve in as YHWH commanded Moses. They made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron and for his sons, and a turban of fine linen, ornamental turbans of fine linen, and linen underwear of finely twisted linen.

The girdle of finely twisted linen being blue, purple, and scarlet of mixed colors as YHWH commanded Moses. They designed the plate of the Holy crown of pure gold, and wrote on it a writing similar to the engravings of a seal, HOLINESS TO YHWH. They tied to it a lace of blue, to fasten it on the top on the turban, as YHWH commanded Moses. So was all the work of the Tabernacle/tent at the Appointed Place completed, and the children of Israel accomplished everything that YHWH commanded Moses and so it was done. They brought the Tabernacle/tent to Moses, and all its furniture, hooks, boards, bars, pillars, sockets, and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, the covering of animal hides, and the veil of the covering. The Ark of the Testimony, bars, the Covering-Lid, the table, and all its vessels, and the Presence Bread. The pure lamp stand with the lamps, even with the lamps to be set in rank, and all the vessels and the oil for light. The golden Altar and the anointing oil, spice incense, and the curtain for the Tabernacle entrance, the brass Altar and its grate work of bronze, bars, and all its vessels including the bowl and its pedestal.

The curtains of the court, pillars, sockets, and the curtains for the court entrance, cords, pegs, and all the vessels of the service of the Tabernacle for the Tent at the Appointed Place. The clothes of service to do service in the Holy Place, and the Holy garments for Aaron the priest and his sons' garments, to serve in the priesthood. According to all that YHWH commanded Moses so the children of Israel accomplished all the work. Then Moses inspected all the work and they had accomplished it as YHWH had commanded, so Moses blessed them. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, On the first day of the first month will you set up the Tabernacle of the Tent at the Appointed Place.

Chapter 40

You will place in it the Ark of the Testimony and cover the Ark with the veil. You will bring in the table and set in order the things that are to be set in order on it and you will bring in the lamp stand and light the lamps. You will set the Altar of gold for the incense in front of the Ark of the Testimony, and put up the curtain of the entrance to the Tabernacle. You will set the Altar of the whole Burnt-Offering before the entrance of the Tabernacle, of the Tent at the Appointed Place.

You will set the bowl between the Tent at the Appointed Place and the Altar, and will put water in it. You will set up the court enclosure and put up the curtains at the court entrance. You will take the anointing oil and anoint the Tabernacle and all that it comprises, and will consecrate it and all its vessels so that it will be Holy. You will anoint the Altar of the whole Burnt-Offering and all its vessels, and consecrate the Altar and it will be THE MOST HOLY ALTAR. You will anoint the bowl and its pedestal and consecrate it. You will bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and wash them with water. You will put on Aaron the Holy garments and anoint him, and consecrate him so that he may serve me in the priesthood. You will bring his sons and clothe them with clothing. You will anoint them as you did anoint their father, that they may serve me in the priesthood for their anointing will certainly be an Age-Lasting Priesthood throughout their generations. Moses did according to all that YHWH commanded him and so it was accomplished.

Then in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month the Tabernacle was reared up. Moses reared up the Tabernacle and fastened its sockets, and set up its boards, and put in the bar-poles and raised up its pillars. He spread out the tent over the Tabernacle and placed the covering of the tent above it as YHWH commanded Moses. He took and placed the Testimony in the Ark and inserted the bar-poles on the Ark, and set the Covering-Lid on top of the Ark. He brought the Ark into the Tabernacle and set up the veil of the curtain, thereby screening off the Ark of the Testimony as YHWH commanded Moses. He set the table in the Tent at the Appointed Place on the side of the Tabernacle northward outside the veiled area. He set the bread in order on it before YHWH as He had commanded Moses. He placed the lamp stand in the Tent at the Appointed Place opposite the table, on the side of the Tabernacle southward. He lighted the lamps before YHWH as He commanded Moses. He placed the golden Altar in the Tent at the Appointed Place in front of the veil and he burnt spices of incense on it as YHWH commanded Moses. He set up the curtain at the entrance of the Tabernacle.

He put the Altar of whole Burnt-Offering by the entrance of the Tabernacle in the Tent at the Appointed Place and offered on it the whole Burnt-Offering and the Meat-Offering as YHWH commanded Moses. He placed the bowl between the Tent at the Appointed Place and the Altar, and put water in it to wash with. Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet with the bowl of water. When they went into the Tent at the Appointed Place, and when they came close to the Altar, they washed as YHWH commanded Moses. He raised up the court enclosure around the Tabernacle and Altar, and set up the curtain of the court entrance. So Moses completed the work. Then a cloud-mass concealed the Tent at the Appointed Place and the glory of YHWH consecrated the Tabernacle. Moses was not able to enter into the Tent at the Appointed Place because the cloud-mass placed itself there and the glory of YHWH filled the Tabernacle. And when the cloud-mass ascended from over the Tabernacle the children of Israel pulled up and broke camp. But if the cloud-mass did not ascend then they did not journey until the day that it ascended up.

For the cl oud-mass of YHWH was on the Tabernacle by d ay and supernatural fire was on it at night, in the sight of all the House of Israel, whenever they pulled up the pegs and broke camp in their pilgrimage.

Leviticus

Chapter 1

YHWH summoned Moses and spoke to him out of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, If any man from among you brings an offering to YHWH, you will bring that offering from the animals, even of the herd and of the flock. If his offering is a whole Burnt-Offering from the herd, let him present a male without blemish, he will present it of his own voluntary will, at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place before YHWH. He will then put his hand on the head of the Burnt-Offering and it will be accepted to make Propitiatory-Covering for him. And he will slaughter the male before YHWH and the priests, Aaron's sons will bring the blood and sprinkle the blood all around on the Altar that is by the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. He will skin the Burnt-Offering and cut it into its pieces and the sons of Aaron, the priest, will put fire on the Altar and lay the wood in order on the fire. Then the priests, Aaron's sons, will lay the pieces, the head and the fat in order on the wood-fire that is upon the Altar. But its entrails and its legs he will wash in water and the priest will burn it all on the Altar for a whole Burnt-Offering, an offering made by fire that is a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. If his offering is from the flocks, namely from the sheep or goats for a whole Burnt-Offering, then he will bring a male without blemish. Then he will slaughter it on the side of the Altar northward before YHWH and the priests, Aaron's sons, will sprinkle its blood all around on the Altar.

Then he will cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat, and the priest will lay them in order on the wood-fire that is upon the Altar. But he will wash the entrails and the legs with water and the priest will bring all of it and burn it upon the Altar for a whole Burnt-Offering, an offering made by fire of a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. And if the whole Burnt-Offering for his sacrifice to YHWH were of flying creatures, then he will bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons. Then the priest will bring it to the Altar and nip off its head, and burn it on the Altar, and its blood will be drained out at the side of the Altar. He will pluck away its crop with its feathers and cast it beside the Altar on the eastern side, by the place of the fat ashes. He will divide it at the wings but will not divide it into parts and the priest will burn it on the Altar, on the wood-fire as a whole Burnt-Offering, an offering made by fire of a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. And when any will present a Gift-Offering to YHWH, his offering will be of fine flour, and he will pour oil on it and issue frankincense on it too.

Chapter 2

He will bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests, and they will take a handful of the flour and oil, with the issue of frankincense and the priest will burn the Memorial-Offering of it on the Altar. It will be an offering made by fire, of a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. And the leftovers of the Gift-Offering will belong to Aaron and his sons. It is a separated sacred portion from the Burnt-Offerings of YHWH made by fire.

And if you bring a Gift-Offering of a gift baked in the oven, it will be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers smeared with oil. And if your Gift-Offering is a gift baked in a pan, it will be of fine flour unleavened and mixed with oil. You will part this Gift-Offering in pieces and pour oil on it. If your Gift-Offering is a gift baked in the saucepan then it will be made of fine flour with oil. And you will bring the Gift-Offering that is made of these things to YHWH, and when it is presented to the priest he will bring it to the Altar. The priest will remove from the Gift-Offering a Memorial-Offering from it and will burn it upon the Altar. It is an offering made by fire of a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. And what is left over of the Gift-Offering will be Aaron's and his sons. It is a separated sacred portion from the Burnt-Offerings of YHWH made by fire. No Gift-Offering that you will bring to YHWH will be made with leaven because you will burn no leaven, nor any honey in any offering of YHWH made by fire. As for the offering of the first-fruits, you will present them to YHWH but they will not be burnt on the Altar for a tranquilizing aroma. And every offering of your Gift-Offerings you will season with salt, no salt of the Covenant-Pledge of Elohim is to be lacking from your Gift-Offerings. All your offerings will be offered with salt.

If you present a Gift-Offering of your first-fruits to YHWH, you will present for the Gift-Offering from your first-fruits young barley ears, roasted by the fire, even crushed grain from the plantation. You will put oil on it and lay frankincense on it too. It is a Gift-Offering. And the priest will burn the Memorial-Offering from it, part of the crushed grain of it and part of the oil with all the frankincense. It is an offering made by fire unto YHWH.

Chapter 3

And if his offering were a sacrifice of Peace-Offering, if he presents it from the herd, whether it is a male or female, he will present it without blemish before YHWH. He will lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the door of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and Aaron's sons, the priests, will sprinkle the blood upon the Altar all around. Then he will present from the sacrifice of the Peace-Offering an offering made by fire to YHWH, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, and the two kidneys, with the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the appendage above the liver with the kidneys, and he will remove these. Aaron's sons will burn it on the Altar (upon the whole Burnt-Offering) that is on the wood of the fire. It is an offering made by fire for a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. If his offering for a sacrifice of Peace-Offering to YHWH is from the flock, male or female, he will present it without blemish. If he brings a lamb for his offering, then he will present it before YHWH.

And he will lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and Aaron's sons will sprinkle its blood all around the Altar. He will present the sacrifice of the Peace-Offering as a Burnt-Offering made by fire unto YHWH. The fat of it and the whole rump he will slice off hard by the backbone, with the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails. And the two kidneys and the fat that is on them that is by the loins, and the appendage above the liver with the kidneys, these he will remove. The priest will burn it on the Altar for its the food of the Burnt-Offering made by fire unto YHWH. But if his offering is a female goat then he will present it before YHWH and he will lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and the sons of Aaron will sprinkle its blood upon the Altar all around. He will pr esent this offering as a Burnt-Offering made by fire unto YHWH but the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them located near the loins and the appendage above the liver (with the kidneys) he will remove. And the priest will burn them on the Altar for it is the food of the Burnt-Offering made by fire for a tranquilizing aroma and all the fat is YHWH's. This will be an Age-Lasting statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings that you eat neither fat nor blood. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel saying, If a person will sin unintentionally against any of the commandments of YHWH concerning things that should not be done and has done something against one of them: If the priest that is anointed sins and is guilty for a sin of the nation, then let him present for the sin that he has sinned, a young bull from the herd (that is without blemish)

Chapter 4

to YHWH for a Sin-Offering. He will bring the bull to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place before YHWH, and will lay his hand on the bull's head and slaughter the bull before YHWH. And the priest that is anointed will take of the bull's blood and bring it to the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and the priest will dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle this blood seven times before YHWH in front of the veil at the Holy Place. Then the priest will put some of the blood on the horns of the Altar of spiced incense before YHWH that is in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. He will pour all the blood of the bull at the bottom of the Altar of Burnt-Offering that is at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. He will take off from it all the fat of the bull for the Sin-Offering, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails itself. And the two kidneys and the fat that is on them that is by the loins, and the appendage above the liver with the kidneys, he will remove all these. As it was taken off from the bull of the sacrifice of Peace-Offerings and the priest will burn them on the Altar of the whole Burnt-Offering. And the skin of the bull and all its flesh with its head, and its legs and the entrails including the dung, even the whole bull he will carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on the wood with fire where the ashes are poured out. This is the place where the bull will be burnt.

Now if the whole company of Israel sin unintentionally, and the thing is concealed from the eyes of the company, and they have done something against any of the commandments of YHWH concerning things that should not be done and are guilty. When the sin that they have sinned is made known, then the company will present a young bull for the sin, and bring it before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. Then the Elders of the nation will lay their hands on the head of the bull before YHWH, and the bull will be slaughtered before Him. The priest that is anointed will bring of the bull's blood to the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and the priest will dip his finger in some of the blood and sprinkle it seven times before YHWH, even in front of the veil. Then he will put some of the blood on the horns of the Altar that is before YHWH, that is in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. He will pour out all the blood at the bottom of the Altar of Burnt-Offering that is at the entrance to the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. Then he will take all the fat from the bull and burn it on the Altar. He will do with the bull as he did with the bull for a Sin-Offering, so he will do with this one also, and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for them and they will receive forgiveness. Then he will carry out the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burnt the first bull.

This is a Sin-Offering for the nation. When a chief has sinned and has done something unintentionally against any of the commandments of YHWH Elohim concerning things that should not be done and is guilty or if his sin that he has sinned has come to his knowledge, he will bring his offering, a he-goat from the female goats, a male without blemish. And he will lay his hand on the head of the he-goat and slaughter it in the place where they kill the Burnt-Offering before YHWH, it is a Sin-Offering. Then the priest will take of the blood of the Sin-Offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the Altar of Burnt-Offering, and will pour out its blood at the bottom of the Altar of Burnt-Offering. He will burn all its fat upon the Altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of Peace-Offerings and the priest will make a Propitiatory-Covering for him as concerning his sin, and it will be forgiven him. And if anyone of the region's people sin unintentionally when he does something against any of the commandments of YHWH concerning things that should not be done and is guilty or if his sin that he has sinned comes to his knowledge, then he will bring his offering, a she-goat from the female goats, a female without blemish, for the sin that he has sinned. He will lay his hand on the head of the Sin-Offering, and slaughter the Sin-Offering at the place of the Burnt-Offering. The priest will take of the blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the Altar of Burnt-Offering, and will pour out all its blood at the bottom of the Altar. And he will take away all the fat from it like the fat that is taken away from off the sacrifice of Peace-Offerings. The priest will burn it on the Altar for a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him, and it will be forgiven him. If he brings a lamb for a Sin-Offering then he will present it as a female without blemish.

And he will lay his hand on the head of the Sin-Offering and slaughter it for a Sin-Offering in the place where they kill the Burnt-Offering. Then the priest will take from the blood of the Sin-Offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the Altar of Burnt-Offering, and will pour out all its blood at the bottom of the Altar. He will take away all the fat like the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the Peace-Offerings. Then the priest will burn them on the Altar according to the Burnt-Offerings made by fire unto YHWH, and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for his sin that he has committed, and it will be forgiven him. And if a person sins by remaining silent when he is adjured to give evidence as a witness, whether he has seen or known the thing, then he will bear his depravity. Or if a person touch any unclean thing, whether it is a carcass of an unclean animal or a carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and if it is concealed from him then he will be unclean and guilty. Or if he touches the uncleanness of man (whatever filthiness it is that a man will be defiled by) and it is concealed from him, yet when he learns of it he will then be guilty. Or when a person adjures, speaking wrongfully with the lips to do evil, or to do good, even anything that man utters wrongfully with an oath, and it has been concealed from him, when he has known the matter then he has been guilty of one of these. And it will be, when he will be guilty in this that he will confess that he has sinned.

Chapter 5

And as a penalty for the sin that was committed he is required to present YHWH a female lamb or she-goat from the flock as a Sin-Offering and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him for his sin. But if he is not able to bring a lamb then he will bring for his trespass that he has committed two turtledoves, or two young pigeons unto YHWH, one for a Sin-Offering, and the other for a Burnt-Offering. He will bring them to the priest who will offer the Sin-Offering first, and nip off its head from its neck but will not divide it into parts and he will sprinkle the blood of the Sin-Offering on the side of the Altar, and the rest of the blood will be drained out at the bottom of the Altar, this is a Sin-Offering. And he will offer the second as a Burnt-Offering according to the judgment and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him for the sin that he has sinned, and it will be forgiven him. But if he is not able to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he that sinned will bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah [about two quarts] of fine flour for a Sin-Offering. He will put no oil on it; neither will he put any frankincense on it because it is a Sin-Offering. Then he will bring it to the priest and the priest will take a handful of it as a Memorial-Offering from it, and burn it on the Altar according to the Burnt-Offerings made by fire unto YHWH, this is a Sin-Offering. Then the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him concerning his sin that he has sinned in one of these and it will be forgiven him and the remainder will be the priest's as a Gift-Offering. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, If a person acts treacherously against Elohim and sins unintentionally in the sacred things of YHWH, then he will bring for his offense to YHWH a ram without blemish out of the flocks with your estimation by shekels of silver, after the Sanctuary shekel for a Guilt-Offering.

And he will make a covenant of peace for the harm that he has done in the sacred thing and will add the fifth part to it and give it to the priest. The priest will then make Propitiatory-Covering for him with the ram of the Guilt-Offering and it will be forgiven him. And if a person sins and commits any of these things that are forbidden to be done by the commandments of YHWH (as to things that should not be done) even if he did not know it, he will become guilty and will bear his sin. Then he will bring a ram without blemish out of the flock with your estimation for a Guilt-Offering to the priest, and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him concerning his ignorance where he erred (and did not know), and it will be forgiven him. This is a Guilt-Offering, he has certainly offended against YHWH.

Chapter 6

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, When any person sins and has committed an offense against YHWH and has lied to his fellow concerning a deposit, or concerning a pledge, or concerning violent robbery, or has oppressed his fellow or has found a lost thing, and has lied concerning it and has adjured to a falsehood concerning any of these which men do, sinning in them. Then it wi ll happen because he has sinned and is gui lty that he will restore what he took violently away, or what he has deceitfully obtained, or what was supplied him to watch over or the lost item he found, or all that concerning what he adjures falsely, he has even repaid it in its principal, and add to it a fifth value, to him who it belongs he will give it in the day of his Guilt-Offering. He will bring his Guilt-Offering to YHWH, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with your valuation for a Guilt-Offering to the priest. And the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him before YHWH and it will be forgiven him for anything of all that he has done in wrong-doing. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Command Aaron and his sons saying, This is the Law of the Burnt-Offering. It is the Burnt-Offering because of the burning upon the Altar all night until sunrise, and the fire of the Altar will be burning in it. The priest will put on his linen garment, and the linen underwear he will put on his flesh, and take up the ashes that the fire has consumed with the Burnt-Offering on the Altar and he will put them beside the Altar. Then he will take off his garments and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. And the fire on the Altar must remain burning, it will not be put out and the priest will burn wood on it every sunrise, and lay the Burnt-Offering in order on it and he will burn the fat of the Peace-Offerings. The fire will continually be burning on the Altar and it will not be extinguished. This is the Law of the Gift-Offering and the sons of Aaron will offer it before YHWH in front of the Altar. He will also take from it a handful of flour from the Gift-Offering, and of the oil, with all the frankincense that is upon the Gift-Offering and will burn it on the Altar for a tranquilizing aroma, as the Memorial-Offering of it to YHWH. And the remainder of it will Aaron and his sons eat, with unleavened bread it will be eaten in the Holy Place, in the court of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place they will eat it. It will not be baked with leaven because I have given it to them for their portion of my Burnt-Offerings made by fire. It is Most Holy like the Sin-Offering and Guilt-Offering.

All the males among the children of Aaron will eat of it. It will be a statute for the ages in your generations concerning the offerings of YHWH made by fire. Everyone that touches them will be Holy. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, this is the offering of Aaron and his sons that they will present to YHWH in the day when he is anointed. The tenth part of an ephah of fine flour [2 quarts] for a Gift-Offering continually, half of it at sunrise and half at sunset. In a pan it will be made with oil and when it is baked, you will bring it in and the baked pieces of the Gift-Offering you will present for a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. The son who will succeed him as an anointed priest will make the offering. This is a statute for the ages unto YHWH and it will be entirely burnt up. Because every Gift-Offering for the priest will be entirely burnt up and it will not be eaten. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to Aaron and to his sons saying, this is the Law of the Sin-Offering. In the place where the Burnt-Offering is slaughtered will the Sin-Offering be killed before YHWH, and this is Most Holy. The priest that offers it for sin will eat it (in the Holy Place it will be eaten) in the court of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. Whatever will touch the flesh will be Holy, and when there is sprinkled some blood of it upon any garment you will wash it in the Holy Place.

But the clay pottery where it is cooked will be broken, and if its cooked in a copper pot it will be both scoured and rinsed in water. All the males among the priests will eat it for this is Most Holy. And no Sin-Offering, where any of the blood is brought into the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place for covering (in the Holy Place) will be eaten. It will be burnt in the fire. This is a Law of the Guilt-Offering that is Most Holy. In the place where they slaughter the Burnt-Offering will they kill the Guilt-Offering and the blood will be sprinkled around on the Altar.

Chapter 7

And he will present from it all the fat, the rump, and the fat that covers the entrails, and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, that is by the loins and the appendage that is above the liver with the kidneys, he will remove these. Then the priest will burn them on the Altar for a Burnt-Offering made by fire unto YHWH. This is a Guilt-Offering. Every male among the priests will eat this and it will be eaten in the Holy Place because it is Most Holy. As the Sin-Offering is so likewise the Guilt-Offering for there is one Law for them. The priest that makes Propitiatory-Covering by it, he will have it. And the priest that presents any man's Burnt-Offering, even that priest will have for himself the skin of the whole Burnt-Offering that he has offered. All the Gift-Offering that is baked in the oven and all that are made in the saucepan and in the griddle will be the priest's that offers it.

Every Gift-Offering mixed with oil or dry shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another. This is the Law of the sacrifice of Peace-Offerings that he will present to YHWH. If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he will present with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers smeared with oil, and cakes mixed with oil of fine flour and stirred. Besides the cakes he will present for his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his Peace-Offerings. And of it he will present one offering for a Heave-Offering unto YHWH, and it belongs to the priest's that sprinkles the blood of the Peace-Offerings. The flesh of the sacrifice of his Peace-Offerings for thanksgiving will be eaten the same day that it is offered. He will not leave any of it until sunrise. But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow or a Freewill-Offering, it will be eaten the same day that he presents his sacrifice and on the next day the remainder of it will be eaten. But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day will be burnt with fire. And if any of the meat of the sacrifice of his Peace-Offerings is eaten at all on the third day, it will not be accepted, neither will it be imputed to him that presents it.

It will be an abomination and the person that eats of it will bear his depravity. The meat that touches any unclean thing will not be eaten, it will be burnt with fire, and as for the meat, all that are clean will eat of it. But the person that eats of the meat of the sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, that pertains unto YHWH, having his uncleanness on him, even that person will be cut off from his people. If anyone will touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man or any unclean animal, or any detestable unclean thing and eats of the meat of the sacrifice of Peace-Offerings that pertains unto YHWH, even that person will be cut off from his people. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel saying, You will eat no fat, of ox, sheep, or goat. And the fat of the animal that dies of itself and the fat of what is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use but you will certainly not eat of it. For whoever eats the fat of the animal that men present for an offering made by fire unto YHWH, even the person that eats it will be cut off from his people. You will eat no blood, whether it is of flying creatures or of animals in any of your dwellings. Any person that eats any blood, even that person will be cut off from his people. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel saying, He that presents the sacrifice of his Peace-Offerings to YHWH will bring his own offering to YHWH from the sacrifice of his Peace-Offerings. His own hands will bring the Burnt-Offerings of YHWH made by fire, the fat with the breast, he will bring it so that the breast may be waved for a Wave-Offering before YHWH.

Then the priest will burn the fat on the Altar but the breast will be Aaron's and his sons'. And the right shoulder will you give to the priest for a Heave-Offering from the sacrifices of your Peace-Offerings. He among the sons of Aaron that presents the blood of the Peace-Offerings, and the fat will have the right shoulder for his part. Because the Wave breast and the Heave shoulder have I taken from the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their Peace-Offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons by a statute for the ages from among the children of Israel. This is the consecrated portion of the anointing of Aaron and of the consecrated portion of his sons, out of the Burnt-Offerings of YHWH made by fire in the day when he presented them to YHWH for the priesthood. Which YHWH commanded to be given them from the children of Israel, in the day that he anointed them by a statute for the ages throughout their generations. This is the Law of the Burnt-Offering, Gift-Offering, Sin-Offering, and of the Guilt-Offering and of the installations, and of the sacrifice of the Peace-Offerings. YHWH commanded Moses in Mount Sinai in the day that He commanded the children of Israel to present their offerings unto YHWH in the wilderness of Sinai.

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Take Aaron and his sons with him (including the garments) , the anointing oil and a young bull for a Sin-Offering, and two rams along with a basket of unleavened bread and gather all the company together to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. Then Moses did as YHWH commanded him and the company was gathered together to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. Moses spoke to the company, This is what YHWH has commanded to be done. Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons and washed them with water. And he put on him the tunic and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe and put on him the ephod, and he girded him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod and tied it to him. Then he put the breastplate on him and also set in the breastplate the Urim-Thummim. And he put the turban on his head and also on the turban at its front he set the golden plate (the Holy crown) as YHWH commanded Moses. Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the Tabernacle and all that was in it and consecrated them. He sprinkled on the Altar seven times and anointed the Altar and all its vessels, both the basin and its pedestal to consecrate them. And he poured the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him. Moses brought Aaron's sons and put tunics on them and girded them with girdles, and put turbans on them as YHWH commanded Moses.

Chapter 8

He brought the young bull for the Sin-Offering and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull for the Sin-Offering. And he slaughtered it and Moses took the blood and put it on the horns of the Altar all around with his finger, and purified the Altar and poured the blood at the bottom of the Altar and consecrated it for a Propitiatory-Covering on it. Then he took all the fat that was on the entrails and the appendage above the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and Moses burnt it on the Altar. But the young bull and its hide, its flesh and its dung, he burnt with fire outside the camp as YHWH commanded Moses. Then he brought the ram for the Burnt-Offering and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram and he slaughtered it and Moses sprinkled the blood on the Altar all around. He cut the ram into pieces and Moses burnt the head and the pieces, and the fat. Then he washed the entrails and the legs in water and Moses burnt the whole ram on the Altar. It was a whole Burnt-Offering for a tranquilizing aroma and a Burnt-Offering made by fire unto YHWH, as YHWH commanded Moses. He brought the other ram, the ram of consecration and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram and he slaughtered it and Moses took the blood of it and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

And he bro ught Aaron's sons and Moses put the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet, and Moses sprinkled the blood on the Altar all around. He took the fat and the rump, and all the fat that was on the entrails and the appendage above the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and the right shoulder. And out of the basket of unleavened bread that was before YHWH he took one unleavened cake, and a cake that was oiled and one wafer, and put them on the fat and on the right shoulder. Then he set all on Aaron's hands and on his sons' hands, and waved them for a Wave-Offering before YHWH. Moses took them from off their hands and burnt them on the Altar upon the Burnt-Offering, they were consecrations for a tranquilizing aroma and it is a Burnt-Offering made by fire unto YHWH. Moses takes the breast, and waves it for a Wave-Offering before YHWH, of the ram of the consecration it has been to Moses for a portion, as YHWH has commanded Moses. And Moses took of the anointing oil and of the blood that was on the Altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron and his garments. And also on his sons and on his sons' garments with him, and consecrated Aaron and his garments, and his sons, and his grandchildren's garments with him. Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations as I commanded saying, Aaron and his sons will eat it.

And what remains of the flesh and of the bread you will burn with fire. You will not go out of the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place for seven days, until the days of your consecration are completed, because for seven days he will consecrate you. As he has done this day so YHWH has commanded to be done, to make Propitiatory-Covering for you. Now you will stay at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place day and night for seven days and keep the charge of YHWH (so that you do not die) , for so I have been commanded. So Aaron and his sons did all things that YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses. On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons, and the Elders of Israel. Then he said to Aaron, Take to yourself a calf, a male of the herd, for a Sin-Offering and a ram for a whole Burnt-Offering, without blemish and bring near to YHWH in His presence. And to the children of Israel you will speak saying, Take yourself a he-goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish for a Burnt-Offering. Also a bull and a ram for Peace-Offerings to sacrifice before YHWH, and a Gift-Offering mingled with oil, for today YHWH will inspect you.

Chapter 9

Then they brought what Moses commanded before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and all the company drew near and stood before

YHWH. Moses said, These are the things YHWH commanded that you should do, and the glory of YHWH will gaze upon you.

Moses said to Aaron, Go to the Altar and make your Sin-Offering and your Burnt-Offering, and make Propitiatory-Covering for yourself and for the people, and make the offering for the people and make Propitiatory-Covering for them as YHWH commanded. Aaron then went to the Altar and slaughtered the calf of the Sin-Offering, that was for himself. And the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it on the horns of the Altar and poured out the blood at the bottom of the Altar. But the fat and the kidneys, and the appendage above the liver from the Sin-Offering, he burnt on the Altar as YHWH commanded Moses. And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire outside the camp. He slaughtered the Burnt-Offering and Aaron's sons presented to him the blood that he then sprinkled all around on the Altar. They presented the Burnt-Offering to him with the pieces of it, and the head, and he burnt them on the Altar. Then he washed the entrails and the legs, and made an incense upon the Burnt-Offering at the Altar. And he brought the people's offering, and took the he-goat, that was the Sin-Offering for the people and slaughtered it, and offered it for sin like the first.

Then he brought the Burnt-Offering and offered it according to the ordinance. He brought the Gift-Offering and took a handful from it, and burnt it on the Altar, besides the whole Burnt-Offering done at sunrise. He slaughtered the bull too and the ram for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, for the people and Aaron's sons presented to him the blood that he sprinkled on the Altar all around, and the fat of the bull and the ram, the rump, and what covers the entrails and the kidneys (with the appendage above the liver). They put the fat on the breasts, and he burnt the fat on the Altar. And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a Wave-Offering before YHWH as Moses commanded. Then Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people and blessed them, and came down from making the Sin-Offering, Burnt-Offering, and Peace-Offerings. Moses and Aaron went into the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and came out, and blessed the people and the glory of YHWH appeared to all the people. And there came a supernatural fire out from before YHWH and consumed on the Altar the Burnt-Offering and the fat, now when all the people saw this they shouted, and prostrated their faces to the ground. Then Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron took each man his fire-holder and placed fire in it with the incense, and brought before YHWH strange fire that He had not commanded them.

And there went out supernatural fire from YHWH that burnt them up, and they were executed as a penalty before YHWH. Then Moses said to Aaron, This is what YHWH spoke saying, I will be consecrated in them that come before me and in the presence of all the people I will be grievous.

Chapter 10

And Aaron remained silent. And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron and said to them, come near and carry your relatives from the presence of the Sacred Place outside the camp. So they went near and carried them in their tunics outside the camp as Moses had commanded. Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar his sons, Uncover not your heads, neither rip your clothes unless you also die and anger comes on all the people, but let your relatives (the whole House of Israel), shed tears for the burning that YHWH has ignited. And you will not go out from the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place or you will die, for the anointing oil of YHWH is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses. YHWH spoke to Aaron saying, do not drink wine or intoxicating drinks, you or your sons with you when you go into the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place or you will die. This will be a statute for the ages throughout your generations. So that you may separate between sacred and profane and between unclean and clean and that you may teach the children of Israel all the statutes that YHWH has commanded by the hand of Moses. Moses spoke to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar his sons that were left, Take the Gift-Offering that remains of the Burnt-Offerings of YHWH made by fire, and eat it unleavened beside the Altar because it is Most Holy.

And you will eat it in the Holy Place, because it is your prescribed portion and your sons' portion from the sacrifices of YHWH made by fire: for so I have been commanded. The Wave breast and Heave shoulder you will eat in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you for they are your prescribed portion, and your sons' portion, that are given out of the sacrifices of Peace-Offerings from the children of Israel. The leg of the Heave-Offering and breast of the Wave-Offering, besides Burnt-Offerings of the fat, they will bring in to wave as a Wave-Offering before YHWH, and it will be for you and your sons as a statute for the ages as YHWH has commanded. And when Moses inquired about the he-goat of the Sin-Offer ing and discovered it had been burnt up he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron that were left alive saying, Why have you not eaten the Sin-Offering in the Holy Place, seeing it is Most Holy and Elohim has given it you to bear the depravity of the nation, to make Propitiatory-Covering for them before YHWH? The blood of it was not brought within the Holy Place, you should have eaten it in the Holy Place as I commanded you. Then Aaron replied to Moses, Today they have presented their Sin-Offering and Burnt-Offering before YHWH, but such things have befallen me and if I had eaten the Sin-Offering today, should it have been accepted in the sight of YHWH? And when Moses heard that he was pleased. YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron saying to them, Speak to the children of Israel saying, These are the living things that you will eat among all the animals that are on the land. Whatever has divided hoofs that are split in two parts and that brings up the cud among the beasts are those you will eat. But those that you will not eat are those that bring up the cud, or have divided hoofs such as the camel, because he brings up the cud but does not have a split hoof; he is unclean to you.

Chapter 11

And the rock badger because he brings up the cud but does not have a split hoof; he is unclean to you. And the hare, though it is bringing up the cud, but do not have a split hoof; he is unclean to you. And the hog, though he has split hoofs that are divided in two parts, yet he does not drag away the cud; he is unclean to you. Of their flesh you will not eat, and their carcass you will not touch; they are unclean to you. These you will eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas and in the rivers, those you will eat. And all that do not have fins and scales in the seas and in the rivers, of all the swarming things in the waters or any living creature that is in the waters, they will be a detestable thing to you.

They will be a detestable thing for you; you will not eat of its flesh and their carcasses you will count filthy. Whatever has no fins or scales in the waters will be detestable to you. And these are those that you will regard as detestable among the flying creatures; they will not be eaten, they are detestable: the eagle, bearded vulture, buzzard, kite, and the hawk after its species. Every raven after its species; And the female and male ostrich, and the seagull, and the falcon after its species. And the little owl, cormorant, and the great owl, swan, pelican, carrion vulture, stork, the heron after its species, hoopoe, and the bat. All flying creatures of insects (walking on all four) will be detestable to you. Yet these you may eat of every flying insect (that walks on all four) that have legs above their feet, that leap upon the land; Even these from them you may eat; the swarming locust after its species and the winged locust after its species, and the flying [beetle] after its species, and the grasshopper after its species. But all other flying insects that have four feet will be detestable to you. For these you will be unclean: whoever touches the carcass of them will be unclean until sunset. Whoever picks up one of these carcasses will also wash his clothes and be unclean until sunset. Every animal with hoof parted but not divided through and not bringing up the cud is unclean for you, all who touch such an animal will be unclean. And whatever walks on its paws among all living things that walk on all fours, those are unclean to you: whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean until sunset. Anyone who picks up their carcass will wash his clothes and be unclean until sunset: they are unclean to you. These also will be unclean to you among the small animals that multiply on the land; the weasel, mouse, and the lizard [or perhaps the tortoise] after its species, and the ferret, small reptile, lizard, a snail, and chameleon. These are unclean to you among all that creep: whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean until sunset.

And anything on which any one of them falls, in their death, is unclean, of any vessel of wood or garment or skin or sack, any vessel in which work is done, it will be put into water and will be unclean until sunset and then will be clean. And every clay pottery vessel where any of them fall on, whatever is in it will be unclean; and you will break it. Any food that is consumable for eating and then comes in contact with water from such a vessel will be unclean, as will any drink in such a vessel. And anything on which any of their carcasses fall is unclean (oven or cooking pot), it will have to be broken because they are unclean to you. Only a spring or cistern, a collection of water is clean, but what touches their carcass is unclean and if any part of their carcass falls on any sowing seed that is to be sown, it will be clean. But if any water were put on the seed, and any part of their carcass falls on it, then will it be unclean to you. And if any animal that you eat dies; he that touches the carcass of it will be unclean until sunset. And he that eats of the carcass of it will wash his clothes, and be unclean until sunset, he also that lifts up the carcass of it will wash his clothes and be unclean until sunset. And every creeping insect that multiplies upon the land will be detestable and it will not be eaten. Whatever walks on the belly, and whatever walks upon all four, or whatever has more feet among all swarming things that multiply upon the land, those you will not eat because they are detestable. You will not make yourselves detestable with any swarming thing that multiplies neither will you make yourselves unclean with them that you should be defiled. For I am YHWH Elohim, You will therefore consecrate yourselves, and you will be sacred because I AM Holy:

neither will you defile yourselves with any manner of swarming thing that creeps upon the land. For I am YHWH that brings you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your Elohim: you will therefore be sacred, for I AM Holy. This is the Law of the animals and of flying creatures, and of every living creature that swims in the waters, and of every creature that swarms upon the land. To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the living things that may be eaten and the living things that may not be eaten. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel saying, If a woman has become pregnant and genders a baby boy, then will she be unclean for seven days according to the time of menstruation for her infirmity she will be unclean. And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin will be circumcised. The woman must then wait 33 days to be cleansed from her bleeding. She must not touch anything sacred or go to the Sacred Place until the days of her purification are finished.

Chapter 12

But if she genders a female girl then she will be unclean two weeks, as in her menstrual period, and for 66 days she will continue in the blood of purification.

And when the days of her purification are fulfilled, for a son or for a daughter she will bring a lamb of the first year for a Burnt-Offering. Also a young pigeon, or a turtledove for a Sin-Offering to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place to the priest there. He will offer it before YHWH and make Propitiatory-Covering for her and she will be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the Law for her that genders a male or female. And if she is not able to bring a lamb then she will bring two turtles or two young pigeons, the one for the whole Burnt-Offering and the other for a Sin-Offering, and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for her and she will be clean. YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron saying, when a man has on the skin of his flesh a swelling, a lesion or white patch of skin, and it has become in the skin of his flesh a leprous plague, then he will be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests. And the priest will look on the plague in the skin of the flesh and when the hair has turned white and the plague appears to be more than skin deep in the flesh then it is a plague of leprosy. The priest will then look on him and pronounce him unclean. If the blister is white in the skin of his flesh and in appearance is not deeper than the skin (and the hair is not turned white), then the priest will quarantine him that has the plague for seven days. And the priest will examine him the seventh day and if the plague appears to have held its spread, and the plague is not diffused in the skin, then the priest will quarantine him another seven days. Then the priest will look on him again the seventh day and if the plague is colorless, and the plague is not spread in the skin, then the priest will pronounce him clean. It is nothing but a scab and he will wash his clothes and be clean. But if the eruption spreads widely in the skin after he has been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he will be seen of the priest again and if the priest sees that the eruption is spread in the skin, then the priest will pronounce him unclean because that is leprosy. When the plague of leprosy is in a man then he will be brought to the priest and the priest will see him and if the swelling is white in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is tender living flesh in the swelling it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest will pronounce him unclean and will not quarantine him because he is unclean. If a leprosy breaks out and develops in the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of him that has the plague (from head to foot) wherever the priest can see, then the priest will consider and if the leprosy has covered all his flesh, he will pronounce him clean that has the plague. It is all turned white so he is clean. But when living flesh appears in him, he will be unclean. And the priest will see the raw flesh and pronounce him to be unclean because the raw flesh is unclean and it is a leprosy. Or if the living flesh turns again and is changed to white he will come to the priest and the priest will see him and if the plague is turned to white then the priest will pronounce him clean that has the plague and clean he will be.

Chapter 13

And when flesh has in it, in its skin, an ulcer, and it has been healed and there has been in the place of the ulcer a white swelling, or a bright white spot, very red, then it will be seen by the priest. And when the priest examines it, if the appearance is lower than the skin and the hair is turned white, then the priest will pronounce him unclean. It is a plague of leprosy that has broken out of the boil. But if the priest looks on it and there is no white hairs in it, and if it is not lower than the skin, but is colorless then the priest will quarantine him for seven days. But if its spread widely in the skin then the priest will pronounce him unclean because it is a plague. But if the white patch of skin has held its spread and has not developed, it is a scar from the inflammation and the priest will pronounce him clean. When anyone's flesh has in the skin a fiery burn and the burning wound becomes a blistered spot, reddish-white or white, then the priest will examine it and if the hair in the blistered spot is turned white and its appearance is deeper than the skin then it is a leprosy broken out of the burning and the priest will pronounce him unclean because it is the plague of leprosy. But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair in the blister and it is no lower than the other skin, but is colorless, then the priest will quarantine him for seven days. Then the priest will look on him the seventh day and if it has developed and spread in the skin, then the priest will pronounce him unclean because that is a plague of leprosy. But if the blister has not held its spread in the skin but it is colorless then it is a swelling from the burning and the priest will pronounce him clean because it is a scar of the burnt spot.

If a man or woman has a plague on the head or the beard then the priest will examine the plague and if its appearance is deeper than the skin and there is in it a yellow thin hair, then the priest will pronounce him unclean. It is a skin eruption of leprosy upon the head or beard. But if the priest examines the plague of the skin eruption and its appearance is not deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, then the priest will quarantine him that has the plague of the skin eruption for seven days. And on the seventh day the priest will examine the plague and if the skin eruption has not spread and there is in it no yellow hair, and the eruption is not in appearance deeper than the skin then he will be shaved, but the skin eruption will not be shaved and the priest will quarantine him that has the skin eruption for seven more days. And on the seventh day the priest will examine the skin eruption and if the eruption is not spread in the skin or is in appearance deeper than the skin, then the priest will pronounce him clean and he will wash his clothes, and clean he will be. But if the skin eruption spreads out in the skin after his cleansing, then the priest will look on him and if the skin eruption is developed in the skin, the priest will not look for yellow hair, he is unclean. But if the skin eruption's appearance is abated, and there is black hair grown up in it, the eruption is healed and he is clean and the priest will pronounce him as clean. If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh boils, even white patches of skin then the priest will examine and if the boils in the skin of their flesh are darkish white, it is a freckled spot that grows in the skin and he is clean.

And the man whose hair has fallen off his head is bald, but he is clean. He that has his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead bald but he is clean. But if there is in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white-reddish sore it is a leprosy breaking out in his bald head, or his bald forehead. Then the priest will examine it and if the swelling of the sore is white-reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appears in the skin of the flesh, a leprous man he is, being unclean. The priest will pronounce him unclean as the plague occurs in his head. Now as for the leper who has the plague, his clothes will be torn and his head's [hair] will be loose and he will put a covering over his beard. And unclean! unclean! shall he cry! All the days that the plague will be in him he will be defiled, he is unclean and he will live alone outside the camp. This is where his habitation will be. The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it is a woolen garment or a linen garment, whether it is a woven material, or knitted of linen, or of wool, whether a hide or anything made of hide. If the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the hide, either in the woven material or knitted, or in anything of hide then it is a plague of leprosy and will be shown to the priest. And the priest will examine the plague and quarantine the items for seven days. Then he will examine the plague on the seventh day and if the plague is spread in the garment, either in the woven material or knitted, or in a hide or in any work that is fashioned of hide the plague is an irritating leprosy and is unclean. He will therefore burn that garment, whether woven material or knitted in wool or linen, or anything of hide that is plagued, for it is an irritating leprosy and it will be burnt in the fire. If the priest will look and if the plague is not spread in the garment, either in the woven material or knitted or in anything of hide then the priest will command that they wash the items where the plague is, and he will quarantine it for seven more days. Then the priest will examine the plague after its been washed and if the plague has not changed its color, even if it has not spread then it is unclean and you will burn it in the fire. It is a leprous decay in the garment, in the back thereof or the front thereof. If the priest examines and if the plague is colorless after the washing of it; then he will tear it out of the garment, or out of the hide, or out of the woven material or knit. But if it still is seen in the garment, either in the woven material or knitted, or in anything of hide, then it is a spreading plague and you will burn with fire where the plague occurs. And the garment, either woven material or knitted, or whatever item of hide it is that you will wash, if the plague is departed from them it will be washed a second time and will be clean. This is the Law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of wool or linen, either in woven material or knitted, or anything of hides to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, this will be the Law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. He will be brought to the priest and the priest will go out of the camp and the priest will look if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper. Then the priest will command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop.

Chapter 14

And the priest will command that one of the birds be killed in a clay pottery receptacle over running water. As for the living bird, he will take it and the cedar wood, scarlet, and the hyssop, and will dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. Then he will sprinkle on him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and will pronounce him clean and will let the living bird loose into an open field.

And he that is to be cleansed will wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water that he may be clean and after that he will come into the camp but will remain outside, out of his tent for seven days. But it will be on the seventh day that he will shave all his hair off his head, beard and eyebrows, even all his hair he will shave off and he will wash his clothes. He will also wash his flesh in water and he will be clean. And on the eighth day he will take two he-lambs without blemish, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish, and six quarts of fine flour for a Gift-Offering, mingled with oil and 2/3 pint of oil. Then the priest that makes him clean will present the man that is to be cleansed and those things, before YHWH, at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And the priest will take one he-lamb, and offer him for a Guilt-Offering, and 2/3 pint of oil, and wave them for a Wave-Offering before YHWH. Then he will slaughter the lamb in the place where he will kill the Sin-Offering and whole Burnt-Offering in the Holy Place, for as the Sin-Offering is the priest's, so is the guilt-offering and it is Most Holy. And the priest will take some of the blood of the guilt-offering, and the priest will put it on the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. Then the priest will take some of the 2/3 pint of oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand, and the priest will dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and will sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before YHWH. The priest will put some of the oil remaining in his palm on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. This is where the blood of the guilt-offering had been applied. And the leftover of the oil that is in the priest's hand he will pour on the head of him that is to be cleansed and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him before YHWH. Then the priest will offer the Sin-Offering and make Propitiatory-Covering for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness and afterward he will slaughter the Burnt-Offering. And the priest will offer the Burnt-Offering and the Gift-Offering on the Altar and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him, and he will be clean. But if he is poor and cannot acquire much then he will take one lamb for a guilt-offering to be waved, to make Propitiatory-Covering for him, and two quarts of fine flour mingled with oil for a Gift-Offering and 2/3 pint of oil and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, such as he can acquire and the one will be a Sin-Offering and the other a Burnt-Offering. Then he will bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing to the priest, to the door of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place before YHWH. And the priest will take the lamb of the Guilt-Offering, and the 2/3 pint of oil and the priest will wave them for a Wave-Offering before YHWH and he will slaughter the lamb of the guilt-offering. Then the priest will take some of the blood of the Guilt-Offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. And the priest will pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand: and the priest will sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before YHWH. Then the priest will put of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. This is where the blood of the Guilt-Offering had been applied. And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he will put on the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make Propitiatory-Covering for him before YHWH.

And he will offer one of the turtledoves or of the young pigeons, such as he can acquire. He will offer what he can afford, the one for a Sin-Offering and the other for a whole Burnt-Offering with the Gift-Offering, and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him that is to be cleansed before YHWH. This is the Law of him who has the plague of leprosy whose hand is not able to afford what his cleansing requires. YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron saying, When you have come into the land of Canaan that I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house in the land of your possession. Then he that owns the house will come and tell the priest saying, it appears to me there is a plague in this house. The priest will therefore command that they empty the house before the priest goes into it to examine the plague so that all that are in the house are not made unclean, and afterward the priest will go in to see the house. He will examine the plague and if the plague is in the walls of the house with greenish or reddish spots, and if it appears to be deeper than the surface then the priest will go out of the house to the entrance of the house and quarantine the house for seven days. And the priest will return on the seventh day and will inspect, and if the plague is spread in the walls of the house then the priest will command that they remove the stones where the plague is, and they will cast them into an unclean place outside the city.

Then he will cause the house to be scraped inside throughout and they will pour out the dust that they scrape off outside the city into an unclean place. And they will acquire new stones and put them in the place of those old stones and he will take new mortar and will plaster the house. But if the plague comes again and breaks out in the house after he has taken away the stones and after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered. Then the priest will come and inspect and if the plague is spread in the house then it is an irritating leprosy in the house and is unclean. And he will break down the house with the stones and its timber, and all the mortar of the house, and he will carry it forth outside the city into an unclean place. And he that goes into the house all the while that it is quarantined will be unclean until sunset. He that rests in the house will wash his clothes and he that eats in the house will wash his clothes. And if the priest will come in and inspect the house and if the plague has not spread, after the house was newly plastered, then the priest will pronounce the house clean because the plague is healed. He will take to cleanse the house two birds, cedar wood, scarlet and hyssop and he will kill one of the birds in a clay pottery receptacle over running water. Then he will take the cedar wood, hyssop, scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the running water, and will sprinkle the house seven times. He will cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and with the running water, and with the living bird and with the cedar wood, hyssop and scarlet. But he will let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make Propitiatory-Covering for the house and it will be clean. This is the Law for all plagues of leprosy, skin eruptions, and for the leprosy of a garment and a house, and for a swelling, for a skin eruption, and for a white patch of skin. To teach when it is unclean and when it is clean, for this is the Law of leprosy. YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When any man has an oozing discharge out of his flesh, because of his discharge he is unclean. This will be his uncleanness in his discharge, whether his flesh flows with his discharge or his flesh is halted from the discharge, it is his uncleanness. Every bed where he rests that has the discharge is unclean and everything, where he sits will be unclean. And whoever touches his bed will wash his clothes and bath himself in water, and is unclean until sunset.

He that sits on anything where he sat that has the discharge will wash his clothes and bath himself in water, and is unclean until sunset. He that touches the flesh of him that has the discharge will wash his clothes and bath himself in water, and is unclean until sunset. And if he that has the discharge spit on him that is clean then he will wash his clothes and bath himself in water, and is unclean until sunset.

Chapter 15

Any saddle that the man with the discharge rides will be unclean and whoever touches anything that was under him will be unclean until sunset and he that picks up any of those things will wash his clothes and bath himself in water, and is unclean until sunset. And anyone he touches that has the discharge and has not rinsed his hands in water, he will wash his clothes and bath himself in water, and is unclean until sunset. The vessel of clay pottery that he touches that has the discharge will be broken and every implement of wood will be rinsed in water. When he that has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge then he will number off to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes and bath his flesh in running water and will be clean. Then on th e eighth d ay he will take two turtledove s or two yo ung pigeons, and come before YHWH to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and give them to the priest and the priest will offer them, the one for a Sin-Offering, and the other for a whole Burnt-Offering and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him before YHWH for his discharge. But if any man's semen from sexual relations goes out of him then he will wash all his flesh in water, and is unclean until sunset. Every garment and every hide where the semen from sexual relations is on will be washed with water, and is unclean until sunset. The woman that sleeps with a man and there is an emission of semen from sexual relations, both of them will bath in water and are unclean until sunset. If a woman has a period and the menstrual cycle in her flesh is bloody, she will be set apart for seven days, and whoever touches her will be unclean until sunset. And everything that she sleeps on in her separation will be unclean; everything that she sits on will be unclean also. Whoever touches her bed will wash their clothes and bath themselves in water, and are unclean until sunset.

Whoever touches anything that she sat on will wash their clothes and bath themselves in water, and are unclean until sunset. And whether on her bed it is or on anything that she has been sitting on, when anyone touches it they will be unclean until sunset. If any man sleeps with her at all, and her period comes in contact with him, he will be unclean for seven days and the bed where he sleeps will be unclean also. If a woman has a bloody discharge for many days, but not during the time of her period, or if it runs beyond the time of her period. Then all the days of the discharge from her uncleanness will be counted the same as the days of her normal period, and she will be unclean. Every bed that she rests in all the days of her discharge will be to her as the bed of her period, and whatever items she sits on will be unclean like the uncleanness from her menstrual cycle. Whoever touches those things will be unclean and will wash their clothes and bath themselves in water, and are unclean until sunset. But if she is cleansed from her discharge, then she will count to herself seven days, and after that she will be clean. And on the eighth day she will take two turtles or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. Then the priest will offer the one for a Sin-Offering, and the other for a whole Burnt-Offering and the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for her before YHWH for the discharge of her uncleanness.

So will you warn the Israelites about their uncleanness so that they will not die for their uncleanness by defiling my Tabernacle that is among them. This is the Law for those that have a discharge and of him whose semen goes out of him, and is then defiled by it. And of her that is unwell from her menstrual cycle and him that has a flow of semen as pertaining to men and women, and of him that sleeps with her that is unclean. YHWH spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron when they approached the presence of YHWH and died. YHWH spoke to Moses, Speak to Aaron your brother that he does not come at all times to the Holy Place within the veil before the Covering-Lid that is on the Ark (that he does not die) , for I will appear in the cloud-mass upon the Covering-Lid. Aaron will come into the Holy Place with a young bull for a Sin-Offering, and a ram for a whole Burnt-Offering.

Chapter 16

He will put on the Holy linen tunic and he will have the linen underwear on his flesh and will be secured with a linen girdle, and with the linen turban will he be attired. These are Holy garments; therefore he will wash his flesh in water and will put them on. He will take from the company of the children of Israel two he-goats from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and one ram for a whole Burnt-Offering. Then Aaron will present the young bull of the Sin-Offering that is for himself, and make Propitiatory-Covering for himself and for his house.

And he will take the two he-goats and present them before YHWH at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. Then Aaron will cast lots upon the two he-goats, one lot for YHWH and the other lot for Azazel (the goat of removal). And Aaron will bring the he-goat upon which YHWH's lot fell and offer him for a Sin-Offering. But the he-goat on which the lot fell that was Azazel (the goat of removal) will stand forth alive before YHWH to make Propitiatory-Covering, and to be cast out for a goat of removal into the uninhabited land. And Aaron will bring the young bull of the Sin-Offering, that is for himself and will make Propitiatory-Covering for himself and for his house, and will slaughter the young bull of the Sin-Offering that is for himself. He will take a fire-holder full of burning coals of fire from off the Altar before YHWH, and his hands full of thin spicy incense, and will enter the veiled House. Then he will put the incense upon the supernatural fire before YHWH, that the cloud of the incense may conceal the Covering-Lid that is on the Testimony so that he does not die. And he will take of the blood of the young bull and sprinkle it with his finger on the Covering-Lid eastward, and in front of the Covering-Lid he will sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times. Then he will slaughter the goat of the Sin-Offering that is for the people and bring its blood within the veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the young bull, and sprinkle it upon the Covering-Lid, and in front of the Covering-Lid. He will make Propitiatory-Covering for the Holy Place because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins and so he will do for the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, that settles down among them and between their uncleanness. And there will be no man in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place when he goes in to make Propitiatory-Covering in the Holy Place, until he comes out and has made Propitiatory-Covering for himself, his household, and for all the nation of Israel.

Then he will go out to the Altar that is before YHWH, and make Propitiatory-Covering for it and will take of the blood of the young bull, and of the blood of the he-goat, and put it upon the horns of the Altar all around. And he will sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times and cleanse it, and consecrate it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel. When Aaron has made an end of covering the Holy Place in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and the Altar, he will bring the live goat and Aaron will lay both hands on the head of the live goat. He will confess over Azazel all the depravity of the children of Israel and all their rebellions of all their sins, putting them upon the head of the he-goat (Azazel) and will send him away by the hand of a prepared man into the uninhabited land. And the he-goat will carry upon him all their depravities to a separate place and he will cast out the he-goat in the uninhabited land. Then Aaron will come into the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and will strip off the linen garments that he put on when he went into the Holy Place and will leave them there. And he will wash his body with water in the Holy Place and put on his garments and come out to offer his whole Burnt-Offering and the Burnt-Offering of the people and make Propitiatory-Covering for himself, and for the people. The fat of the Sin-Offering he will burn as sacrifice on the Altar. He that let go the goat for the removal will wash his clothes and bath his body in water, and afterward will come into the camp.

And the young bull for the Sin-Offering and the he-goat for the Sin-Offering, whose blood was brought in to make Propitiatory-Covering in the Holy Place, one will carry forth outside the camp and they will burn in the fire the skins of their flesh and their dung. He that burns them will wash his clothes and bath his body in water, and afterward he will come into the camp. And this will be a statute for the ages for you that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you will afflict yourselves [with fasting] and do no work at all, whether you are a native Israelite or a foreigner that dwells among you. For on that day will the priest make Propitiatory-Covering for you to cleanse you so that you may be clean from all your sins before YHWH. It will be a Sabbath of rest for you and you will afflict yourselves [with fasting] by a statute for the ages of time. And the priest who is anointed and who will be consecrated to act as High Priest in the priesthood (in succession of his dad) will make the Propitiatory-Covering and will put on the linen clothes, even those Holy garments. He will make Propitiatory-Covering for the Holy Place and he will make Propitiatory-Covering for the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and for the Altar, and he will make Propitiatory-Covering for the priests, and for all the people of the nation. This will be an Age-Lasting statute for you to make Propitiatory-Covering for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year. And he did as YHWH commanded Moses.

Chapter 17

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel saying to them, This is what YHWH has commanded saying, Any man from the House of Israe l who slaughters ox, lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who slaughters it outside of the camp, and does not bring it to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, to present an offering to YHWH before the Tabernacle of YHWH, blood will be imputed to that man, for he has spilled blood and that man will be cut off from among his people. To the end that the children of Israel may bring in their sacrifices that they are offering in the open field, that they may bring in to YHWH, to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place to the priest and slaughter them as Peace-Offerings to YHWH. Then the priest will sprinkle the blood on the Altar of YHWH at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and burn the fat for a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. And they will no more slaughter their sacrifices to evil-spirited goats, after which they have prostituted themselves. This will be a statute for the ages for them throughout their generations. You will say to them, Whatever man there is from the House of Israel or of the foreigners that lives among you, that offers a whole Burnt-Offering or sacrifice and does not bring it to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place to offer it to YHWH, even that man will be cut off from among his people. Also whoever there is of the House of Israel or of the foreigners that live among you that eats any of the blood, I will set My face against that person that eats blood and will cut them off from among the people. For all the life of flesh is in its blood and I have given it to you on the Altar to make Propitiatory-Covering for yourselves, for it is the blood that makes Propitiatory-Covering for the person. This is why I command the children of Israel, that none of you will eat blood, nor will any foreigner eat blood that lives among you. And whatever man there is of the children of Israel, or from the foreigners that live among you, that hunts and provisions for food any living thing or flying creature that may be eaten, he will pour out its blood and cover it with dry earth. For it is the life of all flesh, its blood is for its life and I say to the children of Israel, Do not eat the blood of any flesh, for all the life of flesh is in its blood and anyone eating it is cut off.

And every person who eats what has died by itself or what was torn by other animals, whether it is a native Israelite or a foreigner, he will both wash his clothes and bath himself in water, he is unclean until sunset and then he will be clean. But if he does not wash his clothing or bathe his body then he will bear his depravity. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, I am YHWH your Elohim. After the deeds of the land of Egypt where you have lived, you will not do, and after those deeds done in the land of Canaan where you are brought, you will not do, nor will you walk in their statutes. You will accomplish My judgments and observe My statutes to walk in them, I am YHWH your Elohim. You will observe My statutes and My judgments that if a man does, he will even live by them, I am YHWH.

Chapter 18

None of you will approach anyone from among your own relatives to expose their parts of shame, I am YHWH. The nudity of your father or mother, you will not expose, she is your mother, you will not expose her parts of shame. The nudity of your father's woman you will not expose because it is your father's nudity. The nudity of your sister, daughter of your father or daughter of your mother, born at home or born outside, you will not expose her parts of shame.

The nudity of your son's daughter, or of your daughter's daughter, their nudity you will not expose because their nakedness is your own. The nudity of your father's woman's daughter, born of your father, she is your sister, you will not expose her nudity. You will not expose the nudity of your father's sister, she is your father's blood relative. You will not expose the nudity of your mother's sister because she is your mother's blood relative. You will not expose the nudity of your father's brother, you will not approach his woman because she is your aunt. You will not expose the nudity of your daughter in law, she is your son's woman, you will not expose her parts of shame. You will not expose the nudity of your brother's woman, it is your brother's nudity. You will n ot expose the nudity of a woman and her daughter, neither will you take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to expose her parts of shame because they are her blood relations and that is wickedness. You must not take a woman who is your woman's sister, to make her a competing woman and expose her parts of shame during her lifetime.

Also you will not approach a woman to expose her parts of shame, as long as she is set apart for her uncleanness [concerning her monthly period]. Furthermore you will not have sexual relations with your neighbor's woman, to defile yourself with her. And you will not let any of your offspring pass through the fire to Molech, neither will you desecrate the Name of your Elohim, I am YHWH. You will not have homosexual or lesbian sexual relations because this is a disgusting thing to do. Neither will you copulate sexually with any animal to defile yourself, and neither will any woman stand before an animal to copulate sexually with it because this is a violation of nature. Defile not yourselves in any of these things because in all these things the nations are defiled that I cast out of your presence. And the land is defiled and I observe the depravity that is upon it, and the land itself vomits up her inhabitants. You will observe My statutes and My judgments and will not commit any of these disgusting things, not any native Israelite or any foreigner that resides among you. For all these disgusting things have the men of the land done that were before you, and the land is defiled. So will the land not vomit you out by making it unclean, as it vomited out the nations before you.

For whoever will commit any of these disgusting things, even those people that commit these things will be cut off from among their people. So now you will observe My charge that you do not commit any one of these detestable statutes that were committed before you, and that you defile not yourselves in them, I am YHWH your Elohim. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the entire company of the children of Israel and say to them, You will be Holy, for I, YHWH your Elohim am Holy. All of you will respect their mother and father and observe my Sabbaths, I am YHWH your Elohim. Do not turn to the worthless false elohim or fashion yourselves molten metal elohim, I am YHWH your Elohim. And if you slaughter a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings to YHWH, you will slaughter so that it will be accepted.

Chapter 19

It will be eaten the same day you sacrifice it and on the next day, but if any remains until the third day, it will be burnt in the fire. But if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is a foul thing and it will not be accepted. And if anyone will eat it he will bear his depravity because he has desecrated the sacred thing of YHWH, and that person will be cut off from among his people. And when you reap the harvest of your land, you will not completely reap the edges of your field, neither will you pick up the gleanings of your harvest.

Your vineyard will not be gone over again, nor will you gather every single grape but will leave them for the poor and the traveler, I am YHWH your Elohim. You will not steal or act deceptively and do not lie to one another. You will not adjure by my Name fraudulently, neither will you desecrate the Name of your Elohim, I am YHWH. You will not defraud another person or rob him, and do not withhold the wages of a hired man until sunrise. You will not curse the deaf or put a stumbling-block before the blind, but will respect Elohim, I am YHWH. Do not cause injustice, do not show partiality to the needy or favoritism to the mighty, but judge your neighbor equably. Do not go around spreading slander among your people and do not take sides against your neighbor over a capital charge, I am YHWH. You will not hate your brother in your heart, you will correct your relation and not incur the sin upon yourself. You will not take vengeance or will you harbor anger against the sons of your people, but you will love your neighbor as yourself, I am YHWH. You will observe my statutes.

You will not let your cattle gender by crossbreeding, and you will not sow your field with two kinds of seed. You will not put on a mixed garment of both linen and wool. And whoever has sexual relations with a woman that is a slave girl betrothed to a man, and not really ransomed, or freedom has not been given to her, an investigation will be conducted but they will not be put to death because she is not free. And he will bring his Guilt-Offering to YHWH, to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, even a ram for a Guilt-Offering. Then the priest will make Propitiatory-Covering for him with the ram of the Guilt-

Offering before YHWH for his sin that he has done, and the sin that he has done will be pardoned him. And when you will come into the land and will have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you will count the fruit as uncircumcised, three years will it be as uncircumcised to you, and it will not be eaten. But in the fourth year all its fruit will be sacred for praising YHWH with. In the fifth year you will eat of its fruit that it may yield to you its increase, I am YHWH your Elohim. You will not eat anything with the blood and you will not practice divination or conjure up spirits. You will not shave in a circle around your head and will not disfigure the fringe of your beard.

You will not make any cuttings in the flesh of your body, nor put tattoo marks on yourselves, I am YHWH. Do not defile your daughter by causing her to become a prostitute or the land will lapse into houses of ill repute, and the land becomes full of licentiousness. You will observe my Sabbaths, and reverence my Holy Place, I am YHWH. Do not turn to them that are necromancers or request the services of a soothsayer to be defiled by them; I am YHWH your Elohim. You will stand up in the presence of the gray-headed, and honor the presence of the old man and stand in awe of your Elohim, I am YHWH. And if a foreigner lives with you in your land, you will not maltreat him. But the foreigner that lives with you will be to you as one born among you, and you will love him as yourself because you were foreigners in the land of Egypt, I am YHWH your Elohim. You will not use dishonest standards when you measure length, weight or quantity, but just balances, just weights, a just ephah [dry measure] and a just hin [liquid measure] will you have, I am YHWH your Elohim that brought you out of the land of Egypt. You will observe all my statutes and all my judgments and institute them, I am YHWH.

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, And to the children of Israel you will say, Any man of the sons of Israel, and of the foreigners who are residing in Israel, who give of their offspring to Molech will certainly be put to death, the people of the land will stone him with stones. And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people because he has given of his offspring to Molech, to defile my Holy Place and to desecrate my Holy Name. But if the people of the land really hide their eyes from that man, in his giving of his offspring to Molech, so as not to put him to death then I will set my face against that man and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that commit fornication with him, to commit cult prostitution with Molech from among their people. And the person that turns after the necromancer and after soothsayers, to commit fornication with them, I will even set my face against that person and will cut him off from among his people. Consecrate yourselves therefore and be Holy, for I am YHWH your Elohim. And you will observe my statutes and institute them;

Chapter 20

I am YHWH that consecrates you. Because anyone that curses his dad or his mother will certainly be put to death, he has cursed his dad or his mother and his blood will be upon him. The man that commits adultery with another man's woman, the one that commits adultery with his neighbor's woman, the adulterer and the adulteress will certainly be put to death. The man that has sexual relations with his dad's woman has exposed his dad's nakedness, both of them will certainly be put to death; their blood will be upon them. If a man has sexual relations with his daughter in law, both of them will certainly be put to death, they have committed a violation in nature and their blood will be upon them. If a man has a homosexual relation, both of them have committed a disgusting thing, they will certainly be put to death and their blood will be upon them. If a man takes a woman and her mother, it is licentiousness, they will be burnt with fire, both he and the parties involved so that there is no licentiousness among you. If a man copulates with an animal, he will certainly be put to death and you will kill the animal. If a woman approaches any animal and copulates with it, you will kill the woman and the beast, they will certainly be put to death and their blood will be upon them. If a man will take his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, and they see and expose their nudity [in a sexual relation], it is a shameful thing. They will be cut off in the sight of their people, he has exposed his sister's nakedness and he will bear his depravity.

If a man will have a sexual relation with a woman having her period and will expose her nudity, he has exposed the source of her menstrual blood and she has exposed the source of it too. Both of them will be cut off from among their people. You will not expose the nudity of your mother's sister nor of your dad's sister, for he exposes his blood relation and they will bear their depravity. If a man has sexual relations with his uncle's woman, he has exposed his uncle's nudity, they will bear their sin and they will die childless. If a man will take his brother's woman, it is an unclean thing and he has exposed his brother's nudity, they will be childless. You will observe all my statutes and all my judgments, and institute them so that the land where I bring you to live does not vomit you out. You will not walk in the statutes of the people that I cast out before you, for they have committed all these things and I abhorred them. But I have said to you, You will inherit their land and I will give it to you to possess it, a land that flows with milk and honey. I am YHWH your Elohim that has separated you from other people. You will put difference between clean animals and unclean, between unclean flying creatures and clean, and you will not make yourselves defiled by animals, flying creature or by any creeping thing that creeps on the ground that I have separated from you as unclean. You will be Holy to me because I, YHWH, am Holy, and have severed you from other people so that you belong to me. A man also, or woman that is a necromancer or that is a soothsayer will certainly be put to death, they will stone them with stones and their blood will be upon them. YHWH spoke to Moses, Speak to the priests, those sons of Aaron and you will say to them, a priest will not be defiled for any person among his people. Except for his blood relations that are near to him, that is, for his mother and father, son, daughter, brother, and for his virgin sister that is near to him, he can be defiled (providing she has no husband). But he will not become unclean himself being a chief husband among his people, to desecrate himself.

Chapter 21

They will not shave their heads, nor shave off the fringes of their beard or make any cuttings [such as tattoos] in their flesh. They are Holy to their Elohim and they will not desecrate the Name of their Elohim for the Burnt-Offerings of YHWH, and the bread of their Elohim that they are bringing near and have been Holy. They will not take a woman that is a prostitute or has been penetrated neither will they take a woman that is divorced, for he is Holy to his Elohim. You will treat him as Holy for he presents the bread of your Elohim, he will be Holy to you because I am YHWH who consecrates them. And the daughter of any priest, if she desecrates herself by playing the prostitute, she desecrates her dad and she will be burnt with fire. And he who is the High Priest among his relatives, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, that is consecrated to put on the garments, will not bare his head or rip his clothes, neither will he go in to any dead body or become unclean himself for his dad or mother.

He will not go out of the Holy Place or desecrate the Tabernacle of his Elohim. The consecration of the anointing oil is upon him from his Elohim, I am YHWH. He will take a woman in her virginity. A widow, a divorced or penetrated woman, a prostitute, he will not take any of these ones, but he will take a virgin from his own people for his woman. He will not defile his offspring among his people because I am YHWH who consecrates him. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to Aaron saying, Whoever of your offspring in their generations that has any physical defect, do not let him approach to present the bread of his Elohim. For whatever man that has a physical defect will not approach, a blind or lame man, dwarfed, enlarged, or a man that has fractured hands or feet, hump-backed, thinly, or that has defective eyes, scabs or skin eruptions, or has his testicles crushed. No man tha t has a physical defect from the offspring of Aaron the priest will come near to present the Burnt-Offerings of YHWH made by fire, he has a physical defect and he will not come near to present the bread of his Elohim. He will eat the bread of his Elohim, both of the Most Holy and of the Holy.

Only he will not go in through the veil or come near to the Altar because he has a physical defect. This is so he does not desecrate my Holy Place because I am YHWH who consecrates them. And Moses told this to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to Aaron and to his sons, that they keep sacredly separate from the Holy things of the children of Israel, so as not to profane my Holy Name in those things that they consecrate to me, I am YHWH. Say to them, Anyone who is unclean from among your offspring, of all your generations that approaches the Holy things that the children of Israel consecrate to YHWH, that person will be cut off from My presence, I am YHWH. Whatever man from Aaron's offspring who is a leper or has a dripping discharge, he will not eat of the Holy things until he is clean. And whoever touches anything that is unclean from a dead corpse, or a man, whose semen goes out from him, or a man who comes in contact with any swarming thing that is unclean to him, or comes in contact with a man who is unclean to him from his uncleanness. The person that has touched any of these will be unclean until sunset, and will not eat of the Holy things, unless he washes his flesh with water. But when the sun goes down he will be clean and will eat of the Holy things because it is his food.

Chapter 22

And whatever dies of itself or is ripped by animals, he will not eat of it because that will defile him if he does, I am YHWH. They will observe my charge or bear the sin and die if they profane this obligation, I am YHWH who consecrates them. No foreigner will eat of the Holy thing, a foreigner of the priest or a hired laborer will not eat of the Holy thing. But if the priest acquires any person with his money, he will eat of it and he that is born in his house, they will eat of his food too. If the priest's daughter also is married to a foreigner, she may not eat of the Heave-Offering of the Holy things. But if the priest's daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no children but is returned to her dad's house, as in her youthful past, she will eat of her dad's food but no foreigner will eat of it. If a man eats of the Holy things by mistake, then he will add 1/5th part to it, and will give it to the priest with the Holy thing. And they w ill not defile the Holy things of the children of Israel that they offer to YHWH or cause them to bear the depravity of the Guilt-Offering in their eating the Holy things, I am YHWH who consecrates them. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them, If any of you, whether an Israelite or a foreigner living in Israel presents a gift for a whole Burnt-Offering to YHWH, either to fulfill a pledge or as a Freewill-Offering. Then you will present of your own self-will a male without blemish from the herd, of the sheep or of the goats. But whatever has a blemish, that you will not present, because it will not be acceptable for you. And when a man presents a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings to YHWH, to complete a pledge, or for a Freewill-Offering, of the herd or of the flock, it will be perfectly wholesome for a pleasing thing, no blemish is in it. Blind, broken, maimed, ulcerated, scab or having skin eruptions you will not present to YHWH of these, nor make a Burnt-Offering by fire of them upon the Altar to YHWH. As for an ox or a sheep that is enlarged or dwarfed, a Freewill-Offering you can make, but for a pledge it is not to be accepted. You will not present to YHWH what is bruised, crushed, broken or cut, neither will you make any offering of them in your land. From a foreigner's hand you will not present the bread of your Elohim because their corruption is in them and blemishes also, they will not be accepted for you. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, When a bull, sheep, or a female goat is gendered, then it will be seven days nursed by its mother and from the eighth day forward it will be accepted as a Burnt-Offering made by fire to YHWH. But if it is an ox or sheep you will not slaughter it and her young both on the same day.

And when you slaughter a sacrifice of Thank-Offering to YHWH, kill it of your own self-will, but on the same day it will be eaten up, you will leave none of it until sunrise, I am YHWH. Now you will observe my commandments and institute them, I am YHWH. You will not desecrate my Holy Name but I will be consecrated among the children of Israel because I am YHWH that consecrates you, that brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your Elohim, I am YHWH. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, The Appointed Place of YHWH is commissioned for sacred assembly and for my appointed seasons. For six days your work will be done but the seventh day is the Sabbath of rest, a sacred assembly, you will not do any work on that day because it is the Sabbath of YHWH in all your dwellings. These are the appointed seasonal festivals of YHWH, even sacred assemblies that you will commission for the Appointed Place. The 14th day of the 1st month at sunset is YHWH's PASSOVER.

Chapter 23

The 15th day of the same month is the FESTIVAL OF UNLEAVENED BREAD to YHWH, seven days you must eat unleavened bread. The first day you will hold a sacred assembly, you will not do your business or labor on those days. But you will present a Burnt-Offering made by fire to YHWH for seven days, on the seventh day will be a sacred assembly, you will not do your business or labor on that day.

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you have come into the land that I give you and will reap its harvest, then you will bring a sheaf [a dry measure of 1/10th ephah] from the first-fruits of your harvest to the priest. And he will waive the Sheaf before YHWH to be accepted for you. The day following the Sabbath is when the priest will wave it. You will offer that day when you wave the Sheaf, a male lamb without blemish of the first year for a whole Burnt-Offering to YHWH. The Gift-Offering will be two quarts of fine flour mingled with oil, a Burnt-Offering made by fire to YHWH for a tranquilizing aroma, and the Drink-Offering will be one quart of wine. And you will eat neither bread, parched corn nor fruits until the very same day that you have brought an offering to your Elohim, this will be a statute for the ages for your generations in all your dwellings. Then you will count from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the Sheaf of the Wave-Offering, count and calculate off seven full weeks. Deduct 50 days up to the day after the seventh Sabbath, and then present a new offering to YHWH. Out of your dwellings you bring in the bread of a Wave-Offering, two loaves made from 2/10th of an ephah of fine flour (with yeast)

they are baked, and are first-fruits to YHWH. You will p resent with the bread, seven lambs without blemish of the first year and one young bull, and two rams there will be for a whole Burnt-Offering to YHWH, with their Gift-Offering and their Drink-Offerings, even a Burnt-Offering made by fire, of tranquilizing aroma to YHWH. Then you will sacrifice one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings. And the priest will wave them with the bread of the first-fruits for a Wave-Offering before YHWH (with the two lambs) and they will be Holy to YHWH for the priest. And you will commission on the very same day that it will be a sacred assembly for you, no business or labor will be conducted by you, and this will be a statute for the ages in all your dwellings throughout your generations. And when you reap the harvest of your land, you will not completely reap the edges of your field when you harvest, neither will you gather any gleanings of your harvest but you will leave them for the poor and the foreigner, I am YHWH your Elohim. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month you will have a Sabbath, a Memorial of the BLOWING OF TRUMPETS, a sacred assembly. You will do no business or labor but you will present an offering made by fire to YHWH. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Now exactly on the tenth day of this seventh month is the DAY OF PROPITIATION [the Sin-Covering], a sacred assembly this will be for you and you will fast [deny yourself food] and will present a Burnt-Offering to YHWH.

And you will do no business or labor on that day; it is a DAY OF PROPITIATION [the Sin-Covering], to make Propitiatory-Covering for you before YHWH your Elohim. For whatever person that will not be weakened with fasting in that day, he will be cut off from among his people. And whoever does any work in that day, that same person will I exterminate from among his people. You will do no business or labor, this will be a statute for the ages throughout your generations, in all your dwellings. It will be to you a Sabbath of rest, and you will weaken yourselves with fasting on the ninth day of the month at sunset, from sunset to sunset you will rest during your Sabbath. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel saying, The 15th day of this seventh month will be the FESTIVAL OF TABERNACLES, for seven days to YHWH. On the first day will be a sacred assembly and you will do no business or labor on that day. For seven days you will present a Burnt-Offering made by fire unto YHWH and on the EIGHTH DAY will be a sacred assembly for you and you will present a Burnt-Offering made by fire unto YHWH. This is a time of restriction and you will do no business or labor on that day.

These are the appoin ted season s of YHWH that you will commission as sacred assemblies, to present an offering made by fire to YHWH, a Burnt-Offering, Gift-Offering, a sacrifice [Thank-Offering], and Drink-Offerings, everything at these times, besides the Sabbaths of YHWH, and in addition to your gifts, pledges, and all your Freewill-Offerings that you give to YHWH. Also on the 15th day of the seventh month when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you will observe a FESTIVAL-GATHERING to YHWH for seven days, the first day will be a Sabbath, and the eighth day will be a Sabbath. And you will take to yourselves on the first day the fruits from the good trees, branches of palm trees, and the branches with foliage, and willows from the rivers, and you will rejoice before YHWH your Elohim seven days. You will hold a festival to YHWH for seven days every year. It will be a statute for the ages in your generations, you will celebrate and make a pilgrimage in the seventh month. You will camp in temporary shelters for seven days, all which are native born Israelites will camp in foliage type shelters. That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to camp in temporary shelters when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I am YHWH your Elohim.

Moses commanded to the children of Israel all these appointed seasons of YHWH.

Chapter 24

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure oil of olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to ascend continually. Outside the veil of the Testimony in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place Aaron will handle it from sunset to sunrise before YHWH continually; it will be a statute for the ages in your generations. He will prepare the candles on the pure lamp stand in the presence of YHWH continually. You will take fine flour and bake twelve cakes using four quarts per cake. Then you will set them in two rows, six to a row upon the pure table before YHWH. You will put pure frankincense on each row, that it may be on the bread for a Memorial-Offering, a Burnt-Offering made by fire unto YHWH. On each Sabbath day he arranges it before YHWH continually, from the children of Israel for a Covenant that is Age-Lasting. It will be Aaron's and his sons' and they will eat it in the Holy Place, its Most Holy for him concerning the Burnt-Offerings that are made by fire, and will be for YHWH as an Age-Lasting statute.

And the son of an Israelite woman whose dad was an Egyptian went out among the children of Israel, and this son of the Israelite woman and a man of Israel fought with each other in the camp. And the Israelites woman's son cursed the Name of YHWH but made it out to be a small affair. And they brought him to Moses and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan. And they put him in jail until the mind of YHWH might be made clear to them. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Bring him forward that has cursed outside the camp, and let all that heard him lay their hands on his head, and let all the gathering stone him. You will speak to the children of Israel saying, Whoever curses his Elohim, will bear his sin. And he that curses the Name of YHWH will certainly be put to death, and all the company will certainly stone him, whether a foreigner or native born, when he curses the Name of YHWH he will be put to death. He that slays any man will certainly be put to death. He that slays a living being will make restitution, living being for living being. And if a man causes a disfigurement in his neighbor, as he has done so let the same be done to him. Fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, as he has caused a disfigurement in a man so it will be done to him, repeating to him exactly the same as he has done.

He that slaughters an animal will make compensation but he who slays a man is put to death. You will have one Court of Law, whether for a foreigner or one native born because I am YHWH your Elohim. Moses spoke to the children of Israel that they should bring him out that had taken lightly his cursing and stone him outside the camp with stones. And the children of Israel did as YHWH commanded Moses.

Chapter 25

YHWH spoke to Moses in Mount Sinai saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land that I give you, then the land will keep a Sabbath to YHWH. For six years you will sow your field, and for six years you will prune your vineyard, and gather in its produce. And in the seventh year a Sabbath of rest is for the land, a Sabbath to YHWH, your field you will not sow and your vineyard you will not prune. What grows of itself of your harvest you will not reap, and the grapes of your untrimmed vines you will not cut off, a SABBATICAL YEAR of rest there will be for the land. And the Sabbath of the land will provide food for yourself and for your slave and your female slave, and the hired laborer and the foreigner that resides with you, and for your cattle, and all the living things that are in your land, this is all your increase for food. You will count seven Sabbaths of years to yourself, seven times seven years, and the period of seven Sabbaths of years will equal for you 49 years. Then you will sound the ram's horn of the Jubilee on the tenth day of the seventh month, on the day of Propitiatory-Covering will you make the ram's horn resound throughout all your land. And you will consecrate the 50th year and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants, it will be a Jubilee for you and you will return every man to his own property, and you will return every man to his family. A Jubilee occurs on the 50th year for you, you will not sow or reap what self-generates, nor gather the grapes in it of your untrimmed vines. For its the Jubilee! and it will be Holy to you; you will eat the produce directly out of the field itself. In the year of this Jubilee you will return every man to his own property. And if you sell something to your neighbor, or buy something from your neighbor's hand, you will not maltreat one another. You must pay your neighbor according to the number of years since the Jubilee, and he in turn must sell to you according to the remaining amount of annual produce. If the years are many you will increase the price, and if the years are fewer then you will decrease the price, for it is the amount of produce that he is selling to you.

You will not maltreat one another but you will respect your Elohim because I am YHWH your Elohim. You will institute my statutes and observe my judgments and do them and you will live in the land in security. Then the land will yield its produce and you will eat your fill, and live in security. And if you will ask how can we eat in the seventh year if we do not sow or harvest our produce? Then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year and it will yield produce for three years. And you have sown the eighth year, and have eaten of the old increase until the ninth year, until the coming in of its produce you will consume the old. The land will not be sold permanently, for the land is mine because you are temporary inhabitants and visitors with me. And in every land of your possession you will constitute a right of redemption for the land. If your brother has grown poor and has sold away some of his property, and if any of his family kin comes to redeem it, then he will redeem what his brother sold. And if the man has no kin to redeem it, and himself is able to redeem it then he must reckon the years since the purchase and repay the purchaser the balance up through the Jubilee, so that he may return to his property.

But if he is not able to acquire it, then what is sold will remain the property of the buyer until the year of Jubilee, and in the Jubilee it will be returned to him, and he will return to his property. And if a man sells a resident house within a walled city, he retains the right to redeem it up to a full year after its sale. And if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city will change hands permanently to him that bought it unto his generations. It will not go out in the Jubilee. But the houses of the villages that have no walls around them will be counted as the fields of the country, they may be redeemed and they will be released in the Jubilee. Nevertheless, the cities of the Levites and the houses in the cities of their property, may the Levites redeem at any time. And if a man purchase from the Levites, then the house that was sold and the city of his property will be released in the year of Jubilee, for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their property among the children of Israel. But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold because it is their Age-Lasting real estate. And if your brother has grown poor, and his hands have become feeble with you, then you will strengthen him even if he is a temporary inhabitant, or one who lodges, that he may live with you. Take for yourself no interest from him or increase, but respect your Elohim that your brother may live with you.

You will not give him your money on interest or lend him your food for a profit. I am YHWH your Elohim, that brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your Elohim. And if your brother that lives near you has grown poor and is sold to you, you will not compel him to serve as a slave but as a hired laborer and as a temporary resident, he will be with you and will serve you until the year of Jubilee. And then he will leave you, both he and his children with him, and will return to his own family, to the property of his forefathers he will return. Because they are my slaves that I brought out of the land of Egypt and they will not be sold as slaves. You will not rule over him with severity but will respect your Elohim. Both your male and female slaves that you will own will be from the nations surrounding you and from them you will acquire male and female slaves. In addition, you may acquire some of the temporary residents dwelling among you and members of their families born in your land, and they will become your property. You will take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them as property, they will be your slaves for the ages, but over your brethren the children of Israel, you will not rule over one another with severity. And if a temporary resident or foreigner attains riches by you and your brother that lives by him grows poor and sells himself to the foreigner or the temporary residents near you, or to the offspring of the foreigner's family, then after he is sold he may be redeemed again, one of his relatives may redeem him.

Either his uncle or his uncle's son may redeem him, or any that are near of kin to him from his family may redeem him, or if he is able, he may redeem himself. He must count with his purchaser from the year he became property to the next year of Jubilee, and the payment to be redeemed will be in proportion to the number of years, based on the balance of the hired laborer's wages. If there are still many years left until the Jubilee; he must pay to be redeemed by a proportionate sum of the amount by which he sold himself. And if there remain only a few years until the year of Jubilee, then he will count with him, and according to his remaining years he will pay back his price to be redeemed. He will hold the position of a hired laborer from year to year and you must make sure that his owner does not rule over him with severity. And if he is not redeemed in these years, then he and his children will go out in the year of Jubilee. But to me the children of Israel are slaves, they are my slaves who I brought out of the land of Egypt, I am YHWH your Elohim. You will not fashion yourselves worthless idols, neither raise up a pillar, nor will you set up any figure of stone in your land, to bow down to it, because I am YHWH your Elohim.

Chapter 26

You will observe my Sabbaths and reverence my Holy Place, I am YHWH.

If you walk in my statutes and observe my commandments and institute them, I will then give you rain in due season and the land will yield its produce and the trees of the field will yield their fruit. And your threshing will overtake your vintage, and the vintage will overtake the sowing time, and you will eat your bread to the full and live in your land in security. And I will give peace in the land and you will lie down, and none will make you afraid, and I will rid injurious living things out of the land, neither will the sword go through your land. You will chase your enemies and they will fall before you by the sword. And five of you will chase 100, and 100 of you will put 10,000 to flight, and your enemies will fall before you by the sword. Because I will turn to you and make you branch off, becoming numerous, and will establish my Covenant with you. You will eat the old storage of your food (and bring out the old food) to make room for the new food coming in. I will set my Tabernacle into your lives and will not be vilely cast away. I will walk among you and will be your Elohim, and you will be my people.

I am YHWH your Elohim that brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves, and I have broken your oppressive yoke and made you walk upright. But if you will not listen to me, and will not institute all these commandments, and if you will despise my statutes, or if your minds abhor my judgments, so that you will not do all my commandments, but that you break my Covenant-Pledge. I will also do this to you, I will even punish you with dismay, wasting disease and fever that will consume the eyes, it will pine away your life and you will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it. Then I will set my face against you and you will be slain before your enemies, they that hate you will reign over you, and you will flee when no one chases you. And by these things if you will not listen to me then I will further discipline you seven times for your sins. Then I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your skies as iron, and your land as brass. Your strength will be spent in vain, because your land will not yield its produce; neither will the trees of the land yield their fruits. And if you walk contrary to me, and will not listen to me, I will bring seven times more scourging on you according to your sins.

I will also send wild living things among you that will bereave you of your children and destroy your cattle, and reduce your numbers and your highways will be desolate. And if you will not be corrected by me through these things, but will walk contrary to me, then I will also walk contrary to you and will punish you seven times more for your sins. And I will bring a sword on you that will inflict the covenanted avenging, and when you are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you and you will be delivered into the hand of the enemy. Then when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven, and they will ration to you your bread again by weight, and you will eat and not be satisfied. And if you will not listen to me, even after all these things, but walk contrary to me, then I will walk contrary to you in anger also, and I will discipline you seven times for your sins. You will eat the flesh of your sons and daughters. I will destroy your high places [cultic platforms], and cut down your sun-pillars, and cast your corpses upon the monuments of your idols, and my very person will abhor you. I have made your cities a waste, and have made desolate your Holy Place, and I do not smell your tranquilizing aromas. And I will bring the land into desolation and your enemies that reside there will be stunned by it. I will scatter you among the nations, and will draw out a sword after you:

and your land will be desolate and your cities laid waste. Then the land will enjoy her Sabbaths as long as it lies desolate while you are in your enemies' land, then the land will rest and enjoy her Sabbaths. As long as it lies desolate it will rest, because it did not rest on your Sabbaths when you lived on it. And those who are left of you, I have also brought a weakness into their heart in the lands of their enemies. And the sound of a leaf driven away has chased them and they have fled, as the flight from a sword they have fallen but there is none pursuing And they have stumbled one on another, as from the face of a sword, and there is none pursuing, and you have no standing before your enemies. You will perish among the nations and the land of your enemies will eat you up. And those who are left of you will consume away in their depravity in the lands of your enemies and also in the depravities of their forefathers, with them they will consume away. And if they confess their depravity, and the depravities of their forefathers, in their trespass that they have trespassed against Me, and also in walking contrary to me, and I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies. If then, their uncircumcised hearts are humbled and they then accept the punishment of their depravity, then I will remember my Covenant with Jacob, my Covenant with Isaac, and my Covenant with Abraham.

I will recall and then I will remember the land. And the land is set free of them, and enjoys its Sabbaths while it lies desolate without them, they will pay the full penalty because they have rejected my judgments and my statutes, these have they loathed. And still for all of this, when they are in the land of their enemies I have not rejected them, nor have I loathed them, to consume them, to break my Covenant with them, for I am YHWH their Elohim. Then I have remembered for them the Covenant of their ancestors whom I brought out of the land of Egypt, and before the eyes of the nations to become their Elohim, I am YHWH. These are the statutes and judgments and Laws, that YHWH made between Himself and the children of Israel in Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, when a man makes a wonderful vow, by your valuation the person is YHWH's. And your valuation will be of the male from 20 years old to 60 years old, your valuation will be 50 shekels of silver [1 1/4 lb.], after the shekel of the sanctuary. If it is a female, then your valuation will be 30 shekels [12 ounces]. If the person is from five years old to 20 years old, then your valuation will be for the male 20 shekels [8 ounces], and for the female ten shekels [4 ounces].

Chapter 27

If the person is from a month old even to five years old, then your valuation will be for the male five shekels of silver [2 ounces], and for the female your valuation will be three shekels [1 1/4ounces] of silver. If the person is from 60 years old and above; if he is a male, then your valuation will be 15 shekels [6 ounces], and for the female ten shekels [4 ounces]. But if he is poorer than your valuation, then he will present himself before the priest, and the priest will value him according to the ability of him that vowed will the priest value him. And if it is an animal that they bring near as an offering to YHWH, all of it that one gives to YHWH is sacred. He will not alter or change it, a good one for a bad one, or a bad one for a good one, but if he decides to substitute one animal for another, both the animal and its substitute become sacred. And if it is an unclean animal, such as may not be offered to YHWH, then he will present the animal before the priest. Then the priest will value it, whether good or bad, according to your valuation, O priest, so it is. But if he will at all redeem it, then he will add 1/5th part to your valuation. When a man will consecrate his house to be Holy to YHWH, then the priest will value it, whether it be good or bad, as the priest will value it, so will it stand. And if he that consecrated it will redeem his house, then he will add the 1/5th part of the money of your valuation to it, and it will be his.

If a man will consecrate to YHWH some part of a field from his property, then your valuation will be according to the quantity of seed it can carry, at the rate of 50 shekels of silver for a homer of barley seed [about six bushels]. If he consecrates his field from the year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it will stand. But if he consecrates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest will calculate to him the money

according to the years that remain, even to the year of the Jubilee, and it will be deducted from your valuation. If the man who consecrates the field wishes to redeem it, he must add 1/5th to its value, and the field will become his again. But if he will not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it will not be redeemed anymore. When the field reverts in the Jubilee, it will become sacred, like a field dedicated to YHWH; it will become the priest's property. If a man consecrates to YHWH a field that he has bought, that is not from the fields from his own property, then the priest will calculate for him the worth of your valuation, even to the year of the Jubilee, and he will give your valuation in that day, as a sacred thing to YHWH. In the year of the Jubilee the field returns to him from whom he purchased it, to him whose property it was. All your valuations will be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: 20 gerahs [a gerah being 16 barley grains] will be the shekel.

Only the firstborn from the animals, those are YHWH's firstborn, no man will consecrate those whether it is an ox or sheep, because it is YHWH's. And if among the unclean animals he has redeemed it at your valuation, and he has added 1/5th to it, and if it is not redeemed, then it has been sold at your valuation. Nevertheless no dedicated thing that a man will dedicate to YHWH from all that he has, both of man and animal and of the field of his property will be sold or redeemed, every dedicated thing is Most Sacred to YHWH. As touching anyone dedicated who may be dedicated from among men, he will not be redeemed, and he must certainly be put to death. And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit from the tree is YHWH's, because it is Sacred to YHWH. If a man will at all redeem any from his tithes, he will add to it 1/5th part. And concerning the tithe of the herd or of the flock, even from whatever passes under the Scepter, the tenth will be sacred to YHWH. He will not inquire whether it is good or bad, neither will he exchange it: and if he will exchange it at all, then both it and the substitution of it will be Sacred and it will not be redeemed. These are the commandments that YHWH charged Moses for the children of Israel in Mount Sinai.

Numbers

Chapter 1

YHWH spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt saying, Take a census of all the company of the children of Israel by their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage, registering every male head from 20 years old and up from all that are able to go to war in Israel, you and Aaron will register them for an organized army. And with you there will be a man from every tribe, each one head of his father's ancestral house. These are the names of the men that will stand with you from the tribe of REUBEN; Elizur the son of Shedeur. Of SIMEON; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. Of JUDAH; Nahshon the son of Amminadab. Of ISSACHAR; Nethaneel the son of Zuar. Of ZEBULUN; Eliab the son of Helon. Of the children of Joseph: of EPHRAIM; Elishama the son of Ammihud: of MANASSEH; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

Of BENJAMIN; Abidan the son of Gideoni. Of DAN; Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. Of ASHER; Pagiel the son of Ocran. Of GAD; Eliasaph the son of Deuel. Of NAPHTALI; Ahira the son of Enan. These were the commissioned of the army, commanders of the tribes of their fathers, chiefs of thousands in Israel. Then Moses and Aaron took these men that are designated by their names and they assembled the entire army together on the first day of the second month, and they registered their pedigrees after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage, from 20 years old and higher according to this headcount. As YHWH commanded Moses so he registered them in the Desert of Sinai. And the children of Reuben, Israel's elder son, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war.

Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Reuben were 46,500. Of the children of Simeon, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war. Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Simeon were 59,300. Of the children of Gad, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war. Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Gad were 45,650. Of the children of Judah, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war. Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Judah were 74,600. Of the children of Issachar, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war. Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Issachar were 54,400. Of the children of Zebulun, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war. Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Zebulun were 57,400. Of the children of Joseph, namely of the children of Ephraim, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war.

Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Ephraim were 40,500. Of the children of Manasseh, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war. Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Manasseh were 32,200. Of the children of Benjamin, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war. Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Benjamin were 35,400. Of the children of Dan, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war. Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Dan were 62,700. Of the children of Asher, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war. Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Asher were 41,500. Of the children of Naphtali, by their genealogies and after their families, according to the house of their fathers' lineage by this headcount, every male from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war.

Those that were numbered of them of the tribe of Naphtali were 53,400. These are the ones that were numbered that Moses and Aaron appointed, and the commanders of Israel were twelve men, each one represented the house of his fathers. So all those that were registered from the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from 20 years old and up, all that were able to go to war in Israel, even all that were registered totaled 603,550. But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not registered among them. For YHWH had spoken to Moses saying, You will not register the tribe of Levi or take the total of them from among the children of Israel. But you will appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of Testimony and over all its vessels, and over all things that belong to it, they will bear the Tabernacle and all its vessels and they will service it, and will encamp surrounding the Tabernacle. And when the Tabernacle is to be pulled up, the Levites will take it down and when the Tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites will set it up and the foreigner that approaches it will be executed. And the children of Israel will pitch their tents, every man by his own tribal camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts. But the Levites will surround the Tabernacle of Testimony, so that there is no anger of Elohim upon the company of the Israelites, and the Levites will guard the functions of the Tabernacle of Testimony. The children of Israel instituted all that YHWH commanded Moses, accomplishing it all. YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron saying, Every man from the children of Israel will encamp by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house, at a distance surrounding the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place they will encamp.

And those encamping eastward towards the point of sunrise are of the standard of the tribe of Judah, by their hosts and the commander of the sons of Judah is Nahshon, son of Amminadab. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 74,600. Those that encamp next to him will be the tribe of Issachar, and Nethaneel the son of Zuar will be commander for the children of Issachar.

Chapter 2

And his army, and those that were registered with them were 54,400. Then the tribe of Zebulun, and Eliab the son of Helon will be commander of the children of Zebulun. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 57,400. All that were registered in the camp of Judah were 186,400, throughout their armies. These are the first to march out. On the South side will be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies, and the commander for the children of Reuben will be Elizur the son of Shedeur. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 46,500. And those that encamp by him will be the tribe of Simeon, and the commander of the children of Simeon will be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 59,300.

Then the tribe of Gad, and the commander of the sons of Gad will be Eliasaph the son of Reuel. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 45,650. All that were registered in the camp of Reuben were 151,450, throughout their armies and they will march in the second rank. Then the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, with the camp of the Levites will march out from the center of the camps. They will march out in the same order as they encamp, each at his station by their standards. On the West side will be the standard of the tribe of Ephraim according to their armies, and the commander of the sons of Ephraim will be Elishama the son of Ammihud. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 40,500. And by him will be the tribe of Manasseh, and the commander of the sons of Manasseh will be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 32,200. The tribe of Benjamin and the commander of the sons of Benjamin will be Abidan the son of Gideoni. And his army and those that were registered with them were 35,400. All that were registered from the camp of Ephraim were 108,100, throughout their armies.

And they will march forward in the third rank. The standard for the camp of Dan will be on the North side by their armies: and the commander of the sons of Dan will be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 62,700. And those that encamp by him will be the tribe of Asher, and the commander for the sons of Asher will be Pagiel the son of Ocran. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 41,500. Then the tribe of Naphtali, and the commander for the sons of Naphtali will be Ahira the son of Enan. And his army, and those that were registered with them were 53,400. All they that were registered in the camp of Dan were 157,600. They will march in the rear with their standards. These are the ones that were registered from the sons of Israel by the house of their fathers, all those that were registered from the camps throughout their hosts were 603,550. But the Levites were not registered among the sons of Israel as YHWH commanded Moses. And the children of Israel accomplished all that YHWH commanded Moses, so they encamped by their standards and pulled up camp, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers. These also are the genealogies of Aaron and Moses in the day that YHWH spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai. And these are the names of the sons of Aaron;

Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests that were anointed, whom he consecrated to act as priests in the priesthood. But Nadab and Abihu died in the presence of YHWH, when they approached with strange fire before YHWH, in the Desert of Sinai. They also had no children so Eleazar and Ithamar served in the priesthood in the sight of Aaron their dad. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Bring the tribe of Levi near, and you will cause them to stand before Aaron the priest, that they may wait upon him. And they will observe his charge, and the charge of the whole nation before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, to perform the service of the Tabernacle. They will guard all the articles of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and the obligation of the children of Israel to do the service of the Tabernacle.

Chapter 3

And you will give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons, they are consecrated for him out of the children of Israel. You will appoint Aaron and his sons, and they will keep watch over the priesthood, and the foreigner that approaches will be executed.

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that opens the womb among the children of Israel, therefore the Levites will be mine. Because all the firstborn are mine, and on the day that I killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I consecrated unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and animal and they will be mine, I am YHWH. YHWH spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai saying, Register the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families, every male from a month old and higher you will register. And Moses registered them according to the Word of YHWH, as he was commanded. These were the sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. These are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families; Libni, and Shimei. The sons of Kohath by their families; Amram, Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel. The sons of Merari by their families; Mahli, and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers. Of Gershon is the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites. Those that were registered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and higher, those that were registered of them were 7,500.

The families of the Gershonites will encamp behind the Tabernacle westward. And the chief of a father's house for the Gershonite is Eliasaph son of Lael. The responsibilities for the sons of Gershon in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place will be the Tabernacle, tent, coverings, and the covering screen for the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And the curtains of the court, and the covering for the entrance of the court that is by the Tabernacle, and by the Altar all around, and the cords of it for all its service. And of Kohath were the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izeharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites. In the number of all the males from a month old and higher were 8,600, keeping the charge of the Holy Place. The families of the sons of Kohath will encamp on the South side of the Tabernacle. The chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites will be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. And their charge is the Ark, table, candlestick, Altars, and the vessels of the Holy Place with which they serve, and the veil and all its service.

And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest will be chief r over the leaders of the Levites, and will have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the Holy Place. Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari. And those that were registered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and higher were 6,200. And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail: these will encamp on the North side of the Tabernacle. And under the custody and charge of the sons of Merari will be the boards of the Tabernacle, bars, pillars, sockets, and all its vessels, and all the items of service pertaining to it. And the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs and cords. And those encamping before the Tabernacle eastward, before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, to the East, are Moses, Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the Holy Place for the obligation of the sons of Israel, and the foreigner who approaches is executed. All that were registered of the Levites that Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of YHWH, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and higher were 22,000. YHWH spoke to Moses, Number all the firstborn from the males of the children of Israel from a month old and higher, and take the tally of their names.

The Levites will be reserved for myself (I AM YHWH) , to be substituted for the firstborn among the children of Israel and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the children of Israel. And Moses registered all the firstborn among the children of Israel as YHWH commanded him. All the firstborn males by the number of their names, from a month old and higher, of those that were registered from them were 22,273. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock; and the Levites will be mine: I am YHWH. And for those that are to be ransomed of the 273 from the firstborn of the children of Israel, that exceed the number of Levites; You will take five shekels [about two ounces or 55 grams] for each headcount, according to the Sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs. You will give the money to Aaron and to his sons for those numbered in excess from among them who were to be ransomed. So Moses took the ransom money from those who exceeded the tally ransomed by the Levites from the firstborn of the children of Israel. He took the money; 1,365 shekels [35 pounds], after the shekel of the Holy Place. Then Moses gave the money from them that were ransomed to Aaron and his sons, according to the Word of YHWH, as YHWH commanded Moses. YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron saying, Take a tally of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers from 30 years old and up to 50 years old, all that enter into the service to do the work in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place.

This will be the service of the sons of Kohath in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, concerning the Most Holy things. When the camp pulls up, Aaron and his sons will come and they will take down the covering veil, and cover the Ark of Testimony with it and will put on it the outer covering of animal hides, and will spread over it a cloth (entirely of blue) , and will insert its bars in place. And on the table of the Presence they spread a cloth of blue, and will put on it the dishes, spoons, bowls, and the jars of the Drink-Offerings, and the perpetual bread will remain on it. And they will spread on them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of animal hides and will insert in the bars. They will take a cloth of blue, and cover the lamp stand of the glistening light, and its lamps, and its snuffers, and fire-holder, and all the oil vessels which are used for it. And they will put it and all the vessels within a covering of animal hides, and will put it on a bar-pole. Then on the golden Altar they will spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of animal hides and will insert the bars. And they will take all the implements of service that are utilized in the Holy Place, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of animal hides and will put them on a bar-pole.

Chapter 4

Then they will take away the ashes from the Altar, and spread a purple clothe over it and will put on it all its vessels with which they do service, the censers, hooks, shovels, bowls, all the vessels of the Altar, and have spread on it a covering of animal hides and have inserted its bars. And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the Holy Place, and all the vessels in the Holy Place (in the journeying of the camp) , then afterwards will the sons of Kohath come in to bear it up. But they must not touch anything that is Holy or else they will die. This will be the burden of the sons of Kohath in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. The charge of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, pertained to the oil for the light and the spicy incense and the perpetual Meat-Offering, the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the Tabernacle, the Holy Place, and its implements. YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron saying, you will not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathite from among the Levites. But do this for them that they may live and not die from touching the Holy things. Aaron and his sons will go in and they will appoint every man his task, and will divide the burdens that each man is to carry. But they will not enter to see when the Holy things are covered unless they die.

YHWH spoke to Mose s saying, Take also a tally from the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families from 30 years old and up to 50 years old you will number them, all that enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. This is the service for the families of the Gershonites, to serve and for bearing burdens. They will bear the curtains of the Tabernacle, and the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, its outer covering, and the covering of animal hides that are over it, and the covering screen for the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And the curtains of the court, and the covering for the entrance of the court gate, that is by the Tabernacle and by the Altar round about, and their cords, and all the implements of their service and all that is made for them, so they will service. Aaron and his sons will appoint all the service for the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens and in all their service, and you will appoint them in charge of all these burdens. This is the service for the families of the sons of Gershon in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and their charge will be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. As for the sons of Merari, you will num ber them after their families, by the house of their fathers from 30 years old and up to 50 years old you will number them, everyone that enters into the service, to do the work of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, the boards of the Tabernacle, and the bars and its pillars with the pedestals.

The pillars of the surrounding court with their pedestals, pegs and cords, and all that is needed for its maintenance, you will assign individually by name, the burden that each one is responsible for. This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. And Moses, Aaron and the chief of the company registered the sons of the Kohathites after their families, and after the house of their fathers, from 30 years old and up to 50 years old, everyone that enters into the service, for the work in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And those that were registered of them by their families were 2,750. These are they that were registered from the families of the Kohathites, all do service in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, that Moses and Aaron did register according to the commandment of YHWH by the hand of Moses. And those that were registered from the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers from 30 years old and up to 50 years old, everyone that enters into the service, for the work in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. Those that were registered of them, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers were 2,630. These are they that were registered from the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that do service in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place whom Moses and Aaron registered according to the commandment of YHWH.

And those that were registered from the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers from 30 years old and up to 50 years old, everyone that enters into the service, for the work in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, those that were numbered of them after their families were 3,200. These are those that were registered from the families of the sons of Merari whom Moses and Aaron registered according to the Word of YHWH by the hand of Moses. All those that were registered from the Levites whom Moses, Aaron and the chief of Israel registered, after their families and after the house of their fathers from 30 years old and up to 50 years old, everyone that came to do service and the labor of bearing loads in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, those that were registered of them were 8,580.

According to the commandment of YHWH they were registered by the hand of Moses, everyone according to his service and according to his burden, so were they registered by him as YHWH commanded Moses. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Command the sons of Israel that they send out of the camp every leper and everyone with a discharge, and everyone defiled by an unclean body. Both male and female you will put outside the camp so that they do not make their camps unclean among where I live. And the children of Israel instituted this, and sent away such people outside the camp as YHWH commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel, When a man or woman will commit any sin that human beings commit, as an unfaithful act against YHWH, and that person is guilty.

Then they will confess their sin that they have done, and he will recompense his trespass with the principal, and add to it the fifth part, and give it to him against whom he has trespassed against. But if the man has no kinsman-redeemer to recompense the trespass to, let the trespass be recompensed to YHWH, even to the priest, beside the ram of the Propitiatory-Covering, whereby a Propitiatory-Covering will be made for him. And every offering of all the Holy things of the children of Israel that they bring to the priest will be his. A person's Sacred offerings will belong to the priest so that whatever one gives to the priest will be his. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, If any man's woman turns aside and commits an unfaithful act against him, and a man has sexual relations with her but it is concealed from the eyes of her husband, and it remains carefully hidden and she is defiled, and there is no witness against her or she has been caught. Yet if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous of his woman and she is defiled, or if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous of his woman but she is not defiled.

Chapter 5

Then the man will bring his woman to the priest, and he will bring her offering for her, 1/10th part of an ephah [2 quarts] of barley meal. He will pour no oil on it nor put frankincense on it, for it is an Offering of Jealousy, an offering of memorial, recalling depravity to remembrance.

And the priest will bring her near and set her before YHWH. Then the priest will take Holy water in an earthen vessel, and of the dust that is on the floor of the Tabernacle the priest will take and put into the water. And the priest will set the woman before YHWH and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, that is the Jealousy-Offering, and the priest will have in his hand the bitter water that causes the curse. Then the priest will charge her by a pledge and say to the woman, if no man has had sexual relations with you, and if you have not turned aside to uncleanness with another instead of your husband, then be free from this bitter water that causes the curse. But if you have turned aside to another instead of your husband, and if you are defiled, and some man has slept with you besides your husband. Then the priest will charge the woman with a pledge of cursing, and the priest will say to the woman, YHWH make you a double curse among your people, when YHWH will make your thigh to waste away and your belly to swell. And this water that causes the curse will go into your bowels, to make your belly to swell, and your thigh to waste away. And the woman will reply, amen and so be it. Then the priest will write these curses in a book, and he will blot them out with the bitter water. And he will cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causes the curse and the water that causes the curse will enter into her and becomes bitter.

Then the priest will take the Jealousy-Offering out of the woman's hand, and will waive the offering before YHWH and present it upon the Altar. And the priest will take a handful of the offering, a memorial of it and burn it upon the Altar, and afterward will cause the woman to drink the water. And when h e has made her to drink the water, then it will come to pass that if she is defiled and has done trespass against her husband, then the water that causes the curse will enter into her and becomes bitter. And her belly will swell and her thigh will waste away, and the woman will be a curse among her people. But if the woman is not unclean but is clean, then she will be free and will conceive offspring. This is the Law of jealousies, when a woman turns aside to another instead of her husband and is defiled. Or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon him, and he is jealous over his woman and will set the woman before YHWH, and the priest will do all these directives. Then will the man be cleared from depravity and this woman will bear her depravity. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When either man or woman will separate themselves to make a vow, a vow of a Nazarite to consecrate themselves to YHWH.

He will separate himself from wine and intoxicating drink, and will drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of intoxicating drink, neither will he drink any juice of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or raisins. All the days of his consecration he will eat nothing that is made of the vine tree, from the kernels even to the husk. During the days of the vow of his consecration no razor will come on his head until the time is fulfilled in what he separated himself to YHWH for, he will be Holy and will let the locks of the hair of his head grow. All the days that he separates himself to YHWH he will not come near any dead body. He will not make himself unclean for his father, mother, brother, or for his sister when they die because the consecration of his Elohim is upon his head. All the days of his consecration he is Holy to YHWH. And if any man dies very suddenly by him, and he has defiled the head of his consecration, then he will shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day he will shave it. Then on the eighth day he will bring two turtles, or two young pigeons to the priest, to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And the pr iest will offer the one for a Sin-Offering and the other for a whole burnt-offering and make a Propitiatory-Covering for him, because he has sinned by that unclean body, and will consecrate his head that same day.

Chapter 6

And he will separate to YHWH the days of his consecration and will bring a lamb of the first year for a Trespass-Offering, but the days that were before will be lost, because his consecration was defiled. And this is the Law of the Nazarite when the days of his consecration are fulfilled, he will be brought to the door of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place.

And he wil l present his offering to YHWH, one lamb of the first year without blemish for a whole Burnt-Offering, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish for a Sin-Offering, and one ram without blemish for a Peace-Offering, and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil and wafers of unleavened bread smeared with oil, and their Meat-Offering and Drink-Offering. And the priest will bring it before YHWH and will prepare his Sin-Offering and his whole Burnt-Offering, and he will prepare the ram for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings to YHWH, with the basket of unleavened bread, the priest will also prepare his Meat-Offering, and Drink-Offering. And the Na zarite will shave the head of his consecration at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and will take the hair from the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire that is under the sacrifice of the Peace-Offerings. Then the priest will take the cooked shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer and will put it in the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his consecration is shaved. And the priest will wave them for a Wave-Offering before YHWH, this is Holy for the priest, with the Wave-Offering breast and Heave-Offering shoulder and after that the Nazarite may drink wine. These are the instructions for the Nazarite who has vowed and for his offering to YHWH for his consecration, besides what his hand may obtain as required by the vow that he will vow, so he must fulfill according to the Law of his consecration.

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to Aaron and his sons saying, In this manner you will bless the children of Israel saying to them, YHWH bless you and protect you: YHWH makes his presence shine on you and is gracious to you: YHWH lifts up his face upon you and extends you peace. And they will appoint my Name upon the children of Israel and I will bless them. When Moses had completely raised up the Tabernacle, anointing and consecrating it with all its implements, both the Altar and its vessels, then anointing and consecrating them. Then the chiefs of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the commanders of the tribes, and were over them that were registered came near and they brought their offering before YHWH, six covered wagons and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the commanders, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the Tabernacle. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Take it from them that they may be used for the service of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and you will give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service. Then Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites. The two wagons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service.

And the four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because the service of the Holy Place belonging to them was that they should bear these upon their shoulders. And the chiefs presented gifts of dedication for the Altar on the day that it was anointed, and the commanders presented their offerings before the Altar. YHWH spoke to Moses, They will present their offerings, each chief at his scheduled time for the dedicating of the Altar. He that presented his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.

], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.] (after the shekel of the Holy Place) , both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year.

This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab. On the second day Nethaneel the son of Zuar, commander of Issachar offered. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.] (after the shekel of the Holy Place), both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar. On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, commander of the children of Zebulun offered. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.](after the shekel of the Holy Place), both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole

Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon. On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, commander of the children of Reuben offered. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.](after the shekel of the Holy Place), both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur. On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, commander of the children of Simeon offered.

His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.] (after the shekel of the Holy Place) , both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, commander of the children of Gad offered. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.] (after the shekel of the Holy Place) , both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering.

One spoon of ten shekels of gol d [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel. On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, commander of the children of Ephraim offered. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.] (after the shekel of the Holy Place) , both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud. On the eighth day offered Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, commander of the children of Manasseh. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.

] (after the shekel of the Holy Place) , both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. On the ninth day

Abidan the son of Gideoni, commander of the children of Benjamin offered. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.] (after the shekel of the Holy Place) , both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering.

One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni. On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, commander of the children of Dan offered. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.] (after the shekel of the Holy Place) , both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

On the 11th day Pagiel the son of Ocran, commander of the children of Asher offered. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.] (after the shekel of the Holy Place), both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the fir st year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran. On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, commander of the children of Naphtali offered. His offering was one silver charger, its weight was a 130 shekels [3 1/4th lbs.], one silver bowl of 70 shekels [1 3/4th lbs.] (after the shekel of the Holy Place) , both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering. One spoon of ten shekels of gold [4 ounces], full of incense, one young bull, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a whole Burnt-Offering, one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, and for a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan. This was the dedication of the Altar in the day when it was anointed by the chiefs of Israel, 12 chargers of silver, 12 silver bowls, 12 spoons of gold: Each charger of silver weighing a 130 shekels, each bowl 70: all the silver vessels weighed 2,400 shekels [60 lbs.], after the shekel of the Holy Place. The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the Holy Place, all the gold of the spoons was a 120 shekels [3 lbs.]. All the oxen for the whole Burnt-Offerings were 12 bulls, the rams 12, the lambs of the first year 12, with their Grain-Offerings, and the male goats from the female goats for a Sin-Offerings being twelve. And all the oxen for the sacrifice of the Peace-Offerings were 24 bulls, 60 rams, 60 male goats, and the lambs of the first year 60.

This was the dedication of the Altar when it was anointed. And when Moses was gone into the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place to speak with him, then he heard the Voice of one speaking to him from off the Covering-Lid that was upon the Ark of Testimony, from between the two cherubim and he spoke to him. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to Aaron and say to him, When you light the lamps, the seven lamps will light the space in front of the lamp stand. And Aaron did so and positioned the lamps to cast light forward in front of the lamp stand, as YHWH commanded Moses. And this work of the lamp stand consisted of beaten gold (from its base to its buds) of beaten work according to the visionary pattern that YHWH had shown Moses, so he fashioned the lamp stand. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Take the Levites from among the children of Israel and cleanse them.

Chapter 8

And this you will do for cleansing them. Sprinkle water of purification on them and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean. Then let them take a young bull with a Grain-Offering, fine flour mixed with oil, and another young bull take for a Sin-Offering. You will bring the Levites before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and you will gather the whole company of the children of Israel together. And you will bring the Levites before YHWH and the children of Israel will put their hands on the Levites, and Aaron will waive the Levites before YHWH for a Wave-Offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of YHWH.

Then the Levites will lay their hands on the heads of the bulls and you will offer one for a Sin-Offering, and the other for a whole Burnt-Offering to YHWH, to make a Propitiatory-Covering for the Levites. You will set the Levites before Aaron and before his sons, and wave them for a Wave-Offering to YHWH. Thus you will separate the Levites from among the children of Israel and the Levites will be Mine. And after that the Levites will go in to do the service of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and you will cleanse them and wave them for a Wave-Offering. Because they are completely given to me from among the children of Israel instead of all that open the womb (the firstborn of all the children of Israel) , I have taken them for myself. For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both man and animal, on the day that I killed every firstborn in the land of Egypt I consecrated them for myself. I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel. And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place.

And to make a Propitiatory-Covering for the children of Israel so that there is no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel approach the Holy Place. Then Moses, Aaron, and all the company of the children of Israel, instituted the Levites according to all that YHWH commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel instituted them for service. And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes and Aaron waved them as a Wave-Offering before YHWH, and Aaron made a Propitiatory-Covering for them to cleanse them. And after that the Levites went in to do their service in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place before Aaron, and before his sons as YHWH had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they have done to them. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, This applies to the Levites, from 25 years old and higher when they will begin to do duty in the service of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And from the age of 50 years they will cease performing the service, and will serve no more. But will aid their brothers in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place to keep the charge but will do no service themselves. Thus you will institute this for the Levites concerning their obligations. YHWH spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt saying, Let the children of Israel observe the Passover at its appointed season. On the 14th day of this month at sunset you will observe it in its appointed season according to all the statutes regarding it, and according to all the ordinances involved with it you will celebrate it. Moses spoke to the children of Israel that they should observe the Passover.

And they celebrated the Passover on the 14th day of the first month at sunset in the Desert of Sinai according to all that YHWH commanded Moses, so instituted the children of Israel.

Chapter 9

And there were certain men who were unclean by a dead body of a man so that they could not observe the Passover on that day, and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. Then those men said to him, we are unclean by the body of a man, why are we withheld so as not to present the offering of YHWH in its appointed season among the children of Israel? And Moses replied to them, stay here until I will hear what YHWH will command concerning you. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel saying, If any man from among you, or of your posterity will be unclean by reason of a dead body, or is in a journey afar off, still he will observe the Passover to YHWH. The 14th day of the second month at sunset they will observe it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. They will leave none of it until sunrise, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the Passover they will celebrate it. But the ma n that is clean, and is not in a journey but ceases to observe the Passover, that same person will be cut off from among his people because he did not bring the offering of YHWH in its appointed season, that man will bear his sin.

And if a foreigner will reside among you, and will celebrate the Passover to YHWH according to the ordinance of the Passover, then according to its procedure he will observe it. You will have one ordinance, both for the foreigner and for him that was born in the land. And on the day that the Tabernacle was reared up the cloud-mass concealed the Tabernacle, namely the Tabernacle of Testimony, and at sunset there was dwelling over the Tabernacle the phenomenon of supernatural fire until sunrise. So it was always the cloud-mass concealing it by day and the appearance of supernatural fire by night. And when the cloud-mass ascended up from the Tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed, and in the place where the cloud-mass settled down, there the children of Israel pitched their tents. At the commandment of YHWH the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of YHWH they encamped as long as the cloud-mass settled down upon the Tabernacle, they rested in their tents. And when the cloud-mass remained upon the Tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of YHWH and did not journey. And so it was when the cloud-mass was a few days upon the Tabernacle according to the commandment of YHWH they encamped, and according to the commandment of YHWH they journeyed. And sometimes the cloud-mass stayed only from sunset to sunrise, but the cloud-mass has ascended in the morning, then they pulled up camp, whether by day or by night, when the cloud-mass has ascended up, then they have pulled up camp. Whether the cloud-mass remained over the Tabernacle for two days or a month or a year, the Israelites would stay in camp and not pull up, but when it lifted then they would pull up camp.

At the commandment of YHWH they encamped, and at the commandment of YHWH they pulled up camp, they kept the charge of YHWH, at the commandment of YHWH by the hand of Moses. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Make yourself two trumpets of silver; of hammered work you will fashion them that you may use them for the calling of the nation, and for the pulling up stakes of the camps. And when they will blow with them, all the nation will assemble themselves to you at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. If they blow with one trumpet then the commanders that are chiefs of the thousands of Israel will gather themselves to you.

Chapter 10

When you blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the eastern quadrant will pull up stakes. When you blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the southern quadrant will pull up stakes, they will blow an alarm for their breaking camp. But when the nation is to be gathered together, you will blow but you will not sound an alarm. And the sons of Aaron, the priests will blow with the trumpets, and this will be a statute for the ages to your generations. And if you go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresses you, then you will blow an alarm with the trumpets and you will be remembered before YHWH your Elohim, and you will be delivered from your enemies. Also in the times of rejoicing, and in your appointed seasons, and at the start of each month, you will blow with the trumpets over your whole Burnt-Offerings, and over the sacrifices of your Peace-Offerings.

These will be to you for a memorial before your Elohim (I am YHWH your Elohim) . And it came to pass on the 20th day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud-mass ascended up from off the Tabernacle of the Testimony. And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the Desert of Sinai and the cloud-mass settled down in the uninhabited land of Paran. And they first pulled up stakes according to the commandment of YHWH by the hand of Moses. The first to pull up their standard was the camp of the children of Judah's tribe, according to their armies, and over them was Nahshon the son of Amminadab. Over the army of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar. Over the army of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon. And the Tabernacle was taken down and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari pulled up stakes, bearing the Tabernacle. The standard of the camp of Reuben pulled up stakes according to their armies and over them was Elizur the son of Shedeur. Over the army of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. Over the army of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel. And the Kohathites have pulled up stakes, bearing the Holy Place items and the others have raised up the Tabernacle ready for their arrival. The standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim pulled up stakes according to their armies and over them was Elishama the son of Ammihud. Over the army of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. Over the army of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni. The standard of the camp of the children of Dan's tribe pulled up stakes, who were the rearguard quadrant of all the camp's armies, and over them was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. Over the army of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran. Over the army of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan. This was the [order for] breaking of camps for the children of Israel according to their armies when they pulled up stakes. Moses spoke to Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father in law, We are journeying to the place of which YHWH said, I will give this land to you, so come with us and we will do you good, for YHWH has spoken good concerning Israel.

But he replied to him, I will not go but I will leave for my own land, and to my relatives. And he replied, do not leave us because you have known our encamping in the desert, and you have been our eyes [scouting for us]. Now it will be that if you journey with us, it will come about that whatever benefits YHWH does for us, we will do for you likewise. Then they pulled up stakes from the mountain of YHWH, a three days' journey and the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them. And the cloud-mass of YHWH was upon them by day when they broke camp. Then when the Ark pulled out, Moses said, Rise up YHWH, and let your enemies be scattered, and let them that hate you flee from your presence! And when it settled down he said, Return, O YHWH to the many thousands of Israel! Later when the people complained, it displeased YHWH, and YHWH heard it and his nostrils flared, and the supernatural fire of YHWH flamed out among them, and burnt them up that were in the outskirts of the camp. Then the people cried to Moses and when Moses prayed to YHWH, the supernatural fire subsided.

Chapter 11

He called the name of the place Taberah [burning], because the supernatural fire of YHWH flamed out among them. And a mob of people that were among them craved for food and drink, and the children of Israel also wept again and said, who will give us meat to eat? We remember the fish that we ate in Egypt freely, the cucumbers, watermelons, green herbage, onions, and the garlic. But now our body's appetite is dried up, there is nothing at all to eat except this manna in our sight. The manna was as coriander seed, and its quality was like the quality of gum resin. And the people went about and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans and made cakes and waffles out of it, and the taste of it was like dainty bits with fresh oil. And when the dew descended on the camp in the night, the manna also descended. Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the entrance of his tent, and the anger of YHWH burned exceedingly, Moses also was saddened. And Moses said to YHWH, How come you have broken in pieces your servant? And how come I have not found favor in your sight, that you appoint the burden of all these people upon me?

Have I conceived all these people? Have I gendered them that you should say to me, Carry them in your bosom as a foster-father bears the sucking child, to the land that you adjured by oath to their fathers? where can I obtain meat to give to all this people? for they shed tears to me saying, give us meat that we may eat. I am not able to bear all these people by myself because they are too difficult for me to handle. If you deal this way with me, slay me, I pray out of hand, that I may not see your badness. YHWH spoke to Moses, Gather to me 70 men from the Elders of Israel, who you know to be the Elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them to the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place that they may stand there with you. And I will come down and talk with you there and I will take from the spirit that is upon you, and will put it upon them, and they will bear the burden of the people with you, so that you bear it not yourself alone. And tell the people, Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow because you will eat meat, for you have shed tears in the ears of YHWH saying, who will give us meat to eat? For we fared better in Egypt, therefore YHWH will give you meat and you will eat. You will not eat one day, two days, five days, ten days, or 20 days : but a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and is loathsome to you. This is because you have despised YHWH that is among you and have shed tears before him saying, why did we come out of Egypt? Then Moses inquired, the people around me are 600,000 footmen and you have said, I will give them meat that they may eat a whole month. Will the flocks and the herds be slaughtered for them, to satisfy them? Or will all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them to satisfy them? YHWH replied to Moses, Is YHWH's hand become short? You will now see whether my Word will come to pass for you or not.

And Moses went out and told the people the Words of YHWH, and gathered the 70 men from the Elders of the people and set them around the Tabernacle. And YHWH came down in a cloud-mass and spoke to him, and took of the spirit that was upon him and gave it to the 70 Elders, and when the spirit rested upon them they prophesied, but did not do it again. But there were left behind two of the men in the camp, the name of one was Eldad and the other Medad. And the spirit rested upon them (they were written in the registry but did not go out to the Tabernacle), yet they prophesied in the camp. And there ran a young man who told Moses saying, Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp. Then Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses and one of his young men answered and said, my master Moses, forbid them. But Moses replied to him, are you jealous of me? O that all YHWH's people were prophets! That YHWH would put His Spirit upon them! Then Moses returned to the camp, he and the Elders of Israel. later a wind went out from YHWH and swept quail in from the sea. It brought them down surrounding the camp (to within three feet of the ground) as far as a day's journey in all directions. And the people stayed up all that day and all that night, and all the next day and gathered the quails, he who had gathered the least had ten homers [60 bushels], and they spread them out for themselves around the camp.

And while the meat was still between their teeth, not yet chewed, then the nostrils of YHWH flared against the people and YHWH struck the people with a very great slaughter. And he called the name of that place Kibrothhattaavah [graves of lust] because there they buried the people that lusted. Then the people pulled up stakes from Kibrothhattaavah, going to Hazeroth, and stayed at Hazeroth. Now Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married, for he had married a Cushite woman. And they said, has Adonai spoken only by Moses? Has he not spoken by us also? And YHWH heard it. But the man Moses is very humble, more than any of the men who are on the surface of the ground. YHWH spoke suddenly to Moses, and to Aaron and Miriam, Let all three of you come out to the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And the three came out. YHWH came down in the Pillar of the Cloud-mass and stood in the entrance of the Tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam and they both came forward. And He said, Hear now my Words, if there is a prophet among you, I YHWH will make myself known to him in a vision, and will speak to him in a dream. My servant Moses is not such a prophet, who is faithful in all my house. With him I will speak mouth to mouth and by an appearance, and not in riddles, and the similitude of YHWH will he behold. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses? And the nostrils of YHWH flared against them and he departed. Then the cloud-mass departed from off the Tabernacle, and behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and behold, she was leprous. Aaron said to Moses, Alas, my master, I beg you, lay not this sin upon us, as we have done foolishly and so we have sinned. Let her not, I pray, be as one that is stillborn, when in his coming out from the womb of his mother, the half of his flesh is consumed. And Moses cried to YHWH saying, heal her now, O Elohim, I beg you. YHWH replied to Moses, if her dad had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut out from the camp for seven days, and after that let her be taken in again. And Miriam was shut out from the camp for seven days, and the people did not pull up stakes until Miriam was taken in again. And afterward the people pulled up stakes from Hazeroth, and pitched in the uninhabited land of Paran. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, send some men that they may spy out the land of Canaan that I give to the children of Israel. And from every tribe of their fathers you will send a man, everyone a chief among them.

Chapter 12

And Moses by the commandment of YHWH sent them from the uninhabited land of Paran, all those men were chiefs of the children of Israel.

Chapter 13

These were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur. Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori. Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph. Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun. Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu. Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi. Of the tribe of Joseph, specifically of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi. Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli. Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.

Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi. Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi. These are the names of the men that Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea [Hosea] the son of Nun Jehoshua [Joshua]. Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan and said to them, take this direction southward and go up into the hill country of Negev. And inspect the land, what it is like and the people that live there whether they are strong or weak, few or numerous. And what is the land like that they live in, whether it is good or bad, and what cities there are that they reside in, whether in tents or in fortified cities. And what the land is like, whether it is fat or lean, and whether there are wooded forests or not. And be of good courage and bring back of the fruits of the land. Now the time was the season for the first-fruit harvest of grapes.

So they went up and searched the land from the Desert of Zin to Rehob, as men come to Hamath. And they ascended by the south, and came to Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak lived, (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt). And they came to the Valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes, and two of them carried it between a pole and they brought some pomegranates and figs. The place was called the Wadi Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes that the children of Israel cut down from there. Then they returned from searching of the land after 40 days. They went and came to Moses and to Aaron, and to all the nation of the children of Israel, to the uninhabited land of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them and to all the nation, and exhibited to them the fruits of the land. They reported to him and said, we came to the land where you sent us and it certainly flows with milk and honey, and this is some of its fruits. Nevertheless the people are strong that live in the land, and the cities are fortified and very large, and also we saw the children of Anak there. The Amalekites reside in the land of the south and the Hittites, Jebusites, and the Amorites, live in the hill country, and the Canaanites live near the sea and by the sides of the Jordan River. And Caleb quieted the people before Moses and said, Let us go up at once and possess it, for we are well able to prevail against it.

But the men that went up with him said, we are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we are. And they brought up an evil report of the land that they had spied out for the children of Israel saying, the land that we have gone to search is a land that devours up the inhabitants. And all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. and there we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak, which come from the giants and we were in our own eyes as grasshoppers, and so we were to their sight.

Chapter 14

And all the nation lifted up their voice and cried, and the people wept that night. And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole nation said to them, O that we had died in the land of Egypt, or in this uninhabited land, O that we had died! Why now has YHWH brought us to this land, to fall by the sword so that our women and our children should be a prey? Would not it be better for us to return to Egypt? And they said to each other, let us assign a chief and let us return to Egypt. Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the entire gathering of the nation of Israel. And Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were from them that searched the land, ripped their clothes. Then they spoke to all the company of the children of Israel saying, The land that we passed through to search is an exceedingly good land.

If YHWH delight in us then he will bring us into this land, and will give it to us, a land that flows with milk and honey. Only do not rebel against YHWH, neither fear the people of the land for they are morsels for us, their protection has departed from them and YHWH is with us so fear them not. But all the nation talked of stoning them with stones. And the glory of YHWH appeared in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place before all the children of Israel. YHWH spoke to Moses, How long will this people provoke me? And how long will they refuse to believe in me for all the signs that I have shown among them? I will exterminate them with disease and disinherit them, and will make from you a greater nation and mightier than they. Moses replied to YHWH, Then the Egyptians will hear it, (since you brought up this people in your might from among them). And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land because they have heard that you, YHWH, are among these people and that you, YHWH, are seen face to face and that your cloud-mass stands over them. And that you go before them by day in a Pillar of Cloud-mass, and in a Pillar of Supernatural Fire by night. Now if you will kill all these people as one man, then the nations that have heard the fame of you will speak saying, because YHWH was not able to bring this people into the land that he adjured to them therefore he has slain them in the uninhabited land. And now le t the powe r of my Adonai be magnified, according as you have spoken saying, YHWH is slow to anger and is of abounding goodness, forgiving depravity and transgression, but by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the depravity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations. Pardon the depravity of this people according to the magnitude of your faithfulness just as you have carried up this people from Egypt until now. And YHWH replied, I have pardoned according to your word. But as truly as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of YHWH. Because all those m en that have seen my glory, and my signs that I did in Egypt and in the desert, and have tested me now these ten times and have not obeyed my Voice, certainly they will not see the land that I adjured to their forefathers, neither will any of them that spurned me see it. But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and has followed me fully, him will I bring into the land where he went and his offspring will possess it. (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites lived in the valley) . Tomorrow turn yourselves around and depart into the desert by the way of the Red Sea. YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron saying, How long will I bear with this bad nation that complains against me? I have heard the complaints of the children of Israel that they murmur against me.

Say to them, As truly as I live says YHWH, as you have spoken in my ears, so I will do for you. Your corpses will fall in this desert and all that were registered of you, according to your total number, from 20 years old and up that have complained against me. Certainly you will not come into the land, concerning what I adjured to make you reside in, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. But your children that you said would be a spoil, them I will bring in and they will experience the land that you have rejected. But as for you, your corpses will waste away in this desert. And your children will wander in the desert 40 years, and bear your fornication, until your carcasses are consumed in the desert. According to the number of the days that you spied out the land, even 40 days, each day for a year will you bear your depravities, even 40 years and you will know my enmity. I YHWH have commanded, I will certainly accomplish it, towards this bad nation that are gathered against me in this uninhabited land, they will come to an end and there they will die. And the men that Moses sent to search the land, who returned and made all the nation to complain against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, even those men that brought up the evil report about the land, died by a fatal stroke before YHWH. But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, that were of the men that went to search the land remained alive.

And Moses told these sayings to all the children of Israel, and the people mourned exceedingly. And they rose up early at sunrise, and took themselves up to the top of the mountain saying, we are here and will go up to the place that YHWH has promised, for we have sinned. But Moses replied, why now are you transgressing the commandment of YHWH? This will not be a successful undertaking. Do not go up because YHWH is not among you so that you are not stricken before your enemies. For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you will fall by the sword because you are turned away from YHWH, so understand that YHWH will not be with you. But they presumed to go up to the hill top, nevertheless the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, and Moses did not depart out of the camp. Then the Amalekites came down and the Canaanites that lived in the hill country, and beat them and crushed them to pieces, even as far as Hormah. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the chil dren of Israel and say to them, When you are come into the land of your residence that I give to you, and will make a Burnt-Offering by fire to YHWH, a whole Burnt-Offering, to fulfill a vow or as Free-Will offering, or in your appointed times to make a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH, of the herd or of the flock. Then will he that presents his offering to YHWH bring a Grain-Offering of 1/10th part of flour [two quarts] mixed with 1/4th part [one quart] of an hin of oil. And 1/4th part of a hin of wine [one quart] for a Drink-Offering you will prepare with the whole Burnt-Offering or sacrifice, for one lamb. Or for a ram you will prepare for a Grain-Offering 2/10th part of flour [four quarts] mixed with the 1/3rd part of a hin of oil [1 1/4th quarts]. And for a Drink-Offering you will present 1/3rd part of a hin of wine [2 1/2 pints], for a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. And when you prepare a bull for a whole Burnt-Offering, or for a sacrifice at separating a vow, or Peace-Offerings unto YHWH, then will he bring with a bull a Grain-Offering of 3/10th parts of flour mixed [six quarts] with 1/2 a hin of oil [two quarts]. And you will bring for a Drink-Offering 1/2 hin of wine [two quarts] for a Burnt-Offering made by fire, a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. So will it be done for one bull, one ram, a lamb, or a female goat. According to the number that you will prepare, so will you do to everyone according to their count. All that are native Israelites will do these things this way, in offering a Burnt-Offering made by fire, of a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. If a foreigner resides with you, or whoever is among you in your generations, and will bring a Burnt-Offering made by fire, of a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH, as you do, so he will do. One statute will be both for you of the nation, and also for the foreigner that resides with you, a statute for the ages in your generations, as you are, so will the foreigner be before YHWH. One Law and one judgment will be for you, and for the foreigner that resides with you. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land where I bring you, then it will be when you eat from the bread of the land you will lift up a Heave-Offering to YHWH. You will lift up a cake from the first of your dough for a Heave-Offering, as you did for the Heave-Offering from the threshing floor, so will you raise it up. Of the first of your dough you will give to YHWH, a Heave-Offering in your generations.

Chapter 15

And if you have erred and not observed all these commandments that YHWH has spoken to Moses, even all that YHWH has commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that YHWH commanded Moses and forward throughout your generations. Then it will be if something is done, as a sin of error, or by inadvertence, without the knowledge of the nation, that all the nation will offer one young bull for a whole Burnt-Offering. This will be for a tranquilizing aroma to YHWH, with the Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering, in accordance with the judgment and one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering. Then the priest will make a Propitiatory-Covering for all the nation of the children of Israel and it will be forgiven them. This is for the sin of error and they will bring their offering, a sacrifice made by Burnt-Offering to YHWH, and their Sin-Offering before YHWH for their inadvertent sin. And it will be forgiven all the nation of the children of Israel, and the foreigner that lives among them, seeing how all the people were in error. Also if any person sins unintentionally then he will bring a female goat of the first year for a Sin-Offering. The priest will make a Propitiatory-Covering for the person that goes astray, when he sins unintentionally before YHWH, to make a Propitiatory-Covering for him and it will then be forgiven him. You will have one Law for him that sins unintentionally, both for him that is born among the children of Israel, and for the foreigner that lives among them. But the person who acts in an exalted fashion, whether he is born in the land or a foreigner, the same blasphemes YHWH, and that person will be cut off from among his people. Because he has despised the Word of YHWH and has broken his commandment, that person will be cut off and eliminated, his depravity will be upon him.

And while the children of Israel were in the desert, they found a man that gathered sticks on the Sabbath day. Then they that found him gathering the sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the nation. And they put him in prison, because it was not clarified what should be done to him. YHWH spoke to Moses, The man will certainly be put to death, all the gathering will stone him with stones outside the camp. And all the gathering brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, and he died as YHWH commanded Moses. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and tell them to fashion tassels at the corners of their clothing throughout their generations, and that they attach to the tassels at the corners, a twisted thread of violet. And for you it will be a tassel so that you may look on it and remember all the commandments of YHWH, and do them, so that you seek not after your own understanding and your own mental faculties by which you commit fornication. That you may remember, and do all my commandments and be set apart for your Elohim. I am YHWH your Elohim that brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your Elohim, I am YHWH Elohim. Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took a group and they rose up before Moses with men from the children of Israel, 250 chiefs from the company, famous in the nation and men of reputation.

Chapter 16

And they gathered themselves together against Moses and Aaron and said to them, You take too much upon yourselves, seeing all the nation is set apart, every one of them, and YHWH is among them, why then exalt yourselves above the nation of YHWH? And when Moses heard it he fell on his face. And he spoke to Korah and to all his company saying, Tomorrow morning YHWH will show who are his and who is set apart, and who may present offerings to him. The one who YHWH chooses may present them. Do this, take fire-holders, Korah and all his company, and put fire and incense in them before YHWH tomorrow, and it will be that the man who YHWH will choose will be set apart. You take too much upon yourselves, you sons of Levi. And Moses said to Korah, listen, you sons of Levi, is it a small thing for you that the Elohim of Israel has separated you from the nation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself to do the service of the Tabernacle of YHWH, and to stand before the nation to serve them? He has brought you near to Himself, and all your relatives the sons of Levi with you, and you seek the priesthood also? For which cause both you and all your company are gathered together against YHWH, and who is Aaron that you complain against him?

And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab who said, we will not come up. Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land that flows with milk and honey to kill us in the desert, except you make yourself a prince over us? What is more you have not brought us into a land that flows with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards, will you gore out the eyes of these men? We will not come up. And Moses was very furious and said to YHWH, do not accept their offering, I have not taken one donkey from them nor have I done bad to even one of them! And Moses said to Korah, You and all your company, come before YHWH, you, and all your followers along with Aaron tomorrow. And take every man his fire-holder, and put incense in them and bring yourselves before YHWH every man with his fire-holder, 250 fire-holders, you also, and Aaron, each of you with his fire-holder. They took every man his fire-holder, and put fire in them and laid incense in it and stood at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place with Moses and Aaron. And Korah gathered the entire nation against them at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and the glory of YHWH appeared to the entire nation. YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron saying,

Separate yourselves from among this nation so that I may consume them in a flash. And they fell upon their faces and said, O Elohim, the Elohim of the spirits of all flesh, will one man sin and will you be angry with all this nation? YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the nation saying, Get away from around the dwelling places of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Then Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the Elders of Israel followed him. And he spoke to the nation saying, depart from the tents of these criminal men, and touch nothing of theirs unless you are swept away in all their sins. So they got up from the dwelling places of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side, and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the entrance of their tents, and their women and their sons, and their little children. And Moses said, hereby you will know that YHWH has sent me to do all these works, because I have not done them of my own mind. If these men die the common death of all men, or merely experience the common fate of man, then YHWH has not sent me. But he said, My son shall not go down with you. For his brother is dead and he alone is left.

If any mischief should happen to him in the way you are going, you will bring down my old age with sorrow to the mansion of the dead. Then just as he had finished speaking all these words, suddenly the ground split open that was under them. And the ground opened her mouth and swallowed them up, and their tents with all the people that associated with Korah, and all their possessions. They, and all that pertained to them went down alive into Sheol, and the earth closed upon them and they perished from among the nation. And all Israel that were around them fled at the sounds of them, for they said, unless the ground swallow us up also. And there came out a supernatural fire from YHWH and consumed the 250 men that presented incense. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest to pick the fire-holders out of the smoldering remains and scatter the fire from them far off from here. The fire-holders from these sinners who have sinned at the expense of their own lives, let them fashion beaten out plates as an overlay of the Altar because they presented them before YHWH, therefore they are consecrated and they will be a remembrance for the children of Israel. And Eleazar the priest took the bronze fire-holders (that they who were burnt up had brought near) and they beat them out for an overlay of the Altar. To be a memorial to the children of Israel, that no foreigner that is not of the offspring of Aaron approaches to burn incense before YHWH, that he will not become as Korah and as his company, as YHWH said to Eleazar through Moses.

But the next day all the nation of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron saying, you have killed the people of YHWH. Now as the nation was gathered against Moses and Aaron, that they looked towards the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and the cloud-mass concealed it, and the glory of YHWH inspected. And Moses and Aaron came before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Get away from among this nation that I may consume them in a flash. And they fell upon their faces. And Moses said to Aaron, take a fire- holder and put fire in it from off the Altar and put on incense, and go quickly to the nation and make a Propitiatory-Covering for them, for anger has gone out from YHWH and the fatal striking has begun. And Aaron carried away as Moses commanded, and ran into the middle of the nation for the fatal striking had begun among the people, and he put on incense, and made a Propitiatory-Covering for the people. And he stood between the dead and the living, and the slaughter was restrained. Now those that died in the slaughter were 14,700, besides them that died concerning the matter of Korah. And Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and the slaughter was stopped. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and take from every one of them a staff according to the house of their fathers, from all their chiefs take the twelve staffs and write every man's name upon his staff. You will write Aaron's name upon the staff of Levi, for one staff will represent the head of the house of their fathers. Then you will lay them up in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place before the Testimony where I will meet with you. And it will come to pass that the man's staff who I choose will blossom, and I will curtail from me the complaints of the children of Israel, whereby they grumble against you. And Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and every one of their chiefs gave him one staff for each tribal head, according to their fathers' houses, twelve staffs, and the staff of Aaron was among them. Moses laid up the staffs before YHWH in the Tabernacle of Testimony. The next day Moses went into the Tabernacle of Testimony, and the staff of Aaron for the House of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, sprouted flowers, and yielded almonds. And Moses brought out all the staffs from before YHWH to all the children of Israel, and they inspected and took every man his staff. YHWH spoke to Moses, Bring Aaron's staff again before the Testimony, to be preserved as a remembrance against the rebels, this will end their complaints so that they will not die.

Chapter 17

And Moses did as YHWH commanded him. Then the children of Israel spoke to Moses saying, lo, we have breathed our last, we are lost, we are all lost. Whoever comes near to the Tabernacle of YHWH will die, are we ever to have made an end of breathing our last?

Chapter 18

YHWH said to Aaron, You and your sons and your father's house with you will bear the depravity of the Tabernacle, and you and your sons with you will bear the depravity of your priesthood. And bring your relatives also from the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father that they may join you, and serve with you while you and your sons are before the Tabernacle of Testimony. And they will attend to your service, and the obligations of all the Tabernacle, only they will not come near the vessels of the Holy Place and the Altar so that neither they nor yourselves also die. And they will be joined to you and attend the obligations of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, for all the service of the Tabernacle, and a foreigner will not come near to you. And you will attend the service of the Holy Place, and the service of the Altar that there is no anger anymore upon the children of Israel. And I have taken your relatives the Levites from among the children of Israel because they are given to you as a gift unto YHWH, to do the service of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And you and your sons with you will guard your priesthood for everything of the Altar, and within the veil, and you will serve, a service of gift I make your priesthood, and the foreigner who is coming near is put to death. YHWH spoke to Aaron, I also have given you the charge of My Heave-Offerings from all the sacred things from the children of Israel, to you I have given the consecrated portion and to your sons also, by a statute for the ages of time. This will be yours from the Most Holy things, reserved from the altar-fire, every offering of theirs, every Meat or Grain-Offering, Sin-Offering, and Trespass-Offering (that they will render to me) will be Most Holy for you and for your sons. In the Most Holy Place you will eat it, every male will eat it and it will be Holy to you. And this is yours, the Heave-Offering from their offerings, with all the Wave-Offerings from the children of Israel also. I have given them to you and your sons, and your daughters with you, by a statute for the ages of time, everyone that is clean in your house will eat of it. All the best of the oil, wine, wheat, and the first-fruits of them that they will dedicate to YHWH, these things I have given to you. And the first-fruits of the crops from the land they will bring to YHWH, these will be yours, everyone that is clean in your house will eat of it. Everything devoted in Israel will be yours. Everything that first opens the womb in all flesh that they bring to YHWH, whether it is of men or animals will be yours, nevertheless the firstborn of man you will certainly ransom, and the firstborn of unclean animals you will ransom. And those that are to be ransomed from a month old you will ransom according to your valuation, for the money of five shekels [two ounces], after the shekel of the Holy Place, that is, 20 gerahs. But the firstborn of a cow, sheep, or a goat you will not ransom, they are set apart, you will sprinkle their blood upon the Altar and will burn their fat for a Burnt-Offering made by fire, for a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH.

And the meat from the Wave-Offering, the breast and the right shoulder are yours. All the Heave-Offerings from the Sacred things that the children of Israel offer to YHWH, I have given to you and your sons and daughters with you. This will be a statute for the ages. It is a COVENANT OF SALT for the ages before YHWH unto you and to your offspring with you. YHWH spoke to Aaron, You will have no inheritance in their land, neither will you have any share among them, I am your share and your inheritance among the children of Israel. I have given the children of Levi all the tithe [tenth part] in Israel for an inheritance, for their service that they serve, even the service of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. Neither must the children of Israel come near the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, unless they bear sin and die. But the Levites will service the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place and they will bear their depravity, it will be a statute for the ages throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance. But the tithes from the children of Israel that they raise up as a Heave-Offering to YHWH, I have given the Levites to inherit, therefore I have said to them, Among the children of Israel they will have no inheritance. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the Levites and say to them, When you acquire from the children of Israel the tithes that I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you will raise up a Heave-Offering from it for YHWH, even a tenth part of the tithe. And your Heave-Offering has been reckoned to you as corn from the threshing floor, and as full produce from the wine-vat. So you will also raise up a Heave-Offering to YHWH from all your tithes that you receive from the children of Israel, and you will give YHWH's Heave-Offering to Aaron the priest.

Out of all your gifts you will raise up the whole Heave-Offering to YHWH, out of all its best, its consecrated part, out of it. And you have said to them, In your heaving up its best part out of it, then it has been reckoned to the Levites, as increase of a threshing floor, and as increase of a wine-vat. You will eat it in every place, you and your households, for its your reward for your service in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And you bear no sin for it, in your heaving up its best part out of it, and the set apart things from the children of Israel you will not desecrate so that you do not die. YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron saying, This is a statute of the Law that YHWH has commanded saying, Speak to the children of Israel that they bring you a red heifer without spot that has no physical defect, one that was never yoked. And you will give it to Eleazar the priest that he may bring it forth outside the camp and one will slaughter it in his presence. Then Eleazar the priest will take of its blood with his finger, and sprinkle of its blood directly before the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place seven times. And will burn the heifer in his sight, its skin, flesh, and blood with its dung he will burn. The priest will take cedar wood, hyssop, and scarlet and cast it into the middle of the burning heifer. Then the priest will wash his clothes and he will bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he will come into the camp, and the priest will be unclean until sunset. And he that burns it will wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water and will be unclean until sunset. Then a man that is clean will gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up outside the camp in a clean place, and it will be kept for the nation of the children of Israel for the Water of Impurity. It is purification from sins from ceremonial uncleanness. And he that gathers the ashes of the heifer will wash his clothes, and be unclean until sunset, and it will be for the children of Israel and the foreigner that lives among them, as a statute for the ages. He that touches the dead body of anyone will be unclean seven days. He will purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he will be clean, but if he does not purify himself the third day, then on the seventh day he will not be clean. Whoever touches the dead person of any human being that is dead, and incurs guilt becomes unclean for the Tabernacle of YHWH. That person will be cut off from Israel because the Water of Impurity was not sprinkled on him, he will be unclean and his uncleanness remains on him. This is the Law when a human being dies in a tent, all that come into the tent and all that is in the tent, will be unclean seven days. And every open vessel that has no covering tied on it is unclean.

Chapter 19

Whoever touches one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or one killed, a bone of a man or a grave will be unclean seven days. For an unclean person they will take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water will be put in a vessel. Then a clean person will take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent and upon all the vessels, and upon the people that were there and upon him that touched a bone, one slain, one that perished or a grave. And the clean have sprinkled it on the unclean on the third day and seventh day, and have cleansed him on the seventh day, and he has washed his garments, and has bathed with water, and will be clean at sunset. But the man that will be unclean and will not purify himself, that person will be cut off from among the nation, because he has become unclean for the Holy Place of YHWH, the Water of Impurity has not been sprinkled on him so he is unclean. This will be an Age-Lasting statute for them, he that sprinkles the Water of Impurity will wash his clothes and he that touches the Water of Impurity will be unclean until sunset. And whatever the unclean person touches will be unclean and the person that touches it will be unclean until sunset.

Chapter 20

Then the children of Israel (the whole nation) entered the Desert of Zin on the first month, and the people remained in Kadesh, and Miriam died and was buried there. And there was no water for the nation, and they gathered themselves together against Moses and Aaron. Then the people quarreled with Moses and spoke saying, “and oh that we had died when our brethren expired before YHWH! So why have you brought up the nation of YHWH into this desert so that we with our cattle should die here?

And why have you brought us up out of Egypt to bring us to these badlands? No place of seed, fig, vine, or pomegranate, and water there is none to drink. ” Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the company to the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, and they fell on their faces and the glory of YHWH appeared to them. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Take the staff and assemble the company, you and Aaron your brother, and you will speak to the rock before their eyes and it will give its water, and you will bring out to them water from the rock, and will water the company and their animals. Moses took the staff from before YHWH as he commanded him. Then Moses and Aaron gathered the company together before the rock, and he said to them, hear now you rebels, must we fetch you water out of this rock? And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his staff he beat the rock twice and water came out abundantly, and the nation drank and their animals too. And YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron, Because you have not believed in me to consecrate Me before the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you will not bring in this nation to the land that I have given them. This is the water of Meribah [strife], because the children of Israel contended with YHWH, and by which He showed his Sacred wonders. Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, So declares your brother Israel, you know all the hardships that have befallen us, how our forefathers went down into Egypt, and we have resided in Egypt a long time and the Egyptians broke our fathers and us also.

And when we cried to YHWH he heard our voice, and sent an Angelic Messenger and has brought us out of Egypt and we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your border. Let us pass, I request of you through your country, we will not pass through the fields or through the vineyards, neither will we drink from the water of your springs, we will go by the King's Highway. We will not turn to the right hand or to the left until we have passed your borders. But Edom replied to him, you will not pass by me or I will come out against you with the sword. The Israelites replied, we will go along the King's Highway, and if our herds or ourselves drink any of your water then we will pay for it. We only seek to pass through on foot and nothing else. And he replied, you will not go through. And Edom came out against him with many people and with a strong hand. So Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border so Israel turned away from him. Then the children of Israel, the whole nation, journeyed from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor. YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom saying, Aaron will be removed from his people, for he will not enter into the land that I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against my Word at the waters of Meribah. Take Aaron and Eleazar his son and bring them up into Mount Hor.

And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son, and Aaron will be removed from his people, and will die there. And Moses did as YHWH commanded and they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of the whole nation. Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son and Aaron died there in the summit of the mount, and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. And when all the nation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron 30 days, all the house of Israel. Then the Canaanite King Arad, dwelling in the south, heard that Israel had come the way of the Atharim [caravan route], and he warred against Israel, and took some of them captive.

Chapter 21

And Israel vowed a votive-offering to YHWH and said, if you will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will Devote to Destruction their cities. YHWH consented to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they devoted them to destruction with their cities, and he called the name of the place Hormah. And they pulled up from Mount Hor by the route of the Red Sea, to circumvent the land of Edom, and the passions of the nation were very grieved because of the distance. Then the people spoke against Elohim and Moses, why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the desert? For there is no bread, neither is there any water, and we loathe this worthless bread. YHWH sent poisonous snakes among the people and they bit the people and many people of Israel died. Therefore the people came to Moses and said, we have sinned, for we have spoken against YHWH and against you, so pray to YHWH that he takes away these snakes from us. And Moses prayed for the people. YHWH spoke to Moses, Fashion a poisonous snake, and set it upon a pole and it will be that everyone who is bitten when he looks at it will live. Moses fashioned a snake of brass and put it on a pole, and it came to pass that if a snake would bite anyone, when they looked on the snake of brass then he would live. The children of Israel pulled up and encamped in Oboth. And they journeyed from Oboth, and encamped at Ijeabarim, in the desert that is before Moab, towards the sunrising. From there they pulled up and encamped in the Valley of Zared. From there they pulled up and encamped on the other side of Arnon, that is in the desert that comes out of the coasts of the Amorites, for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. That is wh y it is said in the BOOK OF THE WARS of YHWH, What he did in the Red Sea and in the Valley of Arnon, and at the stream of the wadi that goes down to the inhabitants of Ar, and lies on the border of Moab. From there they went to Beer, that is, the well where YHWH spoke to Moses, Gather the people together and I will give them water. Then Israel sang this song, Spring you up, O well!

Sing you unto it! A well, princes dug it! Nobles of the people delved it! With a Scepter! With their staves! And from the desert they went to Mattanah: And from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth: And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, that looks towards Jeshimon. Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites saying, let me pass through your land, we will not turn into the fields or into the vineyards, we will not drink of the waters of the well, but we will go along by the King's Highway, until we are past your borders. But Sihon would not grant Israel passage through his border, but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the desert and he came to Jahaz and warred against Israel. And Israel struck him with the edge of the sword and possessed his land from Arnon to Jabbok, to as far as the children of Ammon, because the border of the children of Ammon was fortified. Israel took all these cities, and Israel resided in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages.

For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had warred against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even to Arnon. That is why they speak in proverbs saying, come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and established. For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it has consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the high places of Arnon [Baale-bamoth]. Woe to you, Moab! you are undone, O people of Chemosh: he has given his sons that escaped and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon, king of the Amorites. We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even to Dibon, and we have laid them waste unto Nophah, that reaches to Medeba. So Israel resided in the land of the Amorites. Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they captured its villages, and drove out the Amorites that were there. Then they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei. YHWH spoke to Moses, Fear him not because I have delivered him into your hand, and all his people and his land, and you will do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites that lived at Heshbon. So they struck him and his sons, and all his people, until there were none left alive and they possessed his land.

And the children of Israel pulled up, and encamped in the plains of Moab on this side of Jordan by Jericho.

Chapter 22

Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. And Moab was exceedingly afraid of the people because they were many, and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel. Then Moab said to the Elders of Midian, Now this nation will lick up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the green plants of the field. And Balak son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. He then sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor who was at Pethor, near the Euphrates River in his homeland. Balak declared that a nation has come out of Egypt and are spread over the face of the land, and have encamped a short distance from me. Come here now and curse for me this people, because they are too strong for me, perhaps I can prevail so that we may beat them and that I will be able to drive them out of the land. For I have been informed that he who you bless is blessed and likewise that he who you curse is cursed. Then the Elders of Moab and the Elders of Midian went their way, with the rewards of divination in their hand, and they came to Balaam and spoke to him the words of Balak. And he said to them, lodge here tonight and I will return you word back, as YHWH will speak to me and so the nobles of Moab lodged with Balaam. Elohim came to Balaam and said, Who are these men with you?

Balaam replied to Elohim, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent for me saying, there are a people come out of Egypt that are spread over the face of the land, come now and curse them for me, perhaps I will be able to fight them and drive them away. Elohim replied to Balaam, You will not go with them and you will not curse these people because they are blessed. So Balaam got up in the morning and told the nobles of Balak, return back to your land because YHWH refuses to permit me to leave with you. So the nobles of Moab got up, and they came to Balak and reported, Balaam refused to come with us. Then Balak sent additional nobles, of greater honor and nobility than they. They came to Balaam and said to him, this is what Balak the son of Zippor says, let nothing hinder you from coming to me because I will promote you to very great honor, and I will do whatever you say to me. Come now, I summon you to curse these people for me. Balaam answered and replied to the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the Word of YHWH Elohim, to do less or more. Now stay here tonight so that I may know what YHWH will say to me additionally.

Later that night Elohim came to Balaam and said to him, If the men come to call you then get up and go with them, but the Word that I will say to you is what you will do. So Balaam got up in the morning and saddled his donkey, and went with the nobles of Moab. Then Elohim's nostrils flared with anger because he went [of his own and without being called by the nobles again] so the Angel of YHWH stood in the roadway to withstand him. Now he was riding upon his donkey, and his two slaves were with him. Now the donkey saw the Angel of YHWH standing in the roadway with his sword drawn in his hand, and the donkey turned aside from off the roadway and went into the field. Balaam then beat the donkey to return it to the road. But the Angel of YHWH stood in a pathway between the vineyards with hedges on both sides. So when the donkey saw the Angel of YHWH, it thrust itself unto the hedge, and squeezed Balaam's foot against the hedge, and he beat the donkey again. Then the Angel of YHWH went further, and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or left. When the donkey saw the Angel of YHWH, it fell down under Balaam and then Balaam's nostrils flared, and he beat the donkey with a staff. And YHWH opened the mouth of the donkey and it spoke to Balaam, what have I done to you that you have beaten me these three times? And Balaam replied to the donkey, because you have rolled yourself against me, oh if there were a sword in my hand, for now I would have slain you. The donkey replied to Balaam, am not I your donkey on which you have ridden ever since I was yours to this day?

Have I at all been accustomed to act towards you like this? and he replied, "No". Then YHWH opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of YHWH standing in the roadway, and his sword drawn in his hand and he bowed down his head, bowing his face downward. And the Angel of YHWH said to him, Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? I came out to withstand you because your way is reckless before me. The donkey saw me and turned from me these three times, unless it had turned from me, certainly by now I would also have killed you but saved the donkey alive. Balaam replied to the Angel of YHWH, I have sinned because I did not know that you stood in the way against me. Now therefore if it displeases you, I will return back [from where I came]. But the Angel of YHWH replied to Balaam, Go with the men, but only the Word that I will speak is what you will speak with to them. So Balaam went with the nobles of Balak. And when Balak heard that Balaam had arrived, he went out to meet him to a city of Moab that is on the Arnon border, at the outskirts of his territory. Balak said to Balaam, did I not send for you numerous times to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Did you think I was not able to promote you to honor? Balaam replied to Balak, I am come to you but have I of myself any power to say anything at all?

It is the Word that Elohim puts in my mouth that is only what I can speak. Then Balaam went with Balak and they came to Kirjathhuzoth. Now Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep and sent some to Balaam, and to the nobles that were with him.

Chapter 23

The next morning Balak took Balaam, and brought him up to the high places of Bamoth Baal, so that from there he might see the outermost part of the people. Then Balaam said to Balak, build me here seven altars and prepare here seven oxen and seven rams. Balak did as Balaam had spoken and Balak and Balaam sacrificed on every altar a young bull and a ram. Then Balaam said to Balak, stand by your whole burnt-offering and I will depart, perhaps YHWH will come to meet me and whatever Word he shows me I will make known to you. And he went to a barren height. Then Elohim met Balaam and he said to him, I have prepared seven altars and I have sacrificed on every altar a young bull and a ram. And YHWH put a Word in Balaam's mouth and said, Return to Balak, and this is what you will speak. So he returned to him and he stood by his whole burnt-offering, he and all the nobles of Moab. And he took up his proverb and said, Balak the king of Moab has lead me from Aram, out of the mountains of the East saying, come, curse Jacob for me, and come, denounce Israel. How will I curse whom Elohim has not cursed? Or how will I denounce whom YHWH has not denounced?

For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him, the people will dwell alone and will not be accounted among the nations. Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the quarter part of Israel? Let me die the death of the upright, and let my posterity be like his! Then Balak said to Balaam, what have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies and you have kept on blessing. He answered and replied, must I not give heed to speak what YHWH has put in my mouth? Then Balak said to him, Come with me to another place, from where you may see them, you will see only the outermost part of them and will not see them all, and curse them for me from there. He brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah and built seven altars, and sacrificed a young bull and a ram on every altar. Then he said to Balak, stand here by your whole burnt-offering while I meet YHWH over there. YHWH met Balaam and put a Word in his mouth and said, Go again to Balak, and say this. When he came back to him he stood by his whole burnt-offering, and the nobles of Moab with him. And Balak said to him, what has YHWH spoken? Then he took up his proverb and said, Stand up Balak and hear, listen to me you son of Zippor.

Elohim is not a man that he should lie, neither a son of Adam that He should repent, has He spoken and will He not perform it? Yes spoken, and will He not make it stand fast? I have received commandment to bless, and He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it. He has not regarded wickedness in Jacob, neither has he inspected mischief in Israel, YHWH his Elohim is with him and the shout of a King is among them. Elohim brought them out of Egypt, their strength is as the wild buffalo. Certainly there is no divination against Jacob, neither is there any witchcraft against Israel, on the right occasion it will be said of Jacob and of Israel, See what Elohim has done! A people like a lioness will rise up, rampant like a lion he will not couch until he eats the prey, and drinks the blood of the fatally wounded. Balak said to Balaam, neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all. But Balaam answered and replied to Balak, did not I tell you saying, all that YHWH speaks is what I am required to do? Then Balak said to Balaam, come, I will bring you to another place, and perhaps it will please Elohim that you may curse them for me from there. And Balak brought Balaam to the top of Peor that looks towards Jeshimon.

Balaam said to Balak, build me here seven altars, and prepare for me seven young bulls and seven rams. Balak did as Balaam had said and sacrificed a young bull and a ram on every altar.

Chapter 24

Then when Balaam saw that it pleased YHWH to bless Israel, he did not resort to divination as he had done before, but turned his face towards the uninhabited land. And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel settled down in their tents according to their tribes, and the Spirit of Elohim came upon him. He took up his proverb and said, the oracle of Balaam, son of Beor, yes the oracle of the man whose eyes were shut, but are now opened. The oracle of one hearing the sayings of Elohim, who sees the vision of Shaddai, who falls down but has unveiled eyes. How pleasant are your tents, O Jacob, and your Tabernacle, O Israel! As valleys they have been stretched out, As gardens by a river; As aloes YHWH has planted, As cedars by waters. He will pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed will have plentiful waters, and his King will be greater than Agag, and his Kingdom will be exalted. Elohim brought him out of Egypt, he has as it were the strength of a wild buffalo, he will eat up the nations of his enemies, and will break their bones and pierce them through with his arrows.

He couched and laid down as a rampant lion, and as a lioness, who will stir him up? Blessed is he that blesses you, and cursed is he that curses you. And Balak's nostrils flared against Balaam and he hit his hands together and Balak said to Balaam, I called you to curse my enemies but you have blessed them these three times. Now leave quickly and go home, I thought to promote you to great honor but YHWH has kept you back from honor. Balaam replied to Balak, did not I speak to your messengers saying, if Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of YHWH, to do either good or bad of my own mind, but what YHWH declares that I will speak? And now, I depart to my kinsmen but come and I will advise you what this nation will do to your people in the End-Time. He took up his proverb and said, the oracle of Balaam, son of Beor, yes the oracle of the man of opened eyes, the oracle of one hearing the sayings of Elohim, and knowing the knowledge of Shaddai, who sees the vision of Shaddai, who falls down but has unveiled eyes. I see him but not now, I watch him but not close, there will tread a Star out of Jacob, and a Scepter [staff] will arise out of Israel and will shatter the extremities of Moab, and will smash the children of Seth. And Edom will be a possession and Seir also will be a possession for its enemies, and Israel will do valiantly. A r will come out of Jacob and will destroy a remnant from Ar. Then when he looked on Amalek, he took up this proverb and said, Amalek was the first of the nations, but his posterity will be destroyed in future times. And he looked on the Kenites, and took up this proverb and said, your dwelling is permanent and you put your nest in a rock. Yet it will be for destruction, O Cain, how long will Asshur hold you captive? Then he took up this proverb and said, alas, who will remain when Elohim does this! And ships will come from the powers of Chittim, and will afflict Asshur, and will afflict Eber, and he also will perish in future times. Then Balaam stood up, and departed to return to his region and Balak also departed on his journey.

Chapter 25

Israel lived in Shittim, and the people desecrated themselves and committed fornication with the daughters of Moab. They called the people to the sacrifices of their elohim, and the people did eat, and bowed down to their elohim. Then Israel joined himself to Baal-peor [lord of the gap], and the nostrils of YHWH flared against Israel. YHWH spoke to Moses, Take all the chiefs of the people and impale them up before YHWH in the sun so that the fierce anger of YHWH may be turned away from Israel. Moses told the judges of Israel, you must slay everyone his men that were joined to Baal-peor. Then a man from the children of Israel had come and brought into his family a Midianitess in the presence of the eyes of Moses. And also before the eyes of all the company of the children of Israel, who were weeping at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And when Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest saw it, he rose up from among the company and took a javelin in his hand and went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel and the woman through her belly. So the slaughter was restrained from the children of Israel. Those that died in the slaughter were 24,000. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my burning anger from the children of Israel, by his being zealous with my zeal in their midst, and I have not consumed the sons of Israel in my zeal. Therefore tell him that I bestow to him my COVENANT OF PEACE. And he will have it, and his descendants after him, even THE COVENANT OF AN Age-Lasting PRIESTHOOD, because he was zealous for his Elohim, and made a Propitiatory-Covering for the children of Israel. The name of the man of Israel who was killed, who had been slain with the Midianitess was Zimri son of Salu, prince of the house of a father of the Simeonites.

And the name of the Midianitish woman that was killed was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur, he was chief over a people and of a father's house in Midian. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Besiege the Midianites and attack them because they distress you with their cunning, in that they have deceived you in the matter of Peor, and in the affair of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, that was slain in the day of the slaughter because of Peor. After the slaughter YHWH spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest saying, Take a census of all the nation of the children of Israel, from 20 years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all that are able to go to war in Israel. Then Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho saying, conduct a census of the people, from 20 years old and upward, as YHWH commanded Moses and the children of Israel that went out of the land of Egypt. Reuben, the eldest son of Israel: the children of Reuben; Hanoch, of the clan of the Hanochites: of Pallu, the family of the Palluites:

Chapter 26

Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Carmi, the family of the Carmites. These are the families of the Reubenites: and they that were numbered of them were 43,730. The sons of Pallu; Eliab. And the sons of Eliab; Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. This is that Dathan and Abiram, that were famous in the nation, who contended against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against YHWH. And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died in the supernatural fire that devoured the 250 men and they became an omen and the sons of Korah died not. The sons of Simeon after their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites: of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites: of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites: Of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites: of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites. These are the families of the Simeonites, 22,200. The children of Gad after their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites: of Haggi, the family of the Haggites: of Shuni, the family of the Shunites:

Of Ozni, the family of the Oznites: of Eri, the family of the Erites: Of Arod, the family of the Arodites: of Areli, the family of the Arelites. These are the families of the children of Gad according to those that were numbered of them, 40,500. The sons of Judah were Er and Onan: but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Judah after their families were; of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites: of Pharez, the family of the Pharzites: of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites. And the sons of Pharez were; of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites. These are the families of Judah according to those that were numbered of them, 76,500. The sons of Issachar after their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites: of Pua, the family of the Punites: Of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites: of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites. These are the families of Issachar according to those that were numbered of them, 64,300. The sons of Zebulun after their families: of Sered, the family of the Sardites: of Elon, the family of the Elonites: of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites. These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those that were numbered of them, 60,500. The sons of Joseph after their families were Manasseh and Ephraim. Of the sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites: and Machir gendered Gilead: of Gilead came the family of the Gileadites. These are the sons of Gilead: of Jeezer, the family of the Jeezerites: of Helek, the family of the Helekites: And of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites: and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites: And of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites: and of Hepher, the family of the Hepherites. And Zelophehad the son of Hepher had no sons, but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. These are the families of Manasseh, and those that were numbered of them, 52,700. These are the sons of Ephraim after their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthalhites: of Becher, the family of the Bachrites: of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites. These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those that were numbered of them, 32,500. These are the sons of Joseph after their families. The sons of Benjamin after their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites: of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites: of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites: Of Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites: of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites. And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: of Ard, the family of the Ardites: and of Naaman, the family of the Naamites. These are the sons of Benjamin after their families: and they that were numbered of them 45,600. These are the sons of Dan after their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan after their families. All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those that were numbered of them, were 64,400. The children of Asher after their families: of Jimna, the family of the Jimnites: of Jesui, the family of the Jesuites: of Beriah, the family of the Beriites. Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites: of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites.

And the name of the daughter of Asher was Sarah. These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those that were numbered of them; who were 53,400. The sons of Naphtali after their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites: of Guni, the family of the Gunites: Of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites: of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites. These are the families of Naphtali according to their families: and they that were numbered of them were 45,400. These were the numbered of the children of Israel, 601,730. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, To these is the land apportioned by inheritance, by the number of names. To the many you will increase their inheritance, and to the few you will diminish their inheritance, to each according to the census they will be given their inheritance. Make sure the land is divided by casting lots according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they will inherit. According to the lot the possession will be divided between many and few. These are they that were numbered of the Levites after their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites: of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites:

of Merari, the family of the Merarites. These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korathites. And Kohath gendered Amram. And the name of Amram's woman was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother gendered to Levi in Egypt: and she gendered to Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. And to Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. But Nadab and Abihu died, when they presented strange fire before YHWH. And those that were numbered of them were 23,000, all males from a month old and higher, for they were not numbered among the children of Israel because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel. These are they that were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho. But among these there was not a man of them who Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the Desert of Sinai. For YHWH had said of them, They will certainly die in the desert. And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. Then came the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph: and these are the names of his daughters;

Chapter 27

Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah. And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the chiefs and all the nation, by the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place saying, our father died in the desert, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against YHWH in the company of Korah, but for his own sin he died, and had no sons. Why should the name of our dad be done away from among his family, because he had no son? Give to us therefore a possession among the family of our father. And Moses brought their cause before YHWH. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, The daughters of Zelophehad speak right, you will certainly give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's family and you will cause the inheritance of their dad to pass to them. And you will speak to the children of Israel saying, If a man dies and has no son, then you will cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. But if he has no daughter, then you will give his inheritance to his brother. And if he has no brother, then you will give his inheritance to his dad's brother. But if his dad has no brother, then you will give his inheritance to his kinsman that is next to him in his family, and he will possess it. This will be to the children of Israel as a statute of judgment, as YHWH commanded Moses.

YHWH spoke to Moses, Get you up into this Mount Abarim, and see the land that I have given to the children of Israel. And when you have seen it, you also will be removed from your people, as Aaron your brother was removed. Because you rebelled against my commandment in the Desert of Zin, in the strife of the nation, to consecrate me at the water before their eyes, that is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the Desert of Zin. Moses spoke to YHWH saying, let YHWH, the Elohim of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the nation that may go out and come in before them, and that may lead them out, and bring them in that the nation of YHWH is not as sheep that has no shepherd. YHWH spoke to Moses, Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand upon him. Set him before Eleazar the priest and before the entire nation, and give him a commission in their sight. And you will put some of your majesty upon him, that all the nation of the children of Israel may be obedient. Then he will stand before Eleazar the priest, who will ask counsel for him after the judgment of Urim-[Thummim] before YHWH. At his word will they go out and at his word they will come in, he and all the children of Israel with him, even the entire nation. Moses did as YHWH commanded him and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest and before the entire nation. And he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a commission as YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses.

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Command the children of Israel and say to them, My offering and my bread for my Burnt-Offering, (a tranquilizing aroma to me) you will take heed to present to me at the Appointed Place. You will say to them, This is the Burnt-Offering that you will present to YHWH, two lambs, one year old without blemish daily for a continual Burnt-Offering. The one lamb will you offer at sunrise, and the other lamb you will offer at sunset. And 1/10th part [two quarts] of an ephah of flour for a Grain-Offering, mixed with the 1/4th part [one quart] of a hin of beaten oil. It is a continual whole Burnt-Offering that was instituted at Mount Sinai for a tranquilizing aroma, a sacrifice made by fire unto YHWH. And the Drink-Offering will be 1/4th part of a hin [one quart] for the one lamb, in the Holy Place will you pour out a Drink-Offering of strong drink unto YHWH. The other lamb you will offer at sunset as the Meat-Offering and Drink-Offering you presented at sunrise, you will offer it as a Burnt-Offering, a tranquilizing aroma unto YHWH. And on the Sabbath day two lambs of the first year without blemish, and 2/10th part [four quarts] of fine flour for a Grain-Offering mixed with oil, and its Drink-Offering. This is the whole Burnt-Offering for every Sabbath besides the continual Burnt-Offering, and its Drink-Offering.

Chapter 28

On the first day of your months you will present a whole Burnt-Offering to YHWH, two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish. And 3/10th parts [six quarts] of fine flour for a Grain-Offering, mixed with oil for one bull, and 2/10th parts [four quarts] of fine flour for a Grain-Offering mixed with oil for one ram. And 1/10th part [two quarts] of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering for every lamb, for a whole Burnt-Offering of a tranquilizing aroma, a fire-offering unto YHWH. Their Drink-Offerings will be half a hin [two quarts] of wine to a bull, and one third part of a hin [1 1/4th quarts] to a ram, and 1/4th part of a hin [one quart] to a lamb. This is the whole Burnt-Offering for every month throughout the months of the year. And one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering to YHWH will be offered, besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering and its Drink-Offering. The 14th day of the first month is the Passover of YHWH. The 15th day of this month is the Festival-Gathering, seven days will unleavened bread be eaten. The first day will be a sacred assembly, you will do no labor or business on that day. But you will present a fire-offering for a whole Burnt-Offering to YHWH, two young bulls and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year, they will be to you without blemish.

Their Grain-Offering will be of flour mixed with oil, 3/10th parts [six quarts] you will offer for a bull, and 2/10th parts [four quarts] for a ram. And 1/10th part [two quarts] you will offer for every lamb of the seven lambs. Also one goat for a Sin-Offering, to make a Propitiatory-Covering for you. You will offer these besides the whole Burnt-Offering at sunrise, this is for a continual whole Burnt-Offering. In this way prepare daily (for seven days) , bread of a fire-offering, a tranquilizing aroma to YHWH, besides the continual Burnt-Offering and its Drink-Offering. And on the seventh day you will have a sacred assembly, you will do no labor or business. Also in the day of the first-fruits, when you bring a new Grain-Offering to YHWH during the Festival-Gathering, you will have a Sacred assembly, you will do no labor or business. But you will present the whole Burnt-Offering for a tranquilizing aroma to YHWH, two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year. And their Grain-Offering of flour mixed with oil, 3/10th parts [six quarts] for one bull, and 2/10th parts [four quarts] for one ram, and 1/10th parts [two quarts] for every lamb of the seven lambs. And one male goat from the female goats, to make a Propitiatory-Covering for you.

You will offer them besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering, and its Grain-Offering, (they will be for you without blemish) and their Drink-Offerings. On the first day of the seventh month you will have a sacred assembly, you will do no labor or business, it is a day of Blowing the Trumpets to you. You will offer a whole Burnt-Offering for a tranquilizing aroma to YHWH, one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish.

Chapter 29

And their Grain-Offering will be of fine flour mixed with oil, 3/10th parts [six quarts] for a bull, and 2/10th parts [four quarts] for a ram, and 1/10th parts [two quarts] for every lamb of the seven lambs. And one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering, to make a Propitiatory-Covering for you. Besides th e whole Bu rnt-Offering for the month and its Grain-Offering, and the continual whole Burnt-Offering, and its Grain-Offering with their Drink-Offerings, according to the ordinance for a tranquilizing aroma, a fire-offering unto YHWH. You will have on the tenth day of this seventh month a sacred assembly, and you will afflict yourselves [with fasting], you will not do any work or business. But you will present a whole Burnt-Offering to YHWH for a tranquilizing aroma, one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year and they will be without blemish. And their Grain-Offering will be of fine flour mixed with oil, 3/10th parts [six quarts] for a bull, and 2/10th parts [four quarts] to one ram, and 1/10th parts [two quarts] for every lamb of the seven lambs. One male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering besides the Sin-Offering of Propitiatory-Covering, and the whole continual Burnt-Offering, and its Grain-Offering with their Drink-Offerings. On the 15t h day of the seventh month you will have a Sacred assembly, you will do no labor or business, and you will celebrate a Festival-Gathering to YHWH for seven days and you will present a whole Burnt-Offering, a fire-offering of a tranquilizing aroma to YHWH, 13 young bulls, two rams, and 14 lambs of the first year that will be without blemish. And their Grain-Offering will be of fine flour mixed with oil, 3/10th parts [six quarts] for every bull of the 13 bulls, 2/10th parts [four quarts] for each ram of the two rams, and 1/10th parts [two quarts] for every lamb of the seven lambs. And one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering, its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering. And on the second day you will offer twelve young bulls, two rams, 14 lambs of the first year without blemish with their Grain-Offering and Drink-Offerings for the bulls, rams, and for the lambs, in their number and according to the ordinance. And one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering, and Grain-Offering with the Drink-Offerings. On the thi rd day 11 bulls, two rams, and 14 lambs of the first year without blemish and their Grain-Offering and Drink-Offerings for the bulls, rams, and for the lambs [shall be] in their number and according to the ordinance. And one male goat for a Sin-Offering besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering, and its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering. On the fourth day ten bulls, two rams, and 14 lambs of the first year without blemish and their Grain-Offering and Drink-Offerings for the bulls, rams, and for the lambs, in their number and according to the ordinance. And one male goat from the female goats for a Sin-Offering besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering, its Grain-Offering, and Drink-Offering. On the fif th day nine bulls, two rams, and 14 lambs of the first year without blemish and their Grain-Offering and Drink-Offerings for the bulls, rams, and for the lambs, in their number and according to the ordinance. And one male goat for a Sin-Offering besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering, and its Grain-Offering, and Drink-Offering. On the sixth day eight bulls, two rams, and 14 lambs of the first year without blemish and their Grain-Offering and Drink-Offerings for the bulls, rams, and for the lambs, in their number and according to the ordinance. And one male goat for a Sin-Offering besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering, its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering. On the seventh day; seven bulls, two rams, and 14 lambs of the first year without blemish and their Grain-Offering and Drink-Offerings for the bulls, rams, and for the lambs, in their number and according to the ordinance. And one male goat for a Sin-Offering besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering, its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering. On the eighth day you will have a solemn assembly, you will do no labor or business. But you will present a whole Burnt-Offering, a fire-offering of a tranquilizing aroma to YHWH, one bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish, their Grain-Offering and Drink-Offerings for the bull, ram, and for the lambs, in their number and according to the ordinance.

And one male goat for a Sin-Offering besides the continual whole Burnt-Offering, and its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering. These things you will observe unto YHWH in your appointed seasons besides your vows, Free-Will Offerings, whole Burnt-Offerings, Grain-Offerings, Drink-Offerings, and for your Peace-Offerings. And Moses told the children of Israel everything that YHWH commanded him. Moses spoke to the chiefs of the tribes concerning the children of Israel saying, This is the matter that YHWH has commanded.

Chapter 30

If a man vows a vow to YHWH, or adjures an oath to bind his life with a binding obligation, he will not defile his word but will accomplish everything according to all that proceeds out of his mouth. If a woman also vows a vow to YHWH, and binds herself by a binding obligation, in the house of her dad in her youth. And when her dad hears her vow, and the binding obligation where she had obligated herself, if her dad will hold his peace with her then all her vows will stand and every binding obligation that she has bound herself with will stand. But if her dad forbids her in the day he hears her vows then not any of her vows, or her binding obligations will stand that she has bound herself with, and YHWH will pardon her because her dad disallowed her. But if she is married to a husband when her vows were made or if a rash utterance fell from her lips, where she placed a binding obligation on herself and if her husband hears it but holds his peace with her in the day it was spoken, then her vows will stand and her binding obligations that she placed on herself will stand. But if her husband forbids her on the day he heard it then he will make the vow, or what she uttered with her lips (where she obligated herself) to be null and void, and YHWH will forgive her. But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced where they have obligated themselves will remain binding on them. But if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound herself by a binding obligation with an oath and her husband heard it but held his peace with her, and did not make it null and void, then all her vows will stand and every obligation that she committed to will remain in force. But if her husband has utterly made them null and void on the day he heard it, then whatever proceeded out of her lips regarding her vows (or concerning those binding obligations she made) will not stand. Her husband has made them void and YHWH will pardon her. Every vow and every binding oath to abstain from food or anything, her husband may allow it or invalidate it. But if her husband holds his peace with her daily, then he establishes all her vows, or all her binding obligations that are upon her. He confirms them because he held his peace with her in the day he heard it spoken. But if he nullifies them later after he has already heard them, then he will bear her guilt. These are the statutes that YHWH commanded Moses between a man and his woman, or between a father and his youthful daughter, living in her father's house.

Chapter 31

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Execute the vengeance of the children of Israel against the Midianites and afterwards you will be gathered to your people. Moses spoke to the people saying, Arm some of you for the war, and let them go against the Midianites, to put the vengeance of YHWH on Midian. You will send 1000 men out of each tribe, from among all the tribes of Israel, for the war. So there were conscripted out of the thousands in Israel, 1000 from every tribe, 12,000 armed for war. And Moses dismissed them to the war, 1000 of them from every tribe with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, with the Holy Object [Urim-Thummim] and the trumpets to blow in his hand. Then they waged war against the Midianites, as YHWH commanded

Moses and they killed all the males. And they killed the kings of Midian, besides the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: Balaam, the son of Beor, they also killed with the sword. The children of Israel took captive the women of Midian and their infants, and all their cattle, their substance, and all their wealth they have plundered. They torched all their cities where they lived, and all their walled dwelling places with fire.

They seized all the spoil and all the booty, both of men and of animals. And they brought the captives, the booty, and the spoil to Moses and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the nation of the children of Israel to the camp at the plains of Moab, that are by Jordan near Jericho. Then Moses and Eleazar the priest, and all the commanders of the nation went out to meet them outside the camp. And Moses was angry with the officers of the army, with the commanders over thousands, and commanders over hundreds that came in from the battle. And Moses questioned them, have you saved all the women alive? These caused the children of Israel through the counsel of Balaam, to commit unfaithful acts against YHWH in the matter of Peor, and there was a slaughter among the nation of YHWH. Now therefore kill every male among the children, and kill every woman that has carnally known man by sleeping with him. But all the girls that have not carnally known a man by sleeping with him keep alive for yourselves. And encamp yourselves outside the camp for seven days, whoever has killed a person and whoever has touched the slain, cleanse yourselves from sin on the third day and the seventh day, both you and your captives. And purify from uncleanness all your garments, and all articles made from animal hides, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made from wood.

Eleazar th e priest s aid to the men of war that went to the battle, This is the statute of the Law that YHWH commanded Moses, only the gold, silver, brass, iron, tin, and the lead, everything that may go into fire you will cause to pass over through fire, and it will be clean, but only with the Water of Impurity it is cleansed. And all that may not go into fire you will cause to pass over through water. You will wash your clothes on the seventh day and you will be clean, and afterward you will come into the camp. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Take the total of the booty that was taken, both of man and of animal, you and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the nation and you will divide the booty between those who took part in battle and the entire nation. From the men who fought in the war, set apart as tribute for YHWH one out of every 500, whether of people, cattle, donkeys, sheep or goats. Take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest, for a Heave-Offering to YHWH. And from the children of Israel's half you will take one possession out of 50, of man, herd, donkeys, flock, and of all the cattle, and you will give them to the Levites keeping the guard of the Tabernacle of YHWH.

Moses and Eleazar the priest did as YHWH commanded Moses. And the booty, be ing the rest of the spoil that the men of war had caught, was 675,000 sheep, and 72,000 cattle, and, 61,000 donkeys and 32,000 persons in all, of women that had not carnally known man by having sexual relations with them. The half t hat was the portion of them that went out to war totaled 337,500 sheep, and YHWH's tribute from the sheep is 675, and 36,000 cattle, the tribute being for YHWH is 72, and 30,500 donkeys, the tribute being for YHWH is 61, and 16,000 people, the tribute being for YHWH is 32. Moses gave the tribute that was YHWH's Heave-Offering to Eleazar the priest, as YHWH commanded Moses. And of the children of Israel's half, that Moses divided from the men that warred, the half that pertained to the nation was 337,500 sheep, and 36,000 cattle, and 30,500 donkeys, and 16,000 people. Even of the children from Israel's half, Moses took one portion out of 50, both of man and animal and gave them to the Levites that kept the guard of the Tabernacle of YHWH, as YHWH commanded Moses. And the officers that were over thousands of the army, the commanders of thousands, and commanders of hundreds, came near to Moses. And they said to Moses, your servants have reckoned up the total number of the men of war that were under our command, and there is not missing from us even one man!

We therefore present an offering to YHWH, what every man has acquired, of objects of gold, armlet, bracelets, rings, earrings, and ornaments, to make a Propitiatory-Covering for our lives before YHWH. Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, even all hand-crafted articles. And all th e gold of the Heave-Offering that they have lifted up to YHWH was 16,750 shekels, from commanders of the thousands, and from commanders of the hundreds, and the men of war had taken spoil every man for himself. Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and brought it to the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, for a Memorial for the children of Israel before YHWH. Now the ch ildren of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock, and when they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, that it was an [ideal] place for cattle then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the priest, and to the chiefs of the nation. They said that Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Shebam, Nebo, and Beon, even the land that YHWH scourged before the nation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your slaves own cattle.

And they said, if we have found grace in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants for a possession rather than letting us pass over the Jordan. And Moses said to the children of Gad and the children of Reuben, will your kinsmen go to war, and will you sit here? And why discourage you the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land that YHWH has given them? Your fathers did this when I sent them from Kadeshbarnea to inspect the land.

Chapter 32

For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land that YHWH had given them. Then YHWH' s nostrils flared at that time and he ad jured sayi ng, Certainly none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from 20 years old and higher will see the land that I adjured unto Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob because they have not completely followed me, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun, because they have completely followed YHWH. And YHWH's anger burned against Israel, and he made them wander in the desert 40 years, until all that generation, that had done evil in the sight of YHWH, was consumed. And you have risen in the place of your fathers, an increase of sinful men to add still more to the fury of the anger of YHWH towards Israel. Because if you turn away from after him, he will still again leave them in the desert and you will destroy all these people. And they c ame near to him and said, we wil l build sheepfolds here for our herds, and cities for our children, but we ourselves will go armed and ready before the children of Israel, until we have brought them to their place, and our children will live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. We will not return to our houses until the children of Israel have acquired every man his possession. Because we will not inherit with them on the other side of Jordan, and forward because our inheritance has fallen to us on this side of the Jordan eastward.

Then Moses replied to them, if you will do this thing by going armed before YHWH to war, and will go armed over Jordan before YHWH (all of you) , until he has driven out his enemies from before him. When the land is subdued before YHWH then later you can return, and will be guiltless before YHWH and before Israel. Then this land will be your possession before YHWH. But if you will not do so you have sinned against YHWH and be certain your sin will find you out. Build yourselves cities for your children, and pens for your sheep and do what has proceeded out of your mouth. The children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses saying, your slaves will do as YHWH commands. Our children, our women, our livestock, and all our cattle will remain in the cities of Gilead but your slaves will pass over, every man armed for war, before YHWH to battle as YHWH has declared.

Then Moses gave charge to Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel. And Moses said to them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed for battle before YHWH, and the land will be subdued before you, then you will give them the land of Gilead for a possession. But if they will not pass over with you armed, they will have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

The children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered saying, as YHWH has said to your servants, so will we do. We will pass over armed before YHWH into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side of Jordan may be ours. Moses gave to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan. He gave the whole land along with the cities and territories, all the cities of the surrounding land. Then the children of Gad built Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, Atroth, Shophan, Jaazer, Jogbehah, Bethnimrah, and Bethharan, fenced cities: and pens for sheep. Then the children of Reuben built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kirjathaim, Nebo, Baalmeon, (their names being changed,) and Shibmah: and gave other names to the cities that they constructed. Then the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and seized it, and dispossessed the Amorite that lived there. Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh; and he resided there. And Jair the son of Manasseh went and seized the small towns, and called them Havothjair. And Nobah went and seized Kenath, and its villages, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

These are the journeys (the pulling up of stakes) of the children of Israel that went out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. Moses recorded their departures according to their pulling up of stakes by the commandment of YHWH, and these are their journeys according to their departures. They departed from Rameses in the first month, on the 15th day of the first month; on the day after the Passover, the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians. Because the Egyptians buried all their firstborn that YHWH had killed among them, upon their elohim also YHWH executed judgments. Then the children of Israel pulled up stakes from Rameses, and pitched in Succoth. Later they departed from Succoth, and encamped at Etham that is at the edge of the wilderness. And they pulled up stakes from Etham, and turned again to Pihahiroth, that is before Baalzephon: and they encamped before Migdol.

Chapter 33

Then they departed from before Pihahiroth, and passed through the middle of the Red Sea into the desert, and went three days' journey in the Desert of Etham, and pitched at Marah. Then they pulled up stakes from Marah and came to Elim: and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and 70 palm trees and they encamped there. They pulled up stakes from Elim, and encamped by the Red Sea. They pulled up stakes from the Red Sea, and encamped in the Desert of Sin. They took their journey out of the Desert of Sin, and encamped at Dophkah. They pulled up stakes from Dophkah and encamped at Alush. They pulled up stakes from Alush and encamped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink. They pulled up stakes from Rephidim, and pitched in the Desert of Sinai. They pulled up stakes from the Desert of Sinai and pitched at Kibrothhattaavah. They pulled up stakes from Kibrothhattaavah and encamped at Hazeroth. They pulled up stakes from Hazeroth and pitched at Rithmah.

They pulled up stakes from Rithmah and pitched at Rimmonparez. They pulled up stakes from Rimmonparez and pitched in Libnah. They pulled up stakes from Libnah and pitched at Rissah. They pulled up stakes from Rissah and pitched at Kehelathah. They pulled up stakes from Kehelathah and pitched at Mount Shapher. They pulled up stakes from Mount Shapher and encamped at Haradah. They pulled up stakes from Haradah and pitched at Makheloth. They pulled up stakes from Makheloth and encamped at Tahath. They pulled up stakes from Tahath and pitched at Tarah. They pulled up stakes from Tarah and pitched at Mithcah.

They pulled up stakes from Mithcah and pitched at Hashmonah. They pulled up stakes from Hashmonah and encamped at Moseroth. They pulled up stakes from Moseroth and pitched at Benejaakan. They pulled up stakes from Benejaakan and encamped at Horhagidgad. They pulled up stakes from Horhagidgad and pitched at Jotbathah. They pulled up stakes from Jotbathah and encamped at Ebronah. They pulled up stakes from Ebronah and encamped at Eziongaber. They pulled up stakes from Eziongaber and pitched in the Desert of Zin, that is Kadesh. They pulled up stakes from Kadesh and pitched at Mount Hor, at the border of the land of Edom. Then Aaron the priest went up into Mount Hor at the commandment of YHWH and died there, in the 40th year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month.

Aaron was a 123 years old when he died in Mount Hor. And king Arad the Canaanite that lived in the south in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel. They pulled up stakes from Mount Hor and pitched in Zalmonah. They pulled up stakes from Zalmonah and pitched in Punon. They pulled up stakes from Punon and pitched in Oboth. They pulled up stakes from Oboth and pitched in Ijeabarim, at the border of Moab. They pulled up stakes from Iim and pitched in Dibongad. They pulled up stakes from Dibongad and encamped at Almondiblathaim. They pulled up stakes from Almondiblathaim, and pitched in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo. They pulled up stakes from the mountains of Abarim and pitched in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

And they encamped by Jordan, from Bethjesimoth even to Abelshittim in the plains of Moab. YHWH spoke to Moses in the pla ins of Moab by Jord an near Jericho saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you are passed over Jordan into the land of Canaan then you will drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their images, and destroy all their molten metal images, and annihilate all their high places (cultic platforms). And you will dispossess the inhabitants of the land, and reside there because I have given you the land to possess it. You will divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families and to the greater number you will give more inheritance, and to the fewer you will give less inheritance.

Every man's inheritance will be in the place where his lot falls according to the tribes of your fathers you will inherit.

But if you will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it will come to pass that of those that you let remain will be thorns in your eyes and pricks in your sides. These ones will cause distress for you in the land where you reside. And I will do to you, as I thought to do to them.

Chapter 34

YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Command the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land of Canaan, this being the land that will fall to you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan with its coasts. Then your south quarter will be from the Desert of Zin along by the coast of Edom, and on the east your southern border will begin from the end of the Dead Sea. Your border will turn from the south to the Akrabbim Pass, and proceed on to Zin: and will end southward at Kadeshbarnea, and will go on to Hazaraddar, and pass on to Azmon, then the boundary will turn round from Azmon towards the ravine of Egypt and the extension of it will be towards the sea. As for the western border, you will have the Great Sea for a border: this will be your west border. This will be your north border, from the Great Sea you mark out for yourselves Mount Hor. From Mount Hor you will mark out your border to the entrance of Hamath; and its boundary will proceed to Zedad.

And the border has gone out to Ziphron, and its end has been at Hazar-Enan, this is to you the north border. You will mark out your east border from Hazarenan to Shepham. And the coast will go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain, and the border will descend and will reach to the side of the Sea of Galilee (Chinnereth) eastward. The border will go down to Jordan and the goings out of it will be at the Dead Sea, this will be your land with its borders on all sides. Moses commanded the children of Israel saying, This is the land that you will inherit by lot that YHWH commanded to give to the nine tribes, and to the half tribe. For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and half the tribe of Manasseh has received their inheritance. The two tribes and the half tribe has received their inheritance on this side Jordan near Jericho eastward, towards the sunrising. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, These are the names of the men that will divide the land to you, Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun. You will take one chief from every tribe to divide the land by inheritance. The names of the men are these: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

The tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. The tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon. The chief from the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli. The chief of the children of Joseph, for the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod. The chief of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan. The chief of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach. The chief of the tribe of the children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan. The chief of the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi. The chief of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud. These are they who YHWH commanded to allot the inheritance to the children of Israel in the land of Canaan. YHWH spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho saying, Command the children of Israel that they give to the Levites from the inheritance of their possession cities to live in, and you will also give to the Levites suburbs surrounding those cities.

Chapter 35

And they will have the cities to live in and their suburbs will be for their cattle, and for their possessions and for all their crops. The suburbs of the cities that you will give to the Levites will extend from the wall of the city outward a distance of 1500 feet. And you will measure from outside the city on the east side 3000 feet, and on the south side 3000 feet, and on the west side 3000 feet, and on the north side 3000 feet and the city will be in the center. This will be to them the suburbs of the cities. And among the cities that you will give to the Levites there will be six cities for refuge, that you will appoint for the killer, that he may flee there and for them you will add 42 cities. So all the cities that you will give to the Levites will be 48 cities. You will distribute these with their suburbs. And the cities that you will give will be from the possessions of the children of Israel, from those that have many you will give many but from those that have few you will give little. Everyone will give of his cities to the Levites according to his inheritance that he acquires. YHWH spoke to Moses saying, Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you are come over Jordan into the land of Canaan then you will appoint cities, to be cities of refuge for yourselves, that the killer may flee there who kills any person unintentionally. And they will be to you cities for refuge from the avenger so the killer does not die, until he stands before the nation in judgment.

And of these cities that you will give, six cities will you have for refuge. You will give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities you will appoint in the land of Canaan, that will be cities of refuge. These six cities will be a refuge, both for the children of Israel and for the foreigner, as well as the traveler among them so that everyone that kills any person unintentionally may escape there. But if he strikes him with an instrument of iron so that he dies, he is a murderer and the murderer will certainly be put to death. If he strikes him with throwing a stone so that he perishes and dies, he is a murderer and the murderer will certainly be put to death. Or if he strikes him with a hand weapon of wood so that he perishes, and dies, he is a murderer and the murderer will certainly be put to death. The kinsman-avenger of blood himself will kill the murderer when he encounters him and he will kill him. But if in hatred he thrusts him through, or has thrown anything at him by lying in wait and he expires or in hatred strikes him with his hand so that he dies he that hit him will certainly be put to death because he is a murderer. The kinsman-avenger of blood will kill the murderer when he encounters him. But if he thrusts him suddenly without hatred, or has thrown at him anything without laying of wait, or with any stone so that a man may die but did not see him.

And if throwing it at him caused him to expire but he was not his enemy, neither sought his harm, then the nation will judge between the killer and the kinsman-avenger of blood according to these judgments. The nation will deliver the killer out of the hand of the kinsman-avenger of blood, and the nation will lead him away to the city of refuge where he was escaped. He will reside inside the city until the death of the High Priest that was anointed with the Holy oil. But if the killer will at any time come outside the city limits of his refuge where he was escaped. Then if the kinsman-avenger of blood finds him outside the city limits of his refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the slayer then he will not be guilty of blood. This is because he should have remained inside the city limits of his refuge until the death of the High Priest but after the death of the High Priest the killer will return into the land of his possession. So these things will be for a statute of judgment for you throughout your generations in all your residences. Whoever kills any person, the murderer will be put to death by the mouth of witnesses, but one witness will not testify against any person to cause him to be executed. Also you will take no ransom for the life of a murderer that is guilty of death, but he will certainly be put to death.

You will take no ransom for him that is escaped to the city of refuge so that he can return to live in the land before the death of the High Priest. This is so you will not defile the land with blood, as this corrupts the land and the land cannot be cleansed from the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him that spilled blood. Do not make the land unclean where you will inhabit (where I live) because I, YHWH, live among the children of Israel. And the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, approached and spoke before Moses, and before the leaders, the chief fathers of the children of Israel.

Chapter 36

And they said, YHWH commanded my master to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel and my master was commanded by YHWH to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters. And if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then will their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers. And will be put to the inheritance of the tribe where they are received, so it will be taken from the lot of our inheritance. And when the Jubilee of the children of Israel comes, then will their inheritance be ascribed to the inheritance of the tribe where they are received, so will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers. Then Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the Word of YHWH saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph have spoken well.

This is what YHWH commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry whoever they think best but only to the family of the tribe of their father will they marry. No inheritance of the children of Israel will be transferred from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Israel will retain the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. And every daughter that possesses an inheritance, in any tribe from the children of Israel, must marry one of the families from the tribe of her father so that the children of Israel may enjoy the inheritance of their fathers. Neither will the inheritance change from one tribe to another tribe but everyone from the tribes of the children of Israel will cling to his own inheritance even as YHWH commanded Moses, so observed the daughters of Zelophehad. For Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their father's brothers' sons. And they were married to the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance is with the tribe of the family of their father. These are the commandments and judgments that YHWH charged by the hand of Moses for the children of Israel, in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho. Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy

Chapter 1

These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel on the east-side of the Jordan in the desert, in the plain over against the Red Sea, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab. It is an 11 day journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadeshbarnea. In the 40th year, in the 11th month, on the first day of the month, Moses spoke to the children of Israel according to all that YHWH had commanded him concerning them. After he had killed Sihon the king of the Amorites, that lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, that lived at Astaroth in Edrei. On the east-side of Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses began to declare this Law saying, YHWH Elohim spoke to us in Horeb saying, You have lived long enough in this mountain. Turn and pull up stakes, and go to the hill country of the Amorites. Then to all the neighboring regions, in the plain, in the hills, and in the valley, in the Negev and along the coast, to the land of the Canaanites, and to Lebanon, to the great river, the river Euphrates. Look, I have set the land before you so go in and possess the land that YHWH adjured to your forefathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give to them and to their offspring after them. And I spoke to you at that time saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone. YHWH Elohim has multiplied you and you are this day as the stars of the universe for multitude.

YHWH Elohim of your forefathers makes you a thousand times

greater than you are, and does bless you as he has promised you! How can I myself alone bear your burden, and your load, and your disputes? Choose some wise men of understanding and distinguished among your tribes, and I will make them chiefs over you. And you answered me and said, the thing that you have spoken is good for us to do. So I took the chief of your tribes, wise and distinguished men, and made them chiefs over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes. And I charged your judges at that time saying, hear the cases between your relatives and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the foreigner that is with him. You will not show partiality in judgment but you will hear the small as well as the great. Do not be afraid of any man, for the judgment is Elohim's and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it to me and I will hear it. And I commanded you at that time all the things that you should do. Then when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that vast and dreadful desert that you have seen (the way of the hill country of the Amorite), as YHWH Elohim has commanded us and then we came in unto Kadeshbarnea. And I said to you, you are come to the hill country of the Amorites that YHWH Elohim will give to us.

Look here, YHWH Elohim has set the land before you so go up and possess it as YHWH Elohim of your ancestors has promised to you, fear not, neither be discouraged. Then you came near to me every one of you and said, we will send men before us and they will explore the land, and bring us word again by what route we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. The idea sounded good and I took twelve men from you, one from each tribe and they turned and went up into the hill-country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol and spied it out. They took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us word back and said, it is a good land that YHWH Elohim will give us. Nevertheless you would not go up but rebelled against the commandment of YHWH Elohim. And you murmured in your tents and said, because YHWH hated us He has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us. Where can we go up? Our kinsmen have discouraged our heart saying, the people are greater and taller than us, the cities are great and fortified to the skies and in addition we have seen the sons of the Anakims (the race of giants) there. Then I said to you, fear not, do not be afraid of them. YHWH Elohim that goes before you, he will fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes.

And in the uninhabited land you saw how YHWH Elohim sustained you, as a man sustains his son, in all the distances you have traversed until you came to this place. Still in this thing you did not believe YHWH Elohim who went in the journey before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, by supernatural fire by night to show you what route you should go, and by the cloud-mass by day. YHWH heard the voice of your words and was angry, and adjured saying, Certainly not even one of these men from this bad generation will see that good land that I adjured to give to your fathers. Except for Caleb the son of Jephunneh, he will see it and to him I will give the land that he has marched on, and to his children, because he has wholly followed YHWH. Also YHWH was angry with me on your account saying, You also will not go into it. But Joshua the son of Nun, that stands before you, he will go into it so encourage him because he will cause Israel to inherit it. Also your infants that you said would be a prey, and your sons who this day had no knowledge between good and bad, they will enter the land and to them I will give it, and they will possess it. But as for you turn back and take your journey into the desert by the way of the Red Sea. Then you answered and said to me, we have sinned against YHWH, we will go up and fight, according to all that YHWH Elohim commanded us.

And when you had girded on every man his weapons of war, you were ready to go up into the hill-country. And YHWH spoke to me, Say to them, Go not up, neither fight because I am not among you unless you are beaten before your enemies. So I spoke to you but you would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of YHWH, and went presumptuously up into the hill-country. Then the Amorites, that lived in that hill-country, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah. And you returned and wept before YHWH, but YHWH would not hear your voice, nor listen to you. So you resided in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you lived there.

Chapter 2

Then we turned back and took our journey into the desert by the way of the Red Sea, as YHWH spoke to me and we encircled Mount Seir many days. YHWH spoke to me saying, you have encircled this mountain long enough, now turn north. And command the people saying, You are to pass through the border of your kinsmen, the children of Esau, that live in Seir, and they will be afraid of you so be very cautious:

not to meddle with them because I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot of it. This is because I have given Mount Seir to Esau for a possession. You will buy meat from them for money, that you may eat and you will also buy water from them for money, that you may drink. Because YHWH Elohim has blessed you in all the works of your hand, he knows your walking through this vast desert these 40 years and YHWH Elohim has been with you and you have lacked nothing. And when we passed by our kinsmen, the children of Esau that lived in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath, and from Eziongaber, and turning, we went by the route through the wasteland of Moab. And YHWH spoke to me, Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle because I will not give you of their land for a possession because I have given Ar to the children of Lot for a possession. The Emims resided there in times past, a people great and many, and tall as the Anakims that also were accounted giants, as the Anakims but the Moabites call them Emims. The Horims also lived in Seir in former times, but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place as Israel did unto the land of his possession, that YHWH gave to them. Now rise up I said, and get yourselves over the brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered. And the days that we have walked from Kadeshbarnea until we have passed over the brook Zered were 38 years, until the consumption of all that generation of the men of battle (from among those of the camp) as

YHWH has adjured to them.

For indeed the hand of YHWH was against them, to destroy them from among the camp, until they were consumed. So it came to pass, when all t he men of war were consumed and dea d from among the people, then YHWH spoke to me saying, You are to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab this day and when you approach the children of Ammon distress them not, nor meddle with them for I will not give you any of the land of the people of Ammon as a possession because I have bestowed it to the descendants of Lot as a possession. That also was accounted a land of giants, giants lived there in former times and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims, a large people, strong and tall as the Anakims but YHWH destroyed them before them and they succeeded them, and resided in their place. As he did to the children of Esau that lived in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims from before them and they succeeded them and lived in their place even to this day. And the Avims that lived in Hazerim, even to Azzah, the Caphtorims, that came out of Caphtor destroyed them, and resided in their place. Rise you up now and take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon, look, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite (king of Heshbon) and his land, so begin to possess it and contend with him in battle.

This day I will begin to put the dread of you and the fear of you upon the nations that are under the whole sky. They will hear a report of you and will tremble and be in anguish because of you. And I sent messengers out of the Kedemoth Desert to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace saying, Let me pass through your land and I will go along by the highway, I will neither turn to the right hand or to the left.

You will sell me meat for money that I may eat and give me water for money, that I may drink, only let me go through on foot. As the children of Esau that live in Seir, and the Moabites that live in Ar, did unto me, until I will pass over Jordan into the land that YHWH Elohim gives us. But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him, for YHWH Elohim hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into your hand as now you see. And YHWH spoke to me, Look I have begun to give Sihon and his land before you so begin to possess it so that you may inherit his land. Then Sihon came out against us (he and all his people) to fight at Jahaz. And YHWH Elohim delivered him before us and we killed him, and his sons, and all his people. And we took all his cities at that time and Devoted to Destruction the men and the women, and the children from every city, we left none to remain.

Only the cattle we took for a prey to ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we seized. From Aroer, that is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from the city that is by the river, even to Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us, YHWH Elohim delivered all of it to us. Only to the land of the children of Ammon you did not come near, all the side of the Jabbok ravine, nor to the cities of the hill country, nor to whatever YHWH Elohim forbid us.

Chapter 3

Then we turned, and went up the road to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. And YHWH spoke to me, Fear him not because I will deliver him and all his people and his land, into your hand and you will do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites that lived at Heshbon. So YHWH Elohim delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people and we conquered him until no survivor was left remaining. And we capture all his cities at that time; there had not been a city that we have not taken from them, 60 cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars besides a great many unwalled towns. And we Devoted to Destruction those, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, executing genocide on all the men, women, and children from every city. But all the cattle, and the booty from the cities, we took for a spoil to ourselves.

And we took at that time, the land out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorite, which is beyond the Jordan, from the brook Arnon to Mount Hermon which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion and the Amorites call it Shenir. All the cities of the plain and all Gilead, and all Bashan to Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. For only Og king of Bashan had been left of the remnant of the Rephaim (old race of giants) note that his bedstead was a bedstead of iron and it is still in Rabbath of the sons of Ammon. It is 13 feet long and six feet wide. And this land that we possessed at that time, from Aroer that is by the river Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead with its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites. And the rest of Gilead and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh, all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, that was called the land of Rephaim (old race of giants). Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob to the coasts of Geshuri and Maachathi, and called them after his own name, Bashanhavothjair to this day. I gave Gilead to Machir. And to the Reubenites and Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the river Arnon half the valley, and the border even to the river Jabbok, that is the border of the children of Ammon. The plain also and Jordan, and its coasts, from Chinnereth even to the sea of the plain, even the Salt Sea, under the springs of Pisgah eastward.

And I commanded you at that time saying, YHWH Elohim has given you this land to possess it, armed you will pass over before your kinsmen, the sons of Israel, all the sons of valor. But your women and your children, and your cattle, (because I know that you have much cattle) will remain in your cities that I have given you. Until YHWH has given rest to your kinsmen, as well as to you, and until they also possess the land that YHWH Elohim has given them beyond Jordan, and then you will return every man to his possession that I have given you. And I commanded Joshua at that time saying, Your eyes have seen all that YHWH Elohim has done to these two kings, so will YHWH do to all the kingdoms where you march over. You will not fear them because YHWH Elohim will fight for you. And I besought YHWH at that time saying, O Adonai YHWH, you have begun to show your servant your greatness, and your mighty hand, for what elohim is there in the universe or on earth that can duplicate your works, and according to your mighty deeds? I pray you, let me pass over and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon. But YHWH was angry with me on account of you and would not hear me and YHWH said to me, Enough from you, speak no more to me of this matter. Get yourself up to the top of Pisgah, and raise up your eyes to the West, North, South, and

East, and examine it with your eyes, but you will not pass over this Jordan. But commission Joshua and encourage him, and strengthen him because he will pass over before this people, and he will cause them to inherit the land that you will see.

So we stayed in the valley near Bethpeor. Now listen, O Israel, to the statutes and the judgments that I teach you to institute them so that you may live, and go in and possess the land that YHWH Elohim of your forefathers bestows to you.

Chapter 4

You will not add to the Word that I command you neither will you diminish anything from it, that you may observe the commandments of YHWH Elohim that I command you. Your eyes have seen what YHWH did because of Baalpeor, for all the men that followed Baalpeor has YHWH Elohim destroyed from among you. But you that adhered to YHWH Elohim are alive every one of you this day. Look, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as YHWH Elohim commanded me, that you should observe them in the land where you go to possess. Observe and do them because this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, that will hear all these statutes and say, certainly this great nation is a wise and understanding people. For what nation is there so great, that has Elohim so close to them, as YHWH Elohim is in all things that we call upon him for? And what nation is there so great, that has statutes and judgments so righteous as all this Law that I set before you this day? But take care and watch yourself diligently, unless you forget the things that your eyes have seen, and unless they depart from your heart all the days of your life, but teach them now to your children and your grandchildren.

The day when you have stood before YHWH Elohim in Horeb, in YHWH's saying to me, Assemble to Me the people, and I will cause them to hear my Words. They will then learn to fear me all the days that they are alive on the ground, and their children they will teach. And you approached and stood under the mountain and the mountain burned with supernatural fire to the very skies, with dark clouds, cloud-mass and obscurity. YHWH spoke to you out of the center of the supernatural fire, you heard the Voice of the Words but saw no form, but you only heard a Voice. And He declared to you his Covenant that He commanded you to perform, which were THE TEN COMMANDMENTS, and he wrote them on two tablets of stone. Then YHWH commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might observe them in the land where you pass over to possess. So keep watch on yourselves with carefulness because you saw no form of any sort on the day when the Voice of YHWH came to you in Horeb out of the center of the supernatural fire. Unless you corrupt yourselves and make yourselves a graven image, the representation of any image, the likeness of male or female, the likeness of any animal that is on the land, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air, the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth.

And unless you lift up your eyes to the skies and when you see the sun, moon and the stars, even all the whole creation of the universe. And then should be driven to worship them and serve them, that YHWH

Elohim has apportioned to all the peoples under the whole cosmos. But YHWH has taken you, and brought you out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be to him a people of inheritance, as you are this day. Furthermore YHWH was angry with me on your account and adjured that I should not pass over Jordan, and that I should not enter into that good land that YHWH Elohim bestows to you for an inheritance. But I must die in this land, I must not pass over Jordan, but you will pass over and possess that good land. Now watch yourselves unless you forget the Covenant of YHWH Elohim that he made with you, and you fashion a graven image or the likeness of anything that YHWH Elohim has forbidden you. For YHWH Elohim is a devouring supernatural fire, even a jealous Elohim. When you will gender children and grandchildren, and you will have remained long in the land, and will corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of anything, and will do bad in the sight of YHWH your Elohim to provoke him to anger. I call the cosmos and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from off the land where you pass over Jordan to possess it, you will not perpetuate your days upon it, but will be utterly destroyed. And YHWH will scatter you among the nations, and you will be left few in number among the Gentiles, wherever YHWH will lead you. And there you will serve elohim, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, that neither see nor hear, nor eat, nor smell. But if from there you will seek YHWH Elohim, you will find him, if you seek him with all your heart and with your entire mind.

When you are in tribulation and all these things are come on you, even in the End Times, if you turn to YHWH Elohim and will be obedient to his Voice. Because YHWH Elohim is a merciful Elohim, he will not forsake you, neither destroy you, nor forget the Covenant of your ancestors that He adjured to them. For ask now of the days that are past that were before you, since the day that Elohim created man upon the earth. Ask from the one side of the cosmos to the other whether there has been any such thing as this important matter heard? Did a people ever hear the Voice of Elohim speaking out of the center of the supernatural fire, as you have heard and remain alive? Or has Elohim tried to go in to take to Himself, a nation out from another nation, by trials, signs, miracles, war, a strong hand and a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that YHWH Elohim has done for you in Egypt and before your eyes? To you it was shown so that you might know that YHWH, He is Elohim, and there is no one else besides him. From the skies he made you to hear his Voice, that he might instruct you and upon the earth he showed you his intense supernatural fire and you heard his Words out of the center of that supernatural fire. And because he loved your forefathers he then elected their offspring after them, and brought you out in His sight with his mighty power out of Egypt; to drive out nations from before you larger and mightier than you are, to bring you in and to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

Know this day and consider it in your heart that YHWH, He is Elohim, in the cosmos above and upon the earth beneath, and there is none else. You will observe his statutes, and his commandments that I command you this day so that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, and that you may perpetuate your days upon the land, that YHWH Elohim wholly gives to you. Then Moses set aside three cities beyond the Jordan toward the eastern sun rising that the slayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unintentionally, but did not hate him in times past, and that fleeing to one of these cities he might remain alive. Namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites. And this is the Law that Moses set before the children of Israel. These are the testimonies, statutes, and judgments that Moses spoke to the children of Israel, after they came out of Egypt, on this side of Jordan, in the valley near Bethpeor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who resided at Heshbon, who Moses and the children of Israel conquered, after they were come out of Egypt. And they possessed his land, and the land of Og (king of Bashan), two kings of the Amorites, that were on this side Jordan toward the eastern sun rising from Aroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even to Mount Sion that is Hermon.

And all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the plain, under the springs of Pisgah.

Chapter 5

Then Moses called all Israel and said to them, Hear O Israel, the statutes and judgments that I speak in your ears this day, that you may learn them, and observe and institute them. YHWH Elohim made a Covenant with us in Horeb. YHWH did not make this Covenant with our forefathers but with us: we, (these here today), all of us that are alive.

YHWH talked with you face to face in the mountain out of the center of the supernatural fire. I stood between YHWH and you at that time, to show you the Word of YHWH because you were afraid by reason of the supernatural fire, and did not go up into the mountain. Then He said, I am YHWH Elohim that brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. [1] YOU WILL HAVE NO OTHER ELOHIM BEFORE ME. [2] YOU WILL NOT MAKE TO YOURSELVES ANY IDOL OR ANY IMAGE OF ANYTHING THAT IS IN COSMOS ABOVE, OR THAT IS IN THE LAND, OR THAT IS IN THE WATER. You will not bow down yourself to them nor serve them, for I (YHWH your Elohim) am a jealous Elohim, punishing the depravity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generation of those that hate me. And showing goodness to thousands of them that love me, and observe my commandments. [3] YOU WILL NOT TAKE THE NAME OF YHWH YOUR ELOHIM IN VAIN; for YHWH will not hold him guiltless that takes his Name in vain. [4] REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY AS CONSECRATED. Six days shall you labor, and do all your work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of YHWH your Elohim, in it you will not do any work, you, your son, daughter, male and female slave, livestock, nor the foreigner that resides within your gates; so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you. And remember that you were slaves in the land of Egypt, and that YHWH Elohim brought you out by a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm, therefore YHWH Elohim commanded you to observe the Sabbath Day. [5] HONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER, as YHWH Elohim has commanded you, THAT YOUR DAYS MAY BE LONG ON THE LAND THAT YHWH YOUR ELOHIM GIVES YOU. [6] YOU WILL NOT MURDER. [7] YOU WILL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY. [8] YOU WILL NOT STEAL.

[9] YOU WILL NOT TESTIFY AS A FALSE WITNESS AGAINST ANOTHER PERSON. [10] YOU WILL NOT COVET another person's house, you will not covet another man's woman, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is another person's. These Words YHWH spoke to all your company in the mountain out of the center of the supernatural fire, from the cloud-mass and the thick clouds, with a great Voice and he added no more. And he wrote them in two tablets of stone, and delivered them to me. And it came to pass as you heard the Voice out of the center of the darkness, and from the mountain burning with supernatural fire, that you approached me, all the chiefs of your tribes and your Elders. And you said, look, YHWH Elohim has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard his Voice out of the center of the supernatural fire, we have seen this day that Elohim does talk with man and that he remains alive. But now why should we die? for this intense supernatural fire will consume us if we hear the Voice of YHWH Elohim anymore, then we will die. For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the Voice of the living Elohim speaking out of the center of the supernatural fire, as we have, and remained alive? Approach yourself near, and hear all that YHWH Elohim will say, and you speak to us all that YHWH Elohim will speak to you, and we will hear it and do it. And YHWH heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and YHWH said to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people that they have spoken to you, and they have spoken well all that they have said. O that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me and observe all my commandments daily, that it might be well with them and with their children for the ages!

Go tell them to return to your tents again. But as for you, stand here by me and I will speak to you all the commandments, statutes and judgments, that you will teach them that they may observe them in the land that I give them to possess. You will observe to do as YHWH Elohim has commanded you; you will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. You will walk in all the ways that YHWH Elohim has commanded you, that you may remain alive, and that it may be well with you, and that you may perpetuate your days in the land that you will possess.

Chapter 6

Now these are the commandments, statutes, and judgments that YHWH Elohim commanded to teach you, that you might observe them in the land where you pass over to take possession of. That you might fear YHWH Elohim, to observe all his statutes and commandments that I charge you with, you and your son and grandsons, all the days of your life and that your days may be perpetuated. Hear now, O Israel, and observe to do them, that it may be well with you, and that you may increase exceedingly as YHWH Elohim of your forefathers has promised you, in the land that flows with milk and honey. Hear O Israel, YHWH

Elohim is the one and only YHWH. And you will love YHWH Elohim with all your heart and with your entire mind, and with all your might. These Words that I command you this day will be in your heart.

And you will teach them diligently to your children, and will talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down and when you rise up. You will bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they will be as marks between your eyes. You will write them upon the door posts of your house and on your gates. And it will be when YHWH Elohim will have brought you into the land that He adjured to your forefathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you large and excellent cities that you did not construct, and houses full of all good things that you have not filled, and wells dug that you have not excavated, vineyards and olive-yards that you have not planted, and you have eaten and been satisfied. Then beware unless you forget YHWH that brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. You will fear YHWH Elohim and serve him, and will adjure by his Name. You will not go after other elohim, of the elohim of the people that are around you. Because YHWH Elohim is a jealous Elohim among you, unless the anger of YHWH Elohim burn against you and destroy you from off the face of the ground. You will not test YHWH Elohim, as you tested him in Massah.

You will diligently observe the commandments of YHWH your Elohim, and his testimonies and statutes that he has commanded you. And you will observe what is right and good in the sight of YHWH, that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land that YHWH adjured to your forefathers, to cast out all your enemies from before you, as YHWH has spoken. And when your son asks you in times to come saying, what do these testimonies, statutes, and judgments mean that YHWH Elohim has commanded you? Then you will say to your son, we were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, and YHWH brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. And YHWH showed signs and miracles, intense and very bad ones, upon Egypt and upon Pharaoh and his entire household, before our very eyes. He brought us out from there so that he might bring us in, to give us the land that He adjured to our forefathers. And YHWH commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear YHWH Elohim, for our good always, that He might preserve us alive, as it is this day. These will be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before YHWH Elohim, as He has commanded us.

Chapter 7

When YHWH Elohim will bring you into the land where you go to possess and has cast out many nations before you, the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and stronger than yourself.

And when YHWH Elohim will deliver them before you, you will attack them, and Devote to Destruction all of them [performing genocide], you will make no covenant with them, nor show mercy to them. Neither will you make marriages with them, your daughter you will not give to his son, nor his daughter will you take for your son. For they will turn away your son from following me, that they may serve other elohim, so will the nostrils of YHWH flare against you and destroy you suddenly. But this is how you will deal with them, you will destroy their Altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire. Because you are a Holy people to YHWH Elohim, and YHWH Elohim has chosen you to be a special people to Himself, above all people that are upon the face of the whole-inhabited earth. YHWH did not set his love upon you, nor choose you because you were a great number of people, but you were the fewest of all peoples. But because YHWH loved you, and because He would keep the oath that He had adjured to your forefathers, has YHWH brought you out with a mighty hand, and ransomed you out of the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Know now that YHWH Elohim, he is Elohim, the faithful Elohim that keeps his Covenant-Pledge and mercy with them that love him and guards his commandments to a 1000 generations. And repays them that hate him to their face, to destroy them, he will not be slack to him that hates him, he will repay him to his face. You will observe the commandments and the statutes, and judgments that I command you this day, to institute them.

If you pay heed to these judgments, and observe and institute them, then YHWH Elohim will perform for you the Covenant-Pledge and the mercy that he adjured to your fathers. And he will love and bless you, and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your land, your corn and wine, and your oil, the increase of your cattle, and the flocks of your sheep, in the land that he adjured to your forefathers to give to you. You will be blessed above all people; there will not be a male or female sterile among you, or among your cattle. YHWH will take away from you all sickness, and will put none of the bad diseases of Egypt that you know about upon you, but will lay them on all them that hate you. You will consume all the people that YHWH Elohim will deliver to you, your eye will have no pity on them, and neither will you serve their elohim because that would be a snare to you. If you will say in your heart, these nations are greater than I, so how can I dispossess them? You will not be afraid of them, but will well remember what YHWH Elohim did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt. The great testing that your eyes saw, and the signs, miracles, and the mighty hand and stretched out arm, with which YHWH Elohim brought you out, so will YHWH Elohim do likewise to all the people of whom you are afraid. And also the hornet will YHWH Elohim send among them, until the destruction of those who are left and of those who are hidden from your presence. You will not be terrified of them because YHWH Elohim is among you, a mighty Elohim and to be feared.

And YHWH Elohim will clear away those nations before you little by little, you will not consume them all at once, unless the animals of the field multiply upon you. But YHWH Elohim will deliver them to you, and will destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they are destroyed. He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you will destroy their name from under the skies, no men will station themselves in your presence until you have destroyed them. The graven images of their elohim you will burn with fire, you will not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it to yourselves, unless you are snared by it because it is a disgusting thing to YHWH Elohim. Neither will you bring a disgusting thing into your house, unless you become a cursed thing like it, but you will detest and count it filthy and will abhor the abomination because its Devoted to Destruction.

Chapter 8

All the commandments that I command you this day will you observe and institute so that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that YHWH adjured to your forefathers. You will remember all the journeys that YHWH Elohim led you through these 40 years in the uninhabited lands, to humble you and to test you, to know what was in your heart and whether you would observe his commandments or not. And he humbled you and made you to be hungry. Then he fed you with manna that you did not acknowledge, neither did your father's acknowledge, so that he might make you recognize that man does not live by bread only, but by every Word that issues forth out of the mouth of YHWH is what man will live by. Your clothing did not wear out on you, neither did your feet become blistered these 40 years.

You will also consider in your heart, that as a man corrects his son, so YHWH Elohim corrects you. Therefore you will observe the commandments of YHWH Elohim, to walk in His ways and to fear Him. Because YHWH Elohim brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and deep places that spring out of valleys and hills. A land of wheat, barley, vines, fig trees, and pomegranates, a land of oil, olive, and honey. A land where you will eat bread without scarceness, you will not lack anything in it, a land whose stones are iron ore, and out of whose hills you may quarry copper ore. When you have eaten and are full, then you will bless YHWH Elohim for the good land that he has given you. Beware that you forget not YHWH Elohim, in not observing his commandments, judgments, and his statutes that I command you this day. Unless when you have eaten and are full, and have constructed quality homes and have lived in them. And when your herds and flocks multiply, and your silver and gold is increased, and all that you have has greatly enlarged. Then your heart becomes lofty, and you forget YHWH Elohim that brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery. Who led you through that vast and terrible desert, where there were fiery snakes and scorpions, and drought where there was no water, which brought you water gushing forth out of the flinty rock.

Who fed you in the desert with manna that your fathers did not acknowledge that he might humble you, and that he might test you, to do you good in your End Times. And you say in your heart, my power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth. But you will remember YHWH Elohim because it is he that gives you power to get wealth, that he may establish his Covenant that he adjured to your fathers as it is this day. And it will be, if you do indeed forget all that YHWH Elohim did, and walk after other elohim, and serve and worship them, I testify against you this day that you will certainly perish. As the nations that YHWH destroyed before your face, so will you perish because you would not be obedient to the Voice of YHWH Elohim.

Chapter 9

Hear O Israel, You are to pass over Jordan this day, to enter and dispossess nations greater and stronger than yourself, cities great and fortified to the skies, a people great and tall, the children of the Anakims (race of giants), who you know (and of which you have heard said), who can stand before the children of Anak! Understand therefore this day, that YHWH Elohim is He that passes over before you as a consuming supernatural fire and will destroy them, and will bring them down in your presence, so you will drive them out and destroy them quickly, as YHWH has commanded you. Now do not say to yourself after YHWH Elohim has cast them out from before you saying, because of my righteousness YHWH has brought me in to possess this land, but for the wickedness of these nations YHWH does drive them out from before you. Not because of your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart will you go to possess their land. But for the wickedness of these nations YHWH Elohim will drive them out from before you so that he may perform the Word that YHWH adjured to your forefathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Understand therefore that YHWH Elohim gives you not this good land to possess it for your righteousness because you are a stiff of neck people. Remember, and forget not how you provoked YHWH Elohim to anger in the desert, from the day that you departed out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against YHWH. Also in Horeb you provoked YHWH to anger, so that YHWH was angry with you to have destroyed you. When I was gone up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, even the tablets of the Covenant that YHWH made with you, then I remained in the mountain 40 days and 40 nights, I neither ate bread nor drank water. And YHWH delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of Elohim, and on them were written according to all the Words that YHWH spoke with you in the mountain out of the center of the supernatural fire in the day of the assembly. Then at the end of 40 days and 40 nights YHWH gave me the two tablets of stone even the Tablets of the Covenant. And YHWH spoke to me, Arise, get down quickly from here because your people that you have brought out of Egypt have corrupted themselves, they are quickly turned aside out of the way that I commanded them, they have fashioned themselves a molten metal image. Furthermore YHWH spoke to me saying, I have seen this people and they are a stiff of neck people. Let me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under the skies and I will make of you a nation numerous and greater than they. So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain burned with supernatural fire and the two tablets of the Covenant were in my two hands.

I looked and behold, you had sinned against YHWH Elohim, and had fashioned yourself a molten metal calf. You had turned aside quickly out of the way that YHWH had commanded you. And I took the two tablets, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes. And I fell down before YHWH, as at the first, 40 days and 40 nights, I did neither eat bread nor drink water, because of all your sins that you had sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger. Because I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, which YHWH was angry against you to destroy you. But YHWH listened to me at that time also. And YHWH was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him, and I prayed for Aaron also at that same time. And I took your sin, the calf that you had made, and burnt it with fire and stamped it and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast its dust into the brook that descended out of the mountain. And at Taberah, Massah, and Kibrothhattaavah you provoked YHWH to anger. Likewise w hen YHWH sent you from Kadeshbarnea saying, Go up and possess the land that I have given you, then you rebelled against the commandment of YHWH Elohim, and you believed him not, nor hearkened to his Voice. You have been rebellious against YHWH from the day that I knew you. So I fell down before YHWH 40 days and 40 nights, as I fell down at the first, because YHWH had said He would destroy you.

I prayed therefore to YHWH and said, O Adonai YHWH, destroy not your people and your inheritance that you have ransomed through your greatness, that you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. Remember your slaves, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, look not to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin. Unless the land where you brought us out utters, because YHWH was not able to bring them into the land that He promised them and because He hated them, He has brought them out to slay them in the desert. Yet they are your people and your inheritance, that you brought out by your mighty power and by your stretched out arm.

Chapter 10

At that time YHWH spoke to me, Cut yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up into the mountain to me and fashion yourself an Ark (chest) of wood. And I will write on the tablets the Words that were in the first tablets that you broke, and you will put them into the Ark. Then I fashioned an Ark of shittim wood, and cut two tablets of stone like the first, and went up into the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. He wrote on the tablets, according to the first writing, the Ten Commandments, that YHWH spoke to you in the mountain out of the center of the supernatural fire in the day of the assembly and YHWH gave them to me. And I turned myself and came down from the mountain and put the tablets into the Ark that I had fashioned, and there they are as YHWH commanded me. And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera, there Aaron died and there he was buried.

And Eleazar his son served as priest in the priesthood in his place. From there they journeyed to Gudgodah and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters. At that time YHWH separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, to stand before YHWH to serve unto him, and to bless in his Name to this day. Therefore Levi has no part or inheritance with his kinsmen, YHWH is his inheritance, according as YHWH Elohim promised him. And I stayed in the mountain, according to the first time, 40 days and 40 nights and YHWH listened to me at that time also, and YHWH would not destroy you. YHWH spoke to me, Arise, take your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land that I adjured to their forefathers to give to them. And now Is rael, what does YHWH Elohim require of you, but to fear YHWH Elohim, to walk in all his ways and to love Him, and to serve YHWH Elohim with all your heart and with all your mind, to observe the commandments of YHWH, and his statutes, that I command you this day for your good? Consider, the sky and the cosmos of the universe are YHWH Elohim's, the earth also, with all that is in it. Only YHWH had a delight in your fathers to love them, and he chose their offspring after them, even you above all people, as it is this day. Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff of neck.

For YHWH Elohim IS Elohim of elohim, and Master of masters, a distinguished Elohim, a strong, and dreadful, that regards not persons, nor takes reward. He will execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loves the foreigner, in giving him food and clothing. You must love the foreigner because you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. You will fear YHWH Elohim, him you will serve and to him you will cleave, and adjure by his Name. He is your praise, and he is your Elohim, that has done for you these distinguished and dreadful things, that your eyes have seen. Your forefathers went down into Egypt with 70 people and now YHWH Elohim has made you as the stars of the universe for multitude.

Chapter 11

Therefore you will love YHWH Elohim and observe his charge, and his statutes, judgments, and his commandments always. By now you know the discipline of YHWH, though your sons who have neither known or experienced it do not, you know his mighty power and his strong hand and outstretched arm. And his miracles and his acts, that he did in the belly of Egypt to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt and to all his land. And what he did to the army of Egypt, to their horses and to their chariots, how he made the water of the Red Sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how YHWH has destroyed them to this day.

And what he did to you in the desert, until you came into this region. Also what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben, how the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them up, and their households and their tents, and all their living substance that was in their possession among everyone of Israel. But your eyes have seen all these great acts of YHWH that he did. Therefore you will observe all the commandments that I command you this day, that you may be strong and go in and possess the land, where you are going to possess. So that you may perpetuate your days in the land, that YHWH adjured to your forefathers to give to them and to their offspring, a land that flows with milk and honey. For the land where you go to possess is not like the land of Egypt, from where you came out, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your foot, as a garden of green vegetables. But the land where you go to possess is a land of hills and valleys, and drinks water from the rain of the sky. A land that YHWH Elohim cares for, the eyes of YHWH Elohim are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year. Then if you will listen diligently to My commandments that I command you this day, to love YHWH Elohim, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your mind. That I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your corn, and your wine and your oil.

And I will send grass in your fields for your cattle, that you may eat and be full. Take heed to yourselves, that your heart is not deceived, and you turn aside and serve other elohim, and worship them. And then YHWH's nostrils flared against you and he shut up the sky, that there was no rain and that the land yielded not its fruit, unless you perish quickly from off the good land that YHWH gives you. Therefore you will establish these words of mine in your heart and in your mind, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as marks between your eyes. And you will teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house and when you walk on your journey, when you lie down, and when you get up. You will write them on the door posts of your house, and upon your gates so that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children in the land that YHWH adjured to your forefathers to bestow to them, as long as the skies hang over the earth. For if you will diligently observe all these commandments that I command you, to do them, to love YHWH your Elohim, to walk in all His ways and to stay close to him. Then YHWH will drive out all these nations from before you and you will possess greater nations that are stronger than yourselves. Every place that the soles of your feet will tread will be yours.

Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon and from the Euphrates River to the western (Mediterranean) Sea. There no man will be able to stand before you because YHWH Elohim will lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that you will tread upon, as he has declared to you. Look, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse. A blessing, if you obey the commandments of YHWH Elohim, that I command you this day. And a curse if you will not obey the commandments of YHWH Elohim, but turn aside out of the way that I command you today, to go after other elohim, that you have not known. When YHWH Elohim has brought you to the land where you travel to possess, then you will put the blessing upon Mount Gerizim, and the curse upon Mount Ebal. Are they not on the other side of Jordan, by the road where the sun goes down, in the land of the Canaanites, that live in the desert plains opposite Gilgal, beside the plains of Moreh? For you will pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land that YHWH Elohim bestows to you, and you will possess it and reside therein. You will observe to accomplish all the statutes and judgments that I set before you this day.

Chapter 12

These are the statutes and judgments that you will observe to do in the land that YHWH Elohim of your father's bestows on you to possess for all the days that you live upon the earth. You will Devote to Destruction all the regions where the nations that you will possess had served their elohim, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills and under every green tree. You will break down their altars and wreck their pillars, and burn their groves with fire and you will chop down the graven images of their elohim, and destroy the names of them out of those regions. You will not act like [these pagans] toward YHWH Elohim. But to the Standing Place that YHWH Elohim will choose out of all your tribes to put his Name there, even to his dwelling will you seek and to there you will come. Then you will bring your whole Burnt-Offerings, sacrifices, and your tithes and Heave-Offerings from your hand, and your vows, and your Freewill-Offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks. And there you will eat before YHWH Elohim, and you will rejoice in all that you put your hands to, you and your descendants where YHWH Elohim has blessed you. You will not do there the things we do here this day, every man what seems good to himself. For you have not yet come to your resting place and to the inheritance that YHWH Elohim bestows to you. But when you pass over Jordan and live in the land that YHWH Elohim bestows for you to inherit, and when he gives you rest from all your enemies around, so that you live in security. Then there will be a place that YHWH Elohim will choose to cause his Name to reside there. Then you will bring all that I command you, your whole Burnt-Offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and Heave-Offering from your hand, and all your choice vows that you vow to YHWH. And you will rejoice before YHWH Elohim, you and your sons, and your daughters, and your male and female slaves, and the Levite that is within your gates forasmuch as he has no part or inheritance with you.

Take heed to yourself that you offer not your whole Burnt-Offerings in every place you see. But in the place that YHWH will choose in one of your tribes, there you will offer your whole Burnt-Offerings, and there you will do all that I command you. Only, with all your desire will you do sacrifice, and will eat flesh according to the blessing of YHWH Elohim that He has bestowed to you, in all your gates, the unclean and the clean will eat it, as of the gazelle and as of the hart. Only you will not eat the blood, you will pour it on the ground as water. You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your corn, wine, oil, or the firstborn from your herds or flock, nor any of your vows that you vow, nor your Freewill-Offerings, or Heave-Offering of your hand. But you must eat them before YHWH Elohim in the place that YHWH Elohim will choose. You and your son, and your daughter, and male and female slaves, and the Levite that is within your gates, and you will rejoice before YHWH Elohim in all that you put your hand to. Be careful to yourselves that you forsake not the Levite as long as you live upon the earth. When YHWH Elohim will enlarge your border, as He has promised you and you will say, I will eat flesh because you long to eat flesh, you may eat flesh, whatever you desire after. If the Standing Place that YHWH Elohim has chosen to put his Name there is too far from you. Then you will slaughter from your herd and flock what YHWH has bestowed to you, as I have commanded you, and you will eat in your gates whatever you desire after. Even as the gazelle and the hart is eaten, so you will eat them, the unclean and the clean will eat of them alike.

Only be sure that you do not eat the blood because the blood, it is the life, and you may not eat the life with the flesh. You will not eat it, you will pour it on the ground as water. You will not eat it so that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, when you will do what is right in the sight of YHWH. Only your Sacred things that you have and your vows you will take, and go to the place that YHWH will choose. You will offer your whole Burnt-Offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the Altar of YHWH Elohim and the blood of your sacrifices will be poured out on the Altar of YHWH Elohim, and you will eat the flesh. Observe and hear all these words that I command you, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you for the ages, when you do what is good and right in the sight of YHWH Elohim. When YHWH Elohim will cut off the nations from before you, where you go to dispossess and seize from them and then reside in their land. Take heed to yourself that you are not snared by following them, after when they are destroyed from before you and that you inquire not after their elohim saying, how did these nations serve their elohim? even so I will do the same. You will not do so to YHWH Elohim because every abomination to YHWH, that he hates, have they done to their elohim, for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their elohim. Whatever things I command you, observe to do it, you will not add to it, nor subtract from it.

Chapter 13

If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams and gives you a sign or a portent, and the sign or the portent comes to pass that he spoke to you saying, let us go after other elohim, that you have not known and let us serve them. You will not listen to the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams because YHWH Elohim tests you, to know whether you love YHWH Elohim with all your heart and with your entire mind. You will walk after YHWH Elohim, and fear him and observe his commandments, and obey his Voice and will serve and stay close to him. And that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death because he has spoken to turn you away from YHWH Elohim, which brought you out of the land of Egypt. Who ransomed you out of the house of slavery, to seduce you out of the way that YHWH Elohim commanded you to walk in. So will you put the evil away from among

you. If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or daughter, or the woman of your bosom, or friend who is like yourself, entices you secretly saying, let us go and serve other elohim that you have not known, you or your fathers. Namely, of elohim from the people that surround you, near to you, or far off from you, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth. you will not consent to him, nor listen to him, neither will your eye pity him, neither will you spare or will you hide him. But you will certainly execute him; your hand will be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. And you will stone him with stones, that he dies because he has sought to thrust you away from YHWH Elohim, that brought you out of the land of Egypt from the house of slavery.

And all Israel will hear and be afraid, and no one will do any such evil thing as this among you. If you will hear it said in one of your cities, that YHWH Elohim has given you to dwell in saying, certain men, the children of Belial (worthlessness), are gone out from among you and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city saying, let us go and serve other elohim that you have not known. Then you will inquire and make search, and ask diligently and if there is truth to it, and if the thing is certain that such a disgusting thing is done among you. You will certainly attack the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, Devoting to Destruction all that is in it, and the cattle also with the edge of the sword. You will gather all the spoil of it into the middle of the street and will burn with fire the city, and all the spoil of it, every item, for YHWH Elohim. And it will be a heap of ruins for the ages and it will not be built again. And there will not cling to your hands any of the things Devoted to Destruction, so that YHWH will turn back from the fierceness of his anger, and has given to you mercies, and loved you and multiplied you, as he has adjured to your fathers: because you will listen to the Voice of YHWH Elohim, to observe all his commandments that I command you this day, to do what is right in the eyes of YHWH Elohim.

Chapter 14

You are the children of YHWH Elohim, you will not cut yourselves or shave your forehead for the dead. For you are a sacred people to YHWH Elohim, and YHWH has chosen you to be a nation treasured to himself, above all the nations that are on the earth.

You will not eat any disgusting things. These are the animals that you will eat: the ox, sheep, goat, hart, gazelle, red-colored deer, wild goat, antelope, wild ox, and the mountain goat. And every animal that has a divided hoof, split in two and bringing up the cud, among the beasts, those you can eat. Only, this you will not eat, of those bringing up the cud, and of those dividing the cloven hoof: the camel, hare, and the rabbit, for they are bringing up the cud but the hoof is not divided; unclean they are to you. And the swine, because it divides the hoof, yet does not chew the cud, it is unclean to you, you will not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcass. These you shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales you can eat: And whatever does not have fins and scales you may not eat; it is unclean to you. Of all clean birds you will eat. But these are they that you will not eat: the eagle, ossifrage, ospray, hawk, falcon, and the vulture after their species, And every raven after their species, and the owl, night hawk, cuckow, and the unclean bird of prey after their species. The little owl, the great owl, swan, pelican, gier eagle, cormorant, stork, heron after their species, the lapwing, and the bat. And every creeping thing that flies is unclean to you, they will not be eaten. But of all clean flying creatures you may eat. You will not eat of anything that dies of itself, you will give it to the foreigner that is in your gates, that he may eat it or you may sell it to the foreigner. For you are a Sacred people to YHWH Elohim. You will not boil a young male goat in his mother's milk. You will truly tithe all the produce of your seed, that the field brings forth year by year. And you will eat before YHWH Elohim, in the place that he will choose to place his Name, the tithe of your corn, wine, oil, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks, that you may learn to fear YHWH Elohim always. And if the journey is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, or if the place is too far from you, that YHWH Elohim will choose to set his Name there, when YHWH Elohim has blessed you. Then will you turn it into money, and bind up the money in your hand and will go to the place that YHWH Elohim will choose.

And you will bestow that money for whatever you desire, for oxen, sheep, wine, strong drink, or for whatever you desire, and you will eat there before YHWH Elohim, and you will rejoice, you and your household. And the Levite that is within your gates, you will not forsake him because he has no part or inheritance with you. At the end of three years you will bring forth all the tithe of your increase the same year, and will lay it up within your gates. And the Levite, (because he has no part or inheritance with you), and the foreigner, and the fatherless and widow, that are within your gates, will come and will eat and be satisfied, that YHWH Elohim may bless you in all the work of your hand that you accomplish. At the end of every seven years you will make a release from debt. And this is the manner of the release from debt. Every creditor that lends something to his neighbor will release the debt.

Chapter 15

He will not exact it from his neighbor or from his brother because it is called YHWH's release from debt. Of a foreigner you may exact it again, but what is yours with your brother your hand shall release from debt. Except when there is no poor among you because YHWH will greatly bless you in the land that YHWH Elohim gives you for an inheritance to possess.

Only if you carefully listen to the Voice of YHWH Elohim, to observe to do all these commandments that I command you this day. For YHWH Elohim blesses you, as He promised you and you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow, and you will reign over many nations, but they will not reign over you. If there is among you a poor man from one of your kinsmen within any of your gates in your land that YHWH Elohim gives you then you will not harden your heart, nor shut your hand from your poor kinsman. But you will open your hand wide to him, and will certainly lend him sufficient for his need, in what he lacks. Beware that there is not a thought in your wicked heart saying, the seventh year, the Year of Release from debt is at hand. Then your eye becomes evil against your poor kinsman and you give him nothing, and he cries to YHWH against you, and it is sin to you. You will certainly give to him and your heart will not be grieved when you give to him for because of this thing will YHWH Elohim bless you in all your works, and in every putting forth of your hand. For the poor will never cease out of the land, therefore I command you saying, You will open your hand wide to your kinsmen, to your poor, and to your needy in your land. And if your brother, a Hebrew man, or Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you will let him go free from you. And when you send him out free from you, you will not let him go away empty handed. You will furnish him liberally out of your flock, and out of your floor, and out of your wineries, of the things that YHWH Elohim has blessed you with and you will give to him. And you will remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and YHWH Elohim ransomed you, therefore I command you this thing today.

And it will be if he says to you, I will not go away from you because he loves you and your house, because he is beneficial with you. Then you will take a boring instrument, and thrust it through his ear and through the door, and he will be your slave for the ages. And also to your female slave you will do likewise. It will not seem hard to you, when you send him away free from you because he has been worth a double hired servant to you, in serving you six years and YHWH Elohim will bless you in all that you accomplish. All the firstborn males that come of your herd and from your flock you will consecrate to YHWH Elohim. You will do no work with the firstborn of your bulls, nor shear the firstborn of your sheep. You will eat it before YHWH Elohim year by year in the place that YHWH will choose, you and your household. And if there is any blemish in it, for example, if it is lame, blind, or has any malignant blemish, you will not sacrifice it to YHWH Elohim. You will eat it within your gates, the unclean and the clean person will eat it alike, as the gazelle, and as the deer. Only you will not eat its blood, you will pour it upon the ground as water. Observe the month of Abib, and celebrate the Passover to YHWH Elohim, because in the month of Abib YHWH Elohim brought you out of Egypt by night. You will therefore sacrifice the Passover to YHWH Elohim, from the flock and the herd, in the place that YHWH will choose to place his Name.

Chapter 16

You will eat no leavened bread with it, seven days you will eat unleavened bread, even the bread of affliction because you came out of the land of Egypt in haste. This is so that you may remember the day when you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. And there will be no leavened bread seen with you in all your borders for seven days, neither will anything of the flesh, that you sacrifice the first day at sunset remain all night until sunrise. You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, that YHWH Elohim gives you. But at the place that YHWH Elohim will choose to place his Name in, there you will sacrifice the Passover at sunset, at the going down of the sun, in the season that you came out of Egypt. And you will roast and eat it in the place that YHWH Elohim will choose and then at sunrise return to your tents. For six days you will eat unleavened bread and on the seventh day there will be a solemn assembly to YHWH Elohim. You will do no work on that day. You will count seven weeks for yourself, you will begin to count seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain. And you will observe the Feast of Weeks to YHWH Elohim with a tribute of a Freewill-Offering of your hand, which you will give to YHWH Elohim, according as YHWH Elohim has blessed you. You will rejoice before YHWH Elohim, you and your son, daughter, male and female slaves as well as the Levite that is within your gates. And the foreigner, and the fatherless and widow that are among you, in the place that YHWH Elohim has chosen to place his Name. And you will remember that you were slaves in Egypt and you will observe and institute these statutes. You will observe the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days, after you have gathered in your corn and your wine. And you will rejoice in your Festival-Gathering, you, and your son, daughter, male and female slaves as well as the Levite, foreigner, and the fatherless, and widow that are within your gates. For seven days you will observe a solemn Festival to YHWH Elohim in the place that YHWH will choose, because YHWH Elohim will bless you in all your increase, and in all the works of your hands, therefore you will certainly rejoice! For three times in a year will all your males appear before YHWH Elohim in the place that He will choose, in the FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD, and in the FEAST OF WEEKS, and in the FEAST OF TABERNACLES: and they will not appear before YHWH empty. Every man will give as he is able, according to the blessing of YHWH Elohim that He has given you. Judges and officers you will appoint yourselves in all your gates, that YHWH Elohim gives you, throughout your tribes, and they will judge the people with just judgment. You will not extend the time of judgment, you will not respect persons, neither take a gift because a gift will blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. Righteousness! Righteousness! You will pursue so that you live, and have possessed the land that YHWH Elohim is giving to you. You will not plant yourself a grove of any trees near to the Altar of YHWH Elohim, that you will make for yourselves. Neither will you set yourself up any image that YHWH Elohim hates. You will not sacrifice to YHWH Elohim any bulls or sheep that are blemished, or any malignant ones because that is a disgusting thing to YHWH Elohim.

If there is found among you, within any of your gates that YHWH Elohim gives you a man or woman that has done bad in the sight of YHWH Elohim, in transgressing his Covenant-Pledge, and has gone and served other elohim and worshiped them, either the sun, moon, or any of the host in the visible universe, that I have not commanded.

Chapter 17

And it is told to you and you have heard of it, and inquired thoroughly, and it is true, the thing being certain, that such abomination is done in Israel. Then you will bring forth that man or woman that has committed that bad thing to your gates, even that man or woman, and will stone them with stones until they are dead. At the mouth of two or three witnesses will he that is worthy of death be put to death, but at the mouth of one witness he will not be put to death. The hands of the witnesses will be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you will put this evil away from among you. If there arises a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between dispute and dispute and between wound and wound, being matters of controversy within your gates, then you will arise, and get yourself up to the place that YHWH Elohim will choose. And you will come to the priests the Levites, and to the judge that will be in those days and inquire [by Urim-Thummim], and they will show you the sentence of judgment. And you will do according to the tenor of the word that they declare to you (they of the place that YHWH will choose), and you will observe to do according to all that they direct you. According to the sentence of the Law that they will teach you, and according to the judgment that they will tell you, you will accomplish it. You will not decline from the sentence that they will reveal to you, to the right hand or the left. And the man that will act arrogantly, and will not listen to the priest that stands to minister there before YHWH Elohim, or to the judge, even that man will be executed, and you will put away the evil from Israel. And all the people will hear, and fear, and will not act in arrogance. When you are come to the land that YHWH Elohim gives you, and will possess it, and will live there and will then declare, I will set a king over me the same as all the nations that surround me. You will certainly set over yourself a king on whom YHWH does elect, from among your kinsmen. You will set over yourself a king but will not be able to set over yourself a foreigner who is not your kinsmen. He will not multiply chariot horses to himself, nor will cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply chariot horses, forasmuch as YHWH has commanded you that you will not return that way again. Neither will he multiply women to himself so that his heart turns not away, neither will he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold. And it will be, when he sits upon the throne of his kingdom, that he will write him a copy of this Law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites. And it will be with him, and he will read in it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear YHWH his Elohim, to observe all the Words of this Law and these statutes to accomplish them. That his heart will not become lofty above his kinsmen, and that he turns not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left, to the end that he may perpetuate his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, among those of Israel.

Neither the priests the Levites or any of the tribe of Levi, will have either portion or inheritance with Israel, the Altar-fire of YHWH and his inheritance will they eat. Therefore they will have no inheritance among their kinsmen, because YHWH is their inheritance, as he has promised to them.

Chapter 18

And this will be the priest's privilege from the people, from them that sacrifice, whether it is ox or sheep, and they will give to the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the belly. The first-fruit also of your corn, wine, oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, will you give to him. For YHWH Elohim has chosen him out of all your tribes, to stand to serve in the Name of YHWH, him and his sons for the ages.

And if a Levite comes from any of your gates out of all Israel, where he traveled, and comes with all the desire of his mind to the place that YHWH will choose. Then he will serve in the Name of YHWH Elohim, as all his kinsmen the Levites do, that stand there before YHWH. They will have equal portions to eat, besides what comes from the sale of his inheritance. When you are come into the land that YHWH Elohim gives to you, you will not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. There will not be found among you anyone that makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that practices divination, or a conjurer, fortuneteller, witch, charmer, inquirer of familiar spirits, wizard, or a necromancer.

For all that do these things are an abomination unto YHWH, and because of these disgusting things YHWH Elohim does drive them out from before you. You will be wholesome with YHWH Elohim. For these nations, that you will possess, listened to conjurers and to diviners, but as for you, YHWH your Elohim has not permitted you to do so. YHWH Elohim will raise up unto you a prophet from among you, from your kinsmen, like unto Me and unto him you will listen. According to all that you desire of YHWH Elohim in Horeb in the day of the company saying, let me not hear again the Voice of YHWH Elohim, neither let me see this great supernatural fire anymore, so that we do not die. And YHWH spoke to me, They have well-spoken what they have declared. I will raise them up a prophet from among their kinsmen, like unto you, and will put my Words in his mouth, and he will speak to them all that I will command him. And whoever will not listen to my Words that he will speak in my Name, I will require it of him. But the prophet that will arrogantly speak a word in my Name, that I have not commanded him to speak, or that will speak in the name of other elohim, even that prophet will die. And if you say in your heart, how will we know the word that YHWH has not spoken?

When a prophet speaks in the name of YHWH, if the thing does not follow, nor comes to pass, that is, the thing that YHWH has not spoken, but the prophet has spoken it arrogantly, you shall not live with him. When YHWH Elohim has cut off the nations, whose land YHWH Elohim bestows to you, and you dispossess them, and live in their cities and in their homes. You will separate three cities for yourself located centrally in your land, that YHWH Elohim gives you to possess.

Chapter 19

You will prepare yourself a road, and will divide into three parts the border of your land that YHWH Elohim will cause you to inherit, and it will be for the one fleeing there of every man-slayer. And this is the case of the slayer, which will flee to the city so that he may live. Whoever kills his neighbor unwittingly, whom he did not hate in times past. As when a man goes into the woods with his neighbor to cut wood, and his hand drives a stroke with the ax to cut down the tree, but the head slips from the wooden handle, and falls upon his neighbor so that he dies. He will flee to one of those cities and remain alive. Unless the avenger of the blood chases the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtakes him because the road is long, and kills him, whereas he was not worthy of death inasmuch as he did not hate him in times past. Therefore I command you saying, You will separate three cities for yourselves. And if YHWH Elohim enlarge your borders, as he has adjured to your forefathers, and gives you all the land that He promised to give to your ancestors.

If you will observe all these commandments to institute them, that I command you this day, to love YHWH Elohim, and to walk daily in his ways, then you will add three more cities for yourselves, beside the three you already have. That innocent blood is not shed in your land, that YHWH Elohim bestows to you for an inheritance, and so that you will not be guilty of bloodshed. But if anyone hates his neighbor, and lies in wait for him, and rises up against him, and kills him mortally so that he dies, and then escapes into one of these cities. Then the Elders of his city will send and fetch him, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood so that he may die. Your eye will not pity him, but you will remove the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you. You will not displace your neighbor's landmark, that they of old times have set in your inheritance, that you will inherit in the land that YHWH Elohim bestows to you for a possession. One witness will not rise up against a man for any depravity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins, at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses will the matter be established. When a violent witness does arise against a man, to testify against him apostasy, then both the men, between whom the controversy is, will stand before YHWH, before the priests and the judges, that will be in those days. And the ju dges will make diligent inquiry and if the witness is a false witness, and has testified falsely against his kinsman, then will you do to him, as he had thought to have done to his kinsman, so you will put the evil away from among yourselves.

And those that remain will hear, and fear, and will commit no more such evils among you. Your eye will not pity, but life will go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot. When you g o out to battle against your enemies and see horses and chariots, and a people stronger than yourself, do not be afraid of them because YHWH Elohim is with you, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt. When you are come close into the battle, then the priest will approach and speak to the people, And will say to them, Hear O Israel, you approach this day into battle against your enemies so let your hearts be not faint, fear not, and do not be terrified, neither tremble because of them.

Chapter 20

For YHWH Elohim is he that goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies and to deliver you. And the officers shall speak to the people saying, what man is there that has constructed a new house, and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house unless he dies in the battle, and another man dedicates it. And what man is there that has planted a vineyard, and has not yet eaten of it? Let him also go and return to his house, unless he dies in the battle, and another man eat from it. And what man is there that has betrothed a woman, and has not received her? Let him go and return to his house, unless he dies in the battle, and another man acquires her. And the officers will speak further to the people and they will say, what man is there that is fearful and weak of heart?

let him go and return to his house, unless his kinsmen's heart grows fearful as well as his mind. And it will be, when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, that they will make captains from the armies to lead the people. When you come close to a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace unto it. And if they make an answer of peace and open to you, then it will be, that all the people that are found there will be tributaries to you, and they will serve you. And if they will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you will besiege it. And when YHWH Elohim has delivered it into your hands, you will kill every male there with the edge of the sword. But the women and children, cattle, and all that is in the city, even all its spoil you will take for yourself, and you will eat the plunder of your enemies, that YHWH Elohim has given you. So you will do to all the cities that are a very great distance from you, that are not of the cities of these nations. But of the cities of these people, that YHWH Elohim will give to you for an inheritance, you will save alive nothing that breathes! But you will Devote to Destruction all of them, namely the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites; as YHWH your Elohim has commanded you to perform this genocide.

So that they do not teach you of all their disgusting things that they have done unto their elohim, so that you would sin against YHWH your Elohim. When you will besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, you will not destroy its trees by forcing an ax against them. You may eat of them but you will not cut them down (for the tree of the field is man's life to employ them in the siege). Only the trees that you know that they are not trees for fruit, you will destroy and cut them down and you will construct bulwarks against the city that makes war with you until it is subdued. If one is found slain in the land that YHWH Elohim bestows to you for a possession, lying in the field and it is not known who has killed him. Then your Elders and judges will come forth, and they will measure to the cities that are around him that is slain.

Chapter 21

Then it will be determined which city is nearest to the slain man, and the Elders of that city will take a heifer that has not been worked with, and that has not drawn in the yoke. And the Elders of that city have brought down the heifer to a hard valley, which is not tilled nor sown, and have beheaded there the heifer in the valley. And the priests, the sons of Levi will approach, because YHWH Elohim has chosen them to minister to him, and to bless in the Name of YHWH, and by their word will every controversy and every stroke be tested. And all the Elders of that city, which are next to the slain man, will wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley. And they will answer and say, our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. Be merciful, O YHWH, to your people Israel, whom you have ransomed, and lay not innocent blood to your people of Israel's account. And the blood will be forgiven them.

So will you put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when you will do what is right in the sight of YHWH. When you go out to war against your enemies, and YHWH Elohim has delivered them into your hands, and you have taken them captive. And see among the captives a beautiful woman, and have a desire to her, that you would have her to be your woman. Then you will bring her home to your house and she will shave her head, and trim her nails. And she will remove the clothing of her captivity from off her, and will remain in your house and shed tears for her father and her mother for a full month. And after that you will go in to her and you will be her husband, and she will be your woman. But if you have no delight in her, then you will let her go wherever she will, but you will not sell her at all for money, you will not make merchandise of her, because you have mishandled her. If a man has two women, one beloved, and another hated, and they have gendered him children, both the beloved and the hated, and if the firstborn son is hers that was hated. Then when he makes his sons to inherit what he has, then he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, that indeed is the firstborn. But he will acknowledge the son of the hated as the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he has. For he is the beginning of his strength, the right of the firstborn is his. If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son, that will not obey the voice of his dad, or the voice of his mother, and that when they have disciplined him, will not obey them.

Then will his dad and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out to the Elders of his city, and to the gate of his town. And they will say to the Elders of his city, this our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice, and he is a worthless drunkard. Then all the men of his city will stone him with stones, that he dies, so you will put evil away from among you, and all Israel will hear and fear. If a man has committed a sin worthy of death, and he is to be put to death, and you hang him on a tree. His body will not remain all night on the tree, but you will certainly bury him that day, (for he that is hanged is accursed of Elohim) , that your land be not defiled, that YHWH Elohim gives to you for an inheritance. You will not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide yourself from them, you will in any case return them again to your brother. And if your brother is not near to you, or if his identity is not known, then you will bring it to your own house, and it will be with you until your brother seeks after it, and you will restore it to him again. Similarly you will do with his donkey, and so you will do with his clothing, and with all lost things of your brother's that he has lost and you have found, you will do likewise and you may not conceal your whereabouts.

Chapter 22

You will not see your brother's donkey or his ox fall down by the roadway, and hide yourself from them, you will certainly help him to lift them up again. The woman will not wear what pertains to a man, neither will a man put on a woman's clothing, for all that do so are abomination to YHWH Elohim.

When you come upon a bird's nest in the road, in any tree or on the land, brood or eggs, and the mother sitting on the brood or on the eggs, then you will not take the mother with the young ones. But you will certainly let the dam go and take the young yourselves, that it may be well with you and that you may perpetuate your days. When you construct a new house, then you will make a parapet for your roof so that you do not bring blood upon your house, if any man happens to fall from there. You will not sow your vineyard with a mixture of things, unless the fullness of the seed that you do sow, and the increase of the vineyard, be separated. You will not plow with an ox and a donkey together. You will not wear a garment of mixed weave, like woolen and linen together. You will fashion your tassels upon the four quarters of your vesture, wherewith you cover yourself. If any man acquires a woman and goes in unto her and hates her, and brings up slander against her, giving her a bad name and says, I took this woman and when I came to her I found her not to be a virgin. Then will the dad of the girl and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the girl's virginity to the Elders of the city in the gate. And the girl's dad will say to the Elders, I gave my daughter to this man to be his woman and he hates her.

And lo, he has laid actions of words saying, I have not found to your daughter tokens of virginity, and these are the tokens of the virginity of my daughter! And they will spread out the garment before the Elders of the city. The Elders of that city will take that man and discipline him. And they will fine him 100 shekels of silver [2 1/2 lb.], and give them to the dad of the girl, because he has brought up a bad name upon a virgin of Israel. And she will be his woman, he may not put her away during his lifetime. But if this thing is true, and the tokens of virginity are not found for the girl. Then they will bring out the girl to the door of her dad's house, and the men of her city will stone her with stones so that she dies because she has done immorality in Israel. She played the prostitute in her dad's house so you will put this badness away from among you. If a man is found having sexual relations with a woman married to a husband, then they will both be executed, both the man that slept with the woman, and the woman. So you will put away badness from Israel. If a girl that is a virgin is betrothed to a husband and a man finds her in the city and has sex with her, then you will bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you will stone them with stones so that they die.

The girl will be stoned because she did not cry out, being in the city and the man because he has humbled his neighbor's woman. So you will put away badness from among you. But if a man finds a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man rapes her, forcing himself on her, then the man only that slept with her will die. But to the girl you will do nothing, there is in the girl no sin worthy of death, because as when a man rises against his neighbor, and murders him, even so is this matter. For he found her in the field, and the betrothed girl cried, and there was none to save her. If a man finds a girl that is a virgin that is not betrothed, and seizes her, and sleeps with her, and they are discovered. Then the man that slept with her will give to the girl's father 50 shekels of silver [1 1/4th lb.], and she will be his woman because he has humbled her, he may not divorce her during his lifetime. A man will not take his dad's woman, nor discover his dad's skirt. Neither he that has been mutilated by crushing nor he that has had his penis cut off will enter the company of YHWH. A bastard will not enter into the company of YHWH, even to his tenth generation he will not enter into the company of YHWH.

Chapter 23

An Ammonite or Moabite will not enter into the company of YHWH, even to their tenth generation will they not enter into the company of YHWH for the ages. Because they met you not with bread and water in the road, when you came out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you. Nevertheless YHWH Elohim would not listen to Balaam, but YHWH Elohim turned the curse into a blessing for you because YHWH Elohim loved you. You will not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days for the ages of time. You will not abhor an Edomite; for he is your brother, you will not abhor an Egyptian, because you were a foreigner in his land. The children that are gendered of them will enter into the company of YHWH in their third generation. When the army goes out against your enemies, then guard yourself from every bad thing. If there is among you any man, that is not clean by reason of uncleanness that has a nocturnal ejaculation at night, then he will go outside the camp, he will not come within the camp. But it will be when sunset arrives, he will wash himself with water, and when the sun goes down he will come into the camp again. You will have a place also outside the camp where you will go out too. And you will have a shovel among your weapons, and it will be used for when you will take a crap, then you will dig a latrine and cover your excrement.

For YHWH Elohim walks among your camp, to deliver you and to give up your enemies before you, therefore will your camp be Sacred, that he sees no unclean thing in you, and then turns away from you. You will not deliver to his master the slave that is escaped from his master unto you. He will live with you, even among you in that place that he will choose in one of your gates, where it suits him best and you will not oppress him. There will be no prostitutes from the daughters of Israel, nor a male temple prostitute from the sons of Israel. You must not bring the earnings of a female prostitute or a male prostitute into the House of YHWH Elohim to pay any vow, because YHWH Elohim counts both as an abomination. You will not charge your kinsmen interest on money, food, or anything that earns interest. But to a foreigner you may charge interest, but to your kinsmen you will not lend with interest so that YHWH Elohim may bless you in all that you set your hand to in the land where you go to possess. When you will vow a vow to YHWH Elohim, you will not be slack to pay it, because YHWH Elohim will certainly require it of you and will put it to your account as a sin. But if you refrain from vowing, it will be no sin for you. What goes out of your lips you will observe and perform, even a Freewill-Offering, according as you have vowed to YHWH Elohim, that you have promised with your mouth. When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat grapes to your fill, at your own pleasure, but you will not put any in your vessel. When you come into the standing corn of your neighbor, then you may pluck the ears with your hand, but you will not move a sickle to your neighbor's standing corn.

When a man has taken a woman and married her, and it comes to pass that she finds no favor in his eyes, because he has found some uncleanness in her, then let him write her a bill of divorce. And place it in her hands and send her out of his house. And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's woman.

Chapter 24

But if the latter husband hates her and writes her a bill of divorce, and places it in her hand, and sends her out of his house or if the latter husband dies who had taken her to be his woman. Her former husband that sent her away may not take her again to be his woman, after that she is unclean for that is a disgusting thing before YHWH, and you will not cause the land to sin, that YHWH Elohim bestows to you for an inheritance. When a man has taken a new woman, he will not go out to war, neither will he be charged with any business but he will be free at home one year, and will cheer up his woman that he has taken. No man will take the hand mills or the upper millstone to pledge for he takes a man's life to pledge. If a man is found stealing any of his kinsmen of the children of Israel, and makes merchandise of him, or sells him, then that thief will die and you will put the bad away from among yourselves. Take heed in the plague of leprosy that you observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites will teach you, as I commanded them so you will observe to do. Remember what YHWH Elohim did to Miriam by the road, after that you were come out of Egypt.

When you will lend your brother anything, you will not go into his house to fetch his pledge. You will stand outside, and the man to whom you will lend will bring the pledge outside to you. And if the man is poor, you will not sleep with his pledge. In any case you will deliver him the pledge again when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his own clothing and bless you, and it will be righteousness to you before YHWH

Elohim. You will not oppress a hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he is of your kinsmen, or of your foreigners that are in your land within your gates. Every day you will give him his wages, neither will the sun go down upon it, for he is poor, and sets his heart upon it, unless he cries against you unto YHWH, and it is sin to you. The fathers will not be put to death for the children, neither will the children be put to death for the fathers. Every man will be put to death for his own sin. You will not pervert the judgment of the foreigner, nor of the fatherless, nor take a widow's clothes to pledge. But you will remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and YHWH Elohim ransomed you from there, therefore I command you to do this thing. When you cut down your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you will not go again to fetch it.

It will be left for the foreigner, for the fatherless and for the widow, that YHWH Elohim may bless you in all the work of your hands. When you beat your olive tree, you will not go over the boughs again, it will be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you will not glean it afterward, it will be left for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. You will remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, therefore I command you to do these things. When there is a strife between men, and they have approached unto the judgment, and they have judged, and declared righteous the righteous, and declared wrong the wrong-doer.

Chapter 25

Then it will be, if the criminal is worthy to be beaten, that the judge will cause him to lie down and to be beaten in his presence, according to his fault by a certain number. He may be given 40 stripes but not to exceed that unless if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then your brother should be dishonored in your eyes. You will not muzzle the ox when he treads out the corn. If relatives live together and one of them dies, and has no children, the woman of the dead will not marry outside the family. Her husband's brother will go in unto her, and take her to himself to be his woman, and will perform the duty of a husband's brother unto her. Then the first son she has will take over the rights of the brother who is dead, so that his name may not come to an end in Israel.

But if the man is displeased to take his brother's woman, then let his brother's woman go up to the gate to the Elders. Then she shall say, my husband's brother refuses to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother. Then the Elders of his city will call him, and speak to him, and if he stands by it and says, I do not want to acquire her. Then will his brother's woman come unto him in the presence of the Elders, and loose his shoe from off his feet, and spit in his face and will answer and say, so will it be done to that man that will not build up his brother's house. And his name will be called in Israel, The house of him that has his shoe loosed. When men brawl together one with another, and the woman of the one comes near to help her husband out of the hand of him that beats him, and puts out her hand, and takes him by his private parts. Then you will cut off her hand, your eye will not pity her. You will not have in your bag different weights, a large and a small. You will not have in your house different measures, a large and a small. But you will have a perfect and just weight, and a perfect and just measure so that your days may be prolonged in the land that YHWH Elohim gives you. For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination to YHWH Elohim. Remember what Amalek did to you by the road, when you were come out of Egypt.

How he met you by the way, and attacked the outermost parts of you, even all that were feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary, and he did not fear Elohim. Therefore it will be when YHWH Elohim has given you rest from all your enemies that surround you, in the land that YHWH Elohim bestows to you for an inheritance to possess. You will blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the skies and you will not forget it. When you are come in unto the land that YHWH Elohim gives you for an inheritance, and possess it, and reside therein.

Chapter 26

Then you will take of the first of all the produce of the earth, that you will bring from your land that YHWH Elohim gives you, and will put it in a basket, and will go to the place that YHWH Elohim will choose to place his Name. And you will go to the priest that will be in those days and say to him, I profess this day to YHWH Elohim, that I am come to the country that YHWH adjured unto our forefathers to give us. And the priest will take the basket out of your hand, and set it down before the Altar of YHWH Elohim. Then you will speak and say before YHWH

Elohim, a Syrian ready to perish was my dad, and he went down into Egypt, and journeyed there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous. And the Egyptians treated us very badly and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard slavery. And when we cried to YHWH Elohim of our fathers, YHWH heard our voice and looked on our affliction, and our labor, and our oppression. Then YHWH brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great awe-inspiring spectacles, and with signs, and with miracles.

He has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, even a land that flows with milk and honey. And now look, I have brought the first-fruits of the land, that you O YHWH, have given me. And you will set it before YHWH Elohim, and worship before YHWH Elohim. You will rejoice in every good thing that YHWH Elohim has given to you, and to your house, you and the Levite, and the foreigner that is among you. When you have made an end of tithing all the tithes of your increase the third year, which is the year of tithing, and have given it to the Levite, the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow, that they may eat within your gates, and be filled. Then you will say before YHWH Elohim, I have brought away the sacred things out of my house and have given them to the Levite, and to the foreigner, the fatherless and to the widow. This was done according to all your commandments that you have commanded me. I have not transgressed your commandments, neither have I forgotten them. None of these things have been used in my mourning, nor did I remove any of it while being unclean, let alone offering any of it for the dead, but I have obeyed the Voice of YHWH Elohim, and have done according to all that you have commanded me.

Look down from your Holy dwelling, from the cosmos, and bless your people Israel, and the land that you have given us, as you adjured to our forefathers, a land that flows with milk and honey. This day YHWH Elohim has commanded you to do these statutes and judgments, you will therefore observe and institute them with all your heart, and with all your mind. You have declared YHWH this day to be your Elohim, and to walk in his ways, and to observe his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to obey His Voice.

And YHWH has declared you this day to be the nation of his possession, as he has promised you, and that you should observe all his commandments. To make you high above all nations that he has made, in praise and in name, and in honor, that you may become a Sacred people to YHWH Elohim, as He has spoken. And Moses with the Elders of Israel commanded the people saying, observe all the commandments that I command you this day.

Chapter 27

And it will be on the day when you will pass over Jordan to the land that YHWH Elohim gives to you that you will set up great stones, and coat them with plaster. Then you will write on them all the Words of this Law, when you are passed over, that you may enter the land that YHWH Elohim bestows to you, a land that flows with milk and honey, as YHWH Elohim of your forefathers has promised you. Therefore it will be when you are gone over Jordan, that you will set up these stones that I command you this day, in Mount Ebal, and you will coat them with plaster. And there you will construct an Altar to YHWH Elohim, an Altar of stones and you will not lift up any iron tool upon them. You will construct the Altar of YHWH Elohim from whole stones, and you will offer whole Burnt-Offerings there to YHWH your Elohim. You will offer Peace-Offerings and will eat there, and rejoice before YHWH your Elohim. And you will write upon the stones all the Words of this Law very plainly. And Moses speaks -- the priests, the Levites, also -- unto all Israel, saying, Keep silent, and hear, O Israel, this day you have become a people to YHWH your Elohim;

You will therefore obey the Voice of YHWH Elohim, and institute his commandments and his statutes, that I command you this day. Then Moses charged the people that same day saying, These will stand upon Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you are come over Jordan; Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. And these will stand upon Mount Ebal to curse; Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. And the Levites will speak, and say to all the men of Israel with a loud voice, cursed is the man that fashions any graven or molten metal image, a disgusting thing to YHWH, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and places it in a secret location. And all the people will answer and say, so be it. Cursed is he that disgraces his dad or his mother. And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that removes his neighbor's landmark. And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that causes the blind to wander out of the road. And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that perverts the judgment of the foreigner, fatherless, and widow.

And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that has sexual relations with his father's woman, because he uncovers his father's skirt. And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that copulates sexually with any kind of animal. And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that has sexual relations with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother. And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that has sexual relations with his mother in law. And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that slays his neighbor secretly. And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that takes a reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people will say, so be it. Cursed is he that does not confirm all the Words of this Law to institute them. And all the people will say, so be it.

Chapter 28

If you will diligently obey the Voice of YHWH Elohim, to observe and to institute all his commandments that I command you this day, then YHWH Elohim will set you on high above all nations of the earth.

And all these blessings will light upon you, and overtake you, if you will obey the Voice of YHWH Elohim. Blessed you will be in the city, and blessed you will be in the field. Blessed will be the progeny of your body, and the produce of your soil, and the progeny of your cattle, the increase of your oxen, and the flocks of your sheep. Blessed will be your basket and your kneading bowl. Blessed you will be when you come in, and blessed you will be when you go out. YHWH will cause your enemies that rise up against you to be struck before your face, they will come out against you one way, and flee before you seven ways. Then YHWH will command blessings upon you in your storehouses and in all that you set your hands to, and he will bless you in the land that YHWH Elohim bestows to you. YHWH will establish you as a Sacred people to himself, as he has adjured to you, if you will observe the commandments of YHWH Elohim, and walk in his ways. And all people of the earth will see that you are called by the Name of YHWH, and they will be afraid of you. And YHWH will make you plenteous in goods, in the progeny of your body, and in the progeny of your cattle, and in the produce from your soil, in the land that YHWH adjured to your forefathers to give you. YHWH will open to you his good treasure, the skies to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand, and you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow. And YHWH will make you the head, and not the tail, and you will be above only, and you will not be beneath, providing you obey the commandments of YHWH Elohim that I command you this day, to observe and to institute them.

And you will not stray from any of the Words that I command you this day, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other elohim to serve them. But if you will not obey the Voice of YHWH Elohim, to observe to institute all his commandments and his statutes that I command you this day, then all these curses will come upon you and overtake you. Cursed you will be in the city, and cursed you will be in the field. Cursed will be your basket and your kneading bowl. Cursed will be the progeny of your body, and the produce of your land, the increase of your oxen, and the flocks of your sheep. Cursed you will be when you come in, and cursed you will be when you go out. YHWH will send upon you cursing, vexation, and reproof, in all that you set your hand to accomplish until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly, because of the badness of your practices, whereby you have forsaken me. YHWH will make the pestilence overtake you until He has consumed you from off the land where you go to possess. YHWH will smite you with a wasting disease and with a fever, and with inflammation, and with an extreme fever, and with the sword, and with blighting, and with mildew, and they will pursue you until you perish. And your skies that are over your head will be brass, and the earth that is under you will be iron.

YHWH will make the rain of your land powder and dust, from the skies it will come down upon you until you are destroyed. YHWH will cause you to be beaten before your enemies, you will go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them. You will be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. And your carcasses will be meat for all flying creatures of the air, and for the beasts of the earth, and no man will wave them away. YHWH will smite you with the inflammation of Egypt and with the tumors, scab, and with the itch, whereby you cannot be healed. YHWH will strike you with madness and blindness, and astonishment of heart. You will grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you will not prosper in your ways and you will only be oppressed and spoiled daily, and no man will rescue you. You will betroth a woman and another man will sleep with her, you will build a house but you will not dwell in it. You will plant a vineyard and will not gather its grapes. Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes and you will not eat it, your donkey will be violently taken away from before your face, and will not be restored to you. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and you will have none to recover them. Your sons and your daughters will be given to another people, and your eyes will look with desire with longing for them all day long and there will be no strength left in your hand.

The produce of your land, and all your labors will a nation that you do not know will eat up and you will be only oppressed and crushed always so that you will be maddened, by what the sight of your eyes will see. YHWH will smite you in the knees and in the legs, with a malignant boil that cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the top of your head. YHWH will bring you, and your king that you will set over you, to a nation that neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you will serve other elohim of wood and stone. You will become an astonishment, a proverb and a byword among all nations where YHWH will lead you. You will carry much seed out into the field and will gather but little in, for the locust will consume it. You will plant vineyards and dress them, but will neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes because the worms will eat them. You will have olive trees throughout all your borders but you will not anoint yourself with the oil because your olive will drop off its fruit. You will gender sons and daughters but you will not enjoy them because they will go into captivity. All your trees and produce from your land will the locust consume. The foreigner that is within you will get up above you very high, and you will come down very low.

He will lend to you and you will not lend to him, he will be the head, and you will be the tail. Moreover all these curses will come upon you and will pursue you, and overtake you until you are destroyed because you obeyed not the Voice of YHWH Elohim, to observe his commandments and his statutes that he commanded you. And they will be upon you for a sign and for a portent, and upon your offspring for the ages. Because you served not YHWH Elohim with joyfulness and with gladness of heart during the times of prosperity. Therefore you will serve your enemies that YHWH will send against you, in hunger and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things and he will put a yoke of iron upon your neck, until he has destroyed you. YHWH will bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle fly, a nation whose tongue you will not understand. A nation of fierce presence, that will not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young. And he will eat the progeny of your cattle, and the produce from your land until you are destroyed, which also will not leave you either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of your oxen, or flocks of your sheep, until he has destroyed you. He will besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls come down, which you trusted in throughout all your land, and he will besiege you in all your gates throughout all the land that YHWH Elohim has given you.

And you will eat the progeny of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters that YHWH Elohim has given you, in the siege and in the distress that your enemies will distress you with. So that the man that is soft among you and very dainty, his eye will be evil toward his brother and toward the woman of his bosom and toward the remainder of his surviving children. So that he will not give to any of them from the flesh of his children whom he will cannibalize, because he has nothing left to himself in the siege, and in the distress that your enemies will distress you with in all your gates. The tender and delicate woman among you, that would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for being pampered and delicate, her eyes will be evil toward the husband of her bosom and toward her son, and toward her daughter. And toward her babies that come out from between her feet, and toward her children that she will gender, because she will cannibalize them for want of all things secretly in the siege and distress that your enemy will distress you with in your gates. If you will not observe to institute all the Words of this Law that are written in this book so that you may fear his glorious and fearful Name, YHWH Elohim, then YHWH will make your plagues beyond one's power, and the slaughter of your offspring, even intensely lasting conquest, and malignant sicknesses made lasting. Moreover he will bring upon you all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of and they will overtake you. Also every sickness and every plague that is not written in the book of this Law, them will YHWH bring upon you until you are destroyed. And you will be left few in number whereas you were as the stars of the cosmos for multitude because you would not obey the Voice of YHWH Elohim. As YHWH rejoiced over you to do you good and to multiply you, so YHWH will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nothing and you will be plucked from off the land where you go to possess. And YHWH will scatter you among all people, from one end of the earth even to the other, and there you will serve other elohim that neither you nor your ancestors have known, even of wood and stone. And among these nations you will find no ease, neither will the sole of your feet have rest, but YHWH will give you there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes and sorrow of mind. And your life will hang in doubt before you, and you will fear day and night, and will have no assurance of your life. In the morning you say, O that it were sunset! And at sunset you say, O that it were sunrise! From the fear of your heart that you are fearful with, and the things that your eyes will see. And YHWH will bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way that I spoke unto you. You will see it no more again and there you will be sold to your enemies for slaves and slave girls but no man will buy you. These are the Words of the Covenant that YHWH commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the Covenant that he made with them in Horeb. Moses called to all Israel and said to them, You have seen all that YHWH did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants and to all his land.

Chapter 29

The great testing that your eyes have seen, the signs and those great miracles. Yet YHWH has not given you a heart to perceive, and eyes to see and ears to hear, unto this day. And I have led you 40 years in the uninhabited lands, your clothes have not become old, and your shoes have not worn out upon your feet. You have not eaten bread, neither have you drank wine or strong drink so that you might know that I am YHWH Elohim.

And when you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we conquered them. We took their land and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh. Observe therefore the Words of this Covenant and institute them, so that you may prosper in all that you do. You stand this day all of you before YHWH Elohim, the captains of your tribes, your Elders and officers, with all the men of Israel. Your children, your women, and your foreigners that are in your camp, from the cutter of your wood to the water drawing women. That you should enter into the Covenant-Pledge with YHWH Elohim and into his oath that YHWH Elohim makes with you this day. That he may establish you today for a people unto Himself, and that he may be to you an Elohim, as he has spoken to you, and as he has adjured to your forefathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Neither with you only do I make this Covenant and this oath, but with him that stands here with us this day before YHWH Elohim, and also with him that is not here with us this day. For you know how we have lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the nations that you passed by. And you have seen their abominations and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, that were among them. Beware unl ess there is among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away this day from YHWH Elohim, to go and serve elohim from these nations, unless there should be among you a root that bears poison and bitterness. When such a person hears the words of this curse, that he blesses himself in his heart saying, prosperity will I have, although in the stubbornness of my heart I go on, so that the drunkenness adds itself to the thirst. YHWH will not spare him, but then the nostrils of YHWH and his jealousy will smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book will descend upon him, and YHWH will blot out his name from under the skies. And YHWH will separate him to evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the Covenant that are written in this book of the Law. So that the generations to come of your children that will rise up after you, and the foreigner that will come from a distant land will say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses that YHWH has laid upon it. And that the whole land is brimstone, salt and burning, that it is not sown nor grows up any grass, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, that YHWH overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath. Even all nations will say, why has YHWH done so to this land? What is the meaning of the heat of this great anger? Then men will say, because they have forsaken the Covenant of YHWH Elohim of their forefathers that he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt. For they went and served other elohim and worshiped them, elohim whom they did not know, and whom he had not given to them.

And the nostrils of YHWH flared against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book. And YHWH rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation and cast them into another land as it is this day. The secret things belong to YHWH Elohim, but those things that are revealed belong to us and to our children for the ages, that we may institute all the Words of this Law. When all these things are come upon you, the blessing and the cu rse, that I have set before you, and you will call them to mind among all the nations, where YHWH Elohim has driven you, and will return to YHWH Elohim, and will obey his Voice according to all that I command you this day, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your mind. Then YHWH Elohim will turn back your captivity, and will have compassion on you, and will return and gather you from all the nations, where YHWH Elohim has scattered you. If any of you are driven out to the outermost parts of the cosmos, from there will YHWH Elohim gather you, and from there will he fetch you.

Chapter 30

And YHWH Elohim will bring you into the land that your forefathers possessed, and you will possess it and he will do you good, and multiply you greater than your ancestors. And YHWH Elohim will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your offspring, to love YHWH Elohim with all your heart and with all your mind so that you may live. Then YHWH Elohim will put all these curses upon your enemies, and on them that hate you, who had persecuted you. And you will return and obey the Voice of YHWH, and institute all his commandments that I command you this day.

Then YHWH Elohim will make you plenteous in every work of your hand, in the progeny of your body, and in the progeny of your cattle, and in the produce from your soil. This happens for goodness because YHWH will again rejoice over you for good, as he rejoiced over your forefathers. If you will obey the Voice of YHWH Elohim, to observe his commandments and his statutes that are written in this book of the Law, and if you turn to YHWH Elohim with all your heart, and with all your mind. For this commandment that I command you this day, it is not hidden from you, neither is it far off. It is not in the cosmos so that you should say, who will go up for us to the abode of the stars and bring it to us, that we may hear it and institute it? Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it, and institute it? But the Word is very close to you, in your mouth and in your heart so that you may institute it. See, I have set before you this day life and good, and death and badness. In that I command you this day to love YHWH Elohim, to walk in his ways, and to observe his commandments and his statutes and his judgments so that you may live and multiply, and YHWH Elohim will bless you in the land where you are going to possess. But if your heart turns away, so that you will not hear but will be drawn away, and worship other elohim, and serve them. I denounce to you this day, that you will certainly perish, and that you will not perpetuate your days upon the land where you pass over Jordan to enter in to possess.

I call the cosmos and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing, therefore choose life, that both you and your posterity may live. That you may love YHWH Elohim, and that you may obey his Voice, and that you may follow closely to him for he is your life, and the length of your days. Then you may live in the land that YHWH adjured to your forefathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them. Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. He said to them, I am a 120 years old this day, I can no more go out and come in, also YHWH has said to me, You will not pass over this Jordan. YHWH Elohim, he will pass over before you and he will destroy these nations from before you and you will possess them. And Joshua, he will pass over before you as YHWH has said.

Chapter 31

And YHWH will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and to their land that he destroyed. YHWH will devote them up before your presence, that you may do to them according to all the commandments that I have commanded you. Be strong and of good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them because YHWH Elohim, he is the one that will go with you, he will not fail you nor forsake you. Moses called to Joshua and spoke to him in the sight of all Israel, be strong and of good courage because you must go with this people to the land that YHWH has adjured to their fathers to give them, and you will cause them to inherit it. And YHWH, he is the one that will go before you, he will be with you, he will not fail you, neither forsake you so do not fear, neither be dismayed. Then Moses wrote this Law and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, that carry the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, and to all the Elders of Israel. Moses commanded them saying, at the end of seven years, in the appointed time, the year of release, in the Feast of Tabernacles. When all Israel has come to appear before YHWH Elohim in the place that He will choose, you will read this Law before all Israel in their hearing. Gather the people together, men, women, children, and the foreigner that is within your gates, that they may hear and that they may learn and fear YHWH Elohim, and observe to institute all the Words of this Law. And that their children, that have not known anything, may hear and learn to fear YHWH Elohim, as long as you live in the land where you pass over Jordan for your possession. Then YHWH spoke to Moses, Look, your days approach that you must die so call Joshua, and present yourselves in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place, that I may give him a command. And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. And YHWH appeared in the Tabernacle in the Pillar of the Cloud-mass column, and the Pillar of the Cloud-mass stood over the entrance of the Tabernacle. YHWH spoke to Moses, Look, you will be laid to rest with your fathers and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the elohim of the foreigners of the land, where they go to be among. They will forsake me, and break my Covenant that I have made with them. Then my nostrils will flare against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they will be devoured.

And many evils and troubles will befall them so that they will say in that day, are not these evils come upon us because our Elohim is not among us? And I will certainly hide my face in that day for all the evils that they will have done, in that they are turned to other elohim. Now therefore write this song for yourself, and teach it to the children of Israel, put it in their mouths that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel. For when I will have brought them into the land that I adjure to their fathers, that flows with milk and honey and they will have eaten and filled themselves and become fat. Then they will turn to other elohim and serve them, and provoke me, and will break my Covenant. When many evils and troubles are befallen them, then this song will testify against them as a witness because it will not be forgotten out of the mouths of their offspring. This is because I know their imaginations that they go about thinking, even now, before I have brought them into the land that I have adjured. Moses therefore wrote this song that same day and taught it to the children of Israel. And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a command and said, be strong and of good courage because you will bring the children of Israel into the land that I adjured to them and I will be with you. When Moses had made an end of writing the Words of this Law in a book, until they were finished, then Moses commanded the Levites that carry the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH saying, take this book of the Law and put it in the side of the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH Elohim, that it may be there for a witness against you. For I know your rebellion, and your stiff neck while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against YHWH, and how much more after my death? Gather to me all the Elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these Words in their ears, and call the cosmos and earth to record against them. Because I know that after my death you will ruin and corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way that I have commanded you.

And evil will befall you in the End Times, because you will do bad in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger through the business of your hands. Moses spoke in the ears of all the company of Israel the Words of this song, until they were ended. Give ear, O you skies, and I will speak and hear, O land, the words of my mouth. My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distill as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass. Because I will publish the Name of YHWH, ascribe you greatness unto our Elohim. He is the Rock, His work is complete, for all his ways are justice, an Elohim of Truth and without injustice, lawful and upright is He.

Chapter 32

They have corrupted themselves, their blemish is not his sons', a generation perverse and crooked! Do you thus repay YHWH, O foolish people and unwise? Is not he your Father that has acquired you? has he not made you and established you? Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations, ask your dad, and he will show you, your Elders, and they will tell you.

When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the borders of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. For YHWH's portion is his people, Jacob is the company of his inheritance. He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling desolate place, he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye. As an eagle stirs up her nest, flutters over her young, spreads wide her wings, takes them, and bears them on her wings. So YHWH alone did lead him, and there were no alien elohim with him. He made him ride on the high places of the land, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock. Butter of cows, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs and rams from the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat, and you did drink the pure wine of the grape. But Jeshurun became fat, and kicked, you are become fat, you are grown thick, you are covered with fatness, then he forsook Elohim that made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. They provoked him to jealousy with alien elohim, with abominations they provoked him to anger. They sacrificed to devils, not to Elohim, to elohim whom they did not know, to elohim that newly sprouted up, whom your fathers feared not.

The Rock that gendered you, you are unmindful of, and have forgotten Elohim that formed you. And when YHWH saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters. And he said, I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be, for they are a very obstinate generation, children in whom is no faith. They have moved me to jealousy with what is not Elohim, they have provoked me to anger with their vanities, and I will move them to jealousy with those that are not a people, I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation. For a supernatural fire is kindled in my nostrils, and will burn to the lowest Sheol, and will burn up the land with her produce [causing famine], and will blaze up the foundations of the mountains [volcanic activity]. I gather upon them evils, my arrows I consume upon them. They will be exhausted with famine and consumed by heat, and bitter destruction. And the teeth of animals I send upon them, With poison of fearful things of the dust. The sword without, and terror within, will destroy both the young man and the virgin, the nursing [infant] with the man of gray hairs. I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men.

If not, the anger of an enemy I fear, lest their adversaries know, lest they say, our hand is high and YHWH has not wrought all this. For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them. O that they were wise, that they understood this so that they would consider these things in the End Times! How should one chase 1000, and two put 10,000 to flight, except their Rock had sold them, and YHWH had closed them up? For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges. For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah, their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter things. Their wine is the poison of a venomous snake, and the cruel venom of the cobra. Is not this laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures? To me belongs vengeance and requital, their foot will slide in due time, for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that will come upon them make haste. Because YHWH will judge his people, and repent himself for his slave, when he sees that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left. And he shall say, Where are their elohim, their rock in whom they trusted, which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their Drink-Offerings?

let them rise up and help you, and be your protection. See now that I, even I, am He, and there is no elohim with me, I kill, and I make alive, I wound and I heal, neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand. For I lifted up my hand to the cosmos and say, I live for the ages. If I sharpen my glittering sword, and my hand takes hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to my enemies, and will reward them that hate me. I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword will devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the head of the freemen of the enemy. Rejoice, O you nations, with his people for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful to his land, and to his people. And Moses came and spoke all the Words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun. Then Moses made an end of speaking all these Words to all Israel

And he said to them, set your hearts to all the Words that I testify among you this day, that you will command your children to observe to institute, all the words of this Law. Because it is not a vain thing for you because it is your life, and through these things you will perpetuate your days in the land where you pass over Jordan to possess. YHWH spoke to Moses that very same day saying, Get yourself up into this mountain Abarim, unto Mount Nebo, that is in the land of Moab, that is opposite Jericho and view the land of Canaan, that I give to the children of Israel for a possession. And die in the mountain where you go up, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died in Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people. Because you trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the Desert of Zin, because you did not consecrate me among the children of Israel. Yet you will see the land before you, but you will not enter the land that I give the children of Israel. And this is the blessing, that Moses the man of Elohim blessed the children of Israel with before his death. And he spoke, YHWH came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them, he shined forth from Mount Paran, and he came with 10,000 of Holy Ones, from his right hand went a fiery Law of Decrees for them. Yes, he loved the people, all his Holy Ones are in your hand and they sat down at your feet, everyone will receive of your Words. Moses commanded us a Law, even the inheritance of the company of Jacob.

Chapter 33

And he became king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together. Let Reuben live and not die, and do not let his men be few.

This is the blessing of Judah and he said, Hear, YHWH, the voice of Judah, and bring him to his people, let his hands be sufficient for him and you be a help to him from his enemies. And of Levi he said, Let your Thummim-Urim be with your Holy One, whom you did test at Massah, and with whom you did contend with at the waters of Meribah. Who is saying of his father and his mother, I have not seen him. And his brother he has not seen and his children he has not taken care of. For they have observed your sayings, and your Covenant they have guarded. They will teach Jacob your judgments, and Israel your Law, they will put incense before you, and whole Burnt-Offering upon your Altar. Bless, O YHWH, his strength, and the work of his hands you accept. Smite the loins of his withstanders, and of those hating him, that they rise not! And of Benjamin he said, The beloved of YHWH will live in safety by him, and YHWH will cover him all the day long, and he will dwell between his shoulders. And of Joseph he said, Blessed of YHWH is his land, for the precious things of the skies, for the dew and for the deep valleys that lie below.

And for the precious produce brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon. For the chief resources of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills. For the precious things of the land and its fullness, and for the good will of him that resides in the bush, let the blessing come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brothers. His glory is like the firstborn of his bulls, and his horns are like the horns of buffalo, with them he will push the people together to the ends of the land, and they are the 10,000 of Ephraim, and they are the thousands from Manasseh. Of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out. And Issachar, in your tents. They will call the people to the mountain, there they will offer sacrifices of righteousness because they will extract from the abundance of the seas, and from treasures buried in the sand. Of Gad he said, blessed is he that widens Gad, and he lives as a lion, and tears the arm with the crown from the head. And he provides the first part for himself, because there, the portion of the lawgiver is covered, and he comes with the heads of the people. The righteousness of YHWH he has done, and his judgments with Israel. Of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's cub, and he will leap from Bashan. Of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favor and full with the blessing of YHWH, possess you the West and the South. Of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children let him be acceptable to his kinsmen, and let him dip his foot in oil.

Your shoes will be iron and brass, and as your days, so will your strength be. There is none like unto Elohim of Jeshurun, who rides upon the skies in your help, and in his excellency on the clouds. The ancient of old Elohim is your refuge, and underneath are the Age-Lasting arms, and he will thrust out the enemy from before you and will say, Destroy them! Israel then will live in safety alone, the fountain of Jacob will be upon a land of corn and wine, also his skies will drop down dew. Happy are you, O Israel, who is like unto you, O people saved by YHWH, the shield of your help, and who is the sword of your Excellency! And your enemies will be found liars to you, and you will tread upon their high places. Moses went up from the plains of Moab to the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. And YHWH showed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan, and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, as far as the Western Sea, and the South, and the plain of the Valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar. And YHWH spoke to him, This is the land that I adjured to Abraham, Isaac, and to Jacob saying, I will give it to your descendants, I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you will not pass over.

Chapter 34

So Moses the servant of YHWH died there in the land of Moab, according to the Word of YHWH. And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor: but no man knows of his burial site to this day. And Moses was 120 years old when he died and his eyes were not dim, nor his natural force abated. And the children of Israel shed tears for Moses in the plains of Moab for 30 days, so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended. And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him and the children of Israel obeyed him, and did as YHWH commanded Moses. And there arose not a prophet since that time in Israel that was like Moses, whom YHWH knew face to face. In all the signs and the miracles that YHWH sent him to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, and in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror that Moses effected in the sight of all Israel. [The End of The Torah] Joshua/Judges

THE PROPHETS

Joshua/Judges

Chapter 1

Now after the death of Moses, the slave of YHWH, it came about that YHWH spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister saying, Moses my slave is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land that I bestow to them, even to the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon, that have I given to you as I said to Moses. From the wilderness and this Lebanon even to the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, will be your coast. There will not be anyone able to stand before you all the days of your life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with you: I will not fail you, nor forsake you. Be strong and of a good courage: for to this people will you divide for an inheritance this land that I adjured unto their forefathers to give them. Only be you strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the Law, that Moses my slave commanded you: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, so that you may prosper wherever you go. This Scroll of the Law will not depart out of your mouth; but you will meditate on it day and night, so that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be dismayed: because YHWH Elohim is with you wherever you go. Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people saying,

Pass through the encampment and command the people saying, prepare your provisions; because within three days you will pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land that YHWH Elohim bestows to you to take possession of. And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites, and to half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua spoke saying, remember the Word that Moses the slave of YHWH commanded you saying, YHWH Elohim has given you rest and has given you this land. Your women, your little ones and your cattle, will remain in the land that Moses gave you on this side of Jordan; but you will pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valor, will help them. Until YHWH has given your brethren rest, as he has given you, and they also have possessed the land that YHWH Elohim bestows to them. Then you will return to the land of your possession and enjoy it, that Moses (YHWH's slave) gave to you on this side Jordan toward the sunrise (east). And they answered Joshua saying, all that you command us we will do, and wherever you send us, we will go. According as we listened to Moses in all things, so will we obey you: only YHWH Elohim is with you, as he was with Moses. Whoever he is that rebels against your commandment, and will not listen to your Words in all that you command him, he will be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.

Chapter 2

And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into the house of a prostitute named Rahab, and lodged there. And it was told the king of Jericho saying, see, there came men in here tonight from the children of Israel to search out the country.

And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab saying, bring out the men that are come to you, that are entered into your house, because they are come to search out all the country. But the woman took the two men and hid them, and replied thus, there came men to me, but I do not know where they are [now]. And it came about when the gate was shut after dark, that the men went out: where the men went I do not know: pursue after them quickly; for you will overtake them. But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, that she had laid in order upon the roof. And the men pursued after them on the road to Jordan to the fords: and as soon as they that pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate. And before they were laid down, she came up to them on the roof; And she said to the men, I know that YHWH has given you the land, and that your terror has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. Because we have heard how YHWH dried up the water of the Red Sea for you, when you came out of Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side of Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed. And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain anymore courage in anyone, because of you: for YHWH your Elohim, he is Elohim in the cosmos above, and in the earth beneath. Now therefore, I pray you, adjure to me by YHWH, since I have showed you kindness, that you will also show kindness to my dad's house, and give me a true token:

And that you will save alive my dad and my mother, and my brothers and sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death. Then the men answered her, our life for yours, if you utter not this our business. And it will be, when YHWH has given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you. Then she let them down by a rope through the window, because her house was on the town wall, for she lived on the wall. And she said to them, go to the mountain, unless the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there for three days, until the pursuers are returned: and afterward you may go on your way. Then the men replied to her, we will be blameless of this your oath that you have made us adjure. Look, when we come into the land, you will bind this line of scarlet thread in the window that you did let us down by: and you will bring your dad, and your mother, and your family, and all your dad's household, home to you. And it will be, that whoever will go out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be on his own head. And we will be guiltless: and whoever will be with you in the house, his blood will be on our head, if any hand is upon him. And if you utter this our business, then we will be exempt of your oath that you have made us adjure. And she said, according to your words, so be it. And she sent them away and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window. Then they went, and came to the mountain and stayed there three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the road, but found them not.

So the two men returned and descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befell them: And they said to Joshua, truly YHWH has delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do faint because of us. Then Joshua rose early in the morning; and they pulled up from Shittim and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over. And it came to pass after three days, that the officers went through the encampment; And they commanded the people saying, when you see the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH Elohim, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then you will pull up from your place and go after it. Still there will be a space between you and it, about 1000 yards by measure: do not come near to it, so that you may know the way by which you must go, because you have not passed this way before. And Joshua said to the people, consecrate yourselves: because tomorrow YHWH will do wonders among you. And Joshua spoke to the priests saying, take up the Ark of the Covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the Ark of the Covenant and went before the people. And YHWH said to Joshua, this day will I begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel so that they may know that as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. And you will command the priests that bear the Ark of the Covenant saying, when you are come to the brink of the water of Jordan, you will stand still in the Jordan River.

Chapter 3

And Joshua said to the children of Israel, come near and hear the Words of YHWH Elohim. Then Joshua said, hereby you will know that the living Elohim is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and the Jebusites. Observe, the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH of all the earth passes over before you into Jordan. Now therefore take twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man. And it will come about, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the Ark of YHWH, the YHWH of all the earth, will rest in the waters of Jordan. Then the waters of the Jordan River will be cut off from the waters that come down from above; and they will stand upon a heap (pile up). And it came to pass, when the people pulled up from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the priests bearing the Ark of the Covenant before the people; And as they that carried the Ark were come to Jordan, and the feet of the priests that carried the Ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overflows all its banks all the time of harvest,) that the waters stand; those coming down from above have risen (one heap) , very far above Adam the city, that is at the side of Zaretan. And those going down by the sea of the plain, the Salt Sea, have been completely cut off; and the people have passed through opposite Jericho; And the priests that carried the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan River and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over the Jordan River.

Chapter 4

And it came about, when all the people were clean passed over Jordan, that YHWH spoke to Joshua saying, Take twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man, and command them saying, pick up for you from this place, from the middle of the Jordan River, from the Established Standing Place of the feet of the priests, twelve stones.

And you have removed them over with you, and placed them in the lodging-place in which you lodge tonight. Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man And Joshua said to them, pass over before the Ark of YHWH Elohim into the middle of Jordan, and take up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel: That this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come saying, what is the meaning of these stones? Then you will answer them, that the waters of Jordan River were cut off before the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off and these stones will be for a memorial to the children of Israel for the ages. And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded and took up twelve stones out of the middle of Jordan, as YHWH spoke to Joshua. According to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. And Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests that carried the Ark of the Covenant stood: and they are there to this day. Because the priests that carried the Ark stood in the middle of Jordan, until everything was finished that YHWH commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hurried and passed over. And it came about, when all the people were clean passed over, that the Ark of YHWH passed over, and the priests in the presence of the people.

And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, and one-half of the tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spoke to them: About 40,000 prepared for war passed over before YHWH to battle, to the plains of Jericho. On that day YHWH magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him as they feared Moses, all the days of his life. And YHWH spoke to Joshua saying, Command the priests that bear the Ark of the Testimony, that they come up out of Jordan. Joshua therefore commanded the priests saying, come up out of Jordan. And it came about, when the priests that carried the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH were come up out of the middle of Jordan, and the soles of the priest's feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned to their place, and flowed over all its banks, as they did before. And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho. And those twelve stones that they took out of Jordan, did Joshua raise up in Gilgal. And he spoke to the children of Israel saying, when your children will ask their fathers in times to come saying, what do these stones mean?

Then you will let your children know saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. Because YHWH Elohim dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until you were passed over, as YHWH Elohim did to the Red Sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over: That all the people of the earth might know the hand of YHWH, that it is strong: that you might fear YHWH Elohim for the ages. And it came about, when all the kings of th e Amorites that were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, that were by the sea, heard that YHWH had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their hearts melted, neither was there spirit in them anymore, because of the children of Israel. At that time YHWH said to Joshua, Make sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time. Then Joshua made himself sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war, died in the uninhabited places by the road, after they came out of Egypt. Now all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the uninhabited places by the road as they came out of Egypt, those ones they had not circumcised. Because the children of Israel walked 40 years in the uninhabited places, until all the people that were men of war that came out of Egypt, were consumed. Because they obeyed not the Voice of YHWH: unto whom YHWH adjured that he would not show them the land that YHWH adjured to their fathers, that he would give to us, a land that flows with milk and honey. And their children, whom he raised up in their place, those ones Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the road. And it came about, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they stayed in their places in the camp, until they were restored to vitality.

Chapter 5

YHWH spoke to Joshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you. Therefore the name of the Standing Place is called Gilgal to this day. And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and observed the Passover on the 14th day of the month at sunset in the plains of Jericho. And they did eat of the old produce of the land on the next day after the Passover, unleavened bread, and roasted [corn or grain] in the same day. And the Manna ceased on the next day after they had eaten from the old produce of the land; neither had the children of Israel Manna anymore; but they did eat from the fruit of the land of Canaan that year. And it came about, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and lo, there stood a man opposite him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went to him and said to him, are you for us, or for our enemies? And he replied, No; but as captain of the Army of YHWH am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the land and did worship, and said to him, what says my master to his slave? And the captain of YHWH's Army replied to Joshua, Untie your shoe from off your foot, because the Standing Place where you stand is Sacred. And Joshua did so.

Chapter 6

Now Jericho was closed up because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in. And YHWH said to Joshua, See, I have given into your hand Jericho, and its king thereof, and the mighty men of valor.

And you will walk around the city, all you men of war, and encircle the city once. You will repeat this for six days. And seven priests will bear before the Ark seven trumpets of rams' horns: and on the seventh day you will walk around the city seven times, and the priests will blow with the trumpets. And it will come about, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people will shout with a great shout; and the walls of the city will fall down flat, and the people will ascend up every man over-against him. And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, take up the Ark of the Covenant and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Ark of YHWH. And he said to the people, pass on and walk around the city, and let him that is armed pass on before the Ark of YHWH. And it came about when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before YHWH, and blew with the trumpets: and the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH followed them. And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the rearguard came after the Ark, the priests going on and blowing with the trumpets. And Joshua had commanded the people saying, you will not shout, nor make any noise with your voices, neither will any word proceed out of your mouth until the day I command you to shout; then you will shout. So the Ark of YHWH encircled the city, going around it once: and they came into the camp and lodged in the camp. And Joshua rose early in the morning and the priests took up the Ark of YHWH.

And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Ark of YHWH proceeded on, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rearguard came after the Ark of YHWH, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. And the second day they walked around the city once, and returned into the camp: so they repeated this for six days. And it came about on the seventh day, that they got up early around the sunrise time of the day, and walked around the city in the same way seven times: only on that day they encircled the city seven times. And it came about at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, Shout! because YHWH has given you the city. And the city will be Devoted to Destruction, even it and all that are in it, to YHWH: only Rahab the prostitute will live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. And you, altogether guard yourselves from the things Devoted to Destruction, unless you make yourselves dedicated to destruction, when you take of the things Devoted to Destruction, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. But all the silver, gold, and vessels of brass and iron are set apart for YHWH: they will come into the Treasury of YHWH. So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets. And it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the walls fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, each over-against him, and they captured the city. And they Devoted to Destruction all that were in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword. But Joshua had said to the two men that had spied out the country, go into the whore's house, and bring out from there the woman, and all that she has, as you adjured to her.

And the young men that were spies went in and brought out Rahab, and her dad, mother, and her family, and all that she had; and they brought out all her relatives, and left them outside the camp of Israel. And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was in it: only the silver, gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the Treasury of the House of YHWH. And Joshua saved Rahab the prostitute alive, and her dad's household, and all that she had; and she lived in Israel even to this day; because she hid the messengers that Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. And Joshua adjured them at that time saying, cursed is the man before YHWH, that raises up and builds this city Jericho: he will lay the foundation of it in his firstborn, and in his youngest son will he set up the gates of it. So YHWH was with Joshua; and his fame was reported throughout all the lands.

Chapter 7

But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the things Devoted to Destruction: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, who took of the things Devoted to Destruction: and the anger of YHWH burned against the children of Israel. And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, that is beside Bethaven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them saying, go up and view the land. And the men went up and viewed Ai. And they returned to Joshua and said to him, let not all the people go up; but let about 2000 or 3000 men go up and attack Ai; and make not all the people to labor there; for they are but few. So there went up to there from the people about 3000 men: and they fled before the men of Ai. And the men of Ai killed of them, about 36 men, and pursue them before the gate to Shebarim, and they killed them in Morad; and the heart of the people melted and became as water.

And Joshua ripped his clothes, and fell to the ground upon his face before the Ark of YHWH until sunset, he and the Elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads. And Joshua said, Alas, O Adonai YHWH, why have you at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would to Elohim we had been content, and live on the other side of the Jordan! O Adonai, what will I say, when Israel turns their backs before their enemies! Because the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will surround us, and cut off our name from the earth: and what will you do for your Great Name? YHWH replied to Joshua, Get yourself up, why be cast down like this on your face? Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed my Covenant-Pledge that I commanded them: for they have even taken of the things Devoted to Destruction, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were dedicated to destruction: neither will I be with you anymore, except you destroy the things Devoted to Destruction from among you. Up, consecrate the people and say, consecrate yourselves against tomorrow: for YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, There is a thing Devoted to Destruction in the middle of you, O Israel: you cannot stand before your enemies, until you take away the thing Devoted to Destruction from among you. In the morning therefore you will be brought according to your tribes: and it will be that the tribe that YHWH takes will come according to their families; and the family that YHWH will take will come by households; and the household that YHWH will take will come man by man. And it will be, that he that has taken with the thing Devoted to Destruction will be burnt with fire, he and all that he has: because he has transgressed the Covenant-Pledge of YHWH, and because he has produced disgrace in Israel.

So Joshua got up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken: And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarhites: and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man; and Zabdi was taken: And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. And Joshua said to Achan, my son, give glory to YHWH Elohim of Israel, and make confession to him; and tell me now what you have done; hide it not from me. And Achan answered Joshua and said, indeed I have sinned against YHWH Elohim of Israel, and thus and thus have I done: When I saw among the spoils a costly Babylonian cloak, and 200 shekels [5 pounds] of silver, and a wedge of gold of 50 shekels [1 1/4 pounds] weight, then I coveted them and took them; and see, they are hidden in the ground in the middle of my tent, and the silver is under it. So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and lo, it was hidden in his tent, and the silver under it. And they took them out of the middle of the tent, and brought them to Joshua, and to all the children of Israel, and laid them out before YHWH. And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan, the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the cloak, and the wedge of gold, and his sons and his daughters, and his oxen, and his donkeys, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them to the Valley of Achor. Then Joshua said, why have you troubled us? YHWH will trouble you this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burnt them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

And they raised over him a great heap of stones to this day.

Chapter 8

So YHWH turned from the fierceness of his anger. Therefore the name of that place was called, The Valley of Achor, to this day. Then YHWH spoke to Joshua, Fear not, neither be you dismayed: take all the people of war with you, and get up, go up to Ai: see, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land: And you will do to Ai and her king as you did to Jericho and her king: only the spoil and the cattle thereof, will you take for a plunder to yourselves: lay yourself an ambush for the city behind it. So Joshua got up and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out 30,000 mighty men of valor, and sent them away by night. And he commanded them saying, look, you will lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be you everyone ready: And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach to the city: and it will come about when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them, (For they will come out after us) until we have drawn them from the city; because they will say, they flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them. Then you will rise up from the ambush and seize upon the city: because YHWH Elohim will deliver it into your hand. And it will be, when you have taken the city, that you will set the city on fire: according to the commandment of YHWH will you do it. See, I have commanded you. Joshua therefore sent them out: and they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

And Joshua got up early in the morning and numbered the people and went up, he and the Elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew near, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai. And he took about 5000 men, and set them to lie in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. And when they had set the people, even all the armed camp that was on the north of the city, and its rear on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley. And it came about, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hurried and got up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle. He and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; and he did not know that an ambush was against him, on the rear of the city. So Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. And there was not a man left in Ai or Bethel, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel. And YHWH spoke to Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai; because I will give it into your hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city. And the ambush got up quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city and took it, and hurried and set the city on fire.

And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and observed the smoke of the city as it ascended up in the skies. Then they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon their pursuers. And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again and killed the men of Ai. And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the middle of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they killed them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua. And it came about, when Israel had made an end of killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they chased them. And when they were all fallen on by the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, then all the Israelites returned to Ai, and attacked it with the edge of the sword. And so it was, that all that fell that day, both of men and women were 12,000, even all the people of Ai. Because Joshua drew not his hand back, when he stretched out the spear, until he had Devoted to Destruction all the inhabitants of Ai. Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a plunder to themselves, according to the Word of YHWH that he commanded Joshua. And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it a heap for the ages, even a desolation to this day. And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until sunset. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his corpse down from the tree, and cast it toward the entering of the gate of the city, and raise on it a great heap of stones that remains to this day.

Then Joshua built an Altar to YHWH Elohim of Israel in Mount Ebal. As Moses (the slave of YHWH) commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the Scroll of the Torah of Moses, an Altar of whole stones, over which no man has lifted up any iron. And they offered on it Burnt-Offerings to YHWH, and sacrificed Peace-Offerings. And he engraved there upon the stones a copy of the Torah of Moses, that he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. And all Israel, and their Elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side of the Ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which carried the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH. These, as well as the foreigner, as he that was born among them; half of them opposite Mount Gerizim, and half of them opposite Mount Ebal; as Moses the slave of YHWH had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel. And afterward he read all the Words of the Law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the Scroll of the Law. There was not a Word of all that Moses commanded, that Joshua read not before all the company of Israel, with the women, and the little ones, and the foreigners that were traveling among them.

Chapter 9

And it came about, when all the kings that were on this side of Jordan, in the hills and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the Great Sea opposite Lebanon, the Hittite, Amorite, Canaanite, Perizzite, Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard of these things; That they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord. And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, They did work craftily, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their donkeys, and wine bottles, old and torn, and bound up;

And old shoes with patches upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and moldy. And they went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, we are come from a far country: now therefore make you a treaty with us. And the men of Israel said to the Hivites, perhaps you live among us; and how will we make a treaty with you? And they replied to Joshua, we are your slaves. And Joshua said to them, who are you? and from where do you come? And they replied to him, from a very far country your slaves are come because of the Name of YHWH Elohim, because we have heard the fame of him and all that he did in Egypt, And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, that was at Ashtaroth. Therefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us saying, take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them and say to them, we are your slaves: therefore now make you a treaty with us. This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came out to go to you; but now look, it is dry and it is moldy. And these bottles of wine, that we filled were new, and look, they are torn: and our garments and our shoes have become old by reason of the very long journey. And the men took of their provision, and the mouth of YHWH they have not asked [counsel of];

So Joshua made peace with them, and made a treaty with them, to let them live: and the chiefs of the company adjured to them. And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a treaty with them, then they heard that they were their neighbors and that they lived among them. And the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kirjathjearim. And the children of Israel did not kill them, because the chiefs of the company had adjured to them by YHWH Elohim of Israel. And all the company murmured against the chiefs. But all the chiefs replied to all the company, we have adjured to them by YHWH Elohim of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them. This we will do to them; we will even let them live, unless anger is upon us, because of the oath that we adjured to them. And the chiefs said to them, let them live; but let them be cutters of wood and drawers of water for all the company; as the chiefs had promised them. Then Joshua called for them and he spoke to them saying, therefore you have beguiled us saying, we are very far from you; when you lived among us? Now therefore you are cursed, and there will be none of you that are freed from being slaves, and cutters of wood and drawers of water for the House of my Elohim. And they answered Joshua and said, because it was certainly told your slaves, how that YHWH Elohim commanded his slave Moses to give you all the land. And to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were very afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

And now look, we are in your hand: as it seems good and right to you to do to us, do. And so did he to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they killed them not. And Joshua made them that day cutters of wood and drawers of water for the company, and for the Altar of YHWH, even to this day, in the Place that he should choose.

Chapter 10

Now it came about when Adonizedek king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had Devoted it to Destruction; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them; That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. Therefore Adonizedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piram king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying, come up to me and help me, so that we may attack Gibeon: for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel. Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their armed hosts and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it. And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the camp to Gilgal saying, slack not your hand from your slaves; come up to us quickly and rescue us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that live in the mountains are gathered together against us. So Joshua withdrew from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor.

YHWH spoke to Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into your hand; there will not a man of them stand before you. Joshua therefore came to them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night. And YHWH broke them before Israel and killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goes up to Bethhoron, and attacked them to Azekah and to Makkedah. And it came to pass as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Bethhoron, that YHWH cast down great stones from the sky upon them to Azekah, and they died. There were more that died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel had killed with the sword. Then Joshua spoke to YHWH in the day when YHWH delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand you still upon Gibeon; and moon, in the Valley of Ajalon. And the sun stood still and the moon stood still, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is this not written in the Book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the mid-sky, and did not accelerate to go down for about a whole day. And there was no day like that before it or after it, that YHWH listened to the voice of a man: for YHWH fought for Israel. And Joshua returned and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal. But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah. And it was told Joshua saying, the five kings are found hidden in a cave at Makkedah.

Then Joshua said, roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to guard them: And remain you not, but pursue after your enemies, and attack the rearguard of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: because YHWH Elohim has delivered them into your hand. And it came about when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, until they were consumed, that the rest that remained of them entered into fenced cities. And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel. Then Joshua said, open the mouth of the cave and bring out those five kings to me out of the cave. And they did so, and brought out those five kings to him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. And it came about, when they brought out those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war that went with him, come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near and put their feet upon the necks of them. And Joshua said to them, fear not nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for so will YHWH do to all your enemies against whom you fight. And afterward Joshua killed them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until sunset. And it came about at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down from off the trees, and cast them into the cave where they had been hiding. And laid great stones in the cave's mouth that remain until this very day.

And that day Joshua captured Makkedah, and attacked it with the edge of the sword, and its king he Devoted to Destruction, them and all the living that were in it; he let none remain. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he did to the king of Jericho. Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah:

And YHWH delivered it also, and its king, into the hand of Israel; and he attacked it with the edge of the sword. And all the living that were in it, he let none remain there, but did to its king as he did to the king of Jericho. And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and encamped against it and fought against it. And YHWH delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel that took it on the second day, and attacked it with the edge of the sword, and all the living that were there, according to all that he had done to Libnah. Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua attacked him and his people, until he had left him none remaining. And from Lachish Joshua passed to Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it and fought against it. And they took it on that day, and attacked it with the edge of the sword, and all the living that were in it he Devoted to Destruction that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish. And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it: So they took it, and attacked it with the edge of the sword, and its king, and all its cities, and all the living that were in it.

He left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but Devoted it to Destruction and all the living that were there. Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and fought against it: And he took it, and its king, and all its cities; and they attacked them with the edge of the sword, and Devoted to Destruction all the living that were in it. He left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king, as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king. So Joshua attacked all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the lowland, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but Devoted to Destruction all that breathed, as YHWH Elohim of Israel commanded. And Joshua attacked them from Kadeshbarnea even to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even to Gibeon. And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because YHWH Elohim of Israel fought for Israel. And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Chapter 11

And it came about, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard those things, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, and to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chinneroth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west, And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, Hittite, Perizzite, and Jebusite in the mountains, and to the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. And they went out, they and all their armed camps with them, many people, even as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel. And YHWH spoke to Joshua, Be not afraid because of them: for tomorrow about this time I will deliver them up all slain before Israel: you will hamstring their horses, and burn their chariots with fire. So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them. And YHWH delivered them into the hand of Israel, who attacked them and chased them to great Zidon, and to Misrephothmaim, and to the Valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they killed them, until they left them none remaining. And Joshua did to them as YHWH intended: he hamstrung their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire. And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and attacked its king with the sword, because Hazor formerly was the head of all those kingdoms. And they attacked all the living that were there with the edge of the sword, Devoting them to Destruction: there were not any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire. And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and attacked them with the edge of the sword, and he Devoted them to Destruction, as Moses the slave of YHWH commanded. But as for the cities that stood still in their strength, Israel burnt none of them, except Hazor only; that did Joshua burn. And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a spoil to themselves; but every man they killed with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe. As YHWH commanded Moses his slave, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that YHWH commanded Moses. So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same; Even from the Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Baalgad in the Valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and attacked them and killed them. Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon:

all others they captured in battle. Because it was of YHWH to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might Devote them to Destruction, and that they might have no favor, but that he might destroy them, as YHWH commanded Moses. And at that time Joshua came, and cut down the Anakims (a race of giants) from the mountains, from Hebron, Debir, Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel. Joshua Devoted them to Destruction with their cities. There were none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained some. So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that YHWH said to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land then rested from war.

Chapter 12

Now these are the kings of the land, that the children of Israel attacked, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the plain on the East:

Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even to the river Jabbok, that is the border of the children of Ammon; And from the plain to the Sea of Chinneroth on the east, and to the Sea of the Plain, even the Salt Sea (Dead Sea) on the east, the way to Bethjeshimoth; and from the south, under Ashdothpisgah: And the coast of Og king of Bashan, that was of the remnant of the Rephaim (giants), that lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, And reigned in Mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. Them did Moses the slave of YHWH and the children of Israel destroy: and Moses the slave of YHWH gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh. And these are the kings of the country that Joshua and the children of Israel attacked on this side of Jordan on the west, from Baalgad in the Valley of Lebanon even to the Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir; that Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; In the mountains and in the valleys, and in the plains and in the springs, and in the uninhabited places, and in the south country; the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and the Jebusites. The king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, that is beside Bethel, one;

The king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; The king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one; The king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one; The king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one; The king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

The king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one; The king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one; The king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one; The king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one; The king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one; The king of Shimronmeron, one; the king of Achshaph, one; The king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one; The king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam of Carmel, one; The king of Dor in the coast of Dor, one; the king of the nations of Gilgal, one; The king of Tirzah, one: all these 31 kings.

Chapter 13

Now Joshua was old and stricken in years; and YHWH said to him, You are old and stricken in years, and there remains still very much land to be possessed. This is the land that still remains: all the borders of the Philistines, and all Geshuri, From Sihor, that is before Egypt, even to the borders of Ekron northward, that is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, Ashdothites, Eshkalonites, Gittites, and Ekronites; also the Avites: From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that is beside the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites: And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sun rising, from Baalgad under Mount Hermon to the entering into Hamath. All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephothmaim, and all the Sidonians, them I will drive out from before the children of Israel: only you divide it by lot to the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded you. Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

With whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, that Moses gave to them, beyond Jordan Eastward, even as Moses the slave of YHWH gave them; From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba to Dibon; And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, that reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the children of Ammon; And Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salcah; All the Kingdom of Og in Bashan, that reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the Rephaim (giants): for these did Moses kill, and cast them out. Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites live among the Israelites until this day. Only to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance; the sacrifices of YHWH Elohim of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said to them. And Moses gave to the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families. And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba; Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain;

Dibon, Bamothbaal, Bethbaalmeon, Jahazah, Kedemoth, Mephaath, Kirjathaim, Sibmah, and Zarethshahar in the mount of the valley. And Bethpe or, Ashdothpisgah, Bethjeshimoth, and all the cities of the plain, and all the Kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, that reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses attacked with the chiefs of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, that were Princes of Sihon, living in the country. Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Israel kill with the sword among them that were slain by them. And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and its border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, its cities and its villages thereof. And Moses gave inheritance to the tribe of Gad, even to the children of Gad according to their families. And their coast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, to Aroer that is before Rabbah; And from Heshbon to Ramathmizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir; And in the valley, Betharam, Bethnimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the Kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and its border, even to the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth on the other side Jordan eastward.

This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages. And Moses gave inheritance to the half tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families. And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the Kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, that are in Bashan, 60 cities: And one-half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the Kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining to the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the half of the children of Machir by their families. These are the countries that Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward. But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: YHWH Elohim of Israel was their inheritance, as he said to them.

Chapter 14

And these are the countries that the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, that Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them. By lot was their inheritance, as YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe. Because Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and half tribe on the other side Jordan: but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them. Because the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except cities to live in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

As YHWH commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land. Then the children of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said to him, you know the thing that YHWH spoke to Moses the man of Elohim concerning me and you in Kadeshbarnea. I was 40 years old when Moses the slave of YHWH sent me from Kadeshbarnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in my heart. Nevertheless my kinsmen that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed YHWH Elohim. And Moses adjured on that day saying, certainly the land where your feet have trodden will be your inheritance, and your children's for the ages, because you have wholly followed YHWH Elohim. And now see, YHWH has kept me alive, as he said, these 45 years, even since YHWH spoke this Word to Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the uninhabited places: and now, lo, I am this day 85 years old. As still I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out and to come in. Now therefore give me this mountain, where YHWH spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakims (giants) were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if so be YHWH will be with me, then I will be able to drive them out, as YHWH spoke. And Joshua blessed him, and gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance. Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite to this day, because he wholly followed YHWH Elohim of Israel.

And the name of Hebron before was Kirjatharba; that Arba was a great man among the Anakims (giants). And the land had rest from war.

Chapter 15

This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families; even to the border of Edom the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast. And their south border was from the shore of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looks southward: And it went out to the south side to Maalehacrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side to Kadeshbarnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and turned round to Karkaa: From there it passed toward Azmon, and went out to the river of Egypt; and the outgoings of the border have been at the sea; this is to you the south border. And the east border was the Salt Sea, even to the end of Jordan. And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan: And the border went up to Bethhogla, and passed along by the north of Betharabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben: And the border went up toward Debir from the Valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, that is on the south side of the river. And the border passed toward the waters of Enshemesh, and the outgoings have been onto Enrogel: And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom to the south side of the Jebusite, the same is Jerusalem. And the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the Valley of the giants (Rephaim) northward: And the border was drawn from the top of the hill to the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of Mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah, which is Kirjathjearim:

And the border compassed from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed along to the side of Mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, on the north side, and went down to Bethshemesh, and passed on to Timnah: And the border went out to the side of Ekron northward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to Mount Baalah, and went out to Jabneel; and the outgoings of the border have been at the sea. And the west border is to the Great Sea, and its border; this is the border of the sons of Judah all around for their families. And to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of YHWH to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak [a race of giant], which city is Hebron. And Caleb drove from there the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak. And he went up from there to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjathsepher. And Caleb said, he that attacks Kirjathsepher, and takes it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter for your woman. And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter for his woman. And it came about, as she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her dad a field: and she lighted off her donkey; and Caleb said to her, what is it? Who answered, give me a blessing; because you have given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the lower springs.

This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families. And the ut termost ci ties of th e tribe of the children of Judah toward the coast of Edom southward were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, Hazor, Hadattah, Kerioth, and Hezron, that is Hazor. Amam, Shema, Moladah, Hazargaddah, Heshmon, Bethpalet, Hazarshual, Beersheba, Bizjothjah, Baalah, Iim, Azem, Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah, Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah, Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, Rimmon: all the cities are 29, with their villages: And in the valley, Eshtaol, Zoreah, Ashnah, Zanoah, Engannim, Tappuah, Enam, Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, Sharaim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim; 14 cities with their villages:

Zenan, Hadashah, Migdalgad, Dilean, Mizpeh, Joktheel, Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, Cabbon, Lahmam, Kithlish, Gederoth, Bethdagon, Naamah, Makkedah; 16 cities with their villages: Libnah, Ether, Ashan, Jiphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages: Ekron, with her towns and her villages: From Ekron even to the sea, all that lay near Ashdod, with their villages: Ashdod with her towns and her villages, Gaza with her towns and her villages, to the river of Egypt, and the Great Sea, and its border: And in the mountains,

Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, Dannah, Kirjathsannah, that is Debir, Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim, Goshen, Holon, and Giloh; 11 cities with their villages: Arab, Dumah, Eshean, Janum, Bethtappuah, Aphekah, Humtah, Kirjatharba, that is Hebron, and Zior; nine cities with their villages: Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities with their villages: Halhul, Bethzur, Gedor, Maarath, Bethanoth, Eltekon; six cities with their villages: Kirjathbaal, that is Kirjathjearim, and Rabbah; two cities with their villages: In the wilderness, Betharabah, Middin, Secacah, Nibshan, and the city of Salt, and Engedi; six cities with their villages. As for the Jebusites the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out:

but the Jebusites live with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day. And the lo t of the c hildren of Joseph fe ll from Jo rdan by Je richo, to the water of Jericho on the ea st, to the wilderness that goes up from Jericho throughout Mount Bethel, And goes out from Bethel to Luz, and passes along to the borders of Archi to Ataroth, And goes down westward to the coast of Japhleti, to the coast of Bethhoron the nether, and to Gezer: and its outgoings have been at the sea. So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance. And the border of the children of Ephraim according to their families was thus:

Chapter 16

even the border of their inheritance on the east side was

Atarothaddar, to Bethhoron the upper; And the border went out toward the sea to Michmethah on the north side; and the border went about eastward to Taanathshiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah; And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan. From Tappuah the border goes westward to the brook of Kanah, and its outgoings have been at the sea: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, for their families. And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages. And they did not drive out the Canaanites that lived in Gezer:

but the Canaanites lived among the Ephraimites to this day, and serve under tribute. Now this was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh, because he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, was given Gilead and Bashan, because he was a man of war. There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; for the children of Abiezer and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida. These were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families. But Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. And they came near before Eleazar the priest and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the chiefs saying, YHWH commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of YHWH he gave them an inheritance among the kinsmen of their father. And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, that were on the other side of Jordan; Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead. And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, that lies before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand to the inhabitants of Entappuah.

Chapter 17

Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah: but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim. And the coast descended to the river Kanah, southward of the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh is on the north of the river, and its outgoings are at the sea. Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east. And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Bethshean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countries. Still the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would abide in that land. Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxed strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out. And the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua saying, why have you given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, and abounding as YHWH has blessed me in this manner? And Joshua answered them, If you are a great people, then get up to the wood country, and cut down for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants (Rephaim) , if Mount Ephraim is too narrow for you. Then the children of Joseph said, the hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that live in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are of Bethshean and her towns, and they who are of the Valley of Jezreel. Then Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh saying, You are a great people, and have great power: you will not have one lot only:

But the mountain will be yours, because it is a wood, and you will cut it down: and its outgoings have been yours, because you will drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they are strong. And the whole company of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place there. And the land was subdued before them.

Chapter 18

And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes that had not yet received their inheritance. And Joshua spoke to the children of Israel, how long are you slack to go to possess the land that YHWH Elohim of your forefathers has given you? Enroll out from among you three men for each tribe: and I will send them, and they will get up and go through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they will come back to me. And they will divide it into seven parts: Judah will remain in their coast on the south, and the house of Joseph will remain in their coasts on the north. You will therefore record the land into seven parts, and bring the description here to me, that I may cast lots for you here before YHWH Elohim. But the Levites have no part among you, because the priesthood of YHWH is their inheritance: and Gad, Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the East that Moses the slave of YHWH gave to them. And the men got up and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to record the land saying, go and walk through the land and describe it, and come back to me, that I may here cast lots for you before YHWH in Shiloh. And the men went and passed through the land, and recorded it by cities into seven parts in a scroll, and came back to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh.

And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before YHWH: and there Joshua divided the land for the children of Israel according to their divisions. And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coast of their lot came out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and its outgoings have been at the wilderness of Bethaven; And the border went over from there toward Luz, to the side of Luz, which is Bethel, southward; and the border descended to Atarothadar, near the hill that lies on the south side of lower Bethhoron. And the border was drawn there, and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lies before Bethhoron southward; and its outgoings have been to Kirjathbaal, which is Kirjathjearim, a city of the children of Judah: this was the West quarter. And the South quarter was from the end of Kirjathjearim, and the border went out on the West, and went out to the spring of waters of Nephtoah: And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lies before the valley of the son of Hinnom. And that is in the Valley of the Rephaim (giants) on the north, and descended to the Valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to Enrogel, And was drawn from the North, and went out to Enshemesh, and went out toward Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent to Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben, And passed along toward the side opposite Arabah northward, and went down to Arabah: And the border passed along to the side of Bethhoglah northward: and the outgoings of the border have been to the North Bay of the Salt Sea, to the south extremity of the Jordan; this is the south border.

And Jordan was the border of it on the East side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts there from every side, according to their families. Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, Bethhoglah, and the Valley of Keziz, Betharabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, Avim, Parah, Ophrah, Chepharhaammonai, Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities with their villages: Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, which is Jerusalem, Gibeath and Kirjath; 14 cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families. And the second lot came out for Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah. And they had in their inheritance Beersheba, or Sheba, Moladah, Hazarshual, Balah, Azem, Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, Ziklag, Bethmarcaboth, Hazarsusah, Bethlebaoth, and Sharuhen; 13 cities and their villages:

Chapter 19

Ain, Remmon, Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages: And all the villages that were around these cities to Baalathbeer, Ramath of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. Out of the territory of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon, because the part of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them. And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families, and the border of their inheritance was to Sarid. And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before Jokneam; And turned from Sarid eastward toward the sun rising to the border of Chislothtabor, and then goes out to Daberath, and goes up to Japhia, and from there passes on along on the east to Gittahhepher, to Ittahkazin, and goes out to Remmonmethoar to Neah; And the border surrounds it on the north side to Hannathon:

and its outgoings have been in the Valley of Jiphthahel: And Kattath, Nahallal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages. And the fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families. And their border was toward Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem, Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, Rabbith, Kishion, Abez, Remeth, Engannim, Enhaddah, Bethpazzez; And the coast reaches to Tabor, Shahazimah, Bethshemesh; and the extremity of their borders were at Jordan: 16 cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages. And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families. And their border was Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph, Alammelech, Amad, and Misheal; and reaches to Carmel westward, and to Shihorlibnath;

And turns toward the sun rising to Bethdagon, and reaches to Zebulun, and to the Valley of Jiphthahel toward the north side of Bethemek, and Neiel, and goes out to Cabul on the left hand, And Hebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, even to great Zidon; And then the coast turns to Ramah, and to the strong city Tyre; and the coast turns to Hosah; and the extremities of it are at the sea from the coast to Achzib: Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: 22 cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages. The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families. And their coast was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, to Lakum; and the outgoings of it were at Jordan:

And then the coast turns westward to Aznothtabor, and goes out from there to Hukkok, and reaches to Zebulun on the south side, and reaches to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sunrising. And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, Kedesh, Edrei, Enhazor, Iron, Migdalel, Horem, Bethanath, and Bethshemesh; 19 cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages. And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families. And the co ast of their inheritance was Zorah, Eshtaol, Irshemesh, Shaalabbin, Ajalon, Jethlah, Elon, Thimnathah, Ekron, Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, Jehud, Beneberak, Gathrimmon, Mejarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho. And the coast of the children of Dan extended out too little for them. Therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it and attacked it with the edge of the sword and possessed it, and lived there and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their forefather. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them. According to the Word of YHWH they gave him the city that he asked, even Timnathserah in Mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and lived in it. These are the inheritances that Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before YHWH, at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place. So they made an end of dividing the country. YHWH also spoke to Joshua saying, Speak to the children of Israel saying, Appoint out for you the Cities of Refuge, by which I spoke to you by the hand of Moses: That the slayer that kills anyone unaware and unwittingly may flee there: and they will be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

And when he that does flee to one of those cities will stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and will declare his cause in the ears of the Elders of that city.

Chapter 20

Then they will take him into the city for themselves, and give him a place, that he may live among them. And if the avenger of blood pursues after him, then they will not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he killed his neighbor unwittingly, and did not hate him in the past. And he will live in that city, until he stands before the company for judgment, and until the death of the High Priest that will be in those days. Then will the slayer return, and come to his own city, and to his own house, to the city from where he fled. And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in Mount Naphtali, and Shechem in Mount Ephraim, and Kirjatharba, which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah. And on the other side of Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh. These were the Appointed Cities for all the children of Israel, and for the foreigner that lives among them, that whoever kills anyone unaware might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stands before the company. Then came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel; And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan saying, YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to live in, with their suburbs there for our cattle. And the children of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of YHWH, these cities and their suburbs. And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites:

Chapter 21

and the children of Aaron the priest that were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, 13 cities. And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities. And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, 13 cities. The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. And the children of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses. And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities that are here mentioned by name, that the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot. And they gave them the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof surrounding it. But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession. Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest Hebron with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Libnah with its suburbs, and Jattir with its suburbs, and Eshtemoa with its suburbs, and Holon with its suburbs, and Debir with its suburbs, and Ain with its suburbs, and Juttah with its suburbs, and Bethshemesh with its suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes.

And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its suburbs, Geba with its suburbs, Anathoth with its suburbs, and Almon with its suburbs; four cities. All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were 13 cities with their suburbs. And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites that remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim. Because they gave them Shechem with its suburbs in Mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with its suburbs, and Kibzaim with its suburbs, and Bethhoron with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its suburbs, Gibbethon with its suburbs, Aijalon with its suburbs, Gathrimmon with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with its suburbs, and Gathrimmon with its suburbs; two cities.

All their cities were ten with their suburbs for the families of the children of Kohath that remained. And to the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Beeshterah with its suburbs; two cities. And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with its suburbs, Dabareh with its suburbs, Jarmuth with its suburbs, Engannim with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its suburbs, Abdon with its suburbs, Helkath with its suburbs, and Rehob with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammothdor with its suburbs, and Kartan with its suburbs; three cities. All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were 13 cities with their suburbs. And to the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its suburbs, and Kartah with its suburbs, Dimnah with its suburbs, Nahalal with its suburbs; four cities.

And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its suburbs, and Jahazah with its suburbs, Kedemoth with its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs; four cities. And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with its suburbs, Heshbon with its suburbs, Jazer with its suburbs; four cities in all. So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families that were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities. All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were 48 cities with their suburbs. These cities were each one with their suburbs surrounding them: these were all their cities. And YHWH gave to Israel all the land that He adjured to give unto their forefathers; and they possessed it and lived there. And YHWH gave them rest all around, according to all that he adjured to their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them;

YHWH delivered all their enemies into their hand. There failed not one thing of any good thing that YHWH had spoken to the House of Israel; all came to pass. Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and said to them, you have observed all that Moses the slave of YHWH commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you: You have not left your kinsmen these many days to this day, but have observed the charge of the commandment of YHWH Elohim. And now YHWH Elohim has given rest to your kinsmen, as he promised them:

Chapter 22

therefore now return you, and get you to your tents, and to the land of your possession that Moses the slave of YHWH gave to you on the other side of Jordan. But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the Law that Moses the slave of YHWH charged you, to Love YHWH Elohim, and to walk in all his ways, and to observe his commandments, and to stay close to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your life. So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went to their tents. Now to the one-half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan: but to the other one-half of it Joshua gave among their kinsmen on this side of Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also to their tents, then he blessed them and he spoke to them saying, return with much riches to your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver and with gold, and with brass and with iron, and with very much clothing:

divide the spoil of your enemies with your families. And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and left from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, in which they have possession, according to the command of YHWH by the hand of Moses. And when they came to the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to. And the children of Israel heard saying, look, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the one-half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar opposite the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel. And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole company of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them. And the children of Israel sent to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, And with him ten captains, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each one was a head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel. And they came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying, So says the whole company of YHWH, what trespass is this that you have committed against the Elohim of Israel, to turn away this day from following YHWH, in that you have erected yourselves an altar, that you might rebel this day against YHWH? Is the depravity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the company of YHWH, but that you must turn away this day from following YHWH? And it will be, seeing you rebel today against YHWH, that tomorrow he will be angry with the whole company of Israel. Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession is unclean, then pass over to the land of the possession of YHWH, where YHWH's Tabernacle settled down, and take possession among us:

but rebel not against YHWH, nor rebel against us, in building yourselves an altar beside the Altar of YHWH Elohim. Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the thing Devoted to Destruction, and anger fell on all the company of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his depravity. Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered, and said to the heads of the thousands of Israel, YHWH Elohim of elohim, the YHWH Elohim of elohim, He knows, and Israel he will know; if it is in rebellion, or if in transgression against YHWH, (save us not this day) , that we have built us an altar to turn from following YHWH, or if to offer on it Burnt-Offering or Meat-Offering, or if to offer Peace-Offerings on it, let YHWH himself require it; And if we have not rather done it for fear of this very thing saying, in time to come your children might speak to our children saying, what have you to do with YHWH Elohim of Israel? Because YHWH has made Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad; you have no part in YHWH: so will your children make our children stop from fearing YHWH.

Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for Burnt-Offering, nor for sacrifice: But that it may be a witness between us, and you and our generations after us, that we might do the service of YHWH before him with our Burnt-Offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our Peace-Offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, you have no part in YHWH. Therefore we said, that it will be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in times to come, that we may say again, observe the pattern of the Altar of YHWH that our fathers made, not for Burnt-Offerings, nor for sacrifices;

but it is a witness between us and you. Elohim forbid that we should rebel against YHWH and turn this day from following YHWH, to build an altar for Burnt-Offerings, for Meat-Offerings, or for sacrifices, beside the Altar of YHWH Elohim that is before His Tabernacle. And when Phinehas the priest, and the captains of the company and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them. And Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest replied to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, today we have known that YHWH is in our midst, because you have not committed against YHWH this trespass, so then you have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of YHWH. And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the captains, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them back word. And the thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed Elohim, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and Gad resided. And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad proclaim concerning the altar, that it is a witness between us that YHWH is Elohim. And it came about a long time after YHWH had given rest to Israel from all their surrounding enemies, that Joshua became old and stricken in age. And Joshua called for all Israel, and for their Elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them, I am old and stricken in age: And you have seen all that YHWH Elohim has done to all these nations because of you; for YHWH Elohim is he that has fought for you. See, I have divided to you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the Great Sea westward.

Chapter 23

And YHWH Elohim, he will expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and you will possess their land, as YHWH Elohim has promised to you. Be you therefore very courageous to observe and to do all that is written in the Scroll of the Torah of Moses, that you turn not aside from it to the right hand or to the left. That you come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their elohim, nor cause to adjure by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves to them. But stay close to YHWH Elohim, as you have done to this day. Because YHWH has driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, no man has been able to stand before you to this day. One man of you will chase 1000: for YHWH your Elohim, he it is that fights for you, as he has promised you. Take good heed therefore to yourselves, that you Love YHWH Elohim. Else if you do in anyway go back, and cling to the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and will make marriages with them and go in to them, and they to you: Know for a certainty that YHWH Elohim will no more drive out any of these nations from before you. But they will be snares and traps to you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land that YHWH Elohim has given you. And look, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and you know in all your hearts and in all yourselves, that not one thing has failed of all the good things that YHWH Elohim spoke concerning you.

All has come to pass for you, and not one thing has failed thereof. Therefore it will come to pass, that as all good things have come upon you that YHWH Elohim promised you; so will YHWH bring upon you all the bad things, until he has destroyed you from off this good land that YHWH Elohim has given you. When you have transgressed the Covenant-Pledge of YHWH Elohim that he commanded you, and have gone and served other elohim, and bowed yourselves to them; then will the anger of YHWH be kindled against you, and you will perish quickly from off the good land that he has given to you. And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the Elders of Israel and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before Elohim. And Joshua said to all the people, Thus says YHWH Elohim of Israel, Your fathers lived on the other side of the flood in ancient times, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other elohim. And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac. And I gave to Isaac Jacob and Esau: and I gave to Esau Mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt. I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to what I did among them: and afterward I brought you out. And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen into the Red Sea. And when they cried to YHWH, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and you lived in the uninhabited places a long season. And I brought you into the land of the Amorites that lived on the other side of Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

Chapter 24

Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you: But I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand. And you went over Jordan, and came to Jericho: and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand. And I sent the hornet before you that drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with your sword, nor with your bow. And I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and cities that you built not, and you lived in them; of the vineyards and olive yards that you did not plant, you ate from them. Now therefore fear YHWH, and serve him in Sincerity and in Truth: and put away the elohim that your ancestors served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve you YHWH. And if it seems bad to you to serve YHWH, choose you this day who you will serve; whether the elohim that your ancestors served that were on the other side of the flood, or the elohim of the Amorites, in whose land you live: but as for me and my house, we will serve YHWH. And the people answered and said, Elohim forbid that we should forsake YHWH, to serve other elohim; Because YHWH Elohim, he it is that brought us up and our ancestors out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and that did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the journey where we went, and among all the people through whom we passed. And YHWH drove out from before us all the people, even the Amorites that lived in the land, therefore will we also serve YHWH; for He is our Elohim. And Joshua said to the people, you cannot serve YHWH:

for he is a Holy Elohim; he is a jealous Elohim; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. If you forsake YHWH, and serve foreign elohim, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he has done you good. And the people said to Joshua, NO; but we will serve YHWH! And Joshua replied to the people, you are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen yourselves YHWH, to serve him. And they replied, we are witnesses. Now therefore put away, he said, the foreign elohim that are among you, and incline your heart to YHWH Elohim of Israel. And the people said to Joshua, YHWH our Elohim will we serve, and his Voice will we obey. So Joshua made a Covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. And Joshua wrote these words in the Scroll of the Law of Elohim, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the Sacred Place of YHWH. And Joshua said to all the people, look, this stone will be a witness to us; for it has heard all the Words of YHWH that he spoke to us: it will be therefore a witness to you, unless you deny your Elohim. So Joshua let the people depart, every man to his inheritance. And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the slave of YHWH died, being 110 years old.

And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnathserah, which is in Mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash. And Israel served YHWH all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the Elders that outlived Joshua, and that had known all the works of YHWH, that he had done for Israel. And the bones of Joseph that the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, they buried in Shechem. In a parcel of ground that Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for 100 pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph. And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in a hill that pertained to Phinehas his son that was given him in Mount Ephraim. Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of YHWH asking, who will go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them? And YHWH replied, Judah will go up: see, I have delivered the land into his hand. Then Judah said to Simeon his brother, come up with me into my lot so that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot. So Simeon went with him. And Judah went up; and YHWH delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they killed of them in Bezek 10,000 men. And they found Adonibezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they killed the Canaanites and the Perizzites. But Adonibezek fled; and they pursued after him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his big toes. and Adoni-Bezek said, 70 kings (their thumbs and their big toes cut off) have been gathering under my table;

as I have done so had Elohim repaid to me; and they brought him in to Jerusalem, and he died there. Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire. And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that lived in the mountains and in the south, and in the valley. And Judah went against the Canaanites that lived in Hebron: (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjatharba:) and they killed Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai. And from there he went against the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjathsepher. Then Caleb said, he that attacks Kirjathsepher and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter for your woman. And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter for his woman. And it came about when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her dad for a field: and she lighted from off her donkey; and Caleb said to her, what do you desire? And she replied to him, give me a blessing, because you have given me a south land; give me also springs of water. So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs. And the children of the Kenite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah that lies in the south of Arad;

and they went and lived among the people. And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they killed the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and Devoted them to Destruction. And the name of the city was called Hormah. Also Judah took Gaza with its territory, and Askelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory too. And YHWH was with Judah; and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountains; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. And they gave Hebron to Caleb as Moses said: and he expelled from there the three sons of Anak [a race of giants]. And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites that inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites lived with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day. And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Bethel: and YHWH was with them. And the house of Joseph sent to spy out Bethel. (Now the name of the city before was Luz). And the spies saw a man come out of the city and they said to him, show us, we ask you, the entrance into the city and we will show you kindness. And when he showed them the entrance into the city, they attacked the city with the edge of the sword; but they let that man go and all his family. And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name of it Luz: that is the name of it to this day. Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of Bethshean and its towns, nor Taanach and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns.

But the Canaanites continued to live in that land. And it came about, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not dispossess them. Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them. Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and became a serfdom. Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, nor of Rehob. But the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out. Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Bethshemesh, nor the inhabitants of Bethanath; but they lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Bethshemesh and of Bethanath became a serfdom to them. And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountains, because they would not permit them to come down to the valley. But the Amorites would live in Mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim: still the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became a serfdom.

And the territory of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward. And an Angel of YHWH came up from Gilgal to Bochim and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you to the land that I adjured to your forefathers; and I said, I will never break my Covenant-Pledge with you. And you will make no alliance with the inhabitants of this land; you will throw down their altars: but you have not obeyed my Voice: why have you done this? Therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they will be as thorns in your sides, and their elohim will be a snare to you. And it came to pass, when the Angel of YHWH spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice and wept. And they called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there to YHWH. And when Joshua had let the people go, the children of Israel went everyone to his inheritance to possess the land. And the people served YHWH all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the Elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of YHWH, that he did for Israel. And Joshua the son of Nun, the slave of YHWH died, being 110 years old. And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnathheres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash. And also all that generation were gathered to their ancestors: and there arose another generation after them that knew not YHWH, nor yet the works that he had done for Israel.

And the children of Israel did bad in the sight of YHWH, and served Baalim. And they forsook YHWH Elohim of their forefathers, that brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other elohim, of the elohim of the people that were around them, and bowed themselves to them, and provoked YHWH to anger. And they forsook YHWH, and served Baal and Ashtaroth. And the anger of YHWH burned against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of plunderers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their surrounding enemies, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. Wherever they went out, the hand of YHWH was against them for bad, as YHWH had said, and as YHWH had adjured to them: and they were greatly distressed. Nevertheless YHWH raised up Judges that delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them. But still they would not listen to their Judges, but they committed fornication after other elohim, and bowed themselves to them: they turned quickly out of the way that their fathers walked in, from obeying the commandments of YHWH; but they did not do so. And when YHWH raised them up Judges, then YHWH was with the Judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of that Judge, because YHWH was grieved because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them. And it came about, when the Judge was dead that they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their ancestors, in following other elohim to serve them, and to bow down to them;

they ceased not from their own practices, nor from their stubborn way. And the anger of YHWH burned against Israel and he said, Because now this people have transgressed my Covenant-Pledge that I commanded their fathers, and have not listened to my Voice; I will also no longer drive out any from before them of the nations that Joshua left when he died. That through them I may test Israel, whether they will observe the way of YHWH to walk in it as their fathers did observe it, or not. Therefore YHWH left those nations, without driving them out quickly; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua. Now these are the nations that YHWH left, to test Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan; (only for the sake of the generations of the children of Israel's knowing, to teach them war, only those who formerly have not known them) namely, five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that lived in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baalhermon to the entering in of Hamath. And they were to test Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of YHWH that he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. And the children of Israel lived among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. And they took their daughters to be their women, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their elohim. And the children of Israel did bad in the sight of YHWH, and forgot YHWH their Elohim, and served Baalim and the groves (for idol worship) . Therefore the anger of YHWH burned against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia:

and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years. And when the children of Israel cried to YHWH, then YHWH raised up a deliverer for the children of Israel, who delivered them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger nephew. And the Spirit of YHWH came upon him, and he Judged Israel and went out to war: and YHWH delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim. And the land had rest 40 years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died. Then the children of Israel did bad again in the sight of YHWH: and YHWH strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done bad in the sight of YHWH. And he gathered to him the children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and attacked Israel, and possessed the city of palm trees. So the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab 18 years. But when the children of Israel cried to YHWH, then YHWH raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a left-handed man: and by him the children of Israel sent a present to Eglon the king of Moab. But Ehud fashioned himself a dagger that had two edges, of a cubit length [18 inches]; and he did belt it under his clothing upon his right thigh. And he brought the present to Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that carried the present. But he himself turned back from the idols that were by Gilgal and said, I have a secret matter for you, O king: who replied, keep quiet. And all that stood by him went out from him. Then Ehud came to him as he was sitting in a summer roof-room that he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a message from Elohim for you. And he got up out of his seat. And Ehud put out his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly. And the haft (hilt of the blade) also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and the feces came out. Then Ehud went out through the porch, and shut the doors of the roof-room after him, and locked them. When he was gone out his slaves came back; and when they saw that, observing the doors of the roof-room were locked, they said, Surely he is going to the bathroom in his roof-room. And they waited until they were disconcerted, and observed that he opened not the doors of the roof-room; therefore they took a key and opened it up, and lo, their lord was fallen down dead on the surface [of the floor]. But Ehud escaped while they waited, and passed beyond the idols, and escaped to Seirath. And it came about, when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the hill country, with him leading them. And he said to them, Follow after me because YHWH has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand.

And they went down after him, and took the fords of Jordan toward Moab, and permitted no one to pass over. And they killed of Moab at that time about 10,000 men, all robust and all men of valor; and there escaped not a man. So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for 80 years. And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath that killed of the Philistines 600 men with an ox goad: and he also delivered Israel. And the children of Israel again did bad in the sight of YHWH, when Ehud was dead. And YHWH sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose army was Sisera that lived in Harosheth of the Gentiles. And the children of Israel cried to YHWH because he had 900 chariots of iron; and for 20 years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel. And Deborah, a prophetess, the woman of Lapidoth, she Judged Israel at that time. And she lived under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in Mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for Judgment. And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedeshnaphtali and said to him, has not YHWH Elohim of Israel commanded saying, Go and draw toward Mount Tabor, and take with you 10,000 men from the children of Naphtali and from the children of Zebulun?

And I will draw for you (to the Kishon River) Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into your hand. Then Barak replied to her, if you will go with me, then I will go: but if you will not go with me, then I will not go. And she replied, I will certainly go with you: notwithstanding the journey that you take will not be for your honor, because YHWH will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. So Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh. And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with 10,000 men at his feet, and Deborah went up with him. Now Heber the Kenite that was of the children of Hobab the father in law of Moses, had separated himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent on the plain of Zaanaim that is by Kedesh. And they reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor. Then Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even 900 chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles to the Kishon River. And Deborah said to Barak, Up, for this is the day in which YHWH has delivered Sisera into your hand. Is not YHWH gone out before you? So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and 10,000 men after him. And YHWH crushed Sisera, and all his chariots and all his army, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the army to Harosheth of the Gentiles. And all the army of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword, and there was not a man left. But Sisera escaped to his feet to the tent of Jael (the woman of Heber) the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. And Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, turn in my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in to her into the tent, she covered him with a blanket. And he said to her, give me I ask you, a little water to drink because I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk and gave him drink, and covered him. Again he said to her, stand in the door of the tent and it will be, when anyone does come and inquire about you and asks, is there anyone here? That you will say, no. Then Jael (Heber's woman) took a nail from the tent, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and drove the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground, for he was fast asleep and weary, and so he died. And see, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said to him, come and I will show you the man whom you seek. And when he came into her tent, look, Sisera was fallen dead and the nail was in his temples. So Elohim subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel. And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan. Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day singing, Praise you YHWH for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves. Hear, O you kings; give ear, O you princes; I, even I, will sing to YHWH; I will sing praise to YHWH Elohim of Israel. YHWH, when you went out of Seir, when you marched out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled and the skies dropped, the clouds also dropped their water. The mountains flowed with water from before YHWH, even that Sinai from before YHWH Elohim of Israel. In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied, and the travelers walked through winding roads. The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that I arose, Deborah, that I arose, a mother in Israel. They chose new elohim; then was war in the gates: was there a shield or spear seen among 40,000 in Israel? My heart is toward the Governors of Israel, that offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless you YHWH, mediate, you that ride on tanned female donkeys, you that sit in cloth garments and travel the journey. They that are delivered from the sound of archers in the drawing place of water, there will they rehearse the righteous acts of YHWH, even the righteous acts toward the inhabitants of his villages in Israel. Then will the people of YHWH go down to the court of the Tabernacle.

Awake, awake, Deborah: awake, awake, utter a song: arise, Barak, and lead your captivity captive, you son of Abinoam. Then the remnant will have dominion over the waters [compare with Rev.] among the people: YHWH came down with me against the mighty. Out of Ephraim was there a root of them against Amalek; after you, Benjamin, among your people; out of Machir came down governors, and out of Zebulun him that handles the pen of the writer. And the chiefs of Issachar were with Deborah; even Issachar, and also Barak: he was sent on foot into the valley. In the divisions of Reuben, great are the decrees of heart! Why did you stay among the sheepfolds, to hear the hissing of the flocks? For in the divisions of Reuben there were great searching's of heart. Gilead resided beyond Jordan: and why did Dan sojourn in ships? Asher has continued at the haven of the seas, and by his creeks does he tabernacle. Zebulun and Naphtali were a people that jeopardized their lives to the death on the high places of the field. The kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo; they took no gain of money. They fought from the skies; the star of Messiah in their courses fought against Sisera. The river of Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon. O my life, you have trodden down strength. Then were the horse-hoofs broken by the means of the galloping, the galloping of their valiant ones.

Curse Meroz, said a messenger of YHWH, Cursing, curse you its inhabitants, for they came not to the help of YHWH, to the help of YHWH among the mighty! Blessed above women will Jael the woman of Heber the Kenite be, blessed will she be above women in the tent. He asked water, and she gave him milk, she brought out butter in a great dish. She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workmen's hammer; and with the hammer she killed Sisera, she destroyed his head, when she had pierced and penetrated through his temples. At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down: at her feet he bowed, he fell: where he bowed, there he fell down dead. The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cried through the lattice, why is his chariot so long in coming? Why delayed are the wheels of his chariots? Her wise ladies answered her, yes, she returned answer to herself, have they not found? Have they not divided the plunder; to every man a damsel or two; to Sisera a plunder of dyed colors, a spoil of dyed cloth of needlework, of dyed colors of needlework on both sides, for the necks of them that take the spoil? So let all your enemies perish, O YHWH:

but let them that love him be as the sun when it goes out in its might. And the land had rest 40 years. And the children of Israel did bad in the sight of YHWH: and then YHWH delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years. And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel:

and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made themselves dens that are in the mountains and caves, and strongholds. And so it was when Israel had sown seed that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children from the East, even they came up against them; Then they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, until you come to Gaza, and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor donkey. Because they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it. And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried unto YHWH. And it came about when the children of Israel cried to YHWH because of the Midianites, that YHWH sent a prophet to the children of Israel that said to them, So says YHWH Elohim of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage; And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land; And I said to you, I am YHWH Elohim; fear not the elohim of the Amorites, in whose land you live, but you have not obeyed my Voice.

And there came an Angel of YHWH, and sat under an oak that was in Ophrah, that pertained to Joash the Abiezrite: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the wine-press, to hide it from the Midianites. And the Angel of YHWH appeared to him, and said to him, YHWH is with you, you mighty man of valor. And Gideon replied to him, Oh my Adonai, if YHWH be with us, why then is all this befallen us? And where are all his miracles that our ancestors told us of saying, did not YHWH bring us up from Egypt? But now YHWH has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. And YHWH turned to him and said, go in this, your power; and you have saved Israel out of the hand of Midian, have not I sent you. And he replied to him, oh my Adonai, how will I save Israel? Look, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my dad's house. And YHWH said to him, certainly I will be with you and you will attack the Midianites as one man. And he replied to him, if now I have found favor in your sight, then show me a sign that you talked with me. Do not leave from here I ask you, until I come to you, and bring out my offering and set it before you. And he replied, I will stay until you come back. And Gideon went in, and made ready a female goat and unleavened cakes of an ephah [3/5 bushel] of flour: the meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to him under the oak, and offered it. And the Angel of Elohim said to him, Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth.

And he did so. Then the Angel of YHWH put out the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and there shot up fire out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes. Then the Angel of YHWH walked out of his sight. And when Gideon perceived that he was an Angel of YHWH, Gideon said, Alas, O Adonai YHWH! for because I have seen an Angel of YHWH face to face. And YHWH replied to him, Peace be to you (fear not), you will not die. Then Gideon built an Altar there to YHWH, and called it YHWH-Shalom: to this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. And it came about the same night that YHWH said to him,

Take your dad's young bull, even the second bull of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that your dad has, and cut down the grove that is by it. And you will erect an Altar to YHWH Elohim on the top of this stronghold, by the arrangement, and will take the second bull, and caused to ascend a Burnt-Offering with the wood of the shrine that you cut down. Then Gideon took ten men of his slaves, and did as YHWH had said to him: and so it was, because he feared his dad's household and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, but that he did it by night. And when the men of the city got up early in the morning, see, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bull was offered upon the Altar that was erected. And they said one to another, who has done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing. Then the men of the city said to Joash, bring out your son so that he may die: because he has cast down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the grove that was by it.

And Joash replied to all that stood against him, will you plead for Baal? Will you save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death while it is still morning: if he is an elohim, let him plead for himself, because one has cast down his altar. Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, let Baal plead against him, because he has thrown down his altar. Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children from the East were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the Valley of Jezreel. But the Spirit of YHWH came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered after him. And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them. And Gideon said to Elohim, if you will save Israel by my hand, as you have said, look, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing-floor; and if the dew is on the fleece only, and it is dry upon all the earth around, then will I know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have said. And it was so, because he got up early the next morning, and squeezed the fleece together, and wrung out the dew from the fleece, a bowl full of water worth. Then Gideon said to Elohim, let not your anger burn against me, and I will speak but this once. Let me prove, I ask you, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. And Elohim did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon and all the people that were with him, got up early and pitched beside the Harod Spring: so that the camp of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. And YHWH said to Gideon, The people that are with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, unless Israel vaunt themselves against me saying, my own hand has saved me. Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people saying, whoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and leave early from Mount Gilead. And there returned of the people 22,000; and there remained 10,000. And YHWH said to Gideon, The people are still too many; bring them down to the water, and I will refine them there for you. And it will be that of those I say to you, This will go with you, the same will go with you, and of those I say to you, these will not go with you, the same will not go. So he brought down the people to the water, and YHWH said to Gideon, Everyone that laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, him will you set by himself; likewise everyone that bows down upon his knees to drink. And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were 300 men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water. And YHWH said to Gideon, By the 300 men that lapped I will save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand: and let all the other people go every man to his place. So the people took food in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man to his tent, and retained those 300 men, and the camp of Midian was beneath him in the valley. And it came about that same night, that YHWH said to him, Rise up, get you down to the camp; for I have delivered it into your hand. But if you fear to go down, go you with Phurah your slave down to the camp. And you will hear what they say; and afterward will your hands be strengthened to go down to the camp. Then he went down with Phurah his slave to the outskirt of the armed men that were in the camp.

And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the East lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the seaside for multitude. And Gideon came in, and lo, a man is recounting to his companion a dream, and said, lo, a dream I have dreamed, and lo, a cake of barley-bread is turning itself over into the camp of Midian, and it comes into the tent, and strikes it, and it falls, and turns it upwards, and the tent has fallen. And his buddy answered and said, this is nothing else except the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel, because into his hand has Elohim delivered Midian, and all the camp. And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and its interpretation, that he worshiped and returned to the Camp of Israel and said, Arise; for YHWH has delivered into your hand the camp of Midian. And he divided the 300 men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers. And he said to them, look on me and do the same as me, and see, when I come to the outside of the camp, it will be that, as I do, so will you do likewise. When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then you blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp and say, The Sword of YHWH, and of Gideon. So Gideon, and the 100 men that were with him, came to the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers that were in their hands. And the three companies blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow: and they cried, The Sword of YHWH, and of Gideon.

And they stood every man in his place around the camp: and all the camp ran, and cried and fled. And the 300 blew the trumpets, and YHWH set every man's sword against his companion, even throughout all the army: and the army fled to Bethshittah in Zererath, and to the border of Abelmeholah, to Tabbath. And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites. And Gideon sent messengers throughout all Mount Ephraim saying, come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters to Bethbarah and Jordan.

Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters to Bethbarah and Jordan. And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they killed Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon at the ford of the Jordan. And the men of Ephraim said to him, why have you served us this way, that you did not call us when you went to fight with the Midianites? And they did argue with him sharply. And he replied to them, what have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? Elohim has delivered into your hands the chiefs of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that. And Gideon came to Jordan and passed over, he, and the 300 men that were with him, faint, and still pursuing them. And he said to the men of Succoth, give I ask of you, loaves of bread to the people that follow me because they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian. And the leaders of Succoth replied, are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?

Chapter 8

Chapter 8

So Gideon replied, therefore when YHWH has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers. And he went up from there to Penuel, and spoke to them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him. And he spoke also to the men of Penuel saying, when I come again in peace, I will break down this tower. Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their army with them, about 15,000 men, all that were left of all the armies of the children of the East, because there fell 120,000 men that drew the sword. And Gideon went up by the way of them that lived in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and attacked the army, for the camp was secure. And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed in terror all the army. And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sunrise came, and caught a young man of the men from Succoth, and inquired of him: and he described to him the chiefs of Succoth, and their Elders, even 77 leaders. And he came to the men of Succoth and said, look Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom you did upbraid me saying, are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your men that are weary? And he took the Elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth [a lesson]. And he pulled down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.

Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, what kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor? And they answered, as you are so were they; each one resembled the children of a king. And he replied, they were my brothers, even the sons of my mother: as YHWH lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you. And he said to Jether his firstborn, up and kill them. But the youth drew not his sword because he was fearful, for he was still a youth. Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, you rise and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. So Gideon got up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that were on their camels' necks. Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, you over us, both you and your son, and your son's son also because you have delivered us from the hand of Midian. But Gideon replied to them, I will not over you, neither will my son over you: YHWH will rule over you. And Gideon said to them, I would desire a request of you, that you would give me every man the earrings of his plunder. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites). And they answered, we will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast there every man the earrings of his plunder. And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was 1,700 shekels [43 pounds] of gold; besides ornaments and collars, and purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were around their camels' necks.

And Gideon made an ephod, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel went there a whoring after it: which thing became a snare to Gideon, and to his house. Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in quietness 40 years in the days of Gideon. And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house. And Gideon had 70 sons of his body born because he had many women. And his concubine that was in Shechem, she also gendered him a son, whose name he called Abimelech. And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the grave of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. And it came about, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and committed fornication after Baalim, and made Baalberith their elohim. And the children of Israel remembered not YHWH Elohim, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side. Neither showed they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, namely Gideon, according to all the goodness that he had showed to Israel. And Abimel ech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's brothers, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father saying, speak I ask of you in the ears of all the men of Shechem, which is better for you, either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, that are 70 people, reign over you, or that one reigns over you?

Remember also that I am your flesh and bone. And his mother's kinsmen spoke of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, he is our brother. And they gave him 70 shekels [1 3/4 pounds] of silver out of the house of Baalberith, with which Abimelech hired vain and reckless persons that followed him. And he went to his dad's house at Ophrah, and killed his kinsmen the sons of Jerubbaal, being 70 people upon one stone: but Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left because he hid himself. And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went and made Abimelech king, by the plain of the pillar that was in Shechem. And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, cried and said to them, listen to me you men of Shechem, that Elohim may listen to you. The trees went out at a time to anoint a king over them; and they said to the olive tree, you reign over us. But the olive tree said to them, should I leave my fatness, with which by me they honor Elohim and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? And the trees said to the fig tree, you come and reign over us. But the fig tree said to them, should I forsake my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? Then said the trees to the vine, you come and reign over us. And the vine said to them, should I leave my wine that cheers Elohim and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

Then said all the trees to the bramble, you come and reign over us. And the bramble said to the trees, if in truth you anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon. Now therefore, if you have done truly and sincerely, in that you have made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him according to the deserving of his hands; (For my dad fought for you, and adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian: And you are risen up against my dad's house this day, and have killed his sons, 70 people, upon one stone and have made Abimelech, the son of his female slave, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother;) If you then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice you in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you: But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech. Then Jotham ran away and escaped and went to Beer, and lived there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel, then Elohim sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech. That the cruelty done to the 70 sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother that killed them; and upon the men of Shechem, which aided him in the killing of his kinsmen. And the men of Shechem set men in ambush for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech. And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his kinsmen, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him. And they went out into the fields and gathered their vineyards, and treaded the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their elohim, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech. And Gaal the son of Ebed said, who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem, because why should we serve him? If only this people were under my hand! Then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, increase your army and come out. And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his nostrils flared. And he sent messengers to Abimelech privately saying, see, Gaal the son of Ebed and his kinsmen are come to Shechem; and look, they fortify the city against you. Now therefore get up by night, you and the people that are with you, and lie in wait in the field:

And it will be that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you will rise early and set upon the city. And lo, when he and the people that are with him come out against you, then you may do to them as you will find occasion. And Abimelech got up, and all the people that were with him by night, and they waited in ambush against Shechem in four companies. Then Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from their ambush. And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, look, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul replied to him, you see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men. Then Gaal spoke again and said, see there come people down by the middle of the land, and another company comes along by the plain of Meonenim. Then Zebul said to him, where is now your mouth, in which you said, who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that you have despised? go out I implore you now, and fight with them. And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him and many were overthrown and wounded, even to the entering of the gate. And Abimelech lived at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his kinsmen, that they should not live in Shechem. And it came about on the next day that the people went out into the field, and they told Abimelech.

And he took the people and divided them into three companies, and waited in ambush in the field and looked, and lo, the people were come out of the city; and he rose up against them and attacked them. Then Abimelech and the company that were with him, rushed forward and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields and killed them. And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and killed the people that were there, and beat down the city and sowed it with salt. And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into the cellar of the house of the elohim Berith. And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together. And Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an ax in his hand. And cut down a bough from the trees and took it, and laid it on his shoulder and said to the people that were with him. What you have seen me do, hurry, and do the same as I have done. And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough and followed Abimelech, and put them to the cellar, and set the cellar on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about 1000 men and women. Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez and captured it. But there was a strong tower within the city, and there fled all the men and women, and all from the city and locked it up, and all of them ascended to the top of the tower. And Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it, and went hard to the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

And a certain woman cast a piece of a millstone upon Abimelech's head, and broke his skull. Then he called quickly to the young man his armor-bearer, and said to him, draw your sword and kill me so that men say not of me, a woman killed him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died. And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man to his place. So Elohim rendered the wickedness of Abimelech that he did to his dad, in killing his 70 brothers. And all the badness of the men of Shechem did Elohim render upon their heads: and on them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal. And after Abimelech there arose to defend Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he lived in Shamir in Mount Ephraim. And he judged Israel 23 years and died, and was buried in Shamir. And after him arose Jair, a Gileadite, and judged Israel 22 years. And he had 30 sons that rode on 30 male donkeys, and they had 30 cities that are called Havothjair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead. And Jair died, and was buried in Camon.

And the children of Israel did bad again in the sight of YHWH, and served Baalim and Ashtaroth, and the elohim of Syria, and the elohim of Zidon, and the elohim of Moab, and the elohim of the children of Ammon, and the elohim of the Philistines, and forsook YHWH and served him not. And the anger of YHWH was burning against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines and into the hands of the children of Ammon. And that year they vexed and oppressed the children of Israel: 18 years, all the children of Israel that were on the other side Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against Judah and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was exceedingly distressed. And the children of Israel cried to YHWH saying, we have sinned against you, both because we have forsaken our Elohim, and also served Baalim. And YHWH replied to the children of Israel, Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines? The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites and the Maonites did oppress you; and you cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand. Still you have forsaken me, and served other elohim: therefore I will deliver you no more. Go and cry to the elohim that you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress. But the children of Israel replied to YHWH, we have sinned: do you to us whatever seems good to you; deliver us only, we pray you this day. And they put away the foreign elohim from among them, and served YHWH:

and his heart was grieved for the misery of Israel. Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpeh. And the people and the chiefs of Gilead said one to another, what man is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? He will be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead. Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, and he was the son of a prostitute: and Gilead gendered Jephthah. And Gilead's woman gendered him sons; and his woman's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah and said to him, you will not inherit in our dad's house because you are the son of a foreign woman. Then Jephthah fled from his kinsmen and lived in the land of Tob: and there were gathered worthless men to Jephthah that went out with him. And it came to pass in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel. And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the Elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah out of the land of Tob: And they said to Jephthah, come and be our captain so that we may fight with the children of Ammon. But Jephthah replied to the Elders of Gilead, did you not hate me and expel me out of my dad's house?

And why are you coming to me now when you are in trouble? And the Elders of Gilead replied to Jephthah, therefore we turn again to you now so that you may go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our chief over all the inhabitants of Gilead. And Jephthah said to the Elders of Gilead, if you bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and YHWH delivers them before me, will I be your chief? And the Elders of Gilead replied to Jephthah, YHWH be witness between us, if we do not so do according to your words. Then Jephthah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him chief and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before YHWH in Mizpeh. And Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon saying, what have you to do with me, that you are coming against me to fight in my land? And the king of the children of Ammon answered to the messengers of Jephthah, because Israel took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even to Jabbok, and to Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably. But Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the children of Ammon: And said to him, thus says Jephthah, Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon: But when Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the uninhabited places to the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh; Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom saying, let me I ask you, pass through your land: but the king of Edom would not listen. And in like manner they sent to the king of Moab: but he would not consent, and Israel resided in Kadesh. Then they went along through the uninhabited places, and skirted around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab.

And camped on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab, because Arnon was on the border of Moab. And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, let us pass we ask you, through your land into my region. But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and camped in Jahaz and fought against Israel. And YHWH Elohim of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel and they attacked them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. And they possessed all the territory of the Amorites, from Arnon even to Jabbok, and from the uninhabited places even to Jordan. So now YHWH Elohim of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and should you now possess it? Will you not possess what Chemosh your elohim gives you to possess? So whoever YHWH our Elohim will drive out from before us, that, we will possess. And now are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them, while Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along by the coasts of Arnon for 300 years?

why therefore did you not recover them within that time? Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me: YHWH the Judge be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon. But the king of the children of Ammon listened not to the words of Jephthah that he sent him. Then the Spirit of YHWH came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over to the children of Ammon. And Jephthah vowed a vow to YHWH and said, if you will without fail deliver the children of Ammon into my hands, then it will be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, will certainly be YHWH's, and I will offer it up for a Burnt-Offering. So Jephthah passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them; and YHWH delivered them into his hands. And he attacked them from Aroer, even until you come to Minnith, even 20 cities, and to the plain of the vineyards with a very great slaughter. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel. And Jephthah came to Mizpeh to his house, and lo, his daughter came out to meet him with tambourine and with dancing: and she was his only child, other than her he had neither son nor daughter. And it came about, when he saw her, that he tore his clothes and said, alas, my daughter! you have brought me very low, and you are one of them that trouble me because I have opened my mouth to YHWH, and I cannot go back.

And she said to him, my dad, if you have opened your mouth to YHWH, do to me according to what has proceeded out of your mouth; forasmuch as YHWH has taken vengeance for you of your enemies, even of the children of Ammon. But she said to her dad, let this thing be done for me: leave me alone for two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and weep bitterly for my virginity, I and my maidens. And he said, go, and he sent her away for two months: and she went with her maidens, and wept bitterly for her virginity upon the mountains. And it came about at the end of two months, that she returned to her dad, who did with her according to his vow that he had vowed:

and she had sexual relations with no man. And it was a custom in Israel that the daughters of Israel went yearly to recount the story of the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year. And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together and went northward, and said to Jephthah, why did you pass over to fight against the children of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? we will burn your house upon you with fire. But Jephthah replied to them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, you delivered me not out of their hands. And when I saw that you delivered me not, I put my life in my hands and passed over against the children of Ammon, and YHWH delivered them into my hand: therefore why are you then come up to me this day to fight against me? Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead attacked Ephraim, because they said, you Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites. And the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites and it was so, that when those Ephraimites that were escaped said, let me go over; that the men of Gilead replied to him, are you an Ephraimite?

If he said, no; then they replied to him, say now “Shibboleth”, but he said Sibboleth instead: because he could not frame his words to pronounce it right. Then they took him and killed him at the passages of Jordan, and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites 42,000. And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead. And after him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. And he had 30 sons, and 30 daughters, whom he sent abroad, and took in 30 daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years. Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem. And after him Elon, a Zebulonite, judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years. And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the country of Zebulun. And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, a Pirathonite, judged Israel. And he had 40 sons and 30 nephews, that rode on 70 male donkeys: and he judged Israel eight years. And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites. And the children of Israel did bad again in the sight of YHWH; and YHWH delivered them into the hand of the Philistines 40 years. And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah;

and his woman was sterile, and gendered not. And the Angel of YHWH appeared to the woman and said to her, See now, you are sterile and gender not: but you will conceive and gender a son. Now therefore observe, and drink no wine or strong drink, and do not eat anything unclean: Because lo, you will conceive and gender a son; and no razor will come on his head because the child will be a Nazarite to Elohim from the womb: and he will begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines. Then the woman came and told her husband saying, a servant of Elohim came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of an Angel of Elohim, very dreadful: but I asked him not from where he came, neither did he tell me his name: But he said to me, See, you will conceive and gender a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat anything unclean because the child will be a Nazarite to Elohim from the womb to the day of his death. Then Manoah prayed to YHWH and said, O my Adonai, let the servant of Elohim that you did send come again to us, and teach us what we will do to the child that will be born. And Elohim listened to the voice of Manoah; and the Angel of Elohim came again to the woman as she sat in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her. And the woman quickly hurried and ran, and showed her husband and said to him, look, the servant has appeared to me, that came to me the other day. And Manoah got up, and followed his woman and came to the servant and said to him, are you the servant that spoke to the woman? And he replied, I am. Then Manoah said, now let your words come to pass, what is the custom of the youth and his work?

And the Angel of YHWH replied to Manoah, Of all that I said to the woman let her observe. She may not eat of anything that comes of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean: all that I commanded her let her observe. And Manoah replied to the Angel of YHWH, I ask you, let us detain you until we will have prepared a young male goat for you. And the Angel of YHWH replied to Manoah, Though you detain me, I will not eat of your bread: and if you will offer a Burnt-Offering, you must offer it to YHWH. Because Manoah knew not that he was an Angel of YHWH. So Manoah said to the Angel of YHWH, what is your name, that when your sayings come to pass we may do you honor? And the Angel of YHWH replied to him, why do you ask after my name, seeing it is incomprehensible? So Manoah took a young male goat with a Grain-Offering, and offered it upon a rock to YHWH: and the angel did wondrously; and Manoah and his woman looked on. Because it came about, when the flame went up toward the sky from off the Altar, that the Angel of YHWH ascended in the flame of the Altar. And Manoah and his woman looked at it, and fell on their faces to the ground.

But the Angel of YHWH did no more appear to Manoah and to his woman. Then Manoah knew that he was an Angel of YHWH. And Manoah said to his woman, we will certainly die, because we have seen Elohim. But his woman replied to him, If YHWH were pleased to kill us he would not have received a Burnt-Offering and a Grain-Offering at our hands, neither would he have showed us all these things, nor would he have at this time told us such things as these. And the woman gendered a son and called his name Samson, and the child grew, and YHWH blessed him. And the Spirit of YHWH began to move him at times in the camp of Dan between Zorah and Eshtaol. And Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath from the daughters of the Philistines. And he came up, and told his dad and his mother and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath from the daughters of the Philistines, now therefore get her for me to be my woman. Then his dad and his mother replied to him, is there not a woman among the daughters of your kinsmen or among all my people, that you go to take a woman from the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said to his dad, get her for me because she pleases me well. But his dad and his mother knew not that it was of YHWH, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines, because at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel. Then Samson went down, and his dad and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and look, a young lion roared against him.

And the Spirit of YHWH came mightily upon him, and he tore it as he would have torn a young male goat, and he had nothing in his hands:

but he told not his dad or his mother what he had done. And he went down and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson well. And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion: and see, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcass of the lion. And he took of it in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his dad and mother, and he gave to them and they did eat: but he told them not that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion. So his dad went down to the woman and Samson made there a banquet, for so was the custom of the young men to do. And it came about, when they saw him, that they brought 30 friends to be with him. And Samson said to them, I will now put out a riddle to you, if you can certainly declare it to me within the seven days of the banquet, and find it out, then I will give you 30 sheets and 30 changes of clothing. But if you cannot declare it to me, then you will give me 30 sheets and 30 change of clothing. And they said to him, put forward your riddle so that we may hear it. And he replied to them, out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. But they could not in three days make known the riddle. And it came about on the seventh day, that they said to Samson's woman, entice your husband so that he may declare to us the riddle, unless we burn you and your dad's house with fire, have you called us to take what we have? Is it not so? Then Samson's woman wept before him and said, you do but hate me and do not love me. You have put forth a riddle to the children of my people, and have not told it to me.

And he replied to her, look, I have not told it to my dad nor my mother, and will I tell it to you? And she wept before him all the seven days, while their banquet lasted and it came about on the seventh day that he told her, because she laid sore into him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people. Then the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, what is sweeter than honey? And what is stronger than a lion? And he replied to them, if you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle. And the Spirit of YHWH came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and killed 30 men of them and took their plunder, and gave change of clothing to them that made known the riddle. Then his anger burned and he withdrew to his dad's house. But Samson's woman was given to his companion who had been as his friend. But it came about around the time of wheat harvest that Samson visited his woman and brought a young male goat; and he said, I will go into my woman to the bedroom. But her dad would not permit him to go in. But her dad said, I truly thought that you had utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion: is not her younger sister prettier than she is? Take her, I ask of you, instead of her. And Samson said concerning them, now will I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure. And Samson went and caught 300 foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the middle between two tails. And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives. Then the Philistines said, who has done this? And they answered, Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his woman and given her to his companion. Then the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her dad with fire.

And Samson said to them, though you have done this, still I will be avenged of you, and after that I will stop. And he attacked them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and lived in the top of the Etam cliff. Then the Philistines went up, and camped in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi. And the men of Judah said, why are you come up against us? And they answered, to bind Samson we have come, to do to him as he has done to us. Then 3000 men of Judah went to the top of the Etam cliff and said to Samson, do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What is this that you have done to us? And he replied to them, as they did to me, so have I done to them. And they said to him, we are come down to bind you so that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said to them, promise me that you will not fall upon me yourselves. And they spoke to him saying, no; but we will bind you securely, and deliver you into their hands: but certainly we will not kill you. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock. And when he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the Spirit of YHWH came mightily upon him, and the cords that were on his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his ropes loosened from off his hands. And he found a new jawbone of a donkey, and put out his hand and took it, and killed 1000 men with it.

And Samson said, with the jawbone of a donkey, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of a donkey I have killed 1000 men. And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Ramathlehi (height of a jawbone). And he was extremely thirsty, and called on YHWH and said, you have given this great deliverance into the hand of your slave: and now I will die for thirst, and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised? But Elohim split a hollow place that was in the jaw, and there came water out of it; and when he had drunk, his vigor returned and he revived: therefore he called the name of it Enhakkore (spring of one calling), which is in Lehi to this day. And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines 20 years. Then Samson went to Gaza and saw there a prostitute and went in unto her. And it was told the Gazites saying, Samson has come here. And they boxed him in and lay in ambush for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all that night saying, in the morning, when it is day we will kill him. And Samson rested until midnight, and got up at midnight and took the doors of the gate of the city, and its two posts. He went away with them, bars and all, and put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of a hill that is before Hebron. And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. And the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, entice him and see where his great strength comes from, and by what means we may prevail against him. Then we may bind him to afflict him: and we will give you from every one of us 1,100 shekels of silver [28 pounds]. And Delilah said to Samson, tell me I ask you, where does your great strength come from, and how might you be bound to afflict you. And Samson replied to her, if they bind me with seven green remnants that were never dried, then I will become weak and be as any other man.

Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green remnants that had not been dried, and she bound him with them. Now there were men lying in ambush, staying with her in the room. And she said to him, the Philistines are upon you, Samson. And he broke the remnants, as a thread of flax is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not revealed. Then Delilah said to Samson, look, you have mocked me and told me lies: now tell me, I ask you, how you might be bound. He replied to her, if they bind me securely with new ropes that never were occupied, then I will be weak, and be as any other man. Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him with them and said to him, the Philistines are upon you Samson. And there were people in ambush staying in the room. But he broke them from off his arms like a thread. And Delilah said to Samson, now you have mocked me and told me lies: tell me how you might be bound. And he replied to her, if you weave the seven locks of my head with the loom. And she fastened it with the pin, and said to him, the Philistines are upon you Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the loom.

And she said to him, how can you say I love you, when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength comes from. And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him so that his emotions were vexed to death; that he told her all his heart and said to her, there has not come a razor upon my head because I have been a Nazarite to Elohim from my mother's womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will go from me and I will become weak and be like any other man. And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines saying, come up this once, because he has shown me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought money in their hand. And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a servant, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. And she said, the Philistines are upon you Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he knew not that YHWH was departed from him. But the Philistines took him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house. But the hair of his head began to grow back again after he was shaved. Then the lords of the Philistines gathered themselves together for offering a great sacrifice to Dagon their elohim and to rejoice, because they said, our elohim has delivered Samson our enemy into our hands. And when the people saw him, they praised their elohim: for they said, our elohim has delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country that killed many of us. And it came about, when their hearts were merry, that they said, call for Samson so that he may make us sport.

And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport, and they set him between the pillars. And Samson said to the boy that held him by the hand, permit me that I may feel the pillars where the house stands on, that I may lean upon them. Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were on the roof about 3000 men and women, that watched while Samson was made mocking sport of. Then Samson called to YHWH and said, O Adonai YHWH, remember me, I pray you and strengthen me, I pray you, only this once O Elohim, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes. And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was supported, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. And Samson said, let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell on the lords, and upon all the people that were there. So the dead that he executed at his death were more than those that he killed in his lifetime. Then his kinsmen and all the house of his father came down and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the grave of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel 20 years. And there was a man of Mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah. And he said to his mother, the 1,100 shekels of silver [28 pounds] that were taken from you, about which you cursed and spoke of also in my ears, look, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother replied, blessed are you of YHWH my son. And when he had restored the 1,100 shekels of silver [28 pounds] to his mother, his mother said, I had consecrated the silver to YHWH from my hand for my son, to make an idol and a cast metal image: now therefore I will restore it to you. Still he restored the money to his mother; and his mother took 200 shekels [5 pounds] of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made from it an idol and a cast metal image: and they were in the house of Micah. And the man Micah had a house of elohim and made an ephod, and teraphim [surrogate Urim-Thummim], and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. In those days there was no king in Israel, but everyone did what was right in his own eyes. And there was a young man out of Bethlehem-Judah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he traveled there. And the man departed out of the city from Bethlehem-Judah to travel where he could find a place: and he came to Mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed. And Micah said to him, where do you come from? And he replied to him, I am a Levite of Bethlehem-Judah, and I go to travel where I may find a place. And Micah said to him, live with me and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten shekels of silver [4 ounces] by the year, and a suit of apparel and your provisions. So the Levite went in. And the Levite was content to live with the man, and the young man was to him as one of his sons. And Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest and was in the house of Micah. Then Micah said, now I know that YHWH will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest. In those days there was no king in Israel, and in those days the tribe of the Danites desired themselves an inheritance to live in; for up to that time all their inheritance had not fallen to them from among the tribes of Israel.

And the children of Dan sent from their family five men from their coasts, men of valor, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to search it. And they said to them, go, search the land: and they came into the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah and lodged there. When they were by the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in there and said to him, who brought you here? And what are you in this place for? And what do you do? And he replied to them, this and that has Micah dealt with me, and has hired me and I am his priest. And they said to him, inquire [by Urim-Thummim], we ask you, of Elohim so that we may know whether our journey that we go will be prosperous. And the priest replied to them, go and prosper: before YHWH is your journey on which you go. Then the five men left and came to Laish and saw the people that were there, how they lived carelessly after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no occupying authority in the land that might put them to be confounded in anything. And they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with anyone. And they came to their kinsmen to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their kinsmen said to them, what do you have to say? And they said, rise, and we will go up against them, because we have seen the land, and lo, very good; and you are keeping silent! be not slothful to go, to enter to possess the land.

Chapter 18

Chapter 18

When you go, you will come to a people secure and to a large land, because Elohim has given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of anything that is in the earth. And there went from there from the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, 600 men girded with weapons of war. And they went up and camped in Kirjathjearim, in Judah: therefore they called that place Mahanehdan to this day: see, it is behind Kirjathjearim. And they passed there to Mount Ephraim and came to the house of Micah. Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said to their kinsmen, do you know that there is in this house an ephod, teraphim [surrogate Urim-Thummim], and an idol and a cast metal image? Now therefore consider what you have to do. And they turned in there, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even to the house of Micah, and saluted him. And the 600 men girded with their weapons of war that were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. And the five men that went to spy out the land went up and came in there, and took the idol, and the ephod, and teraphim [surrogate Urim-Thummim], and the cast metal image. And the priest stood in the entrance of the gate with the 600 men that were girded with weapons of war. And these went into Micah's house and seized the idol, the ephod and teraphim [surrogate Urim-Thummim], and the cast metal image. Then the priest said to them, what are you doing? And they say to him, `Keep silent, lay your hand on your mouth, and go with us, and be to us for a father and for a priest: is it better your being a priest to the house of one man, or your being priest to a tribe and to a family in Israel?'

And the priest's heart was gladdened, and he took the ephod and teraphim [surrogate Urim-Thummim], and the idol, and went in the midst of the people. So they turned and departed, and put the children and the cattle and their goods in front of them. And when they were a good ways from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan. And they cried to the children of Dan. And they turned their faces and said to Micah, what bothers you that you come with such a company? And he replied, you have taken away my elohim that I fashioned, and the priest and you are gone away: and what have I more? And what is this that you say to me, what troubles you? And the children of Dan replied to him, let not your voice be heard among us again, unless angry men run upon you and you lose your life, with the lives of your household. And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. And they seized the things that Micah had fashioned, and the priest that he had, and came to Laish, to a people that were at peace and secure: and they attacked them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire. And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Zidon, and they had no business with anyone; and it was in the valley that lies by Bethrehob. And they built a city and lived there. And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their forefather, who was gendered to Israel: But the name of the city before that was Laish.

And the children of Dan set up the idol: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the removal of the people from the land. And they set them up Micah's idol that he fashioned, all the time that the House of Elohim was in Shiloh. And it came to pass in those days when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite traveling on the side of Mount Ephraim, who took to himself a concubine out of Bethlehem-Judah. And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him to her dad's house to Bethlehem-Judah, and was there four whole months. And her husband got up and went after her, to speak friendly to her and to bring her back, having his slave with him and a couple of donkeys. And she brought him into her dad's house, and when the dad of the girl saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. And his father in law, the girl's dad, retained him; and he stayed with him three days, and so they did eat and drink and lodged there. And it came about on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he got up to leave, and the girl's dad said to his son in law, comfort your heart with a morsel of bread and afterward go your way. And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together, because the girl's dad had said to the man, be content I ask you and stay all night, and let your heart be merry. And when the man got up to leave, his father in law urged him, therefore he lodged there again. And he got up early in the morning on the fifth day to leave and the girl's dad said, comfort your heart I ask you. And they stayed until afternoon, and they did eat, the both of them.

And when the man got up to leave, he and his concubine and his slave, his father in law, the girl's dad, said to him, look, now the day draws toward evening, I urge you to stay all night. See, the day grows to an end, lodge here so that your heart may be merry; and tomorrow get yourself off early on your way, that you may go home. But the man would not stay that night, but he got up and left and came toward Jebus, which is Jerusalem; and there were with him two donkeys saddled, his concubine also was with him. And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the slave said to his master, come I ask you, and let us turn in into this city of the Jebusites and lodge in it. And his master said to him, we will not turn aside here into the city of a foreigner, that is not of the children of Israel, we will pass over to Gibeah. And he said to his slave, come and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah or in Ramah. And they passed on and went their way and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, that belongs to Benjamin. And they turned aside there to go in and to lodge in Gibeah, and when he went in he sat himself down in a street of the city, because there was no man that took them into his house to lodge. And look, there came an old man from his work out of the field at sunset, which was also from Mount Ephraim, and he lived in Gibeah: but the men of the locality were Benjamites. And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city, and the old man said, where are you going and where do you come from? And he replied to him, we are passing over from Beth-Lehem-Judah to the sides of the hill country of Ephraim, I come from there, and I go to Beth-Lehem-Judah; and to the House of YHWH I am going, and there is none taking me into their house.

Still there is both straw and provender for our donkeys, and there is bread and wine also for me and for your concubine, and for the young man that is with your slaves, there is no lack of anything. And the old man replied, peace be with you; however let all you needs lie upon me; only do not lodge in the street. So he brought him into his house, and gave feed to the donkeys: and they washed their feet and did eat and drink. Now as they were making their hearts merry, lo, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial (worthless and base), beset the house all around, and beat at the door and spoke to the master of the house, the old man saying, bring out the man that came into your house so that we may have sexual relations with him. And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, no, my kinsmen, no, I ask you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man has come into my house, do not this disgraceful folly. Look, here is my daughter a virgin, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and you can mishandle them, and do with them what is good to your lustful eyes, but to this man do not do such a profane immorality. But the men would not listen to him: so the man took his concubine and brought her out to them; and they had sex with her, and abused her all that night until the morning, and when the day began to dawn, they let her go. Then the woman came in at sunrise, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, until it was light. And her master got up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way, and lo, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold. And he said to her, up, and let us be going, but there was no answer. Then took the man and placed her on the donkey, and the man got up and traveled to his place.

And when he was come into his house, he took a knife and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the territories of Israel. And it was so, that all that saw it said, there was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt to this day: consider this, take advice and speak your minds. Then all the children of Israel went out and the company was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, to YHWH in Mizpeh (a place in Gilead). And the chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the gathering of the people of Elohim, 400,000 footmen that drew sword. (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh). Then the children of Israel said, tell us, how did this wickedness come about? And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was killed, answered and said, I came into Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine to lodge. And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house all around upon me by night, and thought to have me killed, and my concubine they raped and she has died. And I took my concubine and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel, because they have committed lewdness and profane actions in Israel. See, you are all children of Israel, give here your advice and counsel. And all the people arose as one man saying, we will not any of us go to his tent, neither will any of us return into their homes.

But now this will be the thing that we will do to Gibeah, we will go up by lot against it. And we will take ten men out of 100 throughout all the tribes of Israel, and 100 out of 1000, and 1000 out of 10,000, to get provisions for the people. Then will do, at their coming to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the profane actions that it has done in Israel. So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man. And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, what wickedness is this that is done among you? Now therefore deliver to us the men, the children of Belial that are in Gibeah so that we may put them to death, and put away badness from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their kinsmen the children of Israel. But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the city 26,000 men that drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered 700 chosen men. Among all these people there were 700 chosen men left-handed; everyone could sling stones at a hairs-breadth, and not miss. And the men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered 400,000 men that drew sword: all these were men of war. And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the House of Elohim, and inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of Elohim and asked, which of us will go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And YHWH replied, Judah will go up first.

And the children of Israel got up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah. And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in formation to fight against them at Gibeah. And the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground from the Israelites that day 22,000 men. And the people (the men of Israel) encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in formation in the area where they put themselves in formation the first day. (And the children of Israel went up and wept before YHWH until sunset, and inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of YHWH saying, will I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And YHWH replied, Go up against him). And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day. And Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again 18,000 men; all these drew the sword. Then all the children of Israel and all the people went up, and came to the House of Elohim and wept, and sat there before YHWH, and fasted that day until sunset, and offered Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings before YHWH. And the children of Israel inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of YHWH, (for the Ark of the Covenant of Elohim was there in those days, And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days) saying, will I still again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or will I stop? And YHWH replied, Go up; because tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.

And Israel set the ambush around Gibeah. And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in formation against Gibeah, as at other times. Then the Benjamites came out to meet them and were drawn away from the city. They began to attack the Israelites as before so that around 30 men fell in the open field and on the roadways, one leading to Bethel and the other to Gibeah. And the children of Benjamin said, they are struck down before us, as we did before. But the children of Israel said, let us flee and draw them from the city to the highways. And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place and put themselves in formation at Baaltamar: and those in ambush from Israel came out of their hiding places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah. And there came against Gibeah 10,000 chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was hard: but they knew not that calamity was near them. And YHWH attacked Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day 25,100 men: all these drew the sword. So the children of Benjamin saw that they were beaten, because the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted in those in ambush that they had set beside Gibeah. And those in ambush hurried and rushed upon Gibeah; and those who ambushed drew themselves along, and attacked all the city with the edge of the sword. Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and those in ambush, that they should make a great flame with smoke arising up out of the city.

And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to attack and kill of the men of Israel about 30 people: for they said, certainly they are struck down before us, like in the first battle. But when the flames began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and lo, the flames of the city ascended up to the skies. And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that calamity had come upon them. Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness; and the battle has followed them; and those who are from the city are destroying them in their midst; So they encircled the Benjamites all around and chased them, and beat them down with ease opposite Gibeah toward the sunrising. And there fell of Benjamin 18,000 men; all these were men of valor. And they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon: and they dealt severely with them in the highways 5000 men; and pursued hard after them to Gidom, and killed 2000 men of them. So that all that fell that day from Benjamin were 25,000 men that drew the sword; all these were men of valor. But 600 men turned and escaped to the wilderness to the rock Rimmon, and stayed in the rock Rimmon four months. And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and attacked them with the edge of the sword, as well the men from all the city, with the cattle, and all that came to hand, also they set on fire all the cities that they came to. Now the men of Israel had adjured in Mizpeh saying, there will not any of us give his daughter to Benjamin for a woman. And the people came to the House of Elohim, and stayed there until sunset before Elohim, and lifted up their voices, and wept greatly;

And said, O YHWH Elohim of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be today one tribe lacking in Israel? And it came to pass on the next day that the people rose early and built there an Altar, and offered Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings. And the children of Israel said, who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the company to YHWH? Because they had made a great oath concerning those that came not up to YHWH in Mizpeh saying, they will certainly be put to death. And the children of Israel were sorry for them of Benjamin their brother and said, there is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. How will we do for women for them that remain, seeing we have adjured by YHWH that we will not give them of our daughters for wives? And they said, what one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to YHWH? And see, there came none to the camp from Jabeshgilead to the company. Because the people were numbered, and see, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead there. And the company sent there 12,000 men of valor and commanded them saying, go and attack the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

And this is the thing that you will do, you will Devote to Destruction every male, and every woman that has had sexual relations by man. And they found among the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead 400 young virgins, that had not had sexual relations with any man: and they brought them to the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. And the whole company sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin that were in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably to them. And Benjamin came back at that time; and they gave them the women that they had saved alive from the women of Jabeshgilead, but there were still not enough for them. And the people were sorry for them of Benjamin, because that YHWH had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. Then the Elders of the company said, how will we do for women for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin? And they said, there must be an inheritance for them that are escaped of Benjamin so that a tribe is not destroyed out of Israel. But we may not give them women of our daughters, because the children of Israel have adjured saying, cursed is he that gives a woman to Benjamin. Then they said, look, there is a festival of YHWH in Shiloh yearly in an area that is on the north side of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah. Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin saying, go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

And watch and observe, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come you out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his woman from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. And it will be, when their fathers or their kinsmen come to us to complain, that we will say to them, be favorable to them for our sakes. Because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war, because you did not give to them at this time, that you should be guilty. And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them women, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned to their inheritance and repaired the cities, and lived in them. And the children of Israel left from there at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from there every man back to his inheritance. In those days there was no king in Israel, everyone did what was right in their own eyes.

The Book of Kingdoms

Chapter 1

Now there was a certain man from Ramathaim-zophim, of Mount Ephriam, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite. And he had two women; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice to YHWH of Hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of YHWH were there. And when the time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his woman, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions: But to Hannah he gave a head portion because he loved Hannah: but YHWH had shut up her womb. And her rival also vexed her to grief, to make her fret because YHWH had shut up her womb. And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the House of YHWH, so she vexed her, therefore she wept and did not eat. Then Elkanah her husband said to her, Hannah, why do you weep? And are you not eating? And why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons? So Hannah got up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat on a seat by a gatepost of the Sanctuary of YHWH. And she was in bitterness of herself and prayed to YHWH, and cried many tears.

And she vowed a vow and said, O YHWH of Hosts, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your female slave and remember me, and will not forget your handmaid, but will give to your female slave a man child, then I will give him to YHWH all the days of his life and there will no razor come upon his head. And it came to pass, as she continued praying before YHWH, that Eli observed her mouth. Now Hannah, she spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been intoxicated. So Eli said to her, how long will you be drunk? Put away your wine from yourself. And Hannah answered and said, no my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out myself before YHWH. Count not your female slave for a daughter of Belial, because out of the abundance of my complaint and grief I have spoken here. Then Eli answered and said, go in peace: and the Elohim of Israel grant you your petition that you have asked of him. And she replied, let your handmaid find favor in your sight. So the woman went her way and did eat, and her countenance was no longer sad. And they got up in the morning early, and worshiped before YHWH and returned, and came to their house in Ramah: and Elkanah had sexual relations with Hannah his woman; and YHWH remembered her. Therefore it came to pass, when the time was come after Hannah had conceived, that she gendered a son and called his name Samuel saying, because I have asked him of YHWH.

And the man Elkanah, and all his house went up to offer to YHWH the yearly sacrifice, and his Votive-Offering. But Hannah did not go up because she said to her husband, I will not go up until the child is weaned, and then I will bring him so that he may appear before YHWH, and there remain for the ages. And Elkanah her husband said to her, do what seems good to you; stay here until you have weaned him; only YHWH establish his Word. So the woman stayed, and nursed her son until she weaned him. And when she had weaned him, she took him up with three young bulls, and one ephah [3/5th bushel] of flour, and a bottle of wine and brought him to the House of YHWH in Shiloh: and the child was young. And they killed a young bull and brought the child to Eli. And she said, oh my lord, as you live my lord I am the woman that stood by you here, praying to YHWH. Because this child I prayed for, and YHWH has given me my petition that I asked of him: Therefore I also have lent him to YHWH; as long as he lives he will be lent to YHWH. And he worshiped YHWH there.

Chapter 2

And Hannah prayed and said, my heart rejoices in YHWH, my flask is exalted in YHWH: my mouth is enlarged over my enemies, because I rejoice in your deliverance. There is none Holy as YHWH because there are none besides you: neither is there any rock (with flat surface) [Urim-Thummim] like our Elohim.

Talk no more so proudly; let not arrogant speech come out of your mouth, because YHWH is an Elohim of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed. The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength. They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry ceased, so that the barren has born seven; and she that has many children is grown feeble.

YHWH kills, and makes alive: he brings down to the grave, and resurrects. YHWH makes poor, and makes rich: he brings low and lifts up. He raises up the poor out from the dust, and lifts up the beggar from the dung-hill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the Throne of Glory: for the molten support of the land are YHWH's, and he has set the world upon them. He will guard the feet of his saints and the wicked will be silent in darkness; for by human strength will no man prevail. The adversaries of YHWH will be broken to pieces; out of the skies will he thunder upon them: YHWH will Judge the ends of the earth; and he will give strength to his King, and exalt the horn of his Messiah. And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child did serve unto YHWH before Eli the priest. Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; they knew not YHWH.

And the priests' custom with the people was that when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came and while the flesh was boiling, with a flesh-hook of three-pronged teeth in his hand; he thrust it into the pan, kettle, caldron, or pot, and all that the flesh-hook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites that came there. Also before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came and said to the man that sacrificed, give flesh to roast for the priest, because he will not have boiled flesh from you, but raw. And if any man replied to him, let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and then take as much as you desire; then he would answer him, no, but you will give it to me now: and if not, I will take it by force. Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before YHWH because men abhorred the Meat-Offering of YHWH. But Samuel served before YHWH, being a child, girded with a linen ephod. Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. And Eli blessed Elkanah and his woman and said, YHWH give you seed of this woman for the loan that is lent to YHWH. And they went back to their own home. And YHWH visited Hannah, so that she conceived and gendered three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel has grown before YHWH. Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how they lay with the women that assembled at the entrance of the Tabernacle at the Appointed Place.

And he said to them, why do you do such things? For I hear of your bad dealings by all this people. No, my sons; for it is not a good report that I hear: you make YHWH's people alienated. If one man sin against another, the judge will judge him: but if a man sin against YHWH, who will intervene for him? Notwithstanding they did not listen to the voice of their dad because YHWH would execute them. But the child Samuel grew up, and was in favor both with YHWH, and also with men. And there came a man from Elohim to Eli and said to him, this is what YHWH declares, Did I plainly appear to the house of your father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house? And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon my Altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod [with Urim-Thummim] before me? And did I give to the house of your father all the Burnt-Offerings made by fire of the children of Israel? Therefore kick you at my sacrifice and at my offering that I have commanded in my habitation; and honor your sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chief of all the offerings of Israel my people? Therefore YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, I said indeed that your house and the house of your forefather, should walk before me for the ages, but now YHWH says, be it far from me. Because them who honor me I will honor, and they that despise me will be lightly esteemed. Look, the days come, that I will cut off your arm, and the arm of your father's house, that there will not be an old man in your house. And you will see an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth that Elohim will give to Israel. And there will not be an old man in your house, all the days.

And the man of yours, who I will not cut off from my Altar, will be to consume your eyes, and to grieve your heart, and all the increase of your house will die in the flower of their age. And this will be a sign to you that will come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; in one day they will die, the both of them. And I will raise myself up a faithful priest, that will do according to what is in my heart and in my mind: and I will build him a faithful house; and he will walk before my Messiah, all the days. And it will come to pass, that everyone that is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread. And will say, join me, I ask you, to one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

Chapter 3

And the child Samuel served YHWH before Eli. And the Word of YHWH was rare in those days because there was no oracle [from Urim-Thummim] bursting down. And it came about at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place and his eyes began to wax dim, so that he could not see. And the lamp of Elohim had not yet gone out in the Sanctuary of YHWH, where the Ark of Elohim was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep; that YHWH called Samuel and he answered, here I am. And he ran to Eli and said, here I am, because you called me. But he replied, I did not call you so go lie down again. And he went and lay down. And YHWH called again, Samuel. And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, here I am because you did call me. And he answered; I called not my son, now lie down again.

Now Samuel did not know YHWH, neither was the Word of YHWH revealed to him yet. And YHWH called Samuel again the third time. And he got up and went to Eli and said, here I am because you did call me. And Eli perceived that YHWH had called the child. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, go lie down, and it will be if he calls you, that you will say, speak YHWH, because your slave hears. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. And YHWH came, and stood and called as he did the other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, speak, for your slave hears. And YHWH said to Samuel, See, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of everyone that hears it will tingle. In that day I will perform against Eli all the things that I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end. Because I have told him that I will judge his house for the ages because of the depravity that he knows of, because his sons made themselves cursed, and he restrained them not. And therefore I have adjured to the house of Eli, that the depravity of Eli's house will not be covered with sacrifice nor offering for the ages. Then Samuel lay until the morning and opened the doors of the House of YHWH. And Samuel feared to show Eli the vision. Then Eli called Samuel and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, here I am.

And he said, what is the thing that YHWH has said to you? I ask you to hide it not from me. Elohim do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me from all the things that he said to you. So Samuel told him every word and hid nothing from him. And he replied, it is YHWH: let him do what seems good to him. And Samuel grew and YHWH was with him and did not let any of his Words fail. And all Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of YHWH. Then YHWH appeared again in Shiloh: for YHWH revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the Word of YHWH. And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and camped beside Ebenezer:

Chapter 4

and the Philistines camped in Aphek. And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was attacked before the Philistines, and they killed of the army in the field about 4000 men. And when the people were come into the camp, the Elders of Israel said, why has YHWH attacked us today before the Philistines? Let us fetch the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH out of Shiloh to us so that, when it comes among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies. So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from there the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH of Hosts that resides between the cherubim: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the Ark of the Covenant of Elohim. And when the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout they said, what does this noise mean from this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the Ark of YHWH was come into the camp. And the Philistines were afraid, for they said; Elohim has come into the camp. And they said, woe to us! Because there has not been such a thing as this before. Who will deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Elohim? these are the Elohim that attacked the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness. Be strong, and behave yourselves like men, O you Philistines, that you be not slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been to you, behave yourselves like men, and fight. And the Philistines fought and Israel was beaten, and they fled every man to his tent, and there was a very great slaughter because there fell of Israel 30,000 footmen. And the Ark of Elohim was seized and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were killed. And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh that same day with his clothes torn, and with earth upon his head. And when he came, lo, Eli sat on a seat by the roadside watching: for his heart trembled because of the Ark of Elohim. And when the man came to the city, and told them, then the entire city cried out. And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, what is the meaning of this noise? And the man came in quickly, and told Eli. Now Eli was 98 years old and his eyes were dim so that he could not see. Then the man said to Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I escaped today out of the army. And he asked, what has been done there my son?

And the messenger answered and said, Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people, and your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas are dead, and the Ark of Elohim is captured. And it came to pass, when he made mention of the Ark of Elohim, that he fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck broke and he died, because he was an old man and very heavy. And he had judged Israel 40 years. And his daughter in law, Phinehas' woman was with child, near to be giving birth: and when she heard the report that the Ark of Elohim was captured, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and went into childbirth, because her pains came upon her. And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said to her, fear not because you have gendered a son. But she answered not; neither did she regard it. And she named the child Ichabod saying, the glory has departed from Israel, because the Ark of Elohim was captured, and because of her father in law and her husband. And she said, the glory has departed from Israel because the Ark of Elohim is captured.

Chapter 5

And the Philistines took the Ark of Elohim and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. When the Philistines seized the Ark of Elohim, they brought it into the house of Dagon and set it by Dagon. And when they of Ashdod got up early the next day, lo, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the Ark of YHWH. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again.

And when they got up early on the next morning, lo, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the Ark of YHWH, and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold, only the stump of Dagon was left to him. Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day. But the hand of YHWH was heavy upon them of Ashdod and he destroyed them, and scourged them with tumors, even Ashdod and its territories thereof. And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so they said, the Ark of Elohim of Israel will not stay with us because his hand is harsh upon us, and upon Dagon our elohim. They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them and said, what will we do with the Ark of Elohim of Israel? And they answered, let the Ark of Elohim of Israel be carried about to Gath. And they carried the Ark of the Elohim of Israel to that area. And it was so, that after they had carried it there, the hand of YHWH was against that city with a very great destruction: and he killed the men of the city, both small and great and they had tumors break out on them. Therefore they sent the Ark of Elohim to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the Ark of Elohim came to Ekron that the Ekronites cried out saying, they have brought here the Ark of Elohim of Israel to us, to kill us and our people. So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines and said, send away the Ark of Elohim of Israel. Let it go back again to its own place, so that it does not kill our people and us. Because there was a deadly destruction throughout the entire city; the hand of Elohim was very heavy there. And the men that did not die were scourged with the tumors, and the cry of the city went up to the skies. Now the Ark of YHWH was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

Chapter 6

And the Philistines called for the pagan priests and the diviners saying, what will we do with the Ark of YHWH? Tell us how we will send it to its place. And they replied, if you send away the Ark of Elohim from Israel, send it away not empty, but by all means return it with a trespass-offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be revealed to you why his hand is not removed from you. Then they asked, what will be the trespass-offering that we will return with it? They answered, five golden tumors, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines, for one plague was on all of you, and on your lords. Therefore you will make images of your tumors, and images of your mice that corrupt the land, and you will give glory to the Elohim of Israel so that perhaps he will lighten his hand from off of you, and from off your elohim and from off your land. Why then do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had acted severely among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed? So now make a new cart, and take two milk cows, on which there has come no yoke, and tie the cows to the cart and bring their calves' home from them. And take the Ark of YHWH, and lay it on the cart and put the jewels of gold that you return to him for a trespass-offering in a box by its side, and send it away so that it may go. And see, if it goes up by the way of its own territory to Bethshemesh, then he has done us this great evil: but if not, then we will know that it is not his hand that scourged us but it was by chance that this happened to us. And the men did so; and took two milk cows and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. And they laid the Ark of YHWH upon the cart and the box with the mice of gold and the images of their tumors. And the cows took the straight road to the way of Bethshemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left, and the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Bethshemesh. And they of Bethshemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley, and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the Ark and rejoiced to see it. And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Bethshemite and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a Burnt-Offering to YHWH. And the Levites took down the Ark of YHWH, and the box that was with it, where the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone, and the men of Bethshemesh offered Burnt-Offerings and sacrificed sacrifices that same day to YHWH. And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron that same day. And these are the golden tumors that the Philistines returned for a trespass-offering to YHWH; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one. And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords. Both of fenced cities and of country villages, even to the great stone of Abel, on which they set down the Ark of YHWH: which stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua, the Bethshemite. And he struck the men of Bethshemesh, because they had looked into the Ark of YHWH, he even killed of the people 50,070 men: and the people mourned, because YHWH had struck many of the people with a great slaughter. And the men of Bethshemesh said, who is able to stand before this Holy YHWH Elohim? And to whom will he go up from us? And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjathjearim saying, the Philistines have brought back the Ark of YHWH; come down and pick it up for you.

Chapter 7

And the men of Kirjathjearim came and picked up the Ark of YHWH, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to guard the Ark of YHWH. And it came about, while the Ark remained in Kirjathjearim, that the time was long because it was 20 years, and all the House of Israel mourned after YHWH. And Samuel spoke to all the House of Israel saying, if you do return to YHWH with all your hearts, then put away the foreign elohim and Ashtaroth from among you. And prepare your hearts to YHWH, and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served YHWH only. And Samuel said, gather all Israel to Mizpeh and I will pray for you to YHWH. And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water and poured it out before YHWH, and fasted on that day and said there, we have sinned against YHWH. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh. And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, cease not to cry to YHWH Elohim for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines. And Samuel took a young lamb, and offered it for a Burnt-Offering wholly to YHWH: and Samuel cried to YHWH for Israel; and YHWH heard him. And as Samuel was offering up the Burnt-Offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but YHWH thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and struck them; and they were beaten before Israel.

And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines and attacked them, until they came under Bethcar. Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Ebenezer saying, here has YHWH helped us. So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the territory of Israel: and the hand of YHWH was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. And the cities that the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel; from Ekron even to Gath; and its borders did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites. And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. And he went from year to year in circuit to Bethel, Gilgal and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places. And his return was to Ramah, because his house was there and he judged Israel, and there he built an Altar to YHWH.

Chapter 8

And it came to pass when Samuel was old that he made his sons judges over Israel. Now the name of his firstborn was Joel and the name of his second, Abiah: they were judges in Beersheba. And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after unjust gain, and took bribes and perverted judgment.

Then all the Elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel to Ramah, And said to him, look, you are old and your sons do not walk in your ways, so now appoint for us a king to judge us like all the other nations. But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed to YHWH. And YHWH replied to Samuel, Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you because they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me, so that I should not reign over them. According to all the works that they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day in which they have forsaken me, and served other elohim, so do they also to you. Now therefore listen to their voice, although still protest solemnly to them, and show them the manner of the king that will reign over them. And Samuel told all the Words of YHWH to the people that asked of him a king. And he said, this will be the manner of the king that will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them for himself, for his chariots and to be his horsemen; and some will run before his chariots. And he will appoint himself captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots. And he will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks and bakers.

And he will take your fields and your vineyards, and your olive-yards, even the best of them and give them to his slaves. And he will take the tenth of your seed and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his slaves. And he will take your male and female slaves, and your good young men and your donkeys, and put them to his work. He will take the tenth of your sheep: and you will be his slaves. And you will cry out in that day because of your king that you will have chosen for yourself, and YHWH will not answer you in that day. Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel and they said, no, but we will have a king over us; so that we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us and go out before us, and fight our battles. And Samuel heard all the words of the people and he rehearsed them in the ears of YHWH. Then YHWH replied to Samuel, Listen to their voice and appoint them a king. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, let everyone go back to his city.

Chapter 9

Now there was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

And he had a son whose name was Saul, a choice young and excellent man, and there was not among the children of Israel a better one than him, and from his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people. And the donkeys of Kish (Saul's dad) were lost. So Kish said to Saul his son, now take one of the slaves with you and get up and go look for the donkeys. And he passed through Mount Ephriam, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and they were not there, and he passed through the land of the Benjamites but they did not find them. And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his slave that was with him, come and let us return, unless my dad stops caring for the donkeys and starts worrying about us. And he replied to him, look now, there is in this city a man of Elohim, and he is an honorable man; all that he says comes to pass, so now let us go there, perhaps he can reveal to us the way that we should go. Then Saul replied to his slave, but look, if we go, what will we bring the man? For our bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of Elohim, what do we have? And the slave answered Saul again and said, See, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver [1/10 ounce]: that is what I can give to the man of Elohim, to tell us our journey. (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of Elohim he spoke like this, come, and let us go to the seer, because he that is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer). Then Saul replied to his slave, well said, come, let us go. So they went to the city where the man of Elohim was. And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young female slaves going out to draw water, and said to them, is the seer here?

And they answered them and said, he is, see, he is ahead of you so hurry now because he came today to the city because there is a sacrifice of the people today in the high place. As soon as you are come into the city you will immediately find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. Because the people will not eat until he comes, because he will bless the sacrifice and afterwards they eat that are invited. So now go up there, because about this time you will find him. And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, see, Samuel came out opposite them to go up to the high place. Now YHWH had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came saying, Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out from the land of Benjamin, and you will anoint him to be ruler over my people Israel. And that he may save my people from the hands of the Philistines, for I have looked upon my people, because their cry has come to me. And when Samuel saw Saul, YHWH replied to him, See the man who I spoke to you about! This same one will reign over my people. Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate and said, tell me I ask you, where is the seer's house? And Samuel answered Saul and said, I am the seer, go up ahead of me to the high place, because you will eat with me today, and tomorrow I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart. And as for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not set your mind on them because they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you, and on your father's entire house? And Saul answered and said, am not I a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Therefore why do you speak to me like this?

And Samuel took Saul and his slave and brought them into the parlor, and made them sit at the head among them that were invited, which were about 30 people. And Samuel said to the cook, bring the portion that I gave you, of which I said to you, set it by you. And the cook took up the shoulder, and what was on it and set it before Saul. And

Samuel said, see what is left! Set it before you and eat, for to this appointed season it is kept for you saying, the people I have called, and Saul eats with Samuel on that day. And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel conversed with Saul upon the top of the house. And they got up early and it came to pass about daybreak, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house saying, up, that I may send you away. And Saul got up and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, outside. And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, tell the slave to pass on ahead of us, (and he passed on,) but you stand still awhile, so that I may reveal to you the Word of Elohim.

Chapter 10

Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it on his head and hugged him and said, is it not because YHWH has anointed you to be ruler over his inheritance? When you are gone from me today, then you will find two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah. And they will say to you, the donkeys that you went to find are found: and lo, your dad has left the care of the donkeys, and is concerned for you saying, what will I do for my son? Then you will go yonder from here, and you will come to the plain of Tabor. And there you will meet three men going up to Elohim to Bethel, one carrying three young male goats, and another carrying three loaves of bread and another carrying a bottle of wine. And they will greet you, and give you two loaves of bread; which you will receive from their hands.

After that you will come to the hill of Elohim, where the garrison of the Philistines is. And it will come about when you are come here to the city, that you will meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with a guitar, tambourine, flute, and a harp before them; and they will prophesy. And the Spirit of YHWH will come upon you, and you will prophesy with them and will be turned into another man. And let it be, when these signs have come to you, that you do as occasion serves you, because Elohim is with you. And you will go down before me to Gilgal; and look, I will come down to you, to offer Burnt-Offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of Peace-Offerings: seven days will you remain until I come to you, and reveal to you what you will do. And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, Elohim gave him another heart, and all those signs came about that day. And when they came there to the hill, see, a company of prophets met him, and the Spirit of Elohim came upon him, and he prophesied among them. Then it came about, when all that knew him from the past saw that he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, what is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets? And one responded and said, but who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, “Is Saul also among the prophets?” Then after he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place. And Saul’s uncle said to him and to his slave, where did you go? And he replied, to find the donkeys: and when we saw that they were nowhere, we came to Samuel. Then Saul’s uncle said, tell me I ask you, what did Samuel say to you? And Saul replied to his uncle, he told us plainly that the donkeys were found.

But of the matter of the kingship of which Samuel spoke, he did not tell him. And Samuel called the people together to YHWH at Mizpeh; and said to the children of Israel, Thus says YHWH Elohim of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you. And you have this day rejected your Elohim, who himself saved you from all your adversities and your troubles; and you have said to him, no, but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before YHWH by your tribes, and by your thousands. And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken. When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they looked for him, he could not be found. Therefore they inquired of YHWH further if the man should still come here. And YHWH answered, see, he has hidden himself among the vessels. And they ran and took him from there, and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upwards. And Samuel said to all the people, you see him who YHWH has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted and said, Elohim save the king.

Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a scroll, and laid it up before YHWH. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts Elohim had touched. But the children of Belial said, how would this man rescue us? And they despised him and brought him no presents. But he held his peace.

Chapter 11

Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabeshgilead: and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, cut out an alliance with us, and we will serve you. And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, on this condition I will make an alliance with you, that I may gore out all your right eyes, and lay it for a scorn upon all Israel. And the Elders of Jabesh said to him, give us seven days' respite so that we may send messengers to all the territories of Israel: and then, if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you. Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told the news in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices and wept. And lo, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, what sickens the people so that they weep? And they told him the news of the men of Jabesh. And the Spirit of Elohim came upon Saul when he heard those reports, and his nostril's flared greatly. And he took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers saying, whoever comes not out after Saul and after Samuel, so will it be done to his oxen. And the fear of YHWH fell on the people, and they came out with one consent.

And when he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were 300,000, and the men of Judah 30,000. And they said to the messengers that came, now will you say to the men of Jabeshgilead, tomorrow by the time the sun is hot you will have help. And the messengers came and reported it to the people of Jabesh, and they were glad. Therefore the men of Jabesh said, tomorrow we will come out to you, and you will do with us all that seems good to you. And it was so on the next day that Saul formed the people into three companies. And they came into the middle of the camp in the morning watch, and killed the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came about that they that remained were scattered, so that any two of them were not left together. And the people said to Samuel, who are they that said, shall Saul reign over us? Bring those men so that we may put them to death. But Saul said, there will not a man be put to death this day because today YHWH has brought about deliverance in Israel. Then said Samuel to the people, come, and let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there. And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before YHWH in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of Peace-Offerings before YHWH; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

Chapter 12

And Samuel said to all Israel, see, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you. And now, look, the king walks before you, and I am old and gray-headed; and see, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood to this day. Now here I am, witness against me before YHWH and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? Or whose donkey have I taken?

Or whom have I defrauded? Who have I oppressed? Or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind my eyes with? And I will restore it to you. And they said, you have not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither have you taken anything from any man's hand. And he replied to them, YHWH is witness against you and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. And they answered, “a witness”. Then Samuel said to the people, it is YHWH that appointed Moses and Aaron, and that brought your forefathers up out of the land of Egypt. Now therefore stand still, so that I may reason with you before YHWH of all the righteous acts of YHWH that he did for you and for your ancestors. When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your forefathers cried to YHWH, then YHWH sent Moses and Aaron that brought out your ancestors from Egypt, and made them live in this place. And when they forgot YHWH Elohim, he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army from Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them. Then they cried to YHWH and said, we have sinned because we have forsaken YHWH, and have served Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now rescue us out of the hand of our enemies and we will serve you. And YHWH sent Jerubbaal, Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and rescued you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and you lived in safety. And when you saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, you said to me, no; but a king will reign over us, when YHWH Elohim was your king. Now therefore see the king who you have chosen, and who you have desired! And look, YHWH has set a king over you.

If you will fear YHWH and serve him, and obey his Voice and not rebel against the commandment of YHWH, then will both you and also the king that reigns over you continue following YHWH Elohim. But if you will not obey the Voice of YHWH, but rebel against the commandment of YHWH, then will the hand of YHWH be against you, as it was against your ancestors. Now therefore stand and see this great thing that YHWH will do before your eyes. Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call to YHWH, and he will send thunder and rain so that you may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, and what you have done in the sight of YHWH, in asking for yourself a king. So Samuel called to YHWH; and YHWH sent thunder and rain that day, and all the people greatly feared YHWH and Samuel. And all the people said to Samuel, pray for your slaves to YHWH Elohim, so that we do not die, because we have added to all our sins this bad, to ask for ourselves a king. And Samuel said to the people, fear not, you have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following YHWH, but serve YHWH with all your heart. And turn not aside, because then you would go after unreal things, which cannot profit nor deliver because they are unreal. Now YHWH will not forsake his people for his Great Name's sake because it has pleased YHWH to make you his people. Moreover as for me, Elohim forbid that I should sin against YHWH in ceasing to pray for you, but I will teach you the good and the right way. Only fear YHWH, and serve him in Truth with all your heart, for consider how many great things he has done for you.

Chapter 12

Chapter 12

But if you will still do wickedly, you will be consumed, both you and your king. Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel, Saul chose himself 3000 men from Israel; of which 2000 were with Saul in Michmash and in Mount Bethel, and 1000 were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man back to his tent. And Jonathan attacked the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the ram's horn throughout all the land saying, let the Hebrews hear. And all Israel has heard saying, Saul has beaten the garrison of the Philistines, and also Israel has been abhorred by the Philistines, and the people are called after Saul to Gilgal. And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, 30,000 chariots, and 6000 horsemen, and a nation as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude: and they came up and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Bethaven. When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (because the people were distressed,) then the people hid themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in underground cellars, and in cisterns. And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was still in Gilgal and all the people followed him trembling.

And he waited seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were dispersed from him. And Saul said, bring here a Burnt-Offering to me and Peace-Offerings. And he offered the Burnt-Offering. And it came about, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the Burnt-Offering, look, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him so that he might salute him. And Samuel said, what have you done? And Saul replied, because I saw that the people were dispersed from me, and that you came not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash; Therefore I thought, the Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not entreated unto YHWH so I forced myself therefore, and offered a Burnt-Offering. And Samuel replied to Saul, you have done foolishly, you have not observed the commandment of YHWH Elohim that he commanded you: for now would YHWH have established your kingdom on Israel for the ages. But now your kingdom will not continue: YHWH has secured himself a man after his own heart, and YHWH has commanded him to be ruler over his people, because you have not observed what YHWH commanded you. Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were present with him, about 600 men. And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, stayed in Gibeah of Benjamin, but the Philistines camped in Michmash. And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned to the road that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shual: And another company turned the journey to Bethhoron: and another company turned to the road of the border that looks to the Valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness. Now there were no craftsmen found throughout all the land of Israel because the Philistines said, unless the Hebrews make themselves swords or spears.

But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his plowshare, and his digger, and his ax, and his mattock. Still they had a file for the mattocks, and for the diggers, and for the forks and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads. So it came about in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hands of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan, but with Saul and Jonathan his son swords were attained. And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash. Now it came about one day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man that carried his armor, come and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side. But he did not tell his dad. And Saul stayed in the extreme end of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree that is in Migron, and the people that were with him were about 600 men. And Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, YHWH's priest in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. But the people knew not that Jonathan was gone. And between the fords, by which Jonathan desired to go over to the Philistines' garrison there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. The forefront of the one was situated northward opposite Michmash, and the other southward opposite Gibeah. And Jonathan said to the young man that carried his armor, come and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised:

it may be that YHWH will work for us because there is no hindrance for YHWH to rescue by many or by few. And the bearer of his weapons replied to him, do all that is in your heart; turn for you; lo, I am with you, as your own heart. Then Jonathan said, look, we will pass over to these men and we will reveal ourselves to them. If then they say to us, stand still until we have come to you, then we have stood in our place, and will not go up to them. But if they say, come up to us; then we will go up because YHWH has delivered them into our hands, and this will be a sign for us. And both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, look, the Hebrews come out of the caves where they have hidden themselves. And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor-bearer, and said, come up to us and we will show you a thing. And Jonathan replied to his armor-bearer, come up after me because YHWH has delivered them into the hand of Israel. And Jonathan climbed up on his hands and on his feet, and his armor-bearer was behind him, and they dropped before Jonathan and his armor-bearer killed behind him. And that first slaughter that Jonathan and his armor-bearer made, was about 20 men, within as it were a half-acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow. And there was fear in the camp, in the field and among all the people: the garrison and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling. And the lookouts of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin watched; and lo, the multitude melted away, and they departed striking down one another.

Then Saul said to the people that were with him: count now and see who has gone from us. And when they had counted, they noted that Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there. And Saul said to Ahiah, bring here the Ark of Elohim. Because the Ark of Elohim was at that time with the children of Israel. And it came about, while Saul talked to the priest, that the noise that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said to the priest, withdraw your hand. And Saul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and lo, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great tumult. Moreover the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time that went up with them into the camp from the surrounding country, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan. Likewise all the men of Israel that had hidden themselves in Mount Ephriam, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. So YHWH rescued Israel that day and the battle passed over to Bethaven. Now the men of Israel were distressed that day because Saul had adjured the people saying, cursed is the man that eats any food until sunset, that I may be avenged on my enemies. So none of the people ate any food. And all they of the land came to a forest, and there was honey upon the ground. And when the people were come into the forest, look, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth because the people feared the oath. But Jonathan did not hear when his dad charged the people with the oath:

therefore he put out the end of the staff that was in his hand, and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were lighted up [his vitality revived]. Then answered one of the people and said, your dad adjured the people with an oath saying, cursed is the man that eats any food this day. And the people were faint. Then Jonathan replied, my dad has troubled the land: see, I ask you, how my eyes have become bright because I tasted a little of this honey. How much more, if only the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies that they found? For would there not now have been a much greater killing among the Philistines? And they attacked the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were very faint. And the people flew upon the plunder, and took sheep, oxen, calves, and slaughtered them on the ground, and the people did eat them with the blood. Then they told Saul saying, see, the people sin against YHWH, in that they eat with the blood. And he replied, you have acted treacherously: roll a great stone unto me this day. And Saul said, disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, bring me here every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slaughter them here and eat; and sin not against YHWH in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man their ox with him that night, and slaughtered them there. And Saul built an altar to YHWH: the same was the first altar that he built to YHWH. And Saul said, let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they replied, do whatever seems good to you. Then the priest said, let us draw near here to Elohim.

And Saul inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of Elohim, will I go down after the Philistines? Will you deliver them into the hand of Israel? But He answered him not that day. And Saul said, draw near now, all the corners (rulers) of the people: and know and consider how this sin has been this day. Because, as YHWH lives that rescued Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he will certainly die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him. Then Saul said to all Israel, you will be on one side and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people replied to Saul, do what seems good to you. Then Saul said to Yahweh, O Elohim of Israel, give truth. And Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot but the people were escaped. Then Saul said, cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan, and Jonathan was taken. Then Saul said to Jonathan, tell me what you have done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand, and lo, I must die? And Saul answered, Elohim do so and more also: because you will certainly die Jonathan. And the people said to

Saul, would Jonathan die who has produced this great deliverance in Israel? Elohim forbid: as YHWH lives, there will not one hair of his head fall to the ground because he has produced with Elohim this day. So the people rescued Jonathan so that he did not die. Then Saul went up from following the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own region. So Saul took the kingship over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines:

and wherever he turned himself, he vexed them. And he gathered an army and attacked the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them. Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishui, and Melchishua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal: And the name of Saul's woman was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his army was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel. And there was sharp battle against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man or any valiant man, he subscribed him for himself. Samuel also said to Saul, YHWH sent me to anoint you to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore listen to the Voice of the Words of YHWH. Thus says YHWH of Hosts; I remember what Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the road, when he came up from Egypt. Now go and attack Amalek, and Devote to Destruction all that they have, and spare them not; but kill both man, woman, infant and nursing baby [total genocide], ox and sheep, camel and donkey.

And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, 200,000 footmen, and 10,000 men of Judah. And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid in ambush in the valley. And Saul said to the Kenites, go, depart, get yourselves down from among the Amalekites, unless I destroy you with them, because you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. Then Saul attacked the Amalekites from Havilah until you come to Shur that is opposite Egypt. And he captured Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and Devoted to Destruction all the people with the edge of the sword. But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep and of the oxen, and of the fatlings and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not Devote them to Destruction: but everything that was vile and refuse, that they Devoted to Destruction. Then came the Word of YHWH to Samuel saying, It sorrows me that I have set up Saul to be king because he is turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel and he cried to YHWH all night. And Samuel got up early to meet Saul in the morning, and it is declared to Samuel saying, Saul has come in to Carmel, and lo, he is setting up to himself a monument, and goes around and passes over, and goes down to Gilgal. Then Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said to him, blessed are you of YHWH: I have performed the commandment of YHWH.

But Samuel replied, what means then this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen that I hear? And Saul said, they have brought them from the Amalekites because the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice to YHWH Elohim; and the rest we have Devoted to Destruction. Then Samuel said to Saul, be quiet now and I will tell you what YHWH has said to me this night. And he replied to him, keep speaking. And Samuel said, when you were little in your own sight, were you not made the ruler of the tribes of Israel, and YHWH anointed you king over Israel? And YHWH sent you on a journey and said, Go and Devote to Destruction the sinful Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed. Therefore why then did you not obey the Voice of YHWH, but did fly upon the spoil, and did badly in the sight of YHWH? Then Saul said to Samuel, yes, I have obeyed The Voice of YHWH, and have gone the way that YHWH sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have Devoted to Destruction the Amalekites. But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things that should have been Devoted to Destruction, to sacrifice to YHWH Elohim in Gilgal. But Samuel replied, has YHWH as great delight in Burnt-Offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the Voice of YHWH? Look, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to pay attention than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as wicked and teraphim (idolatry). Because you have rejected the Word of YHWH, he has also rejected you from being king.

Then Saul replied to Samuel, I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of YHWH and your words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice instead. Now therefore, I ask you, pardon my sin and turn back with me so that I may worship YHWH. But Samuel said to Saul, I will not return with you because you have rejected the Word of YHWH, and YHWH has rejected you from being king over Israel. And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it tore. And Samuel said to him, YHWH has torn the Kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, one that is better than you. And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor regret: for he is not a man that he should repent. Then he replied, I have sinned but still honor me now, I beg you, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn back with me so that I may worship YHWH Elohim. So Samuel turned back after Saul; and Saul worshiped YHWH. Then Samuel said, bring you here to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came to him showing delight. And Agag said, surely the bitterness of death is past. And Samuel replied, as your sword has made women childless, so will your mother be childless among women.

And Samuel cut Agag in pieces before YHWH in Gilgal. Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul. And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul, and YHWH regretted that he had appointed Saul king over Israel. And YHWH said to Samuel, How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go, I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, because I have seen among his sons for myself a king. Then Samuel replied, how can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me. And YHWH said, take a heifer with you and say, I am come to sacrifice to YHWH. And call Jesse to the sacrifice and I will show you what you will do: and you will anoint for me the one that I will name. Samuel did what YHWH spoke and came to Bethlehem. And the Elders of the town trembled at his coming and asked, do you come in peace? And he replied, in peace I am come to sacrifice to YHWH: consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice. And he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. And it came about, when they had arrived, that he looked on Eliab and said, certainly before YHWH is his anointed. But YHWH said to Samuel, Look not on his appearance or on how tall he is, because I have rejected him, because YHWH sees not as a man sees; for man looks on the outward appearance, but YHWH looks on the heart. Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, neither has YHWH chosen this one.

Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, neither has YHWH chosen this one. Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, YHWH has not chosen these. Then Samuel said to Jesse, are all your children here? And he replied, there remains still the youngest, and see, he shepherds the sheep. And Samuel said to Jesse, send and fetch for him, because we will not sit down until he comes here. So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy and with beautiful eyes and handsome appearance. And YHWH said, Arise, anoint him, for this is the one. Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the center of his brothers: and the Spirit of YHWH came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel got up and went back to Ramah. But the Spirit of YHWH departed from Saul, and a bad spirit from YHWH terrified him. And Saul's slaves said to him, see now, a bad spirit from Elohim terrifies you. Let our master now command your slaves that are before you, to seek out a man who is an accomplished player on the lyre. Then it will come about when the bad spirit from Elohim is upon you that he will play with his hands, and you will then feel better. Then Saul replied to his slaves, provide for me now a man that can play well, and bring him here to me. Then answered one of the slaves and said, look, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, that is accomplished in playing, and a mighty man of ability, and a person of battle, discerning in matters and a man of form, and YHWH is with him. Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, send me David your son that is with the sheep.

And Jesse took a donkey packed with bread and a bottle of wine, and a young male goat, and sent them by David his son to Saul. And David came to Saul and stood before him: and he loved him greatly and he became his armor- bearer. And Saul sent to Jesse saying, let David I ask you, stand before me because he has found favor in my sight. And it came about when the bad spirit from Elohim was upon Saul, that David took a lyre and played with his hands: so Saul was refreshed and felt better, and the bad spirit departed from him. Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, that belongs to Judah, and camped between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammim (coast of Dammim). Then Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and camped by the Valley of Elah, and set the battle in formation against the Philistines. And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. And there went out a great man from the camp of the Philistines named Goliath of Gath, whose height was 9 1/2 feet.

And he had a helmet of brass on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was 5000 shekels [125 pounds] of brass. And he had leg armor of brass on his legs, and a javelin of brass between his shoulders. And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's rod; and his spear's head weighed 600 shekels [15 pounds] of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him. And he stood and cried to the armies of Israel and said to them, why are you come out to set your battle in its formation? Am I not a Philistine, and you slaves to Saul? choose yourself a man for you, and let him come down to me. If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your slaves: but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you will be our slaves and serve us. And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man that we may fight together. When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were broken-spirited, and greatly afraid. Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem-Judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man in the days of Saul had become aged among his fellow men; And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. And David was the youngest and the three eldest followed Saul.

But David went and returned from Saul to feed his dad's sheep at Bethlehem. And the Philistine drew near morning and evening and presented himself for 40 days. And Jesse said to David his son, now take for your brothers an ephah [3/5 bushel] of this parched grain and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to your brothers; And carry these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and look how your brothers are faring, and bring back news of them. Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. Then David got up early in the morning and left the sheep with a keeper, and picked up and went as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench as the army was going out to fight, and shouted for the battle. Because Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in its formation, army against army. And David left his goods in the hand of the guard of the equipment, and ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers. And as he talked with them, lo, there came up the great man, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines and spoke according to the same words as before, and David heard them. And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man fled from him and were very afraid. And the men of Israel said, have you seen this man that is come up? Surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it will be, that the man who kills him, the king will make him wealthy with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel. And David spoke to the men that stood by him saying, what will be done to the man that kills this Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? Because who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living Elohim?

And the people spoke to him according to this word saying, so it is done to the man who kills him. And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's nostrils flared against David, and he said, why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the willfulness of your heart because you are coming down so that you might watch the battle. And David replied, what have I done now? is it not a word? And he turned from him toward another, and spoke the same matter, and the people answered him the same thing as before. And when the words were heard that David spoke, they reported them before Saul, and he sent for him. And David said to Saul, let no man's heart fail because of him, your slave will go and fight with this Philistine. But Saul replied to David, you are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him because you are a youth and he is a man of war from his youth. And David replied to Saul, your slave shepherded his dad's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock. And I went out after him and killed it, and rescued it out of his mouth: and when the animal arose against me, I caught it by the chin, and killed it, and slew the animal. Your slave killed both the lion and the bear, and this uncircumcised Philistine will be as one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living Elohim!

David said additionally, YHWH that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul replied to David, go, and YHWH be with you. And Saul armed David with his armor, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail. And David girded his sword upon his armor, and he began to leave since he had not tested it. But David said to Saul, I cannot go with these because I have not tested them. So David took them off. And he took his staff in his hand, and chose himself five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag that he had, even in a purse; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew close to the Philistine. And the Philistine came and drew close to David, and the man that carried the shield went before him. And when the Philistine looked around and saw David, he despised him because he was but a youth, and ruddy, being of a handsome appearance. And the Philistine said to David, am I a dog that you come to me with sticks? And the Philistine cursed David by his elohim. And the Philistine said to David, come to me and I will give your flesh to the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

Then David said to the Philistine, you come to me with a sword and with a spear, and with a shield but I come to you in the Name of YHWH of Hosts, the Elohim of the armies of Israel, whom you have reproached. This day will YHWH deliver you into my hand and I will kill you, and take your head from you. And I will give the corpses of the army of the Philistines this day to the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; so that all the earth may know that there is an Elohim in Israel. And all this company will know that YHWH rescues not with sword and spear, because the battle is YHWH's, and he will give you into our hands. And it came about, when the Philistine got up and came and drew close to befall David, that David hurried and ran toward the army to befall the Philistine. And David put his hand in his bag, and took from there a stone, and slang it, and hit the Philistine in his forehead, so that the stone penetrated into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the ground. So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and hit the Philistine and killed him, but there was no sword in the hand of David. Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine and took his sword, and drew it out of its sheath and executed him, and cut off his head with it. And when the Philistines saw their great man was dead, they fled. And the men of Israel and of Judah got up and shouted and pursued the Philistines until you come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the road to Shaaraim, even to Gath and to Ekron. And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they plundered their tents. And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armor in his tent.

And when Saul saw David go out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the army, Abner, whose son is this youth? And Abner said, as your life lives, O king I cannot tell. And the king said, you inquire whose son the young man is. And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. And Saul said to him, whose son are you young man? And David answered, I am the son of your slave Jesse the Bethlehemite. And it came about when he had made an end of speaking to Saul, that the mind of Jonathan was closely united with the mind of David, and Jonathan befriended him as himself. So Saul took him that day, and would not let him return home to his dad's house. Then Jonathan and David cut out a pledge, because he befriended him as himself. And Jonathan took off the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David and his outer garments, even to his sword, bow, and to his belt. And David went out wherever Saul sent him and conducted himself wisely, and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's slaves. And it came about as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with instruments of music. And the women answered one another as they played and sang, “Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands”. And Saul was very angry and the saying displeased him and he said, they have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands. And what can he have more but the kingdom? And Saul eyed David from that day forward. And it came about on the next day, that the bad spirit from Elohim came upon Saul, and he came under its influence in the middle of the house, and David played with his hands, as at other times and there was a javelin in Saul’s hand. And Saul cast the javelin because he thought, I will strike David even to the wall with it. But David skirted out of his presence twice. And Saul was afraid of David because YHWH was with him, and was departed from Saul. Therefore Saul removed him from himself, and made him his captain over a thousand and he marched out and came in before the army. And David conducted himself wisely in all his ways and YHWH was with him. Therefore when Saul saw that he conducted himself very wisely, he was afraid of him. But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them. And Saul said to David, see my elder daughter Merab, I will give her to you for a woman, only be to me for a son of valor and fight the battles of YHWH.

Because Saul avowed, let not my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him instead. Then David said to Saul, who am I? And what is my life or my dad’s family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king? But it came to pass at the time when Merab (Saul's daughter) should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a woman. And Michal (Saul's daughter) loved David, and they told Saul and the thing pleased him. And Saul said, I will give him to her so that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Therefore Saul said to David, you will this day be my son in law for the second time. And Saul commanded his slaves saying, talk with David secretly and say, see, the king has delight in you and all his slaves love you, so now therefore be the king's son in law. And Saul's slaves spoke those words in the ears of David. And David replied, does it seem to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man and treated with dishonor? And the slaves of Saul told him saying, David spoke to us like this. Then Saul replied, you will now say this to David, the king desires not any dowry but 100 foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. And when his slaves told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law, so before the allotted time past, David got up and went, he and his men, and killed of the Philistines 200 men.

And David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full accomplishment to the king so that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter for a woman. And Saul saw and knew that YHWH was with David, and that Michal (Saul's daughter) loved him. And Saul was even still more afraid of David, and Saul became David's enemy continually. And the chiefs of the Philistines came out, and it came to pass from the time of their coming out, David had acted more wisely than any of the slaves of Saul, and his name became very precious. And Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his slaves so that they should kill David. But Jonathan (Saul's son) delighted much in David: and Jonathan made known to David saying, Saul my dad seeks to kill you so now I beg you, take guard of yourself until the morning and stay in a hideout and hide yourself. And I will go out and stand beside my dad in the field where you are, and I will talk with my dad about you, and what I learn about I will tell you. And Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his dad and said to him, let not the king sin against his slave, against David; because he has not sinned against you, and because his deeds have been toward you very good. Because he did put his life in his hands and killed the Philistine, and YHWH accomplished a great deliverance for all Israel: you saw it and did rejoice, so why then will you sin against innocent blood to kill David without a cause? Then Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan and Saul adjured, as YHWH lives, he will not be killed.

And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan reported to him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past. And there was war again and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him. And the bad spirit from YHWH was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand and David played music with his hands. Then Saul tried to strike David, even [staking him] to the wall with the javelin, but he escaped out of Saul's presence, and he struck the javelin into the wall but David fled, and slipped into the night. Saul also sent messengers to David's house, to watch for him and to kill him in the morning but Michal (David's woman) told him saying, if you save not your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed. So Michal let David down through a window: and he went and fled, slipping away. Then Michal took a family teraphim and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for the place of his head, and covered it with a cloth. And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, he is sick. Then Saul sent the messengers again to see David saying, bring him up to me in the bed so that I may kill him. And when the messengers were come in, see, there was the teraphim in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for the place of his head.

Then Saul said to Michal, why have you deceived me so, and sent away my enemy so that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, he said to me, let me go; why should I kill you? So David fled and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth. And it was told Saul saying, look, David is at Naioth in Ramah. And Saul sent messengers to take David, and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of Elohim was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. Then he went also to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked and said, where are Samuel and David? And one replied, see, they are at Naioth in Ramah. And he went there to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of Elohim was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, “Is Saul also among the prophets”? And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, what have I done? What is my depravity? And what is my sin before your dad, that he seeks my life? And he replied to him, Elohim forbid, you will not die: look, my dad will do nothing either great or small, but that he will tell it to me, and why should my dad hide this thing from me?

And David adjured moreover and said, your dad certainly knows that I have found favor in your eyes so he says, let not Jonathan know this unless he is grieved. But truly as YHWH lives and as you live, there is but a step between me and death. Then Jonathan replied to David, whatever you desire I will even do it for you. And David said to Jonathan, see, tomorrow is the new moon and I should not fail to sit with the king to eat: but let me go so that I may hide myself in the field until the third day at sunset. If your dad at all misses me then say, David earnestly asked leave of me so that he might run to Bethlehem his city: because there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family. If he then replies, it is good; your slave will have peace: but if he is very angry, then be sure that bad is determined by him. Therefore you will deal kindly with your slave; for you have brought your slave into a pledge of YHWH with you: notwithstanding, if there is in me depravity, then kill me yourself, because why should you bring me to your dad? And Jonathan replied, do not think like this: for if I knew for certain that bad were determined by my dad to come upon you, then would I not tell it to you? Then David replied to Jonathan, who will tell me? Or what if your dad answers you roughly? And Jonathan said to David, come and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field. Then Jonathan said to David, O YHWH Elohim of Israel, when I have sounded out my dad around this time tomorrow or the third day, and see, if his feelings to David are favorable, will I not send and give you a report? YHWH do so and much more to Jonathan:

but if it pleases my dad to do you bad then I will report it to you and send you away, so that you may go in peace. And YHWH be with you as he has been with my dad. And not only while I still live will you do with me the loving-kindness of YHWH, that I die not, but also you will not cut off your kindness from my house for the ages: no, not when YHWH has cut off the enemies of David, everyone from the face of the ground. So Jonathan cut out a pledge with the House of David saying, let YHWH even require it at the hand of David's enemies. And Jonathan caused David to adjure again, because he befriended him, for he cherished him as he cherished his own life. Then Jonathan said to David, tomorrow is the new moon and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. And when you have stayed three days, then you will go down quickly, and come to the place where you did hide yourself when the business was in hand, and will remain by the stone Ezel (that shows the way). And I will shoot three arrows to the side, as though I shot at a mark. And look, I will send a lad saying, go search for the arrows. If I expressly say to the lad, look, the arrows are on this side of you, take them; then you come, for there is peace to you and no hurt as YHWH lives. But if I say to the young man, look, the arrows are beyond you; go your way, because YHWH has sent you away.

And as touching the matter that you and I have spoken of, see, YHWH is between you and me for the ages. So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat himself down to eat the meal. And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even on a seat by the wall: and Jonathan got up, and Abner sat by Saul's side and David's place was empty. Nevertheless Saul spoke not anything that day because he thought, something has befallen him, he is not clean; certainly he is not clean. And it came about on the next day, that was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said to Jonathan his son, why does the son of Jesse not come to the meal, neither yesterday nor today? And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem: And he said, let me go I ask you, because our family has a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he has commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, let me get away I ask of you and see my family. Therefore he came not to the king's table. Then Saul's nostrils flared against Jonathan and he said to him, you son of the perverse rebellious woman, do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness? For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon the land, you will not be established, nor your kingdom. Therefore now send and fetch him to me, because he will certainly die. And Jonathan answered Saul his dad and said to him, for what will he be killed? What has he done? Then Saul cast a javelin at him to strike him:

whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined from his dad to kill David. So Jonathan got up from the table in fierce anger, and did not eat the meal the second day of the month because he was grieved for David, because his dad had done him shame. And it came about in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David and a little boy with him. And he said to the boy, run and search now for the arrows that I shoot. And as the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. And when the boy had come to the place of the arrow that Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the boy and said, is not the arrow beyond you? And Jonathan cried after the boy, hurry up, quickly, do not stand there. And Jonathan's servant boy gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. But the boy knew not anything, only Jonathan and David knew the matter. And Jonathan gave his artillery to the boy and said to him, go, carry these things back to the city. And as soon as the boy was gone, David got up out of the place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they hugged one another, and wept one with another, until David even cried more. And Jonathan said to David, go in peace, forasmuch as we have both adjured in the Name of YHWH saying, YHWH is between me and you, and between my seed and your seed for the ages. And he got up and left, and Jonathan went back into the city. Then David came to Nob to Ahimelech the priest:

and Ahimelech was afraid at the meeting of David and said to him, why are you alone and no one is with you? And David replied to Ahimelech the priest, the king has commanded me some business, and has said to me, let no one know anything of the business about which I send you, and what I have commanded you. And I have appointed my slaves to such and such a place. Now therefore what is under your hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or what there is present. And the priest answered David and said, there is no common bread under my hand, but there is consecrated bread; if the young men have restrained themselves at least from women. And David answered the priest and said to him, of a truth women have been withheld from us for these three days, through my coming out. And the vessels of the young men have become consecrated, while the bread itself is in a manner common, and the more so since today there are loaves to be consecrated in the vessel. So the priest gave him consecrated bread because there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before YHWH, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. Now a certain man from the slaves of Saul was there that day, detained before YHWH; and his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen that belonged to Saul. And David said to Ahimelech, and is there not here under your hand spear or sword? because I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required urgency. And the priest said, the sword of Goliath the Philistine, who you killed in the Valley of Elah, see, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the Ephod: if you will take that, take it because there is no other except that here. And David replied, there is none like that one, give it to me. And David got up, and fled that day for fear of Saul and went to Achish the king of Gath.

And the slaves of Achish said to him, is not this David the king of the land? Did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul has killed his thousands and David his ten thousands? And David laid up these words in his heart, and was very afraid of Achish the king of Gath. And he changed his behavior before them, and feigned himself a madman in their hands, and marked on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard. Then Achish said to his slaves, lo, you see the man is mad, therefore why have you then brought him to me? Have I need of madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Will this fellow come into my house? David therefore departed from there and escaped to the Adullam Cave: and when his brothers and his dad's entire house heard it, they went down there to see him. And everyone that was in distress, and everyone that was in debt, and everyone that was discontented, gathered themselves to him; and he became a leader over them, and there were with him about 400 men. And David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab and he said to the king of Moab, let my dad and my mom, I ask you, come out and be with you, until I know what Elohim will do for me. And he brought them before the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the while that David was in the stronghold. And the prophet Gad said to David, remain not in the stronghold; depart, and go to the land of Judah. Then David left, and came to the Forest of Hareth.

When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul stayed in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his slaves were standing around him;) then Saul said to his slaves that stood around him, hear now you Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds; That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that shows me that my son has made a league with the son of Jesse. And there is none of you that is sorry for me, or shows to me that my son has stirred up my slave against me to lie in ambush, as he does today? Then answered Doeg the Edomite that was set over the slaves of Saul and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. And he inquired of YHWH for him, and gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine. Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob, and they came, all of them, to the king. And Saul said, listen now you son of Ahitub. And he answered, here I am my master. And Saul said to him, why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread, and a sword, and have inquired of Elohim for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in ambush, as he does today? Then Ahimelech answered the king and said, and who is so faithful among all your slaves as David that is the king's son in law, and goes at your bidding and is honorable in your house? Did I then begin to inquire of Elohim for him? Be it far from me: let not the king impute anything to his servant, nor to all the house of my father because your slave knew nothing of all this, less or more.

And the king said, you will certainly die Ahimelech, you and your father's entire house. And the king said to the footmen that stood around him, turn and kill the priests of YHWH; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled and did not report it to me. But the slaves of the king would not put out their hand to fall upon the priests of YHWH. And the king said to Doeg, turn you, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned and he fell upon the priests, and killed on that day 85 men that wore a linen ephod. And Nob, the city of the priests, he attacked with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and babies, and oxen, donkeys, and sheep, with the edge of the sword. And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David. And Abiathar reported to David that Saul had killed YHWH's priests. And David said to Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have occasioned the death of all the people of your dad's house. Remain you now with me, fear not because he that seeks my life seeks your life: but with me you will be in safeguard. Then they told David saying, look, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and they plunder the threshing-floors. Therefore David inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of YHWH saying, will I go and attack these Philistines? And YHWH said to David, Go, and attack the Philistines and rescue Keilah.

And David's men said to him, see, we are afraid here in Judah: how much more, then, if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines? Then David inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of YHWH yet again. And YHWH answered him and said, Get up and go down to Keilah because I will deliver the Philistines into your hand. So David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and attacked them with a great slaughter. So David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah. And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech had fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with The Ephod [associated with the Urim-Thummim] in his hand. And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, Elohim has delivered him into my hand because he is shut in, by entering into a town that has gates and bars. And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. And David knew that Saul devised evil against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, bring The Ephod [associated with Urim-Thummim] here. Then David inquired, O YHWH Elohim of Israel, your slave has certainly heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down, as your slave has heard? O YHWH Elohim of Israel, I bow to you, reveal to your slave. And YHWH replied, He will come down. Then David inquired, will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And YHWH replied, they will deliver you up.

Then David and his men that were about 600, got up and departed out of Keilah, and went wherever they could go. And it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, and he then ceased from going out. And David stayed in the uninhabited lands in strongholds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought for him every day, but Elohim did not deliver him into his hand. And David saw that Saul has come out to seek his life and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a forest. And Jonathan Saul's son got up, and went to David into the woods, and strengthened his hand in Elohim. And he said to him, fear not, for the hand of Saul my dad will not find you and you will be king over Israel; and I will be next to you and this also my dad Saul knows. And the two of them cut out a pledge before YHWH: and David remained in the forest, and Jonathan went back to his house. Then the Ziphites came up to Saul in Gibeah saying, does not David hide himself with us in strongholds in the forest, in the hill of Hachilah that is on the south of Jeshimon? Now therefore, O king, come down according to all of your desires, and our part will be to deliver him into the king's hand.

And Saul replied, blessed are you of YHWH because you have had compassion on me. Go, I ask you, and make preparations, and now observe his place where his feet stay, and who has seen him there because it is told me that he deals very shrewdly.

See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides himself, and come back again to me with the established facts. And I will go with you: and it will come about, if he is in the land, that I will expose him throughout all the thousands of Judah. And they got up and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon. And Saul and his men went to find him, and they declared this to David, and he went down into the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon; and Saul heard of it and pursued after David to the wilderness of Maon. And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain: and David hurried to get away for fear of Saul because Saul with his men surrounded David and his men, encircling to catch them. But there came a messenger to Saul saying, hurry and come, because the Philistines have invaded the land. Therefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines, that is why they called that place Selahammahlekoth [the Rock of Divisions]. And David went up from there and stayed in strongholds at Engedi. And it came to pass when Saul was returned from following the Philistines that it was told to him saying, look, David is in the wilderness of Engedi. Then Saul took 3000 chosen men out of all Israel, and went to find David and his men on the rocks of the mountain goats. And he came to the sheepfold by the road, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself [as one using a restroom]: and David and his men remained in the back parts of the cave.

And the men of David said to him, observe the day of which YHWH said to you, look, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do to him as it will seem good to you. Then David got up and secretly cut off the skirt of Saul's robe. And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart felt wounded, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. And he said to his men, YHWH forbid that I should do this thing to my master, YHWH's anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of YHWH. So David restrained his men with these words, and permitted them not to rise up against Saul. But Saul got up out of the cave, and went on his way. David also got up afterward and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul saying, my master the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth and bowed himself. And David said to Saul, why do you listen to men's words saying, look, David seeks your injury? Look, this day your eyes have seen how that YHWH had delivered you today into my hand in this cave, and some urged me to kill you. But my eye spared you and I said, I will not put out my hand against my master, because he is YHWH's anointed. Look, my father [in law], yes look at the skirt of your robe in my hand. Because in that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and did not kill you, know you now and see that there is neither bad nor rebellion in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, yet you hunt my life to take it. YHWH judge between you and me, and YHWH avenge me of you: but my hand will not be upon you. As declares the proverb of the ancients, wickedness proceeds from the wicked, but my hand will not be upon you.

After whom is the king of Israel come out? After whom do you pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea. YHWH therefore be the judge, and judge between you, and me and observe and plead my cause, and rescue me out of your hand. And it came about, when David had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, that Saul replied, is this your voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice and wept. And he said to David, you are more righteous than I am, because you have rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded you evil. And you have made known this day how that you have dealt well with me, in that when YHWH had delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me. For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away in peace? Therefore YHWH reward you good for what you have done to me this day. And now, see, I know well that you will certainly be king and that the Kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand. Adjure now therefore to me by YHWH, that you will not cut off my seed after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house. And David adjured to Saul. And Saul went home but David and his men retreated up to the stronghold. Now Samuel died; and all the Israelites were gathered together and mourned for him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David got up and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

And there was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very haughty, and he had 3000 sheep and 1000 goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. Now the name of the man was Nabal and the name of his woman Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful appearance: but the man was obstinate and disagreeable in his doings, and he was of the house of Caleb. And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. And David sent out ten young men, and David said to the young men, travel up to Carmel and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name: And this is what you will say to him that lives in prosperity, peace be both to you and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have. And now I have heard that you have shearers: now your shepherds that were with us, we did not hurt them, neither was there anything missing from them, all the while they were in Carmel. Ask your young men and they will tell you. Therefore let the young men find favor in your eyes because we come in an agreeable journey: give, I ask you, whatever comes to your hand to your servants, and to your son David. And when David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and were then quiet. But Nabal answered David's servants and said, who is David? And who is the son of Jesse?

There are many servants nowadays that break away, every man from his master. Will I then take my bread and water, and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men who I do not know, even from where they came from? So David's young men returned from their journey, and went back and came and told him all those sayings. Then David said to his men, belt on every man his sword. And they belted on every man his sword; and David also belted on his sword: and there went up after David about 400 men; and 200 remained by their implements. But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's woman saying, look, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to greet our master; and he railed on them. But the men were very good to us and we were not hurt, neither anything was missed, as long as we were walking with them, when we were in the fields: They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the while we were with them shepherding the sheep. Now therefore know and consider what you will do because bad is determined against our master, and against his entire household; for he is such a son of Belial (worthless), that one cannot speak to him. Then Abigail hurried, and took 200 loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five prepared sheep, and five measures of parched grain, and 100 clusters of raisins, and 200 cakes of figs, and put them on donkeys. And she said to her slaves, go on before me; see, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal. And it was so, as she rode on the donkey, that she came down by the hiding place of the hill, and lo, David and his men came down against her, and she encountered them. Now David had said, certainly in vain have I guarded all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained to him: and he has repaid me bad for good.

So and more also will Elohim do to the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertains to him by the morning light any that piss against the wall. And when Abigail saw David, she hurried and got down from the donkey and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and fell at his feet and said, upon me, my master, upon me let this depravity rest: and let your maid-servant, I beg you, speak in your audience, and hear the words of your maid-servant. Let not my master, I beg you, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so he is; Nabal is his name, and disgrace is with him: but I your maid-servant saw not the young men of my master, whom you did send. Now therefore, my master, as YHWH lives and as you live, seeing YHWH has withheld you from coming to shed blood, and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now let your enemies, and they that seek bad to my master, be as Nabal. And now this blessing that your maid-servant has brought to my master, let it even be given to the young men that walk at the feet of my master. I beg you, forgive the transgression of your maid-servant, for YHWH will certainly make my master a faithful house; because my master fights the battles of YHWH, and bad has not been found in you all your days. Still a man is risen to pursue you, and to seek your life: but the life of my master will be bound in the parcel of life with YHWH Elohim. And the lives of your enemies, those will he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling. And it will come to pass, when YHWH will have done to my master according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and will have appointed you ruler over Israel; That this will be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my master, either that you have shed blood in vain, or that my master has avenged himself but when YHWH will have dealt well with my master, then remember your maid-servant.

And David replied to Abigail, blessed is YHWH Elohim of Israel, which sent you this day to meet me: And blessed is your advice, and blessed are you, which has kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with my own hand. For in fact, as YHWH Elohim of Israel lives, which has kept me back from hurting you, except you had hurried and come to meet me, certainly there had not been left to Nabal by the morning light any that piss against the wall. So David received of her hand what she had brought him and said to her, go up in peace to your house; see, I have listened to your voice, and have accepted your person. And Abigail came to Nabal; and see, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk: therefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. But it came about in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his woman had told him these things, that his heart died within him and he became as a stone. And it came to pass about ten days after, that YHWH killed Nabal so that he died. And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, blessed is YHWH, that has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept his slave from bad: for YHWH has returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and talked with Abigail, to take her to himself as his woman. And when the slaves of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spoke to her saying, David sent us to you, to take you to himself as his woman. And she got up, and bowed herself on her face to the ground and said, see, let your maid-servant be a slave to wash the feet of the slaves of my master.

And Abigail hurried and got up, and rode upon a donkey, with five female slaves of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his woman. David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his women. But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's woman, to Phalti the son of Laish that was from Gallim.

Chapter 26

And the Ziphites came to Saul to Gibeah saying, does not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah that is before Jeshimon? Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having 3000 chosen men of Israel with him, to find David in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul camped in the hill of Hachilah that is before Jeshimon, by the road. But David remained in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had definitely come. And David got up and came to the place where Saul had camped: and David observed the place where Saul rested, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his army: and Saul rested in the entrenchment, and the people camped around him. Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab saying, who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with you. So David and Abishai came to the people by night:

and lo, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear was stuck in the ground near his head: but Abner and the people rested around him. Then Abishai said to David, Elohim has delivered your enemy into your hand this day: now therefore let me kill him, I ask you, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not strike him the second time. But David replied to Abishai, do not destroy him because who can stretch out his hand against YHWH's anointed, and be guiltless? David said furthermore, as YHWH lives, YHWH will kill him; or his day will come to die; or he will descend into battle, and perish. YHWH forbid that I should stretch out my hand against YHWH's anointed: but, I ask you, take now the spear that is near his head, and the jug of water, and let us go. So David took the spear and the jug of water from Saul's head; and they went away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither woke up, for they were all fast asleep; because a deep sleep from YHWH was fallen upon them. Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off; a great distance being between them. And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner saying, are not you going to answer me Abner? Then Abner answered and said, who are you that cry to the king? And David said to Abner, are not you a mighty man? And who is like to you in Israel? Therefore then why have you not guarded your master the king? For there came one of the people in to destroy the king your master. This thing is not good that you have done. As YHWH lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not guarded your master, YHWH's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the jug of water that was near his head. And Saul knew David's voice and said, is this your voice my son David? And David replied, it is my voice, my master O king.

And he said, why does my master so pursue after his slave? For what have I done? Or what bad is in my hand? Now therefore, I ask you, let my master the king hear the words of his slave. If YHWH has stirred you up against me, let him accept an offering: but if they are the children of men, cursed are they before YHWH; for they have driven me out this day from living in the inheritance of YHWH saying, go serve other elohim. Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the ground before the face of YHWH, because the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one does hunt a partridge in the mountains. Then Saul replied, I have sinned, return my son David: for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day: see, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. And David answered and said, observe the king's spear! And let one of the young men come over and fetch it. YHWH renders to everyone his righteousness and his fidelity, because YHWH delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch out my hand against YHWH's anointed. And see, as your life has been dear to me this day in my eyes, so let my life be dear in the eyes of YHWH, and let him rescue me out of all trouble. Then Saul replied to David, blessed are you, my son David: you will both do great things, and also will still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

Chapter 27

And David said in his heart, I will now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me except I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines. And Saul will then despair of me, to seek me anymore in any territory of Israel, so I will escape out of his hand. So David got up and he passed over with the 600 men that were with him to Achish, the son of Maoch, king of Gath.

And David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two women, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's [former] wife. And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath, and he sought no more for him again. And David said to Achish, if I have now found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may live there: for why should your slave live in the royal city with you? Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: therefore Ziklag pertains to the kings of Judah to this day. And the time that David lived in the country of the Philistines was one full year and four months. And David went up and his men, and they made attacks on the Geshurite, Gerizite, and the Amalekite, (for they are inhabitants of the land from ancient times), as you come into Shur and to the land of Egypt. And David attacked the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, oxen, donkeys, camels, and the apparel, and returned and came to Achish. And Achish said, where have you made a road today? And David replied, against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites, and against the south of the Kenites. But David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring reports to Gath, thinking, unless they should tell on us saying, so did David and so will be his custom all the while he lives in the country of the Philistines. And Achish believed David saying, he has made his people Israel utterly to abhor him; therefore he will be my slave for the ages.

Chapter 28

And it came about in those days that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, know you assuredly that you will go out with me to battle, you and your men. Then David replied to Achish, certainly you will know what your slave can do. And Achish said to David, therefore I will appoint you as chief guard for the ages. Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had removed the necromancer, and the soothsayers, out of the land. And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and camped in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they camped in Gilboa. And when Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid and his heart was greatly terrified. And when Saul inquired of YHWH, YHWH answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim-[Thummim], nor by prophets. Then Saul said to his slaves, find me a woman that is a sorceress so that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his slaves said to him, see, there is a woman that is a sorceress at Endor. And Saul disguised himself and put on other clothing, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I ask you, divine to me by necromancy, and bring me up who I will name to you. And the woman replied to him, look, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those that practice necromancy, and the soothsayers out of the land: therefore why do you lay a trap for my life, to cause me to die? And Saul adjured to her by YHWH saying, As YHWH lives, there will no punishment happen to you for this thing.

Then the woman replied, who will I bring up for you? And he said, bring me up Samuel. And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice and the woman spoke to Saul saying, why have you deceived me? Because you are Saul. And the king replied to her, do not fear; for what have you seen? And the woman said to Saul, elohim I have seen coming up out of the earth. He said to her, what does he look like? And she replied, an old man comes up and he is covered with a robe. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself. And Samuel said to Saul, why have you disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed because the Philistines make war against me, and Elohim has departed from me, and answers me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called you so that you may reveal to me what I will do. Then Samuel replied, why then do you ask of me, seeing YHWH has departed from you, and has become your enemy? And YHWH has done to him, as he spoke by me because YHWH has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, even to David. Because you obeyed not the Voice of YHWH, nor executed his fierce anger upon Amalek, therefore has YHWH done this thing to you this day. Moreover YHWH will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines: and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. YHWH also will deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines. Then immediately Saul fell fully extended on the ground, and was very terrified, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him because he had eaten no bread all that day, nor all night.

And the woman came to Saul, and saw that he was very troubled and said to him, see, your maid-servant has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have obeyed your words that you spoke to me. Now therefore, I ask you, listen now also to the voice of your maid-servant, and let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat so that you may have strength, when you go on your journey. But he refused and said, I will not eat. But his slaves, together with the woman, compelled him and he heeded to their voices. So he got up from the ground and sat upon the bed. And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hurried and slaughtered it, and took flour and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread. And she brought it before Saul, and before his slaves and they did eat. Then they got up and went away that night.

Chapter 29

Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites camped by a spring that is in Jezreel. And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rearguard with Achish. Then the chiefs of the Philistines said, what are these Hebrews doing here? And Achish replied to the chiefs of the Philistines, is not this David, the slave of Saul the king of Israel, that has been with me these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell in with me to this day? But the chiefs of the Philistines were angry with him, and the chiefs of the Philistines replied to him, make this fellow return so that he may return to his place that you have appointed him. And let him not go down with us to battle, unless in the battle he becomes an adversary to us, because he could reconcile himself to his master? And would it not be with the heads of these men? Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances saying, Saul killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

Then Achish called David and said to him, certainly as YHWH lives, you have been upright and you're going out and you're coming in with me in the army is good in my sight. Because I have not found bad in you since the day of your coming to me to this day: nevertheless the lords do not favor you. Therefore now return and go in peace so that you do not displease the lords of the Philistines. And David replied to Achish, but what have I done? and what have you found in your slave so long as I have been with you to this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my master the king? And Achish answered and said to David, I know that you are good in my sight, as an Angel of Elohim: notwithstanding the chiefs of the Philistines have said, he will not go up with us to the battle. Therefore now get up early in the morning with your master's slaves that are come with you, and as soon as you are up early in the morning, and have light, leave. So David and his men got up early to leave in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

Chapter 30

And it came about, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, Ziklag being attacked, and burnt it with fire; And had taken the women captives that were there, they did not kill any (either great or small), but carried them away and went on their way. So David and his men came to the city, and lo, it was burnt with fire; and their women, and their sons and their daughters were taken captives. Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

And David's two women were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the [former] woman of Nabal the Carmelite. And David was greatly distressed because the people spoke of stoning him, because the heart of all the people was grieved, everyone for his sons and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in YHWH Elohim. And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I ask you, bring me here The Ephod. And Abiathar brought there The Ephod [with Urim-Thummim] to David. And David inquired of YHWH asking, will I pursue after this troop? Will I overtake them? And He answered him, Pursue. for you will certainly overtake them, and without fail recover all. So David went, he and the 600 men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed. But David pursued, he and 400 men, because 200 stayed behind that were so exhausted that they could not go over the brook Besor. And they found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David, and gave him food, and he did eat and they made him drink water. And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his vitality returned to him, because he had eaten no food, nor drunk any water for three days and three nights. Then David said to him, to who do you belong to? And where are you from? And he replied, I am a young man from Egypt, slave to an Amalekite and my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick. We made an invasion upon the south of the Cherethites, and upon the territory that belongs to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

And David said to him, could you bring me down to this company? And he replied, adjure to me by Elohim, that you will neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master and I will bring you down to this company. And when he had brought him down, see, they were spread abroad upon all the land, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great plunder that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. And David attacked them from the twilight even to the sunset of the next day, and there escaped not a man of them, except 400 young men that rode upon camels and escaped. And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away, and David rescued his two women. And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither plunder, nor anything that they had taken to them: David recovered all. And David took all the flocks and the herds that they drove before those other cattle, and said, this is David's spoil. And David came to the 200 men that were so exhausted that they could not follow David, who they had made also to remain at the brook Besor. And they went out to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near to the people, he greeted them. Then answered all the bad men and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, because they did not go with us, we will not give them anything of the plunder that we have recovered. Except to every man his woman and his children, that they may lead them away and depart. Then David replied, you will not do so, my brothers, with what YHWH has given us, who has preserved us and rescued the company that came against us to our hand. And who will listen to you in this thing? because as the portion of him who was brought down into battle, so also is the portion of him who is staying by the vessels, alike they will share.

And it was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day. And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the plunder to the Elders of Judah, even to his friends saying, look a present for you of the plunder of the enemies of YHWH. To them that were in Bethel, and in south Ramoth, and to them that were in Jattir, to them that were in Aroer, and in Siphmoth, and to them in Eshtemoa. And to them that were in Rachal, and in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to them that were in the cities of the Kenites. To them that were in Hormah, and in Chorashan, and to them that were in Athach. To them that were in Hebron, and to all the regions where David himself and his men were traversing.

Chapter 31

Now the Philistines fought against Israel and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in Mount Gilboa. And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons, and the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons. And the battle went grievously against Saul, and the archers hit him and he was extremely wounded by the archers.

Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, draw your sword and thrust me through with it; unless these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and torture me. But his armor-bearer would not because he was very terrified. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell on it himself. And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his own sword and died with him. So Saul died and his three sons, and his armor-bearer and all his men, that same day together. And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled. And the Philistines came and lived in them. And it came about on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in Mount Gilboa. And they cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people. And they put his armor in the house of Ashtaroth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Bethshan. And when the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul; All the mighty men arose, and traveled all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Bethshan, and came to Jabesh, and cremated them there. And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted for seven days.

Chapter 1

Chapter 1

Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from attacking the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag; It came about on the third day that a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes torn, and dirt upon his head: and so it was when he came to David, that he fell to the ground and prostrated himself. And David asked him, where do you come from? And he replied to him, from the Camp of Israel am I escaped. And David said to him, how went the matter? I ask you, tell me. And he answered, the people are fled from the battle and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also. Then David said to the young man that told him this, how do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead? And the young man that told him said, as I happened by chance upon Mount Gilboa, Saul leaned on his spear; and lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him. And when he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I answered, here I am, and he said to me, who are you? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite. He said to me again, stand; I ask you upon me and kill me, because agony has come on me, because my life is still in me. So I stood on him and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he was fallen on his spear. And I took the crown that was on his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my master.

Then David took hold on his clothes and tore them, and likewise all the men that were with him. And they mourned and wept, and fasted until sunset, for Saul and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of YHWH and for the House of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword. And David said to the young man that told him this, where are you from? And he answered; I am the son of a foreigner, an Amalekite. And David replied to him, how come you were not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy YHWH's anointed? And David called one of the young men and said, go near and strike him. And he killed him so that he died. And David said to him, your blood is upon your head because your mouth has testified against you saying, I have killed YHWH's anointed. And David lamented with this elegy over Saul and over Jonathan his son: (Also he commanded them to teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: see, it is written in the Scroll of Jasher) . The beauty of Israel is slain upon your high place, how are the mighty fallen! Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon; unless the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, unless the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of Heave-Offerings, because there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil. From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty. Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions. You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights, who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel. How are the mighty fallen in the middle of the battle! O Jonathan, you were killed in your high place. I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant have you been to me: your friendship to me was surpassing the love of women. How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished! And it came to pass after this, that David inquired [with Urim-Thummim] of YHWH asking, will I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And YHWH replied to him, Go up. And David asked, where would I go up? And he said, to Hebron. So David went up there, and his two women also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's [former] woman the Carmelite. And his men that were with him did David also bring up, every man with his household: and they lived in the cities of Hebron.

And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the House of Judah. And they told David saying, that the men of Jabeshgilead were those that buried Saul. And David sent messengers to the men of Jabeshgilead and said to them, blessed are you of YHWH, that you have shown this kindness to your master, even to Saul, and have buried him. And now YHWH show kindness and truth to you, and I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing. And now, are your hands strong, and be you for sons of valor, for your master Saul is dead, and also me has the House of Judah anointed as king over them. But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's army, took Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim; And made him king over Gilead, the Ashurites, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin, and over all Israel. Ishbosheth Saul's son was 40 years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the House of Judah followed David. And the time that David was king in Hebron over the House of Judah was seven years and six months. And Abner the son of Ner, and the slaves of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the slaves of David went out, and met together by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

Then Abner said to Joab, let the young men now get up, and mock before us. And Joab said, let them get up. Then they stood up and went over by number twelve from Benjamin that pertained to Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the slaves of David. And they caught everyone his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: therefore that place was called Helkathhazzurim that is in Gibeon. And there was a very cruel battle that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel before the slaves of David. And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild gazelle. And Asahel pursued after Abner, and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner. Then Abner looked behind him and said, are you Asahel? And he answered, I am. And Abner said to him, turn you aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay you hold on one of the young men, and take you his armor. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him. And Abner again said to Asahel, Turn you aside from following me: therefore should I strike you to the ground? How then should I hold up my face to Joab your brother? but he refused to turn aside: therefore Abner with the rear end of the spear struck him under the fifth rib so that the spear came out behind him. And he fell down there and died in that same place: and it came to pass that as many as came to that place where Asahel fell down and died there stood still [to look at him].

Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lies before Giah by the road to the wilderness of Gibeon. And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of a hill. And Abner called to Joab and said, for all times will the sword consume? Do you not see that the end will only be bitter? how long will it be before you send the people back and make them stop attacking their kinsmen? Then Joab replied, as Elohim lives, unless you had spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up everyone from following his brother. So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought anymore. And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim. And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David's slaves 19 men and Asahel. But the slaves of David had killed of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that 360 men died. And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the tomb of his father that was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men traveled all night, and they came to Hebron at sunrise. Now there was a long civil war between the House of Saul and the House of David: but David grew stronger and stronger, and the House of Saul became weaker and weaker.

And to David were sons gendered in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; And his second, Chileab, from Abigail the [former] woman of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; And the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; And the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah David's woman. These were gendered to David in Hebron. And it came about, while there was civil war between the House of Saul and the House of David that Abner made himself strong for the House of Saul. And Saul had a concubine, and her name is Rizpah daughter of Aiah, and Ishbosheth said to Abner, why have you gone in unto my father's concubine? Then was Abner very angry for the words of Ishbosheth and retorted, am I a dog's head that against Judah do show kindness this day to the House of Saul your father, to his brethren, and to his friends. And I have not delivered you into the hand of David, yet you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman? So do Elohim to Abner and more also, except, as YHWH has adjured to David, even so I do to him; To pass over the kingdom from the House of Saul and to set up the Throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba. And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

Then Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf saying, whose is the land? saying also, make your alliance with me, and see, my hand will be with you, to bring about all Israel to you. And he replied, well, I will make an alliance with you: but one thing I require of you, that is, you will not see my face except you first bring Michal Saul's daughter, when you come to see me. And David sent messengers to Ishbosheth Saul's son saying, deliver to me my woman Michal that I betrothed to me for 100 foreskins of the Philistines. And Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, even from Phaltiel the son of Laish. And her husband went with her along weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, go, return, and he returned. And Abner had conferred with the Elders of Israel saying, you requested for David in times past to be king over you: Now then do it: for YHWH has spoken of David saying, by the hand of my slave David I will rescue my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole House of Benjamin. So Abner came to David to Hebron, and 20 men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a banquet. And Abner said to David, I will get up and go, and will gather all Israel to my master the king so that they may make an alliance with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires. And David sent Abner away and he went in peace.

Then the slaves of David and Joab came from pursuing a raiding band, and brought in a great plunder with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron, because he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. When Joab and all the army that was with him were come, they told Joab saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king and he has sent him away, and he is gone in peace. Then Joab came to the king and said, what have you done? look, Abner came to you; why is it that you have sent him away and he is set free? Do not you know that Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do. And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner that brought him again from the cistern of Sirah: but David did not know about it. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and killed him there under the fifth rib so that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother. And afterward when David heard of it he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before YHWH for the ages from the blood of Abner the son of Ner: Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on his dad's entire house. And let there not fail from the house of Joab one that has an issue, or that is a leper, or that leans on a staff or that falls on the sword, or that lack bread. So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle. And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, tear your clothes and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And

King David himself followed the bier.

And they buried Abner in Hebron, and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. And the king lamented over Abner and said, Abner died as a fool dies? Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters: as a man falls before wicked men, so you fell. And all the people wept again over him. And all the people came to cause David to eat bread while it was still day, and David adjured saying, may Elohim do so to me and more also, if I taste bread or anything else before the sunset. And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatever the king did pleased all the people. Because all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not the king's intent to kill Abner the son of Ner. And the king said to his slaves, do not you know that there is a chief and a great man fallen this day in Israel? And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah are too cruel for me: YHWH will reward the doer according to his wickedness. And when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble and all the Israelites were troubled. And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin:

And the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and were inhabitants there until this day). And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the reports came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came about, as she hurried to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth. And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, who lay on a bed at noon. And they came there into the center of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they killed him under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. Because when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedroom and they attacked him and killed him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and got away through the plain all that night. And they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David to Hebron, and said to the king, see the head of Ishbosheth the son of Saul your enemy that desired your life; and YHWH has avenged my master the king this day of Saul and of his seed. And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, as YHWH lives who has ransomed my life out of all adversity, when one told me saying, see, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good news, I took hold of him and killed him in Ziklag who thought that I would have given him a reward for his report: How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? Will I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth? And David commanded his young men and they killed them and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

Then all the tribes of Israel came to David to Hebron, and spoke saying, see, we are your bone and your flesh. Also in times past, when Saul was king over us, you were he that led out and brought in Israel:

and YHWH said to you, You will feed my people Israel and you will be a ruler over Israel. So all the Elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made an alliance with them in Hebron before YHWH: and they anointed David king over Israel. David was 30 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 40 years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned 33 years over all Israel and Judah. And the king and his men went to Jerusalem to the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land that spoke to David saying, except you take away the blind and the lame, you will not come in here: thinking, David cannot come in here. Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion: the same is the City of David. And David said on that day, whoever gets up to the water conduit and attacks the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, which are hated of David's life, he will be chief and captain. Therefore they said, the blind and the lame will not come into the house. So David lived in the fort, and called it the City of David. And David built around it from Millo and inward. And David went on and grew great, and YHWH Elohim of Hosts was with him.

And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees and carpenters, and masons, and they constructed David a house. And David perceived that YHWH had established him king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake. And David took himself more concubines and women out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were still more sons and daughters gendered to David. And these are the names of those that were gendered to him in Jerusalem; Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphalet. But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to find David; and David heard of it, and went down to the stronghold. The Philistines also came and spread themselves in the Valley of Rephaim (giants). And David inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of YHWH asking, will I go up to the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand? And YHWH replied to David, Go up, because I will without a doubt deliver the Philistines into your hand. And David came to Baalperazim, and David attacked them there and said, YHWH has broken out upon my enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baalperazim.

And there they left their images, and David and his men burnt them. And the Philistines came up still again, and spread themselves in the Valley of Rephaim (giants). And when David inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of YHWH, he said, You will not go up but circle around behind them, and come upon them opposite the balsam trees. And let it be, when you hear the sound of a marching in the tops of the balsom trees, then you will move yourself because then will YHWH go out before you, to attack the armies of the Philistines. And David did so as YHWH had commanded him, and attacked the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gazer. Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, 30,000. And David got up and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from there the Ark of Elohim, whose name is called by the Name of YHWH of Hosts that sits between the cherubim. And they set the Ark of Elohim upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart. And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was at Gibeah, accompanying the Ark of Elohim: and Ahio went before the Ark. And David and all the House of Israel played before YHWH on all types of instruments made of fir wood, even on lyres, guitars, tambourines, and on castanets, and on cymbals.

And when they came to Nachon's threshing-floor, Uzzah put out his hand to steady the Ark of Elohim, and took hold of it, because the oxen shook it. And the nostrils of YHWH flared against Uzzah; and Elohim stuck him there for his error, and there he died by the Ark of Elohim. And David was angry, because YHWH had made an outburst upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perezuzzah to this day. And David was afraid of YHWH that day and said, how will the Ark of YHWH come to me? So David would not remove the Ark of YHWH to himself into the City of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obededom the Gittite. And the Ark of YHWH remained in the house of Obededom the Gittite three months: and YHWH blessed Obededom, and his entire household. And it was told king David saying, YHWH has blessed the house of Obededom, and all that pertains to him, because of the Ark of Elohim. So David went and brought up the Ark of Elohim from the house of Obededom into the city of David with gladness. And it was so, that when they that carried the Ark of YHWH had gone six steps, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings. And David danced before YHWH with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the House of Israel brought up the Ark of YHWH with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

And as the Ark of YHWH came into the City of David, Michal

(Saul's daughter) looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before YHWH; and she despised him in her heart. And they brought in the Ark of YHWH, and set it in its place, in the center of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings before YHWH. And as soon as David had made an end of offering Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of YHWH of Hosts. And he divided the plunder among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to everyone a cake of bread, and a measured piece of meat, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed everyone to his house. Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, how glorious was the king of Israel today, who exposed himself today in the eyes of the female slaves of his servants, as one of the vain men shamelessly exposes himself! And David replied to Michal, it was before YHWH that chose me before your dad, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of YHWH, over Israel: therefore I will play before YHWH. And I will be still viler than this, and will be base in my own sight: and of the female slaves that you have spoken of, of them will I be had in honor. Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death. And it came about, when the king sat in his house and YHWH had given him rest all around from all his enemies; That the king said to Nathan the prophet, see now, I live in a house of cedar, but the Ark of Elohim remains within curtains.

And Nathan said to the king, go, do all that is in your heart because YHWH is with you. And it came about that night, that the Word of YHWH came to Nathan saying, Go and tell my slave David, this is what YHWH declares, will you build a house for me to live in? Whereas I have not lived in any house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have lived in the Tabernacle of the Dwelling Place. In all the places where I have walked with all the children of Israel spoke I a word with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel saying, why have you not constructed for me a house of cedar? Now therefore you will say to my slave David, This is what YHWH of hosts declares, I took you from the flocks of sheep, from following the sheep to be ruler over my people, over Israel: And I was with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies out of your sight, and have made you a great name, like to the name of the great men that are in the land. Moreover I will appoint a Standing Place for my people Israel, and will plant them so that they may live in a place of their own, and move no more; neither will the children of the violent afflict them anymore, as in the past, and as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. Also YHWH tells you that he will make you a house. And when your days are fulfilled, and you will sleep with your forefathers, I will set up your seed after you that will proceed out of your bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. He will build a house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for the ages.

I will be his Father, and he will be my son. If he commits perversity, I will correct him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men. But my mercy will not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you. And your house and your kingdom will be established for the ages before you: your throne will be established for the ages. According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David. Then king David went in and sat before YHWH, and he said, who am I, O Adonai YHWH? And what is my house that you have brought me here? And still this is little in your eyes, Adonai YHWH, and you do speak also concerning the house of your slave in the far off future; and this is the law of the man, Adonai YHWH. And what can David say more to you? For you, Adonai YHWH, know your slave. For your Word's sake, and according to your own heart, have you done all these great things, to make your slave know them. Therefore you are great, O YHWH Elohim, because there is none like you, neither is there any Elohim beside you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

And what one nation in the earth is like your people, even like Israel, whom Elohim went to ransom for a people to himself, and to make himself a Name. And to do for you great and fearful things for your land, before your people that you ransomed to yourself from Egypt, from the nations and their elohim? Because you have confirmed to yourself your people Israel, to be a people to you for the ages: and you YHWH, are become their Elohim. And now, O YHWH Elohim, the Word that you have spoken concerning your slave and concerning his house, establish it for the ages, and do as you have said. And let your Name be magnified for the ages saying, YHWH of Hosts is Elohim over Israel: and let the house of your slave David be established before you. For you, O YHWH of Hosts, Elohim of Israel, have revealed to your slave saying, I will build you a house: therefore has your slave found in his heart to pray this prayer to you. And now, O Adonai YHWH, you are that Elohim, and your Words are true, and you have promised this goodness to your slave. Therefore now let it please you to bless the house of your slave, that it may continue for the ages before you, because you O Adonai YHWH have spoken: and with your blessing let the house of your slave be blessed for the ages. And after this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines and subdued them: and David took Methegammah out of the hand of the Philistines. And he attacked Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines he measured to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David's slaves, and brought tribute. David also attacked Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his parts at the Euphrates River.

And David took from him 1000 chariots, and 700 horsemen, and 20,000 footmen: and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them 100 chariots. And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed of the Syrians 22,000 men. Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became slaves to David, and brought tribute. And YHWH preserved David wherever he went. And David took the shields of gold that were on the slaves of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took exceedingly much bronze. When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had attacked all the army of Hadadezer, Then Toi sent Joram his son to king David, to salute him and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and beaten him. Because Hadadezer had wars with Toi and Joram brought with him vessels of silver, gold, and bronze: Which also king David did dedicate to YHWH, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations that he subdued; Of Syria, Moab, Ammon, Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah. And David acquired himself a name when he returned from attacking of the Syrians in the Valley of Salt, being 18,000 men.

And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons and all they of Edom became David's slaves. And YHWH preserved David wherever he went. And David reigned over all Israel, and David executed judgment and justice to all his people. And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder. And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Seraiah was the secretary; And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief rulers. And David said, is there still any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may show kindness, for Jonathan's sake? And there was from the house of Saul a slave whose name was Ziba. And when they had called him to David, the king said to him, are you Ziba? And he replied, your slave is he. And the king said, is there not still any from the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of Elohim to him? And Ziba said to the king, Jonathan has still a son that is lame on his feet. And the king replied to him, where is he? And Ziba said to the king, see, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lodebar. Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lodebar.

Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul was come to David, he fell on his face and did homage. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, see your slave! And David said to him, do not fear because I will certainly show you kindness for Jonathan your dad's sake, and will restore to you all the land of Saul your grandfather; and you will eat food at my table continually. And he bowed himself and said, what is your slave that you should look upon such a dead dog as I am? Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's slave and said to him, I have given to your master's son all that pertained to Saul and to his entire house. You therefore, and your sons and your slaves shall till the land for him, and you will bring in its fruits so that your master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth your master's son will eat food always at my table. Now Ziba had 15 sons and 20 slaves. Then Ziba said to the king, according to all that my master the king has commanded his slave, so will your slave do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he will eat at my table, as one of the king's sons. And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micha. And all that lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth. So Mephibosheth stayed in Jerusalem, because he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet. And it came about after this that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place. Then David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his dad showed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his slaves for his dad. And David's slaves came into the land of the children of Ammon. But the chiefs of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord; do you think that David honors your dad that he has sent comforters to you? Has not David rather sent his slaves to you, to search the city and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? Therefore Hanun took David's slaves, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their clothes in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. When they told this to David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed:

and the king said, stay at Jericho until your beards are grown, and then return. And when the children of Ammon saw that they became odious before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Bethrehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, 20,000 footmen, and of king Maacah 1000 men, and of Ishtob 12,000 men. And when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in formation at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, Rehob, Ishtob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in formation against the Syrians. And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother so that he might put them in formation against the children of Ammon. And he said, if the Syrians are too strong for me, then you will help me: but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you. Be of good courage, and let us fight bravely for our people, and for the cities of our Elohim: and YHWH do what seems good to him.

And Joab drew near, and the people that were with him to the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then they fled also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem. And when the Syrians saw that they were beaten before Israel, they gathered themselves together. And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the army of Hadarezer went before them. Then when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in formation against David, and fought with him. And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed 700 chariot soldiers of the Syrians, and 40,000 horsemen, and attacked Shobach the captain of their army, who died there. And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were beaten before Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more. And it came about, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go out to war, that David sent Joab and his slaves with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David still remained at Jerusalem. And it came about at sunset, that David got up from off his bed and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. And David sent and asked about the woman. And one replied, is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the woman of Uriah the Hittite?

And David sent messengers and took her; and she came in unto him, and he slept with her because she was purified from her uncleanness: and she then returned to her house. And the woman conceived, and sent and told David and said, I am pregnant with child. Then David sent to Joab saying, send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David. And when Uriah was come to him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered. And David said to Uriah, go down to your house and wash your feet. And Uriah left the king's house, and there followed him a portion of food from the king. But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the slaves of his master, and went not down to his own house. And they declare to David saying, Uriah has not gone down to his house; and David said to Uriah, have you not come from a journey? Why have you not gone down to your own house? And Uriah replied to David, the Ark, Israel and Judah, remain in tents; and my master Joab, and the slaves of my master, are encamped in the open fields; so will I then go into my own house, to eat and to drink, and to sleep with my woman? As you live, and as your life exists, I will not do this thing. And David said to Uriah, stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you leave. So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next. And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at sunset he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his master, but went not down to his own house. And it came about in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah. And he wrote in the letter saying, set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and then retire yourself from him so that he may be killed and die.

And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah to a place where he knew that mighty men were. And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the slaves of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also. Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; And charged the messenger saying, when you have made an end of telling the matters of the war to the king, and if so be that the king's anger arises, and he says to you, why did you approach so close to the city when you fought? Do not you know that they would shoot from the wall? Who killed Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall so that he died in Thebez? So why did you go near the wall? Then you will reply, your slave Uriah the Hittite is dead also. So the messenger went and came and reported to David all that Joab had sent him for. And the messenger said to David, certainly the men prevailed against us, and came out to us into the field, and we were upon them even to the entering of the gate.

And the shooters shot from off the wall upon your slaves; and some of the king's slaves are dead, and your slave Uriah the Hittite is dead also. Then David replied to the messenger, this is what you will say to Joab, let not this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another: make your battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it; and you encourage him. And when the woman of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband. And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his woman and gendered him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil to YHWH. And YHWH sent Nathan to David. And he came to him and said to him, there were two men in one city; the one rich and the other poor. The rich man had exceedingly many flocks and herds: But the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb that he had bought and nourished up. And it grew up together with him and with his children; it did eat of his own food, and drank of his own cup and lay in his bosom, and was to him as a daughter. And there came a traveler to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come to him. But took instead the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him. And David's nostrils flared greatly against the man and he said to Nathan, as YHWH lives, the man that had done this thing will certainly die! And he will restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing and because he had no pity.

And Nathan said to David, You are that man! Thus declares YHWH Elohim of Israel, I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul; And I gave you your master's house, and your master's women into your bosom, and gave you the House of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given to you such and such things. Therefore you have despised the commandment of YHWH, to do evil in his sight? You have killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his woman to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the children of Ammon. Now therefore the sword will never depart from your house; because you have despised me, and have taken the woman of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife. Thus says YHWH, See, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house, and I will take your women before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your women in the sight of this sun. Because you did it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. And David replied to Nathan, I have sinned against YHWH. And Nathan said to David, YHWH also has passed over your sin so that you will not die. But because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of YHWH to blaspheme, the child also that is gendered to you will certainly die. And Nathan left his house. And YHWH struck the child that Uriah's woman gendered to David, and it was very sick. David therefore requested of Elohim for the child; and David fasted and went in, and lay all night upon the ground. And the elders of his house got up and went to him, to raise him up from the ground: but he would not, neither did he eat food with them. And it came about on the seventh day that the child died.

Chapter 12

Chapter 12

And the slaves of David feared to tell him that the child was dead. Because they thought, look, while the child was still alive, we spoke to him and he would not listen to our voice: how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead? But when David saw that his slaves whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said to his slaves, is the child dead? And they replied, he is dead. Then David got up from the ground and washed and anointed himself, and changed his clothes, and came into the House of YHWH and worshiped: then he came to his own house and when he asked, they set food before him and he did eat. Then said his slaves to him, what thing is this that you have done? You did fast and weep for the child while it was alive; but when the child is dead, you did get up and eat food. And he replied, while the child was still alive, I fasted and wept because I thought, who can tell whether Elohim will be gracious to me so that the child may live? But now he is dead, therefore should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me. And David comforted Bathsheba his woman, and went in unto her, and slept with her: and she gendered another son, and he called his name Solomon: and YHWH loved him. And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah (beloved of YHWH), because of YHWH. And Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon and captured the royal city.

And Joab sent messengers to David and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have captured the city of waters. Now therefore gather the remnant of the people together, and encamp against the city and capture it: unless I take the city and it is called after my name. So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, and fought against it and captured it. And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight of it was a talent [75 pounds] of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head. And he brought out the plunder of the city in great abundance. And he brought out the people that were there, and put them under saws, and under iron hoes, and under iron axes, and made them pass through the brick-kiln: and so did he to all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned to Jerusalem. And it came about after this, that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar because she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to do anything to her. But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtle man. And he said to him, why are you, being the king's son, weakly from day to day? Will you not tell me? And Amnon replied to him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. Then Jonadab replied to him, lay down on your bed and make yourself as sick. And when your dad comes to see you, say to him, I ask you, let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and dress the meat in my sight so that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

So Amnon lay down, and made himself as sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said to the king, I ask you, let Tamar my sister come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight so that I may eat at her hand. Then David sent home to Tamar saying, go now to your brother Amnon's house, and dress him some meat. So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes. And she took a pan and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, have all the men go out from me. And they went out every man from him. Then Amnon said to Tamar, bring the food into the room so that I may eat from your hand. And Tamar took the cakes that she had made, and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother. And when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, come sleep with me my sister. And she answered him, no my brother, do not force me because no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not these profane actions. And I, where will I cause my shame to go? And as for you, you will be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I beg you, speak to the king for he will not withhold me from you. But he would not listen to her voice: but, being stronger than her, he raped and lay with her. Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, get up and be gone.

And she replied to him, there is no reason, for this bad in sending me away is greater than the other that you did to me. But he would not listen to her. Then he called his slave that attended to him and said, now put this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. And she had on a long sleeved garment: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins clothed. Then his slave brought her out, and bolted the door after her. And Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her long sleeved garment of what was on her and laid her hand on her head, and went away crying. And Absalom her brother said to her, has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister: he is your brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained deflowered in her brother Absalom's house. But when king David heard of all these things, he was exceedingly angry. And Absalom spoke to his brother Amnon neither good nor bad because Absalom hated Amnon for raping his sister Tamar. And it came about after two full years that Absalom had sheep-shearers in Baalhazor that is near Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. And Absalom came to the king and said, see now, your slave has sheep-shearers; let the king, I ask you, and his slaves go with your servant. And the king replied to Absalom, no, my son, let us not all now go unless we are chargeable to you. And he made his request again, but he would not go, but he bestowed to him his blessing. Then Absalom said, if not, I ask you, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said to him, why should he go with you?

But Absalom pressed him so that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. Now Absalom had commanded his slaves saying, observe you now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, strike Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have I not commanded you? Be courageous, and be strong. And the slaves of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons got up, and every man mounted his mule and fled. And it came about, while they were on the journey, that reports came to David saying, Absalom has killed all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left. Then the king got up and tore his clothes, and lay on the ground; and all his slaves stood by with their clothes torn. And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, let not my master suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons. Because Amnon only is dead, for by the mouth of Absalom this had been determined from the day that he raped his sister Tamar. Now therefore let not my master the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead because Amnon only is dead. But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes and looked, and lo, there came many people by the road of the hillside behind him. And Jonadab said to the king, look, the king's sons come as your slave said, so it is.

And it came about, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that lo, the king's sons came and lifted up their voices and wept: and the king also and all his slaves wept very greatly. But Absalom fled and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day. So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there for three years. And the heart of King David longed to go out to Absalom, because he was consoled concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead. Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived how the king's heart was toward Absalom. And Joab sent to Tekoah, and got from there a wise woman and said to her, I ask you, pretend yourself to be a mourner and put on now some mourning apparel. And do not anoint yourself with oil, but be as a woman that has for a long time mourned the dead: And come to the king and speak this way to him. So Joab put the words to say in her mouth. And when the woman of Tekoah spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and did homage and said, help O king. And the king replied to her, what bothers you? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman and my husband is dead. And your female slave had two sons, and they both struggled together in the field, and there was none to separate them, but the one struck the other and killed him. And see, the whole family has risen against your female slave, and they said, deliver him that killed his brother so that we may kill him, for the life of his brother who he killed; and we will destroy the heir also and so they will quench my coal that is left, and will not leave to my husband neither name nor remnant upon the land. And the king said to the woman, go to your house and I will give orders concerning you. And the woman of Tekoah replied to the king, my master O king, the depravity is on me and on my dad's house: and the king and his throne are innocent. And the king replied, whoever says something to you, bring him to me and he will not touch you anymore. Then she replied, I ask you, let the king remember YHWH Elohim, that you would not permit the avenger of blood to destroy anymore, unless they destroy my son. And he replied, as YHWH lives, there will not one hair of your son fall to the ground. Then the woman said, let your female slave, I ask you, speak one word to my master the king. And he replied, speak on. And the woman said, therefore then have you thought such a thing against the people of Elohim? For the king does speak this thing as one that is faulty, in that the king does not return home again his own banished one. Because we must needs die, and are as water spilled on the ground that cannot be gathered up again; neither does Elohim respect any person: still he does devise means that his banished are not expelled from him. And now that I have come to speak to the king my master this word, it is because the people made me afraid. And your female slave says, let me speak, I ask you to the king; it may be the king will perform the request of his female slave. Because the king will hear, to rescue his female slave out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of Elohim.

Then your female slave said, the word of my master the king will now be a resting-place, for as an Angel of Elohim, so is my master the king to discern good and bad: therefore YHWH Elohim will be with you. Then the king answered and said to the woman, conceal not from me; I ask you, the thing that I will ask you. And the woman replied, let my master the king now speak. And the king said, is not the hand of Joab with you in all this? And the woman answered and said, as you exist, my master the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my master the king has spoken. Because your slave Joab, he charged me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your female slave. In order to bring around the appearance of this thing has your slave Joab done this thing, and my master is wise, according to the wisdom of an Angel of Elohim, to know all that is in the land. And the king said to Joab, see now, I have done this thing so go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom. And Joab fell to the ground on his face and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab replied, today your slave knows that I have found favor in your sight, my master O king, in that the king has fulfilled the request of his slave. So Joab got up and went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. But the king said, let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and did not see the king's face. But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for being handsome: from the sole of his feet even to the crown of his head there was no defect in him. And when he cut his hair, (because it was at every year's end that he cut it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he cut it) he weighed the hair of his head at 200 shekels [5 pounds] after the king's weight.

And to Absalom there were gendered three sons and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of beautiful appearance. So Absalom resided two full years in Jerusalem and did not see the king's face. Then Absalom sends for Joab, to send him to the king, and he was not willing to come to him; and he sent again a second time for him and he was not willing to come. Therefore he said to his slaves, See, Joab's field is near mine and he has barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's slaves set the field on fire. Then Joab got up and came to Absalom to his house, and said to him, why have your slaves set my field on fire? And Absalom answered Joab, see, I sent for you saying, come here so that I may send you to the king to say, why am I come from Geshur? It had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face and if there is any depravity in me, let him kill me. So Joab came to the king and told him, and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king hugged Absalom. And it came about after this, that Absalom prepared himself chariots and horses, and 50 men to run before him. And Absalom got up early and stood beside the roadway of the gate: and it was so, that when anyone that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called to him and said, of what city are you from? And he replied, your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel. And Absalom said to him, see, your matters are good and right; but there is no man from the king to give you a hearing.

Absalom continued to say, oh that I were made a judge in the land so that everyone that has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do him justice. And it was so, that when anyone came near to him to bow down, he put out his hand, and took him and hugged him. And on this way did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the people of Israel. And it came about after 40 years that Absalom said to the king, I ask you, let me go and pay my votive-offering that I have vowed to YHWH in Hebron. Because your slave vowed a votive-offering while I stayed at Geshur in Syria saying, if YHWH will bring me back again to Jerusalem, then I will serve YHWH. And the king said to him, go in peace. So he got up and went to Hebron. But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel saying, as soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you will declare, Absalom reigns in Hebron. And with Absalom have gone 200 men out of Jerusalem, invited ones, and they went in their innocence, knowing nothing of his designs. And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong because the people increased continually with Absalom. And there came a messenger to David saying, the hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

And David said to all his slaves that were with him at Jerusalem, arise, and let us flee or none of us will escape from Absalom. Quickly hurry to leave, unless he overtakes us suddenly, and brings bad upon us, and attacks the city with the edge of the sword. And the king's slaves replied to the king, look; your slaves are ready to do whatever my master the king will appoint. And the king went out and his entire household after him. But the king left ten women that were concubines, for housekeeping the home. And the king went out, and all the people after him and stayed in a place that was far off. And all his slaves passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, 600 men that came after him from Gath, passed on before the king. Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, why do you go with us? Return to your place and stay with the king, because you are a foreigner and also an exile. It was only the other day you were with us, so why have I moved you to go with us, and I am going on to where I am going! Turn back now and take back your kinsmen with you; kindness and truth be with you. And Ittai answered the king and said, as YHWH lives, and as my master the king lives, certainly in what place my master the king will be, whether in death or life, even there also will be your slave. So David replied to Ittai, go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him. And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the Wadi Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the uninhabited land.

And lo Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the Ark of the Covenant of Elohim: and they set down the Ark of Elohim; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had finished passing out of the city. And the king said to Zadok, carry back the Ark of Elohim into the city: if I will find favor in the eyes of YHWH, he will bring me back again and show me both it, and his abode of shepherds. But if he now says, I have no delight in you; look, here I am, let him do to me as seems good to him. The king said also to Zadok the priest, are you not a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. See, I will stay in the plain of the uninhabited land, until there comes word from you to report to me. Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the Ark of Elohim back again to Jerusalem and they remained there. And David went up by the ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered and he went barefoot: and all the people that were with him covered everyone their head, and they went up weeping as they ascended. And one told David saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David replied, O YHWH, I pray you, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness. And it came about that when David had come to the top of the Mount of Olives, where he worshiped Elohim, lo,

Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn, and dirt upon his head: To whom David said, if you pass on with me then you will be a burden to me:

But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, I will be your slave, O king; as I have been your dad's slave before, so I will now also be your slave: then you may for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel. And have you not there with you Zadok and Abiathar the priests? Therefore it will be, that whatever you will hear out of the king's house, you will tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. Look, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them you will send to me everything that you can hear. So Hushai David's friend came into the city and Absalom came into Jerusalem. And when David was a little past the top of the hill, lo, Ziba the slave of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of donkeys saddled, and upon them 200 loaves of bread and 100 bunches of raisins, and 100 of summer fruits and a bottle of wine. And the king said to Ziba, what do you intend by these? And Ziba replied, the donkeys are for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine for such as are faint in the wilderness, that they may drink. And the king replied, and where is your master's son? And Ziba said to the king, see, he remains in Jerusalem because he said, today will the House of Israel restore to me the kingdom of my dad. Then said the king to Ziba, look, yours are all that pertained to Mephibosheth. And Ziba replied, I humbly ask you that I may find favor in your sight, my master O king. And when king David came to Bahurim, lo, there came out a man from the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he came out, and cursed as he came. And he cast stones at David, and at all the slaves of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

And Shimei said this when he cursed, come out, come out, you bloody man, and you man of Belial. YHWH has returned upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and YHWH has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son: and look, you are taken in your mischief, because you are a bloody man. Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah to the king, why should this dead dog curse my master the king? Let me go over, I ask you, and take off his head. And the king replied, what have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because YHWH had said to him, curse David. Who will then say, why have you done so? And David replied to Abishai, and to all his slaves, see, my son that came out of my bowels, seeks my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? Leave him alone and let him curse because YHWH has commanded him. It may be that YHWH will look on my affliction, and that YHWH will repay me good for his cursing this day. And as David and his men went by the road, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust. And the king arrived, and all the people who are with him, wearied, and they are refreshed there. And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem and Ahithophel with him. And it came about, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend was come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, Elohim save the king, Elohim save the king.

But Absalom replied to Hushai, is this your kindness to your friend?

Why did you not go with your friend? And Hushai replied to Absalom, no; but whom YHWH and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his I will be and with him will I remain. And again, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in your dad's presence, so I will be in your presence. Then Absalom replied to Ahithophel, give counsel among you what we will do. And Ahithophel said to Absalom, go in unto your dad's concubines that he has left for housekeeping the home; and all Israel will hear that you are abhorred of your dad: then will the hands of all that are with you be strong. So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his dad's concubines in the sight of all Israel. And the counsel of Ahithophel that he counseled in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the oracle [Urim-Thummim] of Elohim: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom. Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, let me now choose out 12,000 men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night. And I will come on him while he is weary and weak handed, and will rout the army: and all the people that are with him will flee, and I will strike the king only. And I will bring back all the people to you: it is the life of only one man you are pursuing after, so all the people will be at peace.

And the words pleased Absalom well and all the Elders of Israel. Then Absalom said, call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he has to say. Then when Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him saying, Ahithophel has spoken this way, will we follow his words? (and if not) then speak yourself. And Hushai replied to Absalom, the counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good at this time.

Because, said Hushai, you know your dad and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are bitter in their minds as a bear robbed of her cubs in the field: and your dad is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. Look, he is now hidden in some cave, or in some other place: and it will come about, when some of them are overthrown in the first engagement that whoever hears it will say, there is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom. And he also that is mighty, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will dissolve because all Israel knows that your dad is a mighty man, and they that are with him are strong men. Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that you go to battle yourself. So will we come upon him in some place where he will be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falls on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there will not be left so much as one. Moreover, if he is taken into a city then will all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there is not one small stone found there.

And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, the counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. Because YHWH had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that YHWH might bring bad upon Absalom. Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, this and that did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the Elders of Israel; and this and that have I counseled. Now therefore send quickly, and tell David saying, do not remain this night in the fords of the wilderness, but quickly pass over; unless the king is swallowed up, and all the people that are with him. And Jonathan and Ahimaaz are standing at En-Rogel, and a slave girl has gone and declared to them, and they go and have declared it to king David, because they are not able to be seen to go into the city. Nevertheless a boy saw them and told Absalom, but both of them went away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim that had a well in his court, where they descended to. And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread grain on it, and the thing was not known. And when Absalom's slaves came to the woman to the house, they said, where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman replied to them, they are gone over the water brook. And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. And it came about, after they were departed that they came up out of the well, then went and told king David and said to him, get up and pass quickly over the river, for this is what Ahithophel counseled against you. Then David got up and all the people that were with him, and they passed over the Jordan River and by the morning light there was missing not one of them that had not gone over the Jordan River. And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey, got up, and made his way back home to his house, to his city and put his household in order, and then hanged himself and died and was buried in the tomb of his father.

Then David came to Mahanaim and Absalom passed over the Jordan River, he and all the men of Israel with him. And Absalom made Amasa captain of the army instead of Joab: that Amasa was a man's son, whose name was Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother. So Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead. And it came about, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, brought beds, bowls, and earthen vessels, and wheat, barley, flour, parched grain, beans, lentiles, parched grains, honey, butter, sheep, and cheese from the herd for David and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, the people are hungry, weary and thirsty, in the uninhabited land. Then David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. And David sent out one-third part of the people under the hand of Joab and one-third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one-third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, I will certainly go out with you myself also. But the people answered, you will not go out, because if we flee away, they will not care about us, neither if half of us die, will they care about us: but now you are worth 10,000 of us. Therefore it is better now that you help us out of the city. And the king replied to them, what seems best to you I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

And the king commanded Joab, Abishai and Ittai, saying, deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim; where the people of Israel were killed before the slaves of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of 20,000 men. Because the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured. And Absalom encountered the slaves of David and Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak tree and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the sky and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away. And a certain man saw it and told Joab saying, look, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree. And Joab said to the man that told him, and lo, you saw him and why did you not strike him there to the ground? And I would have given you ten shekels [four ounces] of silver and a belt. And the man replied to Joab, though I should receive 1000 shekels [25 pounds] of silver in my hand, still I would not put out my hand against the king's son. Because in our hearing the king charged you, Abishai and Ittai saying, beware that no one strike the young man Absalom. Otherwise I should have brought wrong against my own life because there is no matter hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me. Then Joab replied, I would not be wasting time here with you. So he took three darts in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was still alive in the middle of the oak tree.

And ten young men that carried Joab's armor encircled around and struck Absalom and killed him. Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel, for Joab held back the people. And they took Absalom and cast him into a great cave in the forest, and laid a very great heap of stones on him: and all Israel fled everyone to his tent. Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar that is in the king's valley. Because he said, I have no son to keep my name in memory, and he called the pillar after his own name and it is called to this day, Absalom's monument. Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, let me now run and bear the king the news, how that YHWH has avenged him of his enemies. But Joab replied to him, you will not carry the news this day, but you will carry the news another day: but this day you will carry no news, because the king's son is dead. Then Joab said to Cushi, go tell the king what you have seen. And Cushi bowed himself to Joab and ran. And Ahimaaz son of Zadok adds again, and says to Joab, and whatever it is, let me run I beg you, I too after the Cushite. And Joab replied, why do you desire to run my son, because for you there is no news found? But for the good news he said, let me run. And he replied to him, run, then Ahimaaz ran by the road of the plain, and overran Cushi. And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate to the wall, and lifted up his eyes looking observed a man running alone.

And the watchman cried and told the king. And the king said, if he is alone there is good news in his mouth. And the man drew closer and closer. And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, look, another man running alone. And the king replied, he also brings news. And the watchman said, I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king replied, he is a good man and comes with good news. And Ahimaaz called and said to the king, all is well. And he fell down to the ground upon his face before the king and said, blessed is YHWH Elohim that has delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my master the king. And the king replied, is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, when Joab sent the king's slaves and me your servant, I saw a great roar, but I knew not what it was about. And the king replied to him, turn aside and stand here. And he turned aside and stood still. And look, Cushi came and Cushi said, good news my master the king, because YHWH has avenged you this day of all those that rose up against you. And the king replied to Cushi, is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, the enemies of my master the king and all that rise against you to do you hurt, are as that young man is. And the king was greatly trembling, and went up to the room over the gate and wept: and as he went he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would Elohim I had died for you, O Absalom, my son, my son! And it was told Joab, see, the king cries and morns for Absalom.

And the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people, because the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son. And the people stole away that day into the city, as people steal away when ashamed of escaping in battle. But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son! And Joab came into the house to the king and said, you have shamed this day the faces of all your slaves that this day have saved your life, and the lives of your sons and of your daughters, and the lives of your women and the lives of your concubines; In that you loved your enemies and hated your friends. Because you have declared this day, that you regard neither chiefs nor slaves: because this day I perceive that if Absalom had lived, and all of us had died this day, then it would have pleased you well. Now therefore get up, go out and speak favorably to your slaves: because I adjure by YHWH, if you do not go out, there will not remain one with you this night: and that will be worse for you than all the bad that befell you from your youth until now. Then the king got up and sat in the gate. And they said to all the people saying, see, the king does sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: because Israel had fled everyone to his tent. And all the people were vindicated throughout all the tribes of Israel saying, the king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he rescued us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is escaped out of the land because of Absalom. And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why speak you not a word of bringing the king back? And King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests saying, speak to the Elders of Judah saying, and why are you the last to bring back the king to his house? (And the word of all Israel has come to the king, to his house;)

you are my kinsmen, you are my bones and my flesh, why then are you the last to bring back the king? And tell you to Amasa, are you not of my bone and of my flesh? Elohim do so to me, and more also, if you are not captain of the army before me continually in the room of Joab. And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word to the king, return you, and all your slaves. So the king returned and came to the Jordan River. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king and to carry the king over the Jordan River. And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, that was of Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. And there were 1000 men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the slave of the house of Saul, and his 15 sons and his 20 slaves with him; and they went over Jordan before the king. And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought well. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over the Jordan River; And said to the king, let not my master impute depravity to me, neither do you remember what your slave did perversely the day that my master the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. Because your slave does know that I have sinned: therefore see, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my master the king. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, will not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed YHWH's anointed?

But David replied, what have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be adversaries to me? Will there be anyone put to death this day in Israel? Because do not I know that I am king over Israel this day? Therefore the king said to Shimei, you will not die. And the king adjured this to him. And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king left until the day he came back in peace. And it came about, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king that the king said to him, why did you not come with me Mephibosheth? And he answered, my master O king, my slave deceived me, because your slave said, I will saddle me a donkey so that I may ride on it and go to the king; because your slave is lame. And he has slandered your slave to my master the king; but my master the king is as an Angel of Elohim: do therefore what is good in your eyes. Because my dad's entire house was but dead men before my master the king: still you did set your slave among them that did eat at your own table. What right therefore have I still to cry any more to the king? And the king replied to him, why do you speak any more of your matters? I have said, you and Ziba divide the land. And Mephibosheth replied to the king, yes, the whole let him take, after that my master the king has come in peace to his house. And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to send him over the Jordan River.

Now Barzillai was a very old man, even 80 years of age and he had provided the king with sustenance while he lay up at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. And the king said to Barzillai, come over with me and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem. But Barzillai replied to the king, how long have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? I am this day 80 years old, and can I discern between good and bad? Can your slave taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear anymore the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your slave be still a burden to my master the king? Your slave will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king repay me with such a reward? Let your slave, I ask you, turn back again so that I may die in my own city, and be buried by the grave of my dad and my mother. But see your slave Chimham; let him go over with my master the king; and do to him what will seem good to you. And the king answered, Chimham will go over with me, and I will do to him what will seem good to you, and whatever you will require of me, that I will do for you. And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king came over, the king hugged Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own place. Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him:

and all the people of Judah brought over the king, and also half the people of Israel. And look, all the men of Israel came to the king and said to the king, why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and have brought the king and his household, and all David's men with him, over the Jordan River?

And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, because the king is near of kin to us: why then are you angry for this matter? Have we eaten at all of the king's provisions? Or has he given us any gift? And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, we have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than you: why then did you despise us, that our advice should not be primary in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel. And there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet and said, we have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: everyone to his tents, O Israel. So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah allied themselves to their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem. Then David came to his house at Jerusalem and the king took the ten women concubines, who he had left for housekeeping the home, and put them in a ward and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood. Then the king said to Amasa, assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and you be here present. So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah, but he delayed longer than the set time that he had appointed him. And David said to Abishai, now will Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom so take you your master's slaves, and pursue after him unless he secures himself fenced cities and escapes us. And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. When they were at the great stone that is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded to him, and upon it a belt with a sword fastened on his hips in its sheath, and as he went it fell out.

Chapter 20

Chapter 20

And Joab said to Amasa, are you in health, my brother? And Joab grasped Amasa by the beard with the right hand to hug him. But Amasa took no notice to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he struck him with it in the fifth rib, and spilled out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. And one of Joab's men stood by him and said, he that favors Joab and he that is for David, let him follow Joab. And Amasa wallowed in blood in the middle of the roadway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the road into the field, and cast a cloth over him, when he saw that everyone that came by him stood still. When he was removed out of the roadway, all the people proceeded on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Bethmaachah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and proceeded also after him. And they came and besieged him in Abel of Bethmaachah, and they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood by the rampart: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down. Then a wise woman cried out from the city, hear, hear; say, I ask you Joab, come here closer so that I may speak with you. And when he was come close to her, the woman said, are you Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she replied to him, hear the words of your maid-servant, and he answered, I will hear. And she spoke saying, they spoke often in former times saying, let them diligently ask at Abel, and so they finished.

I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: you seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why will you swallow up the inheritance of YHWH? And Joab answered and said, far be it, far be it from me that I should swallow up or destroy. The matter is not so: but a man of Mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only and I will depart from the city. And the woman said to Joab, look, his head will be thrown to you over the wall. Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king. Now Joab was over all the army of Israel: and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites. And Adoram was over the forced labor: and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder: And Sheva was secretary: and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests: And Ira the Jairite was also David's priest. Then there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of YHWH. And YHWH answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he killed the Gibeonites. And the king called the Gibeonites and said to them, (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel but of the remnant of the Amorites. And the children of Israel had adjured to them:

and Saul desired to kill them in his zeal to the children of Israel (and Judah). Therefore David said to the Gibeonites, what will I do for you? And how shall I make reconciliation that you may bless the inheritance of YHWH? And the Gibeonites replied to him, we will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor from his house; neither for us will you kill any man in Israel. And he said, what do you say, that I will do for you. And they answered the king, the man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the territory of Israel, let seven men of his sons be delivered to us and we will hang them up to YHWH in Gibeah of Saul, whom YHWH did choose. And the king replied, I will give them to you. But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of YHWH's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, who she gendered to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, who she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite: And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before YHWH: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest. And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of the sky. And permitted neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the animals of the field by night. And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul had done. And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabeshgilead that had stolen them from the street of Bethshan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had killed Saul in Gilboa.

And he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged. And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son they buried in the territory of Benjamin in Zelah, in the tomb of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that Elohim was supplicated for the land. Then the Philistines had war again with Israel; and David went down and his slaves with him, and fought against the Philistines and David grew weary. And Ishbibenob that was of the sons of the Rephaim (giants), the weight of whose spear weighed 300 shekels [7 1/2 pounds] of brass in weight, he being belted with a new sword, intended to have killed David. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him and struck the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David adjured to him saying, you will go no more out with us to battle so that you quench not the Lamp of Israel. And it came about after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Saph that was of the sons of the Rephaim (giants). And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaareoregim, a Bethlehemite, killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. And there was still again a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, 24 in number; and he also was gendered of the Rephaim (giants). And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea the brother of David killed him. These four were gendered of the Rephaim (giants) in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his slaves.

And David spoke to YHWH the words of this song in the day that YHWH had rescued him out of the hand from all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. And he said, YHWH is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; The Elohim of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my place of escape, my savior; you saved me from violence. I will call on YHWH, who is worthy to be praised: so will I be delivered from my enemies. When the waves of death surrounded me, the Wadi of Belial (worthless) terrified me; The cords of Sheol surrounded me; the snares of death confronted me; In my distress I called upon YHWH, and cried to my Elohim: and he did hear my voice out of his Sanctuary, and my cry did enter into his ears. Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of the universe moved and shook, because he was angry. There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it. He parted the skies also and descended; and the cloud-mass was under his feet.

And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: and he was perceived upon the corner garments of the prophetic spirit [symbolic of the Urim-Thummim]. And he set the Secret Place around him, the circling violent cloud-mass of the clouds. Through the brightness before him were burning coals of supernatural fire kindled. YHWH thundered from the skies, and the Most High uttered his Voice. And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them. And the ravine of the Red Sea appeared, the foundations of the world were uncovered, at the rebuking of YHWH, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils. He sent from above, he took me; he drew me out of many waters;

He rescued me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me, because they were too strong for me. They confronted me in the day of my calamity: but YHWH was my support. He brought me out also into a large place: he rescued me, because He delighted in me. YHWH repaid me according to my righteousness: according to the cleanness of my hands has he restored me. Because I have observed the ways of YHWH, and have not acted wickedly toward my Elohim. Because all his judgments were before me: and as for his statutes, I did not depart from them. I was also upright before him, and have guarded myself from my depravity. Therefore YHWH has repaid me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness in his sight. With the saints you will show yourself merciful, and with the upright man you will show yourself upright. With the pure you will show yourself pure; and with the crooked you will show yourself twisted. And the afflicted people you will save:

but your eyes are upon the haughty, that you may bring them down. Because you are my lamp, O YHWH: and YHWH will lighten my darkness. For by you I have run through a troop: by my Elohim have I leaped over a wall. As for Elohim, his way is wholesome; the Word of YHWH is refined: he is a shield to all them that seek refuge. Because who is Elohim, except YHWH? And who is a rock [Urim-Thummim], except our Elohim? Elohim is my strength and power: and he makes my way wholesome. He makes my feet like deer's feet: and sets me upon my high place. He teaches my hands to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by my arms. You have also given me the shield of your salvation: and your gentleness has made me great. You have enlarged my steps under me; so that my feet did not slip. I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them; and turned not again until I had consumed them. And I have consumed them and wounded them so that they could not arise: yes, they are fallen under my feet. Because you have girded me with strength to battle: those that rose up against me have you subdued under me. You have also given me the necks of my enemies so that I might destroy them that hate me. They looked, but there were none to rescue; even to YHWH, but he answered them not. Then I did beat them as small as the dust of the earth, I did stamp them as the mire of the street, and did spread them abroad. You also have delivered me from the disputes of my people, you have retained me to be head of the heathen: a people that I knew not will serve me. Foreigners will submit themselves to me: as soon as they hear, they will be obedient to me. Foreigners will fade away, and gird themselves by their close places. YHWH lives; and blessed is my rock [Urim-Thummim]; and exalted is Elohim of the rock of my salvation. It is Elohim that avenges me, and that brings down the people under me. And that brings me out from my enemies: you also have lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me:

you have rescued me from the violent man. Therefore I will give thanks to you, O YHWH, among the heathen, and I will sing praises to your Name. He is the tower of salvation for his king: and shows mercy to his anointed, to David and to his descendants for the ages. Now these are the last words of David. David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the Elohim of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel revealed, The Spirit of YHWH spoke by me (through Urim-Thummim), and his Word was in my tongue. The Elohim of Israel avowed, the Rock (Urim-Thummim) of Israel spoke to me, He that reigns over mankind must be righteous, ruling in the fear of Elohim. And he will be as the light of the morning, when the sun rises, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain. Although my house is not so with Elohim [pertaining to the priesthood]; still He has made with me an Age-Lasting Covenant [like the Covenant of Levi], ordered in all things, and certain: because this is all my salvation, and all my desire, will he not make it grow. But the sons of Belial will be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands: But the man that will touch them must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear; and they will be utterly burnt with fire in the same place. These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite: he lifted up his spear against 800, whom he killed at one time. And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with

David, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:

He arose and attacked the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand froze to the sword: and YHWH accomplished a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to plunder. And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where there was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the Philistines. But he stood in the middle of the ground, and defended it, and killed the Philistines: and YHWH accomplished a great victory. And three of the 30 chiefs went down and came to David in the harvest time to the Cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines camped in the Valley of Rephaim (giants). And David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. And David longed and said; oh that one would give me drink from the waters of the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate! And the three mighty men broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem (that was by the gate), and took it and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out unto YHWH. And he said, far be it from me O YHWH, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? Therefore he would not drink it.

These things did these three mighty men. And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among the three. And he lifted up his spear against 300, and killed them, and had a name among the three. Was he not most honorable of the three? therefore he was their captain: but he attained not to the first three. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a mighty man, of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he killed two lion-like men of Moab: he went down also and killed a lion in the middle of a cave in a time of snow: And he killed an Egyptian, a spectacular man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three mighty men. He was more honorable than the 30, but he attained not to the first three. And David set him over his guard. Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the 30;

Elhanan th e son of D odo of Bethlehem, Shammah the Harradine, Elika the Harodite, Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, A biezer the Anethothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite, Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, Hel eb the son of Baanah, a Netophathite, It tai the son of Ribai out of Gibeah from the child ren of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash, Abialbon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhu mite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, of the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite, Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite, Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armor-bearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah, Ira an Ithrite, Gareb an Ithrite, Uriah the Hittite: 37 in all. And again the nostrils of YHWH flared against Israel, and he moved David against them to say, go number Israel and Judah. Because the king said to Joab the captain of the army that was with him, go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number you the people so that I may know the number of the people. And Joab replied to the king, now YHWH Elohim add to the people, how many whatever they be, a hundred-fold, and that the eyes of my master the king may see it: but why does my master the king delight in this thing? But the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the army. So Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel. And they passed over the Jordan River and camped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that lies among the Wadi of Gad, and toward Jazer: Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtimhodshi; and they came to Danjaan, and around to Zidon, And came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beersheba. So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and 20 days. And Joab revealed the sum of the number of the people to the king: and there were in Israel 800,000 mighty men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were 500,000 men. And David's heart chastised him after he had numbered the people.

And David said to YHWH, I have sinned greatly in what I have done: and now, I beseech you O YHWH, take away the depravity of your slave because I have done very foolishly. Because when David was up in the morning, the Word of YHWH came to the prophet Gad, David's seer saying, Go and say to David, this is what YHWH says, I offer you three things so choose yourself one of them, that I may do it to you. So Gad came to David and told him, and said to him, Will seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your enemies, while they pursue you? Or that there are three day's pestilence in your land? Now advise, and see what answer I will return to him that sent me. Then David replied to Gad, I am in a great turmoil: let us fall now into the hand of YHWH, because his mercies are great: and let me not fall into the hand of man. So YHWH sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba 70,000 people. And when the Angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, YHWH regretted himself of the bad, and said to the Angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: refrain now your hand. And the Angel of YHWH was by the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite. And David spoke to YHWH when he saw the Angel that attacked the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray you, be against me and against my dad's house. And Gad came that day to David and said to him, go up, rear an Altar to YHWH in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite. And David, according to the words of Gad, went up as YHWH commanded. And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his slaves coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

And Araunah said, why is my master the king come to his slave? And David replied, to buy the threshing-floor from you, to build an Altar to YHWH, that the plague might be refrained from the people. Then Araunah replied to David, let my master the king take and offer up what seems good to him: see, here are the oxen for a whole Burnt-Offerings, and threshing instruments and the yokes of the oxen for wood. All these things did Araunah (as a king), give to the king. And Araunah said to the king, YHWH Elohim accept you. And the king replied to Araunah, no, but I will certainly buy it from you at a price: neither will I offer whole Burnt-Offerings to YHWH Elohim of what costs me nothing. So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for 50 shekels [1 1/4th pounds] of silver. And David built there an Altar to YHWH, and offered whole Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings. So YHWH was supplicated for the land and the plague was refrained from Israel. Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with blankets, but he could not keep warm. Therefore his slaves said to him, let there be found for my master the king a young virgin: and let her remain with the king, and let her serve him, and let her lie in your bosom so that my master the king may get warm.

So they searched for a beautiful girl within all the territory of Israel, finding Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king. And the girl was very beautiful, and served the king and attended to him: but the king never had sexual relations with her. Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself saying, I will be king: and he prepared himself chariots and horsemen, and 50 men to run before him. And his dad had not displeased him at any time in saying, why have you done so? and he also was a very agreeable man; and his mother gendered him after Absalom. And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they followed Adonijah and helped him. But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men that belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. Then Adonijah slaughtered sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth that is by Enrogel, and called all his kinsmen the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's slaves: But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he did not call. Therefore Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon saying, have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith does reign, and David our master does not know about it? Now therefore come, let me, I ask you, give you counsel so that you may save your own life, and the life of your son Solomon. Go and get you in unto king David and say to him, did you not my master O king, adjurer to your maid-servant saying, assuredly Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne? Why then does Adonijah reign? Look, while you still talk there with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words.

Then Bathsheba went in unto the king to the parlor, and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite attended to the king. And Bathsheba bowed, and did homage to the king. And the king said, what would you like? And she replied to him, my master, you adjured by YHWH Elohim to your maid-servant saying, assuredly Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne. And now, look, Adonijah reigns; and now my master the king does not know about it. And he has slaughtered oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and has called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the army: but Solomon your servant he has not called. And you my master O king, the eyes of all Israel are on you so that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my master the king after him. Otherwise it will come to pass, when my master the king will be laid to rest with his forefathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted as offenders. And lo, while she still talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in. And they told the king saying, see, Nathan the prophet.

And when he had come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. And Nathan said, my master O king, have you declared that Adonijah will reign after you and that he will sit on your throne? Because he has gone down this day, and has slaughtered oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king's sons, and the captains of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and look, they eat and drink before him and say, Elohim save king Adonijah. But me, even me your servant and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon, has he not called. Is this thing done by my master the king, and have you not showed it to your slave, who should sit on the throne of my master the king after him? Then king David answered and said, call to me Bathsheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king. And the king adjured and declared, as YHWH lives, that has ransomed my life out of all distress, even as I adjure to you by YHWH Elohim of Israel saying, assuredly Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne in my place; even so will I certainly do this day. Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, and did homage to the king and said, let my master king David live for the ages. And king David said, call to me Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. The king also said to them, take with you the slaves of your master, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon: And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel: and blow you with the trumpet and say, Elohim save king Solomon. Then you will come up after him so that he may come and sit on my throne, because he will be king in my place: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, so be it: YHWH Elohim of my master the king declares this so. As YHWH has been with my master the king, even so he will be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my master king David. So Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. And Zadok the priest took a horn of oil out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people declared, Elohim saves king Solomon. And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with flutes and rejoiced with great joy, so that the land burst with the sound of them. And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet he said, why is this noise from the city being in an uproar? And while he still spoke, lo, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said to him, come in; for you are a mighty man, and bring good news.

And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, truly our master king

David has made Solomon king. And the king has sent with him Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule. And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you have heard. And also Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom. And moreover the king's slaves came to bless our master king David saying, Elohim make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed. And also the king said, blessed is YHWH Elohim of Israel that has given one to sit on my throne this day, my eyes even seeing it. And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and got up and went everyone his way. And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and got up and went, and caught hold on the horns of the Altar. And it was told Solomon saying, look, Adonijah fears king Solomon: for lo, he has caught hold on the horns of the Altar saying, let king Solomon adjure to me today that he will not kill his slave with the sword. And Solomon replied, if he will show himself a worthy man, there will not a hair from him fall to the ground:

but if bad will be found in him, he will die. So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the Altar. And he came and bowed himself to King Solomon: and Solomon said to him, go to your house. Now the time of David drew near that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son saying, I go the way of all the earth: you be strong therefore and show yourself a man; And observe the charge of YHWH

Elohim, to walk in his ways, to observe his statutes, commandments, judgments and his testimonies, as it is written in the Torah of Moses. So that you may succeed in all that you do, and in whatever you do and wherever you turn. That YHWH may continue his Word that he spoke concerning me saying, if your children take heed to their way, to walk before me in Truth with all their heart and with all their mind, there will not fail you (said he) a man on the throne of Israel. You also know what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the army of Israel. To Abner the son of Ner and to Amasa the son of Jether, who he killed and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his belt that was around his hips, and in his shoes that were on his feet. Act therefore according to your wisdom, and let not his gray hair go down to the Sheol in peace. But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at your table, because so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom your brother. And see, you have with you Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim that cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim. But he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I adjured to him by YHWH saying, I will not put you to death with the sword. Now therefore hold him not guiltless, because you are a wise man, and know what you should do to him, but his gray hair also bring down to Sheol with blood.

So David rested with his forefathers, and was buried in the city of David. And the days that David reigned over Israel were 40 years: seven years he reigned in Hebron, and 33 years he reigned in Jerusalem. Then Solomon sat on the throne of David his dad; and his kingdom was greatly established. And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she asked, do you come peaceably? And he replied, peaceably. Then he said, I have something to say to you. And she replied, tell me. And he said, you know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me so that I should reign, but the kingdom was turned around and has become my brother's because it was his from YHWH. And now I ask one petition of you, deny me not. And she replied to him, keep speaking. And he said, speak I ask you, to Solomon the king, (for he will not tell you no,) that he grant to me Abishag the Shunammite for my woman. Bathsheba replied, well; I will speak for you to the king. Bathsheba therefore went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king got up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. Then she said, I desire one small petition of you; I ask you, tell me not no.

And the king replied to her, tell me my mother, for I will not tell you no. Then she said, let Abishag the Shunammite be granted to Adonijah your brother for his woman. King Solomon answered and said to his mother, and why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; because he is my elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah. Then king Solomon adjured by YHWH saying, Elohim do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life. Now therefore, as YHWH lives that has established me, and set me on the throne of David my dad, and who has made me a house as he promised, Adonijah will be put to death this day. And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he struck him so that he died. And to Abiathar the priest the king commanded, you depart to Anathoth, to your own fields, because you are worthy of death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you carried the Ark of Adonai YHWH before David my dad. And because you have been afflicted in all that my dad was afflicted. So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest to YHWH; that he might fulfill the Word of YHWH that he spoke concerning the House of Eli in Shiloh. Then news came to Joab, because Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled to the Tabernacle of YHWH, and caught hold on the horns of the Altar. And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled to the Tabernacle of YHWH; and look, he is by the Altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada saying, go, fall upon him. And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of YHWH, and said to him, this is what the king declares, come out. And he replied, no; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word back saying, this is what Joab replied and this is how he answered me. Then the king replied to him, do as he has said and fall upon him, and bury him so that you may take away the innocent blood that Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my dad. And YHWH will return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, my dad David did not know about it. Abner the son of Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the army of Judah.

Their blood will therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for the ages: but on David and upon his seed, his house, and upon his throne, will there be peace for the ages from YHWH. So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell on him and killed him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the army: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar. And the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, and go not out from there anywhere. Because it will be, that on the day you go out, and pass over the Wadi Kidron, you will know for certain that you will certainly die: your blood will be on your own head. Then Shimei replied to the king, the saying is good: as my master the king has spoken, so will your slave do. And Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days. And it came about at the end of three years, that two of the slaves of Shimei ran away to Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei saying, see, your slaves are in Gath. So Shimei got up and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish to find his slaves: and Shimei went and brought back his slaves from Gath. And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come back again. And the ki ng sent and called for Shimei and said to him, did I not make you to adjure by YHWH and solemnly affirmed to you saying, know for certain that on the day you go out, and walk abroad anywhere, that you will certainly die? And you replied to me, the word that I have heard is good. Why then have you not kept the oath of YHWH, and the commandment that I have charged you with? The king also said to Shimei, you know all the wickedness that your heart confessed, what you did to David my dad: therefore YHWH will return your wickedness upon your own head. And King Solomon will be blessed, and the throne of David will be established before YHWH for the ages. So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; that went out and struck him so that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon. And Solomon became the son in law with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her to the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the Temple of YHWH, and the wall of Jerusalem surrounding it. Only the people sacrificed in worship places, because there was no Temple built to the Name of YHWH, until those days. And Solomon loved YHWH, walking in the statutes of David his dad: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in worship places. And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, because that was the great high place: 1000 Burnt-Offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar. In Gibeon YHWH appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and Elohim said, ask what I will give you. And Solomon replied, you have shown to your slave David my dad great mercy, according as he walked before you in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you.

And you have kept for him this great kindness, that you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. And now, O YHWH Elohim, you have made your slave king in place of David my dad, and I am but a young servant: I know not how to go out or come in. And your slave is in the center of your people that you have chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. Give therefore your slave an understanding heart to judge your people so that I may discern between good and bad, for who is able to judge this your great people? And the words pleased Adonai (YHWH), that Solomon had asked this thing. Then Elohim replied to him, because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself a long life; neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies; but have asked for yourself understanding to discern judgment; See, I have done according to your words: lo, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like you before you, neither after you will any arise like unto you. And I have also given you what you have not asked, both riches and honor: so that there will not be any among the kings like you in all your days. And if you will walk in my ways, to observe my statutes and my commandments, as your dad David did walk, then I will lengthen your days.

Then Solomon awoke; and lo, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH, and offered up Burnt-Offerings, and offered Peace-Offerings, and made a banquet for all his slaves. Then there came to the king two women, that were prostitutes, and stood before him. And the one woman said, O my master I and this woman live in one house; and I was delivered of a baby with her in the house. And it came about on the third day after I had delivered, that this woman also delivered too: and we were together; there was no foreigner with us in the house, except only the two of us in the house. And this woman's baby died in the night because she laid over it. And she got up at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your maid-servant slept, and laid it in her bosom, but laid her dead baby in my bosom. And when I got up in the morning to nurse my baby, look, it was dead: but when I had observed it in the morning, lo, it was not my son that I did gender. And the other woman replied, no; but the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son. And she replied, no; but the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son. Thus they spoke before the king. Then the king replied, the one says this one is my son that lives, and your son is the dead one: and the other says, no; but your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one. And the king commanded, bring me a sword.

And they brought a sword before the king. And the king said, divide the living baby in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. Then spoke the woman whose the living baby was to the king, because her bowels yearned for her son, and she begged, O my master, give her the living baby and in no way kill it. But the other replied, let it be neither yours, nor mine, but divide it. Then the king answered and said, give her the living baby, and in no way kill it, because she is the mother. And all Israel heard of the judgment that the king had judged; and they feared the king, because they saw that the Wisdom of Elohim was in him, to do judgment. So king Solomon was king over all Israel. And these were the chiefs that he had; Azariah the son of Zadok the priest, Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army: and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests: And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's friend: And Ahishar was over the household: and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the forced laborers. Solomon also had twelve officers over all Israel that provided supplies for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision. And these are their names: The son of Hur, in Mount

Ephraim: The son of Dekar, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Bethshemesh, and Elonbethhanan: The son of Hesed, in Aruboth; to him pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hepher: The son of Abinadab, in all the region of Dor; which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon for his woman: Baana the son of Ahilud; to him pertained Taanach and Megiddo, and all Bethshean that is by Zartanah beneath Jezreel, from Bethshean to Abelmeholah, even to the area that is beyond Jokneam: The son of Geber, in Ramothgilead; to him pertained the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh that are in Gilead; to him also pertained the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, 60 great cities with walls and bronze bars: Ahinadab the son of Iddo in Mahanaim: Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon for his woman:

Chapter 4

Chapter 4

Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth: Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar: Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin: Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer that was in the land. Judah and Israel were many, as the sand that is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and rejoicing. So Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt: they brought presents and served Solomon all the days of his life. And Solomon’s provision for one day was 30 measures [approx. 185 bushels] of fine flour, and 60 measures [approx. 375 bushels] of meal, ten fat oxen, and 20 oxen out from the pastures, and 100 sheep, besides deer, and gazelle, and roebuck (red deer) , and fatted fowl. Because he had dominion over all the region beyond the river, from Tiphsah even to Azzah, over all the kings beyond the river: and he had peace on all sides surrounding him. And Judah and Israel lived in safety, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

And Solomon had 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots, and 12,000 horsemen. And those officers provided supplies for king Solomon, and for all that came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month. so they lacked nothing. Barley also and straw for the horses and steeds brought they to the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge. And Elohim gave Solomon Wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and expanse of heart, even as the sand that is on the seashore. And Solomon's Wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the East country, and all the wisdom of Egypt. Because he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations surrounding him. And he spoke 3000 proverbs: and his songs were 1005. And he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall: he spoke also of animals and of flying creatures, and of creeping things and of fish. And there came in, of all peoples, to hear the Wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth that had heard of his Wisdom. And Hiram king of Tyre sent his slaves to Solomon, because he had heard that they had anointed him king in place of his dad:

for Hiram had always been a friend of David. And Solomon sent to Hiram saying, you know how that David my dad could not construct a Temple to the Name of YHWH Elohim because of the wars that were around him on every side, until YHWH put them under the soles of his feet. But now YHWH Elohim has given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor distress occurring. Now consider, I purpose to construct a Temple to the Name of YHWH Elohim, as YHWH spoke to David my dad saying, Your son, who I will set upon your royal throne, he will construct a Temple to my Name. Now therefore command that they cut me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my slaves will be with your slaves. And to you I will give wages for your slaves according to all that you will appoint, because you know that there is not one among us that has the skill to cut timber like the Sidonians. And it came about, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon that he rejoiced greatly and said, blessed is YHWH this day that has given to David a wise son over this great people. And Hiram sent word to Solomon saying, I have heard what you have sent to me, I will do all your desires concerning cedar-wood, and fir-wood, my slaves will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. And I will convey them by sea in floats to the place that you will appoint for me, and will cause them to be discharged there. And you will receive them: and you will accomplish my desires, in giving food for my household. So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desires. And Solomon gave Hiram 20,000 measures [125,000 bushels] of wheat for food to his household, and 20,000, measures [115,000 gallons] of pure oil [see also II Chron. 2:10]:

this Solomon gave to Hiram yearly of these things. And YHWH gave Solomon Wisdom, as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they both made an alliance together. Then king Solomon raised a slave gang out of all Israel; and the slave gang was 30,000 men. And he sent them to Lebanon, 10,000 a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Adoniram was over the slave gang. And Solomon had 70,000 that carried loads, and 80,000 who quarried stone in the hill country. Besides Solomon's chief officers that were over the work, 3,300 that ruled over the people that accomplished the work. And the king commanded and they brought great stones, costly stones and quarried stones, to lay the foundation of the Temple. And the builders of Solomon, and the builders of Hiram, and the Giblites quarried, and prepared the wood and the stones to construct the Temple. And it came about in the 480th year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv [April-May], which is the second month, that he began to construct the Temple of YHWH. And the Temple that king Solomon constructed for YHWH, its length was 60 cubits [90 feet], and its width 20 cubits [30 feet], and its height 30 cubits [45 feet]. And the portico in front of the nave of the Temple, 20 cubits [30 feet] was its length, according to the width of the Temple; and ten cubits [15 feet] was the width in front of the Temple. And for the Temple he made windows of narrow lights. And against the wall of the Temple he constructed side-chambers around it, against the walls of the house surrounding it, both of the Temple and of the Holy of Holies: and he made side-chambers surrounding it: The lower chamber was five cubits [7 1/2 feet] wide, and the middle was six cubits [9 feet], and the third was seven cubits [10 1/2 feet]. Because there was a space all around the outside walls of the Temple so that the boards supporting the side-chambers did not have to be affixed to the walls of the Temple. And the Temple, when it was in construction, was built of stone made ready before it was brought there: so that there was neither hammer nor ax nor any tool of iron heard in the Temple, while it was in construction. The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third. So he constructed the Temple and finished it; and covered the Temple with beams and boards of cedar. And he constructed the side-chambers all along the Temple. The height of each was five cubits [7 1/2 feet], and they were attached to the Temple by planks of cedar. And the Word of YHWH came to Solomon saying, Concerning this Temple that you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and institute my judgments, and observe all my commandments to walk in them; then I will perform my Word with you that I spoke to David your dad: And I will live among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel. So Solomon constructed the Temple and finished it. And he ere cted the walls of the Temple on the inside with boards of cedar, both the floor of the Temple, and the walls of the ceiling, and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the Temple with planks of fir. And he erected the 20 cubits [30 feet] on the sides of the Temple with boards of cedar, from the floor to the walls; and he built for it within, for the Holy of Holies, for the Sacred Place. And the house, that is, the Temple, in front of the Sacred Place was 40 cubits [60 feet] long. And the cedar of the Temple inside was carved with ball-shaped open flowers: all was cedar and there was no stone seen. And the Holy of Holies he prepared in the Temple inside, to set there the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH. And before the Holy of Holies is 20 cubits [30 feet] in length, and 20 cubits [30 feet] in width, and 20 cubits [30 feet] is its height; and he overlaid it with refined gold, and overlaid the Altar with cedar. So Solomon overlaid the Temple inside with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the Holy of Holies; and he overlaid it with gold. And the whole Temple he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all of the Temple: also the whole Altar that was by the Holy of Holies he overlaid with gold. And inside the Holy of Holies he fashioned two cherubim from an olive tree, each ten cubits [15 feet] high. The wingspan of each cherubim was ten cubits [15 feet], each wing is five cubits [7 1/2 feet] long. And the other cherub was ten cubits [15 feet]: both the cherubim were of one measure and one size. The height of the one cherub was ten cubits [15 feet], and so the other cherub. And he set the cherubim inside the inner house: and they stretched out the wings of the cherubim, so that the wing of one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. And their wings touched one another in the center of the house. And he overlaid the cherubim with gold. And he carved all the walls of the Temple around with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, inside and out. And the floor of the Temple he overlaid with gold, inside and out. And for the entrance of the Holy of Holies he made doors from an olive tree: the lintel and side posts were 1/5th part of the wall. The two doors also were from an olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubim, and upon the palm trees. So he made also for the door of the Temple posts from an olive tree, 1/4th part of the wall.

And the two doors were from a fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. And he carved on it cherubim and palm trees and open flowers: and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work. And he constructed the inner court with three rows of cut stone, and a row of cedar beams. In the fourth year was the foundation of the Temple of YHWH laid, in the month Ziv (April-May): And in the 11th year, in the month Bul (November-December) that is the eighth month, was the Temple finished with all it parts, and according to all its plans. So he took seven years to construct it. But Solomon was constructing his own house for 13 years, and he finished all his house. He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was 100 cubits [150 feet], and its width 50 cubits [75 feet], and its height 30 cubits [45 feet], upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars. And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that supported on 45 pillars, 15 in a row. Now there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks. And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows:

and light was against light in three ranks. And he made a porch of pillars; it length was 50 cubits [75 feet], and its width 30 cubits [45 feet]: and the porch was in front of them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were in front of them. And, a porch for the throne, where he should judge, even the porch of judgment, made he, and it was wainscotted with cedar, from floor to ceiling. And, his own house where he should dwell, in the other court within the porch, was, of like workmanship unto this,– a house also, made he, for the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Solomon had taken [to wife], in a similar porch. All these, were of costly stones, after the dimensions of hewn stones, sawn with saws, within and without,– even from the foundation, unto the coping, and without as far as the great court. And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits [15 feet], and stones of eight cubits [12 feet]. And above were costly stones, after the measures of cut stones, and cedars. And the great court surrounded with three rows of cut stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the Temple of YHWH, and for the porch of the house. And king Solomon sent and received Hiram out of Tyre. He was a widow's son from the tribe of Naphtali, and his dad was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze: and he was filled with skill and understanding, and expert to work in all works in bronze. And he came to king Solomon, and accomplished all his work.

Because he cast two pillars of bronze, of 18 cubits [27 feet] high apiece: and a line of 12 cubits [18 feet] did surround each of them. And he fashioned two capitals of the pillar with cast bronze, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was five cubits [7 1/2 feet], and the height of the other capital was five cubits [7 1/2 feet]: And nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; seven for one capital, and seven for the other capital. And he fashioned the pillars, and two rows surrounding the one net-work, to cover the capitals that are on the top, with the pomegranates, and so he fashioned the second capital also. And the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits [6 feet]. And the capitals upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, opposite the body that was by the network: and the pomegranates were 200 in rows all around upon the other capital. And he set up the pillars in the porch of the Temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called its name Jachin: and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz. And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished. And he fashioned a cast sea, ten cubits [15 feet] from the one brim to the other: circular in shape, and its height was five cubits [7 1/2 feet]: and a line of 30 cubits [45 feet] did compass it all around. Under its brim were gourds, for 30 cubits [45 feet], encircling the sea;

the gourds were in two rows, cast with it when it was cast. It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their rear parts were inward. And it was a span (hand-width), and the brim was worked like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained 2000 baths. And he made ten bases of bronze; four cubits [6 feet] was its length of one base, and four cubits [6 feet] its width, and three cubits [4 1/2 feet] its height. And this is the work of its base: they have borders, and the borders are between the joining ledges. And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of beveled work. And four wheels of bronze are to the one base, and axles of bronze; and its four corners have shoulders, under the laver are the cast shoulders, besides each addition. And the mouth of it within the capital and above was a cubit [1 1/2 feet]: but the mouth was round after the work of the base, 1 1/2 cubits [2 1/4th feet] : and also upon the mouth of it were engravings with their borders, foursquare, not round. And the four wheels are under the borders, and the spokes of the wheels are in the base, and the height of the one wheel is 1 1/2 cubit [2 1/4th feet]. And the work of the wheels is as the work of the wheel of a chariot, their spokes, and their axles and their spokes, and their naves; the whole is cast.

And four shoulders are to the four corners of the one base; out of the base are its shoulders. And in the top of the base there was a circular band of half a cubit [3/4th foot] high: and on the top of the base the ledges, and its borders were part of it. Because on the plates of the ledges, and on the borders, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of everyone, with wreaths all around. After this way he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size. Then he fashioned ten lavers of bronze: one laver contained 40 baths [230 gallons]: and every laver was four cubits [six feet]: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver. And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south. And Hiram fashioned the lavers, shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he fashioned king Solomon for the Temple of YHWH. The two pillars and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two net-works, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; And 400 pomegranates for the two net-works, even two rows of pomegranates for one net-work, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the pillars;

And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases; And one sea and twelve oxen under the sea; And the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: and all these vessels that Hiram fashioned to king Solomon for the Temple of YHWH, were of bright bronze. In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarthan. And Solomon left all the vessels un-weighed, because they were exceedingly many: neither was the weight of the bronze calculated. And Solomon fashioned all the vessels that pertained to the Temple of YHWH: the Altar of gold, and the golden table where the shewbread was. And the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the Holy of Holies, with the flowers and the lamps, and the tongs of gold. And the bowls, and the snuffers, basins, spoons, and the censers of pure gold; and the sockets of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, the Most Holy Place, and for the doors of the house to the Temple. So was ended all the work that king Solomon fashioned for the Temple of YHWH. And Solomon brought in the items that David his dad had dedicated; even the silver, gold, and the vessels, he did place among the treasures of the Temple of YHWH. Then Solomon assembled the Elders of Israel and all the chiefs of the tribes. Those chiefs of the fathers of the children of Israel, gathered to king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH out of the city of David that is Zion. And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to king Solomon at the festival in the month Ethanim (October-November) that is the seventh month. And all the Elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the Ark. And they brought up the Ark of YHWH, and the Tabernacle of the Appointed Place, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up.

And king Solomon, and all the company of Israel that were assembled to him, were with him before the Ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted or reckoned for multitude. And the priests brought in the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH to its Standing Place, into the Holy of Holies in the Temple, to the Most Sacred Place, even under the wings of the cherubim. Because the cherubim spread out their two wings over the Standing Place of the Ark, and the cherubim covered the Ark and the bar-poles. And they drew out the bar-poles so that the ends of the bar-poles were seen out in the Sacred Place before the Holy of Holies, and they were not seen outside: and there they are to this day. There was nothing in the Ark except the two tablets of stone that Moses put there at Horeb, when YHWH cut a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the Sacred Place, that the cloud-mass filled the Temple of YHWH, So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud-mass, because the glory of YHWH had filled the Temple of YHWH. Then Solomon spoke, YHWH said that he would reside in the cloud-mass. I have certainly constructed you a Temple to live in, an Established Place for you to reside in for the ages. And the king turned his face around and blessed all the company of Israel:

(and all the company of Israel stood;) And he said, blessed is YHWH Elohim of Israel that spoke with his mouth to David my dad, and has with his hand fulfilled it saying, Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a Temple so that my Name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel. And it was in the heart of David my dad to construct a Temple for the Name of YHWH Elohim of Israel. And YHWH said to David my dad, Whereas it was in your heart to construct a Temple to my Name, you did well that it was in your heart. Nevertheless you will not build the Temple; but your son that will come out of your loins, he will construct the Temple to my Name. And YHWH has performed his Word that he spoke, and I am risen up in the parlor of David my dad, and sit on the throne of Israel, as YHWH promised and have constructed a Temple for the Name of YHWH Elohim of Israel. And I have set there a Standing Place for the Ark, where the Covenant of YHWH that he cut with our forefathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt. And Solomon stood before the Altar of YHWH in the presence of all the company of Israel, and spread out his hands toward the sky. And he spoke, YHWH Elohim of Israel, there is no Elohim like you, in the cosmos above, or on earth beneath, who observes the Covenant-Pledge and mercy with your slaves that walk before you with all their heart. Who have kept with your slave David my dad what you promised him:

you spoke also with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand,

as it is this day. Therefore now, YHWH Elohim of Israel, keep with your slave David my dad what you promised him saying, There will not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel. So that your children take heed to their way that they walk before me as you have walked before me. And now O Elohim of Israel, let your Word, I pray you, be verified that you spoke to your slave David my dad. But will Elohim indeed live on the earth? lo, the sky and cosmos of the universe cannot contain you; how much less this Temple that I have constructed? Still you have respect to the prayer of your slave, and to his supplication, O YHWH Elohim, to listen to the cry and to the prayer that your slave prays before you today. That your eyes may be open toward this Temple night and day, even toward the Standing Place of which you have declared, my Name will be there so that you may listen to the prayer that your slave will make toward this Standing Place. And listen to the supplication of your slave, and of your people Israel, when they will pray toward this Standing Place: and hear you in the cosmos of your Inhabited Place: and when you hear, pardon. If anyone sin against his neighbor, and an oath is laid upon him to cause him to adjure, and the oath comes before your Altar in this Temple: Then hear in the cosmos, and do, and judge your slaves, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give to him according to his righteousness. When your people Israel are beaten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you, and will turn again to you, and confess your Name, and pray, and make supplication to you in this Temple: Then hear in the cosmos, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land that you gave to their ancestors.

When the skies are shut up and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this Standing Place, and confess your Name and turn from their sin, when you afflict them: Then hear in the cosmos, and pardon the sin of your slaves, and of your people Israel so that you teach them the good way where they should walk, and give rain upon your land that you have given to your people for an inheritance. If there is in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there is caterpillar; if their enemy besieges them in the land of their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there is; Whatever prayer and supplication is made by anyone, or by all your people Israel that will know everyone the disease of his own heart, and spread out their hands toward this Temple: Then hear in the cosmos of your Inhabited Place, and pardon, and do, and give to everyone according to his ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of all the children of men;) That they may fear you all the days that they live in the land that you gave to our ancestors. Moreover concerning a foreigner, that is not of your people Israel, but comes out of a far country for your Name's sake; (Because they will hear of your Great Name, and of your strong hand, and of your stretched out arm;) when he will come and pray toward this Temple; Hear in the cosmos of your Inhabited Place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for. So that all people of the earth may know your Name, to fear you, as do your people Israel; and that they may know that this Temple that I have constructed, is called by your Name.

If your people go out to battle against their enemy, wherever you will send them, and will pray to YHWH toward the city that you have chosen, and toward the Temple that I have constructed for your Name: Then hear in the cosmos their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. If they sin against you, (for there is no one that does not sin,) and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy so that they carry them away captives to the land of the enemy, far or near; Still if they will turn back themselves in the land where they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication to you in the land of them that carried them captives confessing, we have sinned and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness; And so return to you with all their heart and with all their minds, in the land of their enemies that led them away captive. And pray to you toward their land, which you gave to their forefathers, the city that you have chosen, and the Temple that I have constructed for your Name: Then hear their prayer and their supplication in the cosmos of your Inhabited Place, and maintain their cause, and pardon your people that have sinned against you, and all their rebellion in which they have sinned against you, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them: Because they are your people and your inheritance, that you brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the smelting furnace of iron: That your eyes may be open to the supplication of your slave, and to the supplication of your people Israel, to listen to them in all that they call for unto you. Because you did separate them from among all the people of the land, to be your inheritance, as you spoke by the hand of Moses your slave, when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt, O Adonai YHWH.

And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication to YHWH, he arose from before the Altar of YHWH, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to the skies. And he stood, and blessed all the company of Israel with a loud voice saying, blessed is YHWH that has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that He has promised: there has not failed one word of all his good promises that He promised by the hand of Moses his slave. YHWH our Elohim be with us, as he was with our forefathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us: That he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways and to observe his commandments, and his statutes and his judgments that he commanded our ancestors. And let these my words, which I have made supplication before YHWH with, be near to YHWH Elohim day and night, that he will maintain the cause of his slave, and the cause of his people Israel at all times, as the matter will require: That all the people of the earth may know that YHWH is Elohim, and that there is no one else. Let your heart therefore be whole with YHWH Elohim, to walk in his statutes and to observe his commandments, as at this day. And the king and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before YHWH. And Solomon offered a sacrifice of Peace-Offerings that he offered to YHWH, 22,000 oxen, and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the Temple of YHWH. The same day did the king consecrate the middle of the court that was before the Temple of YHWH. Because there he offered Burnt-Offerings, and Meat-Offerings, and the fat of the Peace-Offerings: because the bronze Altar that was before YHWH was too little to receive the Burnt-Offerings, and Meat-Offerings, and the fat of the Peace-Offerings. And at that time Solomon held a festival, and all Israel with him, a great company, from the entering in of Hamath to the river of Egypt, before YHWH Elohim, for seven days and seven days, even 14 days.

On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that YHWH had done for David his slave, and for Israel his people. And it came about, when Solomon had finished the construction of the Temple of YHWH, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire that he was delighted to do, that YHWH appeared to Solomon a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. And YHWH said to him, I have heard your prayer and your supplication, that you have made before me: I have consecrated this Temple that you have constructed, to put My Name there for the ages; and my eyes and my heart will be there for times. And if you will walk before me, as David your dad walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will observe my statutes and my judgments: Then I will establish the throne of your kingdom upon Israel for the ages, as I promised to David your dad saying, There will not fail you a man upon the throne of Israel. But if you will at all turn from following me, you or your children and will not observe my commandments and my statutes that I have set before you, but go and serve other elohim and worship them: Then I will cut off Israel out of the land that I have given them; and this Temple that I have consecrated for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and Israel will become a proverb and a taunt among all people: And at this Temple that is highest, everyone that passes by it will be appalled and will whisper; and they will ask, why has YHWH done this to this land, and to this Temple?

And they will answer, because they abandoned YHWH Elohim, who brought out their forefathers from the land of Egypt, and have taken hold of other elohim, and have worshiped them and served them: therefore has YHWH brought upon them all this calamity. And it came to pass at the end of 20 years, when Solomon had constructed the two houses, the Temple of YHWH, and the king's house, (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire) , then king Solomon assigned Hiram 20 cities in the land of Galilee. And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given him; and they did not please him. Then he said, what cities are these that you have given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul to this day. And Hiram sent to the king 120 talents [4 1/2 tons] of gold. And this is the reason for the forced labor that king Solomon raised; because to construct the Temple of YHWH, and his own house and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer. Because Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and killed the Canaanites that lived in the city, and gave it for a present to his daughter, Solomon's woman.

And Solomon rebuilt Gezer, and Bethhoron the lower, and Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land, And all the storage cities that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and what Solomon desired to construct in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. And all the people that w ere left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, that were not of the children of Israel, their children that were left after them in the land, who the children of Israel also were not able to Devote to Destruction, upon those did Solomon extend his serfdom of forced labor to this day. But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no slaves: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen. These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, 550 that had rule over the people that did the work. But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David to her house that Solomon had built for her: then he constructed Millo. And three times in a year did Solomon offer Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings upon the Altar that he built to YHWH, and he burnt incense upon the Altar that was before YHWH. So he finished the Temple requirements. And king Solomon constructed a navy of ships in Eziongeber, that is near Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. And Hiram sent in the navy his slaves and seamen that had knowledge of the sea, with the slaves of Solomon. And they came to Ophir, and acquired from there gold, 420 talents [16 tons], and brought it to king Solomon.

And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the Name of YHWH, she came to test him with hard questions. And she came to Jerusalem with a very rich wealth, with camels that carried spices, and very much gold and precious stones: and when she had come to Solomon, she conversed with him of all that was in her heart. And Solomon answered all her questions: there was not anything hidden from the king that he did not tell her. And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's Wisdom, and the house that he had built, and the food of his table and the assembly of his slaves, and the attendance of his ministers and their apparel, and his cup-bearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the Temple of YHWH; there was no more spirit left in her. And she said to the king, it was a true report that I heard in my own land of your deeds and of your Wisdom. But I did not believed the words until I came here, and my eyes have seen it: and lo, the half of it was not told me: your Wisdom and prosperity exceeds the fame that I heard of. Happy are your men, happy are these your slaves that stand continually before you, and that hear your Wisdom. Blessed is YHWH Elohim that delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel: because YHWH loved Israel for the ages, therefore he appointed you king, to institute judgment and justice. And she gave the king 120 talents [4 1/2 tons] of gold, and of spices a very great store, and precious stones:

there came no more such abundance of spices as these that the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir very many almug trees, and precious stones. And the king made from the almug trees pillars for the Temple of YHWH, and for the king's house, lyres also and bagpipes for singers: there have not come such almug trees, nor have there been seen such to this day. And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desires, whatever she asked for, besides what Solomon gave her from his royal bounty. So she returned to her own country, she and her slaves. Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents [25 tons] of gold, Besides what he had from the traders, and from the traffic of the spice merchants, and from all the kings of Arabia, and the governors of the country. And king Solomon fashioned 200 shields of beaten gold: 600 shekels [7 1/2 pounds] of gold went for each shield.

And he fashioned 300 shields of beaten gold; three minas [3 3/4th pounds] of gold went for each shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. Also the king fashioned a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold. The throne had six steps, and a round top is to the throne behind it, and hands are on this side and on that, to the area of sitting, and two lions are standing near the hands, And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps:

there was not the likes of it fashioned in any kingdom. And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was accounted for nothing in the days of Solomon. Because the king had at sea a navy of Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years the navy of Tharshish came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for Wisdom. And all the earth requested for Solomon, to hear his Wisdom that Elohim had put in his heart. And they brought everyone his present, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and clothing, armor, spices, horses, and mules, this occurred yearly. And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had 1400 chariots, and 12,000 horsemen, who he brought to the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem. And the king caused silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the valley, for abundance. And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn for a price. And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for 600 shekels [15 pounds] of silver, and an horse for 150 [3 3/4th pounds]: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, they did bring them out by their means. But king Solomon loved many foreign women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites; Of the nations concerning which YHWH commanded the children of Israel, You will not go in to them, neither will they come in to you:

because surely they will turn away your heart after their elohim: Solomon clung to these in love. And he had 700 wives, princesses, and 300 concubines: and his women perverted his heart. Because it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his women perverted his heart after other elohim: and his heart was not whole with YHWH Elohim, as was the heart of David his dad. Because Solomon departed after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. And Solomon did bad in the sight of YHWH, and went not fully after YHWH, as did David his dad. Then Solomon constructed a cultic platform for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon. And likewise he did for all his foreign women that burnt incense and sacrificed to their elohim. And YHWH was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from YHWH Elohim of Israel that had appeared to him twice, And had commanded him concerning these things, that he should not go after other elohim: but he observed not what YHWH commanded.

Therefore YHWH said to Solomon, Since this is done by you, and you have not observed my Covenant and my statutes that I have commanded you, I will certainly tear in pieces the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servants (Levites) . Nevertheless in your days I will not do it because of David your dad's sake: but I will tear it in pieces out of the hand of your son. But I will not tear in pieces all the kingdom; but will give one tribe to your son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake that I have chosen. Then YHWH stirred up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's royal house in Edom. Because it came about, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the army was gone up to bury the slain, after he had struck every male in Edom; (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:) But Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his dad's slaves with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being still a young child. And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt; that gave him a house and appointed him provisions, and gave him land. And Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him for his woman the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. And the sister of Tahpenes gendered him Genubath his son, who Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house:

and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh. And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David rested with his forefathers, and that Joab the captain of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, let me leave so that I may go to my own country. Then Pharaoh replied to him, but what have you lacked with me so that you seek to go to your own country? And he answered, nothing: but let me go there anyway. And Elohim stirred him up another adversary, Rezon

the son of Eliadah that fled from his master Hadadezer king of Zobah: And he gathered men to him, and became captain over a band, when David killed them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus and lived there, and reigned in Damascus. And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel and reigned over Syria. And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomon's slave, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king. And this was the reason for which he lifted up a hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, he shut up the breach of the city of David his dad and the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor. And Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the burden of the house of Joseph. And it came about at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the road; and he had covered himself with a new garment; and both of them were alone in the field. And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and tore it in twelve pieces: And he said to Jeroboam, take yourself ten pieces: because this is what YHWH says, the Elohim of Israel, See, I will tear in pieces the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to you:

Chapter 11

Chapter 11

(But he will have one tribe for my slave David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:) Because they have forsaken me, and bowed themselves to Ashtoreth, goddess of the Zidonians, to Chemosh elohim of Moab, and to Milcom elohim of the sons of Ammon. And have not walked in my ways, to do what is right in my eyes, concerning my statutes and my judgments, like David his dad. But I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him ruler all the days of his life for David my slave's sake, who I chose, because he observed my commandments and my statutes: But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, even ten tribes. And to his son will I give one tribe so that David my slave may have a lamp daily before me in Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen to put my Name there. And I will take you, and you will reign according to all that your mind desires, and will be king over Israel. And it will be, if you will listen to all that I command you and will walk in my ways, and do what is right in my sight, to observe my statutes and my commandments, as David my slave did. That I will be with you and build you a lasting house, as I built for David and will give Israel to you. And I will for this afflict the offspring of David, but not for all the days.

Solomon desired therefore to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam arose and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon. And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did and his Wisdom, are they not written in the scroll of the acts of Solomon? And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was 40 years. And Solomon rested with his forefathers, and was buried in the city of David his dad: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his place. And Rehoboam went to Shechem: because all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. And it came about, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was still in Egypt heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt;) That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the company of Israel came, and spoke to Rehoboam saying, your dad made our yoke grievous: now you make the grievous service of your dad, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve you. Then he replied to them, leave us now for three days then return to me. And the people left. And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men that stood before Solomon his dad while he still lived and asked, how do you advise that I may answer these people? And they spoke to him saying, if you will be a servant to this people this day and will serve them, and answer them by speaking good words to them, then they will be your slaves for the ages. But he forsook the counsel of the old men that they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and that stood before him.

And he replied to them, what counsel give you that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me saying, make the yoke that your dad did put on us lighter? And the young men that were grown up with him spoke to him saying, this is how you will speak to this people that spoke to you saying, your dad made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us. This is what you will say to them, my little finger will be thicker than my dad's loins. And now, my dad laid on you a heavy yoke, and I add to your yoke; my dad disciplined you with whips, and I, I will discipline you with scorpions. So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed saying, come to me again the third day. And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him; And spoke to them after the counsel of the young men saying, my dad made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my dad also disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions. Therefore the king listened not to the people; because the cause was from YHWH, that he might perform his saying that YHWH spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. So when all Israel saw that the king listened not to them, the people answered the king saying, what portion have we in David? Neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents O Israel: now see to your own house, David. So Israel departed to their tents. But as for the children of Israel that lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the forced labor; and all Israel stoned him with stones so that he died.

Therefore king Rehoboam hurriedly got himself up to his chariot and fled to Jerusalem. So Israel rebelled against the House of David to this day. And it came about, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was returned, that they sent and called him to the company, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the House of David, but the tribe of Judah only. And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the House of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men that were warriors, to fight against the House of Israel, to bring the kingdom back to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. But the Word of Elohim came to Shemaiah the man of Elohim saying, Speak to Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the House of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people saying, This is what YHWH commands, You will not go up, nor fight against your brothers the children of Israel: return every man to his house because this thing is from me. They listened therefore to the Word of YHWH, and returned to leave, according to the Word of YHWH. Then Jeroboam built Shechem in Mount Ephraim, and lived there; and went out from there and built Penuel. And Jeroboam said in his heart, now will the kingdom return to the House of David. If this people go up to do sacrifice in the Temple of YHWH at Jerusalem, then will the heart of this people return again to their master, even to Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.

So the king took counsel, and fashioned two calves of gold and said to them, it is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: see your elohim O Israel, that brought you up out of the land of Egypt. And he set the one in Bethel, and the other he placed in Dan. And this thing became a sin because the people went to worship before the one, even to Dan. And he made a house of worship places, and appointed priests of the lowest of the people that were not of the sons of Levi. And Jeroboam ordained a festival in the eighth month, on the 15th day of the month, like the festival that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had fashioned, and he placed in Bethel the priests of the worship places that he had appointed. So he offered upon the altar that he had made in Bethel the 15th day of the eighth month, even in the month that he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a festival for the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense. And look, there came a man of Elohim out of Judah by the Word of YHWH to Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. And he cried against the altar in the Word of YHWH and said, O altar, altar, this is what YHWH declares, See, a child will be gendered to the House of David, Josiah by name. And upon you will he offer the priests of the worship places that burn incense on you, and men's bones will be burnt upon you. And he gave a sign that same day saying, This is the sign that YHWH has spoken; see, the altar will be torn in pieces, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out. And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of Elohim that had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put out his hand from the altar saying, lay hold on him. And his hand that he put out against him, withered, so that he could not pull it in again to himself. The altar also was torn in pieces, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign that the man of Elohim had given by the Word of YHWH.

And the king answered and said to the man of Elohim, entreat now the presence of YHWH Elohim, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me again. And the man of Elohim prayed to YHWH, and the king's hand was restored to him again, and became as it was before. And the king said to the man of Elohim, come home with me, and refresh yourself and I will give you a reward. And the man of Elohim replied to the king, if you will give me half your house, I will not go in with you, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place. Because so was it charged me by the Word of YHWH saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor return by the same road that you came. So he went another way, and returned not by the road that he came to Bethel by. Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of Elohim had done that day in Bethel: the words that he had spoken to the king, those they also told to their dad. And their dad replied to them, what road did he take? Because his sons had seen what road the man of Elohim went that came from Judah. And he said to his sons, saddle me the donkey. So they saddled him the donkey and he rode on it and went after the man of Elohim and found him sitting under an oak:

and he said to him, are you the man of Elohim that came from Judah? And he replied, I am. Then he said to him, come home with me and eat bread. And he replied, I may not return with you, nor go in with you: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place: Because it was told to me by the Word of YHWH, you will eat no bread nor drink water there, nor return to go by the road that you came from. He replied to him, I am a prophet also as you are; and an angel spoke to me by the Word of YHWH saying, bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied to him. So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water. And it came about, as they sat at the table that the Word of YHWH came to the prophet that brought him back. And he cried to the man of Elohim that came from Judah saying, This is what YHWH declares, since you have disobeyed the mouth of YHWH, and have not observed the commandment that YHWH Elohim commanded you, but came back and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which YHWH did say to you, Eat no bread and drink no water; your carcass will not come to the tomb of your fathers. And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. And when he was gone, a lion met him by the road, and killed him: and his carcass was cast in the road, and the donkey stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcass. And look, men passed by and saw the carcass cast in the road, and the lion standing by the carcass: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. And when the prophet that had brought him back from the road heard this, he said, it is the man of Elohim who was disobedient to the Word of YHWH. Therefore YHWH has delivered him to the lion that has torn and killed him, according to the Word of YHWH that he spoke to him. And he spoke to his sons saying, saddle me the donkey. And they saddled it for him. And he went and found his carcass cast in the roadway, and the donkey and the lion standing by the carcass: the lion had not eaten the carcass, nor torn the donkey. And the prophet took up the carcass of the man of Elohim, and laid it on the donkey and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city to mourn and to bury him. And he laid his carcass in his own grave and they mourned over him saying, alas my brother! And it came about, after he had buried him that he spoke to his sons saying, when I am dead then bury me in the tomb where the man of Elohim is buried; lay my bones besides his bones. Because the saying that he cried by the Word of YHWH against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the worship places that are in the cities of Samaria, will certainly come to pass. After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his bad ways, but appointed again from the lowest of the people priests of the worship places: whoever would, he consecrated him and he became one of the priests of the worship places. And this thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the land. At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. And Jeroboam said to his woman, get up I ask you, and disguise yourself so that you are not known to be the woman of Jeroboam; and get yourself to Shiloh: see, there is Ahijah the prophet that told me that I should be king over this people. And take with you ten loaves and hard biscuits, and a Cruse of honey, and go to him: he will tell you what will become of the boy. And Jeroboam's woman did so, and got up and went to Shiloh and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see because his eyes were set by reason of his age. And YHWH said to Ahijah, See, the woman of Jeroboam comes to ask a thing of you for her son; because he is sick: this and that you will say to her: for it will be, when she comes in that she will pretend herself to be another woman. And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door that he said, come in you woman of Jeroboam; why pretend yourself to be another? because I am sent to you with difficult news. Go tell Jeroboam, This is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, in that I exalted you from among the people and appointed you ruler over my people Israel, and tore in pieces the kingdom away from the House of David, and gave it to you: and still you have not been as my slave David, who observed my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do what was right in my eyes; But have done bad above all that were before you, because you have gone and fashioned yourself other elohim and metal cast images, to provoke me to anger and have cast me behind your back: Therefore look, I will bring bad upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him that pisses against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel. And will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man burns dung, until it is all gone.

Him that dies of Jeroboam in the city will the dogs eat; and him that dies in the field will the fowls of the air eat: because YHWH has spoken it. Get yourself up now therefore and go to your own house: and when your feet enter into the city, the boy will die. And all Israel will mourn for him and bury him: because he only of Jeroboam will come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward YHWH Elohim of Israel in the house of Jeroboam. And YHWH has raised up for himself a king over Israel who cuts off the house of Jeroboam this day, and what? Because YHWH will strike Israel as a reed is shaken in the water, and he will root up Israel out of this good land that he gave to their forefathers. And will scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves (for idol worship), provoking YHWH to anger. And he will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin and who incurred Israel to sin. And Jeroboam's woman got up and left and came to Tirzah: and when she came to the threshold of the door, the boy died; And they buried him, and all Israel mourned for him according to the Word of YHWH that he spoke by the hand of his slave Ahijah the prophet. And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred and how he reigned, look, they are written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. And the days that Jeroboam reigned were 22 years: and he rested with his fathers and Nadab his son reigned in his place. And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah.

Rehoboam was 41 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 17 years in Jerusalem, the city that YHWH did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his Name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. Then Judah did bad in the sight of YHWH, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins that they had committed, above all that their ancestors had done. Because they also built themselves worship places, and images and groves, on every high hill and under every green tree. And there were also male temple prostitutes in the land: and they did according to all the disgusting things of the nations that YHWH cast out before the children of Israel. And it came about in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem: And he took away the treasures of the Temple of YHWH, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away everything: and he took away all the shields of gold that Solomon had fashioned. And king Rehoboam fashioned in their place bronze shields, and deposited them unto the hands of the chief of the guard that watched the door of the king's house. And it was so, when the king went into the House of YHWH, that the guard carried them, and brought them back into the guard chamber. Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. Then Rehoboam rested with his forefathers, and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. And Abijam his son reigned in his place. Now in the 18th year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat reigned Abijam over Judah. For three years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. And he walked in all the sins of his dad that he had done before him: and his heart was not whole with YHWH Elohim, as the heart of David his forefather. But for David's sake YHWH Elohim did give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him and to establish Jerusalem. Because David did what was right in the eyes of YHWH, and turned not aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. Now the rest of the acts of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

And Abijam rested with his forefathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his place. And in the 20th year of Jeroboam king of Israel Asa reigned over Judah. And he reigned 41 years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. And Asa did what was right in the eyes of YHWH, as did David his forefather. And he took away the male temple prostitutes out of the land, and removed all the idols that his ancestors had made. And also Maachah his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the Wadi Kidron. But the worship places were not removed, but Asa's heart was whole with YHWH all his days. And he brought in the things that his dad had dedicated, and the things that he had dedicated, into the House of YHWH, silver, gold, and vessels. And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah so that he might not permit any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. Then

Asa took all the silver and the gold that was left in the treasury of the Temple of YHWH, and the treasures of the king's house and delivered them into the hand of his slaves. And king Asa sent them to Benhadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria that lived at Damascus saying, there is an alliance between ourselves, and between my dad and your dad: look, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold; come and break your alliance with Baasha king of Israel so that he may depart from me. So Benhadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of the army that he had against the cities of Israel, and attacked Ijon, Dan, Abelbethmaachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. And it came about, when Baasha heard of it, that he stopped building at Ramah, and lived in Tirzah.

Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; no one was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had constructed; and king Asa built with it Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah. The rest of all the acts of Asa and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities that he constructed, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. Then Asa rested with his forefathers, and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David his relative: and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place. And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years. And he did bad in the sight of YHWH, and walked in the way of his dad, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar conspired against him; and Baasha attacked him at Gibbethon that belonged to the Philistines, because Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon. Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha kill him, and reigned in his place. And it came about, when he reigned that he attacked all the house of Jeroboam;

he left to Jeroboam not any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the Word of YHWH that he spoke by his slave Ahijah the Shilonite. Because of the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned, and that he caused Israel sin, by his provocation with which he provoked YHWH Elohim of Israel to anger. Now the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, 24 years. And he did bad in the sight of YHWH, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he caused Israel to sin. Then the Word of YHWH came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha saying, Inasmuch as I exalted you out of the dust and appointed you ruler over my people Israel; and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have caused my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; Lo, I am putting away the posterity of Baasha, even the posterity of his house, and have given up your house as the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat. Him that dies of Baasha in the city will the dogs eat; and him that dies of his in the fields will the fowls of the air eat. Now the rest of the acts of Baasha and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? So Baasha rested with his forefathers, and was buried in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his place. And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani the Word of YHWH came against Baasha and against his house. Even for all the bad that he did in the sight of YHWH, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him.

In the 26th year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years. And his slave Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah. And Zimri went in and struck and killed him, in the 27th year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place. And it came about, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he killed all in the house of Baasha: he left him not one that pisses against a wall, neither of his kinsmen-redeemer, nor of his friends. Thus Zimri did destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the Word of YHWH that he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet. Because all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they caused Israel to sin in provoking YHWH Elohim of Israel to anger with their vanities. Now the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? In the 27th year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign for seven days in Tirzah. And the people were camped against Gibbethon that belonged to the Philistines. And the people that were camped heard it reported, Zimri has conspired and has also killed the king:

therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over himself with fire and died. Because of his sins that he sinned in doing bad in the sight of YHWH, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin that he did, to cause Israel to sin. Now the rest of the acts of Zimri and his treason that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned. In the 31st year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel for twelve years: six years he reigned in Tirzah. And he bought the hill Samaria from Shemer for two talents [150 pounds] of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he constructed, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, Samaria. But Omri did bad in the eyes of YHWH, and did worse than all that were before him. Because he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin with which he caused Israel to sin, to provoke YHWH Elohim of Israel to anger with their vanities.

Now the rest of the acts of Omri that he did, and his might that he showed, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? So Omri rested with his forefathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead. And in the 38th year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria 22 years. And Ahab the son of Omri did bad in the sight of YHWH above all that were before him.

And it came about, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took for his woman Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal and worshiped him. And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal that he had built in Samaria. And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke YHWH Elohim of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him. In his days did Hiel the Bethelite rebuild Jericho: he laid the foundation of it by the price of his firstborn Abiram. And set up its gates by the price of his youngest son Segub, according to the Word of YHWH that he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun. And Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead declared to Ahab, as YHWH Elohim of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there will not be dew nor rain these years, except according to my word.

And the Word of YHWH came to him saying, get yourself from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the Cherith stream that flows into the Jordan River. And it will be that you will drink of the stream; and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there. So he went and did according to the Word of YHWH, because he went and lived by the Cherith stream that flows into the Jordan River. And the ravens brought him bread and meat at sunrise, and bread and meat at sunset; and he drank from the stream. So it came about after a while, that the stream dried up because there had been no rain in the land. Then the Word of YHWH came to him saying, Get up, go to Zarephath that belongs to Zidon and live there: see, I have commanded a widow woman there to support you. So he got up and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, see, the widow woman was there gathering sticks:

and he called to her and said, bring me I ask you, a little water in a vessel so that I may drink. And as she was going to bring it he called to her and said, bring me also I ask you, a morsel of bread in your hand. And she replied, as YHWH Elohim lives, I have not a cake but only a handful of meal in a barrel. And a little oil in a cruse:

and see, I am gathering two sticks so that I may go in and prepare it for myself and for my son, that we may eat it and die. And Elijah said to her, fear not; go and do as you have said, but make me a little cake first and bring it to me, and afterwards make for yourself and for your son. Because this is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, the barrel of meal will not waste, neither will the cruse of oil fail, until the day that YHWH sends rain upon the land. And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house ate for many days. And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the Word of YHWH that he spoke by Elijah. And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so severe that he stopped breathing. Then she said to Elijah, what have I to do with you O you man of Elohim? Are you coming to me to call my sin to remembrance, and to kill my son? And he replied to her, give me your son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft where he lived, and laid him upon his own bed. And he cried to YHWH and said, O YHWH my Elohim, have you also brought bad upon the widow with whom I reside, by killing her son? And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried to YHWH and said, O YHWH Elohim I pray you, let this child's breath come into him again. And YHWH heard the voice of Elijah; and the breath of the child came into him again and he revived.

And Elijah took the child and brought him down out of the room into the house, and delivered him to his mother: and Elijah said, see, your son lives. And the woman replied to Elijah, now by this I know that you are a man of Elohim, and that the Word of YHWH in your mouth is Truth. And it came about after many days, that the Word of YHWH came to Elijah in the third year saying, Go, show yourself to Ahab; and I will send rain upon the land. And Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. And there was a severe famine in Samaria. And Ahab called Obadiah that was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared YHWH greatly: because it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of YHWH, that Obadiah took 100 prophets, and hid them by 50 in a cave, and fed them with bread and water) . Then Ahab said to Obadiah, go into the land to all fountains of water and to all streams: perhaps we may find some grass to save the horses and mules alive so that we do not lose all the animals. So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself. And as Obadiah was on the road, lo, Elijah met him and he recognized him, and fell on his face and said, are you my master Elijah?

Then he answered him, I am: go tell your lord, see, Elijah is here. And he replied, what have I sinned that you would deliver your slave into the hand of Ahab, to kill me? As YHWH Elohim lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent to find you: and when they said, he is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation that they found you not. And now you say, go tell your master, see, Elijah is here. And it will come to pass as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of YHWH will carry you where I know not. And so when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me: but I your slave fear YHWH from my youth. Was it not told my master what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of YHWH, how I hid 100 men of YHWH's prophets by 50 in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? And now you say, go tell your master, see, Elijah is here: and he will kill me. But Elijah replied, as YHWH of Hosts lives before whom I stand, I will certainly show myself to him today. So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah. And it came about when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, are you he that troubles Israel? And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but you and your dad's house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of YHWH, and you have followed Baalim.

Now therefore send and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal 450, and the prophets of the groves 400 that eat at Jezebel's table. So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel and gathered the prophets together to Mount Carmel. And Elijah came to all the people and said, how long are you limp between two opinions? If YHWH is Elohim, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. Then Elijah said to the people, I, even I alone, remain a prophet of YHWH; but Baal's prophets are 450 men. Let them therefore give us two young steers; and let them choose one your steer for themselves and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, but put no fire under it. And I will prepare the other young steer, and lay it on wood and put no fire under it: And call you on the name of your elohim, and I will call on the Name of YHWH: and the Elohim that answers by fire, let him be Elohim. And all the people answered and said, it is well spoken. And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, choose one young steer for yourselves and prepare it first; because you are many, and call on the name of your elohim, but put no fire under it. And they took the young steer that was given them and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from sunrise until noon saying, O Baal hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped on the altar that was made. And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, cry aloud: for he is an elohim; either he is talking or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or perhaps he sleeps and must be awakened. And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their custom with knives and lancets, until their blood gushed out on them.

And it came about, when midday was past and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice nor any to answer, nor any that attended. Then Elijah said to all the people, come near to me. And all the people came near to him. And he repaired the Altar of YHWH that was broken down. And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the Word of YHWH came saying, Israel will be your name: And with the stones he built an Altar in the Name of YHWH: and he dug a trench around the Altar, as big as would contain two measures [13 quarts] of the seed. And he put the wood in order, and cut the young steer in pieces and laid it on the wood and said, fill four barrels with water and pour it on the whole Burnt-Offering, and on the wood. And he said, do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, do it the third time. And they did it the third time. And the water ran around the Altar; and he filled the trench also with water. And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, YHWH Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that you are Elohim in Israel. And that I am your slave, and that I have done all these things at your Word. Hear me O YHWH, hear me so that this people may know that you are YHWH Elohim, and that you have turned their heart back again. Then supernatural fire from YHWH fell, and consumed the whole Burnt-Offering, and the wood and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and they said, YHWH, he is the Elohim! YHWH, he is the Elohim!

And Elijah said to them, seize the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they seized them and Elijah brought them down to the Wadi Kishon, and killed them there. Then Elijah said to Ahab, get up, eat and drink; because there is a sound of the abundance of rain. So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the ground, and put his face between his knees and said to his slave, go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up and looked and reported, there is nothing. And he said, go again seven times. And it came about at the seventh time that he reported, look, there arises a little cloud out from the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, go up, say to Ahab, prepare your chariot and get yourself down so that the rain does not stop you. And it came about in this way that the skies were black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel. And the hand of YHWH was on Elijah; and he belted up his hips and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel. And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and added how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah saying, so let the elohim do to me and more also, if I make not your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time. And when he considered that, he got up and ran for his life and came to Beersheba that belongs to Judah, and left his slave there. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree:

and he requested for himself that he might die and said, it is enough now O YHWH, take away my life, because I am not better than my forefathers. And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, lo, then an angel touched him and said to him, Get up and eat. Then he looked and there was a cake baked on the coals, and a cruse of water at its head. Then he did eat and drank, and laid himself down again. And the Angel of YHWH came again the second time and touched him and said, Get up and eat, because the journey is too much for you. Then he arose and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that food 40 days and 40 nights to Horeb the mountain of Elohim. And he came there to a cave and lodged there; and lo, the Word of YHWH came to him, and he said to him, What are you doing here Elijah? And he replied, I have been very jealous for YHWH Elohim of Hosts, because the children of Israel have forsaken your Covenant-Pledge, thrown down your Altars and killed your prophets with the sword; and I, even I alone am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. And he replied, Go out and stand upon the mountain before YHWH. And lo, YHWH passed over, and a great and strong wind tore away the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before YHWH; but YHWH was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but YHWH was not in the earthquake: And after the earthquake a supernatural fire; but YHWH was not in the supernatural fire: and after the fire a calm small voice. And it was so, when Elijah heard it that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave.

And lo, there came a voice to him and said, What are you doing here Elijah? And he replied, I have been very jealous for YHWH Elohim of Hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken your Covenant-Pledge, thrown down your Altars and killed your prophets with the sword; and I, even I alone am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. Then YHWH replied to him, go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when you come, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria: And Jehu the son of Nimshi will you anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah will you anoint to be prophet in your place. And it will come to pass, that him that escapes the sword of Hazael will Jehu kill: and him that escapes from the sword of Jehu will Elisha kill. Still I have left for myself 7000 in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him. So he left from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him and cast his mantle upon him. And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah and said, let me, I ask you, hug my dad and my mom, and then I will follow you. And he replied to him, go back again for what have I done to you? And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people and they did eat. Then he got up and went after Elijah and attended to him. And Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his army together:

Chapter 20

Chapter 20

and there were 32 kings with him, and horses and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria and waged war against it. And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city and said to him, this is what Benhadad says, your silver and gold is mine; your women also and your children, even the most valuable are mine. And the king of Israel answered and said, my lord O king, according to your declaration, I am yours and all that I have. And the messengers came again and said, Benhadad declares saying, although I have sent to you saying, you will deliver me your silver and gold, and your women and your children; Still I will send my slaves to you tomorrow about this time, and they will search your house, and the houses of your slaves; and it will be that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they will put it in their hand and take it away. Then the king of Israel called all the Elders of the land and said, mark I ask you, and see how this man seeks mischief. Because he sent to me for my women and for my children, and for my silver and gold; and I denied him not. And all the Elders and all the people said to him, listen not to him nor consent. Therefore he replied to the messengers of Benhadad, tell my lord the king, All that you did send for to your slave at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers left, and brought him word again. Then Benhadad sent to him and replied, the elohim do so to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria will suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me. And the king of Israel answered and said, tell him, let not him that belts on his harness boast himself as he that takes it off. And it came to pass, when Benhadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the tents, that he said to his slaves, set yourselves in formation. And they set themselves in formation against the city. And see, there came a prophet to Ahab king of Israel saying, this is what YHWH declares, have you seen all this great multitude? Look, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you will know that I am YHWH. And Ahab replied, by whom? And he replied, this is what YHWH declares, even by the young men of the princes of the provinces.

Then he asked, who would order the battle? And he answered, you. Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were 232: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being 7000. And they went out at noon. But Benhadad was drinking himself drunk in the tents, he and the kings, the 32 kings that helped him. And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Benhadad sent out, and they told him saying, there are men come out of Samaria. And he replied, whether they are come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they are come out for war, take them alive. So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army that followed them. And they killed everyone his man:

and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Benhadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen. And the king of Israel went out, and attacked the horses and chariots, and struck the Syrians with a great slaughter. And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, go, strengthen yourself, and mark, and see what you do: because at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you. And the slaves of the king of Syria said to him, their elohim are elohim of the hills; therefore they were stronger than us; but let us fight against them in the plains, and certainly we will be stronger than they. And this thing you will do: turn aside the kings each out of his place, and set captains in their place

And number you an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plains, and certainly we will be stronger than they. And he listened to their voice and did so. And it came about at the return of the year, that Benhadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel. And the children of Israel were numbered and were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel camped before them like two little flocks of goats; but the Syrians filled the country. And there came a man of Elohim and spoke to the king of Israel and said, This is what YHWH declares, because the Syrians have said, YHWH is Elohim of the hills, but he is not Elohim of the valleys, therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand and you will know that I am YHWH. And they camped one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that on the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel killed of the Syrians 100,000 footmen in one day. But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon 27,000 of the men that were left. And Benhadad fled and came into the city, into an inner room. And his slaves said to him, look now, we have heard that the kings of the House of Israel are merciful kings. Let us, I ask you, put sackcloth on our hips and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: perhaps he will save your life. So they girded sackcloth on their hips and put ropes on their heads and came to the king of Israel and said, your slave Benhadad asks, I beseech you, let me live. And he replied, is he still alive? He is my brother. Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did quickly catch it: and they said, your brother Benhadad. Then he replied, go, bring him. Then Benhadad came out to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot. And Benhadad said to him, the cities that my father took from your father, I will restore; and you will make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then Ahab replied, I will send you away with this treaty. So he made a treaty with him and sent him away. And a certain man from the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor in the Word of YHWH, hit me, I ask you. And the man refused to hit him. Then he replied to him, Because you have not obeyed the Voice of YHWH, look, as soon as you are departed from me, a lion will kill you. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him and killed him. Then he found another man and said, hit me, I ask you. And the man hit him, so that in striking he wounded him. So the prophet departed and waited for the king by the way and disguised himself with ashes upon his face. And as the king passed by, he cried to the king and he said, your slave went out into the middle of the battle; and lo, a man turned aside and brought a man to me and said, guard this man: if by any means he is missing, then will your life be for his life, or else you will pay a talent [75 pounds] of silver. And as your slave was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said to him, so will your judgment be; you have decided it. And he hurried and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel perceived that he was one of the prophets. And he said to him, This is what YHWH declares, because you have let go out of your hand a man whom I Devoted to Destruction, therefore your life will go for his life, and your people for his people. And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria. And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard that was in Jezreel, close by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

Then Ahab spoke to Naboth saying, sell me your vineyard so that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house. And I will give you for it a better vineyard than it; or if it seems good to you, I will give you the sum of it in money. But Naboth replied to Ahab, YHWH forbids me that I should sell the inheritance of my fathers to you. And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word that Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: because he had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid himself down upon his bed, and turned away his face and would eat no bread. But Jezebel his woman came to him and said to him, why is your spirit so sad so that you eat no bread? And he replied to her, because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, sell me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not sell you my vineyard. Then Jezebel his woman replied to him, do you now govern the Kingdom of Israel? Get up and eat bread and let your heart be merry: I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the Elders and to the Nobles that were in his city, living with Naboth. And she wrote in the letters saying, proclaim a fast and set Naboth up high among the people: And set two men, sons of Belial before him, to bear witness against him saying, you did blaspheme Elohim and the king. And then carry him out and stone him so that he may die. And the men of his city, even the Elders and the Nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, and as it was written in the letters that she had sent to them.

They proclaimed a fast and set Naboth up high among the people. And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people saying, Naboth did blaspheme Elohim and the king. Then they carried him out of the city and stoned him with stones so that he died. Then they sent to Jezebel saying, Naboth is stoned and is dead. And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, get up, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite that he refused to sell you for money: because Naboth is not alive, but dead. And it came about, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead that Ahab got up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it. And the Word of YHWH came to Elijah the Tishbite saying, Get up and go down to meet

Ahab king of Israel that is in Samaria: see, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to possess it. And you will speak to him saying, This is what YHWH declares, Have you killed and also taken possession? And you will speak to him saying, This is what YHWH declares, in the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth will dogs lick your blood, even yours. Then Ahab replied to Elijah, have you found me O my enemy? And he answered, I have found you: because you have sold yourself to work bad in the sight of YHWH. Look, I will bring bad upon you and will take away your posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisses against the wall and him that is shut up and left in Israel, and will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. Because of the provocation with which you have provoked me to anger and caused Israel to sin. And of Jezebel also YHWH spoke saying, The dogs will eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. Him that dies of Ahab in the city the dogs will eat; and him that dies in the field will the fowls of the sky eat. But there was none like Ahab that did sell himself to work evil in the sight of YHWH, who Jezebel his woman stirred up. And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Amorites, who YHWH cast out before the children of Israel. And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words that he tore his clothes and put sackcloth upon his flesh and fasted, and lay in sackcloth and walked gently. And the Word of YHWH came to Elijah the Tishbite saying, See how Ahab humbles himself before me? Because he humbled himself before me, I will not bring the bad in his days: but in his son’s days will I bring the bad upon his house.

And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. And it came about in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. and the king of Israel said to his slaves, have you not known that ours is Ramoth-Gilead? And we are keeping silent from taking it out of the hand of the king of Aram! And he said to Jehoshaphat, will you go with me to battle to Ramothgilead? And Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses. Then Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, consult I ask you, the Word of YHWH today. Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about 400 men and questioned them, will I go against Ramothgilead to battle, or will I forbear? And they replied, go up, because Adonai (YHWH) will deliver it into the hand of the king. And Jehoshaphat said, is there not here a prophet of YHWH besides these, that we might consult him? And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, there is still one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of YHWH: but I hate him because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but bad. And Jehoshaphat replied, let not the king say so. Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, summon here Micaiah the son of Imlah. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes in the threshing-floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made himself horns of iron: and he said, This is what YHWH declares, with these will you push the Syrians until you have consumed them. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, go up to Ramothgilead and prosper, because YHWH will deliver it into the king's hand.

And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spoke to him saying, see now, the words that the prophets declare are good for the king with one united voice. So let your word, I ask you, be like the word of one of them and speak what is good. Then Micaiah replied, as YHWH lives, what YHWH says to me is what I will speak. So he came to the king and the king said to him, Micaiah, will we go against Ramothgilead to battle or will we forbear? And he answered him, go and prosper, because YHWH will deliver it into the hand of the king. Then the king replied to him, how many times will I adjure you that you tell me nothing but what is true in the Name of YHWH? And he replied, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and YHWH said, these have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace. Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, did I not tell you that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but bad? And he said, hear you therefore the Word of YHWH: I saw YHWH sitting on his throne, and all the Host of the cosmos standing by him on his right hand and on his left. And YHWH said, Who will persuade Ahab that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead? And one suggested this and another suggested that. And there came out a spirit being, and stood before YHWH and said, I will persuade him.

Then YHWH replied to him, How will you? And he replied, I will go out and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he replied, You will persuade him, and prevail also: go out and do so. Now therefore, see, YHWH has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these of your prophets, and YHWH has spoken bad concerning you. But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and hit Micaiah on the cheek and said, which way went the Spirit of YHWH from me to speak to you? And Micaiah replied, take note, you will see in that day when you will go into an inner room to hide yourself. And the king of Israel said, take Micaiah and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; And say, the king orders, put this man in prison and feed him with bread of oppression and with water of oppression until I come in peace. Then Micaiah replied, if you return at all in peace YHWH has not spoken by me. And he said, hear O people, every one of you. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramothgilead. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself and enter into the battle; but you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle. But the king of Syria commanded his 32 captains that had rule over his chariots saying, fight neither with small or great, except only with the king of Israel. And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, certainly it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.

And it came about, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, then they turned back from pursuing him. And a man drew a fully extended bow and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his harness: therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, turn your hand and carry me out of the army because I am wounded. And the battle increased that day: and the king was held up in his chariot against the Syrians and died at sunset: and the blood ran out of the wound into the center of the chariot. And there went a proclamation throughout the army at the going down of the sun saying, every man to his city and every man to his own country. So the king died and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armor; according to the Word of YHWH that he spoke. Now the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did, and the ivory house that he fashioned, and all the cities that he constructed, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? So Ahab rested with his forefathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead. And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. Jehoshaphat was 35 years old when he began to reign; and he reigned 25 years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

And he walked in all the ways of Asa his dad; he turned not aside from it, doing what was right in the eyes of YHWH: but the worship places were not taken away, because the people offered and burnt incense still in the worship places. And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed and how he warred, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And the rest of the male temple prostitutes that remained in the days of his dad Asa, he burnt them up from out of the land. There was then no king in Edom: a deputy was king. Jehoshaphat made ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they did not sail because the ships were broken at Eziongeber. Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, let my slaves go with your slaves in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not agree. Finally Jehoshaphat rested with his forefathers and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David his relative: and Jehoram his son reigned in his place. Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the 17th year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel. And he did bad in the sight of YHWH, and walked in the way of his dad and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat who caused Israel to sin:

Because he served Baal and worshiped him, and provoked to anger YHWH Elohim of Israel, according to all that his dad had done. Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper room that was in Samaria, and became ill: and he sent messengers and said to them, go, inquire of Baalzebub the elohim of Ekron whether I will recover of this illness. But the Angel of YHWH said to Elijah the Tishbite, Get up and go meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, Is it because there is not an Elohim in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baalzebub elohim of Ekron? Now therefore YHWH declares, You will not come down from that bed on which you are gone up, but will certainly die, then Elijah departed. And when the messengers turned back to him, he said to them, why are you now returned? Then they replied to him, there came a man up to meet us and said to us, go return to the king that sent you and say to him, This is what YHWH declares, is it because there is not an Elohim in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baalzebub elohim of Ekron? Therefore, the bed where you have gone up too, you will not come down from it, because you will certainly die. And he asked them, what kind of man was he that came up to meet you, and told you these words? And they answered him, he was a hairy man, and belted with a girdle of leather around his hips. And he responded, it is Elijah the Tishbite. Then the king sent to him a captain of 50 with his 50. And he went up to him: and look, he sat on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him, you man of Elohim, the king has commanded, come down.

And Elijah answered and said to the captain of 50, if I am a man of Elohim then let supernatural fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your 50. And there came down supernatural fire from the sky and consumed him and his 50. Again also he sent to him another captain of 50 with his 50. And he answered and said to him, O man of Elohim, the king has commanded, come down quickly. And Elijah answered and said to them, if I am a man of Elohim, let supernatural fire come down from the sky and consume you and your 50. And supernatural fire from Elohim came down from the sky and consumed him and his 50. And he sent again a captain of the third 50 with his 50. And the third captain of 50 went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah and begged him, saying to him, O man of Elohim I beg you, let my life, and the life of these 50 of your slaves is precious in your sight. See, there came fire down from the sky and burnt up the two captains of the former 50 with their 50: therefore let my life now be precious in your sight. Then the Angel of YHWH replied to Elijah, Go down with him and do not be afraid of him. And he got up and went down with him to the king. And he replied to him, This is what YHWH declares, inasmuch as you have sent messengers to inquire of Baalzebub the elohim of Ekron, is it because there is not an Elohim in Israel to inquire [by Urim-Thummim] of His Word? Therefore the bed where you have gone up too, you will not come down from it, because you will certainly die. So he died according to the Word of YHWH that Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram reigned in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And it came to pass, at YHWH's taking up Elijah in a whirlwind to the heavens, that Elijah goes, and Elisha, from Gilgal, and Elijah says unto Elisha, `Abide, I pray you, here, for YHWH has sent me unto Beth-El;' and Elisha saith, `YHWH lives, and your soul lives, if I leave you;' and they go down to Beth-El. And sons of the prophets who [are] in Beth-El come out unto Elisha, and say unto him, `Have you known that to-day YHWH is taking your lord from your head?' and he says, `I also have known -- keep silent.' And Elijah says to him, `Elisha, abide, I pray you, here, for YHWH has sent me to Jericho;' and he says, `YHWH lives, and your soul lives, if I leave you;' and they come in to Jericho. And sons of the prophets who [are] in Jericho come near unto Elisha, and say unto him, `Have you known that to-day YHWH is taking your lord from your head? ' and he says, `I also have known -- keep silent.'Then Elijah said to him, stay here I ask you; because YHWH has sent me to Jordan. And he replied, as YHWH lives and as you live, I will not leave you, and both of them went on. And 50 men from the sons of the prophets went and stood to view off in the distance, and they both stood by the Jordan River. And Elijah took his mantle (cloak), and wrapped it together and hit the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that they both went over on dry ground. And it came about, when they were passed over that Elijah said to Elisha, ask what I will do for you before I am taken away from you. And Elisha replied, I ask you, let a double opening of your spirit be upon me. And he replied, you have asked a difficult thing: but if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be so for you; but if not, it will not be so. And it came about as they still went on and talked, that lo, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted the both of them; and Elijah ascended by a whirlwind into the skies.

And Elisha saw it and he cried, my father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen! . And he saw him again no more, and he took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces. He also picked up the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and returned, and stood by the bank of the Jordan River; And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and hit the waters and said, where is YHWH Elohim of Elijah? and when he also had hit the waters, they parted here and there: and Elisha passed over. And when the sons of the prophets that were viewing at Jericho saw him they said, the spirit of Elijah does rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground before him. And they said to him, look now, there are with your slaves 50 strong men; let them go we ask you, and find your master: unless perhaps the Spirit of YHWH has taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley. And he replied, you will not send them. And when they urged him until he was disconcerted he replied, send them. So they sent 50 men; and they searched three days but did not find him. And when they came again to him, (for he stayed at Jericho,) he said to them, did I not tell you to refrain from going? And the men of the city replied to Elisha, see, I ask you, the situation of this city is pleasant as my master sees: but the water is bad and the ground is barren. And he replied, bring me a new cruse and put salt in it. And they brought it to him. And he went out to the spring of the waters and cast the salt in there and said, This is what YHWH declares, I have healed these waters;

there will not be from there any more death or barren land. So the waters were healed to this day, according to the words of Elisha that he spoke. And he went up from there to Bethel: and as he was going up by the way, there came out little children from the city and mocked him and said to him, go up, you bald head; go up, you bald head. And he turned around and looked at them, and cursed them in the Name of YHWH. And there came out two she bears from the woods, and ripped apart 42 children of them. And he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria. Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria during the 18th year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. And he did bad in the sight of YHWH; but not like his dad and his mother had done: because he removed the image of Baal that his dad had fashioned. But he followed closely to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin and he departed not from them. And Mesha king of Moab was a sheep dealer, and rendered to the king of Israel 100,000 lambs, and 100,000 rams, with the wool. But it came about when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time and numbered all Israel.

And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah saying, the king of Moab has rebelled against me: will you go with me against Moab to battle? And he replied, I will go up: I am as you are, my people as your people, and my horses as your horses. And he said, which route will we go up? And he answered, the route through the wilderness of Edom. So the king of Israel went and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they made a circuit of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the army, and for the cattle that followed them. And the king of Israel said, Alas! That YHWH has called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab! But Jehoshaphat replied, is there not here a prophet of YHWH so that we may inquire of YHWH by him? And one of the king of Israel's slaves answered and said, here is Elisha the son of Shaphat that poured water on the hands of Elijah. And Jehoshaphat replied, the Word of YHWH is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him. Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, what have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your dad, and to the prophets of your mother. And the king of Israel replied to him, no, because YHWH has called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. And Elisha replied, as YHWH of Hosts lives before whom I stand, certainly were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you. But now bring me a minstrel. And it came about, when the minstrel played that the hand of YHWH came upon him. And he said, This is what YHWH declares, make this valley full of ditches.

Because now YHWH declares, you will not see wind, neither will you see rain; still that valley will be filled with water so that you may drink, both you and your cattle and your animals. And this is but an insignificant thing in the sight of YHWH: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand. And you will attack every fenced city and every choice city, and will cut every good tree, and stop all wells of water and mar every good piece of land with stones. And it came to pass in the morning, at the ascending of the morning offerings, that lo, waters are coming in from the way of Edom, and the land is filled with the waters. And all Moab have heard that the kings have come up to fight against them, and they are called together, from everyone girding on a girdle and upward, and they stand by the border. And they got up early in the morning, and the sun gleamed upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood: And they said, this is blood: the kings are certainly killed, and they have attacked one another: now therefore, Moab, to the plunder. And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites got up and attacked the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went on attacking the Moabites, even in their own country. And the cities they broke down, and on every good portion they cast each his stone, and have filled it, and every fountain of water they stopped, and every good tree they cause to fall, until one had left its stones in Kir-Haraseth, until the slingers surrounded and conquered it. And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with him 700 men that drew swords, to break through even to the king of Edom, but they could not.

Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt sacrifice upon the wall. And there was great anger against Israel and they departed from him and returned to their own land. Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets to Elisha saying, your slave my husband is dead; and you know that your slave did fear YHWH: and the creditor has come to take to him my two sons to be slaves. Then Elisha replied to her, what will I do for you? Tell me what you have in the house? And she replied, your maid-servant has nothing in the house, except a flask of oil. Then he said, go borrow yourself vessels from of all your neighbors, even empty vessels and borrow not just a few. And when you are come in, you will shut the door behind you and upon your sons, and will pour out into all those vessels, and you will set aside what is full. So she went from him, and shut the door behind her and upon her sons, who brought the borrowed vessels to her and she poured out. And it came about when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, bring me still another vessel. But he said to her, there are no more vessels left. And then the oil stopped appearing. Then she came and told the man of Elohim. And he replied, go sell the oil and pay your debt, and you and your sons can live on what is left. And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem where was an older woman; and she urged him to eat food. And so it has been that as often as he passed by, he would turn in there to eat food. And she said to her husband, see now, I perceive that this is a Holy man of Elohim that passes by us continually.

Let us make a little room I ask you, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it will be, when he comes to us that he will turn in here. And it fell on a day, that he came there and he turned into the room, and lay there. And he said to Gehazi his slave, call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him. And he said to him, tell her now, look, you have been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for you? Would you be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the army? And she answered, I live among my own people. And he replied, what then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, truly she has no children and her husband is old. And he replied, call her; And when he had called her, she stood in the door. And he said, about this season according to the time of life, you will embrace a son. And she replied, no, my master, you man of Elohim, do not lie to your maidservant. But the woman conceived and gendered a son at that season exactly as Elisha had told her, according to the time of life. And the lad grew up, and the day came that he went out to his dad, to the reapers Then he said to his dad, my head, my head.

And he replied to a servant, Carry him to his mother. And when he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon, and then died. So she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of Elohim, and shut the door behind him and went out. And she called to her husband and said, send me I ask you, one of the young men and one of the donkeys so that I may run to the man of Elohim, and return. And he replied, why will you go to him today? It is neither new moon, nor Sabbath. And she replied, it will be for our welfare. Then she saddled a donkey and said to her slave, drive and go on; do not restrain riding for me, except I have said so to you. So she went and came to the man of Elohim to Mount Carmel. And it came to pass when the man of Elohim saw her in the distance, that he said to Gehazi his slave, look, out there is that Shunammite. Run now, I ask you to meet her and say to her, is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child? And she answered, it is well. And when she came to the man of Elohim to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to cast her away. But the man of Elohim said, leave her alone because her life is vexed within her, and YHWH has hidden it from me and has not told me. Then she said, did I desire a son of my master? Did I not say, do not deceive me? Then he replied to Gehazi, belt up your hips and take my staff in your hand and go your way:

if you meet anyone, greet him not; and if any greets you, do not answer him back: and lay my staff on the face of the child. And the mother of the child replied, as YHWH lives and as your life exists, I will not leave you. And he got up and followed her. And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Therefore he went again to meet him and told him saying, the child is not aroused. And when Elisha had come into the house, lo, the child was dead and laid upon his bed. He went in therefore, and shut the door behind them both, and prayed to YHWH. And he went up and laid upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands, and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child became warm. Then he returned, and walked in the house back and forth; and went up and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. Then he called Gehazi and said, call this Shunammite, so he called her. And when she had come to him he said, take up your son. Then she went in and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground and took up her son and went out. And Elisha came again to Gilgal: and there was a famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him: and he said to his slave, set on the great pot, and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets. And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a vine of the field, and gathered of it gourds of the field, the fullness of his garment and came in and sliced them into the pot of pottage, although no one knew what they were.

So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came about as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out and said, O you man of Elohim, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat of it. But he replied, then bring meal. And he cast it into the pot and he said, pour out for the people so that they may eat. And there came no harm from that pot. And there came a man from Baalshalisha, and brought the man of Elohim grain from the first-fruits, 20 loaves of barley, and full ears of grain in a sack. And he said, give to the people so that they may eat. And his servant said, what, should I set this before 100 men? He replied again, give to the people so that they may eat, because this is what YHWH declares, they will eat and will have ample left over. So he set it before them and they did eat, then they departed, according to the Word of YHWH. Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Syria was a great man with his master and honorable, and because by him YHWH had given deliverance to Syria: he was also a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper. And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little girl; and she waited on Naaman's woman. And she said to her mistress, O that my master were before the prophet who is in Samaria; then he would recover from his leprosy. And one went in and told his master saying, such and such said the girl that is from the land of Israel. And the king of Syria replied, now leave, go and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. So he left, and took with him ten talents [750 pounds] of silver, and 6000 pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothing.

And he brought the letter to the king of Israel saying, now when this letter has come to you, see, I have now sent Naaman my slave to you so that you may recover him of his leprosy. And it came about, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he tore his clothes and said, am I Elohim, to kill and to make alive so that this man sends to me to recover a man from his leprosy? Now consider I ask you, and see how he finds a quarrel against me. And it was so, when Elisha the man of Elohim had heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king saying, why have you torn your clothes? let him come now to me, and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel. So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. And Elisha sent a messenger to him saying, go and wash in the Jordan River seven times, and your flesh will return to you and you will be clean. But Naaman was upset and went away and said, look, I thought he will certainly come out to me, and stand and call on the Name of YHWH Elohim, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Can I not wash in them and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage. But his slave came near and spoke to him and said, my chief, if the prophet had asked you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much rather then, when he tells you, wash and be clean? Then he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan River, according to the saying of the man of Elohim: and his flesh returned like the flesh of a little child and he was clean. And he returned to the man of Elohim, he and all his company, and came and stood before him.

And he said, see, now I know that there is no Elohim in all the earth but in Israel: now therefore, I ask you, take a blessing from your slave. But he replied, as YHWH lives before whom I stand, I will receive nothing. And he urged him to take it but he refused. Then Naaman said, will there not then, I ask you, be given to your slave two mules' burden of earth? because your slave will now offer neither burnt-offering nor sacrifice to other elohim, but to YHWH only. In this thing YHWH pardon your slave, that when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, YHWH pardon your slave in this thing. And he replied to him, go in peace. So he departed from him a little way. But Gehazi, the slave of Elisha the man of Elohim said, see, my master has spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands what he brought: but as YHWH lives, I will run after him and take anything from him he offers. So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he got down from the chariot to meet him and asked, is all well? And he replied, all is well. My master has sent me saying, see, even now there are come to me from Mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give to them, I ask you, a talent [75 pounds] of silver, and two changes of clothes. And Naaman replied, be content and take two talents [150 pounds]. And he urged him and bound two talents [150 pounds] of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and laid them on two of his slaves; and they carried them before him. And when he came to the hill he took them from their hand and deposited them in the house:

and he let the men go and they left. But he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, where have you come from Gehazi? And he replied, your slave went nowhere. And he replied to him, did not my heart go with you when the man turned from off his chariot to meet you; is it a time to take silver and to take clothing, and olives and vines, flock, herd, and male and female slaves? The leprosy therefore of Naaman will cling to you and to your offspring for the ages. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow. And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, look now, the place where we meet with you is too small for us. Let us go, we ask you, to the Jordan River and take from there every man a beam, and let us construct ourselves a place there where we may meet. And he answered, you can go. And one said, be content I ask you and go with your slaves. And he answered, I will go. So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan River, they cut down trees. But as one was knocking out a beam then the ax head fell into the water: and he cried and said, Alas, master! For it was borrowed. Then the man of Elohim replied, where did it fall? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in there and the iron ax floated. Then he said, take it up for yourself. And he put out his hand and took it. Then the king of Syria warred against Israel and took counsel with his slaves saying, In such and such a place will be my camp. And the man of Elohim sent to the king of Israel saying, beware that you pass not such a place because there the Syrians have come down. And the king of Israel sent to the place that the man of Elohim told him and warned him of, and saved himself from there, not just once or twice. Then the mind of the king of Syria was very troubled because of this thing; and he called his slaves and said to them, will you not reveal to me which of you is for the king of Israel? But one of his slaves replied, None my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom. Then he replied, go and spy where he is so that I may send and capture him. And it was told him saying, look, he is in Dothan. Then he sent horses and chariots, and a great army: and they came by night, and surrounded the city. And when the slave of the man of Elohim had risen early and gone out, lo, an army surrounded the city both with horses and chariots. And his slave said to him, alas my master! How will we do? Then he answered, Fear not because they that are with us are more than they that are with them. And Elisha prayed and asked, YHWH, I pray you, open his eyes so that he may see. And YHWH opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and lo, the hill was full of horses and chariots of supernatural fire around Elisha. And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed to YHWH and said, strike these people I pray you with blindness. And he struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. Then Elisha said to them, this is not the road, neither is this the city: follow me and I will bring you to the man whom you seek. But he led them to Samaria instead. And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria that Elisha said, YHWH, open the eyes of these men so that they may see. And YHWH opened their eyes and they saw; and lo, they were in the middle of Samaria. And the king of Israel said to Elisha when he saw them, my father, will I strike? Will I kill them? And he answered, you will not strike them: would you kill those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them so that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. And he prepared great provisions for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away and they went to their master. So the troops of Syria came no more into the land of Israel. And it came to pass after this, that Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his army and went up, and besieged Samaria. And there was a great famine in Samaria: and note, they besieged it until a donkey's head was sold for 80 shekels [2 pounds] of silver, and 1/4th part of a cab [1/2 pint] of dove's dung for five shekels [2 ounces] of silver. And as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, there cried a woman to him saying, help my master O king. And he replied, if YHWH does not help you, how will I help you?

Out of the barn-floor, or out of the winepress? And the king replied to her, what ails you? And she answered, this woman said to me, give your son so that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow. So we boiled my son and did eat him: and I said to her on the next day, give your son so that we may eat him: but she has hidden her son. And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman that he tore his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall and the people looked, and lo, he had sackcloth on his flesh. Then he said, Elohim do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat will stand on him this day. But Elisha sat in his house, and the Elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but before the messenger came to him, he said to the Elders, see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold him securely at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet right behind him? And while he still talked with them, see, the messenger came down to him: and he said, look, this bad is from YHWH; do I wait for YHWH anymore? Then Elisha said, hear you the Word of YHWH; This is what YHWH declares, tomorrow about this time will a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel [2/5th ounce], and two measures of barley for a shekel [2/5th ounce], in the gate of Samaria. Then the captain whom the king had, by whose hand he had been supported, answered the man of Elohim and said, Lo, YHWH is making windows in the sky, will this thing be? And he replied, lo, you are seeing it with your eyes, but will not eat. And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, why are we sitting here until we die? If we say, we will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we will die there: and if we still sit here, we die also.

Now come, and let us prostrate ourselves before the army of the Syrians: if they save us alive we will live, but if they kill us we will but die anyway. And they got up in the twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the outermost part of the camp of Syria, see, there was no one there. Because Adonai (YHWH) had caused the army of the Syrians to hear a sound of chariots, and a sound of horses, even the noise of a great army. And they said one to another, lo, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians to come upon us. Therefore they got up and fled in the twilight and left their tents, and their horses and their donkeys, even the camp as it had been and fled for their lives. And when these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent and did eat and drink, and carried out silver, gold, and clothing. And went and hid it; and returned and entered into another tent, and carried out more, and went and hid that too. Then they said one to another, we are not doing well: this day is a day of good news and we hold our peace. If we wait until the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come so that we may go and tell the king's household. So they came and called to the gatekeeper of the city: and they told him saying, we came to the camp of the Syrians, and saw that there was no one there, neither voice of man, but horses and donkeys tied, and the tents as they were. And he called the porter; and they told it to the king's inner house. And the king got up in the night and said to his slaves, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the fields saying, when they come out of the city, we will catch them alive and get into the city. And one of his slaves answered and said, let some take I ask you, five of the horses that remain, that are left in the city. See, they are as the entire multitude of Israel that are left in it (note I say, they are even as the entire multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and let us send and see for ourselves. They then took two chariot horses; and the king sent after the army of the Syrians saying, go and see. And they went after them to the Jordan River: and lo, all the road was full of garments and vessels that the Syrians had cast away in their hurry. And the messengers returned and reported to the king. Then the people went out and plundered the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel [2/5th ounce] and two measures of barley for a shekel [2/5th ounce] according to the Word of YHWH. And the king appointed the master on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trampled on him in the gate and he died, as the man of Elohim had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. And it came to pass as the man of Elohim had spoken to the king saying, two measures of barley for a shekel [2/5th ounce] and a measure of fine flour for a shekel [2/5th ounce] will be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria. And that captain answered the man of Elohim and said, now see, if YHWH should make windows in the sky, might such a thing be? And he replied, note, you will see it with your eyes, but will not eat. And it came to him as said, and the people trampled him down in the gate and he died. Then Elisha spoke to the woman, whose son he had restored to life saying, get up and go, you and your household and journey wherever you can travel, because YHWH has called for a famine, and it will also come upon the land for seven years. And the woman got up, and observed the saying of the man of Elohim: and she went with her household, and journeyed in the land of the Philistines for seven years. And it came to pass at the end of seven years, that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines:

and she went out to cry for help to the king for her house and for her land. And the king talked with Gehazi the slave of the man of Elohim saying, tell me I ask you, all the great things that Elisha has done. And it came about, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that see, the woman whose son he had restored to life, cried for help to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, my master O king, this is the woman and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life. And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer saying, restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now. Then Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told to him saying, the man of Elohim has come here. And the king said to Hazael, take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of Elohim and inquire of YHWH by him saying, will I recover of this disease? So Hazael went to meet him and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, 40 camels' burden and came and stood before him and said, your son Benhadad king of Syria has sent me to you saying, will I recover of this disease? And Elisha replied to him, go say to him, you may certainly recover: but YHWH has revealed to me that he will certainly die. And he kept his gaze on him until he felt ashamed: and the man of Elohim wept. Then Hazael said, why weep my master? And he answered, because I know the bad that you will do to the children of Israel: their strongholds will you set on fire, and their young men will you kill with the sword, and will dash their children and rip up their pregnant women.

And Hazael replied, but what, is your slave a dog that he should do this intense thing? And Elisha answered, YHWH has revealed to me that you will be king over Syria. So he departed from Elisha and came to his master; who said to him, what did Elisha say to you? And he answered, he told me that you would certainly recover. And it came about on the next day that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it over his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his place. And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. He was 32 years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his woman: and he did bad in the sight of YHWH. And YHWH was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of David his slave as he said to him, to give to him a lamp, to his sons all the days. In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah and appointed a king over themselves. So Joram went over to Zair and all the chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and attacked the Edomites that surrounded him and the captains of the chariots:

and the people fled into their tents. Still Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. And the rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And Joram rested with his forefathers and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David: and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign. He was 22 years old when Ahaziah began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel. And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did bad in the sight of YHWH, as did the house of Ahab, because he was the son in law of the house of Ahab. And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramothgilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel from the wounds that the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. And Elisha the prophet called one of the children of the prophets and said to him, belt up your hips, and take this box of oil in your hand, and go to Ramothgilead: And when you come there, look out there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in and make him get up from among his family, and bring him to an inner room; Then take the box of oil and pour it on his head and say, This is what YHWH declares, I have anointed you king over Israel. Then open the door and flee, and do not stay. So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramothgilead. And when he came, see, the captains of the army were sitting; and he said, I have an errand for you, O captain.

And Jehu replied, for which of us? And he said, for you O captain. And he got up and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head and said to him, This is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, I have anointed you king over the people of YHWH, even over Israel. And you will attack the house of Ahab your master so that I may avenge the blood of my slaves the prophets, and the blood of all the slaves of YHWH by the hand of Jezebel. Because the whole house of Ahab will perish: and I will cut off from Ahab him that pisses against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel. And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah: And the dogs will eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and there will be none to bury her. And he then opened the door and fled. Then Jehu came out to the slaves of his master: and one said to him, is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you? And he replied to them, you know the man and his meditations. And they replied, it is false so tell us now. And he replied, this and that he spoke to me saying, This is what YHWH declares, I have anointed you king over Israel. Then they hurried, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king. So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram.

(Now Joram had guarded Ramothgilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria. But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria). And Jehu said, if it is in your mind, let not an escaped one go out from the city, to go to declare it in Jezreel. So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel, because Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to visit Joram. And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came and said, I see a company. And Joram said, take a horseman and send to meet them, and let him ask, is it peace? So there went one on horseback to meet him and said, the king asks, is it peace? And Jehu said, what have you to do with peace? Turn in behind me. And the watchman told saying, the messenger came to them but he does not return. Then he sent out a second on horseback that came to them and said, the king asks, is it peace? And Jehu answered, what have you to do with peace? Turn in behind me. And the watchman told saying, he came to them and does not return: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, because he drives furiously. Then Joram said, make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the parcel plot of Naboth the Jezreelite. And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu that he asked, is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, what peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her sorcery is so abounding? Then Joram turned his hands and fled, and said to Ahaziah, there is treachery, O Ahaziah. And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and struck Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite, because remember how that, when I and you rode together after Ahab his dad, YHWH laid this burden upon him; Certainly I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, says YHWH; and I will repay you in this plot says YHWH. Now therefore take and cast him into that plot of ground, according to the Word of YHWH. But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the road of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him and said, strike him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gur that is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there. And his slaves carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his forefathers in the city of David. And in the 11th year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah. And when Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face and fixed her head, and looked out from a window. And as Jehu entered in at the gate she said, had Zimri peace, who killed his master? And he lifted up his face to the window and said, who is on my side?

And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs. And he said, throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trampled her under foot.

And when he had come in, he did eat and drink and said, go, see now in this cursed woman and bury her, because she is a king's daughter. And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. Therefore they came again and told him. And he replied, this is the Word of YHWH that he spoke by his slave Elijah the Tishbite saying, In the portion of Jezreel will the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel. And the corpse of Jezebel will be as dung upon the face of the field in the parcel plot of Jezreel; so that they will not say, this is Jezebel. And Ahab had 70 sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, to the Elders and to them that brought up Ahab's children saying, now as soon as this letter comes to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armor. And you have seen the best and the most upright of the sons of your master, and have set him on the throne of his father, and fight you for the house of your master. But they were exceedingly afraid and said, look, two kings stood not before him so how then will we stand? And he that was over the house and he that was over the city, the Elders also, and the nurses of the children sent to Jehu saying, we are your slaves. And will do all that you will ask us, we will not make any king: do you what is good in your eyes. Then he wrote a letter the second time to them saying, if you are mine and if you will listen to my voice, then take off the heads of the males of your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time. Now the king's sons, being 70 people, were with the older men of the city that had brought them up. And it came to pass when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and killed 70 people, and put their heads in baskets and sent him them to Jezreel. And there came a messenger and told him saying, they have brought the heads of the king's sons.

And he replied, pile them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning. And it came to pass in the morning that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, you are righteous: see, I conspired against my master and killed him: but who killed all these? Know now that there will fall to the ground nothing from the Word of YHWH that YHWH spoke concerning the house of Ahab. Because YHWH has done what he spoke by his slave Elijah. So Jehu killed all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his old men, and his kinsmen and his priests, until he left none of his remaining. And he got up and left and came to Samaria. And as he was at the shearing house in the road, Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah and said, who are you? And they answered, we are the brothers of Ahaziah; and we go down to greet the children of the king and the children of the queen. And he said, take them alive. And they took them alive and killed them at the cistern of the shearing house, even 42 men; neither left he any of them alive. And when he had left there, he ran into Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he greeted him and said to him, is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? And Jehonadab answered, it is. If it is, give me your hand. And he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot. And he said, come with me, and see my zeal for YHWH. So they made him ride in his chariot. And when he came to Samaria, he killed all that remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the Word of YHWH that he spoke to Elijah. And Jehu gathered all the people together and said to them, Ahab served

Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much. Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his slaves and all his priests;

let none be lacking, because I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whoever will be lacking, he will not live. But Jehu did this in craftiness, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal. Then Jehu said, proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it. And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that did not come. And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from one end to another. And he said to him that was over the wardrobe, bring out vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them out the vestments. And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab into the house of Baal, and said to the worshippers of Baal, search, and look that there are here with you none of the slaves of YHWH, but the worshippers of Baal only. And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt-offerings, Jehu appointed 80 men outside and said, if any of the men who I have brought into your hands escape, he that lets him go, his life will be for the life of him. And it came about, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in and kill them; let none come out. And they killed them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. And they brought out the images out of the house of Baal and burnt them.

And they broke down the image of Baal and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a bathroom house to this day. Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. But from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from them, the golden calves that were in Bethel and that were in Dan. And YHWH said to Jehu, because you have done well in executing what is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your children to the fourth generation will sit on the throne of Israel. But Jehu took no heed to walk in the Law of YHWH Elohim of Israel with all his heart, because he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam that caused Israel to sin. In those days YHWH began to cut Israel short: and Hazael attacked them in all the territory of Israel; From Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer that is by the Arnon River, even Gilead and Bashan. Now the rest of the acts of Jehu and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Then Jehu rested with his forefathers and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place. And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was 28 years. And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she got up and destroyed all the royal offspring. But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and secretly carried him away from among the king's sons that were executed; and they hid him and his nurse in a bedroom from Athaliah, so that he was not killed.

And he was with her hidden in the Temple of YHWH for six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land. In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and gathered the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the Temple of YHWH. And cut an alliance with them and took an oath of them in the Temple of YHWH, and revealed to them the king's son. And he commanded them saying, this is what you will do; one-third part of you that enter in on the Sabbath will even be keepers of the guard of the king's house; And one-third part will be at the gate of Sur; and one-third part at the gate behind the guard: so will you keep the guard of the house, that it is not broken into. And two parts of all you that go out on the Sabbath, even they will keep the guard of the Temple of YHWH around the king. And you will encircle the king around, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that comes within range then let him be killed: and be you with the king as he goes out and as he comes in. And the captains over the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the Sabbath, with them that should go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and shields, that were in the Temple of YHWH. And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand around the king, from the right corner of the Temple to the left corner of the Temple, along by the Altar and the Temple. And he brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him and gave him the testimony; and they made him king and anointed him; and they clapped their hands and exclaimed, Elohim save the king! And when Athaliah heard the sounds of the guards and of the people, she came to the people into the Temple of YHWH.

And when she looked, lo, the king stood by a pillar, as the custom was, and the chiefs and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, treason, treason! But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the army and said to them, bring her out unto the outside of the Temple precincts, and him who is going after her, put to death by the sword. Because the priest had said, let her not be put to death in the Temple of YHWH. And they laid hands on her, and she entered the way of the entering in of the horses in the house of the king, and was put to death there. And Jehoiada cut a covenant between YHWH and the king and the people, that they should be YHWH's people; between the king also and the people. And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images they broke to pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed guards over the Temple of YHWH. And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the Temple of YHWH, and came by the way of the guard gate to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings. And all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was in quietude: and they executed Athaliah with the sword outside the king's house.

Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign. In the seventh year of Jehu Jehoash began to reign; and 40 years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. And Jehoash did what was right in the sight of YHWH all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. But the worship places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the worship places. And Jehoas h said to the priests, all the money of the consecrated things that are brought into the Temple of YHWH, the money from him who is passing over, each the money of his valuation, all the money that it goes up from the heart of a man to bring into the Temple of YHWH, let the priests take it to them, every man from his acquaintance: and let them repair the cracks of the Temple, wherever any crack will be found. But it was so, that in the 23rd year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the cracks of the Temple. Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests and said to them, why have you not repaired the cracks of the Temple? Now therefore receive no more money from your acquaintance, but deliver it for the cracks of the Temple repair. So the priests consented to receive no more money from the people, neither to strengthen the cracks of the Temple. But Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the Altar, on the right side as one comes into the Temple of YHWH. And the priests that guarded the door put in there all the money that was brought into the Temple of YHWH. And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the High Priest came up, and they put it up in bags, and counted the money that was found in the Temple of YHWH. And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the Temple of YHWH:

and they l aid it out to the carpenters and builders that worked on the Temple of YHWH, and to masons and stonecutters, and to buy timber and cut stone to repair the cracks of the Temple of YHWH, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it. But there were not made for the Temple of YHWH bowls of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver from the money that was brought into the Temple of YHWH: But they gave that to the workmen and so repaired the Temple of YHWH. And they did not calculate the funds with the men into whose hand they gave the money to pay those doing the work, because in faithfulness they are dealing. The trespass money and sin money was not brought into the Temple of YHWH: it was the priest's. Then Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath and captured it: and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. Then Jehoash king of Judah took all the consecrated things that Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated. And his own consecrated things, and all the gold that was found in the treasury of the Temple of YHWH, and in the king's house and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem. And the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And his slaves rose and made a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of Millo that goes down to Silla. Because Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his slaves, struck him and he died. And they buried him with his forefathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his place. In the 23rd year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned 17 years. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin; he departed not from them. Then the nostrils of YHWH flared against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, all their days. And Jehoahaz appeased the face of YHWH, and YHWH listened to him, because he had seen the oppression of Israel, for the king of Aram had oppressed them. (And YHWH gave Israel a deliverer, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel lived in their tents, as in the past. But they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin, but walked in them, and there continued to remain the groves [for idol worship] in Samaria). Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but 50 horsemen and ten chariots, and 10,000 footmen, because the king of Syria had destroyed them and had made them like the powder from threshing. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jehoahaz rested with his forefathers; and they buried him in Samaria, and Joash his son reigned in his place. In the 37th year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned 16 years. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat who caused Israel sin, but he walked in them. And the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Joash rested with his forefathers and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. Now Elisha had fallen ill from the sickness of which he would die. And Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face and said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and its horsemen! Then Elisha said to him, take a bow and arrows. And he took to himself a bow and arrows. And he said to the king of Israel, put your hand on the bow. And he put his hand on it: and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands. And he said, open the window eastward, and he opened it. Then Elisha said, shoot, and he shot. And he said, the arrow of YHWH's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria, because you will attack the Syrians in Aphek until you have consumed them. And he said, take the arrows, and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, strike upon the ground. And he struck three times and stopped. Then the man of Elohim was angry with him and said, you should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck Syria until you had consumed it: whereas now you will attack Syria only three times. Then Elisha died and they buried him. And the troops of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. And it came about as they were burying a man, that lo, they spied a troop of men so they cast the man into the tomb of Elisha. And when the man was let down his corpse touched the bones of Elisha and he was restored to life, and stood up on his feet. But Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

Chapter 13

Chapter 14

And YHWH was gracious to them and had compassion on them, and had respect to them, because of his Covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast them from his presence as yet. So Hazael king of Syria died; and Benhadad his son reigned in his place. And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities that he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. And three times did Joash beat him and recovered the cities of Israel. In the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel reigned Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah. He was 25 years old when he began to reign and reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. And he did what was right in the sight of YHWH, still not like David his forefather: he did according to all things as Joash his dad did. But the worship places were not taken away: as still the people did sacrifice and burn incense at the worship places. And it came about, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand that he killed his slaves that had killed the king his father. But the children of the murderers he killed not:

according to what is written in the scroll of the Torah of Moses, where YHWH commanded saying, The fathers will not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers. But every human being will be put to death for their own sin. He killed from Edom in the Valley of Salt 10,000 and took Selah by war, and called the name of it Joktheel to this day. Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel saying, come, and let us look one another in the face. But Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah saying, the thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon saying, give your daughter to my son for a woman. And there passed by a wild animal that was in Lebanon, and trampled down the thistle. You have indeed beaten Edom, and your heart has lifted you up: glory of this and stay at home. Because why should you meddle to your hurt so that you should fall, even you and Judah with you? But Amaziah would not listen, therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Bethshemesh that belongs to Judah. And Judah was beaten before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents. Then Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Bethshemesh and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, 400 cubits [600 feet]. And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the Temple of YHWH, and in the treasury of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash that he did, and his might and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Then Jehoash rested with his forefathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his place. And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel 15 years. And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachish; but they pursued after him to Lachish, and killed him there. And they brought him on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his forefathers in the city of David. And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was 16 years old and appointed him king instead of his dad Amaziah. He built Elath and restored it to Judah, after that the king rested with his ancestors. In the 15th year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah

Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned 41 years. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH: he did not departed from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. He restored the borders of Israel from the entering of Hamath to the sea of the plain, according to the Word of YHWH Elohim of Israel that he spoke by the hand of his slave Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet that was from Gathhepher. Because YHWH saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter:

for there was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel. But YHWH had not said that the Name of Israel was to be removed from the land; but he gave them a deliverer in Jeroboam, the son of Joash. Now the re st of the acts of Jeroboam and all that he did and his might, how he waged war, and how he recovered Damascus and Hamath that belonged to Judah for Israel, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Then Jeroboam rested with his forefathers, the kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned in his place. In the 27th year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. He was 16 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 52 years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. And he did what was right in the sight of YHWH, according to all that his dad Amaziah had done; Except that the worship places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still at the worship places. And YHWH scourged the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land. And the rest of the acts of Azariah and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? So Azariah rested with his forefathers, and they buried him with his ancestors in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his place. In the 38th year of Azariah king of Judah did Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH, as his forefathers had done: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him before the people and killed him, and reigned in his place. And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, see, they are written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. This was the Word of YHWH that he spoke to Jehu saying, Your sons will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation, and so it came to pass. Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the 39th year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria. Because Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him and reigned in his place. And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy that he plotted, see, they are written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. Then Menahem attacked Tiphsah, and all that were there, and its borders from Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he attacked it; and all the women that were pregnant he ripped up. In the 39th year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. Then Pul the king of Assyria came against the land: and Menahem gave Pul 1000 talents [37 tons] of silver so that his hand might be with him to strengthen the kingdom in his hand. And Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man 50 shekels of silver [1 1/4th pounds] to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria returned and remained not in the land. And the rest of the acts of Menahem and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Then Menahem rested with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his place. In the 50th year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his conspired against him, and struck him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house with Argob and Arieh, and with him 50 men of the Gileadites: and he killed him and reigned in his place. And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah and all that he did, see, they are written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Chapter 15

In the 52nd year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned 20 years. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglathpileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, Abelbethmaachah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them away captive to Assyria. And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck and killed him, and reigned in his place in the 20th year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. And the rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did, see, they are written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. He was 25 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok. And he did what was right in the sight of YHWH: he did according to all that his dad Uzziah had done. But the worship places were not removed:

the people sacrificed and burnt incense still at the worship places. He built the Upper Gate of the Temple of YHWH. Now the rest of the acts of Jotham and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? In those days YHWH began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah. Then Jotham rested with his forefathers and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David his relative: and Ahaz his son reigned in his place. In the 17th year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. Ahaz was 20 years old when he began to reign and reigned 16 years in Jerusalem, and did not what was right in the sight of YHWH Elohim, like David his forefather. But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, who YHWH cast out from before the children of Israel. And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the worship places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to wage war: and they besieged Ahaz but could not overcome him. At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath and lived there to this day. So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglathpileser king of Assyria saying, I am your slave and your son: come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel that rise up against me. Then Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the Temple of YHWH, and in the treasury of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria. Then the king of Assyria listened to him, because the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and captured it, and carried its people captive to Kir and killed Rezin.

Chapter 16

And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglathpileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus. And king Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest a drawing of the altar and its pattern, according to all its workmanship. And Uriah the priest constructed the altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus; so Urijah the priest had it ready by the time king Ahaz arrived from Damascus. And when the king had returned from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached the altar and offered on it. And he burned his burnt-offering and his grain-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offerings upon the altar. As to the Bronze Altar that is before YHWH; he brought it near from the front of the house, from between the new altar and the Temple of YHWH, and put it on the side of the new altar, northward. And king Ahaz commanded him (Uriah the priest) saying, on the new altar perfume the Burnt-Offering of the morning, and the present of the evening, and the Burnt-Offering of the king, and his present, and the Burnt-Offering of all the people of the land, and their present, and their libations; and all the blood of the Burnt-Offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice, on it you will sprinkle. But the Bronze Altar is for me to inquire by. This Uriah the priest did, according to all that king Ahaz commanded. And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones. And the covered place for the Sabbath that they built in the house, and the entrance of the king outside, he removed from the Temple of YHWH, because of the king of Asshur.

Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And Ahaz rested with his forefathers and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place. In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him. Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his slave, and gave him presents. And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea, because he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in prison. Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years. In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria captured Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. Because so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against YHWH their Elohim, that had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had reverence to other elohim. And walked in the statutes of the heathen, who YHWH cast out from before the children of Israel, and which the kings of Israel had introduced in their reigns. And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against YHWH Elohim, and they built worship places in all their cities, from the Tower of the Watchmen to the fenced city.

Chapter 17

And they set up themselves images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree. And there they burnt incense in all the worship places, as did the heathen who YHWH carried away before them; and accomplished bad things to provoke YHWH to anger. Because they served idols of which YHWH had said to them, You will not do this thing. Still YHWH testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers saying, Turn you from your bad ways and observe my commandments and my statutes, according to all the Law that I commanded your forefathers, and that I sent to you by my slaves the prophets. But they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like the necks of their ancestors that did not believe in YHWH Elohim. And they rejected his statutes, and his Covenant that he made with their forefathers, and his testimonies that he testified against them. And they followed vanity, and became utterly vain, and went after the heathen that were around them, concerning which YHWH had charged them that they should not do like them. And they left all the commandments of YHWH Elohim, and fashioned themselves cast metal images, even two calves, and made a grove and worshiped all the host of stars, and served Baal. And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do bad in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger. Therefore YHWH was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight:

there were none left except the tribe of Judah only. Also Judah observed not the commandments of YHWH Elohim, but walked in the statutes of Israel that they instituted. And YHWH rejected all the offspring of Israel and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until he had cast them out of his sight. Because he tore in pieces Israel from the House of David; and they appointed Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. And Jeroboam drove Israel from following YHWH, and made them sin a great sin. Because the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam that he did; they departed not from them; Until YHWH removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his slaves the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day. And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, Cuthah, Ava, Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria and resided in their cities. And so it was at the beginning of their living there, that they feared not YHWH: therefore YHWH sent lions among them that killed some of them. Therefore they spoke to the king of Assyria saying, the nations that you have removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria know not the customs of the Elohim of the land. Therefore he has sent lions among them, and look, they kill them because they know not the customs of the Elohim of the land. Then the king of Assyria commanded saying, carry back there one of the priests who you brought from here; and let them go and live there and let him teach them the customs of the Elohim of the land. Then one of the priests who they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear YHWH.

But every nation fashioned elohim of their own, and put them in the houses of the worship places that the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities where they resided. And the men of Babylon made Succothbenoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the elohim of Sepharvaim. So they feared YHWH, and made to themselves of the lowest of them priests of the worship places that sacrificed for them in the houses of their worship places. They feared YHWH, and served their own elohim, after the custom of the nations who they carried away from there. To this day they follow after the former customs: they fear not YHWH, neither follow they after their statutes, ordinances, Law and commandment that YHWH commanded the children of Jacob, who he named Israel; With which YHWH had made a Covenant-Pledge, and charged them saying, You will not fear other elohim, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them. But YHWH, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, him will you fear and him will you worship, and to him will you do sacrifice. And the statutes, ordinances, Law, and the commandment that he wrote for you, you will observe to do daily; and you will not fear other elohim.

And the Covenant that I have cut out with you, you will not forget; neither will you fear other elohim.

Chapter 18

But YHWH Elohim you will fear; and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. But they did not listen, but they did after their former customs. So these nations feared YHWH, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their ancestors, so do they to this day. Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. He was 25 years old when he began to reign; and he reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Abi, the daughter of Zachariah. And he did what was right in the sight of YHWH, according to all that David his forefather did. He removed the worship places, and broke the images and cut down the groves, and broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had fashioned, because in those days the children of Israel burnt incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan (a piece of brass) . He trusted in YHWH Elohim of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him. For he clung to YHWH, and departed not from following him, but observed his commandments that YHWH commanded Moses. And YHWH was with him; and he prospered wherever he went; and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and did not serve him. He attacked the Philistines, even to Gaza and its borders, from the Tower of the Watchmen to the fenced city.

And it came about in the fourth year of king Hezekiah that was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. And at the end of three years they captured it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. And the king of Assyria carried away Israel to Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes: Because they obeyed not the Voice of YHWH Elohim, but transgressed his Covenant, and all that Moses the slave of YHWH commanded, they neither listened nor performed. Now in the 14th year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah and captured them. Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish saying, I have offended; return from me: what you ascribe to me I will bear. And the king of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah king of Judah 300 talents [11 tons] of silver and 30 talents [1 ton] of gold. And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the Temple of YHWH, and in the treasury of the king's house. At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the Temple of YHWH, and from the pillars that Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria. And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the Upper Pool that is in the highway of the fuller's field. And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim (Elohim sets up) the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder. Then Rabshakeh said to them, speak now to Hezekiah, this is what the great king, the king of Assyria says, what confidence is this wherein you trust? You say, (but vain words,) I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom do you trust so that you rebel against me? Now look, you trust upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust on him. But if you say to me, we trust in YHWH Elohim: is not that he whose worship places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed, and has said to Judah and Jerusalem, You will worship before this Altar in Jerusalem? Now therefore, I ask you, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver you 2000 horses, if you are able on your behalf to set riders on them. How then will you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's slaves, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? Now, without YHWH have I come up against this place to destroy it? YHWH said to me, Go up against this land, and you have destroyed it. Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah said, and Shebna and Joah, to Rabshakeh, speak I ask you, to your slaves in the Syrian language, because we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall. But Rabshakeh replied to them, has my master sent me to your master and to you, to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men that sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you? Then Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spoke saying, hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

This is what the king says, let not Hezekiah deceive you, because he will not be able to deliver you out of his hand. Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in YHWH saying, YHWH will certainly deliver us, and this city will not be delivered into the hands of the king of Assyria. Listen not to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says, make an agreement with me by a treaty, and come out to me, and then eat you everyone from his own vine and everyone from his fig tree, and drink everyone the waters of his cistern. Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey. That you may live and not die: but listen not to Hezekiah, when he persuades you saying, YHWH will deliver us. Has any of the elohim of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Where are the elohim of Hamath, and of Arpad? Where are the elohim of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? Who are they among all the elohim of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand so that YHWH should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word, because the king's commandment was to answer him not. Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

Chapter 19

And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the Temple of YHWH.

And he sent Eliakim that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe and the Elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. And they said to him, this is what Hezekiah says, this day is a day of trouble and of rebuke, and blasphemy: because the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring them out. It may be YHWH Elohim will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, who the king of Assyria his master has sent to reproach the living Elohim; and will reprove the words that YHWH Elohim has heard: therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that are left. So the slaves of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. Then Isaiah replied to them, this is what you will tell your master, This is what YHWH declares, be not afraid of the words that you have heard with which the slaves of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. Look, I will send a blast upon him, and he will hear a rumor, and will return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land. So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, because he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. And when he heard reports of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, see, he has come out to fight against you: he sent messengers again to Hezekiah saying, this is what you will convey to Hezekiah king of Judah saying, let not your Elohim in whom you trust deceive you saying, Jerusalem will not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Note, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them completely: and will you be delivered?

Have the elohim of the nations delivered them that my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden that were in Thelasar? Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah? Then Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the Temple of YHWH, and spread it before YHWH. And Hezekiah prayed before YHWH and said, O YHWH Elohim of Israel that lives between the cherubim, you are Elohim, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have fashioned the universe and earth. YHWH, bow down your ear and hear: open, YHWH your eyes and see: and hear the words Sennacherib has sent him to reproach the living Elohim. Of a truth YHWH, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, And have cast their elohim into the fire, because they were not elohim, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O YHWH Elohim, I beseech you, save us out of his hand so that all the kingdoms of the land may know that you are YHWH Elohim, even you only. Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah saying, This is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, what you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard. This is the Word that YHWH has spoken concerning him.

The Virgin Daughter of Zion has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. Who have you taunted and blasphemed? And against whom have you exalted your voice, and lifted up your eyes on high? Even against the Holy One of Israel. By your messengers you have defied Adonai (YHWH) and have said, with the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall cedar trees, and the choice fir trees. And I will enter into the lodgings of his territory, and into the forest of his Carmel (garden-land). I have excavated and drunk foreign waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places. Have you not heard long ago how I have done it, and from ancient times that I have formed it? Now have I brought it to pass, that you should be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps. Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and scorched corn before it has grown up. But I know your place and you're going out, and you're coming in, and your rage against me. Because your rage against me and your rioting has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips and I will turn you back by the road by which you came. And this will be a sign to you, you will eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year what springs of the same; and in the third year sow and reap, and plant vineyards and eat its fruits. And the remnant that is escaped from the House of Judah will still again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

Because out of Jerusalem will go out a remnant, and they that escape out of Mount Zion: the zeal of YHWH will do this. Therefore this is what YHWH declares concerning the king of Assyria, he will not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield nor cast a bank against it. By the road that he came, by the same will he return and will not come into this city declares YHWH. Because I will defend this city, to save it, for my own sake and for my slave David's sake. And it came to pass that night, that the Angel of YHWH went out and struck in the camp of the Assyrians 85,000: and when they got up early in the morning, lo, they were all dead corpses. So Sennacherib king of Assyria left, and went and returned and lived at Nineveh. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his elohim, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 20

In those days was Hezekiah deathly ill. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, This is what YHWH says, set your house in order because you will die, and not live. Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to YHWH saying, I beseech you, O

YHWH, remember now how I have walked before you in Truth and with a whole heart and have done what is good in your sight. Then Hezekiah wept greatly. And it came about, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle court, that the Word of YHWH came to him saying, Return and tell Hezekiah the ruler of my people, This is what YHWH says, the Elohim of David your forefather, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears:

see, I will heal you and on the third day you will go up to the Temple of YHWH. And I will add to your time 15 years; and I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. And I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my slave David's sake. Then Isaiah said, take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the eruption and he recovered. And Hezekiah replied to Isaiah, what will be the sign that YHWH will heal me, and that I will go up into the Temple of YHWH on the third day? Then Isaiah replied, this sign will you have from YHWH, that YHWH will do the thing that he has spoken: will the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees? And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: no, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees. And Isaiah the prophet cried to YHWH: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz. At that time Berodachbaladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah: because he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. And Hezekiah listened to them and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, gold, spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armor. And all that were found in his treasury: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them. Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, what did you tell these men? And from where did they come?

And Hezekiah replied, they are come from a far country, even from Babylon. And he replied, what have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, all the things that are in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. Then Isaiah replied to Hezekiah, Hear the Word of YHWH. See, the days come that all that is in your house, and what your ancestors have laid up in store to this day, will be carried into Babylon: nothing will be left declares YHWH. And of your sons that will issue from you, which you will gender, will they take away and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. Then Hezekiah replied to Isaiah, good is the Word of YHWH that you have spoken. And he said, is it not good if peace and truth are in my days? And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his might, and how he constructed a pool and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Then Hezekiah rested with his forefathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 21

Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned 55 years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzibah. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH, after the abominations of the heathen, who YHWH cast out before the children of Israel. Because he built up again the worship places that Hezekiah his dad had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshiped all the host of the stars and served them.

And he built altars in the Temple of YHWH, of which YHWH said, In Jerusalem will I put my Name. And he built altars for all the host of the stars in the two courts of the Temple of YHWH. And he caused his son to pass through the fire and practiced spiritism, and used enchantments, and dealt with necromancy and soothsayers: he accomplished much evil in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger. And he placed a graven image from the grove that he had made in the Temple, of which YHWH said to David and Solomon his son, In this Temple and in Jerusalem that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will place my Name for the ages. Neither will I make the feet of Israel move anymore out of the land that I gave their ancestors; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the Law that my slave Moses commanded them. But they listened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more bad than did the nations who YHWH destroyed before the children of Israel. Then YHWH spoke by his slaves the prophets saying, Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done evil above all that the Amorites did that were before him, and has caused Judah also to sin with his idols: Therefore this is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, Look, I am bringing such badness upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

And I will forsake the remnant of my inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they will become a prey and a plunder to all their enemies; Because they have done what was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their ancestors came out of Egypt, even to this day. Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he caused Judah to sin, in doing what was evil in the sight of YHWH. Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Then Manasseh rested with his forefathers and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his place. Amon was 22 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH, as his dad Manasseh did. And he walked in all the ways that his dad walked in, and served the idols that his dad served and worshiped them: And he abandoned YHWH Elohim of his ancestors and walked not in the way of YHWH. Then the slaves of Amon conspired against him and killed the king in his own house.

And the people of the land killed all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land appointed Josiah his son king in his place. Now the rest of the acts of Amon that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Then he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 22

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 31 years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath. And he did what was right in the sight of YHWH, and walked in all the ways of David his forefather, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left. And it came to pass in the 18th year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the Temple of YHWH saying, go up to Hilkiah the High Priest so that he may total the silver that is brought into the Temple of YHWH that the guards of the door have gathered from the people. And let them deliver it into the hands of the architects of the work, that have the oversight of the Temple of YHWH. And let them give it to the skilled laborers of the work that is in the Temple of YHWH, to repair the cracks of the Temple, to carpenters, builders, masons, and to buy timber and cut stone to repair the Temple. But there was no calculating with them of the money that was delivered into their hands, because they worked faithfully. Then Hilkiah the High Priest said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the scroll of the Law in the Temple of YHWH.

And Hilkiah gave the scroll to Shaphan, and he read it. And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word back and said, your slaves have gathered the money that was found in the house. And have delivered it into the hands of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the Temple of YHWH. Then Shaphan the scribe showed the king saying, Hilkiah the priest has delivered to me a scroll. And Shaphan read it before the king. And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the scroll of the Law, that he tore his clothes. And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a slave of the king's saying, go you, inquire of YHWH for me and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this scroll that is found. Because great is the anger of YHWH that is burning against us, because our ancestors have not heeded the words of this scroll, to do according to all what is written concerning us. So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asahiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the woman of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she lived in Jerusalem in the college;) and they conversed with her. And she said to them, This is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, tell the man that sent you to me, This is what YHWH declares, see, I will bring bad upon this place and upon its inhabitants, even all the words of the scroll that the king of Judah has read: Because they have forsaken me, and have burnt incense to other elohim, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore my anger will be burning against this place and will not be quenched.

But to the king of Judah that sent you to inquire of YHWH, you will tell him, This is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, as touching the words that you have heard; Because your heart was tender, and you have humbled yourself before YHWH, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants that they should become a desolation and a curse. And have torn your clothes and wept before me; I also have heard you says YHWH. Note therefore, I will gather you to your forefathers, and you will be gathered into your grave in peace; and your eyes will not see all the bad that I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word back. Then the king sent, and they gathered to him all the Elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

Chapter 23

And the king went up into the Temple of YHWH, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests and the prophets and all the people, both small and great. And he read in their ears all the Words of the scroll of the Covenant-Pledge that was found in the Temple of YHWH. And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before YHWH, to walk after YHWH, and to observe his commandments, testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their minds, to perform the words of this Covenant that were written in this scroll. And all the people attended to the covenant. Then the king commanded Hilkiah the High Priest, and the priests of the second order, and the guards of the door, to bring out of the Temple of YHWH all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of the stars. And he burnt them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them to Bethel. And he exterminated the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the worship places in the cities of Judah, and in the areas around Jerusalem. Those also that burnt incense to Baal, to the sun, moon, planets, and to all the host of the stars. And he brought out the grove from the Temple of YHWH, outside Jerusalem to the Wadi Kidron, and burnt it at the Wadi Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder upon the graves of the children of the people. And he broke down the houses of the male temple prostitutes, that were by the Temple of YHWH, where the women wove hangings for the grove.

And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the worship places where the priests had burnt incense, from Geba to Beersheba. And broke down the worship places of the gates that were in the entering in of the Gate of Joshua the governor of the city that was on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. But the priests of the worship places came not up to the Altar of YHWH in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their kinsmen. And he defiled Topheth that is in the valley of the children of Hinnom so that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the Temple of YHWH, by the room of Nathanmelech the eunuch that was in the suburbs, and burnt the chariots of the sun with fire. And the altars that were on the top of the upper room of Ahaz that the kings of Judah had made, and the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courts of the Temple of YHWH. The king beat them down and broke them, and cast the dust of them into the Wadi Kidron. And the worship places that were before Jerusalem that were on the right hand of the Mount of Ruin that Solomon the king of Israel had constructed for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile. And he broke in pieces the images and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men. Moreover the altar that was at Bethel and the worship place that Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin had made, both that altar and the worship place he broke down, and burnt the worship place, and stamped it small to powder, and burnt the grove. Then as Josiah turned himself, he spied the tombs that were there in the hill country, and sent and took the bones out of the tombs, and burnt them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the Word of YHWH that the man of Elohim proclaimed, who proclaimed those words. Then he said, what title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, it is the tomb of the man of Elohim that came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Bethel.

And he replied, let him alone and let no one move his bones. So they left his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria. And all the houses also of the worship places that were in the cities of Samaria that the kings of Israel had made to provoke YHWH to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. And he killed all the priests of the worship places that were there upon the altars, and burnt men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem. Then the king commanded all the people saying, observe the Passover to YHWH Elohim, as it is written in the scroll of this Covenant-Pledge. Certainly there was not instituted such a Passover from the days of the Judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; But in the 18th year of king Josiah, this Passover was instituted to YHWH in Jerusalem. Also those who practiced necromancy and the soothsayers, and the images and idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah remove. So that he might perform the Words of the Law that was written in the scroll that Hilkiah the priest found in the Temple of YHWH. And like to him was there no king before him, that turned to YHWH with all his heart and with all his mind, and with all his might, according to all the Torah of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him. But YHWH turned not from the fierceness of his great anger, in which his anger was burning against Judah, because of all the grief that Manasseh had vexed him in. Then YHWH said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel and will cast off this city Jerusalem that I have chosen, and the Temple of which I said, my Name will be there.

Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? In his days has Pharaoh-Nechoh king of Egypt come up against the king of Asshur, by the river Phrat, and king Josiah went out to meet him, and he put him to death at Megiddo when he saw him. And his slaves carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him and made him king in his dad's place. Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH, according to all that his ancestors had done. Then Pharaoh-Nechoh put him in prison at Riblah in the land of Hamath so that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of 100 talents [3 3/4th tons] of silver, and a talent [75 pounds] of gold. And Pharaoh-Nechoh appointed Eliakim (Elohim raises up) the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his dad, and renamed him Jehoiakim (YHWH raises up), and took Jehoahaz away: and he came to Egypt and died there. And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, from everyone according to his taxation, to give it to Pharaoh-Nechoh. Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he began to reign; and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH, according to all that his ancestors had done.

Chapter 24

In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his slave three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. Then YHWH sent against him troops of the Chaldeans and troops of the Syrians, and troops of the Moabites, and troops of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the Word of YHWH that he spoke by his slaves the prophets. Certainly at the commandment of YHWH this came upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did; And also for the innocent blood that he shed, because he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood so that YHWH would not pardon. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the scroll of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? So Jehoiakim rested with his forefathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. And the king of Egypt did not return anymore from his land: because the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt to the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt. Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH, according to all that his dad had done. At that time the slaves of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his slaves did besiege it. Then Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother, and his slaves, and his chiefs, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. And he carried out from there all the treasures of the Temple of YHWH, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold that Solomon king of Israel had fashioned in the Temple of YHWH, as YHWH had said. And he carried away all Jerusalem and all the chiefs, and all the mighty men of valor, even 10,000 captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, except the poorest sort of the people of the land. And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's women and his officers, and the mighty of the land, he carried those into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. And all the men of might, even 7000, and craftsmen and smiths 1000, all that were strong and trained for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. Then the king of Babylon appointed Mattaniah his dad's brother king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah. Zedekiah was 21 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did what was bad in the sight of YHWH, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. Because through the anger of YHWH it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Chapter 25

And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army against Jerusalem, and camped against it. And they built siege-works against it all around. So the city was besieged to the 11th year of king Zedekiah. And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no food for the people of the land. Then the city was broken up and all the men of war escaped by night by the way of the gate between the two walls that are by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city all around:) but the king went the route toward the plain. And the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army was scattered from him. So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment upon him. And they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and then put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with shackles of brass and carried him to Babylon. And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month that is the 19th year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, a slave of the king of Babylon to Jerusalem: And he burnt the Temple of YHWH, and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house he burnt with fire. Then all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around.

Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away. But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vine-dressers and tillers of the soil. And the pillars of bronze that were in the Temple of YHWH, and the bases, and the Bronze Sea that was in the Temple of YHWH, did the Chaldeans break in pieces, and carried the bronze of it to Babylon. And the pots, shovels, snuffers, spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered, they took away. And the fire-pans, and the bowls that are wholly of silver, has the chief of the executioners taken. The two pillars, one sea, and the bases that Solomon had fashioned for the Temple of YHWH; the bronze of all these vessels were without weight. The height of the one pillar was 18 cubits [27 feet], and the capital upon it was bronze. And the height of the capital was three cubits [4 1/2 feet]; and the lattice-work, and pomegranates upon the capital round about, all of bronze: and the second pillar had the same, with the lattice-work. And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three guards of the door: And out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war, and five men from them that were in the king's attendance that were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the army that mustered the people of the land, and 60 men from the people of the land that were found in the city: And Nebuzaradan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah:

And the king of Babylon struck and killed them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land. And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, who Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler. And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. Then Gedaliah adjured to them and to their men, and said to them, fear not to be the slaves of the Chaldeans: live in the land, and serve the king of Babylon and it will be well with you. But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal offspring came, and ten men with him and struck Gedaliah so that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with him at Mizpah. And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, got up and went to Egypt because they were afraid of the Chaldees. And it came about in the 37th year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the 27th day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; And he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon; And changed his prison garments: and he did eat food continually before him all the days of his life. And his allowance was a continual allowance given him from the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life. [The End of the Former Prophets] The Book of Chronicles

Isaiah

Chapter 1

The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz that he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. Hear, O cosmos, and give ear O earth: because YHWH has spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. The ox knows his owner and the donkey his master's feeding trough: but Israel does not know, my nation does not consider. O sinful nation, a people laden with depravity, a seed of wickedness, children that are corrupted: they have forsaken YHWH, they have abhorred the Holy One of Israel to spurn them, they are backsliders. Why should you be scourged anymore? You will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick and the whole inner man fainted. From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds and bruises, and fresh sores: they have not been closed, neither bandaged up, neither tendered with ointment. Your land is desolate, your cities are burnt with fire: your land, foreigners devour it in your presence and it is desolate, as overthrown by foreigners. And the daughter of Zion is left as a thicket in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a blockaded city. Except YHWH of Hosts had left to us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom and we should have been like Gomorrah. Hear the Word of YHWH, you rulers of Sodom; give ear to the Law of our Elohim you people of Gomorrah.

To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to me asks YHWH? I am full of whole Burnt-Offerings of rams, and the fat of the well-fed; and I do not delight in the blood of young bulls, or of lambs, or male goats. When you come to appear before me, who has required this at your hand, to tread my courts? Bring no more empty offerings; incense is a disgusting thing to me; the new moons and Sabbaths, the summoning of assemblies, I cannot bear these idolatrous assemblies. Your new moons and your appointed festivals I hate: they are a burden to me; I am weary to support them. And when you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you: yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. Wash and make yourself clean; turn aside from the bad of your doings from before my eyes; stop doing the bad; Learn to do good; inquire [by Urim-Thummim] of judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. Come now, and let us reason together says YHWH: though your sins are as scarlet, they will be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they will be as whiteness in garments. If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good of the land. But if you refuse and rebel, you will be devoured with the sword, because the mouth of YHWH has spoken it.

How is the faithful city become a prostitute! it was full of litigation; justice used to lodge there, but now the avenger. Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water: Your rulers are rebellious and companions of thieves: everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come to them. Therefore YHWH declares, YHWH of Hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I am eased of my adversaries, and I am avenged of my enemies, And I will turn my hand on you, and I refine as purity your dross, and I turn aside all your alloy, And I will restore your government as in the beginning, and your counselors as in those former times: afterward you will be called, The City of Righteousness, the faithful city. Zion will be ransomed with judgment and her converts with righteousness. And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners will be together, and they that forsake YHWH will be consumed. Because they will be ashamed of the leaders that you have desired, and you will be embarrassed for the orchards that you have chosen. Because you will be as an terebinth tree whose leaf falls, and as an orchard that has no water.

And the strong will be as a strand of flax, and its maker of it as a spark, and they will both burn together and none will quench it.

Chapter 2

The Word that Isaiah the son of Amoz prophesied concerning Judah and Jerusalem. And it will come to pass in the Last Days, that the mountain of YHWH's Temple will be established in the top of the mountains and will be exalted above the hills; and all nations will flow to it. And many people will go and say, come and let us go up to the mountain of YHWH, to the Temple of the Elohim of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. Because out of Zion will go forth the Torah, and the Word of YHWH from Jerusalem. And he will govern among the nations and will judge many people: and they will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks:

nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore. O House of Jacob, come and let us walk in the Light of YHWH. Therefore you have forsaken your nation the House of Jacob, because they are replenished from the East and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of foreigners. Their land also is full of money and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horse power (automobiles), neither is there any end of their chariots (vehicles): Their land also is full of worthlessness; they worship the work of their own hands, what their own fingers have produced: So the average man pays homage, as well as the man of means: therefore do not forgive them.

Enter into the rock, and hide yourself in the ground for terror of YHWH, and for the glory of His majesty. The lofty looks of mankind will be humbled and the haughtiness of mortal men will be bowed down, and YHWH alone will be exalted in that day. Because the Day of YHWH of Hosts will be upon everyone that is proud and lofty, and upon everyone that is lifted up; and he will be brought low. And on all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and on all the oaks of Bashan, and on all the high mountains and on all the hills that are lifted up, and on every high tower and upon every fenced wall, and on all the ships of Tarshish and on all the images of desire. And the haughtiness of human beings will be bowed down, and the loftiness of mortal man will be made low: and YHWH alone will be exalted in that day. And the worthless divination he will pass away. Then they will go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for terror of YHWH and for the glory of his majesty, when he arises to shake terribly the earth.

In that day a human being will cast his worthless silver and gold that they produced each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats; To go into the clefts of the rocks and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for terror of YHWH and for the glory of his majesty, when he arises to shake terribly the earth. Cease you from mankind, whose breath is in his nostrils, because how is he to be accounted of?

Chapter 3

For look, YHWH, YHWH of Hosts, does remove from Jerusalem and from Judah the staff and the support, the whole staff of bread and the whole staff of water, The mighty man and the man of war, the judge and the prophet, and the diviners and the Elder, the captain of 50 and the honorable man, and the counselor and the skillful technician, and the eloquent orator. And I will give children to be their rulers, and vexation will rule over them. Then the people will be oppressed, everyone by another and everyone by his neighbor: the child will behave himself proudly against the Elder, and the base against the honorable. When one lays hold on his brother, of the house of his dad by the garment saying, come, a ruler you are to us, and these ruins are under your hand. In that day will he adjure saying, I will not be a governor;

because in my house is neither food nor clothing so do not make me a ruler of the people. Because Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their practices are against YHWH, to provoke the eyes of his glory. The face of their countenance does witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe to their lives! Because they have rewarded bad to themselves. Tell you to the righteous, that it will be well with him: because they will eat the fruit of their doings. Woe to the criminal! It will be ill with him, because the reward of his hands will be appointed to him. As for my people, children are their oppressors and women rule over them. O my people, they that lead you cause you to err and destroy the course of your wayfaring. YHWH stands up to plead, and stands to judge the people. YHWH will enter into Judgment with the Elders of his people, and the chiefs, because you have ruined the vineyard; the plunder of the poor is in your homes. What, to you? You bruise my people, and the faces of the poor you grind. An affirmation of YHWH of Hosts, Adonai declares. Also YHWH declares, Because the daughters of Zion are arrogant, and walk with stretched out necks and ogling eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet: Therefore Adonai will strike with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and YHWH will make naked their secret parts.

In that day Adonai will remove the bravery of their tinkling ornaments around their feet, and their front bands, and their pendants like the moon, the chains, bracelets, mufflers. Of the bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and of the bands, and of the perfume boxes, and amulets, rings, and nose jewels. The robes of state, and the mantles, cloaks, and the purse, glasses, fine linen, hoods, and the veils. And it has been, instead of spice is muck, And instead of a girdle, a rope, and instead of curled work, baldness, And instead of an expensive robe a girdle of sackcloth. Your men will fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war. And her gates will lament and mourn; and she being desolate will sit on the ground. And in that day seven women will take hold of one man saying, we will eat our own food and wear our own clothing:

Chapter 4

only let us be called by your name, to take away our disgrace.

In that day will the Branch of YHWH be beautiful and abundant, and the fruit of the land will be excellent and beautiful for them that are the escaped remnant of Israel. And it will come to pass that those that are left in Zion, and they that remain in Jerusalem, will be called Sacred, even everyone that is recorded among the living in Jerusalem. When Adonai will have washed away the excrement from the daughters of Zion, and will have purged the blood of Jerusalem from its center, by the Spirit of Judgment and by the Spirit of Burning. Then YHWH will create upon every living place of Mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud-mass and smoke by day, and the bright flame of supernatural fire by night: because upon all the glory will be a canopy of divine protection. And there will be a Tabernacle for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a place of shelter from thunderstorm and rain.

Chapter 5

Now I will sing to my beloved one a song of Levitical choirs of my love concerning his vineyard. My beloved one has the son's vineyard in a place conquered by Israel. And he dug around it and cast out its stones, and planted it with the choicest species of vine, and built skyscrapers throughout the land, and also made a wine-press and waited for it to produce vintage grapes, but it brought forth stinking and worthless things. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, between me and my vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? I expected that it should bring forth grapes but it brought forth stinking and worthless things. And now, pray, let me cause you to know what I am going to do to my vineyard, to turn aside its hedge for burning and breaching its fortifications that will be trampled down.

And I will lay it waste, it will not be pruned, nor cultivated but there will come adamant flint and thorn bushes. I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. For the vineyard of YHWH of Armed Hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah his delightful plantation, and he waited for justice, but found an outpouring of blood, for righteousness, but instead heard a cry of distress. Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field until there is no living space left, and then you will live alone in the land. In my ears declared YHWH of Armed Hosts, of a Truth many houses will be desolate, even distinguished and pleasant houses with none remaining. Yes, ten acres [plowed by ten yoke of oxen in one day] of vineyard will yield six gallons of wine, and ten balances of seed will yield only one balance of grain. Woe unto them that get up early in the morning, that they may pursue strong drink, that continue until twilight until wine inflames them! And the lyre, guitar, tambourine, flute, and wine are in their banquets but they regard not the work of YHWH, neither considers the operation of his hands. Therefore my nation goes into exile because they have no knowledge and their honorable men are hungered by famine, and the masses are dried up with thirst. Therefore Sheol has widened herself, and opened wide her mouth with civil enactment's prescribed by Elohim, and their splendor and abundance, and the uproar of revelers with them that are jubilant shall be brought down.

And human beings will be weakened, and the champions will be abased, and the eyes of the high minded will be humiliated. But YHWH of Armed Hosts will be exalted in judgment and Elohim that is Holy will be consecrated in righteousness. Then lambs will feed on their pasture, and waste places of the fat ones will sojourners consume. Woe unto them that draw depravity with cords of worthlessness, and sin as it were with a cart rope. Who are saying, let him hurry, let him speed up his work that we may see, and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel approach so that it may be clear to us. Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil, that put darkness for light, and light for darkness, that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe unto them that are skillful in their own eyes, and discerning in their own sight! Woe unto them that are the strong men who drink wine, and men of wealth who mixes intoxicating drinks. That justify the criminals for a bribe [the attorneys of the land], and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! Therefore as the fire burns the stubble, and the tongue abandons the dry grass, so their roots will decay and their sprouts will ascend as dust because they have cast away the Torah of YHWH of Armed Hosts, and despised the Word of the Holy One of Israel. Therefore has the nostrils of YHWH flared against his people, and he has stretched forth his hand against them, and has sent judgment upon them and the mountains quaked, and their corpses were offal in the streets. For all this his nostrils were not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. And he will raise up a standard to the nations from afar, and will whistle to them from the ends of the earth and they will come with speed swiftly. None of them will be exhausted or stagger among them, none of them will be drowsy or asleep, neither will the waist clothes of their loins be thrown open, nor the shoelaces of their shoes be torn up. Their arrows [bullets] are sharp, and all their archers bowed, their chariot horses' hoofs [armored vehicles] will be counted like flint, and their wheels like a storm-wind.

Chapter 6

Their roaring will be like a lion, they will roar like young lions yes, they will roar, and lay hold of the prey and will carry it away safely, and no one will recover the spoil. And in that day they will roar against them like the roaring of the sea and if one looks to the land, lo, darkness and oppression, and the luminaries are darkened in the skies above. In the year that King Uzziah died I saw also Adonai sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the Temple. Above him were seraphim, each with six wings and with two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and the other two were for flying. And one cried to another and declared, Holy, Holy, Holy, is YHWH of Armed Hosts.

The whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the thresholds are moved by the voice of him who is calling, and the house is full of smoke. And I say, woe to me, for I have been silent, because a man of unclean lips am I, and among a people of unclean lips I am residing, because the King, YHWH of Armed Hosts have my eyes seen. Then flew one of the seraphim to me, having a live coal in his hand that he had taken with the tongs from off the Altar. And he laid it upon my mouth and said, Lo, this has touched your lips and your depravity is taken away, and your sin is covered. Also I heard the Voice of Adonai saying, Whom will I send and who will go for us? Then I said, here I am, send me. And he spoke, Go and tell these people, hear you indeed but do not understand and see you indeed but perceive it not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears grievous, and smear over their eyes unless they see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn back and are healed. Then I said, Adonai, how long? And he answered, Until the cities are crashed into ruins without inhabitant, and the houses are without people, and the land is wasted in ruins, and YHWH has removed men far away, and there is a great forsaking among those in the land. And though a tenth part remain in the land, it will be burnt again. As a terebinth tree and as the great oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves, so the Holy Descendant will be its substance.

Chapter 7

And it came about in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. And it was told the House of David saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim.

And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest are moved with the wind. Then YHWH said to Isaiah, Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the Upper Pool in the highway of the Fuller's Field; And say to him, Take heed and be quiet; fear not, neither be weak minded for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken injurious counsel against you saying, let us go up against Judah and vex it, and let us make a breach in there for us, and set a king in the middle of it, even the son of Tabeal: This is what Adonai YHWH declares, It will not stand, neither will it come to pass. Because the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within 65 years will Ephraim be broken, that it is not a people. And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, certainly you will not be established.

Then YHWH spoke again to Ahaz saying, Ask yourself a sign of YHWH Elohim; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. But Ahaz replied, I will not ask, neither will I test YHWH. And Isaiah replied, hear you now O House of David, is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my Elohim also? Therefore Adonai himself will give you a sign; See, a virgin will conceive and bear a son, and will call his Name Immanuel. Butter and honey will he eat, that he may know to refuse the bad, and choose the good. Because before the child will know to refuse bad, and to fix on good, forsaken is the land you are vexed with, because of her two kings. YHWH will bring upon you and your people, and upon your ancestral house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria. And it will come to pass in that day, that YHWH will hiss for the fly that is in the outskirts of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. And they will come and will settle down (all of them) in the steep ravines, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns and upon all bushes. In that same day will Adonai shave with a razor what is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet:

and it will also consume the beard. Then it will come about in that day, that a man will nourish a young cow, and two sheep; And it had come to pass from the abundance of the yielding of milk he eats butter, because butter and honey does everyone eat who is left in the heart of the land.

Chapter 8

And it will come about in that day, that every place will be, where there were 1000 vines at 1000 shekels [25 pounds], it will be for briers and thorns. With arrows and with bows will people come there; because all the land will become briers and thorns. And on all hills that will be excavated with the mattock, there will not come from there the fear of briers and thorns: but it will be for the sending out of oxen, and for the treading of one of a flock. Then YHWH said to me, Take yourself a large tablet and write in it with a man's pen concerning Mahershalalhashbaz. And I took to me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. And I approached [for sexual relations] the prophetess; and she conceived and gendered a son. Then YHWH said to me, Call his name Mahershalalhashbaz (swift is booty, speedy is prey).

Because before the child will have knowledge to cry, my dad and mom, the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be removed before the king of Assyria. YHWH spoke also to me again saying, because this people refuses the waters of Shiloah that flow gently, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; Now therefore note, Adonai brings up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria and all his glory: and he will come up over all his ravines, and go over all his river banks: And he will pass through Judah; he will overflow and pass over, he will reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings will fill the expanse of your land, O Immanuel. Associate yourselves, O you people, and you will be broken in pieces; and give ear, all you of far countries: clothe yourselves, and you will be broken in pieces; clothe yourselves and you will be broken in pieces. Take counsel together, and it will be frustrated; speak the word and it will not stand, because Elohim is with us. Because YHWH spoke this to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the habits of this people saying, You do not say, a confederacy, to all to whom this people say, a confederacy, and its fear you do not fear, nor declare fearful. Consecrate YHWH of Hosts himself; and let Him be your fear and let Him be your dread.

And He will be for a Sacred Place; but for a stone [Urim-Thummim] of striking and for a rock of stumbling to both the Houses of Israel, for a trap and for a lure to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them will stumble and fall, and be broken in pieces and lured, and captured. Bind up the testimony, seal the body of priestly directions (Torah) among my disciples. And I will wait upon YHWH, that hides his presence from the House of Jacob, and I will wait for him. Observe, I and the descendants who YHWH has given me are for signs and for portents in Israel from YHWH of Hosts that lives in Mount Zion. And when they will say to you, consult with them that practice necromancy, and to soothsayers that peep, and that meditate:

Chapter 9

should not a people inquire [by Urim-Thummim] to their Elohim? in behalf of the living should it seek to the dead? To the Torah and to the Testimony: if they speak not according to this Word, it is because there is no dawn in them. And they will pass through it alienated and hungry: and it will come to pass, that when they will be hungry, they will fret themselves and curse their king and their Elohim and look upward. Then they will look to the earth; and distress and darkness, gloom of anguish, and they will be driven to calamity. As the former time made light the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, so the latter has honored the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. The people that walked in darkness have seen a Great Light:

they that live in the land of the shadow of death, upon them has the Light shined. You have multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before you according to the joy in harvest, and as people rejoice when they divide the plunder. Because you have broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian. Because every battle of the warrior is with quaking, and garments rolled in blood; but this will be with burning and fueled of supernatural fire. For to us a boy is born, to us a son is consecrated: and the government will be upon his shoulder: and his Name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, the mighty Elohim, the Age-Lasting Father, the Prince of Peace. Of the inc rease of his government and peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David and upon his kingdom, to establish it and to support it with judgment and with justice from this time on to the ages of the ages. The zeal of YHWH of Hosts will institute this. Adonai [YHWH] sent a Word to Jacob and it has settled upon Israel. And all the people will know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, that say in the pride and magnitude of heart, the bricks are fallen down, but we will rebuild with cut stones: the sycamore trees are cut down, but we will change them into cedars. Therefore YHWH will set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together; The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they will devour Israel with open mouth.

For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Because the people turn not to him that strikes them, neither do they seek YHWH of Hosts. Therefore YHWH will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. The Elder and honorable, he is the head; and the speakers that teach lies, he is the tail. Because the leaders of this people cause them to err, and they that are led of them are swallowed up. Therefore Adonai [YHWH] will have no joy in their young men, neither will have mercy on their fatherless and widows: because everyone is a hypocrite and bad, and every mouth speaks senselessness. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Because wickedness consumes as the fire: it will devour the briers and thorns, and will kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they will billow up like the lifting up of smoke.

Chapter 10

Through the outburst of YHWH of Hosts is the land scorched, and the people will be as the fuel of the fire: no man will spare his brother. And he will snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied: they will eat everyone the flesh of his own arm: Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together will be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Woe to them that decree wicked statutes, and that record trouble that they have inscribed;

To pervert the poor from judgment, and to plunder the legal rights from the poor of my people, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may plunder the fatherless! And what will you do in the day of custody, and in the desolation that will come from a distant place? To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your riches? Without me they will prostrate among the prisoners, and they will fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. O Assyrian, the rod of my anger, and the staff in their hand is my indignation. I will send him against a hypocritical nation, and against the people of my outburst I will give him a charge, to take the booty, and to take the spoil, and to tread them down like the clay of the streets. And he, he thinks not so, and his heart reckons not so, for, to destroy is in his heart, And to cut off nations not a few. Because he says, are not my princes' altogether kings? Is not Calno as Carchemish? Is not Hamath as Arpad? Is not Samaria as Damascus? As my hand has gotten to the kingdoms of a worthless thing, and their graven images, greater than Jerusalem and than Samaria, shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? Therefore it will come to pass that when Adonai [YHWH] has performed his whole work upon Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

Because he says, by the strength of my hand I have done this, and by my wisdom, for I am prudent: and I have removed the borders of the people, and have robbed their treasures and I have put down the inhabitants like the valiant. And my hand has found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathers eggs that are left, have I gathered all the land; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or chirped. Will the ax boast itself against him that cuts with it? Or will the saw magnify itself against him that moves it to and fro? As if the rod should move itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were not wood. Therefore will the Master, Adonai of Hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he will kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. And the light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a tip of a weapon: and it will consume and devour his thorns and his briers in one day; And will consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both mind and body: and they will be as when a standard-bearer faints. And the rest of the trees of his forest will be few, so that a child may record them. Then it will come about in that day that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the House of Jacob, will no more again trust on him that conquered them; but will trust on YHWH, the Holy One of Israel, in Truth.

The remnant will return, even the Remnant of Jacob, to the mighty Elohim. Because though your people Israel are as the sand of the sea, still a remnant of them will return: the consumption decreed will overflow with righteousness. Because Adonai YHWH of Hosts will ordain a consumption, even decreed for the center of all the land. Therefore this is what Adonai YHWH of Hosts declares, O my people that reside in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he will beat you with a rod, and will lift up his staff against you, after the custom of Egypt. For yet a very little, and the indignation has been completed, and my anger by their wearing out. And YHWH of Hosts will stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his staff was upon the sea, so will he lift it up after the custom of Egypt. And it will come to pass in that day, that his burden will be taken away from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed from the presence of the anointing. He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he has laid up his implements: They are gone over the ford: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid;

Chapter 11

Gibeah of Saul is fled. Lift up your voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard in Laish, O poor Anathoth. Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee. Today he will halt at Nob, he will shake his hand at the Mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. Look, YHWH, YHWH of Hosts will lop the bough with terror: and the proud of stature will be cut down, and the proud will be humbled. And he will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by a great one. Then there will sprout a Branch out of the stem of Jesse, and the Branch will bear fruit from his roots: And the spirit of YHWH will rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of reverence for YHWH; And will make him of quick understanding in the respect of YHWH: and he will not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither correct after the hearing of his ears: But with righteousness will he judge the poor, and correct with equity for the meek of the earth, and he will strike the land with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips will he kill the guilty. Then righteousness will be the waste-cloth of his hips, and faithfulness the waste-cloth of his reins. The wolf also will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young male goat; and the calf and the young lion with the well-fed together, and a little child will lead them.

And the heifer and the bear will feed; their young ones will lie down together: and the lion will eat straw like the ox. And the nursing child will play on the hole of the venomous snake, and the weaned child will put their hand on the viper serpent's den. They will not hurt nor destroy in all my Holy Mount, because the earth will be full of the knowledge of YHWH, as the waters cover the sea. And in that day there will be a root of Jesse that will stand for an ensign of the people; to it will the Gentiles seek: and his Resting Place will be glorious. Then it will come about in that day that Adonai [YHWH] will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people that will be left, from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. Then he will set up an ensign for the nations and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed from Judah from the four corners of the earth. The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and the adversaries of Judah will be cut off: Ephraim will not envy Judah, and Judah will not vex Ephraim. But they will fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the West; they will plunder them from the East together: they will lay their hands on Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon will obey them. And YHWH will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind will he shake his hand over the river, and will break it into seven streams, and make people go over it on sandals. There will also be a highway for the remnant of his people that will be left, from Assyria; like it was with Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

Now in that day you will say, O YHWH, I will praise you: though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away, and you comfort me. See, Elohim is my deliverance;

Chapter 13

I will trust and not be afraid, because Yah YHWH is my strength and my song, and he is to me for salvation. Therefore with joy will you draw water out from the spring of salvation. And in that day will you say, praise YHWH, call upon his Name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his Name is exalted. Sing to YHWH, because he has done excellent things: this is known in all the earth. Cry out and shout, you inhabitants of Zion, because great is the Holy One of Israel among you. The oracle of Babylon that Isaiah the son of Amoz did see. Lift yourself up a banner on the high hill, exalt the voice to them, beckon them on that they may go into the gates of the nobles. I have commanded my consecrated ones, I have also called my mighty ones for my anger, even those that exalt in majesty. A voice of a multitude in the mountains, a likeness of a numerous people, a voice of noise from the kingdoms of nations who are gathered, YHWH of Hosts inspecting an army for battle! They come from a far country, from far in the horizon, even YHWH and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

Howl you, because the Day of YHWH is at hand; it will come as a destruction from Shaddai. Therefore will all hands be faint, and everyone's heart will melt. And they will be terrified: pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; they will be in pain as a woman in childbirth: they will be stunned one at another, their faces will be as flames. Watch, the Day of YHWH comes, cruel both with fury and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he will destroy the sinful out of it. Because the stars of the cosmos and the constellations will not give their light: the sun will be darkened when it rises, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. And I will punish the world for their badness, and the guilty for their depravity; and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the pride of the ruthless. I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir. Therefore I will shake the cosmos, and the earth will remove out of its place, in the fury of YHWH of Hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. And it will be as the chased gazelle and as a sheep that no man gathers: they will every man turn to his own people, and flee everyone into their own land. Everyone that is found will be thrust through; and everyone that is joined to them will fall by the sword. Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses will be plundered and their women raped. See, I will stir up the Medes against them that will not regard silver; and as for gold, they will not delight in it. Their bows also will dash the young men to pieces; and they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye will not spare children. And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, will be as when Elohim overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation: neither will the Arabian pitch tent there; neither will the shepherds make their camps there. But wild animals of the desert will lie there; and their houses will be full of jackals; and owls will live there, and satyrs will dance there. And the wild animals of the islands will cry in their desolate houses, and serpents in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days will not be postponed. Because YHWH will have mercy on Jacob, and will still choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the foreigners will be joined with them, and they will cling to the House of Jacob. And the people will take them and bring them to their Standing Place: and the House of Israel will inherit them in the land of YHWH for slaves and slave-girls, and they will take them captives, whose captives they were, and they will rule over their oppressors. And it wil l come to pass in the day that YHWH will give you rest from your sorrow, and from your terror, and from the hard bondage where you were made to serve, that you will take up this proverb against the king of Babylon and say, how has the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!

YHWH has broken the staff of the wicked, and the scepter of the rulers. He who attacked the people in anger with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted and none restrain. The whole earth is at rest and is quiet: they burst forth with singing! Yes, the fir trees rejoice at you and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, since you are laid down, no logger has come up against us. Sheol from beneath is moved for you to meet you at your coming: it stirs up the spirits for you, even all the chief ones of the earth; it has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. All they will speak and say to you, are you also become weak as we? Are you become like us? Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, and the noise of your bagpipes: the maggot is spread under you, and the worms cover you. How are you fallen from the skies, O Shining one, son of the morning! how are you cut down to the ground that did weaken the nations! Because you have said in your heart, I will ascend into the cosmos, I will exalt my throne above the stars of Elohim:

I will sit also upon the Mount of the Appointed Place, in the recesses of the North [Star]: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High. But you must now go down to the mansion of the dead; even down to the foundations of the earth. They that see you will narrowly look upon you, and consider you saying, Is this the man [referring to Shining one] that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed its cities, that opened not the house of his prisoners? All the kings of the nations, even all of them lie in glory, everyone in his own house. But you shall be cast out on the mountains, like an abominable corse, with dying crouds, pierced with the sword, descending down to the mansion of the dead. You will not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land and killed your people: the descendants of evil will never be appointed. Prepare slaughter for his children for the depravity of their ancestors; that they do not rise [never resurrected], nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities. Because I will rise up against them, declares YHWH of Hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, remnant, son, and nephew, declares YHWH. I will also make it a possession for the hedgehog, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the broom of extermination, declares YHWH of Hosts. YHWH of Hosts has adjured saying, Certainly as I have thought, so will it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so will it stand: That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then will his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders. This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations. Because YHWH of Hosts has purposed, and who will violate it? and his hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back? In the year that king Ahaz died was this oracle. Rejoice you not, Philistia [Palestine], all of you, that broken has been the rod of your attacker. For from the root of a serpent comes out a viper, and its fruit is a flying serpent.

Chapter 15

And the firstborn of the poor will feed, and the needy will lie down in safety: and I will kill your root with famine, and he will kill your remnant. Howl, O gate; cry O city; you, whole Palestina [Palestine] are dissolved: because there will come from the north a smoke, and there is not a straggler in his ranks. What will one then answer the messengers of the nation? That YHWH has founded Zion, and the poor of his people will seek refuge in it. The oracle of Moab. Because in the night, Ar of Moab is laid waste and brought to silence; because in the night, Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; he is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab will wail over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads will be baldness, and every beard cut off. In their streets they will gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, everyone will wail, falling down to weep.

And Heshbon will cry, and Elealeh: their voice will be heard even to Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab will cry out; his life will be troubled to him.

My heart is toward Moab, cry do her fugitives unto Zoar, a heifer of the third year, for the ascent of Luhith, with weeping he goes up in it, for in the way of Horonaim, a cry of destruction they wake up. Because the waters of Nimrim will be desolate: because the hay is withered away, the grass fails, there is no green thing. Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and what they have laid up will they carry away to the Wadi of the Willows. Because the cry is gone throughout the borders of Moab;

Chapter 16

the wailing to Eglaim, and the howling to Beerelim. Because the waters of Dimon will be full of blood: because I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapes from Moab, and upon the remnant of the land. Send you the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, to the Mount of the daughter of Zion. Because it will be, that as a wandering bird cast out of its nest, so the daughters of Moab will be at the fords of Arnon. Take counsel, execute judgment; make your shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; conceal the outcasts, do not betray the fugitive. Let my outcasts live with you Moab; be to them a Hiding Place from the presence of the spoiler: because the oppressor comes to an end and the devastation ceases, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. And in mercy will the throne be established: and he will sit upon it in Truth in the Tabernacle of David, judging and seeking judgment, and prompting righteousness. We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his arrogance: but his lies will not be so. Therefore will Moab wail for Moab, everyone will wail, for the foundations of Kirhareseth will you mourn; certainly they are broken. Because the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants, they are come even to Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea. Therefore I will shed tears with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water you with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: because the shouting for your summer fruits and for your harvest is cast down. Then gladness is removed, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither will there be shouting: the treaders will tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage cheering to cease. Therefore my bowels will sound like a lyre for Moab, and my inward parts for Kirharesh.

Chapter 17

And it will come about, when it is seen that Moab is exhausted on the high place, that he will come to his sanctuary to pray;

but he will not prevail. This is the Word that YHWH has spoken concerning Moab since that time. But now YHWH has spoken saying, Within three years, as the years of a hired laborer, the glory of Moab will be despised with all that great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble. The Oracle of Damascus. Note, Damascus is removed from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap. The cities of Aroer are abandoned: they will be for flocks that will lie down, and none will make them afraid. The fortress also will cease from Ephraim and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they will be as the glory of the children of Israel, declares YHWH of Hosts. And in that day it will come to pass that the glory of Jacob will be brought low, and the fatness of his flesh will grow lean. Then it will be as when the harvester gathers the standing grain, and reaps the ears with his arm; and it will be as he that gathers ears in the Valley of Rephaim (old race of giants). Still gleaning grapes will be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost branch, four or five on the outer fruitful branches, says YHWH Elohim of Israel. At that time will a human being look to his Maker, and his eyes will have respect to the Holy One of Israel. And he will not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither will respect what his fingers have fashioned, either the groves or the images. In that day will his stronghold cities be as a forsaken branch, and an uppermost branch that they left because of the children of Israel:

and there will be desolation. Because you have forgotten the Elohim of your salvation, and have not been mindful of the rock [Urim-Thummim] of your strength, therefore will you plant pleasant plants, and will dress it with alien seedlings. In the day will you make your plant to grow, and in the morning you will make your seed to flourish: but the harvest will be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. Woe to the multitude of many people that make a sound like the roar of the seas; and to the uproar of nations that crash into ruins like the crashing of mighty waters! The nations will crash like the roaring of many waters: but Elohim will rebuke them, and they will flee to distant places, and will be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a whirl of dust before the storm.

Chapter 18

At sunset, lo, terror, before morning it is not, This is the portion of our spoilers, And the lot of our plunderers! Woe to the land of the Spear and Wing that is beyond the rivers of Africa: That is sending by sea ambassadors, even with implements of reed on the face of the waters. Go, you light messengers, to a nation drawn out and peeled, to a people fearful from its beginning and onwards, a nation meeting out by line, and treading down, whose land floods have spoiled. All you inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the land, note, when he lifts up an ensign on the Mount; and when he blows a trumpet, then you listen. For so YHWH said to me, I will take my rest and I will regard my Established Place as resembling a Dazzling Hot Light and Cloud-mass of Night-Mist [Pillar of Fire and Cloud-mass] in the heat of harvest. For before harvest, when the flower is perfect and the blossom is producing unripe fruit, then has one cut the sprigs with pruning hooks and the branches he has turned aside, cut down. They will be left together to the fowls of the mountains, and to the animals of the earth: and the fowls will summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth will winter upon them. In that time is a present brought to YHWH of Hosts, a nation drawn out and peeled.

Chapter 19

Even of a people fearful from the beginning, a nation meting out by line, and treading down, whose land floods have spoiled, to the place of the Name of YHWH of Hosts, Mount Zion! The oracle of Egypt. Watch, YHWH rides upon a swift cloud-mass, and will come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt will be tossed about at his presence, and the heart of Egypt will dissolve within them. And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city and kingdom against kingdom. And emptied out has been in its midst the spirit of Egypt. And its counsel I swallow up and they have sought unto idols and to the charmers, and to those that practice necromancy, and to the soothsayers. And the Egyptians I will give over into the hand of a cruel master, and a fierce king will rule over them, declares YHWH, YHWH of Hosts. And the waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and dried up. And they have turned away the flowing, weak and dried up have been brooks of the bulwark, reed and flag have withered. The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and everything sown by the brooks, will wither, be driven away, and will not exist.

The fishermen also will mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks will mourn, and they that spread nets on the waters will languish. Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave networks, will be put to shame. And its foundations have been attacked, all making wages are afflicted in their lives. Certainly the rulers of Zoan are fools, the advice of the wise counselors of Pharaoh has become barbarous: how you say to Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? Where are they? Where are your wise ones? and let them tell you now, and let them know what YHWH of Hosts has purposed upon Egypt. The rulers of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the cornerstones of the tribes. YHWH has mingled a perverse spirit in its center: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work, as a drunken man staggers in his vomit. Neither will there be any work for Egypt that the head or tail, branch or rush, may do. In that day will Egypt become like women: and it will be afraid and terrified because of the shaking of the hand of YHWH of Hosts that he shakes over it. Then the land of Judah will be a terror to Egypt, everyone that makes mention of it will be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of YHWH of Hosts that he has determined against it. In that day will five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and adjure to YHWH of Hosts; one will be called, The City of Destruction. In that day will there be an Altar to YHWH in the center of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border to YHWH. And it will be for a sign and for a witness to YHWH of Hosts in the land of Egypt, because they will cry to YHWH because of the oppressors, and he will send them a savior, and a great one, and he will deliver them.

Then YHWH will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know YHWH in that day, and will do sacrifice and oblation; yes, they will vow a vow to YHWH and perform it. And YHWH will attack Egypt: he will strike and heal it: and they will return to YHWH, and he will be entreated of them, and will heal them. In that day will there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will serve with the Assyrians. In that day will Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the center of the land: Who YHWH of Hosts will bless saying, Blessed is Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance. In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and captured it; At the same time spoke YHWH by Isaiah the son of Amoz saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off your hips, and take off your shoe from your foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. And YHWH said, Like my slave Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and Ethiopia; So will the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. And they will be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

Chapter 20

And the inhabitant of this coastline will say in that day, see, such is our expectation, where we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria:

Chapter 21

and how will we escape? The oracle of the Desert of the Sea. As whirlwinds in the South pass through; so it comes from the desert, from a terrible land. A cruel vision is declared to me; the treacherous dealer deals treacherously, and the plunder spoils. Go up, O Elam: besiege O Media; all the groaning's have I made to cease. Therefore my hips are filled with pain: distresses have taken hold on me, as the pain of a woman that gives birth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it. My heart panted, fearfulness terrified me: the night of my pleasure has he turned into fear for me. Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, warden, and anoint the armed. Because this is what Adonai [YHWH] has declared to me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he sees. And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of donkeys, and a chariot of camels; and he listened diligently with much heed: And he cried, A Lynx:

my Adonai, I stand continually by day upon the watchtower, and I am stationed in my ward whole nights: And, look, here comes a chariot of men with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her elohim he has broken to the ground. O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: what I have heard of YHWH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel, have I declared to you. The oracle of Dumah. He calls to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? The watchman replied, The morning comes, and also the night: if you will inquire, inquire you: turn back, come. The oracle upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia will you lodge, O you traveling companies of Dedanim. The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that escaped. Because they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the heaviness of war.

Chapter 22

Because this has been what Adonai [YHWH] said to me, Within a year, according to the years of a hired laborer, and all the glory of Kedar will fail. Then the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men from the children of Kedar, will be diminished:

because YHWH Elohim of Israel has spoken it. The oracle from the Valley of Vision. What ails you then, that you have all gone up to the housetops? You that are full of clamor, a disquieted city, a jubilant city: your fatally wounded men are not killed with the sword, nor dead in war. All your commanders are retreated together, they are taken prisoner by the archers: all that are found in you are imprisoned together that have been driven from distant lands. Therefore I said, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labor not to comfort me, because of the violence of the daughter of my people. Because it is a day of trouble and of treading down, and of perplexity by Adonai YHWH of Hosts in the Valley of Vision, an undermining of walls, and of crying unto the mountains. And Elam [Arab] lifted up the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield. And it will come to pass, that your choicest valleys will be full of chariots, and the horsemen will set themselves in array at the gate. And the defenses of Judah have been removed, and you did look in that day to the armor of the house of the timberlands. You have also seen the rift in the city of David, that they are many: and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

And you have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses you have broken down to fortify the wall. You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but you have not looked to the maker thereof, neither had respect for him that fashioned it long ago. And in that day did Adonai YHWH of Hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness and to girding on with sackcloth: And look, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die. And it was revealed in my ears by YHWH of Hosts, This depravity will certainly not be purged from you until you die, says Adonai YHWH of Hosts. This is what Adonai YHWH of Hosts declares, Come now to this steward [elected official], even to Shebna that is over the house, and say, What are you doing here and who are your descendants here that you have cut yourself a tomb here, as he that cuts himself out a tomb up high, and that cuts out a residence for himself in a rock (stronghold of YHWH) ? Look, YHWH is about to hurl you headlong, O strong one. And he is about to grasp you securely in his strength. He will violently turn and toss you like a ball into a large region and there will you die, and there the chariots of your glory will be the shame of your master's house. And I will drive you from your garrison, and from your official post will he pull you down. And it will come about in those times that I will call out and commission my slave Eliakim (Elohim sets up) the son of Hilkiah:

And I will clothe him with your tunic, and strengthen him with your girdle (of the High Priest) , and I will bestow your government into his hand: and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the House of Judah. And the opening instrument (Urim-Thummim) having been with the House of David will I consecrate upon his shoulder; so that he will open, and none will shut; and he will shut, and none will open. And I will drive him as a peg in the Established Place; and he will be for a glorious throne to his father (Levi's) house. And they will hang upon him all the glory of his father (Levi's) house, the descendants and the offshoot, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the articles of musical instruments. In that day, declares YHWH of Hosts, will the peg that is driven in the Sure-Place be removed, and be cut down and fall; and the load that was upon it will be cut off, because YHWH has commanded it. The oracle of Tyre. wail, you ships of Tarshish, because it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. Be silent, you inhabitants of the coast;

Chapter 23

you who the merchants of Zidon that pass over the sea have made wealthy. And on many waters came the grain of Sihor, the revenue of the Nile is her increase, And she is a marketplace of the nations. Be you ashamed, O Zidon: because the sea has spoken, even the strength of the sea saying, I writhe not, nor bring forth children, neither do I magnify young men, nor bring up virgins. As at the report concerning Egypt, so will they be writhing in pain at the report of Tyre. Pass yourselves over to Tarshish; wail you inhabitants of the coasts. Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? Her own feet will carry her to distant places. Who has taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city whose merchants are princes, whose traders are the honorable of the earth? YHWH of Hosts has purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory and to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. Pass through your land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength. He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: YHWH has given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy its strongholds. And he said, you will no more rejoice, O you oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: get up, pass over to Chittim; there also will you have no rest. Lo, the land of the Chaldeans, this people was not, Asshur founded it for the Ziim, they raised its watchtowers, they lifted up her palaces, he has appointed her for a ruin! Wail, you ships of Tarshish, because your strength is laid waste. And it will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten 70 years, according to the days of one king:

after the end of 70 years will Tyre sing as a prostitute.

Chapter 24

Take an lyre, go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten; make a sweet melody, sing many songs so that you may be remembered. And it will come to pass after the end of 70 years, that YHWH will visit Tyre, and she will turn to her hire, and will commit fornication [resume trading commerce] with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. And her merchandise and her hire will be holiness to YHWH: it will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for them that live before YHWH, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing. Look, YHWH makes the earth empty and makes it waste, and turns it upside down and scatters abroad its inhabitants. And it will be, as with the people, so with the leaders; as with the slave, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the lender to him. The land will be utterly laid waste and despoiled, because YHWH has spoken this Word. The earth mourns and fades away, the world languishes and fades away, the arrogant people of the earth become feeble. The earth also is defiled under its inhabitants; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the Age-Lasting covenant. Therefore has the curse devoured the earth and they that live there are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are scorched, and few of mankind survive. The new wine mourns, the vine droops, all the partygoers groan. The rejoicing of tambourines ceases, the din of them that party stops, the joy of the guitars cease. They will not drink wine with a song; strong drink will be bitter to them that drink it. The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up so that no man may come in. There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the partying of the land is gone. In the city is left desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. When it will be so in the midst of the land among the people, there will be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done. They will lift up their voice, they will sing for the majesty of YHWH, they will cry aloud from the sea. Therefore glorify YHWH in the fires, even the Name of YHWH Elohim of Israel in the islands of the sea. From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, my leanness, my leanness, woe to me! The treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yes, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously. Fear, and the pit and the snare, are upon you O inhabitant of the earth. And it shall come to pass, that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he that comes up out of the midst of the pit will be taken in the snare.

Because the windows from on high are open and the foundations of the earth do quake. Utterly broken down has been the land, Utterly broken has been the land, Utterly moved has been the land. The earth will reel to and fro like a drunkard, and will be removed like a cottage; and its transgression will be heavy upon it; and it will fall and not rise again. And it will come about in that day, that YHWH will punish the armies of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. Then they will be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and will be shut up in the prison, and after many days will they be visited. Then the moon will be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when YHWH of Hosts will reign in Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his Elders gloriously. O YHWH, you are my Elohim; I will exalt you, I will praise your Name, because you have done wonderful things; your counsels of old are faithfulness and Truth. Because you have made of a city a heap of stones; of a fortified city a ruin: a palace of foreigners to be no city, it will never be rebuilt. Therefore will the fierce people glorify you, the city of the terror-striking nations will fear you.

Chapter 25

Because you have been a Place of Safety to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their straits, a shelter from the storm, a shadow from the drought, when the blast of the mighty is like a storm against the wall. You will bring down the uproar of foreigners, as the drought in a parched land; even the parching heat with the shadow of the cloud-mass: the pruning of the terror-striking will be brought low. And in this mountain will YHWH of Hosts make to all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. And he will engulf in this mountain the face of the envelope cast over all people, and the veil that is woven over all nations. He will engulf death in victory; and Adonai YHWH will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the scorn of his people he will remove from off the entire earth, because YHWH has declared it. Then it will be said in that day, lo, this is our Elohim; we have waited for him and he will save us: this is YHWH;

Chapter 26

we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. Because in this mountain will the hand of YHWH rest, and Moab will be trampled down under him, even as straw is trampled down in the manure. And he will spread out his hands among them, as he that swims spreads out his hands to swim: and he will bring down their pride together with the deceit of their hands.

And the fortress of the high fort of your walls will he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust. In that day will this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will Elohim appoint for walls and bulwarks. Open you the gates so that the righteous nation that guards the Truth may enter in. You will guard him in complete peace, whose mind is resting on you, because he trusts in you. Trust you in YHWH for the ages: because in Yah YHWH is Age-Lasting strength. Because he brings them down that live on high; the lofty city, he lays it low; he lays it low, even to the ground; he brings it to the dust. The foot will tread it down, even the feet of the poor and the steps of the needy. The way of the righteous is equity: you, most upright, do weigh the path of the righteous. Yes, in the way of your judgments O YHWH, have we waited for you; the desire of our life is toward your Name, and to the remembrance of you. With my life have I desired you in the night; yes, with my mind within me will I seek you early, because when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. The guilty find Grace, he has not learned righteousness, in a land of straightforwardness he deals perversely, and sees not the excellency of YHWH.

YHWH, when your hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they will see and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yes, the fire of your enemies will devour them. YHWH, you will give us peace: because all our works are the outcome of your designs. O YHWH Elohim, other lords beside you have had dominion over us: but by you only will we make mention of your Name. Dead, they live not, Rephaim [race of giants], they rise not [are never resurrected], therefore you have inspected and will destroy them, yes, you destroy all their memory [complete genocide]. You have increased the nation O YHWH, you have increased the nation: you are glorified: you have removed it far to all the ends of the earth. YHWH, in trouble have they visited you, they poured out a prayer when your correction was upon them. Like a woman with child, that draws near the time of her delivery and is in pain, and cries out in her pain; so have we been in your sight O YHWH. We have conceived, we have been pained. We have brought forth as it were wind, salvation we do not work in the earth, nor do the inhabitants of the world fall.

Chapter 27

Your dead, shall come to life again, My dead body, they shall arise. Awake and sing, you dwellers in the dust, for the dew of herbs is your dew, And the land of Rephaim (race of giants) you cause to fall. Come my people, enter you into your chambers, and shut your doors about you: hide yourself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation is pasted over.

For lo, YHWH comes out of his Standing Place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their depravity: the earth also will disclose her blood, and will no more cover her slain. In that day YHWH, with his cruel, great and strong sword, will punish the dragon piercing serpent, even the dragon that crooked serpent; and he will slay the dragon that is in the sea. In that day sing to her, a vineyard of red wine. I YHWH do guard it; I will water it every moment, unless any hurt it, I will guard it night and day. Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together. Or let him take hold of my strength so that he may make peace with me; and he will make peace with me. He will cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel will blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit. Has he struck him, as he struck those that attacked him? or is he killed according to the slaughter of them that are killed by him? In measure, in sending it out, you strive with it, he has taken away by his sharp wind, in the day of an East wind. Therefore by this is the depravity of Jacob covered, and this is all the fruit, to take away his sin, in his setting all the stones of an altar. As chalk-stones beaten in pieces, they rise not, shrines and images. Still the fortified city will be desolate, and its habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there will the calf feed, and there will he lie down, and consume the branches. When the harvest is withered they will be broken off: the women come and set them on fire, because it is a people of no understanding.

Chapter 28

Therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favor. Then it will come about in that day that YHWH will beat off from the channel of the river to the stream of Egypt, and you will be gathered one by one, O you children of Israel. And it will come to pass in that day that the great trumpet will be blown, and they will come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and will worship YHWH in the Holy Mount in Jerusalem. Woe to the crown of majesty, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower that are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine! Look, Adonai [YHWH] has a mighty and strong one that as a downpour of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, will cast down to the earth with the hand. The crown of majesty, the drunkards of Ephraim will be trampled underfoot: And the fading flower of the beauty of his glory that is on the head of the fat valley, has been as its first-fruit before summer, that its beholder sees, while it is still in his hand he swallows it. In that day will YHWH of Hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty to the residue of his people, and for a spirit of judgment to him that sits in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate. But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the ruler and the speaker have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. Because all tables are full of vomit and filthiness so that there is no place that is clean.

Who will he teach knowledge? And whom will he make to understand doctrine? Those that are weaned from the milk and drawn from the breasts. Because precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little: For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people. To who he said, This is the Resting Place where you may cause the weary to rest; and this is the Place of Rest, but still they would not hear. But the Word of YHWH was to them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. Therefore hear the Word of YHWH, you scornful men that rule this people that are in Jerusalem. Because you have said, we have made a pledge with death, and with Sheol we have made a provision, an overflowing scourge, when it passes over will not meet us, though we have made a lie our refuge and in falsehood have been hidden. Therefore Adonai YHWH declares, Watch, I lay in Zion for a foundation, a stone (Urim-Thummim) , a testing stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation: he that believes will not be in panic. Judgment I will also lay to the line and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail will sweep away the shelter of falsehood, and the waters will overflow the hiding place.

And your pledge with death will be disabled, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand; when the overflowing scourge will pass through, then you will be trampled down by it. From the time that it goes out it will take you: for morning by morning will it pass over, by day and by night: and it will be a vexation only to understand the report. Because the bed is shorter than a man can stretch himself on, and the covering narrower than he can wrap himself in. Because YHWH will arise up as in Mount Perazim, he will be angry as in the Valley of Gibeon so that he may do his work, his foreign work; and bring to pass his labor, his foreign labor. Now, therefore, do not show yourselves scoffers, lest your fetters, be bound fast, For, of a full End, and that a decreed one, have I heard from My Adonai Yahweh of hosts, upon all the land. Give ear and hear my Voice; listen, and hear my speech. Does the plowman plow all day to sow? Does he open and break the clods of his ground? Has he not, if he has made level its surface, and sown dill and scattered cummin, and planted wheat in rows, barley in its place, and rye in its own area? Because his Elohim does instruct him to discretion, and teaches him.

Chapter 29

For the black cummin are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin;

but the black cummim are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod. Grain is crushed; because he will not always be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor crush it with his horsemen. This also comes from YHWH of Hosts, that is wonderful in counsel and excellent in working. Woe to Ariel, Ariel, the city of the encampment of David! Add year to year, let festivals run their round. And I have sent distress to Ariel, and it has been lamentation and mourning, and it has been to me as Ariel. And I will camp against you all around, and will lay siege against you with a siege-work, and I will raise ramparts against you. And you will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground, and your speech will be low out of the dust, and your voice will be, as of one that practices necromancy, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust. Moreover the tumult of your foreigners will be like small dust, and the sound of the mighty ones will be as chaff that passes away: yes, it will be in an instant suddenly. You will be visited of YHWH of Hosts with thunder, and earthquakes, and great noise, with storm and whirlwind, and the flame of devouring fire. And the great number of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her bulwark, and that distress her, will be as a dream of a night vision. It will even be as when a hungry man dreams, and look, he eats; but he wakes up, and his body is empty. Or as when a thirsty man dreams, and look, he drinks; but he wakes up, and lo, he is faint and his body has an appetite: so will the great number of all the nations be, that fight against Mount Zion. Be delayed and wonder;

cry out, and be smeared over: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. Because YHWH has poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes: the speakers and your rulers, the seers he has covered. And the vision of all has become to you as the words of a book that is sealed, that men deliver to one that is educated saying, read this I ask you: and he replies, I cannot; because it is sealed: And the book is delivered to him that is not educated saying, read this I ask you: and he replies, I am not educated. Therefore Adonai [YHWH] said, Inasmuch as this people draw near to me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their respect toward me is taught by the precept of men: Therefore look, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder: because the wisdom of their wise ones will perish, and the understanding of their men with degrees will be concealed. Woe to those going deep from YHWH to hide counsel, and whose works have been in darkness. And they say, who sees us? And who knows us? Certainly your turning of things upside down will be esteemed as the potter's clay: for will the work say of him that made it, he made me not? or will the thing framed say of him that framed it, he had no understanding? Is it not still a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be esteemed as a forest?

And in that day will the deaf hear the Words of The Book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. The poor also will increase their joy in YHWH, and the needy among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. Because the terrible one is brought to nothing, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch for wickedness are cut off. That snares a man as guilty for a case, and lays a lure for him that judges in the court, and turns aside the righteous for a place of chaos.

Chapter 30

Therefore YHWH declares, who ransomed Abraham, concerning the House of Jacob, Jacob will not now be ashamed, neither will his face now grow pale. But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they will consecrate my Name, and consecrate the Holy One of Jacob, and will fear the Elohim of Israel. They also that erred in mind will come to understanding, and they that murmured will learn doctrine. Woe to the rebellious children, declares YHWH, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my mind, that they may add sin to sin: That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not inquired from my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! Therefore will the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. Because his rulers were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes. They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be a help nor profit, but a shame and also a reproach.

The oracle of the animals of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from where comes the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent. They will carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the hump of camels, to a people that will not profit them. Because the Egyptians will help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, their strength is to sit still. Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and note it in a scroll, that it may be for the future ages: That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the Torah of YHWH. That say to the seers, see not; and to the prophets, prophesy not to us right things, speak to us smooth things, prophesy illusions: Get yourself out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. Therefore the Holy One of Israel declares, Because you despise this Word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and remain in it: Therefore this depravity will be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. And he has broken it as the breaking of the potters' vessel, beaten down, he does not spare, nor is there found in its beating down, a potsherd to take fire from the burning, and to draw out waters from a ditch. Because Adonai YHWH declares, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest will you be saved; in quietness and in confidence will be your strength, but you would have none of it.

And you say, no, for on a horse we flee? Therefore you flee, and on the swift we ride! Therefore swift are your pursuers. Now 1000 will flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five will you flee: until you are left as a beacon on the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill. And therefore will YHWH wait, that he may be gracious to you and therefore he will be exalted so that he may have mercy on you. Because YHWH is an Elohim of Judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him. Because the people will live in Zion at Jerusalem: you will weep no more: he will be very gracious to you at the voice of your cry; when he will hear it, he will answer you. And though Adonai [YHWH] give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers will not be removed into a corner anymore, but your eyes will see your teachers. And your ears will hear a Word behind you saying, This is the way, walk you in it, when you turn to the right hand and when you turn to the left. You will defile also the covering of your graven images of silver, and the religious garments of your metal images of gold: you will cast them away as a menstruous cloth; you will say to it, away with you! Then will he give the rain of your seed so that you will sow the ground, and bread from the increase of the land, and it will be fat and plenteous; in that day will your cattle feed in large pastures. The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that ear the ground will eat clean provender that has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. And there will be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the skyscrapers fall. And the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that YHWH binds up the wounds of his people, and heals the wounds of their infliction. Behold, the Name of YHWH comes from far, burning with his anger and its burden is heavy: his lips are full of indignation and his tongue as a devouring supernatural fire. And his breath, as an overflowing stream, will reach to the middle of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there will be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. You will have a song, as in the night when a consecrated festival is prepared; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a pipe to come into the mountain of YHWH, to the Rock [Urim-Thummim] of Israel. Then YHWH will cause his majestic Voice to be heard, and will show the lighting down of his forces, with the storming indignation of his nostrils flaring, and with the flame of devouring supernatural fire, with driving storm, thunderstorm and hailstones.

Chapter 31

Because through the Voice of YHWH will the Assyrian be beaten down that struck with a rod. And every passage of the settled staff that YHWH causes to rest on him, has been with tambourine, and with lyre, and in battles of shaking he has fought with it. For, arranged from former time is Tophet, even it for the king is prepared, he has made deep, he has made large, its pile is fire and much wood, the breath of YHWH, as a stream of brimstone, is burning in it! Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not to the Holy One of Israel, neither inquire of YHWH! And he also is wise, and brings on bad, and his Words he has not turned aside, and he has risen against a house of wicked doers, and against the help of workers of wickedness. Now the Egyptians are men, and not elohim; and their horses flesh, and not spirit.

When YHWH will stretch out his hand, both he that helps will fall, and he that is helped will fall down, and they all will fail together. Because YHWH has said to me, As the lion and the young lion roaring on their prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called out against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor humble himself because of the sound of them. So will YHWH of Hosts come down to fight for Mount Zion and for the hill. As birds flying, so does YHWH of Hosts Cover over Jerusalem, covering and delivering, passing over, and causing to escape. Turn back to him from whom the children of Israel have deepened apostasy.

Chapter 32

Because in that day everyone will cast away their idols of silver, and their idols of gold that your own hands have made to yourself for a sin. And the Assyrian will drop by a sword not of man, and a sword not of man will consume him. So he will not escape the sword, and his young men will be reduced to serfdom. Then he will pass over to his stronghold for fear, and his rulers will be afraid of the ensign, declares YHWH, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem. Behold, a King will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in judgment. And each has been as a hiding place from wind, and as a secret hiding place from inundation, as rivulets of waters in a dry place, as a shadow of a heavy rock in a weary land.

And the eyes of them that see will not be dim, and the ears of them that hear will listen. The heart also of the impetuous will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammering will be ready to speak plainly. A fool is no more called noble, and to a miser it is not said, rich; Because the foolish person will speak profane actions, and his heart will work wickedness, to practice hypocrisy, and to utter error against YHWH, to make empty the lives of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. The instruments also of the scoundrel are bad: he advises an evil plan to destroy the poor with false testimony, even when the poor speaks justly. And the noble counseled noble things, and he for noble things stands. Rise up, you women that are at ease; hear my voice, you careless daughters; give ear to my speech. Many days and years will you be troubled, you careless women: because the vintage will fail, the harvest will not come. Tremble, you women that are at ease; be troubled, you careless ones: strip yourselves, make yourselves naked and gird sackcloth on your hips. They will lament for the breasts, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

Upon the land of my people will come up thorns and briers; yes, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city. Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city will be left; the strongholds and towers will be for Age-Lasting dens, a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of herds; Until the spirit is poured upon us from the High Place, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is esteemed for a forest. Then judgment will reside in the wilderness, and righteousness remains in the fruitful field. Then the work of righteousness will be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and security for the ages. And my people will live in a peaceable habitation, and in secure dwelling places, and in quiet resting places; When it will hail, coming down on the forest; and the city will be utterly laid low. Blessed are you that sow beside all waters, that send out from there the feet of the ox and the donkey.

Chapter 33

Woe to you that spoil, and you were not spoiled; and deal treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with you! when you will cease to destroy, you will be devastated; and when you will make an end to deal treacherously, they will deal treacherously with you. O YHWH, be gracious to us; we have waited for you: be you their arm every sunrise, our deliverance also in the time of trouble. At the sound of the roaring the people fled; at the lifting up of yourself the nations were scattered. And your plunder will be gathered like the gathering of the locust: as the running to and fro of locusts will he run upon them. YHWH is exalted; because he lives in the High Place: he has filled Zion with judgment and righteousness. And wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times, and riches of salvation: the respect of YHWH is his treasury. Look, their heroes will cry outwardly: the ambassadors of peace will weep bitterly. The highways lie deserted, the wayfaring man is removed:

he has broken the covenant, he has despised the cities, he regards no mortal person. The earth mourns and languishes: Lebanon is ashamed and cut down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits. Now will I arise, declares YHWH; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself. You will conceive chaff, you will bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, will devour you. And the people will be as the burning of lime: as thorns cut up will they be burnt in the fire. Hear, you that are far off, what I have done; and you that are near, acknowledge my might. The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness has surprised the hypocrites. Who among us will live with the devouring supernatural fire? Who among us will live with Age-Lasting burnings? He that walks righteously, and speaks with equity; he that despises the gain of oppressions, that shakes his hands from the holding of bribes, that stops his ears from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from seeing bad; He will reside in the High Place: his refuge will be the stronghold of rocks: food will be given to him; his waters will be sure. Your eyes will see the King in his beauty: they will see the land that is very far off. Your heart will meditate terror. Where is the scribe? Where is the receiver? where is he that declared from the pulpit? You will not see a fierce people, a people of an unfathomable speech than you can perceive; of a deriding tongue that you cannot understand. Look on Zion, the city of the Appointed Place: your eyes will see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a Tabernacle that will not be taken down; not one of its pegs will ever be removed, neither will any of its cords be pulled away. But there the glorious YHWH will be to us a place of broad rivers and streams; no ships with oars will go into it, neither will great tanker ships pass by there. Because YHWH is our Judge, YHWH is our Lawgiver, YHWH is our King;

Chapter 34

He will save us. Your tackling is loosed; they could not well strengthen their mast, they could not spread the sail: then is the prey of a great plunder divided; the lame take the booty. And the inhabitant will not say, I am sick: the people that live there will be forgiven their depravity. Come near you nations, to hear; and listen you people: let the earth hear and all that are in it; the world, and all things that come forth from it. Because the Anger of YHWH is upon all nations, and his rage upon all their armies: he has Devoted them to Destruction, he has delivered them to the slaughter. Their fatally wounded will also be cast out, and their stench will come up out of their carcasses, and the mountains will be dissolved in their blood. And all the stars of the cosmos will be decaying, and the universe will be rolled together as a scroll: and all their star systems will fade away, as the leaf falls off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree. Because my sword will be bathed in the cosmos: see, it will come down upon Edom, and upon the people of my curse, to Judgment. The sword of YHWH is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and he-goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for YHWH has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. And the buffalo will come down with them, and the steers with the bulls; and their land will be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. Because it is the day of YHWH's vengeance, and the year of retribution for the controversy of Zion.

And the stream bed will be turned into pitch, and the dust into brimstone, and the land will become burning pitch. It will not be quenched night or day, the smoke will ascend for the ages: from generation to generation it will lie waste; none will pass through it for the ages of ages. But the pelican and the hedgehog will possess it; the owl also and the raven will live in it: and he will stretch out upon it the measuring line of wasteland, and the stones of void. They will call the nobles to the kingdom, but none will be there, and all her princes will be ceasing. And thorns will come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses: and it will be a habitation of dragons, and a court for owls. The wild animals of the desert will also meet with the wild animals of the island, and the satyr will cry to his fellow; the screech owl also will rest there, and find for herself a place of rest. There will the great owl make her nest, lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow:

Chapter 35

there will the vultures also be gathered, everyone with her mate. Inquire out of The Bible of YHWH, and read: not one of these will fail, none will want her mate: for my mouth it has commanded, and his spirit it has gathered them. And he has cast the lot for them, and his hand has divided it to them by line: they will possess it for the ages, from generation to generation will they reside there. The wilderness and the desert will rejoice for them; and the steppe will rejoice and blossom as the rose. It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing:

the glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they will see the glory of YHWH, and the ornament of our Elohim. Strengthen you the slack hands, and secure the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, be strong, fear not: see, your Elohim will come with vengeance, even Elohim with a benefit; he will come and liberate you. Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped. Then will the lame person leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: because in the wilderness will waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the parched ground will become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of serpents, where each lay, will be grass with reeds and rushes. And a highway will be there and a road, and it will be called The Road of Holiness; the unclean will not pass over it; but it will be for those, the wayfaring person, though fools will not go or stray on it. No lion will be there, nor any ravenous beast will go up, they will not be found there; but the ransomed will walk there only. And the ransomed of YHWH will return, and come to Zion with songs and Age-Lasting joy upon their heads: they will obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing will flee away. Now it came to pass in the 14th year of King Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and captured them. And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to king Hezekiah with a great army.

Chapter 36

And he stood by the conduit of the Upper Pool in the highway of the Fuller's Field. Then came out to him Eliakim (Elohim set up) , Hilkiah's son that was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder. Then Rabshakeh said to them, Say you now to Hezekiah, this is what the great king, the king of Assyria says, what confidence is this with which you trust? I have said: Only, a word of the lips! Counsel and might is for battle: now, on whom have you trusted, that you have rebelled against me? Lo, you trust in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; where if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him. But if you say to me, we trust in YHWH Elohim: is it not he, whose worship places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, You will worship before this Altar? Now therefore give pledges I ask you, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you 2000 horses, if you are able on your behalf to set riders on them. How then will you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's slaves, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? And now, without YHWH have I come up against this land to destroy it? YHWH said to me, Go up against this land, and make it waste. Then replied Eliakim and Shebna and Joah to Rabshakeh, Speak, I ask you, to your servants in the Syrian language; because we understand it: and do not speak to us in the Hebrew language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall. But Rabshakeh replied, has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men that sit on the wall, that they may eat their own excrement, and drink their own piss with you? Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Hebrew language and said, hear you the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

The king declares, let not Hezekiah deceive you: because he will not be able to deliver you. Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in YHWH saying, YHWH will certainly deliver us: this city will not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Listen not to Hezekiah, because the king of Assyria says, make an agreement with me by a treaty of peace, and come out to me. And eat you everyone from his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink everyone the waters of his own cistern; Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. Beware unless Hezekiah persuades you saying, YHWH will deliver us. Has any of the elohim of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Where are the elohim of Hamath and Arphad? Where are the elohim of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? Who are they among all the elohim of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that YHWH should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? But they held their peace, and answered him not a word, because the king's commandment was to answer him not. Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

Chapter 37

And it came to pass when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the Temple of YHWH. And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the Elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

And they said to him, this is what Hezekiah says, this day is a day of trouble and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: because the children are come to birth, and there is not strength to gender. It may be YHWH Elohim will hear the words of Rabshakeh, who the king of Assyria his master has sent to reproach the living Elohim, and will judge the words that YHWH Elohim has heard: therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left. So the slaves of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. Then Isaiah replied to them, This is what you will tell your master, YHWH declares, Be not afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. Look, I will send a blast upon him, and he will hear a rumor and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land. So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: because he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. And he heard it reported concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, he has come out to make war with you. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah saying, this is what you will speak to Hezekiah king of Judah saying, let not your Elohim, in whom you trust deceive you saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and will you be delivered? Have the elohim of the nations delivered them that my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden that were in Telassar? Where is the king of Hamath and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? Then Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it: and Hezekiah went up to the Temple of YHWH, and spread it before YHWH. And Hezekiah prayed to YHWH saying, O YHWH of Hosts, Elohim of Israel, that live between the cherubim, you are Elohim, even you alone of all the kingdoms of the earth: you have made the cosmos and earth. Incline your ear O YHWH and hear; open your eyes O YHWH and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib that he has sent to reproach the living Elohim. Of a Truth YHWH, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, and have cast their elohim into the fire, because they were not elohim, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore O YHWH Elohim, save us from his hand so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are YHWH, even you only. Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah saying, This is what YHWH Elohim of Israel replies, Whereas you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria: This is the Word that YHWH has spoken concerning him;

The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. Who have you reproached and blasphemed? And against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Even against the Holy One of Israel. By your servants have you reproached Adonai [YHWH] and have said, by the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon. And I will cut down the tall cedars and the choice cypress trees: and I will enter into the height of his territory, and the forest of his Carmel (garden-land). I have excavated and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the fenced places. Have you not heard from afar? It I did, from days of old that I formed it. Now, I have brought it in, and it is to make desolate, ruinous heaps those fenced cities. Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it has grown up. But I know your abode and you're going out, and you're coming in and your rage against me. Because your rage against me and your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the road by which you came. And this will be a sign to you, you will eat this year such as grows of itself; and the second year what springs of the same: and in the third year you will sow and reap, and plant vineyards and eat its fruit.

And the remnant that is escaped of the House of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. Because out of Jerusalem will go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of Mount Zion: the zeal of YHWH of Hosts will do this. Therefore this is what YHWH declares concerning the king of Assyria, he will not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. By the way that he came, by the same will he return and will not come into this city, declares YHWH. Because I will defend this city to save it for my own sake, and for my slave David's sake. Then the Angel of YHWH went out, and struck in the camp of the Assyrians 185,000 men; and when they arose early in the morning, lo, they were all dead corpses. So Sennacherib king of Assyria left, and went and returned and lived at Nineveh. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his elohim, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons killed him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 38

In those days was Hezekiah deathly ill. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, this is what YHWH says, set your house in order because you will die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the sides of the Altar, and prayed to YHWH, and said, remember now O YHWH, I beseech you, how I have walked before you in Truth and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in your sight. And Hezekiah wept intensely. Then came the Word of YHWH to Isaiah saying,

Go and say to Hezekiah, This is what YHWH says, the Elohim of David your forefather, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: see, I will add to your days 15 years. And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city. And this will be a sign to you from YHWH, that YHWH will do this thing that he has spoken; Look, I will cause the shadow on the sundial that has gone down with the sun on the sundial of Ahaz, to go back ten degrees. So the sun's shadow went back ten degrees on the sundial on which it had gone down. The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and was recovered from his illness. I said, in the prime of my life I will go to the gates of Sheol: I am deprived of the remainder of my years. I said, no more will I see YHWH, even YHWH in the land of the living: I will look upon mankind no more in the inhabited world. My sojourning has departed, and been removed from me as a shepherd's tent, I have drawn together, as a weaver my life, By weakness it cuts me off, from day to night you do end me. I have set him till morning as a lion, so does he break all my bones, from day to night you do end me. Like a crane or a swallow so did I chatter:

I did mourn as a dove: my eyes fail with looking upward: O YHWH, oppression is on me; be my surety. What will I say? he has both spoken to me, and himself has done it: I will go softly all my years in the bitterness of my life. O Adonai [YHWH], by these things men live and in all these things is the life of my breath: so will you restore and resurrect me to life. Look, for peace I had great bitterness: but you have in love to my life delivered it from the pit of nothing: because you have cast all my sins behind your back. For those in the mansion of the dead cannot praise you; nor can the dead return you thanks, nor they in Hades hope for your kindness. The living, the living, he will praise you, as I do this day: the father to the children will make known your Truth. YHWH was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the Temple of YHWH. Because Isaiah had said, let them take a lump of figs and lay it for a rub on the boil, and he will recover. Hezekiah also had said, what is the sign that I will go up to the Temple of YHWH?

Chapter 39

At that time Merodachbaladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: because he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

Then Hezekiah was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armor. And all that were found in his treasury: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them. Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, what did you say to these men? And from where did they come to you from? And Hezekiah replied, they are come from a far country to me, even from Babylon. Then he asked, what have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, all that is in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasury that I have not shown them. Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the Word of YHWH of Hosts: Note, the days come that all that is in your house, and what your forefathers have laid up in store until this day, will be carried to Babylon: nothing will be left, declares YHWH. And of your sons that will issue from you, that you will gender, will they take away; and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

Chapter 40

Then Hezekiah replied to Isaiah, good is the Word of YHWH that you have spoken. He said further, that is because there will be peace and

Truth in my days. Comfort you, comfort you my people, declares your Elohim. Speak you comfortably to Jerusalem and cry to her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her punishment is determined: because she has received of YHWH's hand double for all her sins. The voice of him that cries in the uninhabited land, Prepare you the Path of YHWH, make straight in the desert a highway for our Elohim. Every steep valley will be swept away, and every mountain and hill will become lowered:

and the hills will be made level country, and the mountain chains a level plain. And the glory of YHWH will be revealed, and all flesh will see it together: because the mouth of YHWH has spoken. The voice said, Cry; And he said, what will I cry? All flesh is grass and all its goodness is as the flower of the field: The grass withers, the flower fades: because the breath of YHWH blows on it: certainly the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades: but the Word of our Elohim will stand for the ages. O Zion, that brings Good News, get yourself up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem that brings Good News, lift up your voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say to the cities of Judah, watch your Elohim! Look, Adonai YHWH will come with a strong hand and his arm will rule for him: see, his reward is with him and his work before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd: he will gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and will gently lead those that are with young. Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and measured out the cosmos with the span [approx. nine inches], and calculate the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? Who has directed the Spirit of YHWH, or being his counselor has taught him? With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him and taught him in the Path of Judgment, and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding?

See, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: look, he takes up the isles as a very little thing. And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its animals sufficient for a whole Burnt-Offering. All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and places of chaos. To whom then will you liken Elohim? Or what likeness will you compare to him? The workman casts a graven image, and the goldsmith beats it out with gold, and refines silver chains. He that is so impoverished that he has no offering chooses a tree that will not rot; he finds himself a skillful craftsman to prepare a graven image that will not be dislodged. Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? It is he that sits upon the vault of the cosmic expanse of the earth, and its inhabitants are as grasshoppers; that stretches out the universe as a veil, and spreads them out as a tent to live in: That brings the judicious to nothing;

he makes the judges of the earth as emptiness. Yes, they will not be planted; yes, they will not be sown: yes, their stock will not take root in the earth: and he will also blow upon them, and they will wither, and the whirlwind will take them away as stubble. To whom then will you liken me, or will I be equal? Declares the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on the Elevated Place, and see who has created these things, that brings out their stars by number: he calls them all by names by the greatness of his might, because that he is strong in power; not one fails. Why say you O Jacob, and speak O Israel, my way is hidden from YHWH, and my judgment is passed over from my Elohim? Have you not known? Have you not heard, that the Age-Lasting Elohim, YHWH, the Creator of the whole earth, faints not, neither is weary? There is no searching of his understanding. He gives power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increases strength. Even the youths will faint and be weary, and the young men will stagger: But they that wait on YHWH will renew their strength; they will mount up with wings as eagles; they will run and not be weary; and they will walk and not faint.

Chapter 41

Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment. Who raised up the righteous from the East, called him to his feet, gave the nations before him and made him rule over kings? He gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet. Who has performed and done this, calling the generations from the beginning? I, YHWH, the first (Alpha), and with the last (Omega); I am he. The isles saw it and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near and came. They helped everyone his neighbor; and everyone said to his brother, be of good courage. And strengthen does an artisan the refiner, a smoother with a hammer, him who is beating on an anvil saying, for joining it is good, and he strengthens it with nails, it is not moved! But you Israel, are my slave, Jacob who I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend. You who I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called you from the chief men and said to you, You are my slave; I have chosen you and not cast you away. Do not fear because I am with you: be not dismayed because I am your Elohim: I will strengthen you; yes, I will help you; yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness. Look, all they that were incensed against you will be ashamed and confounded: they will be as nothing and they that strive with you will perish. You seek them and find them not, the men who debate with you, they are as nothing, yes, as nothing, the men who war with you. Because I YHWH Elohim will hold your right hand saying to you, Fear not; I will help you.

Fear not, you worm Jacob and you men of Israel; I will help you declares YHWH, and your Kinsmen-Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. Look, I will make you a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: you will thresh the mountains and beat them small, and will make the hills as chaff. You will fan them and the wind will carry them away, and the whirlwind will scatter them: and you will rejoice in YHWH, and will glory in the Holy One of Israel. When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue fails for thirst, I YHWH will hear them, I the Elohim of Israel will not forsake them. I will open rivers in Appointed Places, and fountains in the middle of the valleys: I will make the uninhabited land a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia tree, and the myrtle, and the olive tree; I will set in the desert the cypress tree, and the pine, and the evergreen tree together: That they may see and know, consider and understand together, that the hand of YHWH has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it. Produce your cause declares YHWH; produce your strong reasons, says the King of Jacob. Let them draw near and tell you what will happen, or such things as these before they come to pass. Tell us that we may apply our understanding, and that we may know the final issue, and the train of events leading to it.

Tell us, announce to us the things in successive train to the issue; and we will acknowledge that you are elohim. Confer favours and inflict punishments, and we will pay respect and see at once, that wherever you are thence is your operation. Lo, you are nothing, and your work of worthlessness, an Abomination – it fixes on you. I have raised up one from the North, and he will come: from the rising of the sun will he call upon my Name: and he will come upon rulers as upon mortar, and as the potter tramples clay. Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know? And formerly that we may say, he is righteous? Yes, there is none that expounds, yes, there is none that declares, yes, there is none that hears your words. The first will say to Zion, look, watch them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that brings Good News. For I observed and there was no one; even among them, and there was no counselor, that when I asked of them could answer a word. Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their cast images are wind and confusion. Observe my slave, whom I uphold; my Elect in who my heart delights; I have put my spirit upon him: he will publish Judgment to the Gentiles.

Chapter 42

He will not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street. A bruised reed will he not break, and the smoking flax will he not quench: he will publish Judgment unto Truth. He will not fail nor be discouraged until he has set Judgment in the earth: and the isles will wait for his Torah. This is what Elohim YHWH declares, he that created the cosmos and stretched them out; he that spread out the earth and what grows out of it; he that gives breath to the people on it, and breath to them that walk therein: I YHWH have called you in righteousness, and will hold your hand and will guard you, and give you for a pledge of the people, for a light of the Gentiles; To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house. I am YHWH: that is my Name, and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images. Look, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them. Sing to YHWH a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, you that go down to the sea, and all that are there; the isles and its inhabitants. Let the wilderness and the cities lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar does inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. Let them give glory to YHWH and declare his praise in the islands. YHWH will go out as a mighty man, he will stir up jealousy like a man of war: he will cry, yes roar; he will prevail against his enemies. I have kept silent from of old, I keep silent, I refrain myself, As a travailing woman I cry out, I desolate and swallow up together.

I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools. And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do to them and not forsake them. They will be turned back, they will be greatly ashamed that trust in graven images, that say to the cast images, you are our elohim. Hear you deaf; and look you blind so that you may see. Who is blind, but my slave? Or deaf as my messenger that I sent? Who is blind as he that is at peace, and blind as YHWH's slave? Seeing many things, but you observe not; opening the ears, but he hears not. YHWH is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the Torah, and make it honorable. But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hidden in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivers; for a spoil and none says, restore. Who among you will give ear to this? Who will listen and hear for the times to come? Who gave Jacob for a plunder and Israel to the robbers? Did not YHWH, he against whom we have sinned? Because they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient to his Law.

Therefore he has poured on him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it has set him on fire all around, still he knew not and it burned him, still he laid it not to heart.

Chapter 43

But now this is what YHWH that created you declares O Jacob, and he that formed you O Israel, Fear not because I have ransomed you, I have called you by your name; you are mine. When you pass through the danger I will be with you; and through the rivers they will not overflow you: when you walk through the fire, you will not be burnt; neither will the flame kindle upon you. Because I am YHWH Elohim, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior: I gave Egypt for your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for you. Since you were precious in my sight, you have been honorable, and I have loved you: therefore will I give men for you and people for your life. Fear not because I am with you: from the East will I bring in your seed, and gather you from the West; I will say to the North, Give up; and to the South, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth; Even everyone that is called by my Name because I have created them for my glory, I have formed them, yes, I have made them. Bring out the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears. Let all the nations be gathered together and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and show us former things? Let them bring out their witnesses, that they may be made righteous: or let them hear and say, it is Truth.

You are my witnesses declares YHWH, and my slave whom I have chosen: that you may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no elohim formed, neither will there be after me. I, even I am YHWH; and beside me there is no savior. I have declared and saved, and proclaimed, when there was no foreign elohim among you: therefore you are my witnesses declares YHWH, that I am Elohim. Yes, before the day was, I am He; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work and who will turn it back? This is what YHWH declares, your Kinsmen-Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships. I am YHWH, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King. This is what YHWH says, that makes a road in the sea, and a path in the fierce waters; That brings out the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they will lie down together, they will not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as a wick.

Remember not the former things, neither consider the things of old. Look, I will do a new thing; now it will spring forth; will you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. The animal of the field will honor me, the serpent and the owls: because I give waters in the uninhabited land, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen. This people I have formed for myself; they will show forth my praise. But you have not called upon me O Jacob; but you have been weary of me O Israel. You have not brought me the small cattle of your whole Burnt-Offerings; neither have you honored me with your sacrifices. I have not caused you to serve with an offering, nor wearied you with frankincense. You have bought me no sweet cane with money, neither have you filled me with the fat of your sacrifices: but you have made me to serve with your sins, you have wearied me with your depravity. I, even I, am he that blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and will not remember your sins. Put me in remembrance: let us plead together:

Chapter 44

declare you, that you may be made righteous.

Your first ancestor has sinned, and your teachers have transgressed against me. Therefore I have desecrated the rabbis of the Holy Place, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches. Yet now hear, O Jacob my slave; and Israel who I have chosen: This is what YHWH declares that fashioned you, and formed you from the womb, which will help you; Fear not O Jacob my slave; and you, Jeshurun (upright one) , whom I have chosen. Because I will pour water on him that is thirsty, and floods on the dry ground: I will pour my breath upon your seed, and my blessing on your offspring. And they will spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses. One will say, I am YHWH's; and another will call himself by the Name of Jacob; and another will subscribe with his hand to YHWH, and surname himself by the name of Israel. This is what YHWH the King of Israel declares, and his Kinsmen-Redeemer, YHWH of Hosts; I am the first (Alpha), and I am the last (Omega); and beside me there is no Elohim. And who as I, will call and declare it, and arrange it for me, since my placing the people of antiquity, and things that are coming and those that do come, declaring to them? Fear not, neither be afraid: have not I told you from that time and have declared it? You are even my witnesses. Is there an Elohim beside me? Yes, there is no Elohim; I know not any. They that fashion a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things will not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed. Who has formed an elohim, or cast a graven image that is profitable for nothing? Look, all his fellows will be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they will fear and they will be ashamed together.

The smith with the tongs both works in the coals, and fashions it with hammers, and works it with the strength of his arms: yes, he is hungry and his strength fails: he drinks no water and is faint. The carpenter stretches out his rule; he marks it out with a line; he fits it with planes, and he marks it out with the compass, and makes it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house. He cuts himself down cedars, and takes the cypress and the oak that he strengthens for himself among the trees of the forest: he plants an ash, and the rain does nourish it. Then will it be for a man to burn: because he will take and warm himself; yes, he kindles it and bakes bread; yes, he fashions an elohim, and worships it; he fashions it a graven image and falls down to it. He burns part of it in the fire; with part of it he eats meat; he roasts roast, and is satisfied: yes, he warms himself and says, Aha, I am warm, I have gazed at the fire. And the residue he fashions into an elohim, even his graven image: he falls down to it, and worships it, and prays to it saying, deliver me because you are my elohim. They have not known nor understood: because he has shut their eyes so that they cannot see, and their hearts so that they cannot understand. And none considers in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burnt part of it in the fire; yes, also I have baked bread upon its coals; I have roasted meat and eaten it: and will I fashion the residue as an abomination? will I fall down to the stock of a tree? He feeds on ashes: a deceived heart has turned him aside so that he cannot deliver his life, nor say, is there not a lie in my right hand? Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; because you are my slave: I have formed you;

you are my slave: O Israel, you will not be forgotten of me.

I have blotted out by the cloud-mass your transgressions, and through the cloud-mass those punishments for sins: return to me because I have ransomed you. Sing, O you cosmos; because YHWH has done it: shout, you lower parts of the earth: break out into singing you mountains, O forest, and every tree: because YHWH has ransomed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel. This is what YHWH your Kinsmen-Redeemer declares, and he that formed you from the womb, I am YHWH that fashions all things; that stretches out the cosmos alone; that spreads abroad the earth by myself; That frustrates the omens of the liars, and makes false prophets mad; that turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolish; That confirms the Word of his slave, and performs the counsel of his messengers; that declares to Jerusalem, You will be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, You will be rebuilt, and I will raise up the ruined place: That says to the ocean deep, Be dry, and I will dry up your underground streams: That says of Cyrus, he is my shepherd, and will perform all my pleasure:

Chapter 45

even saying to Jerusalem, You will be rebuilt; and to the Temple, Your foundation will be laid. This is what YHWH says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have strengthened, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two gates; and the gates will not be shut; I will go before you and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut apart the bars of iron: And I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that I, YHWH that call you by your name, am the Elohim of Israel.

For Jacob my slaves' sake, and Israel my elect, I have even called you by your name: I have surnamed you, though you have not known me. I am YHWH, and there is none else, there are no Elohim besides me: I girded you, though you have not known me: That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me. I am YHWH, and there is none else. I form the light and create darkness: I make peace and create evil: I YHWH do all these things. Drop down you cosmos from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: Let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I YHWH have created it. Woe to him that strives with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Will the clay say to him that fashioned it, what are you making? Or your work, he has no hands? Woe to him that says to his dad, what do you gender? or to the woman, what have you engendered? This is what YHWH declares, the Holy One of Israel, and his maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command you me. I have made the earth and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the universe, and all their stars have I commanded. I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways:

he will build my city, and he will let go my captives, not for price or reward declares YHWH of Hosts. This is what YHWH says, The labor of Egypt and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, will come over to you and they will be yours. They will come after you; in chains they will come over and they will fall down to you, they will make supplication to you saying, certainly Elohim is in you; and there is none else, there is no Elohim. Of a Truth you are an Elohim that hides yourself, O Elohim of Israel, the Savior. They will be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they will go to confusion together that are creators of idols. But Israel will be saved in YHWH with an Age-Lasting Salvation: you will not be ashamed nor confounded unto the ages of futurity. Because this is what YHWH declares that created the universe; Elohim himself that formed the earth and created it; He has established it, he created it not in confusion, he formed it to be inhabited: I am YHWH; and there is none else. Not in secret have I spoken, in a dark place of the earth, I have not said to the seed of Jacob, In vain seek you me, I am YHWH, speaking righteousness, declaring uprightness. Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, you that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray to an elohim that cannot save. Tell you and bring them near; yes, let them take counsel together: who has published this from ancient time? Who has told it from that time? Have not I YHWH? And there is no Elohim besides me; a just Elohim and a Savior; there is none besides me. Look to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth: because I am Elohim, and there is none else. I have adjured by myself, the Word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and will not return, that to me every knee will bow, every tongue will adjure.

Certainly one will say, in YHWH I have righteousness and strength: even to him will humanity come; and all that are incensed against him will be ashamed. In YHWH will all the seed of Israel be made righteous, and will glory. Bel bows down, Nebo stoops, their idols were on the beasts, and on the cattle: your carriages were heavy laden; they are a burden to the weary beast. They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity. Listen to me, O House of Jacob, and all the remnant of the House of Israel that are borne by me from the belly that are carried from the womb: And even to your old age I am he; and even to gray hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will deliver you. To whom will you liken me, and make me equal, and compare me that we may be like? They lavish gold out of the bag and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he fashions it into an elohim: they fall down, yes, they worship. They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him and set him in its place, and it stands; from its place will he not remove:

yes, one will cry to him, yet he cannot answer nor save him out of his trouble. Remember this, and show yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O you transgressors. Remember the former things of old: because I am Elohim, and there is none else; I am Elohim, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done saying, my counsel will stand and I will do all my pleasure: Calling a bird of prey from the East, the man that executes my counsel from a far country: yes, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it. Listen to me, you stouthearted, that are far from righteousness: I bring near my righteousness; it will not be far off, and my salvation will not delay: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

Chapter 47

Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: because you will no more be called tender and delicate. Take the millstones and grind meal: uncover your locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers. Your nakedness will be uncovered, yes, your shame will be seen: I will take vengeance and I will not meet you as a man. As for our Kinsmen-Redeemer, YHWH of Hosts is his Name, the Holy One of Israel. Sit silent, and get yourself into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: because you will no more be called, The Lady of Kingdoms.

I was angry with my people, I have polluted my inheritance, and given them into your hand: you did show them no mercy; upon the Elder have you very heavily laid your yoke. And you said, I will be a lady for the ages: so that you did not lay these things to your heart, neither did remember the latter end of it. Therefore hear this now, you that are given to pleasures, that lives carelessly, that say in your heart, I am, and none else besides me; I will not sit as a widow, neither will I know the loss of children. But these two things will come to you in a moment, in one day, the loss of children and widowhood: they will come upon you in their completeness for the multitude of your sorceries, and for the great abundance of your enchantments. Because you have trusted in your wickedness: you have said, none sees me. Your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you; and you have said in your heart, I am, and none else besides me. Therefore will bad come upon you; you will not know from where it rises: and mischief will fall upon you; you will not be able to put it off: and desolation will come upon you suddenly that you will not know. Stand now with your enchantments, and with the multitude of your sorceries, with which you have labored from your youth; if so be you will be able to profit, if so be you may prevail. You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save you from these things that will come upon you. Look, they will be as stubble; the fire will burn them; they will not deliver themselves from the power of the flame:

Chapter 48

there will not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit around. This will they be to you with whom you have labored, even your merchants, from your youth: they will wander everyone to his quarter; none will save you. Hear this, O House of Jacob that are called by the name of Israel, and are come out of the waters of Judah that adjure by the Name of YHWH, and make mention of the Elohim of Israel, but not in Truth, nor in righteousness. Because they call themselves of the Holy City, and lean themselves upon the Elohim of Israel; YHWH of Hosts is his Name. I have already told you former things: when they proceeded from my mouth and were published, I did them speedily and they came to pass. Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew and your brow bronze; I have even from the beginning declared it to you; before it came to pass I showed it to you: unless you should say, my idol has done them and my graven image, and my cast image has commanded them. You have heard, see all this; and will you not declare it? I have caused you to hear new things from this time, and hidden things that you knew not. Now they have been produced and not from that time, yes, before the day, and you have not heard them unless you say, lo, I have known them. Yes, you heard not; yes, you knew not; yes, from that time that your ear was not opened: because I knew that you would deal very treacherously, and were called a transgressor from the womb. For my Name's sake I will defer my anger, and for my praise I will refrain for you so that I do not cut you off. Look, I have refined you, but not with silver;

I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. For my own sake, even for my own sake will I do it: because how should my Name be polluted? And I will not give my glory to another. Listen to me O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am He; I am the first (Alpha), I also am the last (Omega). My hand also has laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand has spanned the universe: when I call to them, they stand up together. All you, assemble yourselves and hear; which among them has declared these things? YHWH has loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon and his arm will be on the Chaldeans. I, even I have spoken; yes, I have called him: I have brought him, and he will make his way prosperous. Come near to me, hear this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now Adonai YHWH, and his Spirit has sent me. This is what YHWH declares, your Kinsmen-Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am YHWH Elohim that teaches you to profit, that leads you by the way that you should go. O that you had listened to my commandments! Then had your peace been as a river, and your righteousness as the waves of the sea: Your seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of your bowels like the gravel; Still however you shall not be utterly cut off; nor shall your name perish from before me. Go you out from Babylon, flee from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare you, tell this, publish it, even to the end of the earth; write, YHWH has ransomed his slave Jacob.

And they did not thirst when he led them through the uninhabited places: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he split the rock also, and the waters gushed out. There is no peace says YHWH, to the wicked.

Chapter 49

Listen O isles to me, and pay attention you people from afar; YHWH has called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother has he made mention of my name. And he has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand has he hidden me, and made me a polished arrow; in his quiver has he hidden me; And said to me, You are my slave O Israel, in whom I will be glorified. Then I said, I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing, and in vain, but surely my judgment is with YHWH, and my work with my Elohim. And now, declares YHWH that formed me from the womb to be his slave, to bring Jacob again to him, though Israel is not gathered, still I will be glorious in the eyes of YHWH, and my Elohim will be my strength. And he said, It is commanded that you should be my slave to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the Guards of Israel. I will also give you for a light to the Gentiles, that you may be my deliverance unto the ends of the earth. This is what YHWH declares, the Redeemer of Israel, his Holy One, to the despised in life, to the abominated of a nation, to the slave of rulers. Kings see, and have risen, princes, and worship, For the sake of YHWH who is faithful, the Holy of Israel, and he chooses you. This is what YHWH declares, In an acceptable time I have responded to you, and in a day of deliverance I have helped you. And I will guard you, and employ you for a Covenant-Pledge of the people, to become fixed in the earth, to cause to inherit the deserted heritages; that you may say to the prisoners, go out; to them that are in darkness, reveal yourselves. They will feed in the ways, and their pastures will be in all barren places. They will not hunger or thirst; neither will the heat or sun stricken them: because he that has mercy on them will lead them, even by the springs of water will he guide them. And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways will be exalted. Look, these will come from far: and lo, these from the North and from the West; and these from the land of Sinim. Sing, O cosmos; and be joyful O earth; and break out into singing O mountains: because YHWH has comforted his people, and will have mercy on his poor and needy. But Zion said, YHWH has forsaken me, and my Adonai has forgotten me. Can a woman forget her nursing infant so that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, they may forget, but I will not forget you. Look, I have marked you on the palms of my hands; your walls are continually before me. Your children will make haste; your destroyers and they that made you waste will go out of you. Lift up your eyes all around and look, all these gather themselves together and come to you.

As I live declares YHWH, you will certainly clothe yourself with them all, as with an ornament and bind them on you, as a bride does. Because your waste and your desolate places, and the land of your destruction, will even now be too distressed by reason of its inhabitants, and they that swallowed you up will be from a far distance. The children that you will have, after you have lost the other, will say again in your ears, this place is too oppressed for me: give space to me that I may live. Then you will say in your heart, who has engendered me these, seeing I have lost my children and am barren. I am an exile and outcast now. And who has brought up these? See, I was left alone; these, where have they come from? This is what Adonai YHWH declares, Look, I will lift up my hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they will bring your sons in their arms, and your daughters will be carried upon their shoulders. And kings will be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers. They will bow down to you with their face toward the ground, and lick up the dust of your feet; and you will know that I am YHWH: because they will not be ashamed that wait for me. Will the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? But this is what YHWH declares, Even the captives of the mighty will be removed, and the prey of the terrible will be delivered: because I will contend with him that contends with you, and I will save your children. And I will feed them that oppress you with their own flesh; and they will be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh will know that I YHWH am your Savior and your Kinsmen-Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. This is what YHWH declares, where is the bill of your mother's divorce, whom I have sent away? Or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Look, for your depravities you have sold yourselves, and for your transgressions has your mother sent away. Therefore, when I came, was there no man? When I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all so that it cannot ransom? Or have I no power to deliver? Look, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stink, because there is no water, and they die for thirst.

Chapter 50

I clothe the cosmos with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. Adonai YHWH has given me the tongue of the educated, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakens morning by morning, he wakens my ear to hear as the educated. Adonai YHWH has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned back. I gave my back to the subjugators, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. Because Adonai YHWH will help me; therefore I will not be confounded: therefore I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I will not be ashamed. He is near that justifies me; who will contend with me? Let us stand together: who is my adversary? Let him come near to me. Look, Adonai YHWH will help me; who is he that will condemn me? Lo, they all will wax old as a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Who is among you that fears YHWH that obeys the voice of his slave that walks in darkness and has no light? Let him trust in the Name of YHWH, and trust upon his Elohim. Look, all you that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks:

Chapter 51

walk in the light of your fire and in the sparks that you have kindled. This you will have of my hand; you will lie down in sorrow.

Listen to me, you that follow after righteousness, you that seek YHWH: look to the rock [Urim-Thummim] where you are engraved on, and to the [archaeological] dig of the pit where you are excavated from. Look to Abraham your ancestor and to Sarah that gendered you: for I called him alone, and blessed him and increased him. Because YHWH will comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness as Eden, and her desert as the Garden of YHWH; joy and gladness will be found there, thanksgiving and the voice of melody. Listen to me my people; and give ear to me O my nation: for the Torah will proceed from me, and I will make my Judgment to rest for a light of the people. My righteousness is near; my deliverance has gone out, and my arms will judge the people; the isles will wait upon me, and on my arm will they trust. Lift up your eyes to the skies, and look upon the land below because the universe will vanish away like smoke and the earth will wear out like an old garment. And they that live there will die in a similar way: but my salvation will be for the ages, and my righteousness will not be abolished. Listen to me, you that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my Torah; do not fear the reproach of men, neither be afraid of their reviling words. Because the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool: but my righteousness will be for the ages, and my salvation from generation to generation. Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of YHWH; awake, as in ancient days, in the generations of old. Are you not it that has cut Rahab and wounded the serpent? Are you not it that has dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that has made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? Therefore the ransomed of YHWH will return and come with singing to Zion; and Age-Lasting joy will be upon their head: they will obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning will flee away.

I, even I am He that comforts you: who are you, that you should be afraid of a man that will die, and of the son of man that will be made as grass; And forget YHWH your maker, that had stretched out the cosmos, and laid the foundations of the earth; and have feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? And where is the fury of the oppressor? The captive exile is anxious that he may be set free, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his food should fail. But I am YHWH Elohim that divided the sea, whose waves roared: YHWH of Hosts is his Name. And I have put my Words in your mouth, and I have covered you in the shadow of my hand so that I may plant the cosmos, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, You are my people. Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem that has drunk at the hand of YHWH the cup of his fury; you have drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and drained them out. There is none to guide her among all the sons who she has engendered; neither is there any that takes her by the hand of all the sons that she has brought up. These two things are come to you; who will be sorry for you? desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword: by who will I comfort you? Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of YHWH, the rebuke of your Elohim. Therefore hear this now, you afflicted and drunken, but not with wine:

This is what YHWH declares, the YHWH, and Elohim that pleads the cause of his people, Look, I have taken out of your hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; you will no more drink it again: And I have put it into the hand of those afflicting you, who have said to your lives, bow down and we pass over, and you make as the earth your body, And as the street to those passing by!

Chapter 52

Awake, awake; put on your strength, O Zion; put on your beautiful garments O Jerusalem, the Holy City: because from here on there will no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean. Shake yourself from the dust; get up and sit down O Jerusalem: loose yourself from the bands of your neck, O captive daughter of Zion. Because this is what YHWH declares, You have sold yourselves for nothing; and you will be ransomed without money. Because this is what Adonai YHWH declares, My people went down formerly into Egypt to reside there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. Now therefore, what have I here, says YHWH, that my people are taken away for nothing? They that rule over them make them to wail says YHWH; and my Name continually every day is spurned. Therefore my people will know my Name: therefore they will know in that day that I am he that does speak: see, it is I. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that brings Good News, that publishes peace; that brings Good News of good, that publishes salvation; that says to Zion, your Elohim reigns! Your watchmen will lift up the voice; with the voice together will they sing: because they will see eye to eye, when YHWH will restore Zion. Break out into joy, sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem: because YHWH has comforted his people, he has ransomed Jerusalem. YHWH has made bare his Holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our Elohim. Depart you, depart you, go you out from there, touch no unclean thing; go out from the midst of her; be clean, that bear the vessels of YHWH. Because you will not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for YHWH will go before you and the Elohim of Israel will be your rearguard. Look, my slave will deal prudently, he will be exalted and extolled, and be exceedingly exalted. As many were appalled at you; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men: So will he sprinkle many nations; the kings will shut their mouths at Him: for what had not been told them will they see; and what they had not heard will they consider.

Chapter 53

Who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of YHWH revealed? Because he will grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he has no form nor comeliness; and when we will see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief:

and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised and we esteemed him not. Certainly he has borne our grief, and carried our sorrows: still we did esteem him stricken, struck of Elohim, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our depravities: the chastening of our welfare was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way; and YHWH has laid on him the depravity of us all. He was oppressed and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who will declare his generation? Because he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he wounded. And he made his grave with the wicked and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Still it pleased YHWH to bruise him; he has put him to grief: when you will make his life an offering for guilt, he will see his seed, he will prolong his days, and the pleasure of YHWH will prosper in his hand. He will see of the travail of his life, and will be satisfied: by his knowledge will my righteous slave make many righteous; because he will bear their depravities. Therefore I will divide him a portion with the great, and he will divide the plunder with the strong; because he has poured out his life unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors, and he carried the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Chapter 54

Sing O barren, you that did not gender; break out into singing and cry aloud, you that did not labor with child: because more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married woman declares YHWH.

Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch out the curtains of your habitations: spare not, lengthen your cords and strengthen your tent pegs; Because you will break out on the right hand and on the left; and your seed will inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited. Fear not; because you will not be ashamed: neither be you confounded; for you will not be put to shame: for you will forget the shame of your youth and will not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore. Because your Maker is your husband; YHWH of Hosts is his Name; and your Kinsmen-Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The Elohim of the whole earth will he be called. For, like a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit has YHWH called you, - Even the wife of youthful days - , in that you were rejected, says your Elohim. Because in a small moment have I forsaken you; but with great mercies will I gather you. In a little anger I hid my face from you for a moment; but with Age-Lasting kindness I will have mercy on you, declares YHWH your Kinsmen-Redeemer. For this is as the waters of Noah to me: because as I have adjured that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I adjured that I would not be angry with you, nor rebuke you. Because the mountains will depart and the hills will be removed; but my kindness will not leave from you, neither will the Covenant of my Peace be removed, declares YHWH that has mercy on you. O you afflicted, tossed with tempest and not comforted, see, I will lay your stones with antimony (stibium), and lay your foundations with sapphires.

And I will make your windows of agates, and your gates of marble, and all your borders of pleasant stones. And all your children will be taught of YHWH; and great will be the peace of your children. In righteousness will you be established: you will be far from oppression; because you will not fear: and from terror; because it will not come near you. Look, they will certainly gather together, but not by me: whoever will gather together against you will fall for your sake. Look, I have created the smith that blows the coals in the fire, and that brings forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the Corrupter to destroy. No weapon that is formed against you will prosper; and every tongue that will rise against you in judgment you will condemn. This is the heritage of the slaves of YHWH, and their righteousness is from me, declares YHWH.

Chapter 55

Ho, everyone that thirsts, come you to the waters, and he that has no money; come you, buy and eat; yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you weigh money for what is not bread? And your labor for what is not for satiety? Listen diligently to me and eat good, and your life will delight itself in fatness. Incline your ear and come to me: hear, and your life will be restored; and I will make an Age-Lasting covenant with you, even the confirmed mercies of David.

See, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Look, you will call a nation that you know not, and nations that knew you not will run to you because of YHWH Elohim, and for the Holy One of Israel; because he has glorified you. Seek you YHWH while he may be found, call you upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return to YHWH, and he will have mercy on him; and to our Elohim, because he will abundantly pardon. Because my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways declares YHWH. Because as the skies are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. Because as the rain comes down and the snow from the sky, and goes not back again, but waters the earth, and makes it sprout and bud so that it may give seed to the sower, and food to the eater: So will my Word be that goes out of my mouth: it will not return to me void, but it will accomplish what I please, and it will prosper in the thing whereby I sent it. Because you will go out with joy, and be led out with peace: the mountains and the hills will break out before you into singing, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands. Instead of the thorn will come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier will come up the myrtle tree:

Chapter 56

and it will be to YHWH for a name, for an Age-Lasting sign that will not be cut off. This is what YHWH declares, Observe you judgment and do justice: because my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

Blessed is the man that does this, and the son of man that lays hold on it; that observes the Sabbath from desecrating it, and keeps his hand from doing any bad. Neither let the son of the foreigner, that has joined himself to YHWH speak saying, YHWH has utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, look, I am a dry tree. For this is what YHWH says to the eunuchs that observe my Sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my Covenant; Even to them will I give in my house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an Age-Lasting name, that will not be cut off. Also the sons of the foreigner, that join themselves to YHWH, to serve him and to love the Name of YHWH, to be his slaves, everyone that observes the Sabbath from desecrating it, and is resolute in my Covenant; Even them will I bring to my Holy mountain, and make them joyful in my House of Prayer: their whole Burnt-Offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted upon my Altar; because my Temple will be called an House of Prayer for all people. Adonai YHWH that gathers the outcasts of Israel declares, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered to him. All you animals of the field, come to devour, yes, all you animals in the forest. His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yes, they are greedy dogs that can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, everyone for his gain, from his quarter.

Come you they say, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow will be as this day and much more abundant.

Chapter 57

The righteous perish, and no man lays it to heart: and merciful people are taken away, none considering that the righteous is removed from the bad to come. He will enter into peace: they will rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. But draw near, you sons of the soothsayer, the seed of the adulterer and the prostitute. Against whom do you sport yourselves? Against who make yourself a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? Are you not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood, Enflaming yourselves with el (elohim) under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks? Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion; they, they are your lot: even to them have you poured a Drink-Offering, you have offered a Meat-Offering. Should I receive comfort in these? Upon a lofty and high mountain have you set your bed: even where you went up to offer sacrifice. Behind the doors also and the posts have you set up your memorial: because you have uncovered (exposed nakedness) yourself to another than me, and are gone up; you have enlarged your bed, and made yourself an alliance with them; you love their bed where you saw it. And you went to the king with ointment, and did increase your perfumes, and did send your messengers far off, and did debase yourself even unto

Sheol.

In the greatness of your way you have labored, you have not said, it is desperate. The life of your hand you have found, therefore you have not been sick. And of whom have you been afraid, and fear, that you lie, and Me have not remembered? You have not laid [it] to your heart, Am not I silent, even from of old? And Me you fear not? I will declare your righteousness, and your works; because they will not profit you. When you cry, let your companies deliver you; but the wind will carry them all away; vanity will take them: but he that puts his trust in me will possess the land, and will inherit my Holy mountain; And will say, cast you up, cast you up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people. Since this is what declares the high and lofty One that inhabits the future, whose Name is Holy. I live in the high and Holy Place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the brokenhearted ones. Because I will not contend for the ages, neither will I be always angry: for the spirit should fail before me and the lives that I have fashioned. Because for the depravity of his unjust gain was I angry, and struck him: I hid myself and was angry, and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart. I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners. I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, declares YHWH; and I will heal him.

But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace declares my Elohim, to the wicked.

Chapter 58

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up your voice like a trumpet, and show my people their rebellion, and the House of Jacob their sins. Still they seek me daily and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their Elohim: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to Elohim. Therefore have we fasted they say, and you see not? Therefore we have afflicted our lives, and you take no knowledge of it? Look, in the day of your fast you find pleasure and exact all your labors. See, you fast for strife and debate, and to strike with the fist of wickedness: you will not fast as you do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high. Is it such a fast that I have chosen? A day for a man to afflict his life? Is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to YHWH? Is not this the fast that I have chosen? To loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that you break every yoke? Is it not to deal your food to the hungry, and that you bring the poor that are cast out to your house? When you see the naked, that you cover him; and that you hide not yourself from your own flesh? Then will your light break out as the morning, and your health will spring forth speedily:

and your righteousness will go before you; the glory of YHWH will be your rear guard. Then you call and YHWH answers, you cry, and he replies, behold me. If you turn aside from your midst the yoke, the sending out from the finger, and the speaking of vanity, and if you draw out your life to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted people; then will your light rise in obscurity, and your darkness will be as the noonday: And YHWH will guide you continually, and satisfy your life in drought. And your bones He invigorates: and you will be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not. And they that will be of you will rebuild the old waste places: you will raise up the foundations of many generations; and you will be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to live in. If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my Holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, the Sacred of YHWH, honorable; and will honor him, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words: Then you will delight yourself in YHWH; and I will cause you to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed you with the heritage of Jacob your ancestor:

Chapter 59

because the mouth of YHWH has spoken it. Look, YHWH's hand is not shortened that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: But your depravities have separated between you and your Elohim, and your sins have hid his face from you so that he will not hear. Because your hands are defiled with blood and your fingers with depravity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue has muttered injustice. None calls for justice, nor any pleads for Truth: they trust in vanity and speak lies; they conceive mischief and produce trouble.

They hatch vipers eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eats of their eggs dies, and what is crushed breaks out into a viper. Their webs will not become garments, neither will they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of trouble, and the act of violence is in their hands. Their feet run to bad, and they hurry to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of trouble; wasting and destruction are in their paths. The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made themselves crooked paths: whoever goes there will not know peace. Therefore is judgment far from us, neither does justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness. We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men. We roar all like bears, and utter like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for deliverance, but it is far off from us. Because our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us: because our rebellions are with us; and as for our depravity, we know them; In transgressing and lying against YHWH, and departing away from our Elohim, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. And judgment is turned away backward, and justice stands afar off:

because Truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Yes, Truth fails; and he that departs from bad makes himself a spoil: and YHWH saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment. And he saw that there was no person, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought deliverance to him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. Because he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a robe. According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompenses. So will they fear the Name of YHWH from the West, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy will come in like a flood, the Spirit of YHWH will lift up a standard against him. And the Kinsmen-Redeemer will come to Zion, and to them that turn from transgression in Jacob, declares YHWH. As for me, this is my Covenant with them declares YHWH. My spirit that is on you and my Words that I have put in your mouth will not depart out of your mouth nor out of the mouth of your seed, nor out of the mouth of your seed's seed, declares YHWH, from now and for the ages.

Chapter 60

Arise, shine; because your Light is come, and the glory of YHWH is risen upon you. Look, darkness will cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but YHWH will arise on you, and his glory will be seen on you. And the Gentiles will come to your Light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

Lift up your eyes all around and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to you: your sons will come from far, and your daughters will be nursed at your side. Then you will see and flow together, and your heart will fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea will be converted to you, the forces of the Gentiles will come to you. The multitude of camels will cover you, the young camel of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba will come: they will bring gold and incense; and they will publish the praises of YHWH. All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will minister to you: they will come up with acceptance on my Altar, and I will glorify the Temple of my glory. Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? Certainly the isles will wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them to the Name of YHWH Elohim, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you. And the sons of foreigners will build up your walls, and their kings will minister to you: for in my anger I struck you, but in my favor I have had mercy on you. Therefore your gates will be open continually; they will not be shut day nor night so that people may bring to you the wealth of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be driven away. Because the nation and kingdom that will not serve you will perish; yes, those nations will be made desolate. The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the fir tree, pine tree, and the evergreen together, to beautify the Standing Place of my Sacred Place; and I will make the Standing Place of my feet glorious.

The sons also of them that afflicted you will come bowing down to you; and all they that despised you will bow themselves down at the soles of your feet; and they will call you, The city of YHWH, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. Although you have been forsaken and hated, so that no person went through you, I will make you an Age-Lasting excellency, a joy of many generations. You will also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and will suckle the breast of kings: and you will know that I

YHWH am your Savior and your Kinsmen-Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. For bronze I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood bronze, and for stones iron: I will also make your officers peace, and your taskmasters righteousness. Violence will no more be heard in your land, wasting nor destruction within your borders; but you will call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise. The sun will be no more your light by day; neither for brightness will the moon give light to you: but YHWH will be to you an Age-Lasting Light, and your Elohim your glory. Your sun will no more go down; neither will your moon withdraw itself: because YHWH will be your Age-Lasting Light, and the days of your mourning will be ended. Your people also will be all righteous: they will inherit the land for the ages, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. A little one will become 1000, and a small one a strong nation: I YHWH will quicken it in his time.

Chapter 61

The Spirit of Adonai YHWH is upon me; because YHWH has anointed me to publish Good News to the poor; he has sent me to heal them who are brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the recovery of the sight to the blind;

To proclaim the acceptable year of YHWH, and the Day of Vengeance of our Elohim; to comfort all that mourn; To appoint to them that mourn in Zion, to give to them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the mantle of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called Pillars of Righteousness, the Planting Place of YHWH, that he might be glorified. And they will build the old wastes, they will raise up the former desolations, and they will repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. Then foreigners will stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the aliens will be your plowmen and your vineyard attendants. But you will be Named the Priests of YHWH: men will call you the servants of our Elohim: you will eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory will you boast yourselves. For your shame you will have double; and for disgrace they will rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they will possess double: Age-Lasting joy will be to them. Because I YHWH love judgment, I hate robbery for whole Burnt-Offering; and I will direct their work in Truth, and I will make an Age-Lasting Covenant with them. And their seed will be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them will acknowledge them, that they are the seed that YHWH has blessed. I will greatly rejoice in YHWH, my life will be joyful in my Elohim; because he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. Because as the earth brings forth her bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to sprout up; so Adonai YHWH will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up before all the nations.

Chapter 62

For Zion's sake I am not silent, And for Jerusalem's sake I do not rest, Till her righteousness go out as brightness, And her salvation, as a torch that burns. And nations have seen your righteousness, And all kings your honor, And He is giving to you a new name, That the mouth of YHWH doth define. You will also be a crown of glory in the hand of YHWH, and a royal diadem in the hand of your Elohim. You will no more be termed Forsaken; neither will your land anymore be termed Desolate: but you will be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah: because YHWH delights in you, and your land will be ruled over. Because as a young man marries a virgin, so will your sons marry you: and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so will your Elohim rejoice over you. I have set watchmen on your walls O Jerusalem, that will never hold their peace day nor night: you that make mention of YHWH, keep not silence, And give him no rest, until he establish and until he makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth. YHWH has adjured by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Certainly I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies; and the sons of the foreigner will not drink your wine for which you have labored: But they that have gathered it will eat it, and praise YHWH; and they that have brought it together will drink it in the Courts of my Holiness. Go through, go through the gates; prepare you the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people. Look, YHWH has published to the end of the earth, Say you to the daughter of Zion, Lo, your salvation comes;

see, his reward is with him and his work before him. And they will call them, The Holy Nation, The Ransomed of YHWH: and you will be called, Sought after, A City not Forsaken.

Chapter 63

Who is this that comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in his apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Therefore are you red in your apparel, and your garments like him that treads in the wine fat? I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: because I will tread them in my anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood will be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my clothing. Because the Day of Vengeance is in my heart, and the year of my ransomed has come. And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold. Therefore my own arm brought victory to me; and my fury, it upheld me. And I will tread down the people in my anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the ground. I will mention the goodness of YHWH and the praises of YHWH, according to all that YHWH has bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the House of Israel that he has bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the abundance of his kindness. Because he said, Certainly they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Savior. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the Angel of his Presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he ransomed them; and he lifted them up, and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled, and vexed his Sacred Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people saying, Where is he that brought them up out from the sea with the Shepherd of his flock? Where is he that put his Sacred Spirit within him? That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an Age-Lasting Name? That led them through the deep, as a horse in the wilderness that they should not stumble? As an animal goes down into the valley, the Spirit of YHWH caused him to rest: so did you lead your people, to make yourself a glorious Name. Look down from the cosmos, and observe from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory: where is your zeal and your strength, the sounding of your bowels and of your mercies toward me? Are they restrained? Doubtless you are our Father, though Abraham was ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledged us not: you, O YHWH, are our Father, our Kinsman-Redeemer from the Age-Past time is your Name. O YHWH, why have you made us to err from your ways, and hardened our heart from your fear? Return for your slaves' sake, the tribes of your inheritance. The people of your holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trampled down your Sacred Place.

We are yours: you never ruled over them; they were not called by your Name.

Chapter 64

Oh that you would tear in pieces the cosmos, that you would come down, that the mountains might quake at your presence, As when the brushwood fire burns, the supernatural fire causes the transitory things to swell, to make your Name known to your adversaries so that the nations may tremble at your presence! When you did terrible things that we looked not for, you came down, the mountain quaked at your presence. Because since the beginning of the world people have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither has the eye seen, O Elohim, beside you, what He has prepared for him that waits for him. You have met with the rejoicer and the doer of righteousness, In your ways they remember you, lo, you have been angry when we sin, by them is the ages and we are saved. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousness are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our depravities, like the wind, have taken us away. And there is none that calls upon your Name, that stirs up himself to take hold of you: because you have hidden your face from us and have consumed us, because of our depravities. But now O YHWH, you are our Father; we are the clay and you our potter; and we are all the work of your hand. Be not exceedingly angry O YHWH, neither remember depravities for the ages: Note and observe we beseech you, we are all your people.

Your Holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. Our Holy and our beautiful Temple, where our ancestors praised you, is burnt up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste. Will you refrain yourself for these things O YHWH? Will you hold your peace, and afflict exceedingly?

Chapter 65

I have been inquired of by [Urim-Thummim] of those who asked not, I have been found by those who sought me not, I have said, observe me, observe me, to a nation not calling in my Name. I have spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people that walk in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts; A people that provokes me to anger continually to my face; that sacrifice in gardens, and burn incense upon altars of pavement; That live among the tombs, and lodge in the preserves, that eat swine's flesh, and broth of foul things is in their vessels; That say, stand by yourself, come not near to me; because I am holier than you. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all the day. Observe, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom, your depravities, and the depravities of your ancestors together, declares YHWH that have burnt incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore I will measure their former work into their bosom.

This is what YHWH declares, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so I will do for my slave's sakes so that I may not destroy them all. And I will lead out a seed from Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and my chosen one will inherit it, and my slaves will live there. And Sharon will be a fold of flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have inquired [by Urim-Thummim] of me. But you are they that forsake YHWH, that forget my Holy mountain, that prepare a table for Gad, and that furnish the drink-offering to that number. Therefore I will number you to the sword, and you will all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not hear; but did bad before my eyes, and did choose what I delighted not in. Therefore Adonai YHWH declares, Look, my slaves will eat, but you will be hungry: Look, my slaves will drink, but you will be thirsty: look, my slaves will rejoice, but you will be ashamed: Look, my slaves will sing for joy of heart, but you will cry for sorrow of heart, and will howl for vexation of spirit. And you will leave your name for a curse to my chosen: because Adonai YHWH will kill you, and call his slaves by another name: That he who blesses himself in the earth will bless himself in the Elohim of Truth; and he that adjures in the earth will adjure by the Elohim of Truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hidden from my eyes. For observe, I create a new cosmos and a new earth: and the former will not be remembered, nor come into mind.

But be you glad and rejoice for the ages in what I create: for observe, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping will be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying. There is not there anymore a suckling of days, And an aged man who does not complete his years, For the youth will die 100 years old, but the sinner at 100 years old is lightly esteemed. And they will build houses and inhabit them; and they will plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them. They will not build and another inhabit; they will not plant and another eats: because as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and my elect will long enjoy the work of their hands. They labor not for a vain thing, nor do they bring forth for trouble, for the seed of the blessed of YHWH are they, and their offspring with them. And it will come to pass that before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear. The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion will eat straw like the oxen: and dust will be the serpent's food. They will not hurt nor destroy in all my Holy mountain declares YHWH. This is what YHWH declares, the universe is my throne and the earth is my footstool:

Chapter 66

where is the Temple that you build to me? And where is the Standing Place of my Resting Place? Because all those things has my hand fashioned, and all those things have been, declares YHWH: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembles at my Word.

He that kills an ox is as if he slaughtered a man; he that sacrifices a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offers a gift, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burns incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yes, they have chosen their own ways and their lives delight in their detestable things. I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spoke, they did not hear: but they did bad before my eyes, and chose what I delighted not in. Hear the Word of YHWH, you that tremble at his Word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my Name's sake said, let YHWH be glorified: but he will appear to your joy, and they will be ashamed. A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the Temple, a Voice of YHWH that renders recompense to his enemies. Before she travailed she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Will the earth be made to bring forth in one day? Or will a nation be born instantly? For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. Will I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? Declares YHWH: will I cause to engender, and shut the womb? declares Elohim. Rejoice you with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all you that mourn for her: That you may suckle and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that you may drain out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory. For this is what YHWH declares, Look, I will extend peace to her like a river and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then will you suckle, you will be engendered upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

As one who his mother comforts, so will I comfort you; and you will be comforted in Jerusalem. And when you see this, your heart will rejoice and your bones will flourish like an herb: and the hand of YHWH will be known toward his slaves, and his indignation toward his enemies. For observe, YHWH will come with supernatural fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury and his rebuke with flames of supernatural fire. Because by supernatural fire and by his sword will YHWH plead with all flesh: and the slain of YHWH will be many. Those consecrating and cleansing themselves at the gardens, behind a certain thing in the midst, eating flesh of the sow and of the abomination, and of the mouse, together are consumed, an affirmation of YHWH. Because I know their works and their thoughts: it will come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they will come and see my glory. And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan. To the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they will declare my glory among the Gentiles. And they will bring all your kinship for an offering to YHWH out of all nations upon horses, chariots, covered wagons, mules, and upon swift animals, to my Holy mountain in Jerusalem declare YHWH. As the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the Temple of YHWH. And I will also take from them for priests and Levites declares YHWH. Because as the new cosmos and the new earth that I will fashion, will remain before me declares YHWH, so will your seed and your name remain.

And it will come to pass that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, will all flesh come to worship before me declares YHWH. And they will go out and look upon the corpses of the people that have transgressed against me: because their worm (coccus ilicis) will not die prematurely, neither will their fire be extinguished; and they will be an abhorring to all flesh.

Jeremiah

Chapter 1

The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, from the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: To who the Word of YHWH came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the 13th year of his reign. It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, to the end of the 11th year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. Then the Word of YHWH came to me saying, Before I formed you in the belly I knew you; and before you came out of the womb I consecrated you, and I ordained you a prophet to the nations. Then I replied, Ah, YHWH Elohim! See, I cannot speak because I am a youth. But YHWH replied to me, Say not I am a youth: because you will go to all that I will send you, and whatever I command, you will speak. Be not afraid of their faces because I am with you to deliver you, says YHWH. Then YHWH put out his hand and touched my mouth. And YHWH said to me, See, I have put my Words in your mouth. See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, pull down, destroy, and to throw down, to build and to plant.

Moreover the Word of YHWH came to me saying, Jeremiah, what do you see? And I replied, I see a shoot of an almond tree. Then YHWH replied to me, you are a skillful observer! I am likewise awake over my Word to perform it. And the Word of YHWH came to me the second time saying, What do you see? And I replied, I see a boiling pot, and its face is from the North. Then YHWH said to me, Out of the North a calamity will break out upon all the inhabitants of the land. For lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the North declares YHWH; and they will come, and they will set everyone his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls round about, and against all the cities of Judah. And I will declare my judgments against them concerning all their bad, who have forsaken me and have burnt incense to other elohim, and worshiped the works of their own hands. You therefore gird up your hips, and get up, and speak to them all that I command you: be not dismayed at their faces, unless I shatter you before them. For note, I have made you this day a fortified city and an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its leaders, against its priests, and against the people of the land. And they will fight against you; but they will not prevail against you; because I am with you declares YHWH, to deliver you.

Chapter 2

Moreover the Word of YHWH came to me saying, go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem saying, This is what YHWH declares; I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your betrothals, when you went after me in the uninhabited land, in a land that was not yielding seed. Israel was a sacredness to YHWH, and the first-fruits of his increase: all that devour him will be guilty; bad will befall them declares YHWH. Hear you the Word of YHWH O House of Jacob, and all the families of the House of Israel: This is what YHWH declares, What injustice have your ancestors found in me so that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity and are become vain? And have not said, where is YHWH that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the uninhabited land, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man lived? And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat its produce and its goodness; but when you entered, you defiled my land and made my heritage a disgusting thing. The priests did not say, where is YHWH? And they that handle the Law knew me not: the shepherds also rebelled against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal and walked after things that do not profit. Therefore I will still plead with you, declares YHWH, and with your children's children will I plead. For pass over the isles of Chittim and see; and send to Kedar and consider diligently and see if there is such a thing. Has a nation changed their elohim, which are no elohim? But my people have changed their glory for what does not profit.

Be astonished, O you cosmos at this, and be horribly afraid, be very desolate declares YHWH. Because my people have committed two wrongs; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and cut themselves out cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water. Is Israel a slave? Is he a home-born slave? Why is he become a spoil? The young lions roared upon him and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burnt without inhabitant. Also the sons of Noph and Tahapanes consume you, the crown of the head! Have you not procured this to yourself, in that you have forsaken YHWH your Elohim, when he led you by the way? And now what have you to do in the path of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what have you to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river? Your own badness will correct you, and your backsliding will judge you: know therefore and see that it is a bad thing and bitter, that you have forsaken YHWH Elohim, and that my fear is not in you declares YHWH Elohim of Hosts. Because in ancient times I have broken your yoke, and broke your bands; and you said, I will not transgress; when on every high hill and under every green tree you wandered, playing the prostitute. Still I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then are you turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine to me? Because though you wash yourself with soda, and take yourself much soap, still your depravity is deeply stained before me declares YHWH Elohim.

How can you say, I am not unclean, I have not gone after Baalim? See your way in the valley, know what you have done: you are a swift young camel traversing its ways; A wild donkey used to the wilderness, that snuffs up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? All they that find her will not weary themselves; in her month they will find her. Withhold your foot from being barefoot and your throat from thirst: but you say, there is no hope: no; for I have loved foreigners, and after them will I go. As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the House of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes and their priests, and their prophets, saying to a stock, you are my father; and to a stone, you have brought me out. Because they have turned their back to me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, get up and save us. But where are your elohim that you have fashioned yourself? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble: because according to the number of your cities are your elohim, O Judah. Therefore you will plead with me? You all have revolted against me declares YHWH. In vain I have struck your children; they received no correction: your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. O generation, see the Word of YHWH. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? A land of darkness? Therefore say my people, we are YHWH's; we will come no more to you?

Can a maid forget her ornaments or a bride her attire? Still my people have forgotten me days without number. Why trim your way to seek love? Therefore have you also taught the wicked ones your ways? Also in your skirts is found the blood of the lives of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these. Still you say, because I am innocent certainly his anger will turn from me. Look, I will plead with you because you say, I have not sinned. You are very vile to repeat your way, even of Egypt you are ashamed, As you have been ashamed of Asshur, yes, you will go out from him, with your hands on your head: because YHWH has rejected your confidences and you will not prosper in them.

Chapter 3

They say, if a man divorces his woman and she goes from him, and becomes another man's, will he return to her again? Will not that land be greatly profaned? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me says YHWH. Lift up your eyes to the worship places and see where you have not been ravishing. On the road you have sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and you have defiled the land with your prostitution and with your badness. Therefore the heavy showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; and you had a whore's forehead, you refused to be ashamed. Will you not from this time cry to me, my Father, you are the intimate of my youth? Will he reserve his anger for the ages?

Will he keep it to the end? Look, you have spoken and done bad things and have had your way. YHWH said also to me in the days of Josiah the king, have you seen what backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the whore. And I said after she had done all these things, Turn you to me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had divorced her, and given her a bill of divorce; still her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the prostitute also. And it came to pass through the frivolity of her prostitution, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. And still for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to me with her whole heart but with falsehood, says YHWH. And YHWH said to me, The backsliding Israel has justified herself more than treacherous Judah. Go and proclaim these words toward the north and say, Return, you backsliding Israel declares YHWH; and I will not cause my anger to fall on you: because I am merciful declares YHWH, and I will not reserve anger for the ages. Only acknowledge your depravity, that you have rebelled against YHWH

Elohim and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my Voice declares YHWH. Turn O backsliding children, declares YHWH; because I am married to you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family and I will bring you to Zion:

And I will give you shepherds according to my heart that will feed you with knowledge and understanding. And it will come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days declares YHWH, they will say no more, the Ark of the Covenant of YHWH. Neither will it come to mind: neither will they remember it; neither will they visit it; neither will that be done anymore. At that time they will call Jerusalem the throne of YHWH; and all the nations will be gathered to it, to the Name of YHWH, to Jerusalem: neither will they walk anymore after the imagination of their bad heart. In those days the House of Judah will walk with the House of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the North to the land that I have given for an inheritance to your forefathers. But I said, How will I put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage from the hosts of nations? And I said, you will call me, my Father; and will not turn away from me. Surely as a woman treacherously departs from her husband, so have you dealt treacherously with me O House of Israel, declares YHWH. A voice was heard in the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: because they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten YHWH their Elohim. Return you backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Look, we come to you; because you are YHWH our Elohim. Surely in vain from the heights, the multitude of mountains, surely in YHWH our Elohim is the salvation of Israel. Because shame has devoured the labor of our forefathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covers us:

because we have sinned against YHWH Elohim, we and our ancestors, from our youth even to this day, and have not obeyed the Voice of YHWH Elohim.

Chapter 4

If you will return O Israel, declares YHWH, return to me: and if you will put away your detestable things out of my sight, then will you not waver. And you will adjure, YHWH lives, in Truth, in Judgment, and in Righteousness; and the nations will bless themselves in him, and in him will they glory. Because this is what YHWH declares to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your un-tilled ground, and sow not among thorns. Circumcise yourselves to YHWH, and take away the foreskins of your heart you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: unless my rage goes out like supernatural fire, and burns so that none can quench it, because of the badness of your practices. Declare in Judah and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together and say, assemble yourselves and let us go into the fortified cities. Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, remain not: because I will bring badness from the North and a great destruction. The lion has come up from its thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he has gone out from his place to make your land desolate; and your cities will be laid waste without an inhabitant. For this gird yourselves with sackcloth, lament and wail: because the fierce anger of YHWH is not turned back from us. And it will come to pass at that day declares YHWH, that the heart of the king will perish and the heart of the princes; and the priests will be deserted, and the prophets will be stunned. Then I said, Ah, YHWH Elohim! Surely you have greatly deceived these people and Jerusalem saying, you will have peace;

whereas the sword reaches to their lives. At that time will it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, a dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, even a full wind from those places will come to me: now also I will give sentence against them. Look, he will come up as clouds, and his chariots will be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Because we are spoiled. O Jerusalem, wash your heart from badness so that you may be liberated. How long will your vain thoughts lodge within yourself? Because a voice declares from Dan, and publishes affliction from Mount Ephraim. Make mention to the nations; Observe, publish against Jerusalem so that besiegers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. As keepers of a field are they against her all around; because she has been rebellious against me declares YHWH. Your way and your practices have procured these things to you; this is your badness, because it is bitter, because it reaches to your heart. My bowels, my bowels! I am pained [at] the walls of my heart, Make a noise for me doth My heart, I am not silent, For the voice of a trumpet I have heard, O my soul -- a shout of battle!

Destruction upon destruction is cried; because the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents plundered, and my curtains in a moment. How long will I see the standard, and hear the sound of the horn? Because my people are foolish, they have not known me; they are foolish children, and they have no understanding: they are wise to do bad, but to do good they have no knowledge. I looked to the land, and lo, confusion and void, and to the cosmos, and their light is not. I saw the mountains, and lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I observed, and lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the skies were departed. I observed, and lo, the garden-land was an uninhabited place, and all the cities were broken down at the presence of YHWH, and by his fierce anger. Because this is what YHWH has declared, The whole land will be desolate; still I will not make a termination. For this will the land mourn, and the skies above are darkened: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not be moved to pity, neither will I turn back from it. The whole city will flee for the noise of the horsemen and archers; they will go into thickets, and climb up on the rocks: every city will be forsaken, and not a man to live in them.

And when you are spoiled, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with crimson, though you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, though you widen your face with cosmetics, in vain will you make yourself beautiful; your lovers will despise you, they will seek your life. Because I have heard a voice as of a woman in labor, and the anguish as of her that genders her first infant, the voice of the daughter of Zion that bewails herself, that spreads her hands saying, woe is me now! For my life is wearied because of murderers.

Chapter 5

Run you to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now and know, and seek in the open plaza, if you can find a person, if there are any that execute judgment, that seek fidelity; and I will pardon it. And though they say, YHWH lives; certainly they adjure falsely. O YHWH, are not your eyes upon fidelity? You have struck them, but they have not grieved; you have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. Therefore I said, Certainly these are poor; they are foolish: because they know not the way of YHWH, nor the Judgment of their Elohim. I will go to the Elders and I will speak with them, because they have known the way of YHWH, the judgment of their Elohim. Surely they together have broken the yoke, they have torn off the bonds. Therefore a lion out of the forest will slay them, and a wolf of the evening will spoil them, a leopard will watch over their cities: everyone that goes out from there will be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backsliding has increased. How will I pardon you for this? Your children have forsaken me and sworn by them that are not elohim: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery and assembled themselves by troops in the houses of prostitution. They were as fed horses in the morning: everyone neighed after his neighbor's wife. Will I not punish for these things? declares YHWH:

and will I not be avenged on such a nation as this? Go you up upon her walls and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her tendrils of a vine; because they are not YHWH's. Because the House of Israel and the House of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me declares YHWH. They have belied YHWH, and said, it is not He; neither will bad come upon us; neither will we see sword or famine: And the prophets will become empty wind, and the Word is not in them: thus will it be done to them. Therefore this is what YHWH Elohim of Hosts declares, Because you speak this word, note, I will make my Words in your mouth supernatural fire, and this people wood, and it will devour them. Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far O House of Israel, declares YHWH: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, neither understand what they say. Their quiver is as an open grave, they are all mighty men. And they will eat up your harvest and your food that your sons and your daughters should eat: they will consume your flocks and your herds: they will eat up your vines and your fig trees. They will shatter your fortified cities, where you placed your confidence in, with the sword. Nevertheless in those days, declares YHWH, I will not make a full end with you.

And it will come to pass when you will say, why does YHWH our Elohim do all these things to us? Then will you answer them, as you have forsaken me and served foreign elohim in your land, so will you serve foreigners in a land that is not yours. Report this in the House of Jacob and publish it in Judah saying, hear this now, O foolish people without understanding; that have eyes and see not; that have ears and hear not: Fear you not me? declares YHWH: will you not tremble at my presence, which has placed the sand for the border of the sea by an Age-Lasting decree, that it cannot pass [beyond a certain point]: and though the waves toss themselves, still they cannot prevail; though they roar, still they cannot pass over it? But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are turned aside and gone. Neither do they say in their heart, let us now fear YHWH Elohim that gives rain, both the former and the latter in its season: he reserves to us the prescribed weeks of the harvest. Your depravities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good things from you. Because among my people are found wicked people: they lay in wait, as he that sets snares; they set ruin and they capture men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxed rich. They are waxed fat, they shine: yes, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the legal suit, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the rights of the poor do they not judge.

Will I not punish for these things? Declares YHWH: will I not be avenged on such a nation as this? A wasteful and horrible thing is committed in the land; the speakers prophesy falsely, and the priests (ministers) bear rule by their repetition; and my people love to have it so: and what will you do in the Latter Time?

Chapter 6

O you children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem and blow the ram's horn in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Bethhaccerem: for bad appears out of the North, and great destruction. The beautiful and the delicate one I have cut off, the daughter of Zion. The shepherds with their flocks will come to her; they will pitch their tents against her all around; they will feed everyone in his place. Prepare you war against her; arise and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! because the day has declined, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her citadel. Because this is what YHWH of Hosts has declared, Cut down trees, and cast a mound against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she has oppression in her inward parts. As a fountain casts out her waters, so she casts out her badness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

Be you instructed O Jerusalem, unless my life departs from you; unless I make you desolate, a land not inhabited. This is what YHWH of Hosts declares: They surely glean as a vine the remnant of Israel, put back your hand as a gatherer to the baskets. To whom will I speak and give warning so that they may hear? See, their ear is uncircumcised and they cannot hear: see, the Word of YHWH is to them a scorn; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of YHWH; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: because even the husband with the woman will be taken, an elder with one full of days. And their houses will be turned to others, with their fields and women together: because I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land declares YHWH. Because from the least of them even to the greatest of them everyone is given to unjust profit; and from the speaker even to the priest (ministers) everyone deals falsely. They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, peace, peace; when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they will fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they will be cast down declares YHWH. This is what YHWH declares, Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your lives. But they said, we will not walk in it. Also I set watchmen over you saying, Listen to the sound of the ram's horn. But they said, we will not listen.

Therefore hear you nations, and know, O company, what is among them. Hear, O land: See, I will bring bad upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my Words nor to my Law, but rejected it. To what purpose comes there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your whole Burnt-Offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet to me. Therefore this is what YHWH declares, See, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people and the dads and the sons together will fall upon them; the neighbor and his friend will perish. This is what YHWH declares, Look, a people come from the North country, and a great nation will be raised from the extreme parts of the earth. They will lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against you, O daughter of Zion. We have heard the fame: our hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of us with pain, like a woman in labor. Go not out into the field, nor walk by the way; because the sword of the enemy and terror is on every side. O daughter of my people, gird yourself with sackcloth and wallow yourself in ashes: fashion yourself for mourning, as for an only son, most bitter wailing: for the destroyer will suddenly come upon us. I have set you for a tower and a fortress among my people, that you may know and examine their way.

They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters. The bellows are burnt, the lead is consumed of the fire; in vain the refiner has refined: because the bad are not rooted out. Reprobate silver will men call them, because YHWH has rejected them.

Chapter 7

The Word that came to Jeremiah from YHWH saying, Stand in the court of YHWH's Temple, and proclaim there this Word and say, Hear the Word of YHWH, all you of Judah that enter into these courts to worship YHWH. This is what YHWH of Hosts declares, the Elohim of Israel, Amend your ways and your practices, and I will cause you to reside in this Standing Place. Trust you not in lying words saying, The Temple of YHWH, the Temple of YHWH, the Temple of YHWH, are these. For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your practices; if you thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbor; If you oppress not the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow, and shed no innocent blood in this Standing Place, neither walk after other elohim to your hurt: Then I will cause you to reside in this Standing Place, in the land that I gave to your ancestors, for the ages of ages.

Look, you are trusting in lying words that cannot profit. Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, adjure falsely and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other elohim who you know not; And come and stand before me in this Temple that is called by my Name and say, we are delivered to do all these abominations? Is this Temple that is called by my Name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Look, even I have seen it declares YHWH. But go now to my Standing Place that was in Shiloh, where I set my Name at the first, and see what I did to it for the badness of my people Israel. And now, because you have done all these works, declares YHWH, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you heard not; and I called you but you answered not; Therefore I will do to this Temple that is called by my Name, in which you trust and to the Standing Place that I gave to you and to your forefathers, as I have done to Shiloh. And I will cast you out of my sight as I have cast out all your kinship, even the whole seed of Ephraim. Therefore pray not for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: because I will not hear you. Do not you see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

The children gather wood, and the dads kindle the fire and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink-offerings to other elohim so that they may provoke me to anger. Do they provoke me to anger asks YHWH? Do they not provoke themselves to the shame of their own faces? Therefore this is what YHWH Elohim declares; Observe, my anger and my fury will be poured out on this Standing Place, upon man, animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the produce of the ground; and it will burn and will not be quenched. This is what YHWH of Hosts declares, the Elohim of Israel; Put your whole Burnt-Offerings to your sacrifices, and eat flesh. Because I spoke not to your forefathers nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning whole Burnt-Offerings or sacrifices: But this thing I commanded them saying, Obey my Voice, and I will be your Elohim, and you will be my people: and walk you in all the ways that I have commanded you so that it may be well for you. But they did not listen nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their bad heart, and went backward and not forward. Since the day that your ancestors came out of the land of Egypt to this day I have even sent to you all my slaves the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: Still they did not listen to me nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their ancestors. Therefore you will speak all these Words to them; but they will not hear you: you will also call to them; but they will not answer you.

But you will say to them, This is a nation that obeys not the Voice of YHWH their Elohim, nor receives correction: Truth is perished and is cut off from their mouth. Cut off your hair, O Jerusalem and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for YHWH has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. Because the children of Judah have done bad in my sight declares YHWH: they have set their abominations in the Temple that is called by my Name, to make it unclean. And they have built the worship places of Tophet that is in the Valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came this into my mind. Therefore note, the days come declares YHWH, that it will no more be called Tophet, nor the Valley of the son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter: because they will bury in Tophet until there is no more space. And the corpses of this people will be meat for the fowls of the sky, and for the animals of the land, and none will drive them away. Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: because the land will be desolate.

Chapter 8

At that time declares YHWH, they will bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves: And they will spread them before the sun and the moon, and all the host of the stars who they have loved and have served, and after whom they have walked, and have sought after and worshiped. They will not be gathered, nor be buried; they will be for dung upon the surface of the land. And death will be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain in this bad family that remains in all the regions wherever I have driven them, declares YHWH of Hosts.

Moreover you will say to them, This is what YHWH declares; Will they fall and not arise? Will he turn away and not return? Why has these people of Jerusalem turned back, a perpetual backsliding? They have kept hold on deceit, they have refused to turn back. I have given attention, yes, I listened, they do not speak right, and none has regretted of his badness saying, what have I done? Everyone has turned to his own courses, as a horse is rushing into battle. Yes, the stork in the sky knows her appointed season; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the season of their coming; but my people know not the Judgment of YHWH. How do you say, we are wise and the Law of YHWH is with us? Lo, certainly in vain he made it; the pen of the scribes is in vain. The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the Word of YHWH; and what wisdom is in them? Therefore I will give their women to others, and their fields to them that will inherit them: for everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to unjust profit, from the speaker even to the priest everyone deals falsely. Because they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying peace, peace; when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore will they fall among them that fall: at the time of their custody they will be cast down declares YHWH. I will certainly consume them declares YHWH: there will be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf will fade; and the things that I have given them will pass away from them.

Why do we sit still? Gather yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there: because YHWH Elohim has put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against YHWH. We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and saw dismay. The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city and those that live there. For see, I will send serpents [dragon] and poisonous snakes, among you, which will not be charmed, and they will bite you declares YHWH. When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me. Observe the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people because of them that live in a far country: Is not YHWH in Zion? Is not her king in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with foreign vanities? The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not liberated. For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am mourning; horror has taken hold on me. Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there? Why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

Chapter 9

Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears so that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people and go from them! because they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous people. And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not prevailing for the Truth upon the land; because they proceed from bad to bad and they know not me declares YHWH. Take heed every one of his neighbor, and trust not in any brother: because every brother will attack at the heel. And, every neighbor, as an informer, goes about. And they will deceive everyone his neighbor, and will not speak the Truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to be perverted. Your habitation is in the middle of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, declares YHWH. Therefore this is what YHWH of Hosts declares, Observe, I will refine them and examine them; for how do I do because of the daughter of my people? Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in heart he lays his ambuscade. Will I not visit them for these things? Declares YHWH: will I not be avenged on such a nation as this? For the mountains I will take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a dirge, because they are burnt up, so that none can pass through them. Neither can people hear the voice of the cattle; both the flying creatures of the sky and the animals are fled; they are gone. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

Who is the wise man that may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of YHWH has spoken, that he may declare it, for what has the land perished for, and is burnt up like a wilderness so that none pass through? Then YHWH declared, Because they have forsaken my Law that I set before them and have not obeyed my Voice, neither walked in it; But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim that their ancestors taught them of. Therefore this is what YHWH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel declares; Look, I will feed them, even this people with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. I will scatter them also among the heathen, who neither they nor their ancestors have known: and I will send a sword after them, until I have consumed them. This is what YHWH of Hosts declares, Consider, and call for the mourning women so that they may come; and send for skillful women, that they may come: And let them hurry and take up a wailing for us so that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. Because a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, how are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our houses. Now hear the Word of YHWH, O you women, and let your ear receive the Word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor a dirge.

Because death has come up into our windows, and has entered into our citadel, to cut off the children from the streets, and the young men from the plaza. Speak, this is what YHWH declares, Even the corpses of men will fall as dung upon the open field and as a handful after the reaper, and there is none gathering. This is what YHWH declares, Let not the wise glory in their wisdom, neither let the mighty glory in his might, let not the rich glory in their riches: But let him that glories glory in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am YHWH that exercises loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth: because in these things I delight declares YHWH. Note, the days come declares YHWH, that I will punish all them that are circumcised with the uncircumcised; Egypt, Judah, Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the far extremities that live in the wilderness:

Chapter 10

because all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the House of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart. Hear the Word that YHWH speaks to you, O House of Israel: This is what YHWH declares, learn not the way of the heathen and be not dismayed at the signs of the stars; for the heathen are dismayed at them. Because the customs of the people are vain: for one cuts down a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the artisan, with the ax. They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers so that it does not wobble. They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not:

they must needs be lifted up, because they cannot take a step. Be not afraid of them because they cannot do bad, neither also is it in them to do good. There is none like to you O YHWH; you are great, and your Name is great in might. Who does not fear you, king of the nations? For to you it is becoming, for among all the wise of the nations, and in their entire kingdom there is none like you. But they are altogether barbarous and foolish: the [Christmas/idol] tree/stock is a doctrine of vanities. Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of the skillful. But YHWH is the true Elohim, he is the living Elohim, and an Age-Lasting King: at his anger the earth will quake, and the nations will not be able to contain his indignation. This is what you will say to them, the elohim that have not fashioned the cosmos and the earth, even they will perish from the earth, and from under these cosmos. He has fashioned the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and has stretched out the cosmos by his knowledge. At the Voice he gives out, a multitude of waters is in the skies, and he causes vapors to come up from the end of the earth, lightning's for rain he has made, and brings out wind from his storehouse. Everyone is barbarous in his knowledge: every founder is withered by the idol: because his cast image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their charge they will perish.

The portion of Jacob is not like them: because he is the former of all things; and Israel is the scepter of his inheritance: YHWH of Hosts is his Name. Gather up your packs, out of the land O inhabitant of the siege-enclosure. Because this is what YHWH declares, Lo, I am slinging out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and have been an adversary to them, so that they are found out. Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, truly this is a grief and I must bear it. My tabernacle is devastated, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone out from me, and they are not: there is none to stretch out my tent anymore and to set up my curtains. Because the pastors [ministers] are become unreceptive, and have not sought YHWH: therefore they will not prosper, and all their flocks will be scattered. Observe, the voice of the news has come, and a great rattling out of the North country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons. O YHWH, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walks to direct his own steps. O YHWH, correct me, but with judgment; not in your anger unless you bring me to nothing. Pour out your fury upon the heathen that know you not, and upon the families that call not on your Name:

Chapter 11

because they have eaten up Jacob and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate. The Word that came to Jeremiah from YHWH saying, Hear you the Words of this Covenant and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; And say to them, This is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares; Cursed is the man that obeys not the Words of this Covenant, that I commanded your forefathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron forge saying, Obey my Voice and institute them, according to all that I command you: so will you be my people and I will be your Elohim: That I may perform the oath that I have adjured to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then I answered and said, so be it, O YHWH. Then YHWH replied to me, Proclaim all these Words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem saying, hear you the Words of this Covenant and institute them. Because I earnestly protested to your forefathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting saying, Obey my Voice. Still they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked everyone in the imagination of their bad heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the Words of this Covenant that I commanded them to do; but they did not institute them. Then YHWH said to me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They are turned back to the depravities of their forefathers that refused to hear my Words; and they went after other elohim to serve them: the House of Israel and the House of Judah have broken my Covenant-Pledge that I cut out with their ancestors. Therefore this is what YHWH declares, See, I will bring bad upon them so that they will not be able to escape; and though they will cry to me, I will not listen to them. Then will the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry to the elohim to who they offer incense: but they will not deliver them at all in the time of their trouble. Because according to the number of your cities were your elohim O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal. Therefore you will not pray for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: because I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me for their trouble. What has my beloved to do in my house, seeing she has made lewdness with many, and the Sacred flesh is passed from you? When you do bad, then you rejoice. YHWH called your name, a green olive tree, and fair and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great roaring he has set fire to it, and the branches of it are broken. Because YHWH of Hosts, that planted you, has pronounced bad against you, for the badness of the House of Israel and of the House of Judah that they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense to Baal. And YHWH has given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then you showed me their practices. But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter. And I knew not that they had devised devices against me saying, let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living so that his name may no more be remembered. But, O YHWH of Hosts, that judges righteously, that tries the reins and the heart, let me see your vengeance on them:

because to you have I revealed my cause. Therefore this is what YHWH says of the men of Anathoth that seek your life saying, prophesy not in the Name of YHWH so that you do not die by our hand. Therefore this is what YHWH of Hosts declares, Look, I will punish them:

the young men will die by the sword; their sons and their daughters will die by famine. And there will be no remnant of them: because I will bring bad upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their custody. Righteous are you O YHWH, when I plead with you: yet let me talk with you of your judgments: why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are they all happy that deal very treacherously? You have planted them, yes, they have taken root: they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their reins. But you O YHWH, know me: you have seen me, and tried my heart toward you: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter and prepare them for the day of slaughter. How long will the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, because of the wickedness of them that live there? The animals are consumed and the birds; because they said, he will not see our Latter Time. If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? and if in the land of peace where you trusted, they wearied you, then how will you do in the swelling of Jordan? For even your relatives, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; yes, they have called a multitude after you:

believe them not, though they speak fair words to you. I have forsaken my house, I have left my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my life into the hand of her enemies. My heritage is to me as a lion in the forest; it cries out against me: therefore have I hated it. My heritage is to me as a speckled bird, the birds all around are against her; come you, assemble all the animals of the field, come to devour. Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trampled my portion under foot, they have made my precious portion a desolate wilderness. They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourns unto me; the whole land is made desolate because no man lays it to heart. The spoilers are come on all the high places through the wilderness: for the sword of YHWH will devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh will have peace. They have sown wheat, but will reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but will not profit: and they will be ashamed of your produce because of the fierce anger of YHWH. This is what YHWH says against all my bad neighbors, that touch the inheritance that I have caused my people Israel to inherit; See, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the House of Judah from among them. And it will come to pass, after I have plucked them out I will return and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage and every man to his land. And it will come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to adjure by my Name, YHWH lives; as they taught my people to adjure by Baal; then will they be restored in the midst of my people. But if they will not obey, I will expel and destroy that nation declares YHWH. This is what YHWH said to me, Go and get yourself a linen waist-cloth, and put it on your hips, but put it not in water. So I got a waist-cloth according to the Word of YHWH and put it on my hips. Then the Word of YHWH came to me the second time saying, Take the waist-cloth that you have got, which is on your hips, and arise, go to Euphrates and hide it there in a cleft of the rock. So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as YHWH commanded me. And it came to pass after many days that YHWH said to me, Arise, go to Euphrates and take the waist-cloth from there, which I commanded you to hide. Then I went to Euphrates, and excavated, and took the waist-cloth from the place where I had hidden it: and lo, the waist-cloth was marred, it was profitable for nothing. Then the Word of YHWH came to me saying, This is what YHWH declares, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. This bad people that refuse to hear my Words, which walk in the imagination of their heart and walk after other elohim, to serve them, and to worship them, will even be as this waist-cloth, which is good for nothing.

Chapter 13

For as the waist-cloth cleaved to the hips of a man, so have I caused to cleave to me the whole House of Israel and the whole House of Judah declares YHWH. That they might be to me for a people, and for a Name and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. Therefore you will speak to them this Word; YHWH Elohim of Israel declares, Every bottle will be filled with wine: and they will say to you, do we not certainly know that every bottle will be filled with wine? Then you will say to them, This is what YHWH declares, See, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit on David's throne, and the priests and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. And I will dash them one against another, even the dads and the sons together declares YHWH: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but will destroy them. Hear you and give ear; be not proud: because YHWH has spoken. Give glory to YHWH Elohim, before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while you look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it dark clouds. But if you will not hear it, my heart will weep in secret places for your pride; and my eye will weep sore, and run down with tears, because YHWH's flock is carried away captive. Say to the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: because your dominion will come down, even the crown of your glory. The cities of the south will be shut up, and none will open them: Judah will be carried away captive all of it, it will be wholly carried away captive. Lift up your eyes and watch them that come from the North:

where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock? What will you say when he will punish you? Because you have taught them to be captains, and as chief over you: will not sorrows overtake you as a woman in labor? And if you say in your heart, how come these things are upon me? For the greatness of your depravity are your skirts discovered and your heels made bare. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then may you also do good, that are accustomed to do bad. Therefore I will scatter them as the stubble that passes away by the wind of the wilderness. This is your lot, the portion of your measure from me, declares YHWH; because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. Therefore I will discover your skirts upon your face so that your shame may appear. I have seen your adulteries and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution, and your abominations on the hills in the fields.

Chapter 14

Woe to you, O Jerusalem! Will you not be made clean? When will it once be? The Word of YHWH that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought. Judah mourns, and the marketplace is exhausted; they are mourning for the land; and the cry of Jerusalem has ascended. And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters:

they came to the trench and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were disconcerted and confused, and covered their heads. Because the ground is cracked, because there was no rain in the land, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads. Yes, the deer also gave birth in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass. And the wild donkeys did stand in the high places, they gasped up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass. Certainly our depravities have testified against us, do something O YHWH for your Name's sake, because many have been our backslidings, against you we have sinned. O the hope of Israel, the Savior in time of trouble, why should you be as a foreigner in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turns aside to lodge for a night? Why should you be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot rescue? But you O YHWH, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your Name; leave us not. This is what YHWH declares to this people, they have loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore YHWH does not accept them; he will now remember their depravity, and visit their sins. Then YHWH said to me, Pray not for this people for their good. When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer whole Burnt-Offering and gifts, I will not accept them:

but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague. Then I said, Ah, YHWH Elohim! look, the prophets say to them, you will not see the sword, neither will you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this Standing Place. Then YHWH said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in my Name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke to them: they prophesy to you a false vision and divination, and a thing good for nothing, and the deceit of their heart. Therefore this is what YHWH declares concerning the prophets that prophesy in my Name, and I sent them not, still they say, Sword and famine will not be in this land; By sword and famine will those prophets be consumed. And the people to whom they prophesy will be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they will have none to bury them, them or their women, their sons or their daughters: because I will pour their bad upon them. Therefore you will say this Word to them; Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: because the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow. If I go out into the field, then see the slain with the sword! And if I enter into the city, then see them that are sick with famine! Yes, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not. Have you utterly rejected Judah? Have you loathed Zion? Why have you ravaged us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble! We acknowledge, O YHWH, our wickedness, and the depravity of our ancestors: because we have sinned against you. Do not abhor us, for your Name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of your glory: remember, break not your Covenant with us. Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain?

Chapter 15

Or can the skies give showers? Are not you he, O YHWH Elohim? Therefore we will wait on you: because you have produced all these things. Then YHWH said to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, still my mind could not be toward these people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go out.

And it will come to pass, if they say to you, where will we go? Then you will tell them, This is what YHWH declares; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. And I will appoint over them four kinds, declares YHWH: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and destroy. And I will cause them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem. Because who will have pity on you O Jerusalem? Or who will bemoan you? or who will go aside to ask how you prosper? You have forsaken me declares YHWH, you are gone backward: therefore I will stretch out my hand against you and destroy you; I am weary with grief. And I will fan them with a fan in the marketplaces of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways. Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall on it suddenly, and terrors upon the city. She that has engendered seven grows feeble: she has given up her life; her sun is gone down while it was still day: she has been disconcerted and confounded: and the residue of them I will deliver to the sword before their enemies declares YHWH. Woe is me, my mother, that you have gendered me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent or have I borrowed, still every one of them does curse me.

YHWH declared, Of a Truth it will be well with your remnant; Of a Truth I will cause the enemy to fall upon you in the time of bad and in the time of affliction. Will iron break the northern iron and the steel? Your substance and your treasures I will give to the spoil without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your territory. And I will make you to pass with your enemies into a land that you know not: because a fire is kindled in my anger that will burn upon you. O YHWH, you know: remember me and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in your presence: know that for your sake I have suffered scorn. Your Words were found, and I did eat them; and your Word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart: because I am called by your Name, O YHWH Elohim of Hosts. I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of your hand: because you have filled me with indignation. Wherefore, has my pain become, perpetual? And my wound, incurable? Refuses to be healed? Will you, indeed be, to me [As a brook] that disappoints, Waters that cannot be trusted? Therefore this is what YHWH declares, If you return, then I will bring you again, and you will stand before me: and if you will extract the precious from the vile, you will be as my mouth: let them return to you; but return you not to them. And I will make you to this people a fenced bronze wall: and they will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you:

Chapter 16

because I am with you to save you and to deliver you declares YHWH. And I will deliver you out of the hand of the bad, and I will ransom you out of the hand of the terror-strikes. The Word of YHWH came also to me saying, You will not take for yourself a woman, neither will you have sons or daughters in this Standing Place. Because this is what YHWH declares, Of the sons and of the daughters who are born in this Standing Place, and of their mothers (those bearing them) and of their fathers, (those beating them in this land) . They will die of grievous deaths, they will not be mourned, and neither will they be buried. But they will be as dung upon the surface of the ground: and they will be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their corpses will be meat for the flying creatures of the sky, and for the animals of the land. Because this is what YHWH declares, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to mourn or grieve for them: because I have taken away my peace from this people declares YHWH, even goodness and compassion. Both the great and the small will die in this land: they will not be buried, neither will people mourn for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them. Neither will people tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for those perished; neither will people give them the cup of consolation to drink for their dad or their mother. Also, you will not go into the banquet house, to sit with them to eat and to drink. Because this is what YHWH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel declares; Look, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of rejoicing, and the voice of gaiety, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. And it will come about, when you will show this people all these Words, and they will say to you, why has YHWH pronounced all this great bad against us?

Or what is our depravity? or what is our sin that we have committed against YHWH Elohim? Then you will say to them, Because your ancestors have forsaken me, declares YHWH, and have walked after other elohim, and have served them and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and have not observed my Law; And you have done worse than your ancestors; for lo, you walk everyone after the imagination of his bad heart so that they may not listen to me: Therefore I will cast you out of this land into a land that you know not, neither you nor your forefathers; and there will you serve other elohim day and night; where I will not show you favor. Therefore watch, the days come declares YHWH, that it will no more be said, YHWH lives, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; But, YHWH lives, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the North, and from all the lands where he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their forefathers. Note, I will send for many fishermen declares YHWH, and they will fish for them; and afterwards I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. Because my eyes are on all their ways: they are not hidden from my face, neither is their depravity hidden from my eyes. I will repay their depravity and their sin double; because they have desecrated my land, they have filled my inheritance with the corpses of their detestable and abominable things.

O YHWH my strength, and my Place of Safety, and my refuge in the Day of Trouble, the Gentiles will come to you from the ends of the earth, and will say, certainly our ancestors have inherited lies, vanity, and things in which there is no profit.

Chapter 17

Will a man fashion elohim to himself, and they are no elohim? Therefore lo, I am causing them to know at this time, I cause them to know my hand and my might, and they have known that my Name is YHWH! The sin of Judah is written with a stylus of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the tablet of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars; While their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees on the high hills. O my mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures to the spoil, and your worship places for sin, throughout all your territories. And you, even yourself, will discontinue from your heritage that I gave you, and I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land that you know not: because you have kindled a fire in my anger that will burn for the ages. This is what YHWH declares; Cursed is the man that trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from YHWH. Because he will be like the destitute in the desert, and will not see when good comes;

but will inhabit the parched places in the uninhabited land, in a salt land and not inhabited.

Blessed is the man that trusts in YHWH, and whose hope YHWH is. Because he will be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreads out her roots by the river, and will not see when heat comes, but her leaf will be green; and will not be careful in the year of drought, neither will cease from yielding fruit. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I YHWH search the heart, I try the reins, even to give everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his practices. As the partridge sits on eggs, and hatches them not; so he that gets riches, and not by right, will leave them in the middle of his days, and at his end will be a fool. A glorious high throne from the beginning is the locality of our Sacred Place. O YHWH, the hope of Israel, all that forsake you will be ashamed, and they that depart from me will be recorded in the ground, because they have forsaken YHWH, the fountain of living waters. Heal me, O YHWH, and I will be healed; save me, and I will be saved: because you are my praise. See, they say to me, where is the Word of YHWH? let it come now. As for me, I have not hurried away from being a shepherd that follows you, nor have I desired the incurable day; you know what came out of my lips and that it was right there in front of you. Be not a terror to me: you are my hope in the bad day. Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed:

bring upon them the bad day, and destroy them with double destruction. This is what YHWH says to me; Go and stand in the marketplace of the children of the people, where the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; And say to them, Hear you the Word of YHWH, you kings of Judah and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem that enter in by these gates: This is what YHWH declares; Take heed to yourselves and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; Neither carry out a burden from your houses on the Sabbath day, neither do you any work, but consecrate the Sabbath day, as I commanded your ancestors. But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their necks stiff so that they might not hear, nor receive instruction. And it will come to pass, if you diligently listen to me declares YHWH, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but consecrate the Sabbath day, to do no work in that time; Then will there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their princes, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city will remain for the ages. And they will come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing whole Burnt-Offerings and sacrifices, and Meat-Offerings and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise to the Temple of YHWH. But if you will not listen to me to consecrate the Sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.

Chapter 18

Then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it will not be quenched. The Word that came to Jeremiah from YHWH saying, Get up and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my Words.

Then I went down to the potter's house and looked, he fashioned a work on the wheels. And the vessel that he fashioned of clay was ruined in the hand of the potter: so he fashioned it again into another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make. Then the Word of YHWH came to me saying, O House of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? Declares YHWH. Observe, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O House of Israel. At what moment I will speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; If that nation, against who I have pronounced, turns from their badness, I will repent [have a change of mind] of the bad that I thought to do to them. And at what moment I will speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; If it does bad in my sight so that it obeys not my Voice, then I will repent of the good, in which I said I would benefit them. Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem saying, This is what YHWH declares; See, I frame bad against you, and devise a device against you.

Return you now everyone from his bad way, and make your ways and your practices good. And they said, there is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will everyone do the imagination of their bad heart. Therefore this is what YHWH declares; ask you now among the heathen, who has heard such things: the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon that comes from the rock of the field? Or will the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken? Because my people have forgotten me, they have burnt incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not highly esteemed; To make their land desolate, and an Age-Lasting hissing; everyone that passes by there will be astonished, and wag his head. I will scatter them as with an East wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity. Then they said, come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; because the Law will not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his Words. Give heed to me O YHWH, and listen to the voice of them that contend with me. Will bad be compensated for good? Because they have dug a pit for my life. Remember that I stood before you to speak good for them, and to turn away your anger from them. Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their women be bereaved of their children and become widows.

And let their men be put to death;

Chapter 19

let their young men be killed by the sword in battle. Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you will bring a troop suddenly on them: because they have dug a pit to take me, and hidden snares for my feet. Still, YHWH, you know all their counsel against me to kill me: forgive not their depravity, neither blot out their sin from your sight, but let them be overthrown before you; deal so with them at the time of your anger. This is what YHWH declares, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the elder of the people, and of the elder of the priests; And go out to the Valley of the son of Hinnom that is by the entry of the East Gate, and proclaim there the Words that I will tell you, And say, Hear you the Word of YHWH, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; This is what YHWH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel declares; Look, I will bring bad upon this Standing Place, that whoever hears, their ears will tingle. Because they have forsaken me and have estranged this Standing Place, and have burnt incense in it to other elohim, who neither they nor their forefathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this Standing Place with the blood of the innocent; They have also built the worship places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings to Baal, which I commanded not, nor spoke it, neither did it enter into my mind: Therefore watch, the days come declares YHWH that this Standing Place will no more be called Tophet, nor the Valley of the son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this Standing Place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them who seek their lives. And their corpses I will give to be meat for the flying creatures of the sky, and for the animals of the land. And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; everyone that passes by will be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they will eat everyone the flesh of his friend in the siege and distress with which their enemies, and those that seek their lives will oppress them. Then you will break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with you, And will say to them, This is what YHWH of Hosts declares; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they will bury them in Tophet, until there is no space to bury. I will do to this Standing Place declares YHWH, and to its inhabitants, and even make this city as Tophet: And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, will become unclean as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burnt incense to all the stars of the cosmos, and have poured out drink-offerings to other elohim.

Chapter 20

Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where YHWH had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of YHWH's Temple; and said to all the people, This is what YHWH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel declares; See, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the bad that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks so that they might not hear my Words. Now Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the Temple of YHWH, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. Then Pashur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin that was by the Temple of YHWH.

And it came to pass on the next day that Pashur brought out Jeremiah from the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, YHWH has not called your name Pashur, but Magormissabib (terror on every side). Because this is what YHWH declares, Look, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends. And they will fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes will see it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them captive into Babylon, and will kill them with the sword. Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all its labors, and all its precious things, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies that will plunder them, and seize them, and carry them to Babylon. And you, Pashur, and all that live in your house will go into captivity: and you will come to Babylon, and there you will die, and will be buried there, you, and all your friends, to who you have prophesied lies. O YHWH, you have deceived me and I was deceived: you are stronger than I, and have prevailed: I am in derision daily, everyone mocks me. Because since I spoke, I cried out, I cried violence and plunder; because the Word of YHWH was made a reproach to me, and a derision, daily. Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak anymore in his Name. But his Word was in my heart as a burning supernatural fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with holding it inside, and I could not prevail. Because I heard the defamation of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my allies watched for my halting, saying, peradventure he will be enticed and we will prevail against him, and we will take our revenge on him. And YHWH is with me, as a terrible mighty one, therefore my persecutors stumble and prevail not, they have been exceedingly ashamed, for they have not acted wisely, confusion Age-Lasting is not forgotten.

But, O YHWH of Hosts, that examine the righteous and inspect the reins and the heart, let me see your vengeance on them: because to you have I opened my dispute. Sing to YHWH, praise you YHWH: because he has delivered the lives of the poor from the hand of the criminal. Cursed is the day in which I was born:

Chapter 21

let not the day in which my mother engendered me be blessed. Cursed is the man who brought news to my dad saying, a male child is born to you; making him very glad. And let that man be as the cities that YHWH overthrew and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noon; Because he has not put me to death from the womb, and my mother is to me as my grave, and her womb a pregnancy Age-Lasting. Therefore I came out of the womb to see labor and sorrow so that my days should be consumed with shame? The Word that came to Jeremiah from YHWH, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest saying, Inquire I ask you, of YHWH for us; because Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon makes war against us; if so be that YHWH will deal with us according to all his wondrous works so that he may depart from us. Then Jeremiah replied to them, this is what you will say to Zedekiah: This is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares; Look, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and the Chaldeans that besiege you outside the walls, and I will assemble them into the center of this city. And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, nostrils flaring and in fury, and in great anger. And I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal: they will die of a great plague.

And afterw ard, declares YHWH, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah and his slaves, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the plague, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life. And he will strike them with the edge of the sword; he will not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy. And to this people you will say, This is what YHWH declares; Look, I set before you the Way of Life, and the Way of Death. He that remains in this city will die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague: but he that goes out, and falls to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he will live, and his life will be to him for a plunder. Because I have set my face against this city for bad, and not for good, declares YHWH: it will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire. And touching the house of the king of Judah say, Hear you the Word of YHWH; O House of David, this is what YHWH declares;

Chapter 22

Execute judgment in the morning and deliver him that is plundered out of the hand of the oppressor, unless my fury goes out like supernatural fire, and burns so that none can quench it, because of the badness of your practices. Look, I am against you O inhabitant of the valley and rock of the plain declares YHWH; which say, who will come down against us? Or who will enter into our habitations? But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, declares YHWH: and I will kindle a fire in the forest, and it will devour all things surrounding it. This is what YHWH declares; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this Word and say, Hear the Word of YHWH, O king of Judah, that sits upon the throne of David, you and your slaves, and your people that enter in by these gates: This is what YHWH declares; Execute judgment and righteousness, and deliver the plundered out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the foreigner, the fatherless or the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this Standing Place. Because if you do this thing indeed, then will there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he and his slaves and his people. But if you will not hear these words, I adjure by myself declares YHWH, that this Temple will become a desolation. Because this is what YHWH declares to the king's house of Judah; You are Gilead to me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make you a wilderness, and cities that are not inhabited. And I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons: and they will cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. And many nations will pass by this city, and they will say everyone to his neighbor, why has YHWH done such to this great city?

Then they will answer, because they have forsaken the Covenant of YHWH Elohim, and worshiped other elohim and served them. Weep not for those perished, neither bemoan him: but weep for him that goes away: because he will return no more, nor see his native country. Because this is what YHWH says touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah that reigned instead of Josiah his dad that went out of this Standing Place; he will not return here anymore: But he will die in the place where they have led him captive, and will see this land no more. Woe to him that builds his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that uses his neighbor's service without wages, and pays him not for his work; That says, I will build me a wide house and large chambers, and cut out windows; and it is covered with cedar and painted with vermilion (red colored). Will you reign, because you are fretting yourself in cedar? Did not your dad eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him? He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? Declares YHWH. But your eyes and your heart are set on nothing but for your unjust gain, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. Therefore this is what YHWH declares concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; they will not mourn for him saying, ah my brother! Or, a sister!

They will not mourn for him saying, ah YHWH! Or, ah his glory! He will be buried with the burial of a mule, drawn and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem. Go up to Lebanon and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: because all your lovers are destroyed. I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your manner from your youth, that you obey not my Voice. The wind will eat up all your shepherds, and your lovers will go into captivity: certainly then will you be ashamed and confounded for all your badness. O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makes your nest in the cedars, how gracious will you be when labor pains come on you, the pain as of a woman in labor! As I live declares YHWH, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, still I would pluck you from here; And I will give you into the hand of them that seek your life, and into the hand of them whose face you fear, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. And I will cast you out, and your mother that gendered you, into another country, where you were not born; and there will you die. But to the land where they desire to return, there they will not return. Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? Is he a vessel where there is no pleasure? Therefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land that they know not?

Chapter 23

O earth, earth, earth, hear the Word of YHWH. This is what YHWH declares, Write you this man childless, a man that will not prosper in his days: because no man of his seed will prosper, sitting on the throne of David and ruling any more in Judah. Woe be to the rulers that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! declares YHWH. Therefore this is what YHWH Elohim of Israel declares against the rulers [ministers] that feed my people; You have scattered my flock and driven them away, and have not attended to them: Look, I will attend upon you the badness of your practices says YHWH. And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their habitations; and they will be fruitful and increase. And I will set up a rulers over them that will feed them: and they will fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither will they be lacking declares YHWH. Behold, the days come declares YHWH, that I will raise to David a Righteous Branch, and a King will reign and act wisely, and will institute judgment and justice in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will reside safely: and this is his Name whereby he will be called, YHWH OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Therefore watch, the days come declares YHWH, that they will no more say, YHWH lives that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; But rather, YHWH lives that brought up and which led the descendants of the House of Israel out of the North country, and from all countries where I had driven them; and they will live in their own land. My heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake;

I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome because of YHWH, and because of the Words of his Holiness. Because of adulterers has the land been full, for because of these has the land mourned, dried up has been the pleasant places of the wilderness, and their course is wrong, and their might is not right. Because both prophet and priest are defiled; yes, in my Temple have I encountered their wrong says YHWH. Therefore their way will be to them as slippery ways in the darkness: they will be driven on, and fall down: because I will bring bad upon them, even the year of their custody declares YHWH. And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. I have also seen in the prophets of Jerusalem a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of the wicked so that none will return from his wickedness. They are all of them to me as Sodom, and its inhabitants as Gomorrah. Therefore this is what YHWH of Hosts declares concerning the prophets; See, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem has hypocrisy gone out into all the land. This is what YHWH of Hosts declares, Listen not to the words of the prophets that prophesy to you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart and not out of the mouth of YHWH. They still say to them that despise me, YHWH has said, you will have peace; and they say to everyone that walks after the imagination of his own heart, no bad will come upon you. Because who has stood in the counsel of YHWH, and has perceived and heard his Word?

Who has attended to his Word and obeyed it? Observe, a whirlwind of YHWH has gone out in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it will fall grievously on the head of the wicked. The anger of YHWH will not return, until he has accomplished it and until he has performed the thoughts of his heart: in the Last Days you will clearly understand this. I have not sent these prophets [speakers, ministers, rabbis] yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they had attended upon my [Levitical] counsel, and had caused my people to hear my Words, then they should have turned themselves from their bad way, and from the badness of their practices. Am I an Elohim at hand says YHWH, and not an Elohim afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places that I will not see him? Declares YHWH. Do I not fill the cosmos and earth says YHWH? I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my Name saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. How long will this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? Yes, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart; Who think to cause my people to forget my Name by their dreams that they tell everyone to his neighbor, as their forefathers have forgotten my Name for Baal. The prophet that has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that has my Word, let him speak my Word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat asks YHWH? Is not my Word like a supernatural fire? Declares YHWH; and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces? Therefore note, I am against the prophets declares YHWH, that steal my Words everyone from his neighbor. See, I am against the prophets declares YHWH, that use their tongues and say, “He declares”. Look, I am against them that prophesy false dreams declares YHWH, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their frivolity; still I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they will not profit this people at all declares YHWH. And when this people, or the prophet or a priest will ask you saying, what is the burden of YHWH? You will then say to them, what burden? I will even forsake you declares YHWH. And as for the prophet, priest, and the people that will say, the burden of YHWH, I will even punish that man and his house. You will tell everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, what has YHWH answered? And, what has YHWH spoken? And the burden of YHWH will you mention no more: because every man’s word will be his burden; because you have perverted the Words of the living Elohim, of YHWH of Hosts our Elohim. This is what you will say to the prophet, what has YHWH answered you and what has YHWH spoken? But since you say, the burden of YHWH; therefore this is what YHWH declares; Because you say this word, “the burden of YHWH”, and I have sent to you saying, You will not say, “the burden of YHWH”; Therefore note, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your forefathers, and will cast you out of my presence:

Chapter 24

And I will bring an Age-Lasting reproach upon you, and an Age-Lasting shame that will not wither. YHWH showed me, and look, two baskets of figs were set before the Temple of YHWH after Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very bad figs that could not be eaten, they were so bad. Then YHWH said to me, what do you see Jeremiah? And I replied, figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that cannot be eaten, they are badness. Again the Word of YHWH came to me saying, This is what YHWH, the Elohim of Israel declares; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, who I have sent out of this Standing Place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good. Because I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will return them again to this land: and I will rebuild them and not pull them down; and I will plant them and not pluck them up. And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am YHWH: and they will be my people and I will be their Elohim: because they will return to me with their whole heart.

Chapter 25

And like the bad figs that are not eaten for badness, surely so declares YHWH: So do I make Zedekiah king of Judah and his chiefs, and the remnant of Jerusalem, who are left in this land, and who are living in the land of Egypt, And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their calamity, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I will drive them.

And I will send the sword, the famine, and the plague, among them until they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their ancestors. The Word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; Which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem saying, From the 13th year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even to this day, that is the 23rd year, the Word of YHWH has come to me and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking; but you have not listened. And YHWH has sent to you all his slaves the prophets, rising early and sending them; but you have not listened, or inclined your ear to hear. They said, turn you again now everyone from his bad way, and from the badness of your practices and live in the land that YHWH has given to you and to your ancestors for the ages of ages: And go not after other elohim to serve them and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no bad. Still you have not listened to me, declares YHWH; that you might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt. Therefore this is what YHWH of Hosts declares; Because you have not heard my Words, Watch, I will send and take all the families of the North says YHWH, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon my slave, and will bring them against this land, its inhabitants, and against all these surrounding nations. And I will Devote them to Destruction, and make them an appalment and a hissing, and an Age-Lasting waste. Moreover I will take from them the voice of rejoicing, and the voice of gaiety, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the hand-mills, and the light of the candle. And this whole land will be a desolation and an appalment; and these nations will serve the king of Babylon 70 years.

And it will come to pass, when 70 years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation declares YHWH, for their depravity and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it an Age-Lasting waste. And I will bring on that land all my Words that I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this scroll that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. Because a number of nations and great kings will make slaves of them, and I will compensate them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands. Because this is what YHWH Elohim of Israel says to me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to where I send you, to drink it. And they will drink, and be tossed to and fro, and act madly, because of the sword that I will send among them. Then I took the cup at YHWH's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to wherever YHWH had sent me: Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, and its kings, and its chiefs, to make them a waste, an appalment, a hissing and a curse; as it is this day; Pharaoh king of Egypt and his slaves, and his princes, and all his people;

And all the mixed races of people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod, Edom, Moab, and the children of Ammon; And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles that are beyond the sea, Dedan, Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the cut off extremities; And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed races of people that live in the desert; And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; And all the kings of the North, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world that are on the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach will drink after them. Therefore you will say to them, This is what YHWH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel declares; Drink and be drunken, vomit and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword that I will send among you. And it will be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you will say to them, This is what YHWH of Hosts declares; You will certainly drink. For lo, I begin to bring bad on the city that is called by my Name, and should you be utterly unpunished? You will not be unpunished: because I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth declares YHWH of Hosts. Therefore prophesy against them all these Words and say to them, YHWH will roar from on high and utter his Voice from his Sacred Habitation. He will mightily roar on his Abode of Shepherds; he will give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

